Celebrate the Glorious FOURTH of JULY

Let's all celebrate the Glorious Fourth of July next Tuesday with our friends and loved ones. The day celebrates the birthday of our nation in 1776 and today make your plans to attend some kind of a celebration, go fishing, camping or do something to make the day stand out in your memories.

This nation has never called upon its citizens to "man the gun" but that call was heeded and answered. Manning the guns today calls only for the courage to face the problems of the day under the banner of reconstruction and carry on with the resolve that this nation shall not perish. Independence day our national birthday is the time to resolve anew.
