REPORTER COOKING SCHOOL WILL OPEN TUESDAY

DON'T NAME IT

By HONEST BILL.

Folks who have been setting their clocks, planting their crops and raising their children on the basis of information disseminated thru this column had better seek other sources of information. For the past ten days all the predictions made by the writer of this column have been off-color.

In the first place we should have been at least 3 inches of moisture by this time. All the signs and scientific data point that-a-way. We do not have the moisture.

In the second place this writer should be drinking buttermilk out of the Hansford County Championship Basketball cup. He is not.

In the third place the 32 point victory predicted for the Lion's championship basketball team was cut to a one point defeat by the now championship boy scout team.

In the fourth place, the writer is figuring on smothering the American Legion Cripples by a score of 27 to 7 when they play basketball tonight with the Lion's club team. If this goes hay-wire, folks had just as well get busy borrowing money to plant a barley crop. There won't be enough wheat raised to feed the English sparrow if the Crips beat the Lion.

One of the funniest sights the writer has seen for many days was Floyd Sumrall when he was frightened. It happened at the Hard Luck Social Tuesday night of this week. Several mischievous boys had been turning out the lights at the Legion Hall, and Sumrall and the writer were all set to catch the little outlaws when they tried the stunt again. Sumrall was peeping out of the window watching the approach of a group of boys, all ready to jump out the back door and give them a scare when they reached up to douse the light. Some of the boys were hid behind a haystack in the lot behind the hall and tossed a rock at the window breaking the glass into a thousand pieces. Sumrall was the most amazed man I have seen in many days. It was funny.

But you boys who were having so much fun, don't you think you carried the matter a bit far when you destroyed property. And you came near spoiling the refreshments the ladies were serving at the party. Fortunately the refreshments were covered and the shattered glass did not ruin them. If you boys are good sports you will dig up the money to pay for the window glass you broke at the Legion Hall. Bring it to the writer and he will not reveal your name.

Hard Time Social Held Tuesday Night

Sponsored by the Missionary Society of the Methodist church, the hard time social held at the American Legion hall Tuesday night, proved one of the interesting entertainments of the week. Cross word puzzles, "42" dominos and other diversions proved satisfactory entertainment for a few, while the more peppy visitors insisted on "snap" leap frog, spinning the plate and whip crack. In the midst of the evenings entertainment, an old fashioned spelling match was staged with all visitors participating. Frank Wendt and Lee McClellan headed the opposing sides of the spelling match, and the contest came out a tie. Gingerbread, whip cream and coffee were served as refreshments.

LIONS TELL BEST JOKE AS PROGRAM AT NOON LUNCHEON

Some of the classiest Jewish, Catholic, Negro, Scotch, balderdash and ancient jokes in circulation were served as the program of the Lion's club Tuesday at the noon luncheon. Each Lion told his best joke, and they were all good. The program was completed for the basketball game, and practiced by the negro minstrel which was produced by the Lions in near future.

GUYMON HOST TO FIVE STATE LEGION MEET

Delius-Bratton Post, No. 31, Expects Thousands of Legion Delegates

Guymon, Okla., March 2.—(Special)—Thousands of delegates from the various American Legion Posts in the Southwest will gather in this city Thursday, March 16, when the local post will entertain with a five state meeting.

In recognition of the interest of the local post in the recent nationwide drive for membership, Oklahoma State Legion officials have been successful in securing a visit of National Legion Commander Louis A. Johnson for that day. Delius-Bratton Post, No. 31, boasts of the biggest post per capita, in the state, as a result of the recent membership drive.

Nat. Commander to Speak
National Commander Johnson will address the meeting during the afternoon, which is open to the public, on topics of importance to every Legionnaire, concerning the present and future activities of the national organization. This address will be augmented by speeches by the visiting state commanders.

National Commander Johnson has already demonstrated that he has the interest of the rank and file of the national membership at heart, and for that reason stands out foremost among the past national chief executives of this organization. It behooves every Legionnaire in the Southwest to hear and see him.

The local post is not overlooking the slightest arrangement for the convalescing, having recently appointed complete committees, working to the end that this will be the largest and most significant meeting of "buddies" ever to be held in the Southwest.

The parade will start from the Free Fair building at 5 o'clock, and the Guymon post will give an appropriate prize to the visiting post making the best appearance in the parade.

Officials of Delius-Bratton Post are sending special invitations to every post in this area to be represented here on that day.

SPEARMAN'S INDEPENDENT BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT PROVES TO BE BIG SUCCESS

Spearman's first Independent Basketball Tournament got underway on scheduled time Friday afternoon when the Spearman Eagles met the Borger All-Stars at four o'clock. The All-Stars were reported to be a fast team, and Spearman was prepared to battle hard in order that they might remain in the tournament. The Eagles started off with a bang and continued to play fast and furious all through the game, the final score being 71-5.

The next game was between Pringle and Spearman B team. This was a close and interesting match, the score at the half being 9-11 in favor of Spearman. The game ended with the score in favor of Spearman. Ows Spearman was high point man with 13 tallies.

This finished the evening session and at 8 o'clock Farms and Borger Outlaws met in game. Although Fransworth defeated by two points they did a fast team and by his ent work on the floor, his to make his free baskets as his shirts from the floor for Red Keith a place on tournament team.

Coch Atkins of Borger high point man with 16 points. Another interesting game began at 9 o'clock, was between Perryton, Perryton started the lead and at the half the Beaver team came back at half with a determination and succeeded in scoring 26 to Perryton 21. Beaver was lead at the end of the third quarter and the score jumped fourth until the last minute when Perryton gained a five point lead, the final score being 44-29.

Due to some slight mishaps the Canyon Freshmen who had entered were not scheduled to come. However they did come, and were scheduled for the place held by Spearman B team. This completed the rounds. Saturday morning the game started at 9 o'clock with the quarter finals. Oklahoma met and defeated Gruver 45-20; Spearman won from Guymon 39 to 10; The Goodwell College B team lost to the Canyon Freshmen 33-19.

In the semi-finals Spearman defeated Texhoma 41-20; The Freshmen defeated Borger 37 to 14. This brought the Yearlings of Canyon college and the Eagles of Spearman together to play the final game, and what a game it was. The Freshman took an early lead by sinking a couple of field baskets in the first few minutes of play. The Spearman men were undaunted however and kept fighting hard and at the end of the first half held a small lead, but not enough to be out of danger.

At various intervals in the last session they were overtaken and the score would be tied, but the Freshmen never gained the lead again. It was a fast, clean game, both teams putting out everything they had. With just a minute to play the score stood 22 all. Tip Window worked in under the basket for a perfect set-up and the game ended, Spearman 24; Freshmen 22.

Everyone pronounced the tournament a huge success. One mis-

WILL CONDUCT COOKING SCHOOL HERE

Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig

CONTINUES FOUR DAYS; MANY PRIZES OFFERED

Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, who will conduct the Spearman Reporter's second annual cooking school in the Lyric Theatre, beginning Tuesday of next week and continuing through Friday will arrive in Spearman Saturday.

This noted culinary artist is well known over the Panhandle and Plains country where she has been conducting most highly successful cooking schools for the past several years. Cities where she has appeared always clamor for her return for successive engagements, her popularity increasing with each visit.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

WHO—Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig.
WHAT—Reporter Cooking School.
WHEN—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons from 2 to 4, March 7, 8, 9, 10.
WHERE—Lyric Theatre, Spearman.
WHY—To lecture and demonstrate the fine art of cookery.
ADMISSION—Absolutely FREE.
PRIZES—Yes plenty of them. Be on hand to get yours.

Ten leading newspapers over the Panhandle have combined their requests Mrs. Ihrig's return to conduct a cooking school in each of their towns on successive weeks: She has held schools Dalhart, Shamrock, Memphis, Panhandle, Hereford, Borger, Lamesa, Pampa, where her crowds have more than filled to capacity buildings in which the schools were given. She comes to Spearman for her second visit and the indications are that the commodious Lyric Theatre will be needed to hold those who will attend the lectures and demonstrations.

In her quiet manner that has won her success wherever she has appeared, Mrs. Ihrig has given the Reporter her plan for the week's program, and made suggestions that will contribute to the success of the school, and with the completion of all arrangements for the Happy Kitchen School of Cookery, Mrs. Ihrig, noted food economist and lecturer is scheduled to open her first session of the Happy Kitchen Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Lyric Theatre. The school of cookery will be conducted 4 days, and is for the women of this city and vicinity as a compliment from this newspaper and the local and national advertisers participating.

New recipes, ways to make the old dishes look different, better—little tricks to brighten and lighten the home-maker's task—all will be given. And if there is any question bothering you concerning cooking, such as baking cakes and pies, preparing tasty salads and other appetizing dishes, you are invited to bring them all to the Happy Kitchen.

Mrs. Ihrig is famed throughout the South for her knowledge of cookery and her insight into the everyday problems of the housewife, will be in charge of the programs. She arrived here today to complete final plans for the Happy Kitchen, and declared she is looking forward to her appearance here as "one of the best schools ever."

"We're just going to show a 1933 fashion revue in foods," says Mrs. Ihrig. "For fashions in foods do change, you know."

Each day's program will be entirely different and no housewife should miss a minute of the entertaining demonstrations. Some forty distinct and separate dishes are to be made by the culinary artist during the school, and each day's work will be correlated with the next program of the following day.

When asked what her primary aim in the Happy Kitchen is, she replied, "That's easy. It's the little things about the kitchen that count most."

"Most women are already good cooks, and I don't even try to go through a full course in cookery from the beginning to the end. That would be almost impossible. But I can help answer some of the problems that confront the housewife in her kitchen; how to get varieties in her menus, what makes meringues fall; how to use that little dash of spice or flavor that adds so much to a dish; how to successfully bake cakes and pies and many other little problems that arise in the kitchen.

A number of local merchants are co-operating in making the Happy Kitchen a success, together with a number of nationally known food manufacturers. Gifts will be given during the school cookery, and each program is replete with interesting and constructive ideas that will help the women who attend.

PROTECTIVE LEAGUE ORGANIZED SATURDAY

Twenty three property owners of Hansford County perfected the organization of a Protective League for the purpose of effecting satisfactory settlement between mortgage holders and mortgagees in this section of the Panhandle.

The meeting was held at the Hansford County court house, and near a hundred men from over the county were present to help in the organization. Constitution and By-Laws as printed in last week's issue of the Reporter were adopted by the membership, after the organization was perfected, and the following directors were elected to serve for one year: Al Thorsson, Robert Shapley, Roy Womble, R. D. Tomlinson, Walter Gillispie, Lee McClellan and Homer Cluck.

Following the meeting at the court house, the newly elected directors met at R. L. McClellan Grain Co. office and elected Arnold Thorsson president and Robert Shapley as secretary-treasurer.

The next meeting of the league will be held at the school house at Gruver, beginning at 2:30 p. m. next Saturday, March 4th.

Misses Olivette Hancock and Marguerite Hiner and J. D. Amen of Morse attended the dance at Stinnett Saturday night.

Bud Beason spent Sunday night in Borger with Happy McMurry.

"Air Mail" will be shown at the Lyric Theatre this Friday and Saturday, starring Ralph Bellamy, Gloria Stuart, Pat O'Brien, "Slim" Summerville, Lillian Bond, and Russell Hopton. It is a story of mail pilots and what they are forced to brave. "The mail must go through! Fearless flyers behind thundering motors brave fog, snow, hurricane and death to carry on. This is a picture of warm romance that zooms with thrilling thrills!

Seed Loans Now Available

20 PER CENT ACREAGE CUT REQUIRED FOR CROP LOANS

Reduction of 30 per cent in the acreage planted to cash crops will be required this year of farmers who procure crop production loans, Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde announced today in making public the regulations governing the 1933 loans.

In making available for crop production loans this year 90,000,000 of Reconstruction Finance Corporation funds, Congress specified that the Secretary of Agriculture might require, as a condition of any loan, "that the borrower agree to reduce his acreage or production program on such basis, not to exceed 30 per cent, as may be determined by the Secretary." The Secretary's regulations, however, stipulate that acreage reduction will not be required of farmers who in 1933, plant no more than 8 acres of cotton; 2½ acres of tobacco; 40 acres of wheat; 20 acres of corn; 2½ acres of truck crops; 12 acres of sugar beets; 8 acres of potatoes; 30 acres of rice; 8 acres of peanuts.

Farmers seeking crop production loans this year are advised to obtain application blanks and copies of the regulations in their home counties, rather than from Washington. Field agents of the Crop Production Loan Office are now designating representatives in each farming county to inform prospective borrowers of the requirements governing loans and to distribute application blanks and other necessary forms. These agents will assist farmers in filling out applications, without charge.

Accompanying the required 30 per cent reduction in acreage planted to cash crops, above the established minimum, the 1933 regulations limit the amount available to any farmer to $300. In 1933 regulations limit the amount available to any farmer to $300. In 1932, crop production loans were made to 507,632 farmers, averaging $128 each. No loan in excess of $100 will be made to any applicant who is in arrears on as many as two previous loans made by the Secretary of Agriculture. As last year, interest is fixed at 5½ per cent, to be deducted when the advance is made. All notes are due October 31, 1933. Advances to borrowers may be made in installments, the regulations state, inasmuch as expenditures for crop production are usually made over a considerable period.

One million dollars of the $90,000,000 funds is available for livestock feed in drought or storm stricken areas.

Charging a fee for the preparation of a borrower's application is expressly forbidden this year in Section 3 of the Act of Congress authorizing the crop production loans. Congress further declared these loan funds "to be impressed with a trust to accomplish the purposes provided for by this resolution—and it shall be unlawful for any person to make any material false representation for the purpose of obtaining any loan or to assist in obtaining such loan or to dispose of or assist in disposing of any crops given as security for any loan made under authority of this resolution, except for the account of the Secretary of Agriculture, and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this resolution.

Teeth for Section 3 are provided in a clause which orders a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both, for any person found guilty of violating the above provisions.

The remaining regulations announced by Secretary Hyde are similar to those in force last year. An absolute first lien on all of the crops grown by the borrower in 1933 is required by the act in counties where fertilizer is not commonly used, the rate of loan must not exceed $3 an acre for general field crops, and acre for truck crops, including potatoes. In counties where fertilizer is commonly used, according to the testimony of representatives of the Department of Agriculture, the rate must not exceed $6 an acre for general field crops, $10 an acre for tobacco, and $20 an acre for truck crops, including potatoes. Not to exceed $1 an acre of loans made at any of these rates may be used for repairs and miscellaneous expenses of crop production other than seed, fertilizer, feed for work stock, and fuel and oil for tractors.

Special provision is made for additional loans—within the maximum allowed per farmer—for the purchase of materials for spraying and dusting, to protect crops from insects and diseases; for payment of water charges, electric power, etc. necessary to crop production on irrigated land; for production expenses including employment of hand labor, on sugar beets, sugar cane, hops and rice. Loans may also be made this year for summer following, not to exceed $250 an acre for acreage not in excess of that planted in 1932, provided a first-lien is given on all crops growing or to be planted; grown and harvested in 1932 sufficient to cover the cost of the seed.

An application for a loan, accompanied by the necessary crop lien, will be passed on first by county advisory committees. If the county committee and the field inspector certify the application, it will be forwarded one of the several regional field offices for final approval.

International Sunday School Lesson

By DR. J. S. NUNN

FOR MARCH 5, 1933

General Topic.—Jesus Giving Life to the Dead.

Scripture Lesson: Mark 5:21-24, 27-34.

21. And when Jesus had crossed over again in the boat unto the other side a great multitude was gathered unto him; and he was by the sea.

22. And there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jarius by name; and seeing him, he falleth at his feet.

23. And beseecheth him much, saying, My little daughter is at the point of death. I pray thee, that thou come lay thy hands on her, that she may be made whole, and live.

24. And he went with him; and a great multitude followed him, and they thronged him.

25. While he yet spake, they come unto him from the ruler of the synagogue, saying, Thy daughter is dead; why troublest thou the Master? Teacher any further?

26. But Jesus would not heading the crowd, saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Fear not only thy daughter, but also them that seek to slay the body, but cannot reach the soul.

27. And he suffered no man to touch him, save Peter and James, and John the brother of James.

28. And they come to the house of the ruler of the synagogue; and he beholdeth a tumult, and many weeping and wailing greatly.

29. And when he was entered in, he saith unto them, Why make ye a tumult, and weep the child is not dead but sleepeth.

30. And they laughed him to scorn. But he, having put them all forth, taketh the father of the child and her mother and them that were with him, and goeth in where the child was.

31. And taking the child by the hand, he saith unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, Arise.

32. And straightway the damsel rose up and walked; for she was twelve years old. And they were amazed straightway with a great amazement.

33. And he charged them much that no man should know this; and he commanded that something should be given her to eat.

Golden Text:—Jehovah hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad.—Ps. 126:3.

Time:—Autumn. A. D. 28, the second year of Christ's ministry. Place:—Capernaum.

Introduction

To Christ, and to his biographers, there seemed to be no difference among the miracles, whether as respects the wonder with which they are recorded or the perfect ease with which they are accomplished. Only a word restores the withered arm, and only a word brings Lazarus from the grave. If anything appears more difficult than another, it is a cure of demoniacs, there being a kind of demon that comes out only with prayer and fasting; and yet our Lord accomplishes all with perfect ease. How many resurrection miracles were there during Christ's ministry besides the chief of all, his own resurrection? We cannot tell, for some are merely included in general accounts of the wonders that he wrought; but only are recorded in detail, the raising of the son of the widow of Nain; the raising of Lazarus, and the raising of the daughter of Jarius, which we are now to study.

A Ruler of the Synagogue "Jarius By Name" v. 22.

So seldom is it that we are told the names of the persons for whom Christ worked miracles, that this Jarius must have been a notable character probably a man of especial holiness and influence. The synagogue to which he was attached was that in Capernaum which had been given the Jews by the kind Roman centurion, only the floor of it now remaining. The synagogue rulers were officers found in connection with every synagogue. They were heads of the committee of elders, laymen who superintended all the work in the synagogue. These rulers had the power of excommunication. They were persons of great power and authority.

The Dying Child

My little daughter is at the point of death. Luke 8:42 tells us that she was about twelve years old when she was his only daughter. Her death was when she 9:18) that she "is even now dead." "I pray thee, that thou come and lay thy hands on her." Perhaps Jarius was thinking of the way Elijah brought to life the son of the widow of Zarephath (1 Kings 17:21), and Elisha won from death the son of the Shunammite (2 Kings 4:34, 35).

The prejudice of this synagogue ruler "would naturally be strong against Jesus, who was generally regarded as a teacher of heresy. Yet in the hope that the coming disaster of death might even yet be averted by the love and power of the Profit of Galilee, he came forth before the people who knew him well, and bowed himself down at Jesus' feet. Illness and anxiety for the life of some dear one has brought many in an agony of prayer to Christ's feet. Faith often springs up from the soil of trouble."

—Rev. Alfred Rowland, D.D. A Miracle By The Way. vs 25:34

Evidently without intent, the evangelists have done a fine literary turn here by interrupting their account of the healing of Jarius' daughter to tell of another healing wonder that was wrought, incidentally, on the way. Jesus was never too busy to turn aside for a kindness. And now, when on this life-or-death errand, he permitted himself to be halted by a sick woman's faltering touch. The woman for whom Jesus thus paused on his way to the house of the synagogue ruler was regarded as at the very opposite pole of social scale from him, for she had been a social outcast for twelve long years. Instantly, at her touch of faith, she felt that she was healed and instantly our Lord knew that healing power had gone from him—the only case in which we have any intimation that his great miracles cost him anything. She feared a severe rebuke, perhaps severe punishment for her temerity; but instead she received from the Lord praise for her faith, the kindly word, "Daughter," never given to any other woman so far as the records go, and the gentle farewell, "Go in peace, and be whole of thy plague."

The Delayed Blessing

In reading this chapter we throb with the same three who link of how Jesus carried two days in Perea when Lazarus was dying (John 11:5). Why? We, too, are often perplexed and impatient when he does not hurry at once to our relief in our pressing need. He knows best, Mary and Martha, and Jarius learned, and we shall learn, rich and richer lessons of Jesus' love from his tantalizing deliberateness than we ever could from his hurrying.

In a Home Of Death—and Life

Nor is Jesus at all disconcerted by the message that is brought while they are on the way to the ruler's house that the girl is dead. For he knows that his Advent is driving that word "dead" from human speech, for those who accept of it, might be rendered, "just keep on believing." "Peter, James, and John, the circle within the circle of the apostles. Peter, James, and John, who were with him on the Mount of Transfiguration, in Gethsemane and in those last days on the Mount of Olives (Mark 13:3). "Was it not because their faith was stronger than the faith of the others and that Jesus needed the backing of such faith in times of moment?"

Sorrow in the pre-Christian world sought noisy ways of expression: hired mourners, wailing music, etc. The words used here indicate tumultuous wailing, without real sorrow. Contrast Jesus' calm, "She sleepeth." Death is always that to him and his faithful—just peaceful, restorative sleep—restoring a happy awakening.

"Damsel, Arise." v. 41

Jesus' revivifying formula, "Damsel, arise," so impressed itself upon Peter's memory that long afterward when he told John Mark the story he repeated the identical Aramaic words Jesus had employed: "Talitha," "maiden," "arise!" A well known writer who has spent nearly all her life in Syria says that the common word in modern colloquial Arabic for "Get up!" is the identical one that Jesus addressed to the ruler of the synagogue's daughter. She says that she was always reminded of this story of Mark's when she heard a Syrian mother call out to an over-sleeping child, "kumi!"

AIM:— SECOND: To Make The Lynx the "Link." WE STRIVE TO EXCEL

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF:

Philip would keep the training rules? Mr. Gunn didn't have a black eye? Frankie wouldn't dodge behind a truck when she saw a one-eyed car coming? Ella wouldn't go to the dance at Stinnett? Helen wouldn't lose a cuff off her coat. Perryton boys wouldn't come to see Spearman girls? Vera Beth wouldn't lose her purse? Tom got a date? Alva Banks would lose his dignity? Lloyd and Novelene would not write notes in the study hall?

BOY SCOUTS

The boys of Troop 51 are trying to secure a building suitable for a meeting place that can be decorated and used as a troop room. Last Wednesday evening at the program that the Masons gave in honor of Washington's anniversary the Boy Scouts put on a show play representing "One boy of every four" who becomes Boy Scouts. The salute to the flag was given and the Pledge of Allegiance repeated. Some very good talks were given by Mr. Fin Mr. Shanks and other masons.

FRESHMEN

The freshmen are glad to come Dwight Hutchison back after an absence of several weeks. We are all glad that his exams are over and happy to know that vacation is just at the corner.

We are very proud of the football girls and hope the boys win over the Gruver Greyhounds.

SOPHOMORE REPORT

We have been taking our weeks examinations and we do hope we all pass as we only two more six weeks. We are all sorry Richard Williams is ill, and we will be when he starts back to school.

JUNIOR NEWS

All of the Juniors are well and a grin stretched across their faces this week. Why? Even a Freshman could solve that mystery. Six weeks examinations are over and most of the Juniors managed to pass them. Here's hoping we do as well next six weeks.

Still another of our little Junior girls has been added to the list of girls who prefer dignified examinations to (don't be offended boys; they don't mean it) "dumb high school boys." Well, Ruby, we are surprised.

The Lynx were very sorry that they were defeated Friday and Monday nights by Gruver, but we still maintain that they are superior to the Greyhounds.

We have decided that the Juniors can do anything that the grade school children can do. Hence the large crowd at the skating rink every night. Even Evelyn is learning to skate.

SENIOR GOSSIP

We are very proud of the Lynxettes and the way they closed their successful season by winning the Stratford Tournament. We are very sorry to hear that the Lynx lost to Gruver Monday night.

Monday morning in assembly the basketball girls showed the first place trophy that they won at the Stratford tournament. Mr. Gunn presented Mildred Neilson and Lucile Womble with a gold basketball. They placed on the all star team at Stratford. Lucile placed at guard and Mildred at forward. The Seniors are sorry to lose these players this year. We are also sorry to lose other good players on the team, but we are expecting great things of them next year.

We are glad that our six weeks examinations are over. We regret that there are just three more months of school.

The Interscholastic League meet will be held March 25 and 26 at Gruver. There are eighty-five boys and girls coming out for declamation in the grades and a few more in high school. The eliminations in the grades will be held Friday, March 3 and in high school Friday, March 10. We are planning to win many honors in the league meet.

Alvino (in history test): "It is funny that history never repeats itself to me."

rec'y in regard to his wonder-deeds is due to the fact that he sought to avoid the distraction of publicity. He must use all his time, before the hastening night comes, training his disciples in the secret and method of his gospel. A delightful final touch is given to the incident by Jesus' command that the girl be given something to eat. How tenderly thoughtful is the Master of all our little needs. He is getting a very large income to save a part of it. If you were acquainted with

CHAPEL NOTES

Monday morning, February 27, the entire school met in the auditorium. Several of the Juniors and sub-juniors said their declarations. After the declarations, Mr. Word called Lucile Womble, girls basketball captain to the front, and she showed the student body the beautiful trophy that the girls won at Stratford. Mildred Neilson and Lucile Womble, who placed on the "All Star team" at Stratford, were called forth and Mr. Gunn presented to each of them a gold basketball. The entire school is justly proud of these girls.

GRAMMAR REPORT

The sixth grade had Mrs. Womble for a substitute teacher Friday afternoon, Mrs. Gandy went to Clovis, New Mexico.

We are working hard on spelling and declamations and we are going to be hard to beat. We are very glad Mrs. Lee's little girl is all right so Mrs. Lee can teach. We enjoyed having Miss Reeves and Mrs. W.

PRINGLE ITEMS

The play the young folks of Pringle put on Friday evening directed by S. J. Lovell played to a full house. The twenty-five piece Berger Christian and Chamber of Commerce orchestra furnished splendid entertainment between acts. The Pringle Parent-Teacher Association sponsored this play and the proceeds were $19.75.

The cast is taking the play, "Where's Grandma," to Stinnett Tuesday evening, and it will be sponsored by the Missionary society.

Rev. J. A. Hembee preached at Pringle Sunday morning and there was eighty-two present for Sunday school and church.

The Wisdom Seeking Union met Sunday evening, but never had their program as it was snowing and some thought it the best thing to go home early before the roads got slick.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lieb visited in the W. C. Womble home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lovell spent the week-end in Canyon and Amarillo.

Mrs. Anna Lou R. Deering was a guest in the R. C. Womble home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. McCloy moved to Stinnett Sunday afternoon to carry Miss Marjorie. She enroute to Galveston.

Mrs. Ralph Forester spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. W. Keckey.

The following folks attended play at Morse Thursday evening and report a very enjoyable afternoon of entertainment: Mr. Mrs. R. C. Chisum, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Forester, Ona Stith, Mrs. Chisum, Donald Chisum, L. C. Henderson and Denzel Henderson.

Mr. Jarvis was visiting his parver the week end.

ELECTRICITY - YOUR CHEAPEST SERVANT

Soft drinks are cheap and so is electric service!

YOU think nothing of ordering a soda, a sundae or a malted milk. The nickels and dimes you pay for such indulgences are so trivial that you never miss them. Yet, if you have the average sweet tooth, you spend more for soft drinks, ice cream and the like than you do for household electric service.

For considerably less than the cost of a single malted milk, electricity lights the home, furnishes radio entertainment, operates the vacuum cleaner, makes the breakfast toast, percolates the coffee and performs numerous other household duties for a period of twenty-four hours. So cheap is electricity that the average customer of this company pays only 11 cents for a full day's service.*

Sodas and sundaes are worth the price, but when it comes to real, honest-to-goodness value, what do you buy that offers you more for your money than residential electric service?

*This figure was computed by dividing the total residential electric revenue by the total number of residential customers. Some customers pay considerably less than 11c per day and some pay more, but the average is 11c.

HAIL TO THE CHIEF

A NEW HAND GRASPS THE WHEEL

TODAY we join in a nation's greetings; a nation's hopes; a nation's eagerness to support the new leader who takes the helm of The Ship of State.

Today party and partisanship are abandoned and a deep sense of Americanism arises in readiness to lend whole-hearted co-operation to him who we have entrusted with momentous task grave responsibilities leadership must assume.

It is with faith in your sound judgment, Mr. Roosevelt; in your sterling patriotism and your intensity of purpose that we face the future with courage and with confidence. The pledges which you will take today are mutely echoed in the hearts of the millions of other Americans in support of their faithful performance.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the loving kindness and help they gave in every way during the sickness and death of our dear baby. Never can we forget the many things that were done to help us through the days and long hours of the nights.

We pray that God will reward you for the many ways you lifted the burden too heavy for us to bear.—The Black and the Cotter Families.

Here it is Thursday morning, and the "Dead Line" has already past at the Reporter office and the Cat's Eye has been fooling around doing Bill Miller's work and Clyde Hazelwood's so much that he has failed to write his column. Therefore it will be cut short this week.

The Cat's Eye was painfully injured at the Baptist "dinner on the ground" last Sunday, when he found a rock in the beans. It broke one of his molars on the left rear side, which had to be patched up by Dr. Daily, early Monday morning. Those grinders that dentists use are most painful, however, Dr. Daily is a painless dentist, as far as he is concerned.

Anyway, getting back to the feed, in all the dinners on the ground I have attended, and I specialize in them, I never saw more good stuff to eat, than there was at the church last Sunday. It was Rev. and Mrs. Richards last Sunday to be in Spearman. They left Monday for Austin where they will make their home.

Mrs. Richards, with tears of appreciation in her eyes, confided to me Monday morning as they were preparing to leave, that in the many places of residence during their lifetime, that they had never enjoyed more hospitality and true friendship than they have from Spearman folk, and asked me to extend thanks to everyone.

Folks, begin now to prepare to attend the Lion's Club Minstrel which will be given in the near future. The Spearman Dramatic Club will also have charge of a portion of the program, when they will present a burlesque play of three short acts, "Nell Rides Again."

This play has been written by members of the dramatic club, and will depict former plays where Nell the innocent country girl goes to the city, makes some money and gallops up to the old homestead, in time to pay off the mortgage held by the deacon, and prevent the foreclosure, and she marries "True Blue Harold" the hired hand.

The Cat's Eye will play the part of Nell, Opal Cline as Mother, Clyde Hazelwood as father, Bill Burras as the Buller Brush Salesman, the villain, Wesley Jenkins as "True Blue Harold," and Bert Snook as the "Deacon."

DECLAMATION RULES ARE CHANGED THIS YEAR

A copy of the new and revised constitution and rules of the University Interscholastic League has been received by Miss Jewel Williamson, recently elected Director of the declamation contest.

"The declamation contest," said Miss Williamson, "is conducted in two general groups. One for rural schools and one for all other classes of schools. There is a girls and a boys division in each of these two large groups, and the contest is further equalized by setting apart one group as a junior and another as a senior group, on the basis of the age of the contestant. An important change in the rules this year creates a special division for high school juniors, both for boys and for girls. This gives the juniors who have been promoted to the eight grade or higher a better chance than they formerly had, as under the old rules they were debarred from the junior division and had to enter, if at all, against seniors.

"This contest is designed to train boys and girls in sincere and effective public speaking, and at the same time contribute to their mental enrichment by requiring them to memorize phrase and poetry by the great literary masters. It is hoped that there will be a large number of entries in this contest in our county meet."

Christian Science

"Man" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, March 6.

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians 2: "What man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him?"

Among the passages to be read from the Bible will be following from II Corinthians 3: "Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing, as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God: Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit; for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. . . . But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord."

The Lesson-Sermon will also include citations from the Christian Science textbook by Mary Baker Eddy, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," one of which will be as follows (p. 90): "The admission to one's self that man is God's own likeness sets man free to master the infinite idea. This conviction shuts the door on death, and opens it wide towards immortality. The understanding and recognition of the spirit must finally come, and we may as well improve our time in solving the mysteries of being through an apprehension of divine Principle."
