BOOK REVIEW

This week I introduce to you a guest reviewer, Frances Sheets, who has written our book review of the week. "20 Years at Hull House" is a story by Jane Addams telling of her life before and during her first 20 years at Hull House. 20 Years at Hull House is the 2nd of Miss Addams books. All of Jane Addams writings were done to promote social betterment, to promote social betterme never for distinction or fame.

After graduation from Rork-ford Seminary, Jane traveled and studied in Europe and the United States. During her travels she was often confronted by the ter-rible conditions of the poorer and less fortunate class of people many of whom were foreigners. whom were foreigners many of In 1889 Jane Addams and Miss Ellen G. The Homemaking 3 girls went to Amarillo Friday morning at 6 o'clock. We went through the Great West Flour Mill. We saw how the flour was made and how many machines it went through before it was ready to use. Then we went through the Pinkney Packing Co. They gave us ten pounds of weiners. Most of the girls ate a few after we saw how the weiners were made. We also went through the bakery. We told them we needed some bread to eat with our weiners, but they to eat with our weiners, but they were not so generous. We went through Borden's Plant, the Orphans home, the hospital, the Cocc Cola Factory and the jail. The jail was the most interesting to us. The sheriff explained to us how criminals were caught, and he put in a radio call for us in order to explain how they give order to explain how they give and receive news about criminals.

The members of Home Ec. 1 are now making slips, pajamas and underwear. They are busily engaged in learning the art of sewing and work very hard. 23 girls, mostly freshmen are taking this subject.
For several weeks after school started, seams were studied with the aid of Miss McLain. Then the girls planned their garments, making a chart to go by until Nov. 29.
For home projects they will make dresses, slips or pajamas.
New curtains, a new electric machine and new table linens have been added and the laboratory is now very attractive.

finished soon.

In our geography class we have taken up the study of the Oriental Countries. Everyone has been studying the words too. We shall be graded on spelling in tests from now on.

Our Choral Clubs are planning to help out in the black-face program to be given soon. The money taken in at this program will go to the junior band, I understand.

Several new suits are seen in our physical education class now.

The boys and girls are ordering blue gym suits. We have both taken up basketball.

Our class is planning to give 2 plays in PTA Tuesday. The first one "Being Hospitable at School" shows the wrong way and the right way to do things. The second play "There Are Ways of Doing Things" shows what happens to Grouches, and what happens to Cheers. We want our parents to be prezent at PTA. We want to keep the globe another month. So when they call Miss Lawrence's room 6th grade parents stand up.

Visitors, we are waiting for you.

The 2nd grade gave a dramatization of 'Mother Goose in Hall Land' for the Auditorium program Friday. The following pupils played: Mother goose. Lec Marie Daeus; Tommy Tu'ker P. K. # SOUR NOTES FROM THE SPEARMAN HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Here is a brief account of the band's activities at Perryton:
We played nearly all the pieces we know including Shoutin Liza Trombone, and American Legion.
We next went on the field to put on the snappiest drill we have ever put on. This program was as follows. We entered from the SE corner facing the north. We next turned a left square corner to face the west. After marching corner facing the north. We next turned a left square corner to face the west. After marching but a short distance we commencer playing Queen City. Upon reaching the W end of the field we countermarched and stopped playing; the drums also stopped beating immediately after for two phrases. In other words we marched 16 steps with out the drumbs. After turning a left and right for and an oblique to the right we reached the east end and countermarched. Upon reaching the center of the field we were stopped by the drum major. When she gave the signal we exceuted the squadron drill. This drill is made by the band splitting into four parts and each going in a different direction. Immediately after completing this drill we started playing again. As soon as we were started good our prize stunt began when Peter Vernon fainted. Irvin Davis immediately ran to tell the drum major what had happened, whereupon the band was stopped. Peter was carried off the field and Jim Swaim was told to warm up. Jim ran up and down the sidelines tooting his trombone, after which time he was told by Mr. Rattan to get in there and win for dear old Spearman high. After Jim had told Peter she would bring her smelling salts next time. The band is planning their semi-annual band concert some semi-annual band concert some time in the early part of Dec. Work on this project has already begun. We have about 6 overtures from which we shall play at least two. There shall also be a band sweetheart contest this year. This contest will be run approximately the same as last year. The candidates have last yet heep closes.

there and win for dear old Spearman high. After Jim had reported to the drum major he was put in place and the band marched off the field. One person as last year. The candidates have not yet been chosen.

We are giving this concert and contest to raise money for two things: First we hope to reach is to buy another French horn. If we can make enough from the concert and the sweetheart contest we shall also purchase a bell lyre. A good French horn costs at least $75 and a bell lyre worth anything costs $65 so you worth anything costs $65 so you see we need at least $140 clear money from this program.
