Mrs. Moore was born in Seymour. She had lived in Spearman for 35 years. She married Ray Moore in 1937 at Canadian. She was a member of First Baptist Church and the Holt Extension Homemakers Club.

Survivors include her husband; two daughters, Gayle Porter of Canyon and Kay Doyle of Springfield, Colo.; two sons, Doug Moore of Berry St. Edmunds, England, and Randy Moore of Plainview; two sisters, Alma Alverson of Bovina and Myrtle Marchback of Childress; a brother, Joe Douglas of Friona; and 13 grandchildren.

Scott Dunlap & Steve Burke Qualify to State

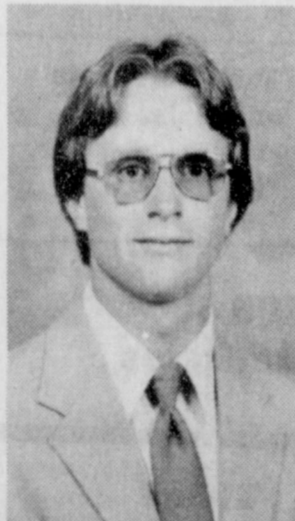

Coach Rickey Smith took 3 Lynx Tracksters to compete in the Regional Track Meet, being proud of all three SCOTT DUNLAP, MARK GUTHRIE and STEVE BURKE--a Senior, Junior and Sophomore, respectively. Coach Smith came home even prouder, as two of his Lynx Track Stars qualified to the State Meet he will plan to do better this year, since it is his Senior year. Scott placed 2nd at the Regional with a jump of 6-6, second only to Clay Seale of Electra, who jumped an "electra-fying" 6-8. Scott still will be competing in the State Track Meet this weekend, May 13 and 14 at Austin, but he will be trying to better his jump and placing from last year. Mind-you, placing in a State Meet is very hard and difficult, a person has to be very good to place in the State Meet!!

Congratulations to Steve Burke and Scott Dunlap for qualifying to State, and to Mark Guthrie for doing a fine job at the Regional Meet.

Steve Burke being a Sophomore and all, was really inexperienced as far as Regional competition was concerned, but Steve proved to everyone except for Tim Tittle of Frenship that he was good enough to compete in the State Meet. Steve tossed the DISCUS 162-4", placing second only to Frenship's Tittle, who tossed the Discus 170-8". Now Steve will be competing in the State Track Meet at Austin this weekend, May 13 and 14. Steve proved to a lot of folks that he can hold his own and then some. Now, at the State Meet, Steve will also be inexperienced in the State Competition, but all he needs to do is concentrate, and he will do a great job at the State Track Meet.

The other Lynx Trackster that qualified to State is Scott Dunlap. Scott is a Senior, and this will be his 2nd trip to Austin, in a row!! Scott placed 5th last year at the State Meet,

Scott Dunlap

Cost of the meal is $4.00 per person.

To a lot of people today, driving excitement can only mean a car that offers plenty of luxury and comfort, and plenty of room to enjoy it all. At Pontiac, we understand. Because that is a great description of the full-size 1983 Pontiac Parisienne.

Summer Camping Program for Girl Scouts

Yucca Council offers many camping opportunities for Girl Scouts in their council. The council offers two resident camps and Day Camps within each neighborhood.

Boiling Springs Resident Camp near Woodward, is located on a beautiful wooded campsite which offers a great opportunity for outdoor living. Units will participate in such activities as cook-outs, hikes, crafts, nature study, camp fire, dramatics and swimming. Some campers will live in cabins and have most of their meals in the dining hall while some will live in tents and cook many of their meals outdoors. The bike unit is very popular, with girls spending at least two days on a bike trip away from camp.

The Special Cadette Unit is for girls who have completed the eighth and ninth grade. This group plans their own program which may include trips, backpacking, water sports and other activities. Older girls may be selected as program aides, sharing their skills with campers and assist staff in many ways. Senior Girls Scouts also have the opportunity to apply for a trip to Savannah, Georgia. The highlight of the trip will be a day at Juliette

Gordon Low's birthplace in Savannah, ending with a dinner the Low family might have eaten in 1880, dressed in gown with the period.

Adventure I offers a first experience at residence camp for younger girls. The camp program will offer a wide variety of activities, all of them providing learning and fun in the out-of-doors. This camp is for second, third and fourth graders. Camp Gibson near Hardesty, is a lovely site near the Beaver River with excellent facilities for nature study and games and its own swimming pool. Campers and staff will be housed in modern dormitories and will have their meals together in central dining hall.

Day Camps are provided through Neighborhoods which set dates and locations of day Camps. Day Camp gives every girl a chance to learn more about herself and the world around her as she works with others in out-door activities. Girls have discovered that the most exciting adventure in the out-of-doors is camping. For Girl Scouts, camping means learning to live comfortably and safely in nature's world-day and night, winter and summer in good weather and bad. Camping is not only fun and adventure, it is a way to achieve growth and happiness.

For further information on the camping program contact the Yucca Girl Scout Council in Guymon, Oklahoma.

Forced deposit law will clean out your pocketbook

A legislative bill has been introduced that will have a great impact on the consumers of Texas. It will require you to pay a deposit on returnable containers. We urge you to let your Texas legislator know how you feel about this costly legislation by letter or phone call. If you need further information the Texas Resource and Environmental Council who oppose this type of legislation will be happy to work with you.

An active group in Texas is working for passage of forced deposit law which they state will end Texas' litter problem. We want you to know that the only thing this law will really clean is your pocketbook.

HERE'S WHY...with the forced deposit law, YOU'LL HAVE TO PAY AT LEAST 5 CENTS IN DEPOSIT FOR EVERY BEER OR SOFT DRINK you buy in glass, plastic or aluminum containers.

To get your deposit back, YOU'LL HAVE TO SPEND MORE GAS AND MORE TIME. Because the forced deposit law requires you to return your empty containers to the store where you bought them or to another store that sells THE PARTICULAR BRAND OF BEVERAGE YOU BOUGHT. And before you get your deposit back, chances are YOU'LL HAVE TO WAIT IN LINE TO GET ALL YOUR CANS AND BOTTLES COUNTED.

But that's just the beginning. THE GROCER'S HANDLING COSTS OF CANS AND BOTTLES WILL VIRTUALLY EXPLODE. First, the store needs someone to count and refund all deposits. Then, all those containers must be sorted by brand name for collection. While the piles of unwashed containers are waiting for pick-up, THEY COULD ATTRACT HORDES OF RODENTS AND PESTS, necessitating frequent and costly pest control. Finally, when the trucks from each distributor arrive, the containers must be recounted and checked for brand consistency.

Baker & Taylor Drilling Company

It's a cumbersome process. And costly. Because unlike our voluntary recycling system that pays for itself, and PAYS TEXAS CONSUMERS OVER $20 MILLION A YEAR, the forced deposit law will result in higher prices. In fact, PRICES IN FORCED DEPOSIT STATES PROVE THAT ALL THE COSTS GET PASSED ALONG TO THE CONSUMER.

The real irony of the forced deposit law is that Texas already has the best voluntary recycling program in the nation. Last year, we recycled in excess of 73% of all aluminum cans sold, and another 26 million pounds of glass. Those percentages are quickly approaching the recycling percentages in forced deposit states. But While Texas consumers are MAKING money recycling those states are paying for it.

So the next time you hear about how forced deposits are going to clean up Texas, HANG ON TO YOUR WALLET. AND THINK ABOUT HOW MUCH WE HAVE TO LOSE.

Cowboy Stuff

Thinking Americans have long realized that Hollywood's portrayal of American cowboys has been an inaccurate and romantic myth.

A new Library of Congress exhibit in Washington confirms this conclusion.

The exhibit notes that most cowboys were unarmed, paid poorly, worked long hours (usually for eastern cattle syndicates, not ranch owners).

They seldom had enough money to come to town. They ate poorly and slept in the open on long cattle drives.

The best of the myth debunking, however, is assertion that cowboys could seldom sing.

For all of us who liked our cowboys to be genuine, straight shooting he-men, this comes as a great relief.

When the singing cowboy appeared, in the late thirties, it was a terribly painful turn.

Bankers Mike Schnell and Jim Shirley visit with Mr. and Mrs. Owen Montgomery at the recent opening of Jan's Fashions.

CRIME DOWN
The number of serious crimes reported to police in America dropped 4 percent in 1982, according to FBI figures released recently. It was the sharpest decline in five years.

The Consumer Alert by Jim Mattox Attorney General

AUSTIN-Everyone finances a car purchase at one time or another, and with the credit purchase goes the risk of "repossession." Many consumers want to know whether the lender has the right to repossess the car and whether it is legal to do so. Whether or not it is legal depends on the terms of the sales contract. All sales contracts will contain certain provisions such as: 1. The right of the lender or seller to repossess the automobile if the "security interest" is jeopardized. 2. The requirement that the purchaser carry insurance on the automobile, and 3. The right of repossession if the purchaser fails to pay. Whenever the lender or seller feels his security interest is in danger or the buyer fails to buy the insurance agreed to in the sales contract, or fails to make payments, the lender may repossess the automobile as long as no "breach of the peace" is committed. Usually the lender will notify the consumer of the repossession and at the lender's option the consumer may have the alternative of bringing the payments up to date instead of having the automobile repossessed. If your automobile is repossessed, the lender must notify you when the automobile will be sold at auction and must account to you for any excess money if it is sold for more than is owed under the contract. Consumers should be careful, though. If after repossession you sign a statement giving up your right to be notified, you may have no way of knowing if any money is due you. The proceeds of the repossession sale are applied, first, to cover expenses incurred in repossessing the automobile, preparing it for resale, and then to pay off the purchaser's debt to the lender. If there is a surplus, it must be given to the purchaser. The law works both ways, and sometimes the consumer may owe the seller some money after the accounting. Usually, though, the consumer is entitled to a refund from the seller or lender. Far too few consumers realize this and fail to claim their rightful refunds. If you encounter any problem contact your local Better Business Bureau or the Attorney General's Office, Consumer Protection Division, nearest you. Texas' Attorney General has offices in Austin, Dallas, El Paso, Houston, Lubbock, McAllen and San Antonio.

Marvin Byers in Special Olympics

Saturday, April 23, 1983 the Activity Center at West Texas State University was filled with balloons; a parade; bands; dignitaries; and athletes.

The event was the Special Olympics. Participating from Spearman was Marvin Byers. Marvin joined over 200 other Special Olympians in a day full of excitement, fun, and accomplishment.

Marvin began his day marching in the opening parade. He visited with many friends and celebrities such as wrestler Ricky Romero and the Amarillo Armadillo.

Marvin entered the 50 meter dash, the softball throw and the frisbee throw. Marvin did excellent in all three events.

Tommy Maxwell, former professional football player, presented Marvin with a 4th place ribbon for the 50 meter dash.

The coaches and fans traveling with Marvin were Joyce Byers, Becky Byers, Carol Yarbough, and Sue Woolley. We are proud of Marvin - our very special olympian.

Harold B. Ligon, MD Let's look at the human-to-human virus diseases of hepatitis A and hepatitis B. These two viral diseases are inflammatory conditions of the liver, and they were formerly called infectious hepatitis and serum hepatitis, respectively.

(Remember now, there are other causes of hepatitis, but our discussion is confined generally to viral hepatitis.)

The liver is one of the major organs of the body, and an inflammatory process involving this organ can be a very serious clinical situation! It can be fatal.

Hepatitis A is less serious and is generally spread by water and food borne contacts; fecal-oral contact; and just plain person-to-person contact.

There are blood tests that can suggest hepatitis A (and differentiate between A and B).

Our discussion mainly points out the difference between the origin of hepatitis A and B.

Hepatitis A is mainly spread by contact as described above; hepatitis B is usually transmitted by needles.

Preservation Week

AUSTIN--"Preservation is Housing America" has been proclaimed as the theme for National Historic Preservation Week, May 8-14. In Texas, this heritage awareness week is sponsored by the Texas Historical Commission and the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

Some 5,000 preservation and neighborhood groups in the nation will hold events in honor of Preservation Week. Their purpose is to make the public aware of the important contribution historic buildings are making to the prosperity of America's cities and towns, particularly in meeting the critical need for affordable housing.

"Living in old houses makes good sense for everyone. It keeps neighborhoods healthy and supports the tax base of cities. Historic buildings are the anchors of our community," according to Texas Historical Commission Executive Director Curtis Tunnell.

The issue of housing was chosen as the theme for the eleventh Preservation Week because new economic realities make preservation and rehabilitation a viable alternative to demolition and new construction, and an economically preferred approach to the demand for housing in this country. Virtually one-third of the country's total housing stock is more than 40 years old—a substantial resource of almost 27 million units.

The Texas Historical Commission, the state agency for historic preservation and sponsor of Preservation Week in Texas, provides a variety of educational and consulting services. The Commission's 18 governor-appointed members oversee a staff of professional historians, archeologists, architects, museologists, and experts in related fields. The THC works closely with some 250 county historical commissions and numerous nonprofit heritage groups across the state. The commission also is Texas' liaison office with federal agencies on preservation projects.

The National Trust, responsible for Preservation Week across the country, is the only national, private, nonprofit, membership organization dedicated to the preservation of historic buildings, districts, and maritime resources in the country. Chartered by Congress in 1949, the Trust provides technical and advisory services to its member organizations through its Washington headquarters and six regional offices.

For further information about preservation activities in your community, contact your county historical commission or the Texas Historical Commission, P.O. Box 12276, Austin, TX 78711.

Texas Federation of Women's Club has 86th annual convention

The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs had their 86th annual convention in Corpus Christi April 27-29. The women who attended from Borger have returned home with renewed enthusiasm for the volunteer work they do. Attending from Potpourri Junior Women's Club were Connie Mebane, State Associate & District Junior Director; Karen Sterrett, Secretary and State Resolutions Committee; and Kathy Sheets, District Publicity. Mrs. Bill Griffin, a member of Adelante and Top of Texas District President, carried a pound of panhandle soil with her to be used in the planting of the anniversary tree in South Bluff Park. There was a sack of dirt from each of the 14 districts and also one from the TFWC headquarters in Austin and the State Presidents garden, Mrs. Sammie Skiles. Those 16 sacks of dirt were 16 different colors - from dark black and brown to bright red and pale sandy.

At the general session it was announced that TFWC now has 9 $1,000 scholarships available to be awarded to college students. Interested persons should contact a local federated club to obtain information and application forms.

The assembly voted to endorse Mrs. B.M. Sims from Wellington for GFWC Treasurer. She will be officially presented at TFWC Fall Board in Dallas, Sept. 28-30, 1983, and the South Central Conference Oct. 1-3 in Dallas.

A very interesting talk was given by Nancy Burgess about The Experiment in International Living, Brattleboro, Vermont 05301. She brought two exchange students with her from the Oklahoma City area, a girl from Italy and a boy from Holland. They charmed the audience with their zest for living and meeting new people in strange far away places. For fifty years, the Experiment has been dedicated to establishing peaceful relations among people through person-to-person contact in Homestay programs.

State awards were announced at the general session and Adelante's Linda Turner won First Place for her report on Girlstown, USA. This year TFWC helped support 144 girls on four campuses with $10,672 and countless volunteer hours. Potpourri won a First Place for their yearbook and an honorable mention for the cover. In all Top of Texas District won 25 State awards, placing second in the State.

Guest speaker at Thursday's luncheon was Betty Turner, Mayor Pro Tem of Corpus Christi, who welcomed TFWC to the "Sparkling City by the Sea". She stressed that in this society the news media informs almost before an event occurs. Because of this instant coverage a vocal few can cause change. Women must work at staying informed so that they can speak out in a unified voice when the need arises. Right now TFWC is working to get legislation passed concerning child restraints, drunk driving, water and a ban on TV advertising of feminine hygiene products.

During a break between meetings Thursday afternoon twelve juniors packed into a van belonging to Cheryl Brown, State Junior Director from Victory, for a beautiful drive out to Padre Island. Those who had never seen the ocean before ran out into the water and through the sand in their stocking feet before hurrying back to the motel to change for the banquet. The olive trees were in full bloom and every yard was full of color making the ride most pleasant even for those with wet, sandy feet like Connie and Karen.

The guest speaker Thursday night was Juanita Bryant, GFWC International President from North Carolina. During her term in office she has visited every state in the union and several countries. Most recently she went around the world from Hawaii, Guam, Korea, Cambodia, India and Saudi Arabia to England and home to New York and Washington D.C. In each of the countries she visited with federated club women and learned first-hand about the varied projects they are involved in. In Cambodia she saw them helping to feed and clothe thousands of refugees in a military camp. She said Volunteerism is the biggest business in the world with over 10 million volunteers working internationally. Most of all her trip overseas have made her appreciate these United States of America because there is no finer place to live. One of the most important things women can do today is instill in their children a sense of patriotism, love for God and Country.

Top of Texas District women were presented with two special awards at the banquet. The State Poet Laureate was Lois Ratliff from Wellington. She won two 1st and one 2nd in the poetry contests. Terry Swink from Serendi pity Junior Club in Perryton was named GFWC-TFWC Outstanding Junior Volunteer. She flew down with the delegation from Borger to receive the award in person. In addition to serving on several committees in her own club and being chosen Outstanding New Member by her club and District, she is a Cub Scout Leader, 4-H leader, member of the First Christian Church of Perryton and Beta Sigma Phi. She serves on the Parent-Advisory Board for Elementary School, committee for Miss Perryton and Little Miss Perryton Pageants, and United Way. She and her husband Larry have two children, Adam 10 and Amber, 5. He is a rancher-farmer and raises quarter horses.

Charlotte Sutton, Hewitt, was the speaker at the Junior Luncheon on Friday. She was State Junior Director last term. She brought tears to many eyes as she related specific instances where a clubwoman made a big difference. As a volunteer for Meals on Wheels she helped a lady who had fallen and broken her hip. She helped to buy hospital equipment such as the Apnea mattresses which save infants lives every day who would otherwise fall victim to crib death. She learned CPR at a club-sponsored seminar and knew what to do to help a man who had had a heart attack. She works in hospitals, day care centers and the JLC center for the mentally handicapped. Each and every volunteer hour and dollar given goes towards making the world a better place, and no amount of money could pay for all the services that volunteers provide.

Grain Sorghum Board requests nominations

Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board has set September 15, 1983 as the date for its biennial election of directors. Three sorghum farmers will be elected to the board for six year terms. They will fill positions of directors whose terms expire this fall.

The Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board is responsible for the administration of collections and expenditures of grain sorghum assessments from the twenty-nine county area of the Texas High Plains in which TGSPB operates. Any sorghum farmer within this area is eligible to have his name placed on the ballot.

A nomination requires the farmer's signature to certify that he is willing to serve and the signatures of ten other sorghum farmers who are also subject to the TGSPB assessment. All nominations must be received by TGSPB by August 15, 1983. Nomination forms may be requested from the TGSPB office, Box R, Abernathy, Texas 79311.

On September 1, ballots will be mailed to sorghum farmers whose names are on file in the TGSPB office. Ballots will also be available in the office of each county agent in the twenty-nine county TGSPB area.

The TGSPB assessment is used to carry on a program of market development and research to improve the profitability of sorghum production. TGSPB was established by a referendum of sorghum producers in 1969. Counties included are: Armstrong, Baily, Brisco, Carson, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dallam, Dawson, Deaf Smith, Floyd, Gaines, Hale, Hansford, and Hartley. Also included are: Hockley, Hutchinson, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Moore, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Sherman, Swisher, Terry and Yoakum.

About Tea Bags

One of the instructions often given those who drink tea is the strict admonition never to make more than one cup of tea from a tea bag.

The tea won't be fresh, it won't be strong enough, it won't taste right. Etc. That's a very good idea for the tea-bag manufacturer.

The more people who throw away tea bags after one filling of the cup, the faster the sales of new tea bags!

But for most teas, including good new spice teas, several cups of tea can be made from one bag.

There's no great loss of quality, especially if the tea is made within a short period of time. It's only a matter of common sense.

Jan & Jean Davis Place at State Meet

Jan and Jean Davis participated in the State Track Meet held at Austin this past weekend and did very well.

Jan performed in the 400 Meter Dash. Jan in previous appearances had done very well, and as a Senior, Jan performed with her best qualities placing in 5th Place. NOTE FROM SPORTS DESK: At the State Competition, it is very hard to place because there is more competition than at the Regional and the District, and also a lot tougher competition. So placing in the State Meet is like winning a championship. Jan has had a great year as a Trackster, but she has also had a great career as a Lynxette!! As y'all should recall, Jan has competed in the State Meet all 4 years of her high school career as Lynxette. Jan also played basketball, being a varsity starter since she was a Junior. She was on the Regional Lynxette Basketball Team. Jan was the sole recipient of the Track Award her Freshman year, as she was the sole contender at the State Track Meet in Austin as a Freshman. But then Jan started "sharing" her Track Award during her Sophomore, Junior and Senior years with twin sister, Jean, for both started qualifying in the State Meet. This year, as a Senior, Jan received one of the biggest, most honorable awards as a Lynxette, and also in the State of Texas. Jan was the recipient of the Prep All-American Girl Athletes. That is spectacular, extra-super!! Why? Is it because Jan is from Spearman? The reason that this Award, the Prep All-American Girl Athletes of the Nation, is because only 2 are awarded per State, giving a total of 50 all together. That is terrific, but what is more terrific is that...

Jan Davis, Jan's twin sister, received the other Texas Prep All-American Girl Athlete. That is what is super-great. Because both awards were given in the same town, Spearman. As Jean participated in the State Meet for the 3rd time in her 4-year career, Jean was excited, for this was her first time in participating in the 200 Meter Dash. NOTE FROM SPORTS DESK: As y'all should remember, Jean had qualified in the 800 Meter Run. This year Jean was sick and could not compete in the 800 Meter Run, but did compete in the 200 Meter Dash -- which was the event before the 800 Meter Run. Jean won the event, but then became ill and could not compete in the 800, in which I'm sure she could have also qualified to State!! So Jean went out to the Austin Track Field to compete for the 3rd time in the State Meet, but the 1st time in this particular event. Jean ran a 26.9, outstanding time for the 200 Meter Dash, but was out run by 5 others. Jean placed 6th. Like I said before, it is very difficult to place in the State Track Meet, because the best talent in Texas is there, and there are going to be lots of gals that will not even place, although they would appear to have the best time from the District or Region. Jean, also played basketball, playing the Varsity since she was a Junior. She was on the Regional Basketball Team. Jean won the Track Award, sharing it with Jan, her sister, for 3 years -- her Sophomore, Junior and Senior years, and as a Senior Jean was chosen as the "Fighting Heart Lynxette" -- this is an annual event given to a talented basketball Lynxette that stands out beyond her teammates for some reason or another, and is awarded to the person at the annual Athletic Banquet!!

Jan and Jean Davis did have a successful trip to Austin in the State Meet, for they placed 5th and 6th respectively. For those gals that didn't place at all, they went home disappointed for they were unsuccessful. So if you see Jan and Jean Davis at school, at the track, at the movies or on the drag, wave them down and congratulate, let them know that you feel that they did a great job. It would mean the world to them to hear that from you.

We congratulate Jan and Jean Davis for having a great career as Lynxettes, for receiving the Track Award, Jean for the Fighting Heart Lynxette Award, and to both for being chosen the Prep All-American Girl Athletes from Texas!!

WIDY-JUKEDW?

The origin of the Arabian horse remains a zoological mystery. Experts can't agree on its origins. Some historians argue that its ancestry traces to the wild horses in northern Syria, southern Turkey or Arabia. We do know that by 1500 B.C., people of the East had developed mastery over the hot blooded horses that were the forerunners of the breed that has come to be known as Arabian.

Historic artifacts dating back to the 16th Century B.C. testify to the high honor paid to the Arabian horse. Its image appears on seals, rings, and various monuments. Egyptian hieroglyphics proclaimed its value and writings in the Old Testament are filled with references to the might and strength of the horse.

Today, there are more than 270,000 purebred Arabian horses registered in the U.S., more than in all the other countries of the world combined.

For free information on this proud and versatile breed, or for a list of breeders, write to the International Arabian Horse Association, 224 East Olive Avenue, Dept. P, Burbank, CA 91503.

Rodeo Team Performs Well

The Spearman Rodeo team did a fine job at the Tri-State Rodeo in Dumas.

Mark Pearson placed 5th in the BAREBACKS with a score of 58, Hadley Reed tied with Wolforth's Scott Turner who both had a score of 54. Mark is a Sophomore at SHS and Hadley is a Junior.

That ended the placing for the SHS Cowboys.

The SHS Cowgirl, Andrea Archer, placed 4th in the POLE BENDING with a time of 21.609. Andrea is a Sophomore.

Thus far the Current Leaders in the Tri-State Rodeo includes Hadley Reed leader in the BAREBACKS with a 64 1/2 points. Hadley is also leading in the CALF ROPING category with a total of 37 points. Hadley is the leading Cowboy in the ALL-AROUND COWBOY Category with 124 1/2 points. So as you can see, Hadley is really working hard this year, he did get hurt this year, but you can see it hasn't slowed him down one bit.

Travis Patterson is the other SHS Cowboy that is a leader in a department. Travis and his Wheeler "amigo", Randy Martin, are leaders of the TEAM ROPING Event!! These are very important standings!!

Senator Bill Sarpalius Reports

LEMON LAWS

AUSTIN -- We have heard complaints from automobile owners in the Panhandle who have been the unfortunate possessors of a lemon car or truck. We have also heard testimony at the state capitol from people who are frustrated with the lack of consumer protection in this state in regard to lemon automobiles.

One automobile owner recently testified at the state capitol that her 1978 stationwagon had been in for repairs 54 times without ever being properly repaired. The repairs on that one automobile ranged from three rebuilt engines, to numerous transmission repairs and a series of fuel line adjustments.

The cases involving lemon automobiles in Texas are many. Texans invest a lot of money in the automobile industry. In fact, Texas ranks in the top five in the nation in the number of car buyers. We have a problem with lemon automobiles here, and the Texas Senate has decided to take action which will better protect the automobile consumers in Texas.

The Texas Senate has voted to make automobile dealers and manufacturers liable for cars and trucks that turn out to be lemons. Under this new legislation, if the manufacturer or distributor is unable to make repairs to conform the vehicle to the express warranty after a reasonable number of attempts, the manufacturer or distributor must replace the vehicle with a comparable one, or accept return of the vehicle, and refund to the owner the full purchase price, less a reasonable allowance for owner use. Senate Bill 1141 will require dealers and manufacturers to replace a vehicle or to refund the price of the automobile, if the vehicle has been in for repairs four times during the warranty period, or if it had been out of service for 30 or more business days during that time.

Under this Bill, dissatisfied owners would have to complain to the Texas Motor Vehicle Commission about an alleged failure to make satisfactory repairs to the vehicle under terms of the warranty. The Commission would then review the case and determine if the manufacturer should be ordered to furnish the customer with a new automobile or a refund.

The recently approved lemon law passed by the Texas Senate means there will be new regulation of manufacturers and sellers of new motor vehicles and new protection for the purchaser of a new motor vehicle.

If you have any questions about Senate Bill 1141 or any other legislation, please contact us. Please write to Senator Bill Sarpalius, P. O. Box 12068, Austin, Texas 78711.
