Know Where You Stand

January first is the time for the merchant to take inventory of stock. Do you make a reckoning the first of each year?

Know just where you stand financially. Make a list of the amounts you owe. Set down in detail the money owed you, and make a list of what you own.

DO THIS, ALSO. Make an inventory of your opportunities. At The First National Bank you can build a cash capital; keep your funds in a safe place, always ready for immediate use. You can build a credit for yourself here. All through the year you can regulate your money matters safely and conveniently through a personal checking account. Keep in mind that we are here to serve your personal, business and financial interests.

It is my desire, therefore, to place such as are available with those who care for and will use them. THE ANGELUS TRIO

Someone has said that in music and the drama, personality is of equal value with art. If this be true this company should qualify at one hundred per cent for they have both in a superlative degree. Audiences fall in love with them at once for their dainty and charming selves and admire and applaud them for what they can do and the artistic and finished manner in which each does her part.

Their varied talents permit a program of exceptional interest.

Miss Kathryn Harper has had several seasons of professional experience as a violinist and reader-entertainer. Her musical attainments are unusual and are the result of great natural talent and years of study and coaching under the best teachers. Her stories of her own native Scotland are filled with the natural humor and quaint philosophy of the people she knows so well. With her sunny disposition, radiating good cheer and happiness, she is always perfectly at home with her audiences and in her inimitable way keeps their interest at a high pitch and their spirits in close sympathy with her own.

Miss Esther Essig, a graduate of the Chicago Conservatory of Music, has a beautiful soprano voice and with her saxophone contributes much to the beauty and attractiveness of the program.

Miss Aline Harper is a splendid pianist and accompanist. Her interpretation of modern art songs will have a strong appeal to all lovers of music.

Whether it be in ensemble or solo numbers this company can be depended on to please and inspire. The music of the masters is made interesting to all and the popular selections are given a new and added charm and beauty. Their mission is to bring joy and gladness, and the Lyceum welcomes them as a real addition.

At the Arcade Theatre, Spearman, Tuesday, January 25.

John Young, representing the Panhandle Security Company of Anthony, Kansas, was in Spearman the first of the week. Mr. Young predicts much activity in the real estate business throughout this section during the next twelve months.

WOMEN MUST PAY POLL TAX

County Tax Assessor Henry Waldrop is in receipt of the following information from Comptroller Wiginton, in regard to women voters paying a poll tax:

January 7, 1921

To the County Tax Assessor:

"In compliance with a law passed by the Fourth Called Session of the 36th Legislature, granting to women the right of suffrage, and imposing a poll tax on all women between the ages of 21 and 60 years, and making the same requirements for the assessment and collection of poll taxes from women as are now required of men. You are instructed that all women over 21 years of age and under 60, who have no legal exemptions, are liable for a poll tax and should be assessed.

"To facilitate this work, and in order to avoid burdening the tax rolls with a duplicity of unnecessary names, you are instructed that in assessing married men and women that you assess the husband and wife with all community property owned by them and assess each with a poll tax on the same inventory just as you would a partnership, except that the initials or given name should be given. For example: "J. W. and Mary Smith," or "B. G. and Ethel Jones." Single women should be assessed in the same manner that single men are assessed.

"Where a married woman has separate property that is assessed in her name, you should assess her poll tax on her separate list."

COUNTY TRUSTEE MEETING

A meeting of the board of County School Trustees of Hansford county, was held at the offices of A. F. Barkley in Spearman on Tuesday of this week. This board at present is composed of Messrs. A. F. Barkley, president; N. Celsor, Geo. M. Whitson, Geo. W. McMurry and W. B. Hart and its duties is to look after the schools of the county in a general way, such as the division or consolidation of districts, etc. At this meeting district No. 3 was divided into two districts. This district is located in the northwest corner of the county. The south end of what was formerly district No. 3 intends to vote bonds and build a school house, and make many improvements in their school facilities by the beginning of another term. These changes will not effect the present terms of school.

On Wednesday night of this week the friends of Mesdames P. A. Lyon and W. R. Morton held a kitchen shower for these two estimable ladies, at the home of Mrs. John R. Collard. A great number of nice presents were presented to the newly-wedded ladies and a delightful evening was spent by all present.

There will be blank spaces on the ticket also, so that a voter may vote for whom he pleases, if the nominees are not to his liking. The ticket nominated is a strong one and the Reporter believes that it will be elected. Don't forget the election on the 18th inst., and don't fail to vote.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Maupin are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine girl at their home on Sunday, January 9.

Construction work on the big garage building of the Spearman Motpr Company, which will be owned by Cook and Chamberlain, was begun Monday. This building, located just across the street south of the Panhandle Lumber Company, is to be a splendid structure, modern in every respect, and the coming of this firm to Spearman means much to the business life of the town. Spearman is growing; not a boom, but a slow, steady, substantial growth.

HOW DO YOU SAY IT?

By C. N. Lurie

Common Error in English and How to Avoid Them

"LET YOU AND I DO IT"

DESPITE all the teaching in the schools and in spite of preachments of grammarians, it seems almost impossible to establish among the American people the proper use of the pronouns "I" and "me." For example, the incorrect phrase "between you and I"—instead of "between you and me"—is heard so often that grammarians almost despair of establishing the proper usage. Unaided, they cannot do it; all must help.

"Let you and I go to the theater tonight," we hear. It is incorrect. The correct form is "Let you and me go to the theater tonight," although this may sound queer. The explanation is simple. "Let" is a transitive verb; that is, it must have an object or objects. And the objects in the sentence quoted are "you" and "me" (not "I"). They must, therefore, be in the objective case.

A WEALTHY MAN.

I have no holdings in the soil,
I hold no shares of steel,
No motor stocks, or Standard Oil,
My coffers e'er reveal.
But I've a first-class appetite,
A job that pays me well,
A cozy home to seek at night,
Where love and kindness dwell.

I've now and then a bit to spare,
On things I do not need;
To ease the burden of the friend
Who seeks the friend indeed.
No enemy I know. My cares
Impair no jot my health,
And Croesus' self, for all his shares,
Can boast no greater wealth.

THE WOODS

BY DOUGLAS MALLOCH

BROTHERS AND SONS.

ON a dirty floor at a slimy bar in the anteroom of hell I have seen them stand with a devil's leer, I have heard the tales they tell— I have heard them brag of the brutish things, I have heard them boast of shame, Till I longed again for the Jewish God, for the God who smote with flame, And I wondered much if there lingered still not a dream of boyhood land, Not a tender thought of a mother's kiss or a touch of sister's hand, For we wander far, and the years go by, and the boyhood vision fades, Yet we are the sons of the mothers of men and brother to all the maids, And it is not there in the wild alone that the souls of men forget; In the house of pride, on the polished stair, where the gilded ones are met, I have heard the tale that is often told on the dirty bar-room floor While the idle smiled, and the loungeer laughed, and the bestial asked for more.

For the thing we are is the thing we are, not the thing in garments new; And the coat that fits is the tailor's coat, but the man inside is you. It is such as I, it is such as you, that have made the jests and jades— Yet we are the sons of the mothers of men and brother to all the maids.

Yea, the sons we are of a motherhood, of a mother-love, divine, And I can not slander this mother yours—if I do I slander mine; Yea, the brothers are of a sisterhood of the sisters loved or lone, And you can not slander the least and say that the world shall spare your own, For a woman's name and a woman's fame they are sweet, and frail, as flowers; But the strength to shield and the arm to wield for the woman's name are ours, Let the God-made man keep his God-made trust till his life's last twilight fades— For we are the sons of the mothers of men and brother to all the maids.

Dog's Shot Fatal.
A dog shot a man at St. Andre in France. The party were resting at lunch and had left their guns resting against a heap of hay, when the dog jumped against them and caught its foot in the trigger of one of the weapons, which went off. The shot struck a well-known sportsman, Mr. Agasse, in the region of heart, killing him instantly.

Remarkable Egg.
An English subscriber sends word that a poultry keeper at Wilesborough (Kent) has had, from one of his hens, an egg weighing three ounces. It is four inches long and six and a half inches in circumference. It was laid by a hen which is crossed between a Houdan and a Black Orpington.

Remarkable Growth of Kale.
Kale grows over six or eight feet high in Jersey, and the dried stalks are used as walking sticks or light lumber. An old shed which had stood for 80 years had such stalks in its roofing, which were still in good order.

THE LOVING-CUP.

THE two-handled form of cup, now used mostly as a prize or a testimonial, had its origin in a more suspicious and violent day than ours. The cup, as served, had a cover and a napkin. One man, drinking with another, would hold the cup by one handle and the napkin; the other removed the cover and held the other handle. Both hands of both men being thus occupied, they might drink without fear of bodily assault with a dagger or other weapon!

A MAIL ORDER DEAL

The other day in Oklahoma a man went into a hardware store to buy a saw. He found the kind he wanted and asked the price. It was $1.65 the dealer said.

"Good gracious," replied the shopper, "I can buy that same saw exactly from Sears-Sawbuck, the catalogue house, for $1.35."

"That's less than I paid for it," replied the dealer. "But I will meet catalogue competition, so I'll make you that saw for $1.35 also."

"All right," said the customer, "send it to my house and charge it to my account."

"Not on your life," replied the dealer. "No charge account on this. The mail order house don't trust you. I am simply meeting their price and terms. Fork over the cash."

The customer complied. "Now 2 cents more for postage, and 5 cents for the money order" said the dealer.

"What?" "Certainly you have to send a letter and a money order to a mail order house, you know."

The customer, inwardly raving, handed over the money.

"Now, 25 cents for expressage," said the dealer, still holding out his hand.

"Well, I'll be—" said the customer. But he paid it, saying,—"Now hand me that saw and I'll take it home myself and be rid of this foolery."

"Hand it to you? Where do you think you are? You're in Oklahoma and I'm in Chicago. You'll have to wait two weeks for that saw."

Whereupon the dealer hung the saw on a peg, and put the money in the cash drawer.

"That makes $1.67," he said. "It has cost you 2 cents more and taken two weeks longer to get than if you had bought it from your local hardware store in the first place."

THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good

By JESSIE ROBERTS

HOME VOCATIONS

IN THE old days women did their work in their own homes, and they did pretty much all the work that was required to make a home complete. Today women have gone out into the world to earn their living, and what they use in their homes they buy. But there is a curious return to some of the older types of work. Once again women are spinning and weaving. But now they do it for its commercial value. They make a vocation of some household task of their grandmothers', and earn a living by it.

Specialty shops and private customers pay big sums for fine work of this hand sort. It is a good business venture for a woman who really wants to make money and who cannot go out into the world to do so, to learn the processes of weaving, provide herself with the proper equipment and then get to work. She should get in touch with some selling center, and keep herself informed of the best work that is being done in her line. This she can do by joining some crafts society. A course of six weeks with a good teacher, working every day, is advised. The loom itself will cost from fifty to sixty dollars, but it is useless to invest in a poor one. The workwoman is worthy of her tools and she should see that her tools are first-rate in quality.

Many women do their own dyeing, getting excellent results. Many make their own designs, or copy certain well-liked ones from old sources. The marketing is part of the work. If you belong to a crafts society you can Help Yourself.

The Australian sense of humor is well developed in private life, but in official circles it is often shut out by red tape barriers. For instance, it was most unfortunate that the federal government, which has caused a storm by raising legislators' salary without reference to taxpayers, should have endorsed the following huge poster on behalf of the second peace loan: "Help the Digger—Help Your Country—Help Yourself." When the humor of this announcement was recognized by press and public, it lost its popularity with the government, which had no wish to be reminded that it had already set a good example in the art of helping oneself.

RUMELY
OILPULL
TRACTOR

Buy Your Tractor Now

THE man who buys his OilPull tractor now shows real foresight and common sense.

First, he gets the use of it for the many winter and early spring jobs before heavy spring plowing begins.

Second, he becomes thoroughly familiar with it before he jumps into the regular spring work.

And, besides, he gets the OilPull while the "getting is good." Even though the big Rumely factories have been extended and the production of OilPulls greatly increased over previous seasons, the demand has increased even faster. "Oversold" will probably be the cry in 1920 as in 1919.

Tractor buyers are recognizing more and more the standing quality of the OilPull—made famous by a number of highly desirable, and exclusive features it contains.

Oil Burning—Guaranteed to burn kerosene in any conditions and loads to its full rated brake horsepower.

Oil Cooled—No radiator troubles—no boiling—no even motor temperature.

Powerful 2-Cylinder Motor—Low speed, heavy duty, in head—37 parts ground to the thousandth part of an inch—throttle governed—equipped with Bosch magneto.

Perfect Lubricating System—Combination fresh oil feed (Madison-Kipp) and splash system.

Long Life—The first OilPulls built, after 11 years in the field, are still going strong.

Be sure of getting a tractor with these exclusive features by placing your order for an OilPull now.

Four sizes—12-20, 16-30, 20-40 and 30-60 H. P.

ONCE I KISSED A WEE MAID.

Oh, once I kissed a wee maid beneath a lilac tree; 'Tis many a year ago now, and she was very fair, But every heart is young, sir, that holds a memory, And all the stars of April were shining in her hair.

The paths that led across the hills kept calling to my feet, And there was many a land to lure and many a distant sea; Oh, many a lip was red, sir, and many a waist was neat— But once I kissed a wee maid beneath a lilac tree.

Not mine to make the loud name, the starry high success, But life has tuned my old heart with many a melody; Oh, I have had a man's share of dreams and happiness, For once I kissed a wee maid beneath a lilac tree. —Perrin Holmes Lowrey, in the Saturday Evening Post.

NEW IDEA FOR CLOCK FACE

Reform Which Seems to Be Eminently Sensible May Soon Come Into General Use.

A watchmaker suggests a change in the dials of timepieces. On the proposed dial the circle traced by the tip of the minute hand is marked, as usual, into sixty minute-divisions. But a minute number and not an hour number, is placed at every fifth division. A smaller circle, traced by the tip of the hour hand, is marked into twelve hour divisions. Between successive marks the hour numerals are displayed. The number "12" for example, is placed between the first and second hour mark. It will be noticed, too, that "0" replaces "60" on both the minute and second circles.

Only the slightest change in the relative spacing of hour and minute hands would be necessary to make them point to the exact hour and minute.

Valuable Ships on Ocean's Bottom.

To consider only a few of the more valuable ships now lying at the bottom of the ocean one might turn to the Irish sea first of all. Off the north coast there are the California, Laurentic, Tuscania and Audacious, while to the south there are the Lusitania, Arabic, Folio, Hesperian and Anglo-Columbia. In the Bristol channel lie the steamers Falaba, Glenart Castle, Armenian and Mantola, and off Plymouth are the Afric, La Negra and Formidable. At the entrance to the English channel there are many important wrecks, including the Laconia, Ohio, Kansas and Kieber. There are still more valuable hulls and cargoes in the southern waters of the North sea, including the three battleships, Aboukir, Cressy and Hogue, off Yarmouth.

Improved Plating Process.

In a new plating process, iron sheets, for instance, are given a strongly adherent coating of copper from the application of a metallic varnish followed by heating. The varnish for the copper deposit on iron is made of about four pounds of pulverized copper oxide and four pounds of copper in one gallon of crude oil. The coating is applied by heavy iron rolls, and the painted plates are heated in a furnace, when the oil is volatilized, the oxide reduced, and the metallic copper fused to the iron. The process is adapted also to rods, tubes and other shapes.

Cat's Long Journey.
A reader at Comox, B. C., writes the Montreal Herald that, "Mr. Piecy of Cumberland, moved to Victoria. Among his belongings was a lovely Persian cat. The cat's young mistress died with the flu, and the cat, missing the young lady, found its way back to Cumberland, a distance of 150 miles. It was first discovered in the window of the drug store which had been owned by Mr. Piecy."

Ladybirds Save Fruit.
Ladybirds (or ladybugs), have a high cash value in California, where they devour the cushion scale, one of the orange tree enemies. They are found in great bright-colored masses in mountain canyons, and can be scooped up in double handfuls. Carloads are sometimes shipped to the melon and fruit growers, and $50 a day has been made in collecting them.

Russians Prefer Old Currency.
In spite of the great changes of government in Russia, the old czar ruble is still in circulation. Nobody knows who has the plates, but the stuff is still being printed and is always welcomed by the peasant in preference to the new currencies, which he does not trust.

Aviators' Fatal Error.
Traveling 12,000 feet high, a Finnish officer and Italian aviator ran into a snowy icy peak, probably mistaking it for a white cloud. Their frozen bodies were discovered last week, a month after their death.

Energy in Piece of Chalk.
Sir Oliver Lodge has estimated that the piece of chalk with which he was making a diagram on a blackboard contained 300,000,000 foot-tons of energy.

Begin Life Fully Grown.
Unlike most creatures, insects come into the world full grown, and remain the same size all their lives.

Honest Puss.
Honesty characterizes a Montreal pet cat. Tempting foods she left untouched unless they were given to her; and this honesty she exacted of her kittens. One of them was caught by her one day clambering up toward a good delicacy on the table. Honest mother puss was incensed. She knocked her furry baby to the floor and cuffed her soundly. No offspring of hers should be a thief if correction would prevent.

"COZY LITTLE HOME"

HAVE you already responded to the call, and now on winter nights enjoy the comforts of your own fireside; surrounded by all the conveniences of home?

Those who now own their own homes could not be induced to part with them and go back to the many discomforts and uncertainties of renting.

Whether you own a home or not, you have heard the call of the "Cozy Little Home." Nature itself implanted that longing in every human heart, and life never attains its real fullness until you

OWN YOUR OWN HOME

The first step in the direction of owning your own home is the resolve ---"I WILL!"

"HOME," if it was to be obtained without effort, would never be appreciated fully. The zest of life comes from contrast, and it is human nature to never fully appreciate anything until we have first sacrificed and strived to attain an end.

LUMBER PRICES ARE DOWN to such a low point that to either hope or wait for a lower price would be unreasonable. Right now there exists a real opportunity to save by buying, as prices are bound to advance when spring building activities make their demand felt.

Home building costs are not anything like as high as you think. Lumber is cheaper than we ever expected to see it, or ever expect to see it again.

Let us tell you of "ways and means" and show you many pictures and plans of modern homes that we have gathered together for your benefit.

If you don't own your own home, you really owe it to yourself to talk the matter of building and building costs over with experienced authorities. We have made a close study of all practical and economical uses to which the material we sell can be put. We can be real helpful in showing you how to "cut according to your cloth," and our best advice and assistance is yours for the asking, and we don't expect you to feel under any obligations to us either.
