

COMMISSIONERS TO RANGE HIGHWAY 88 ROUTE TO GRUVER

After having completed the preliminary work necessary to start construction work on the 88 highway, the members of the Hansford County Commissioners Court their selection of a route did not agree with the one selected by the state highway commission, and that the Court would change their plans to conform with those of the highway commission if the road is surveyed.

Following a regular meeting of Court last week, Judge J. H. Hubbard and Commissioner completed arrangements for road to go along same route as the present 88 highway to Gruver. The Court passed necessary resolutions and forwarded them to the state highway commission. A letter informed the roads were available.

Officials were anxious to start laying out the route, but the highway must follow the route formerly outlined by state highway engineers.

The route as designated by the state engineers follows the old 88 highway direct west to the Hansford hill, and instead of taking the hill the road will go west, running South of the South and West of Old Hansford. From this point the road takes a direct northwest course to Gruver.

Up to the time the paper goes to press the Commissioners Court had not taken any official action on the road work.

COMMUNITY SADDENED BY PIONEER'S DEATH

This entire community was saddened last Friday afternoon, September 15th when the news spread at Mrs. E. B. Dodson had succumbed at 3:15 p. m. at a hospital, Shattuck, Oklahoma, where she had been taken a few days before. This fine wife and mother had spent approximately 32 years of her life in Hansford county, where she had a host of friends and acquaintances. Until her death Mrs. Dodson enjoyed perfect health and a hard worker and exhibited ambition in regard to her family. She always took benefit out of life. Aside from her household duties, and her beauty parlor work, she found time to study, write and paint. She had recently sent a story of Western life to a magazine for publication. Mrs. Dodson was a zealous and loyal member of the American Legion Auxiliary and at the time of her death was serving as president of that social order. She joined the Methodist church at Texhoma years ago.

Mrs. Dodson was born in Young Texas, October 1st, 1894 and lived there with her parents, and Mrs. Richardson, until year of 1901, when they moved to Hansford county and settled on a farm in the Grand Plains Community. She was married to E. B. Dodson November 16th, and to this union one son was born, who is seven years old.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of the Willoughby Home. A capacity was held at the Union Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. to hear the eulogy said by Rev. H. A. Loftin, pastor. A Methodist pastor, and as Rev. A. F. Loftin, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Burial was held in the Wood Cemetery.

Family leaves to mourn her loss a daughter, father, mother and brothers.

HELP! HELP! HELP! CALLS JUSTICE OAKES

The inimitable Justice of the Peace G. E. Oakes for these parts is calling for help, from the rich and poor, the bold and meek, fat and lean and in fact anyone who will come to the court house and help use up the fine tender turnip greens that are growing in abundance on the court house square.

The Justice of the Peace confided to the writer that he intended to help gather the greens for every woman that came for them, regardless of how they look, and the good looking ladies that came after the greens he intended to do the gathering by himself while they looked on. Folks, there's no substitute for galantry. Let us hope Mrs. Oakes doesn't read this.

CANADIAN WILDCATS BEING COACHED BY SCHOOL MENTOR

Coach Elvis Ward is toiling daily with a group of prospective Wildcat footballers. Work so far has consisted of limbering up and toughening calisthenics and fundamentals in blocking, passing, kicking and ball carrying. Candidates at present look pretty slow, green and awkward but daily practice sessions should see them rounding into good physical condition in a couple of weeks.

Although light and without too much experience prospects seem to promise a better team than last year. Of the 24 reported for practice eight have had a year's experience.

The first game is to be played with Spearman Sept. 22.

20TH CENTURY CLUB ANNOUNCE WINNERS

The winners of the contest in gardening and yard beautification are announced as follows:

GARDEN
1st. Mrs. E. C. Womble.
2nd. Mrs. A. G. Brandt.

YARD
1st. Mrs. H. A. Nichols.
2nd. Mrs. Robt. E. Meek.

This is a modest beginning of what we hope to make a big annual enterprise. The winners this year will be given horticultural prizes for first place.

The judges stated that they were surprised to find such excellent and productive gardens in the face of so long a drought and many hot winds. This proves that we can make gardening pay.

The yard contest should inspire others to greater effort in the future to make each home plot a place of beauty, thereby making Spearman a more beautiful city.

All through the day Friday customers of the bank came out crying as if they had found their accounts overdrawn a thousand or two dollars.

Lynx Open Season With Canadian Friday On Local Gridiron

Meeting a team with eight letter men from last year and a team that will outweigh them, the Spearman Lynx aggregation, with only one letterman on the squad will open the first chapter of this year's football history of the Lynx park North of the tracks Friday afternoon when they defeat the Canadian Wildcats.

Coach Elvis Ward of the Canadian Wildcats, 24 players on the team, and the entire citizenship of Hemphill County feel a bit different about the predicted outcome of the game. They are a unit in declaring they will fight every inch of the ground when the Lynx and Wildcats mix up on the football gridiron.

Fact is Coach Ward is smiling rather happily for his team enters the contest a pronounced favorite. He is counting a great deal on weight and experience to win in the Friday contest, and logically he has a right to wear his smile of confidence. What Coach Ward does not know and the thing he will have to learn on the field of battle Friday, is the fact that the Spearman Lynx are made up, sixty five per cent intestinal stamina and thirty five per cent football strategy. It's a hard combination to defeat, especially when the boys are coached by one of the best coaches in Texas and are inspired to fight by a record last year that makes the lighter Lynx team realize that Spearman fans are accustomed to real football, and want a winning team.

Coach Elmer Gunn has worked hard with his fourth-year class of Lynx warriors, and despite the fact that he has an inexperienced light team, he expects to keep up the traditions of winning the district with the Spearman Lynx. He declares that he has never coached a more willing contingent of boys, and this means a whole lot toward future victory.

PROPOSED TO MARRIAGE BUT WED DESPITE THAT

A modern maiden with old fashioned ideas on marriage and a man-about-town marriage evader clash in a forced wedding ceremony, and interesting complications result in "Double Harrows" co-starring Ann Harding and William Powell in the RKO-Radio comedy-drama coming to the Elks Theatre at Perryton Wednesday and Thursday, September 27 and 28.

The blonde Miss Harding proves a superior strategist when she lures Powell into matrimony. When he learns of her trickery, which was really inspired by love, her efforts seem doomed to be wasted. She finds keeping a husband more difficult than landing him.

Lillian Bond, Henry Stephenson, Reginald Owen and George Meeker compose Miss Harding and Powell's supporting cast in "Double Harrows." John Cromwell directed from Jane Murn's adaptation of Edward Ford Montgomery's stage success.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Allen returned Sunday from a vacation spent visiting relatives at Neeshow, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Baggerly and daughter Merle drove to Canyon Tuesday of this week. A Merle will enter W.

Farmers should include their applications and must be filed before it will be accepted.

Other counties are along with the Spearman work and should be completed. In other words the various reports are being filed from the county.

 people.
 I am a Jew, born in Tarsus icilia, but brought up in this zealous for God, even as ye Paul was the apostle to the Gentiles, whose great work was the extension of Christianity among the Greeks and Romans of Asia Minor and Europe; but he was always true to his Jewish ancestry and faith, and wherever he went in his missionary journeys he preached first in the local synagogue if there was one. "Of Tarsus in Cilicia." Cilicia was the Roman province of Syria. Antioch was the capital of Syria, and Tarsus was the chief city of Cilicia. Paul never missed a chance to speak for Christ, and he seized this occasion, addressing that wild mob from the stairway leading to the castle, though most men would have been glad enough to insure their safety by getting inside the walls.

SAUL'S EARLY EDUCATION
 Though living in so great a center of Gentile learning, Saul because he belonged to a pious Jewish family, would not be sent to the famous university of Tarsus.
 Like all Hebrew boys he obtained the rudiments of his education at home. It was based on the Bible, and passages of scripture were learned by heart and carefully explained by the father and mother.
 Later, the boy went to the synagogue school. Paul was intended for the career of a rabbi, but the work of a rabbi was entirely gratuitous and he was expected to support himself by some trade. All honest work was highly regarded among the Jews. Saul became a maker of tents, which was a thriving industry in Tarsus. All thru his missionary labors Paul supported himself and often his assistants by his work at making tents, the business learned during his youth in Tarsus. Thus he set a splendid example before modern boys and girls, for every one is the better for being able to support himself by some useful art.

THE SCHOOL OF GAMALIEL
 "At the feet of Gamaliel." Literally so, as the teacher sat on an elevated platform and his pupils sat at his feet. "Both his own learning and character, and from his being a grandson of Hillel, Gamaliel held the foremost place among the theologians at Jerusalem. Gamaliel was liberal minded, large hearted, and tolerant.

What the youthful Saul had learned from his teaching was the knowledge of the law, a minute acquaintance of the elders, a thorough knowledge of the scriptures and of the current method of interpretation. Paul quotes from all parts of the scripture. From the Penta-teuch, from the Psalter, and from the Prophets he quotes in such a way as to prove that he had mastered their contents and was as familiar with them as possible.
 The quotations we now have from the original Hebrew was as familiar to him as Greek translation." Prof.
 James Iverach.

PAUL, A ROMAN CITIZEN
 "And the chief captain (the tribune of colonial troops) came and stood in the castle) came and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman?" As soon as Paul in the progress of his speech, made mention of his work among the hated Gentiles the mob flew into a rage so violent that the Roman soldiers withdrew their prisoner hastily into the castle, and the colonel, according to the barbarous fashion of the day, commanded Paul to be scourged. But Paul instantly protested, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?" One of the privileges of a Roman citizen was this, that he might not be scourged except after due process of law, and the chief captain knew that he would be severely punished himself if he disregarded that law. "And he said, yea."

SAUL'S ZEAL FOR JUDAISM Paul's first church in Europe was founded in Philippi, an important historical city of Macedonia, and this community of Christians was always dear to his heart.
 Luke probably was a native of Philippi, or at least made the city his home. Paul's letter to the Philippians was written during his first imprisonment in Rome, gratefully acknowledging a gift which they had sent him. It is one of the most joyful and joy-inspiring letters that came from his pen.

"As touching zeal, persecuting the church." Concerning Paul's zeal in persecuting the Christians we are to study in our next lesson. It is sufficient here to note that as a member of the Sanhedrin and a zealous Pharisee, Paul was head and foremost among the people who hated the followers of Christ.

At the time this address of the apostle, Paul was visiting Jerusalem to bring succor from the Gentile Christians of Europe to the persecuted Christians of Jerusalem, when he was attacked by some bigoted Jews who objected to his work among the Gentiles who charged him falsely with bringing a Gentile into the temple.
 This mob was instantly raised and Paul would have been torn to pieces if he had not been rescued by the Roman troops.

GENUINE BAYER ASPIRIN
DOES NOT HARM THE HEART

Why
Liquid Laxatives
Do You No Harm

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can be controlled. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.
 The right liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement, and with no discomfort at the time, or afterward.
 The wrong cathartic may keep you constipated as long as you keep on using it!
 An approved liquid laxative (one which is most widely used for both adults and children) is syrup pepsin.
 Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help, as they do in the case of cathartics containing mineral drugs.
 Ask your druggist for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Member N. R. A.

We had our first class meeting Thursday, September 14, for the

We are very glad to have Mr.

Senior News

The Senior Class has just about settled down to the regular routine of school. Most of the members have found that even if they are Seniors they have to work some. The class held its first class meeting Thursday, Sept. 14, and elected the class officers as follows:

President, Jean Lyon
Vice President, Vernie Black Sec. - Treas., Billie Jenkins Reporter, Wren Loftin Room Mother, Mrs. Gower.
It also elected certain members of the Lynx Staff: Editor, Evelyn Mathews; Joke Editor, Alleen Gill; Boy's Sport Editor, Harold Womble. Girl Sport Editor, Sibyl Parks. Miss Ethel Deakin will be our class sponsor this year.

PEP SQUAD

The Pep Squad made a good showing at the game Friday afternoon. They have not fully decided whether they are going to get to go and back the Spearman boys.

Adaly Daugherty and Irvin Wilson were chosen leaders, and they are doing their best to build up a good Pep Squad.

GOD IN THE MIDST

The Lord thy God in the midst is mighty; he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing." Zephaniah 3:17

Can you imagine a pilgrim, foot sore and weary, coming late in the afternoon to the top of some lofty hill from which, in the distance he sees flashing in the light of the setting sun, the domes and spires of the city toward which he is journeying—the city where his loved ones dwell. He stands. He looks at his eyes upon that fair scene he thus gazes upon. The horizon, and the gathings shut out the fair city. Taking his staff in hand he begins his journey, held and the vision of the new un- out still unforgotten city. He stands high on the DE INSPIRATION AND ANION. He has a glimpse of the city with Jehovah him- ing in the midst.
