2,886 Register In County For Ration Book 4

The Hansford War Price and Rationing Board wishes to thank the superintendents, teachers and their assistance for the good job they did in the issuance of War Books 4. This was a tremendous task but it was well done. Every detail was taken care of properly, and all unused books and registers were returned to the board in perfect order.

Also, the splendid co-operation of the public is appreciated. Supt. L. H. Bond reported that he received fine response to his request that all come in the first day of the registration that could conveniently do so. He said that only a few of the registrars had to work on Saturday.

The number registering for book 4 at the different school sites is as follows: Morse, 222; Gover, 905; and Spearman, 1759. Total, 2886. Forty-six books have been issued at the board to late registrars.

The November program will be "Freedom of Spiritual Life," which will be given by the ministers of Spearman.

As a leader of the "Immortal 56," Blankenship helped prevent a general sales tax being placed in the constitution. He is a native of Bell County, a graduate of S. M. U., and served overseas in World War I.

Fewer Orders Received For The Reporter Month-End Business Off, But Six Come In Monday Alone

SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED
J. T. Smith, Dalhart.
Leona Shedeck, WTSC., Canyon, gift of her mother, Mrs. H. M. Shedeck.
Leroy Cronise, Corswain, U. S. Navy, care postmaster, San Francisco, gift of his wife.
Sgt. Olin H. Riggs, care postmaster, New York, gift of his sister, Mrs. Leroy Cronise.
A/S Perry L. Chesser, Syracuse University, New York, gift of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Chesser.
A. D. Morton, Spearman.
H. L. Wilbanks, Spearman.
Grace Main, Spearman.
A. L. Jacobs, Spearman.
Allen Pierce, Spearman.

The end of the month frequently is not considered a good time for business. So, the last week of the month showed a slight drop in subscriptions for The Reporter—only ten having been received.

But November is starting off with a little more subscription business. On Monday, the first of November, six subscriptions were received and they were not included in the list published today's Reporter.

So, there is every probability that the report published next week will show more names. But The Reporter is mighty pleased with the subscription business this year. September was our biggest month and October was a close second.

Our press run was increased 40 papers four weeks ago and this week we are adding another 25. This increase is because we are running so short of papers every week. In fact, we frequently sell out except for a few file papers required for advertising checking copies.

Notices for November expirations were mailed during the week-end by Mrs. J. H. Buchanan, who is in charge of the subscription list. She has instructions to cut off all subscriptions in arrears, so please pay attention to the first notice you receive.

The Reporter also endeavors to carry the proper expiration date on your paper to enable you to know when it expires without even inquiring at the office.

It is time to begin thinking about your Christmas list. You may have friends and relatives who would prefer a Reporter for a Christmas gift. The rates are most moderate; only $2 a year in Hansford county; $2.50 a year elsewhere. So, include The Reporter in your Christmas shopping.

Santa Fe Has Month Profit Of $3,974,679

The Santa Fe's net railway operating income for September was $3,974,679, according to President E. J. Engel. This is a decrease of $5,170,061 compared with September, 1942. Gross for the System was $38,740,853, an increase over September, 1942 of $5,536,672.

Operating expenses were $25,264,318, an increase of $7,836,342 over the same month of 1942. Railway tax accruals were $9,214,541, an increase of $2,908,928 over the same month last year.

Comparative figures for the month and nine-month periods for three years are:

September 1943 gross, $38,740,853; September 1942, $33,204,181; and September 1941, $19,976,915. Net railway operating income for September 1943 was $3,974,679; September 1942, $9,144,740; and September 1941, $4,259,371.

Nine months gross for 1943 was $342,862,399, with $253,615,073 for 1942 and $162,289,786 for 1941. Nine months net railway operating income for 1943 was $45,359,031, with $53,206,712 for 1942 and $29,878,287 for 1941.

Railway tax accruals for nine months ending September 30 include $92,365,000 Federal income and excess profits taxes compared with $39,703,330 Federal income tax in 1942.

H. Otto Studer Austin attorney and chairman of the state industrial accident board, died in an Amarillo hospital Sunday morning. He was almost 44 years old and a native of Canadian. ## Six Of Ten Men Taken Into Service Married; Two Recruits Fathers

Six married men, including two fathers, were in a group of 10 men accepted for military service at Lubbock last week through the Hansford County Selective Board.

The men went to Lubbock, Monday, Oct. 25, and were taken into service the following day. Included in the group were four volunteers.

Most of those assigned to the Navy left Sunday afternoon. Those placed in the Marines will leave Nov. 11 and those in the Army will leave Nov. 16.

The four men volunteering to make up the quota were: Cyrus M. King, Seabees, Robert Earl Hart, Navy; Dayton Neeley Barkley, Marines; and Cecil Earl Ralston, Marines.

Others accepted for service and their branches follow: Austin Cotter and Don Gross, Navy; Arthur Thomas, Emory Dee Roper, James Newman Biggs and James Franklin Ray, Army.

Married men are King, Hart, Cotter, Gross, Hill and Roper. Fathers are Kink and Cotter.

Two others are leaving on the bus Sunday for service were Harold Crooks in the Navy and Bennie Briley.

Work Of Grand Jury Finished; Docket Is Light

Two Petit Juries Are Ordered Not To Report For Service

A young man was indicted, pleaded guilty and received a suspended sentence of two years in what probably will be the lightest docket of the 84th district court in Hansford county in years on the opening day of the two-weeks' term Monday.

C. D. Parks, 18, Lefors, pleaded guilty to an indictment of burglary and his case was heard without a jury. The indictment resulted from breaking into the Santa Fe railway station last July. Although the safe was tampered with, it was not broken into, officials stated.

Parks had been on $1,000 bond and had worked sometime for an oil company. He was reported to have done good work for the firm. Should Parks have been given a prison sentence on his plea of guilty, District Judge Jack Allen said that he would have been ineligible for military service.

Two other boys were investigated by the grand jury in connection with the entrance to the Santa Fe station, but they were not indicted.

The grand jury was empaneled in the morning and it was discharged at 2:30 p. m. Monday after returning one indictment.

The grand jury report commented on Hansford county law enforcement as follows: "It is our opinion that conditions in this county in respect to law enforcement are very good, and that there have been few infractions of the law in this county during the past few months. We trust that those officers charged with the enforcement of the law will continue to exert their very best effort so that violations may be kept at a minimum."

Enduring Peace Program To Be Held Nov. 10

The World Community Day observance has been changed to Wednesday, November 10. It will be held at the Methodist Church beginning at 11 o'clock with a very impressive worship service and running through until 1 o'clock at which time a covered dish luncheon will be served in the annex.

The after dinner program will consist of the following topics: The Price of War and Peace, World Brotherhood, A Hand-A-Heart-A Responsibility, Economic Interdependence and World Order.

These topics will be ably discussed and together lead to the general topic for the day which is "The Price of an Enduring Peace."

All church going women are urged to be present. This is the first such program in Spearman and its effectiveness will naturally be enhanced by a large representation, those in charge said.

Senior News By Frank Porter

Last Wednesday afternoon we seniors played the upperhand in the freshman initiation. A. L. Wilson, a senior, was the head of the program. He was assisted by Georgia Burleson, Robbie Graves and Gene Schnell, all seniors.

We are very sorry that Miss Cora Frances Combs, who had been in our class for the past 14 years, had to leave us. She moved to Amarillo where she will attend Amarillo High School.

After Halloween holidays, the seniors are going back to work again. However, our class does hope to have a party in the near future.

October 25 the Spearman Band came over. They entertained us with an hour and 30 minute concert. Along with the band numbers several twirlers gave an exhibition.

Our basketball teams are to play Sunday here November 5th. We are all looking forward to it.

Mind Your Manners

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

- 1. If a member of your household leaves an open letter around should you feel free to read it?
2. If you would like to sit at a table in a private club with acquaintances, should you first say, "Do you mind if I sit down with you?"
3. In that case should you pay for your own drink?
4. Should a woman say "Won't you come in?" to the neighbor who comes to the door on an errand?
5. If a neighbor's child comes into your house to play with your children should you see that he takes off his wraps and puts them on again before leaving?
What would you do if—

Then, on Friday, his janitress was run over by an automobile. Saturday he was reclassified in I-A, although he has four children. Sunday his youngest son was stricken ill. Sunday night nothing much happened, except that Halloween pranksters soaped his windows.

It's All In The Mind COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho—Sheriff Harry Haner jammed on the brakes of his car when he suddenly came upon two lines of a tug-of-war rope, he said, across the dark street. He leaped out and the pranksters scattered, laughing. There wasn't any rope.

PLEASE DO NOT DISTRUB

This week we are devoting to our annual Rain Trance. If you come down and it looks like the force is asleep, don't disturb—we're not really asleep though—we're thinking and concentrating on the rain situation. We had it started yesterday but a couple of birds came in after their winter supply of coal and broke the spell. After they were gone we got back in the trance again and had to get out and load up some of that Purina Feed the boys are all bragging on, and now unless you leave us alone we are liable to lose contact with the rain man entirely.

If we get a half-chance to get back in the Rain Trance though, we will nearly guarantee an inch by Saturday night.

Yours for a big rain and a Square deal—

New Teacher In Grade School
A new teacher in the Spearman Grade Schools is Miss Beatrice June Cox of Amarillo. She is teaching departmental work in the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades. She has been teaching for the past two years, and comes highly recommended to the Spearman Schools.

Miss Cox was a teacher in the public school at Briscoe, Texas, for approximately one year and six weeks before coming to Spearman. She is anxious to stay and teach in our schools, but as yet, has not found a place in which to stay. We want to welcome Miss Cox to Spearman and we hope that she will be able to continue her work here and will find it very pleasant. Again, Miss Cox, we welcome you!

Girls' 4-H Club News
By Geneva Ford
The Spearman Girls' 4-H Club had its monthly meeting Wednesday, Oct. 27. We finished electing our officers. They are: president, Jo Ann Hoskins; secretary and treasurer, Jean Hart, and reporter, Geneva Ford. We also had our president appoint two committees: One for the Gold Star girl and the other for the planning of a new year book for 1944. Our next meeting will be the fourth Wednesday in November. We urge that all 4H girls be present at these meetings.

"SYNTHETIC" TIRES
"You get more for your money when you buy Gates Tires."
Now that pre-war tires are practically a forgotten tire, you should stop and consider before purchasing just any make of the New Synthetic Tires.
GATES HAS NEVER BUILT ANYTHING BUT a strictly Quality Merchandise in Rubber goods—whether it be a belt, radiator hose, batteries or tires.
Gates Rubber Company informed us several months ago that they would not build a SYNTHETIC Rubber tire until they were sure the process had been perfected to the point where they could build a tire that would give good service. They were probably the last large company to start building Synthetic for that reason.
BEFORE YOU BUY THAT "SYNTHETIC," CHECK ON THE QUALITY OF A GATES.

NEW PETTICOATS ARE QUILTED FOR WARMTH

BRIGHT idea for these chilly days: petticoats with quilted panels that keep your legs warm, but maintain the current slim silhouette, as illustrated at center, above. The panels are of aralac between two thicknesses of rayon crepe. They are used front and back for warmth, with the side panels on the plain crepe for smooth fit. At left, above, is another new, warm petticoat of half wool, half rayon. It comes in a variety of plaids. The sketch at right, above, shows a taffeta petticoat with scalloped lower edge that comes in black and navy.

HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

I hear a lot of people talking about mice these days, in fact, these small creatures seem to be a general nuisance.

A new bit of information which I received from entomologists of the U. S. department of agriculture this past week was concerning mice, so I shall pass it on to you to try if mice are one of your problems.

Flake naphthalene or "moth flakes" is a protection against both mice and clothes moths according to these government scientists. Mice dislike the "fragrance" of the flakes, while moths die from the fumes.

As the flakes evaporate, they give off a vapor which, if sufficiently concentrated, kills moths. So wool and fur are safe from moths if stored in tightly sealed trunks, chests, or closets with plenty of flakes to fumigate the interior. A few flakes scattered in open closets or bureau drawers, even if they give off plenty of odor, will not disturb the moths.

Mice, on the other hand, have a keen sense of smell and particularly object to the "mothball smell." At this time of year when mice from outdoors come into cellars and attics, flakes scattered over and around stored mattresses, upholstered furniture, clothes, books, and bags of seed are good and cheap insurance against mice.

Misses Della Beth Uptergrove and Patsy Dacus of Amarillo visited in Spearman over the week-end.

Wartime Lighting Suggestions

HOW TO GET MORE LIGHT FROM YOUR PRESENT EQUIPMENT

Rearrange Furniture to "Double Up" on Lamps

By arranging furniture and lamps carefully, you can often make one lamp do the work of two. An I.E.S. Lamp at the end of the divan, for example, can be moved to the center in back of the divan. Or two chairs or a chair and a divan can be grouped with a lamp to serve two persons with good light, as illustrated above. Be sure the lamp is close enough to both pieces of furniture, though. A difference of 12 inches can reduce the light you get by as much as 50 per cent.

OTHER WAYS TO CONSERVE LIGHT

1. Remove and clean lamp bowls and lamp bulbs regularly. Dry thoroughly before using again.
2. Keep shade linings light. Clean or brush regularly. Repaint or reline dark-colored paper or parchment shades.
3. Sit close enough to the lamp to get all the help it can give your eyes.
4. Avoid direct glare from lamp bulbs by using shades deep enough and wide enough.
5. Eliminate orange or flamentint bulbs except for decorative use. Inside frosted white bulbs give more useful light.
6. Turn off lamps not in use. Lamp bulbs use critical materials... Make them last longer.

Electricity is vital to war production. Use all you need but don't waste it just because it's cheap and isn't rationed.

The wind is howling around the corners in this neighborhood this morning, ice is frozen on the water in the troughs. The chickens seem to have started molting too late; some of them need a few clothes. Hardy fair to the old hens to lay eggs all spring and summer. The farmer sells the eggs, spends the money, then if nature is a little bit late starting their feathers they go around half freezing while the farmer howls there isn't anything in raising chickens as they don't even pay for their feed.

Mrs. Sim was telling me that John decided to take a calf from his mother and have it drink separated milk from a bucket. The calf seemed to have a mind of its own so it started to suck young pigs ears and tails. Just about the time he decided to wean the calf he decided to wean the pigs. The calf saw what it thought it could get a meal from so it decided to suck the old sow. The big old sow lay down and stretched out, tempting the calf. It looked around the corner to see where John had gone as he whipped it for sucking the pigs ears and tails. He sure didn't want the pigs ears giving milk and the curl straightened out of their tail. The calf, not seeing John, edged up to the old sow. She grunted, stretched out a little more, using a little more courage, the calf waded in, had things going in a big way with plenty of milk, so the calf lapped it down, butting the old sow and wagging its tail to beat the band when John happened to come around the barn, carrying the old sow a big bucket of slop. Needless to say, the calf was convinced it was to get its meals from a bucket.

The writer and Sam were invited to the Dolph Daniel home Friday night to a party but were not able to attend. Sorry, for I am sure all had a grand time. I am also sorry I haven't a report of the party for the paper.

The writer spent last Tuesday night in the Sam Nitsche home in Perryton. Martha was busy as usual, this time she was finishing new curtains for her kitchen windows. Maybe had gone to Wickfield to visit friends.

Mrs. Knox Pipkin and daughters, Zenna Bell, Edith, Betty and Mrs. Orville Fullbright and daughter Oriene, were callers in the S. J. Powell home Wednesday afternoon. They have been attending the revival at the McMillin school house where Elma is the pianist. They were going to attend a shower given in the home of Mrs. Orville Fullbright for Mrs. John Pipkin Friday afternoon in Spearman.

Sam and Maud of this community were callers in the Dan Nitsche home last week. Dan Nitsche visited with S. J. Powell one morning last week. S. J. Powell spent one afternoon in the Cola Lee home last week while his wife spent the same time in the Blodgett home.

ed and worked on to take off the old finish and refinish it. In the other corner of the living room across from the lovely china closet is Rusty's day bed, radio, pipes and tobacco. Things are plenty comfortable for Rusty after the lunch hour. Of course, if it was Martha that rested there for a while, it would be called a beauty nap.

Marvin, Rusty's and Martha's good looking school boy, selected the paper for his room as "he did not want any 'sissy' paper with pink flowers in his room. He wanted a real boys room for his room. He selected paper with a green vine twining around. The other decorations in Marvin's room of green and ivory with a touch of brown. I noticed hanging over his bed with threads which were almost invisible several airplanes which looked like they were supporting themselves. Over a small drop leaf table, which held several boys books was a couple small guns. Marvin's room really looks just as he wants it like a real boy, full of life and a very pretty room.

Martha's kitchen is a dream kitchen. It is in orange gray and black. The cabinet shows many hours of sandpapering and painting. One thing I must not forget to mention, Martha has three real large white shaggy rugs for throw rugs in her living room. They are beautiful with the other furnishings. The bathroom is done in peach paper. It has light blue rug in the some good grade as the living room rug. Martha's and Rusty's bedroom is carried out in yellow and orchid. Orchid ruffles for drapes and orchid ruffle quilt of orchid and white, the lining being made of four or five large feed sacks. The dressing table was made by Martha. The chest of drawers is set back in the wall with a large mirror with narrow orchid ruffles as a frame. The lightning fixtures, are of ivory on each side of the mirror.

The daughter's room is a dream with a cherry wood bedroom suite. The rug is tone on tone rose and burgundy, the paper blue with bouquets of apple blossoms, drapes of ruffles of rose. The lovely bed is dressed with a large crocheted bed spread, reaching to the floor all around.

I have lost a tablet I had made several news notes in. One I wanted very much was in regard to the Smith home in Farnsworth. I have never met Mr. Smith, the only name I have ever heard him called by his friends is "Rusty" Smith. I don't know why the name Rusty unless he has sorter rusty looking red hair and perhaps rusty colored freckles. Any way, he and Martha, Rusty's wife, and, of course we all know her name was selected from the Bible, have a lovely home stuck in behind Rogers store facing the main highway. Martha is a real artist in the decorating line. You forget you are away out in the country when you walk through their home. Excuse me, they do live in Farnsworth. Stepping in the front door, you hardly realize you are in a hall as the inviting living room door is directly in front of you and you see a lovely electric fire place, divan and chairs in a warm colored dusty rose. You step in and your feet go down in a deep rug which carries out different colors with the some soft rose predominating. One of the rockers in the living room is made of maple wood and over this chair that will date back 150 years hangs an early American tapestry. There are many other objects in this room that go to make it look homey and comfortable. At the end of the large living room is a dining table and chairs covered with a beautiful crocheted cover of Martha's making, and a china closet, Martha scrap-

Boy Scout Drive Starts Friday

On Friday of this week, November 5th, there will be a Boy Scout finance drive in Spearman to raise funds to maintain and extend the work in this section of the Adobe Walls Council of which we are a part. This is one of several drives being conducted in the six counties of the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandle now.

Plans are laid and the new field executive, Roy Killingsworth, is now on the job to serve this section. He will live in this section and devote his full time directing scouting so that several hundred more boys and men will be actively participating.

At a meeting of the Lion's Club Tuesday, they voted to back up the drive and help put over this expansion program. R. N. Jones, club president, is serving as general chairman of drive. The captains are as follows: Air Corp-D. D. Moore; Army-J. B. Cooke; Navy-F. J. Hoskins; Marines-Freeman Barkley; WAVES-Miss Charlotte Tompkins and WACS-Mrs. C. A. Gibner.

Earl M. McClure, deputy regional executive, from Dallas outlined the program set up to the club. He pointed out that with the services of a field executive in this section, scouting would move forward on a sound basis both in quality and quantity.

Mr. Killingsworth, new field executive also spoke briefly to the group. The drive will open with a kick-off breakfast at 8 a. m. in the Methodist church. Approximately 30 people will be recruited to serve on the various teams with no worker having more than 6 cards to work. It will be a one day drive closing with a report coffee at 5 p. m. Friday.

The possibilities of scouting and cubbing opportunities for around a hundred boys here in Spearman. Also, many small near-by towns will be able to have scouting when this plan gets underway. It is hoped that every prospective contributor will do his or her part to help the Lion's Club put this program over.

Mark Clark—Man of Invasions

1917: Graduated from West Point; later, Infantry School, General Staff School, War College.

1918: Captain Clark Wounded in France; awarded Purple Heart.

Secret Mission to Africa: A tense hour with Vichy police overhead.

Sept. 1943: Commands at Salerno.

LEAN, 6-foot-2-inch Mark Wayne Clark, currently conquering Italy with his U. S. Fifth Army, augmented by British, Canadians, and French, is at 47 the youngest lieutenant-general in American Service. Born at a New York Army post, the Army has been his life, his disciplinarian personality. But war has made him spectacular. In 1940 he was a lieutenant-colonel; his present rank represents four of the hardest kinds of promotions higher. In the spring of 1942 General Eisenhower called him to England to command all ground forces in the European theater. That autumn the Americans were ready to move. So Clark led a group of other daring officers on that most amazing of Odysseys in modern military history—the secret plane-auto-submarine-small boat-foot mission to enemy-held North Africa to plot the American invasion with French General Giraud's staff. The exploit is credited with saving thousands of American lives by obtaining information and promise of only a token resistance. Clark lost $18,000 in gold when his boat capsized, but he captured the three stars of a lieutenant-general. Now in Italy, Salerno behind. Rome ahead, the sharp-featured, dark-eyed young commander is proving his ability in the field. He has a daughter, 17, a son, 18, the latter—in West Point—being the fourth generation of army Clark.
