Asked at his news conference whether he thinks he will get such a law from congress, he told a reporter, your guess is as good as mine.

Mr. Truman said rising prices—his called them substantial—had followed the collapse of price control and predicted they would go higher unless controls are re-instituted.

Committee Pondering Procedure Of Calling Rep. May As Witness

WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP)—The senate war investigating committee reported today that it has uncovered "new evidence" in its war profits inquiry into a midwest munitions combine.

The "new evidence" delayed a committee decision on what steps it might take in hailing Chairman May (D-Ky) of the house military committee before it for a public explanation of his activities in connection with the combine.

At the close of today's executive session, Francis Flanagan of committee counsel announced the discovery of the new evidence, but flatly refused to disclose to reporters even an "inkling" of its nature or whom it involved.

The chairman told newsmen that the committee is "not satisfied" with Garson's statement that he is unable to leave Havana because of ill health, and will consult with its chief counsel, George Meader, as to the legal possibilities in connection with both Garson and May.

Gene Talmadge Back In Saddle In Georgia

ATLANTA, July 18 (AP)—Former Governor Eugene Talmadge, exponent of "white supremacy," maintained a wide lead today in Georgia's race for governor as tabulation of returns from yesterday's primary election proceeded with nearly half a million votes counted.

At mid-day Talmadge had carried or was leading in counties having a unit vote total of 234 while 36-year-old James V. Carmichael, backed by Governor Ellis Arnall, had taken or was ahead in counties having 156 votes.

Carmichael was leading in the popular vote but that means nothing in Georgia—the unit votes tell the story in much the same way as the US Electoral College operates.

Keep Congressmen In Office, Texas' Veteran Johnson Urges

WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP)—Rep. Luther A. Johnson (D-Tex.), who announced his resignation yesterday to assume a judgeship on the United States tax court, urged voters to let their representatives make a career of their job by returning them to office in successive terms. Johnson appeared before the house for the last time as a member yesterday and voiced his approval of the seniority system. He has served for nearly 24 years.

"The member who comes here expecting to serve only a short time, and serves only a short time, cannot do justice to himself, his constituents and his country," Johnson said.

"Service in congress, to be at its best, should be in the nature of a career, and not merely temporary. Seniority may have its abuse and objections, but it is necessary to encourage and require length of service, which is highly desirable for the country's good."

He said states whose delegations served the longest in congress always took the highest rank. He said because of Texas' seniority, Texas always has had outstanding congressmen.

He said the matter of ability is also involved "but when a congressman has ability, character and devotion to duty, his constituents should keep him in congress as long as he will serve."

Numerous congressmen arose to pay tribute to Johnson, and Speaker Sam Rayburn expressed regret at his departure.

Rep. Thomason and Rep. Poage, both of Texas, and Rep. Moses (D-Mass.) paid tribute to Johnson.

Peaches Plentiful

Millions of bushels of peaches coming to market now give Howard county housewives an excellent opportunity to buy, serve and preserve them, L. H. Thomas, chairman of the county famine committee, said this morning.

This year's crop is expected to be the second largest on record, only slightly less than the 81,600,000 bushels sent to markets last year. More than 39,000,000 bushels will be harvested during the next few weeks.

Howard county's peach crop will probably be short, Thomas said, but the import is due to be heavy.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY PROVED SPECTACULAR, SHORT-LIVED

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff Pollyanna department: Maybe you did walk off and leave the radio going, burning out a couple of tubes. That's nothing to what happened down in Corpus Christi:

An elaborate fireworks display was planned, over 10,000 gathered for the hour-long display, but somebody accidentally set off the whole works and it went up in one mighty, spectacular blast—all at once.

The Caller-Times commented drily that the explosion was quite in keeping with the loud noise Americans like to make on July Fourth, but the incident certainly messed up a lot of fireworks.

Roberts, Governor By Odd Chance, Reduced Debt, Built Up Colleges

(This is the fifteenth in a series of articles on the governors of Texas. The next will appear in an early issue of The Herald. —Ed. Note.)
By PAUL BOLTON

AUSTIN. — Number fifteen in the list of men who were governors of Texas was Judge Oran M. Roberts and he was the only man to occupy the Colorado street mansion without intending to.

Here's how it happened. In August of 1878, the Democratic State Convention met in Austin. Incumbent Governor Richard Hubbard was out for a second term. Also aspiring to the governor's job were ex-Governor J. W. Throckmorton, (the impediment to Reconstruction governor) and Col. W. W. Lang, Master of the State "Grange."

The Austin weather was hot and the fight close. No candidate would "come over" so no nomination could be decided upon. That's when O. M. Roberts got his chance to be governor but he didn't know it.

After five hot days of wrangling and political cartwheels the delegates gave up and performed one of the strangest political dramas ever performed on the Texas political stage. A committee of 22, composed of friends of each contestant, was named. This committee in turn was told to vote for their favorites among the leading men of the state. Judge Roberts got a majority of 18 votes.

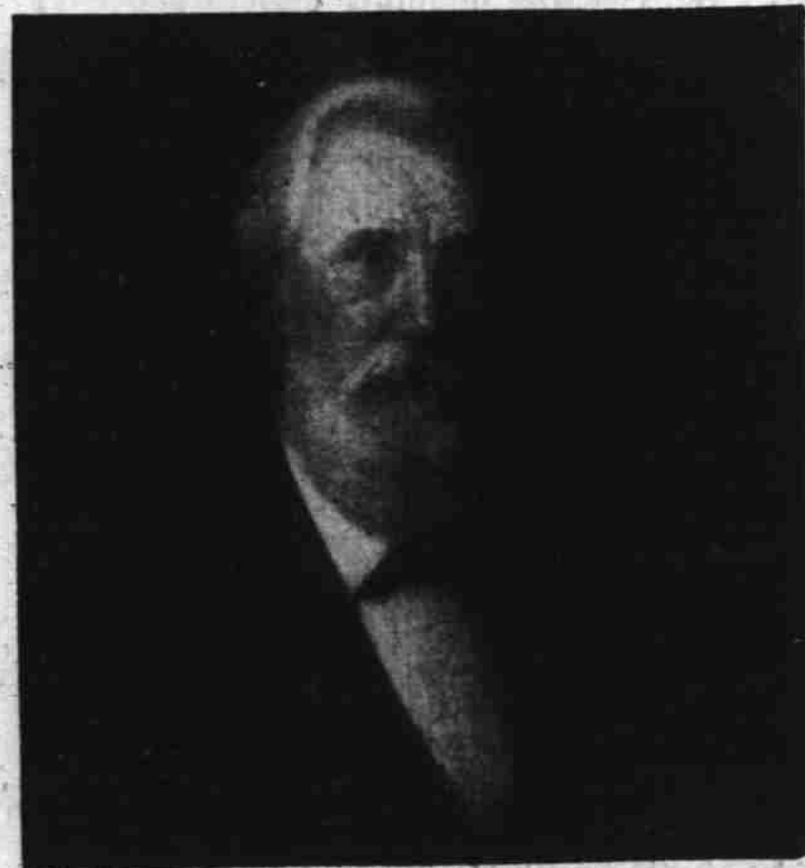

The Judge himself was on a small farm near Tyler. When a telegram arrived advising him that he had been nominated for governor, Roberts rode into town on a fan-tail spotted pony, in a historic Prince Albert coat and smoking a corn cob pipe. Friends in Tyler advised him to accept the nomination and he borrowed "four-bits" from a local bartender to wire the convention his acceptance.

A Civil War veteran and famous lawyer, Major Joe Sayers, was selected to run for lieutenant governor. Roberts and Sayers were elected by a large majority despite the opposition of the growing Greenback Party, which is described in Texas history as having been made up of all the disaffected elements of the state's political and social thinking. Roberts and Sayers were inaugurated on Jan. 21, 1879.

In the 1880 campaign, Roberts and Sayers split and both were out for the Democratic nomination held in Dallas that year. Sayers was put forward by the younger elements of the party who didn't think so much of Roberts' economic measures. But Judge Roberts won again and began his second term as governor on Jan. 11, 1881.

Both Roberts' administrations were characterized by his attempts to reduce the public debt. Texas expenses had been running above revenues since the Civil War. Roberts put a stop to that. At the same time he knocked the tax rate down from 50 cents on the hundred dollars to 30 cents. His policy was pay as you go and he was one of the first governors to make practical use of the vast public lands rather than let them remain idle and non tax producing. He didn't believe in a large public domain.

Despite his attempts to keep state expenditures within the bounds of revenues, Roberts built much and that which he built was permanent. By exchanging 3,000,000 acres of idle land in the Panhandle, he built the present state capitol in Austin to replace the old statehouse which burned on Nov. 8, 1881.

To legislative actions which sent the state's spending over the state's income, Roberts affixed his veto without delay. In fact, he forced the legislature to cut the public school appropriation to one sixth of the revenues from taxation, yet through the cooperation of teachers, the schools were taught longer and more efficiently than at any time before.

Despite his program to keep Texas out of the red, Roberts founded the Sam Houston and the now famous Prairie View Normal and rehabilitated Texas A&M. He also, after 50 years of delay, launched the University of Texas on its way.

Governor Roberts, being a jurist, was a stickler for following the law "to a T." His pardoning power got him in trouble. He was indifferent to public opinion and cared not a plugged nickel about the color of a defendant or the nature of his accused crime. Roberts pardoned a negro on a rape charge because there was not enough evidence. And one morning before dawn a friend came to the mansion and warned him that the papers and the people were saying that the state was going to hell under his use of the pardoning power.

Roberts replied: "If the country goes hell, under my rule, it will go according to law." Roberts held an impressive array of public offices in Texas including district attorney in San Augustine under Houston, one of eight district judges under Texas' first governor, Pinkney Henderson and he went to the Supreme Court in 1857. He's the justice that thought up the oath of allegiance when Texas joined the Confederacy which Houston refused to take, thus removing himself as governor of Texas and making way for Edward Clark.

Roberts quit the Supreme Court in 1862 to fight in the Civil War. After the war, Roberts and D. G. Burnett were elected to the US Senate but were refused their seats in Washington because Texas hadn't been Reconstructed enough yet.

In 1874, Roberts was appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court by Governor Coke. He resigned that office to serve his two terms as governor. Soon after leaving the governor's office, Roberts became a professor of law at the University of Texas. The only other law professor at UT then was Judge Robert S. Gould. Roberts spent his last years writing his famous "Fifty Years of Political, Legislative and Judicial History of Texas."

Governor Roberts died in Austin, May 29, 1898 at the age of 83. He's buried in the state cemetery in Austin.

Expense Limit For Precincts Put At $300

Candidates for the office of county commissioner from the various precincts will be allowed the maximum of $300 expenses for their campaign.

This was the information received by Co. Atty. H. C. Hooser from the attorney general's office in response to a question raised locally whether commissioners were county or precinct officers. The attorney general held that they are county officers and thus entitled to the maximum of $300 campaign expense. Precinct officers have a $150 limitation in counties the size of Howard county.

In another opinion furnished Hooser at his request, it was held that persons over-age who resided in the rural districts at the beginning of the year and who have since moved to town are entitled to vote without exemption certificates. Previously, the attorney general had held that it was not necessary for over-age persons who previously held "permanent" exemptions to secure exemptions, and more specifically that failure to get the renewal could not be grounds for disqualifications from voting.

THAT WAS WHEN QUINCY, Ill. — Records here show that in 1835-36 Capt. Nathaniel Pease purchased 3,500 hogs at an average cost of $3.75 a head. It was Pease's first year as a Quincy meat packer.

50-Cent Cotton Being Talked

NEW ORLEANS, July 18 (AP)—Talk of 40 and 50-cent cotton is being heard throughout the south, since OPA controls apparently are off the market for good, and 35 cents a pound has just been passed for the first time in more than a score of years.

Discussing the crop, which today is worth a potential $300,000,000 more than last June 1, J. E. McDonald, Texas commissioner of agriculture, predicts that the price may soar as high as 50 cents a pound within the next few months.

Another commissioner, Tom Linder of Georgia, comments that "cotton is cheap up to 50 cents a pound."

Linder, McDonald and others in official positions think the price of cotton has been too low for some time, and that the steady rise in prices during recent weeks will benefit the farmer economically.

HANDCUFFS SCARCE
SPRINGFIELD, O. — Add shortages: Only five pair of handcuffs are available at the Clark county jail in which to take prisoners from the jail to court. The city has been unable to buy additional handcuffs because of a national shortage.

Others point to poor crops in the wake of rain and weevils. They say the increase in price will amount to an economic break for the farmer, in lieu of his increasing labor costs and other production expenses.

The price of cotton on the New Orleans cotton exchange fluctuated under 35 cents a pound on July 16, after most months had closed well above the 35-cent mark the day before.

Exchange statistics show that cotton has increased about $30 a bale from June 1, 1946, or from about $144 to $175 per 500-pound bale.

Farm And Ranch News

By WACIL McNAIR
With cattle going to market at such a rapid clip here, some may wonder why prices are holding up so well, which in turn keep fresh meat prices at a high level at the butchers' counters. It seems to be a situation arising from nation-wide needs, rather than a purely local condition. Some local meat dealers believe that all prices will drop if given a little more time, but not until retailers everywhere replenish their stocks. There are areas, mostly in the north and east but some of them in the cattle country itself, which had virtually no meat for several months. Reports told of housewives standing in line for hours in many cities when meat deliveries were made to retailers. When the dealers in these areas get "caught up" and even distribution is again prevalent, prices should drop, and slaughterers and butchers here are certain they will. In their estimation, distribution inequities, caused chiefly by black markets, was one of the greatest fallacies in the OPA control.

Speaking of meats, Roy W. Snyder, meat specialist for the A&M college extension service, said people can "tenderize" tough beef considerably by more careful cutting and slicing. Here for the district six county agents' meeting, Snyder broke down half a beef carcass in a demonstration Wednesday for showing best results of preparing meat for quick freezing. "People must remember," he said, "that all of a steer cannot be turned into steaks."

It is becoming more apparent day by day that Howard county farmers are approaching their last chance for a normal crop of any sort. Many farmers think it would be pure luck if maize planted now

Two-Way Radio Buses Will Be Exhibited Here

American Buslines have selected their crack Chicago-to-San Francisco run to exhibit their first two-way buses equipped with two-way radios for driver-to-driver and driver-to-terminal communication. The new buses will arrive in Big Spring at 7 p. m. Friday, July 19 for the demonstration, according to V. F. McBurney, American Buslines' local terminal manager.

The demonstration in Big Spring is part of an experimental test American Buslines is conducting along its express route between Chicago and San Francisco, and is designed to give the traveling public a first-hand glimpse of the newest postwar transportation development.

Two-way radio service, if the experiment proves successful is expected to greatly increase the efficiency of passenger movements and also to be an added safety feature for highway traffic. It provides a flexible and instantaneous communication between driver and dispatcher or terminal-driver to driver contact on the highway, enables driver to receive information as to weather, road conditions, and passenger loadings—all while the bus is actually moving along the highway. As a convenience to passengers, it also enables the transmission of emergency messages.

Rocky Graziano Nears Top Of Mike Jacobs' Ladder In Zale Encounter

NEW YORK, July 17. (AP) — Even if Joe Louis carries out his plan to retire for the year, Mike Jacobs needn't worry. Uncle Mike, the boxing promoter who got $100 for ringside seats (there were 44 such rows) for an exhibition worth $10 or less, has a new meal ticket. He is Rocky Graziano, 152 pounds of fighting fury.

Rockabye Tommy, they call him. His name is Tommy but if you call him that he won't answer. He could lick his weight in wildcats if necessary but he'd rather play stickball with the kids on the lower west side.

His best friends are the neighborhood kids. He gives them his neckties and goes around wearing flashy sweaters or jackets with his collar open. He once took the shirt off his back when one of his pals admired it. When the time came for him to be introduced from the ring, Rocky took his bow—in his undershirt.

Passes the Bucks
Graziano's first sight of real money came when he received $12,000 in new bills. A few days later he asked one of his men to hold his wallet. It held only $11,000.

Asked what he did with the other $1,000, Rocky replied: "Oh, I gave it in tens and twenties to guys who needed it more than me."

It is reported that Graziano didn't even know some of those who got in line for this small windfall. A few days later Rocky's manager, Irving Cohen, saw that the kid had a bank account.

What makes Graziano so colorful is that you never know what he's going to do outside the ring. But inside the ropes he is consistent. He has knocked six of his last seven opponents kicking and has parlayed a pair of flats into an unprecedented flow of gate receipts for "little men."

In seven fights within the short space of 16 months he drew $654,659 into the combined coffers of Madison Square Garden and Uncle Mike Jacobs. Right now he's rated as the uncrowned middleweight champion.

There's nothing he'd rather have than the 160-pound title in fact. He expects to fulfill his hopes in Yankee Stadium on Thursday evening, July 25, when he fights the champion, Tony Zale, of Gary, Ind.

With prices scaled from $5 to $30 for ringside, the Jacobs office tabs the battle as a sure shot.

to surpass the Leonard-Tender receipts of $452,664. Held in 1923, this bout is the record draw for any contest below heavyweight outdoors.

First Beat Arnold
Graziano's all but rocky road to the top began a year ago last March when, in the presence of President Truman, he stiffened Billy Arnold, Philadelphia negro phenom. It was supposed to be another victory in a long Arnold string.

Graziano took such a beating in the second round that the fans yelled for the referee to stop the slaughter.

Rocky's trainer, Whitey Binstein, saw that his protegee was in a bad way. To test him, Binstein asked:

"Who am I? What round is it?"

"Why, Whitey," Rocky said with a faint grin, "I'm surprised at you. I've got this guy all opened up. Didn't you notice? He's ready to be pickled."

Arnold never answered the bell for the fourth round. He was stopped in the third. The writer never yet has seen an athlete with such recuperative powers. Graziano, beaten to a pulp in the second round, came back to inflict even more punishment on Arnold. That bout alone made Graziano the attraction he is today.

He followed it with knockouts of the late Al (Bummy) Davis, Red Cochrane (twice in a row) and Harold Green. He beat Sonny Horne on a decision and then stopped the welterweight king, Marty Servo, in two rounds in a non-title bout last March.

Long Lay-Off
Graziano hasn't fought since. He's too valuable to Jacobs to be caving in the smaller clubs.

Ever since the Louis-Cohn farce Rocky has been in training at Greenwood Lake, N. J.

If the first middleweight title fight since 1941, when Zale beat Georgie Abrams, draws $500,000. Graziano will come out with $125,000. He's getting 25 percent for the privilege of bashing the bearer of Zale. He is drawing 35 and who hasn't met a worthy opponent since Billy Conn outpointed him in a 12-round bout in 1942 before Zale went into the Navy.

Zale has never been knocked out but then neither had Cochrane or Servo. There's always a first time and Graziano's fists are like bricks.

series in their favor two games to one. The game was called in the eighth to enable the Redskins to catch a train. Manager Roy Schalk hit a double in the eighth to spark the Indian rally, but the Missions called Ace Chihl Wagnor to the mound. He stopped the drive. Charles Grant hit a homer for San Antonio in the third.

The Dallas-Shreveport game ended what might be called audience participation. Umpire Nick Carter ousted pitcher Doyle Lade from the mound in the ninth, and a pop-bottle shower followed. Lade had protested a decision on a pitch to a batter after the Rebels' Hank Oana had walked. Play was halted for ten minutes, and one fan was arrested. Dallas scored twice in the ninth to take the game 4-2 and take the final tilt of the series.

Today's schedule: Dallas at Houston. Oklahoma City at Beaumont. Fort Worth at San Antonio. Tulsa at Shreveport.

Time helped Tulsa down Houston. The game at Houston was confined to eight innings to enable Tulsa to catch a train. The Houston Buffs began to click in the seventh and eighth inning. When the game was called, Houston had the winning run on first, the tying run on third.

Second-place San Antonio fought off a fighting band of Oklahoma City Indians to take a 4-3 home victory, and end the

Sometimes you may not hear "Number, please?" promptly

With switchboards here heavily loaded, the operator may not always be able to answer your signal as promptly as she and you would like. This may be true especially during the busy calling hours, in midmorning and early evening.

If you do not hear the operator's "Number, please?" for a few seconds after you lift your receiver, we hope you'll understand why. She will answer just as soon as she can.

If telephone service is slower ...here's why!

We're taking emergency steps to bring telephone service to people who are waiting.

We're adding more telephones to switchboards already heavily loaded—more telephones than the switchboards were ever intended to handle. This may slow up telephone service here at the busiest times of the day.

In normal times we wouldn't even consider such action. But many people are waiting for service. And new equipment is hard to get and takes considerable time to make and install. The size of the job staggers imagination. Telephone equipment is needed everywhere in large volume.

That's why it is necessary to load the present switchboards to the very limit.

As fast as we can in the face of material shortages we're pushing our construction program. Our first goal is to serve everybody who is waiting. Then we'll restore service to prewar standards as quickly as we can. It will cost a good deal. This year we plan to spend 47 million dollars in the five states we serve.

Keep Summer Entertaining Simple By Serving Carbonated Beverages

Place bottles of assorted carbonated beverages in a bowl of ice and let each guest help himself. "Carnival" tumblers, new for summer parties, add a festive touch.

Cooling refreshments are in order at any hour of a hot summer day. When the unexpected caller drops in—when members of the family return from tennis or swimming—refreshing bottled beverages are the standby of every hostess. The foresighted homemaker automatically places carbonated beverages on her weekly shopping list. Then, with bottles of root beer, ginger ale and other flavored soft drinks on hand, there's enough variety to please everyone.

An attractive buffet table can be arranged on a moment's notice by filling a salad bowl or a deep casserole with ice and placing the bottles in it to chill. With the beverage, serve salted nuts, small wafers, potato chips or soy bean nuggets.

POSTMAN STEPS LIVELY
TORRINGTON, Wyo. — Postmen in Torrington not only have to watch their step in connection with dogs, but also with rattlesnakes as well. One mail carrier reports he had to step "high and lively" to avoid treading on the head of an 18-inch rattler in the north part of town.

Pre-Fab Houses Developing Slowly; Far Under The Goal

WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP) — Prefabrication, counted on to provide 250,000 new homes this year, apparently will fail to yield even 100,000.

Although 150 manufacturers of the ready-to-live-in dwellings have asked and obtained priority help, housing officials acknowledged today that slow starts have dispelled earlier hopes of quick mass production.

Some of the manufacturers are said to want not only the "guaranteed markets" provided by the Patman housing act, but direct financial help which National Housing Expediter Wilson W. Wyatt contends he is powerless to provide on his own authority.

About the only source for such assistance would be Reconstruction Finance Corporation loans, but aides say privately it is problematical whether Wyatt will go to bat for the pre-fab makers along this line. These officials say his move will depend on what happens to the cost of building materials and the price of pre-fabs themselves. This, in turn, they maintain, depends on what congress does about reviving OPA.

Wyatt is unlikely, his associates assert, to plug for government financing of homes they describe as "further inflated."

Eight companies already have applied for the guaranteed market agreements Wyatt offered a week ago. This is a production-stimulating plan under which the government agrees to buy, at 90 percent of the market price, any pre-fabs for which the manufacturer cannot find private buyers.

But even with this inducement to volume production, NHA now estimates that manufacturers will turn out only between 90,000 and 100,000 ready-built dwellings in 1946. Some 12,000 were made in the first six months. 30,000 are slated for this quarter and perhaps 50,000 for the final quarter of the year. This would leave a deficit of more than 150,000 for the year, a big hole in President Truman's plans to start 1,200,000 houses and apartments during 1946.

Nevertheless, Wyatt is described as optimistic that the total goal will be achieved. One reason is the unexpectedly high rate of conversions—the addition of a story or a wing to existing houses.

In the first five months alone the conversions came close to the entire year's goal of 50,000. NHA hopes to push hard on this phase of the drive for dwellings, since each conversion takes care of one or more families at relatively small cost in materials and time.

RAIDERS LEAVE HONEY

ROBINSON, Ill. — Bees, the wild-back German variety, again made their annual raid on the Harry E. Otey home this year — the 20th consecutive year.

Each summer the bees have attacked the 20-foot columns of the porch of the Otey residence, and it was estimated that 100 pounds of honey has accumulated in one of the columns.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy — no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcenate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears — how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Soviet Actions In Hungary Protested

LONDON, July 18. (AP) — Britain has sent a note of protest to Moscow, complaining of extreme and unwarranted interference in the internal affairs of Hungary, the foreign office said today.

A spokesman said the representation followed Russian demands for dismissal of the vice-minister of justice, and for withdrawal of immunity for three smallholder deputies whom the Soviets accused of anti-Russian statements.

French Unions Plan Strike Demonstration

PARIS, July 18. (AP) — Leaders of France's General Confederation of Workers (CGT), which claims a membership of 5,000,000, announced today plans for a mass demonstration on Friday in support of the union's demands for a general wage increase of 25 per cent.

President Georges Bidault announced two days ago that the government could not see its way clear to granting a general wage increase of more than 15 per cent.

STUDENTS DEMAND RUSSIAN COLUMBUS, O. — Dr. Peter Epp wanted to limit his "difficult" Russian course to 12 Ohio State University students, but the 18 who signed up refused to give up the course.

Dr. Epp believes the course is popular because the students think Russian will aid in an understanding of current affairs as well as in scientific careers. The students will devote their entire summer to learning Russian.

Colleges Fear New Draft Rules Will Take Needed Younger Profs

WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP)—Selective service's tightened draft regulations aroused concern in some educational circles today that universities and colleges may be stripped of younger faculty members at a time when they are swamped with GI students.

Dr. Francis Brown, director of the higher education division of the American Council of Education, told reporters he is taking up the question of exemptions with selective service.

The council also is making a survey of 110 colleges to determine how they would be affected, Dr. Brown added.

The new regulations eliminate occupational deferment for men aged 19 through 29 unless they are engaged in farming or in work "indispensable and irreplaceable to the national existence."

Dr. Brown said the regulations present "a serious problem, particularly as to young science people who may be yanked into the armed forces at a time when the colleges can't replace them."

He estimated 5,000 young teachers might be affected.

Dr. Brown said the education council secured release from service as early as last October of some 300 men so that they could teach veterans. Some of these had not served six months, he said, and consequently might be re-inducted.

The new regulations direct re-consideration of classifications of men who have been released from the armed services with less than six months service.

No inductions are to begin until September when the army wants 25,000 men. The June call was for 50,000 men. A holiday on the draft is in force during July and August.

Moisture Lack Hurting Crops In Wide Area

AUSTIN, July 18. (AP)—Conditions the past week over most of Texas favored farm field work, the United States Department of Agriculture reported today.

Its roundup of farm and weather conditions for the week ending July 15 noted, however, that high temperatures were rapidly depleting moisture.

Northeast and southern counties of the low rolling plains, western counties of the Edwards Plateau region and southern counties were especially dry. Subsoil

Young Evangelist Speaker At Club

Creative power for good comes from a human partnership with God, the Rev. Glenn Norman, Ft.

moisture was mostly adequate in central and eastern counties, but grasses and late feed crops were in need of rain.

The weather was favorable for cotton, but late planted corn needed rain. The high temperatures and absence of rainfall stimulated the growth of cotton and cut down on the threat of insect damage. Harvest of cotton was under way in the coastal Bend counties.

Weather continued favorable for development and harvesting of cantaloupes and watermelons. Potato harvest was active in the Panhandle.

Worth, told members of the Lions club today.

The young evangelist, who is conducting the Youth Revival at the East Fourth Baptist church, pointed to several famous characters in history who brought misery and suffering as examples of genius without God. On the other hand, he listed outstanding successes in the business world as men who took God into partnership.

This combination, he continued, would transcend all barriers. Harold Stock presided in the absence of the president and read greetings from club delegates at the international convention in Philadelphia. They are Otis Grafa, L. T. King, Joe Blum and Jack Y. Smith.

Club members were urged to participate in two trips on July 31 and Aug. 2 advertising the Big Spring Rodeo.

Decision Calls For Open Minds

Political affairs notwithstanding, a matter uppermost in the minds of people of this area today is that of the proposed five-city water supply.

By way of review, the Colorado River Municipal Water Association was created here on June 20 at a joint meeting of representatives from Snyder, Colorado City, Big Spring, Midland and Odessa. Its purpose was to develop a supply which would greatly increase the available water for these cities. Tentatively proposed was a dam five miles above Colorado City to impound a lake which would yield 26,000,000 gallons daily and of a size sufficient for a three-year reserve.

From this lake, it was suggested that 10-inch mains would fan out to Snyder and Colorado City, a 30-inch line to Big Spring, a 24-inch line from Big Spring to Midland, and an 18-inch line from Midland to Odessa. Participating cities would finance the project as a district, possibly floating revenue bonds in the estimated amount of $10,000,000. In turn, the district would lease existing water production facilities and sell all water to the cities at a flat rate regardless of proximity.

For these leases, an annual rental equivalent to amortization charges on the debt against production facilities would be paid by the district. Distribution systems would continue to belong to and be operated by the cities. Sale of water at around 17 cents per thousand gallons to cities would be the means of financing operation and retirement of the revenue bonds against the district.

So much for the groundwork. For a number of years those in and around Robert Lee, downstream on the Colorado, have been planning for an irrigation project which would reclaim some 58,000 acres. Since the proposed Colorado River Municipal Water Association would require about 20 per cent of the Robert Lee expectancy, a problem arises. Under state board of water engineer policies, water for municipal use has top priority, irrigation third. Yet, leaders in the joint municipal proposal have reasoned wisely that there is no reason to bluntly resort to priorities when matters can be resolved otherwise. Those in the Upper Colorado River Authority (Robert Lee project) have the same spirit.

They have, however, made what might be termed a counter-proposal, namely, that the proposed dam above Colorado City be omitted and water requirements satisfied from the Robert Lee lake.

This is an offer which should have every consideration. It would be folly to say now whether it should be accepted or declined. First, there must be exhaustive analysis made along many fronts, a few of which would include:

The cost of additional miles of pipeline versus the cost of dam and basin; cost of water plus additional lift, or net cost immediately and 10, 20 and 30 years from now; relative quality of water at the two points; security and abundance of supply at the two points.

Creation of a second lake in this vicinity with resultant recreational possibilities should not be permitted to cloud the issue, and we are persuaded that it will not. This is a highly important matter and one that calls for open minds and clear thinking.

Tin Pan Alley Slow

NEW YORK — After tooting his saxophone for 15 years to the point where he is considered one of the best reed-instrument virtuosos in the jazz trade, Charlie Barnet, the swing band leader, has been signed for a film — for a straight role. . . . Comedians have enough trouble hanging onto their material, but Buddy Lester is courting wholesale comic larceny. . . . he's recording some of his night club routines. . . .

Watch a sleeper song that is creeping up in popularity. . . . It's "The House of Blue Lights," which, if it lives up to Tin Pan Alley expectations, can thank Ella Mae Morse's recording for its initial propulsion. . . . Two young gals whose songwriting ambitions are hitting on all six, Fay Whitman and Helen Miller, have had a half-dozen tunes accepted for immediate publication. . . . but their break came after a long siege of door-knocking. . . . They rattled around publishers' anterooms for a year, but the bosses were busy, filled up, come back in a year, sorry, no can do. . . .

George Goodwin, writer and music business executive, heard the gals' stuff one night at a party and suggested they "try to do something about it." . . . They all but laughed in his face recounting their futile footwork in and out of offices. . . . He immediately cleared the way and the gals' first ditty, called "The Doodle Song," has been published.

Tin Pan Alley has had its ear tilted toward Europe ever since "Symphony" was imported to such huge success. . . . The song pluggers think a French tune called "Passe," which was introduced by Jean Sablon, the Parisian Bing and Frankie rolled into one, will make the hit parade grade. . . . The late Vincent Youmans would be a happy fellow to see his famous "More Than You Know" coming back into popularity.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Other E-Awards Due For Inquiry

WASHINGTON. — It might be a healthy thing if the Mead committee investigated more of the E-awards handed down to manufacturing firms by the Army and Navy. Senator Mead's committee already has shown how wires were pulled by top officials to get an E for the Erie Basin war profiteers at the same time lesser Army officials, who knew conditions first hand, were recommending against it.

Another fishy case occurred when the Navy gave an E to National Industries when it and its affiliate, Durham Manufacturing Corporation, were under indictment for war frauds. The company was actually being prosecuted by US District Attorney Alex Campbell at Fort Wayne, Ind., when, right in the middle of the trial, the Navy came across with its E.

The trial had started in November, so the Navy knew all about the alleged war fraud when it gave the award on Dec. 17, 1945. Furthermore, the war was then over, and there was no need to give the company an incentive for further production.

However, someone in the Navy apparently pulled the wires, and the E award coming at just the psychological moment, had a powerful effect on the jury.

This was the plan involving the late W. R. Davis, an independent oil operator, who had known Goering for some years, sold oil to the German navy, and who told the Germans he had four Americans he could use to defeat Roosevelt in 1940.

The only name on this list which Goering could remember was that of John L. Lewis. However, other German officials who had been in on the talks supplied the additional names — Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, Jim Farley, and Herbert Hoover. Obviously, none of the above had any German connections or probably any idea they were to be the tools of a potential enemy. However, some of them were careless, to say the least, in the way they played into German hands.

Wheeler Defends Nazi Agents

Senator Wheeler, for instance, held various secret conferences to defend George Sylvester Viereck when on trial for sedition, despite the fact that Viereck obviously was guilty. Wheeler also made a speech defending the late Senator Lundeen, after Lundeen was exposed for delivering speeches written for him by a German agent.

The ease with which intelligent Americans fell into the Nazi trap is, of course, something they want hushed up now. But the day may come when the same sort of danger faces the nation, and when the public should have an example before it of what goes on behind the scenes. That is why Senator Kilgore of West Virginia is pressing for his investigation.

That is also why those great friends of the Chicago Tribune — which also fell into the Nazi trap — isolationist Republican Senators Curley Brooks of Illinois and Wherry of Nebraska, are trying to kill the Kilgore committee. Even Senator Scott Lucas of Illinois, a Democrat, apparently thinks twice about the Tribune and doesn't want to vote the committee any real cash.

Finally, GOP Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, whose state is anything but isolationist, for some strange reason is trying to strangle the Kilgore investigation. Maybe it's his because Bridges is a buddy of Senator Wheeler's.

Nazi's Pre-Pearl Harbor Trap

For some weeks, certain senators have been skillfully pulling backstage wires to kill the Kilgore committee which has been probing Nazi activities and their link with Americans. A brief and confidential peek at what's in the Nazi files now makes it quite clear why Senators are secretly battling so hard to squelch Senator Kilgore's investigation.

US Army and Justice Department officials have been extremely busy interviewing German officials, from Hermann Goering down, and the results are amazing. They show various high-up American leaders and businessmen to be either woefully naive or else deliberately playing into the hands of a dictatorship which had already started to conquer Europe and which was certain to be at war with us.

For instance, in Foreign Minister Ribbentrop's captured files was found this revealing memo regarding America Firster Charles Lindbergh: "It is better not to mention Lindbergh's name anymore. He's more useful to us if we keep his name out of the press—as he has asked us to."

Nazi officials have been quite frank in telling about their operations with Americans. Actually, a statement attributed to Goering, published two weeks ago, that he was ready to spend $5,000,000 to defeat Roosevelt in 1940 was an understatement. What Goering really said, according to US officials who interviewed him, was that he would gladly have spent $150,000,000 to defeat Roosevelt if he could have been shown any good way to do it.

Another German, Dr. Heribert von Stempel of the German embassy in Washington, when asked what the Nazis had done in the way of propaganda, responded: "The biggest thing was when Goering's agent came to me with the plan to defeat Roosevelt."

Two Agencies Control Aviation

WASHINGTON, (AP) — When all Constellations were grounded last week — after one of the big airliners crashed in Pennsylvania, killing five crewmen — the grounding was done by CAA.

Then the CAA—the Civil Aeronautics Administration — started an investigation. At the same time the CAB — the Civil Aeronautics Board — also started an investigation.

The CAA and CAB are separate government agencies, although their work ties in.

CAB — (the Civil Aeronautics Board) — The CAB is a five-man board, all members appointed by the President. The chairman is James M. Landis, former Harvard Law School dean and holder of other government jobs before this one.

It lays down the laws of the air; it says what routes airplanes can fly, what airlines can operate and where; sets passenger and freight rates for planes; and handles other economic controls over the airlines.

It holds hearings and hands down decisions and penalties for violations of its regulations. And it investigates accidents.

The CAA (the Civil Aeronautics Administration) — The CAA is like a policeman for the CAB. It's job is to see that the rules laid down by the CAB are carried out, particularly safety regulations.

It can make some regulations of its own. It issues licenses to pilots. CAA cannot punish anyone for violations of the regulations. That is CAB's job. But it can take over some emergency action.

Suppose a pilot flew his plane too low over a city. If CAA then thought the pilot should have his license taken away, it would recommend such action to CAB. It would be up to CAB to do it, or not.

Now suppose there's a plane crash, with people killed. Since the plane would have had to meet CAA regulations before

Demon On A Scooter

By JOHN P. MCKNIGHT (For Hal Boyle)

ROME, (AP) — Italian music critics may be divided over Pierino Gamba's ability as a symphony conductor, but there is no question that the nine-year-old lad is a demon with a "scooter."

Seeing him speeding up and down the sidewalk before his home on Rome's Belluno street, no one would imagine that this lad had conducted a symphony concert at the Royal opera house — leading the 86-man orchestra in the "Sinfonia" from Verdi's opera "Forza del Destino," Beethoven's first symphony, the overture of Mascagni's "Crepuscolo," the prelude to act I of Verdi's "Traviata," the intermezzo from Mascagni's "William Ratcliff," the interlude between acts III and IV of Bizet's "Carmen," and the "Sinfonia" from Rossini's "William Tell."

The slender, blond, greenish-eyed lad who packed the opera house at the season's highest concert prices is a boy first and musical phenomenon second. Put a symphony score and a comic strip before him and he'll probably reach first for the funnies.

At home he acts like a nine-year-old—driving his stepmother "frantic," she says, "trying to keep up with him," and "trying to keep his hands clean." (The hands, incidentally, are callused from riding that scooter.)

Pap Piero Gamba—who fiddles with a fiddle for fun—has a hard task keeping Pierino at his daily practice stint of three hours at the piano. "It is too easy for him," the father complains. "He gets it all too quickly, and wants to get outside and play with the other kids."

Pierino's concert performance, which bowled over a majority of the audience, did not deprive the critics of their faculties. None found flaws in the music as it was played, but most hesitated to use the term prodigy in the sense that it was used for Mozart. Pierino's performance, one or two said, smacked too much of a well-rehearsed trick.

Pierino handles rehearsals like a veteran and has no hesitancy in halting the orchestra to explain in his treble, his understanding of the passage before him. He does not hesitate to pick up an erring player, and his ear is quick to note a discord.

Pierino is endowed with the fairly rare sense of absolute pitch. Strike a note and he identifies it immediately. Strike a chord and he will not only call every note, but identify the chord by name.

Capitol For Tourists

BATON ROUGE, La. — Louisiana's 35-story skyscraper capitol built in the days of Huey Long today stands as much a tourist center as a government building. Some 5,000 to 7,000 persons a month view the Mississippi River's stately bends from the capitol's observation tower, and the state even employs an official hostess to point out the sights.

Five Former Big Springers To Play In All-Star Game

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART
 Obie Bristow, the mountain who walks like a man, has taken off for Denver and the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament, which takes place in the "mile-high city" next week. The big guy, who is playing a better links game this year than ever before, expects to remain over in Colorado for the Broadmoor tournament, which follows on the heels of the Trans-Miss.

Obie isn't entirely new to Trans-Miss competition. He took part in the meet at Tulsa, Okla., back in the 30's, lost out to Harry Todd but only after a fight through the first 12 holes. Harry, now one of the country's most promising professionals, beat J. Gordon, 2 to 1, by getting hot once he sighted the clubhouse.

Todd isn't eligible anymore and Frank Stranahan, the current simon-pure sensation, probably won't be there but the tournament will still demand brilliant, sub-par golf. If Bristow makes the cham-

FORT WORTH, July 18 (AP)—Players of the West Texas-New Mexico league all-star game to be played in Lubbock July 26 were announced here yesterday by Milton Price, league president.

Players were chosen by balloting of the league's eight managers. The chosen players now will select their own managers in a poll being conducted by Price.

Amarillo and Lubbock both will have five players on the team. Abilene, the league leader, placed four, including Manager Hayden Greer at second base.

Two other managers, catchers Hack Miller of Lubbock and Ted Clavitt of Borger, were chosen as players. They also are eligible for manager positions.

The all-star teams:

E. J. MILLER

Brown County

It looks like Billy Womack and Hal Baile, one-time Big Spring high school footballers, will wind up at Abilene Christian college and make a try for the Wildcat gridiron club.

Battle had designs on going to a Southwest conference school or to Hardin-Simmons university but likeable Tonto Coleman has been corresponding with him and has just about succeeding in altering Hal's plans.

Billy has grown into quite a man since he departed Big Spring high. He served with the Paratroopers overseas, holding down a job that demanded physical fitness. He must weigh 25 to 30 pounds more than he did in high school.

Unanimous Endorsement of the Brown County Bar

Two members of the court are from the north and west part of the district, which might suggest that distributive fairness would be served by having one member of the court from the south and east part of the district.

We have known Judge E. J. Miller, both as Judge of the 35th District Court, where he served for twelve years, and as an active lawyer in private practice, in which he was engaged for many years. He was an able judge, diligent, industrious, and painstaking in his consideration and decision of the matters involved. We commend him as having the qualities that eminently fit him for the position which he seeks, that of Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals.

Marvin House, Jr., who's in from Fort Worth to visit with his parents for a few days, says he runs into John Daniel, the former Steer assistant mentor, every now and then.

John, says Marvin, is helping his father farm their place near Weatherford and has made no plans to return to the coaching profession.

Herschel "Mule" Stockton, John Dibrell's current line coach, has been visiting here recently. His home is at Crosbyton.

The Mule is being counted on to lend a mighty shoulder to the wheel here and help lead the Big Spring team from the gridiron wilderness.

TARPON MOVES
Galveston, July 18 (AP)—Several hundred strikes were reported here yesterday as a huge school of tarpon moved in close to shore.

However, only nine of the silver kings were landed. Arthur Fint of Galveston landed four. Largest was caught by John Null. Galveston. It weighed 135 pounds.

Evans, Greer and Scopetone of the South squad and Zigelman and Decker, picked for the North team, are all former Big Spring players.

Decker performed here in 1938 and '39, setting an all-time stolen base record. Scopetone was here for a "look" in 1940 and later went to Clovis.

Greer and Zigelman were members of the great Big Spring team of 1941 while Evans signed on in 1942.

Martin Counter Beats Lubbock In 14th, 6-5

LAMESA, July 18 (Special)—The lethargic Lamesa Lobos rose up in the last of the 14th inning here Wednesday night to push across the winning tally and snap a red-hot Lubbock Hubber club's win streak at four straight for a 6-5 victory in the opener of the three game local series—the longest recorded in league play this season.

Errors by Jackie Sullivan and Eddie Mellio in the second inning allowed the Lobos four unearned runs and put the home towners into the lead they held until the ninth when Hack Miller's double to centerfield scored Frank McAlexander and Speedy Houpt to knot the count with two away.

Neither team could tally until the last of the 14th when Pepper Martin, pinch hitting for Fowler, doubled sharply to left center and Rags Ragone doubled him in with a liner down the left field line to end the hectic three-hour contest.

Ernie Nelson, Hubber starter, gave up eight hits and five runs in his seven-inning stint before giving way to Big Lee Forrest who scattered four hits and one tally in the six innings he toiled, the two hurlers blanking Lamesa for 11 straight innings after the shaky second frame.

Walter Condon went the route for Lamesa, giving up 15 hits and whiffing nine.

Manager Miller named Gene Tumelson as his choice to take the Hubber mound against Jack Hupert in the second tilt tonight.

Bulla Sets Fast Pace At Chicago

CHICAGO, July 18 (AP)—Big Johnny Bulla, who claims his heart was broken when he blew the British open title, is the hottest swinger in the Chicago Victory national golf tournament which ends some fancy preliminaries at Medinah country club.

By wrapping together a 54 and 33 yesterday, Bulla hoisted Al Anderson of Medinah, Ill., with a 40-41-81, into the 18-hole lead in the pro-senior running. His simon-pure partner, Illinois state champion Earl Wilde of Chicago, contributed a 79 for a 146 total. This was only four strokes off the pace set by Lawson Little (72) and amateur George Dawson (70).

The pro-lady leadership was held by Ben Hogan and Louise Suggs, newly-crowned Women's Western open titlist, with 148, thanks to a phenomenal round of 75 by the poker-face lass from Lithia Springs, Ga.

Beartracks Greer, Baseball's Drifter, Back In Groove For Greenville Team

GREENVILLE, July 18 (AP)—Big Ed Greer has returned to Texas to taunt Father Time with the pitching cunning that has kept him in professional baseball for a quarter of a century.

Big Ed admits it can't go on much longer but for the moment he's basking in the glory known from the Rockies to Dixie in one of the most illustrious careers of the minor leagues.

Greer, who from the first year of professional baseball has answered to the nickname of "Beartracks," never had played in any circuit below Class A until this year. He started with Memphis of the Southern association, a Class AA circuit, this season but was given his release early. Then he joined Texarkana of the Class C East Texas league but didn't last long there. Next he signed with Gadsden, Ala., of the Southern league but was used mostly for relief hurling for old Ed, so he asked for and got his release and went home to Fort Worth.

Greenville's club in the East Texas league hadn't been doing very well and Manager Alex Hooks needed pitching. He heard about Greer, with whom he had played at Fort Worth in the Texas league in 1942. He persuaded Greer to sign a contract.

The first night he sent the 45-year-old Greer in against Henderson. Ed went 15 innings to win the game 8-7. His next appearance was at home and 3,000 fans turned out to see him beat Paris 10-5.

Ed started his career with Denver of the Western league in 1922. He has played with Houston of the Texas league, had a brief stay with the St. Louis Cardinals, pitched for Columbus in the American association, Memphis, Fort Worth and Little Rock. In eight years of Texas league hurling he won 120 games.

Greer's the toast of Greenville these days but he says his pitching arm is pretty well worn out and although he believes he can win consistently in the East Texas league, he probably will retire after this season and give his full time to carpentering, a trade he has been following in off seasons.

Morgan Has 73 In Qualifying Round At Munny

Finding the tough Munny course to his liking, Jake Morgan turned in a 73 as his qualifying score for the City golf tournament Wednesday afternoon and emerged as the linksman to beat for medalist honors.

Jake's tally bested par by a single stroke. He was playing with Pro Foy Fanning, George Neel and Bob Flowers at the time.

Other early qualifiers have not fared so well. C. L. Rowe fired an 84 earlier in the week. George Tillghast has come in with an 89. H. W. Smith with a 92. C. L. Roden a 92, and Charles Bailey a 96.

Bulk of the field is expected to get in qualifying licks this weekend.

Persons have until Wednesday, July 31, to post medal scores. Match play will get underway a day later.

Fanning says he is making arrangements for a handsome championship trophy. All of the other awards, including the medalist premium, will be merchandise.

Johnny Daylong Bests Brother In Mound Duel

The heralded pitching duel between the Daylong brothers, Johnny and Jimmy, wound up in Johnny's favor as Big Spring Hardware rolled over Manhattan Club, 11-5, Wednesday evening in a Munny softball league feature at the park.

Johnny limped to the sidelines in the fifth round after suffering an injury to his pitching arm. His mates had given him a 10-4 lead by that time, however, and his successor, J. B. Murphy, proved airtight in the clutches to finish in a breeze.

The Spartan 14-hit attack was paced by Melvin Newton, who had three blows in four attempts, and Noel Hull, Clyde Wynans, Robert Coffee and Claude Ferguson, all of whom collected two safeties each.

Murphy came out of hot water twice in the late rounds by striking out enemy hitters when the sacks were populated. He accomplished that trick in the fifth stanza and again in the seventh.

Manhattan hopped into a two-run inning in Round One but Clyde Wynans' drive in the third gave Big Spring Hardware a permanent advantage.

VFW slipped back into the fight for the top spot by dusting off Dub's Garage, 10-0, in the evening's opening tilt.

Norman Newton hurled creditably for the winners and was given able support by the Vet batsmen. Anderson and Glass collected home runs for the ex-G.I's.

Billy Womack hit one good for three and a half bases in the fourth canto. He circled the sacks behind Horace Bostick and made it look as if the two were engaged in close order drill coming to the dish. Bostick made it but Womack didn't, as a fast throw from the outfield nipped him inches from pay dirt.

Chicubs Gain On Bums, Cards With Brave Win

Brooklyn Again Loses, Phils Drop Redbirds
 By The Associated Press
 Brooklyn's dismal slump and the Cardinals' habit of losing to the Phillies is leaving the door wide open for the Chicago Cubs in the National league pennant scramble.

Although the Dodgers still rule Ford Frick's roost by a half game, many baseball men believe the real 1946 race in September will find the Cards and Cubs battling for the flag.

Counted out of the race and rated "just another wartime club" in the early spring calculations, the Bruins today are a strong third, 3½ games out of first place.

The Cubs made ground yesterday by drubbing the Braves, 10-0. St. Louis once again refused to take advantage of a chance to regain the lead which they hadn't held all by themselves since May 19. For the fifth time in 11 meetings the Phils beat the Birds. Yesterday's score was 10-2.

Brooklyn staggered to a fifth successive setback at Cincinnati, 5-2.

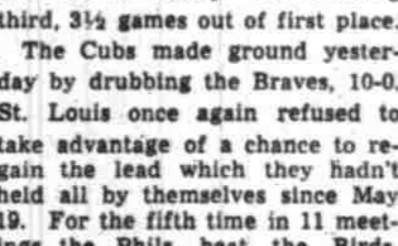

Rookie Ralph Kiner sunk the New York Giants, with a three-run homer and two singles behind Pittsburgh's Strincevich, 8-5.

All major league attendance records went by the boards at the Yankee stadium when the New Yorkers lured 30,159 paying guests to boost the season high to 1,510,934. The best previous mark was 1,485,166 attained by the Chicago Cubs in 1929 and that for an entire season.

The Yanks won two from St. Louis, 3-2 and 8-4 but remained 11 full games behind Boston which dumped Chicago twice, 3-1 and 6-1. Most important development of the day to the Yanks was the accidental "beaning" of Shortstop Phil Rizzuto by Nelson Potter. Rizzuto was carried from the field and spent the night in New York Hospital under observation.

Jimmy Outlaw's 12th inning double enabled Detroit to trim Washington 3-2.

Allie Reynolds of Cleveland got victory No. 5 on the record by subduing the Philadelphia Athletics with five blows, 8-2.

Camp Hood Springs Open In Tourney

WACO, July 18 (AP)—Camp Hood meets Ennis and Brooke Army Medical Center, San Antonio, will play the American Desk team of Temple in the state semi-pro baseball tournament here today.

Butcher Calves Hit 18.25 Here

One all-time record for the firm was established and two other new marks for the season were recorded at the Big Spring Livestock Auction company's weekly sale Wednesday, as the market continued to gain strength.

An all-time top of 15.40 per cwt. was paid for several head of fat bulls, and choice butcher calves reached 18.25, a new high for this season. Receipts also hit a new seasonal mark, with approximately 1700 animals sold in the auction ring. Eighteen carloads were shipped by rail to points in the midwest, north and east.

Other prices included fat cows, up to 15.50; butcher cows, 12.00-12.75; cutters, 9.00-11.00; canners, 6.00-8.25; stocker steers, 15.00; stocker heifers, 14.00.

Approximately 50 head of top butcher hogs brought 17.00-18.00 per cwt.

Swedish Netters To Play Yanks

VARBERG, Sweden, July 18. (AP) — Davis Cup teams from Sweden and the United States were led today to battle it out for the right to challenge Australia for the international tennis trophy it has held since 1939, the last year play was held.

Sweden's two-man team of Lennart Bergelin and Torsten Johansson won the European zone finals yesterday by defeating Yugoslavia, three matches to two, in one of the most thrilling comebacks in the history of Davis Cup competition.

Franco Seeks To Justify Big Army

MADRID, July 18 (AP)—Generalissimo Franco declared today that "menaces on the frontier" since the civil war had compelled Spain to maintain a "larger than normal" army.

In an interview published in the Falange organ Arriba on the 10th anniversary of his revolt against the republic, Franco defended his administration and accused the outside world of "perpetual hypocrisy" in its attitude toward Spain. He suggested the country take as its motto: "What others spend killing and destroying one another, we spend in the resurgence of Spain and social justice."

"If Spain committed some venial sin in recent years," he added, "it does not admit comparison with the most grave sins which during the past war have been committed against the peace and internal order of our nation and which today in peace continue to be committed."

Second place Tyler, beaten Tuesday night by Lufkin 5-1, managed a 11-6 victory last night to even the score.

But Paris, in third place, still had trouble with Sherman. Sherman defeated Paris 11-2 last night.

Fourth place Texarkana split a doubleheader with Greenville taking the first game (seven innings) 6-3 but dropping the second game by the top-heavy score of 15-4.

Left-Wing Proposal In Greece Ignored

ATHENS, July 18. (AP) — All parliamentary parties in Greece either ignored or rejected today a proposal by the left-wing EAM (National Liberation Front) that the differences of left and right wing groups be bridged by the granting of "equality" and a general amnesty.

Acting Premier Stilianos Gonatas termed the offer "propaganda based on treachery," and said the EAM hoped to prevent the execution of emergency measures designed to wipe out armed Communist bands which he accused of terrorizing various sections of Greece.

RIO GRANDE FALLING
 RIO GRANDE CITY, July 18. (AP) — The Rio Grande is falling slowly again but few crops need irrigation at this time and the river thus far has furnished enough water for minimum summer needs in the lower Rio Grande Valley, the International Boundary Commission said yesterday.

Agents Are Given Demonstration On Beef Butchering, Preparation

Closing a two-day meeting of county agricultural and home demonstration agents of district six, Roy W. Snyder, meat specialist for the A&M college extension service, gave practical demonstrations on preparation of beef for quick freezing Wednesday afternoon.

More than a dozen frozen food locker operators in the district attended the second day's activities in the Settles hotel, which were conducted as a frozen food clinic.

Working magic with boning and butcher knives, Snyder cut a half of beef into its essential parts in less than 20 minutes—taking out plenty of time for demonstration and explanation. He did not complete the job by slicing steaks but had the steak sections ready for processing.

His method included removing the shoulder blade to provide additional roast cuts and replace

Germans Using Much US Wheat

FRANKFURT, July 18. (AP)—Six out of every 10 loaves of bread baked in American-occupied Germany are made from wheat grown in the United States, Col. William Dawson, military governor of Wuerttemberg Baden, told the German news service Dana at Stuttgart today.

Denying rumors that American food imports were counterbalanced by army requisitions of German food, Dawson said: "We do supplement our rations with some vegetables and fruits grown here. This supplement represents, however, only 5 to 10 per cent of the indigenous production."

Million-Man Army Proposed To Congress

WASHINGTON, July 18. (AP)—Plans for a permanent regular army of 1,000,000 men and officers confronted congress today after a closed-door session of the senate military committee. The pre-war 1939 strength was 188,000.

Senators who listened to top-ranking army planners said the long-range setup calls for 400,000 in the air forces, 300,000 in the ground forces, 175,000 in the service forces, and 15,000 in training.

Lt. Gen. J. Lawton Collins, a ground troop leader in the last war, and Maj. Gen. Lauris Norstad, who directed air operations, sat in the closed session with the lawmakers, some of whom have questioned the need for doubling the present strength of 25,000 regular army officers to 50,000.

These senators, who asked that their names not be used, objected that the war department was asking for its long range postwar authority in pieces, instead of presenting an overall picture.

Armed with carefully covered charts and detailed plans, the army leaders explained that they would need not 50,000 but at least 100,000 officers to lead the peace-time forces.

Army leaders also outlined plans for an organized reserve of 200,000 and national guard units of 680,000, all fully-manned and equipped for prompt call and duty.

ALLOWABLE EASED BACK FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE MONTH

AUSTIN, July 18. (AP)—Texas allowable oil production for August is being eased back for the second consecutive month from the state's all-time peak in June. The Railroad Commission's August order is calculated to result in production of 2,164,526 barrels of crude daily, a decrease of 98,829 barrels from July's permissive daily flow.

The average daily allowable in August will be 2,308,828 barrels, but estimated underproduction of 6.25 per cent is expected to cut actual production to the 2,164,526 figure, 44,526 barrels daily above the United States Bureau of Mines forecast of demand for Texas crudes.

Production of 179,205 barrels daily of natural gasoline and distillates will increase total flow of liquid petroleum to 2,343,731 barrels daily, 223,731 barrels daily above the Bureau of Mines estimate for all petroleum liquids.

Reduction from this month's allowable was applied principally in West Texas, where general producing days were cut to 24 from this month's 27.

The reduction in West Texas was requested at a statewide hearing here yesterday by operators in that district to prevent excessive above ground storage.

The next statewide hearing was set for August 16, when testimony will be taken on which to base the September allowable order.

The net allowable by districts as of July 13, compared with the August allowable, included:
West Central Texas, 37,923; 37,280; down 643.
West Texas, 31,270; 30,537; down 733.
West Texas, 611,265; 558,760; down 52,505.

Pravda Takes Poke At George Atcheson

MOSCOW, July 18. (AP)—Pravda described George Atcheson, Jr., chairman of the Allied council for Japan, as a "living anachronism" today, and said he was a "middle age political figure among modern diplomats."

In an article by David Zaslavsky, Pravda quoted Atcheson as writing that "we are not obligated to instill communism in Japan. On the other hand, we are obligated to inculcate democratic principles."

"Undoubtedly we have before us a middle age document," Pravda said. "It belongs to the time when the first colony was set up on the American continent, when all workers in trade unions were persecuted, and when those guilty of striking were hanged. We see before us a person as though coming from the pages of Fenimore Cooper."

Coulee Elevator Will Relieve Tourist Feet
