Why Doctors Favor a Liquid Laxative

A doctor will tell you that the care-less choice of laxatives is a common cause of chronic constipation.

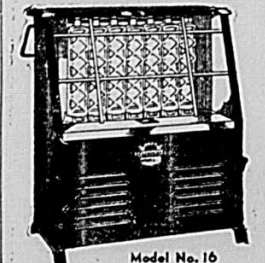

Any hospital offers evidence of the harm done by harsh laxatives that drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and even affect the liver and kidneys.

Fortunately, the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form. The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be controlled. It forms no habit; you needn't take a "double dose" a day or two later.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the average person's bowels regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time. Why not try it? Some pill or tablet may be more convenient to carry. But there is little "convenience" in any cathartic which is taken so frequently, you must carry it with you, wherever you go!

Its very taste tells you Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is wholesome. A delightful taste, and delightful action. Safe for expectant mothers, and children. All druggists ready for use, in big bottles. Member N. R. A.

Sunday School Lesson

By DR. J. E. NUNN

FOR NOVEMBER 5
General Topic:
PAUL IN JERUSALEM.
Scripture Lesson:—
Acts 15:1,2,22-31.

1. And certain men came down from Judaea and taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised after the custom of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2. And when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and questioning with them, the brethren appointed that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them should go to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

22. Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsabbas and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

23. And they wrote thus by them; The apostles and the elders, brethren unto brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greeting:

24. Forasmuch as we have heard that certain who went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls; whom we gave no commandment.

25. It seems good unto us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul.

26. Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

27. We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who themselves also shall tell you the same things by word of mouth.

28. For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things:

29. That ye abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.

30. So they when they were dismissed, came down to Antioch; and after having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle.

31. And when they had read it, they rejoiced for the consolation of the Lord is, where is liberty.—2 Cor. 3-17.
Time:—A. D. 50.
Place:—Antioch, Jerusalem.

INTRODUCTION
One of the most momentous controversies in the history of the church is considered in this lesson.

It was the matter of the relation of the rival of Moses to the Christian gospel. The Judaizers were at Jerusalem, who insisted that the Gentiles could not be saved without also becoming Jews. The first disciples had been Jews, then Christians. The Judaizers thought that this order should be maintained.

"From what we know of Paul's views we can understand how bitterly he must have resented the meddling of these men, especially just now when he was flushed with joy at the splendid success of the first missionary tour. Why tell him that a heathen man could not be saved by Christ alone, apart from Moses? He had seen it done! Christ plus Moses? Not Christ alone? Yes.

Advice Asked of the Jerusalem Church. v. 2

"And when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and questioning with them." These nouns do not imply angry quarrelling, but merely earnest discussion, such as is sure to take place when men of strong and convinced minds hold opposite views on an important question.

By this means truth has been promoted and advanced throughout the ages. "The brethren." The Christian church of Antioch. "Appointed that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question." Notwithstanding the persecutions, the execution of James, and the imprisonment of John and Peter, the apostles abode faithfully and courageously in Jerusalem, constituting it the mother church of Christianity.

The elders were the leading men of the Jerusalem church, and of these James, the brother of our Lord, was the most influential.

The "certain others" are not named here, but from Gal. 2:1 we learn that one of them was Titus, a Greek convert to Christianity who had not been circumcised.

This Titus was the man to whom Paul wrote the epistle in the New Testament bearing his name, and became a faithful and efficient helper of Paul in his missionary labors.

Peter's Testimony
After considerable debate, Peter, the leader of the Apostles the most decided and prompt of the twelve, rose and told how a long while before that time the Lord had chosen him to make known to the Gentiles the word of the gospel and how the Holy Spirit had laid his seal upon their faith, giving them the same testimony that he had given the Christians at Pentecost.

"Now why," Peter asked cogently, "should you put on the necks of these Gentiles a yoke which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? For we believe that both we and they shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, and not through any forms or rites whatsoever." The entire assembly knew of Peter's wonderful experience in the house of Cornelius the centurion, and the apostle's address recalled them to the fundamentals of Christianity, to the founding of the church by the Holy Spirit, and no one dared to speak contrary to that decision of heaven.

The Testimony of Barnabas and Paul
"Next Barnabas and Paul repeated their wonderful story, this time laying emphasis on the fact that they were only the instruments through whom God wrought and showed how greatly the Gentiles had been blessed, and were being blessed, altogether apart from circumcision." F. B. Meyer. Like Peter, they could say what they had seen and heard, and this is always the most convincing testimony. Also, they doubtless called upon Titus and other Gentile converts to bear witness to their hearers and prove that they were genuine Christians.

The Apostolic Letter
"And they wrote thus by them." It is always best to put agreements. Memories are treacherous. The defferent parties may have different understandings of what was really agreed upon. If an agreement is set down in plain black and white, it is always there to consult. "The apostles and the brethren, brethren, unto the brethren who are of the Gentiles." The letter was sent in the name of the apostles and elders, but it is plain that they represented the church. Note that the Gentiles are called "brothers;" it was throughout a brotherly agreement. "In Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greeting." Antioch was the capital of Syria, and Cilicia was the neighborhood province at the northeast corner of the Mediterranean. We might have been sure that Paul's work in Tarsus and the work of Paul and Barnabas in Antioch would have resulted in planting Christian churches in those provinces, but up to this point Acts has given us no notice of them. "Forasmuch as we have heard that certain who went out from us have troubled you with words." The letter avoids a statement of the contentions of the Judaizing party. The less said about the statements of the wrong side, the better. Constructive work far surpasses destructive work.

The Brotherly Spirit
The closing words of the letter are beautifully brotherly, sinking authority, and putting in the foreground the advantage to the Gentile converts of compliance with the injunction, "rightly as well," with the requirements of love to weaker brethren, "well," and be strong. That the way in which "lords over heritage" are accustomed to their decrees. Brotherly affection rather than authority imposing its will, breathes here. Would that all succeeding "councils" had imitated this, as well as "it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, as well as to us."—Rev. Alexander MacLaren, D. D.

The Unity of the Church
Like a mighty army moves the church of God; brothers we are treading where the saints have trod. We are not divided, All one body, we, One in hope and doctrine, One in charity."
—Sabine Baring-Gould.

The feeder is controlled by two governors for uniform feeding and better grinding with less power. The hammers are of the straight type, of heat treated steel, semi-rigidly mounted. This is the simplest known method, free of complicated parts, assuring long service. A high quality speed jack with trouble-free, multiple V-belt drive comes with the mill as regular equipment. This permits the use of a large pulley and puts an end to excessive belt slippage.

All these new features mean low-cost grinding. You'll get more out of your home-grown crops—and you'll save on your feed costs. This is worth looking into. Let's talk it over.

Telephone Man Says Business is Much Better
MAKES SUMMARY OF BUSINESS CONDITIONS IN TEXAS, OKLAHOMA AND KANSAS.
Mr. J. B. Haley, one of the managing executives of the Western Telephone Corporation recently returned from an extensive business trip through the Kansas and adjoining territory served by his company, and reports a decided improvement in business conditions. Mr. Haley's purpose in making his trip was to visit and inspect the many stations and offices of the Western Telephone Corporation, and Kansas Home Telephone Company, which provide telephone service to a vast territory embracing Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas.

The installation of new telephones is a very significant index of business conditions, and Mr. Haley tells us that the increase in the number of telephone subscribers is both gratifying and encouraging. Because of the protection afforded by the telephone as a means of summoning help quickly in case of fire, illness or accident, and because of the convenience of the telephone in transacting business, it is one of the first necessities arranged for when more money appears in circulation. The fact that the past weeks have shown a marked increase in the number of telephones is, therefore, very cheering news indeed.

Another phase of the increase in the number of telephone users emphasized is the fact that as the number of telephones increases, more employment is created and more people go back to work. Also, the service becomes more valuable to each user, as more people can be reached, business is stimulated, and friends and neighbors can maintain friendly contacts. The properties and service of the Western Telephone Corporation and its affiliated companies have been developed to a high degree of efficiency, and the home or business telephone enables the user to reach not only the subscribers in the great territory served by the Western Telephone Corporation, but to also enjoy the low rate toll service of the nationwide Bell Telephone Companies.

Juniors had a class Tuesday morning. Social committee plans for a class party. This will be held on Wednesday of this week at the Gunn.

We are looking forward to the football game with Follett, which we expect our boys to win.

A number of our III Class Friday afternoon at which time they went to Perryton. We hope they will get lots of information at the game between Perryton and Follett.

Sophomore Report

The sophomores were pleased with their report cards this month. Those on the honor roll were Geraldene Boland, Helen Jenkins, Alma Johnson and Marjorie Davis. Those with a B average were Ralph Blodgett, A. J. Curtis, Glaciola Caldwell, Dwight Hutchinson, Helen Browder, Ina Mackie, Ruth Buchanan, Doris Kirk, Rose Files, Dick Vernon, and Rodney Hammond. We are all going to try to do better next month.

There were a few of the sophomores who attended the Perryton ball game Friday. They were A. J. Curtis, Rodney Hammond, Mabel Easley and Oliver Leverton.

Freshman Report

The freshmen class enjoyed very much the party that was given them by Mrs. Bill Whitson. The entertainment was cleverly planned by Miss Maize, Miss Critchfield, Mrs. Whitson, and others. There was music and hot chocolate.

We are looking forward to the coming football game with Follett.

Sophomore Party

The Sophomore Class went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis Wednesday night and enjoyed a Halloween party. The house was beautifully decorated with Halloween decorations. Shortly after we arrived Marjorie Davis said she had a friend who was visiting her for a short while. She said her friend was an Egyptian fortune teller, and she asked if any of us wanted to have our fortunes told. Some of us learned much of our future.

Many interesting games were played and delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, pickles, pea, cookies and apples were served to the members of the class and guests.

The guests who attended were Mrs. Allen, our room mother, Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Miss Lawrence, our sponsor.

FOURTH A. & B.

We were glad to get our report cards last week, and most of us made good grades. Anta Clea Reed and Fulton Walker were promoted to the A section.

We enjoyed making rhymes in our health classes last week.

SEVENTH NEWS

We are all looking forward to Halloween, and are planning things to do.

Mrs. Delon Kirk, our assistant room mother, is going to give us a party Friday, November 3, in the gymnasium. We are sure we will have a very good time.

One day last week we wrote letters to our room mother, Mrs. Archer, who is in the hospital at Amarillo. We hope she is able to return home soon.

Our room looks much better since we have some pictures and a few flowers.

We are glad to welcome Glenn McComas in our room. He makes the fourth new pupil enrolled.

Sunday will be the last day of services of the conference year. Let's make this the best day we have had this year—spiritually.
Every member should be present Sunday at all of the services of the day. The Sunday school has increased in attendance the last few Sundays—but we don't think the record this Sunday. We want if you will come, bring 166 more than the last year's pass that record book will try to measure what will be helpful to you, at the morning hour at the evening service the officers for the new year are installed. Special programs are rendered at this time. The Lord will give a resume of the church's work of the church year, and you will probably be glad and elated over the achievements of the church. No one has ever had a more comprehensive membership to work with. We have ever had more people on the board of the churches than have fallen in pleasure and our pastor here have enjoyed. Some of the members have given this year as a widow in the scriptures did their living. This will be a better report on conference collections or benevolences than any for all of which we are thankful. The stewards will be the last drive and it they might make a record as last year. If the needed loyal members. Thank God we have any true and tried loyal members who are zealous in the work of the church.

Last Sunday afternoon some 200 members attended the League. No better program had been presented since its inception than that one Sunday Miss Reba Barkley efficient president elected for another year. We are proud of her people and the work they are doing in the district.
Members and friends, we extend a hearty welcome to all of our services Sunday.
H. A. Nichols, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
Bible Study, 10 a. m.
Preaching 11 a. m.
Evening Service 7:30 p. m.
Mid-Week Bible Class 7:30 p. m.
Folks, the Revival is almost upon us. Just another week in which to prepare and then be ready to start promptly at 11:00 a. m. Sunday, November 12th.
To the members may we remind you that everyone has an important part in this work for the advancement of the Lord's Kingdom. Let's make sure that we leave nothing undone that will in any way aid in the success of the meeting.
And to the general public may we urge you to make your plans right now to attend.
We ask you to do this not because we have anything new, or flashy as recognized by the world but simply because we are persuaded that the plain, simple gospel truths that have withstood the persecutions, and the slander of the ages are today just as vital and as worthy of man's consideration as ever when the church was first established.
It seems unfortunate that the Baptist revival is scheduled to begin just a week after the one conducted by the Church of Christ in that possibly quite a number of people would have liked to have attended both meetings. However, that is perhaps unavoidable.
Regardless of what your religious beliefs are, you will enjoy and appreciate the series of Bible lessons that Brother Carter is preparing for you. And we urge you to study your own Bible and prove all things to see whether they come from man or from God.
Your soul's salvation is what we are interested in. That is the purpose of the revival—to save souls. You will not be asked for money.
Will you come and study with us?

Baptist Attend
Hallowe'en Festival
Members of the First Baptist Church gathered at the Legion Hall on Tuesday of this week and celebrated with a Hallowe'en Fun Festival. A program befitting the occasion was carried out, previously arranged, which furnished a maximum of entertainment thru-out the evening. At the close of the program delicious sandwiches and cocoa were served to all present.
Members of the Spearman Music Club will meet at the home of Mrs. O. G. Collins, next Tuesday 3:30, November 7th, instead of at the home of Mrs. F. J. Daily as previously announced.
All members are especially urged to bring their Year Books and be prepared to answer roll call.
Missionary Society
Units In Joint Meeting
Thirty members of the Mary Martha and Bell Bennett units of the Methodist Missionary Society were entertained at the home of Mrs. P. A. Lyon at 2:30 P. M. on Wednesday of this week.
A very interesting lesson on "Foreign Missions" was studied, followed by delicious refreshments. Mrs. C. H. Ging who has been out of town for some time was honored with a handkerchief shower.
Each unit will hold its regular meeting hereafter. The Bell Bennett unit will meet next time at the home of Mrs. L. S. McClellan.
PRAIRIE GIRLS PARTY
The members of the Prairie Girls Club enjoyed a Hallowe'en party at the home of Elizabeth Ann Miller, Monday evening. The house was turned into a ghost den. The guests added to the atmosphere as they entered attired in Hallowe'en garbs. After they survived the icy hand shake of the papa ghost at the door they enjoyed the bats, black cats, stunts and games. The young ladies decided the high spot of the party was reached when Spooky Bridge was introduced to them. A picnic lunch was served from bridge table appointments. At the sleepy hour favors and fortunes were allotted to the following guests: Garnett Harmon, Louise Linn, Mary Fern Terry, Alta Mae Haun, Lena Mae Deering, Eileen Davis, Elsie Ruth Porter, Mary Daugherty, Dixie Ruth Buchner, Martha Delon Kirk, Ruby Ruth Kelly, Dolie Bell Andrews, Francis Hoskins, Dorthy Mae Birdwell and the hostess, Elizabeth Ann Miller, Mesdames Geo. Buzzard and Delon Kirk, club sponsors assisted.

Wayne Modrick
A useful Christian and courageous life was put to rest at 6:00 p. m. Wednesday, November 1st, when death claimed the life of Wayne Modrick, nineteen year old evangelistic gospel singer. His death was wholly unexpected as he seemed to be in better health the few days before he died. He had been ill for the past several weeks, suffering from what was believed to be trench mouth.
He since his conversion near two years ago had lived a true Christian life as an evangelist gospel singer, traveling with his brother, John Modrick, an evangelist. They recently closed a series of sermons in Spearman at the Union Church.
The young man was not well known here, but those better acquainted with him were impressed with the fineness of his life and character, which will be a challenge to others to take up the tools he has laid down upon the threshold of a life of such promise and carry on with the ideals and purpose which had characterized his inspirational life.
He is survived by a loving mother, Mrs. Ella Modrick, of Booker, Texas, two sisters, Mrs. Ed Cook, of Booker, and Mrs. Robert Fickle, of Beaver, Oklahoma; four brothers, Mitchell Modrick of Spearman, John Modrick, traveling evangelist, and Nicholas and Marion Modrick both of Booker.
Complete funeral arrangements have not been made, but the service will be conducted by Rev. Homer Coberley, of Roswell, New Mexico, and burial will be held in Mountain View cemetery, near Booker. The body is in charge of the Wilson Funeral Home.

Check Your Children's Eyesight by the 14-Inch Rule
WATCH your children while they read or study in the evening. If they hold their books closer than fourteen inches from their eyes, it is a danger sign, a warning that vision is hampered.
The reason is obvious. Ordinary type is designed to be read at a distance of fourteen inches, the normal reading distance. When light is inadequate, however, it becomes more difficult to see clearly at this distance. The tendency, is to compensate for the deficiency by bringing the book closer to his eyes. A bad habit results. Nearsightedness may develop . . . or the eyes may otherwise be permanently injured.
The remedy is better lighting. . . an increase in illumination that will enable children to read a distance without an improvement of a few pennies per month, and may save many dollars in optician's bills. Let us help you with your lighting problems.
