Homecoming at Gruver Equity earnings are good

Football fever's running high in Hansford County--it's time for the annual Spearman Lynx-Gruver Greyhound tussle.

It's not just another game between two non-district foes, and it's not just another bigger school vs. littler school contest. This is THE game--the tradition-steeped, spirited battle--to determine the Hansford County championship. The winner will have undisputed county-wide bragging rights for another year, until the game rolls around again, laying claim to being "best football team in the county."

For the loser, the cry will have to be "Wait til next year."

And what if there is a draw--a tie? Don't even think about it, pardner.

Adding even more color and excitement to this friendly rivalry this year will be the pageantry of homecoming. It's Homecoming '83 for Gruver, and a capacity-plus crowd is expected as the game between the neighboring Hansford County schools is always a big draw and the homecoming is expected to draw in large segments of the honored classes--the Classes of 1973-63-53-43 and 33.

The alumni are expected in Gruver early, to visit with the home folks and to gather at 5 p.m. Friday for a chili supper before the game. The alumni will choose an Alumni Queen, and she will be crowned in traditional halftime ceremonies.

Meanwhile, the spirit for the annual battle with the Lynx has been building all week long at Gruver High School. Monday was Kiddie Day at GHS and students dressed up as small children. Tuesday was 50's day with students appropriately dressed. Wednesday was Stuff Spearman Day with students bringing stuffed toys to school to show their spirit. It was also dress up day because school pictures were slated.

Today (Thursday) is Overalls and Bandana Day, and at 7 p.m. the traditional bonfire-spirit rally will get under way in the area just south of the football field.

Friday will be Red and Black day at Gruver High, with students expected to dress in school colors. The annual Homecoming pageant will begin at 7:30 p.m. before the 8 p.m. kickoff, and will include the crowning of the 1983 Gruver High School Homecoming Queen.

There are three candidates for this year's Gruver High School Homecoming Queen--Cynthia Pierson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Q.D. Beville, Mica Shapley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Shapley, and Tamra Stedje, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stedje. The queen candidates will be escorted by the Greyhound game captains, and the girl chosen as Homecoming Queen will be crowned by her escort.

Then the pageantry will be over, forgotten for the moment as the county's two high school teams line up to battle it out.

Both Lynx Head Coach Athletic Director Larry Lanier and Greyhound Head Coach Barry Haenisch expect a tough, hard fought game--it's a Hansford tradition.

The Lynx are going into the game with a 1-1 season record. They lost their season opener to the Class 1-2A favorite Stratford Elks 20-7, then rebounded with a 21-17 victory over the Sanford-Fritch Eagles, another 1-2A school last Friday.

Gruver opened the season by edging Vega 7-6, and last Friday turned in a very strong defensive performance against the vaunted offense of powerful bigger Guymon, before finally falling to the Tigers, 21-7.

Coach Lanier said of the Greyhounds, "Gruver has a real good football team, a real good quarterback and a real good running back. In fact, there are several players on their team that could start for anybody."

They looked good on defense against Guymon, he said.

"They try to confuse you--rush a lot of people, stunt and take chances. We're going to try to take advantage of that."

As for Coach Haenisch, he said of the Lynx, "They're awfully big. And watching the Fritch game, we see that the man we'll have to stop is Vasquez. He's a real tough runner. And we'll have to stop that Donahue-McLain pass combination."

He said that the Greyhounds are healthy. Monty Hawkins, a defensive end who played a key role against Guymon, turned his ankle in the Tiger game, but is expected to be "okay" by game time Friday, Haenisch said.

As for the Lynx, the dressing room is like an infirmary ward. Haenisch had expressed respect for the Spearman line, one of the biggest in the Panhandle.

But that touted line has almost been decimated by injuries, Coach Lanier said, and four of the biggest Lynx, all linemen, will miss the Gruver game.

The latest casualty was Earnie Bowen, who has been the team's center, replacing 209-pound starter

Billy Haden, who was injured before the Stratford game. Bowen, a 170 pounder, was injured on the last play against Sanford-Fritch.

It was at first believed that Bowen had a broken or dislocated hip, but since it has been learned that he had suffered muscle spasms instead.

"Despite the rumors, he has no broken bones, no dislocation, just muscle spasms," Lanier said.

However, Bowen will miss the Greyhound game, as he "is real sore, with muscles kind of inflamed," Lanier said.

In addition the previously injured Haden and 225 pound tackle David Turner will still be out, as will defensive end Jeff Graves who has his ankle in a cast from a bad sprain.

Still another player who has been out of action with a shoulder injury suffered against Stratford, 203 pound tackle Kevin Slaton, may be ready to go, "but he's still not 100 percent and right now I'd have to say he's questionable for the Gruver game," Lanier commented.

Steve Burke, 203 pound strong end, has been hobbling with a bruised knee but is a probable starter, according to the coach.

"Other than that," Lanier said with a wry grin, "I guess you could say our other 17 players are okay for the game--right now."

He said there will have to be some more shifts as a result of the latest injuries, but they will try to "patchwork" together a line up.

As for the traditional battle with the Greyhounds, Lanier expects his remaining players will be ready to play ball.

Court Meets

A low bid of $10,807 per building for construction of animal washing room additions to county barns in Spearman and Gruver was accepted by Hansford County commissioners during a regular meeting of the commissioners in the courthouse Monday.

The low bid was submitted by Hatfield Construction Co. of Guymon, Okla.

The commissioners also:
--Voted to raise the salary of a tax office deputy to $847.65 per month;
--Accepted a Fire Contract with City of Spearman whereby the city will provide fire department and rescue service protection for the county. The county agreed to pay $225 for each rural fire call answered by Spearman Fire Department, and $125 per rural Rescue unit call;

--The County also agreed to purchase a fire truck from the city for $3,000. Earlier the city had offered to sell the truck for $3,000, and the county had countered with a $1,500 offer. In addition the commissioners agreed to support the city in converting a water tank truck to a pumper truck;

And certified the Juvenile facility in the county jail, but tabled action on purchasing an air conditioner for the jail.

Stockholders of the Perryton Equity Exchange gathered at the Perryton high school Rangerette Center and auditorium Thursday night for their annual meeting and heard an excellent financial report from Kenneth Allen, treasurer and general manager of the cooperative.

The fiscal year ending March 31, 1983, showed the Equity earnings at $2,741,319 for the year, third highest in the 64 year history of the Equity. Only the earning years of 1974 and 1976 have been higher.

The earnings reported this year were nearly a million dollars more than a year ago.

The Equity members enjoyed a barbecue meal in Rangerette Center, prepared and served by the Wheatheart Shrine Club, before moving to the auditorium for the business session.

Guest speaker for the event was Gerald Frazier, general manager of the Union Equity in Enid, Okla., the terminal elevator complex with whom the Perryton Equity has enjoyed a long relationship.

Nolan Holt of Spearman, president of the Equity, reported to the members, stating that while the year just ended has been a very successful one financially, it has not been without problems.

The surplus of grain has caused a lot of problems finding storage space and he commended the Equity personnel for handling this grain.

Holt stated that the Equity has added considerable storage space this year, notably the 3,800,000 bushel additional space at the terminal elevator in Amarillo on Lakeside Drive.

Additional space has been built at a number of local Equity elevators, he added. The Equity now has 27 million bushel storage capacity.

Holt reminded the members that they won $16.9 million in capital stock and that the Equity has $35 million in total assets.

In 1982, the Equity retired $367,376 in stock and is retiring the 1983 stock accumulation.

General manager Kenneth Allen gave an in-depth report on Equity operations for the past year and took a look into the future to try and determine what course the organization must take to continue serving the farmers of the area. He noted that government programs must play an important role in future forecasts.

He remarked that some members have resented being sent a survey asking them what products they planned to bring to Equity facilities during a crop year, but reminded them that this information is kept confidential and the information is used solely to plan for better service and handling of grain.

He told the members that in the 1983 wheat harvest the Equity operated 28 elevators which were filled without any major breakdown and with very few delays on the part of the farmer in unloading.

Allen emphasized that there are three things of major importance to farmers. These are service, financial stability and pricing. He reminded the Equity members that their dividends make Equity pricing more favorable than most other methods of grain marketing.

The Equity financial statement shows an allocation of $469,545 this year in the form of cash patronage refund payable to members.

"Come from behind" Win

Kenny Rogers would have loved the Spearman Lynx Friday night.

The Lynx played the gambler role to the hilt and made it pay off with a hard-fought 21-17 victory over the Sanford-Fritch Eagles in Fritch Friday night.

Five times Coach Larry Lanier called upon the Lynx to gamble, and five times they came through for him. Two early in the game "gambles" kept the first touchdown drive alive, another kept the momentum rolling for the second TD and the fourth got the Lynx out of a big hole, probably a key factor in their decisive touchdown drive although it was not scored in the same series.

The fifth "gamble" resulted in a two point conversion after the final touchdown that spread the score enough so that the Eagles could not tie the game with a last second field goal.

The gambles paid off because the Lynx had the aces when they counted. The ace turned up most often by Spearman was Julio Vasquez. The swift elusive senior tailback raced around and through the Sanford-Fritch defenders, gaining 178 yards, scoring the game's deciding touchdown, then running over the two-point conversion which killed Eagle chances to salvage a tie with a field goal.

A pair of aces, junior quarterback Ross Donahue and split end Mack McLain, accounted for the first two Spearman touchdowns, with TD pass plays.

The fourth ace in the hole for the Lynx was Byron Sutterfield. The fleet-footed 158-pound junior fullback kept the Eagles honest--kept them from keying too much on Vasquez--with slashing gains.

Sutterfield turned in the most spectacular play of the game. The Eagles had just scored a touchdown and the Lynx were behind 17-13 when Sutterfield fielded the booming after-TD kickoff at the Spearman 5 yard line.

Sprinting first behind solid blocking, Sutterfield began to twist and weave through the Eagles as the going got rough, broke one tackle and raced all the way for an apparent touchdown.

But there was a yellow flag lying on the turf back at the Spearman 29. The play was called back and the Lynx were penalized for clipping back to their own 14. So the 95-yard electrifying TD run by Sutterfield was nullified, but it was bound to have left the Eagles shaken somewhat, and it also kept the Lynx fired up for their final winning surge.

After the Eagles failed to gain a first in their initial series, and punted, the Lynx opened their offense from the Spearman 46.

Vasquez gave the Eagles an inkling of things to come, as he broke off tackle on the Lynx first

USDA okays drought grazing

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has issued special provisions that will allow producers in some drought affected counties to graze their own conservation use acres with their own livestock. Hansford County, as you well know, is suffering from these same drought conditions. Request for permission to graze CUA should be made to the Hansford County ASCS as soon as possible. These requests will be compiled and sent to the Texas State ASCS Office to see if this county is eligible to release CUA for grazing. These acres must not be grazed until permission has been given by the ASCS Office, and this office cannot give permission until we have justified the need.

So, if you have experienced drought conditions and need to graze the acres, submit your request to this office as soon as possible.

offensive play from scrimmage and carried for 20 yards.

He followed up a no-gainer play with a two yard plunge, then on third and eight. Donahue kept and fought his way to the Fritch 26, setting up a fourth and one situation, and the first Lynx gamble. The Lynx elected to go for a first down instead of a field goal attempt—not so much of a gamble with only one yard to go. Vasquez got the call and apparently gained the yardage, but the Lynx instead took a five-yard penalty so as to save a down.

First Sutterfield, then Vasquez banged away, moving the ball to a first on the Eagle 10. A three yard gain by Vasquez was negated when Kevin Ashby broke through to nail him three yards behind the line on the next play and a pass to strong end Steve Burke was off target, bringing up another "gamble" decision.

Although Mark Guthrie has been accurate on points after touchdown boots, the Lynx once more optioned to go for a touchdown with fourth and goal from the line.

Donahue spotted McLain sprinting toward the goal and drilled a pass that McLain grabbed on the run right in front of his helmet, for a touchdown.

Guthrie booted the PAT with 5:34 left in the first period it was 7-0, Lynx.

Following the ensuing kickoff, the Eagles put together a respectable drive, the big play being a Gary Osteen ramble from the Eagle 29. Vasquez overhauled him from behind at the Lynx 33.

A 16-yard pass from quarterback Brent Judd to Robert Lehmann pushed the drive along, but the Lynx defense stiffened and on a fourth and two at the Lynx 12, Paul Lopez and McLain stopped Wright for no gain to stymie the threat.

Early in the second quarter, Sanford-Fritch started another drive from its own 20. Two big plays, a run and a 34-yard pass from Judd to Lehmann moved the ball to the Spearman 18. Another run moved it to the six and on third and goal from the six, Judd hit Kent Grant with a TD pass. The extra point kick was good and with 7:18 left in the half it was 7-7.

After a brief Spearman offensive flurry, the Eagles got on the scoreboard again in the first half, starting a drive after a punt return to the Lynx 43.

With a fourth and one at the Lynx 34, the Eagles did some gambling of their own, and it paid off, as Lehmann broke loose with a 34-yard scoring scamper. Judd booted the PAT and it was 14-7, Eagles with 3:31 left before halftime.

Neither side was able to score in the remaining minutes of the half, although a Donahue to McLain pass play gained from the Lynx 17 to the Eagle 48. A Fritch interception killed the drive.

Early in the third quarter, Spearman's third gamble paid off. On fourth down and 15 from the Fritch 40, Donahue again hooked up on a pass and run play that carried to the Fritch 15. Then Donahue rifled the ball to McLain again for a touchdown, and it was 14-13, Spearman, after a pass try for two points on the conversion fell incomplete.

With just about three minutes left in the third quarter, an Eagle defender fell on a Spearman fumble at the Spearman 27.

The Spearman defense held for three downs, bringing up fourth and eight from the Lynx 13. From there Judd kicked a 22-yard field goal widening Sanford-Fritch's lead to 17-13 with 21 seconds left in the third quarter.

It was at this point that Sutterfield unrolled his 95-yard penalty doomed run that if had not been nullified by penalty would have put the Lynx back in front.

The penalty left the Lynx 86 yards away from a touchdown and brought on the fourth Lynx gamble. After an incomplete pass, Vasquez dived up the middle and was stopped inches short of a first on the 23.

Although the Lynx were deep in their own territory and to be stopped short would have given the Eagles a first in excellent position to score, Lanier elected to gamble on Donahue. The Lynx quarterback justified the faith, on a one-yard keeper for the first down.

The drive fizzled at the Fritch 46, but Sutterfield backed the Eagles into a hole with a punt out of bounds at the Fritch 7.

Three running tries and a punt later, the Lynx were at it again from the Fritch 42. On third and eight, Vasquez shook loose from 10 yards to the Fritch 28, then annexed four more yards to the 24. Sutterfield rammed ahead to the 11, and from there, Vasquez swept right and scored.

Spearman was back on top 19-17 and gamble number five, Vasquez's two point run, made it 21-17, with 4:01 remaining.

The Eagles got one more shot after recovering a Lynx fumble at the Fritch 15. The alert Spearman defense stopped the Eagles attempts to pull it out passing, and Spearman took over at the Fritch 20 and ran out the clock.

The Lynx out first-downed the Eagles, 16-10. Fritch held a 193 to 189 edge in rushing yardage, with numerous penalties eliminating Lynx gains a big factor, but Donahue completed six of 10 for 90 yards and two TDs, compared to three of 11 for 51 yards for the Eagles. The Eagles completed their first three, but their last eight passes fell incomplete, or were batted away by the Lynx secondary.

This left Spearman with a 279 to 244 edge in total yardage.

On the other hand, the Lynx lost two fumbles and the Eagles none, and were assessed 95 yards in penalties to 20 yards marked off against the host Eagles.

PUBLIC NOTICE BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 8, 1983

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 91 proposes a constitutional amendment which requires a county with a population of 30,000 or more to be divided into not less than four nor more than eight justice of the peace precincts. A county with a population of 18,000 or more but less than 30,000 shall be divided into not less than two nor more than five justice of the peace precincts. A county with a population of less than 18,000 shall be designated as a single justice of the peace precinct or upon a finding of necessity by the commission court, shall be divided into more than one justice of the peace precinct but not more than four. The amendment provides further, that in any precinct in which there is a city with a population of 18,000 or more, two justices of the peace shall be elected. The amendment allows a justice of the peace, constable or commissioner to continue in office until the expiration of his term, although a change in precinct boundaries results in the officer no longer being a resident of the precinct for which he was elected or appointed and allows a justice of the peace or constable to continue in office until the expiration of his term even though a change in precinct boundaries results in the abolishment of the precinct or more than one justice of the peace or constable serving the precinct. Vacancies in the office of justice of the peace or constable that result from a precinct boundary change shall be filled by the commissioners court until the next general election. The amendment would take effect on January 1, 1984, and counties with populations of less than 30,000 and with more than four justice of the peace and constable precincts would have until January 1, 1987 to comply with the amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing fewer justice of the peace and constable precincts in counties with a population of less than 30,000 and providing for continuous service by justices of the peace, constables, and county commissioners when precinct boundaries are changed."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 165 proposes a constitutional amendment which would limit a homestead in a city, town or village to a lot or lots amounting to not more than one acre of land, together with any improvements on the land. The constitutional requirement that, at the time of designation, an urban homestead not exceed ten thousand dollars in value without reference to the value of any improvements on the land would be eliminated.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment replacing the limitation on the value of an urban homestead with a limitation based on size."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 12 proposes a constitutional amendment that authorizes the Legislature to enact legislation that permits representative associations of agricultural producers to collect refundable assessments on their product sales to be used solely to finance programs of marketing, promotion, research and education relating to those products. Use Energy Wisely

Is Your Thermostat Working Properly?

Too Hot?

On Too Long?

Wrong Temperature?

Too Cold?

Defective or out-of-adjustment room thermostats can cause heat-come on unnecessarily.

Unlevel thermostats, or thermostats located near heat-producing appliances, such as lamps or TVs, can give false readings tempting you to constantly adjust the temperature. To use energy more wisely check your room thermostat to be sure it is working correctly and that it is located in an area free from drafts where it receives a flow of air from the heating and air-conditioning system. Set the thermostat at a temperature of 68° in winter and 78° in summer. For more energy-saving tips ask for a copy of the booklet, "A Guide To Better Home Energy Management."

A Centerpiece

Labor Day, the last Holiday of the summer has come and gone and we're nearing the middle of September, school has started and our kiddies are all back in school. Just a word of precaution and a reminder that our young folks do not always look before crossing a street. Therefore let us all be mindful of this and to be extra careful to look out for them when driving in or near a school zone.

This week end will see the finish of the Tri-State Fair. Usually we say the Fair brings rain but this year the weather has been extremely hot and without moisture. However the attendance has been good and everyone seemed to enjoy it in spite of the heat.

We here at the center are still busy with numerous projects, but this is a busy time for volunteer helpers with lots of home canning, our volunteers have not been so many. However the dinner on Tuesday evening was well attended with some 50 people present. The food was delicious. It seems each time the food is better than the time before. Gardens have produced well with okra, green beans, cucumbers, corn and squash all plentiful this summer. We here at the center do thank everyone who has shared gardens with us. Just another case of the generosity of Hansford County folks.

Angela Denise Lesley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lesley of Spearman and Michael Henry Grotegut, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grotegut of Gruver were united in a Double Ring Ceremony August 20, 1983 at 2:00 in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Father Raymond Closure officiated the ceremony.

Mrs. Lesa Miesner sang "Candle on the Water" during the lighting of the Candles. Mrs. Ann Dorman of Gruver played the organ. "Ice Castles" was played as the attendants walked down the aisle. Lesa Miesner sang "I'll Love You Forever" and "God, A Woman and A Man" during the ceremony.

The church was decorated with two heart shaped candelabras with white candles decorated with red roses, and red gladioli and daisies of red and white.

The gown features a high lace neck trimmed with pearls and sequins and fitted net sleeves trimmed with embroidery and cuffed with lace and satin-covered buttons. RUESEWALD SEED CLEANING SERVICE can cut any farmer's seed cost with the portable seed cleaning rig he designed.

A farmer himself, Ruesewald had two goals in mind when he designed his 54-foot long rigs — they must be completely portable and offer farmers storage facilities and seed companies a turn-key job at any location.

Any size seed can be cleaned by Ruesewald. For all seeds a screen and air cleaning process is used. For precision finishing work a precision grader is used on small grains and a spiral separator on soybeans. Small seeds are not a problem. "We've done bahia grass and clover," Ruesewald says.

Accidental mixtures of grains such as beans and corn or oats and wheat can be separated.

The portable rig automatically treats, sacks and labels seven bushels per minute.

Fitness campaign endorsed

College Station--August 24, 1983-- Governor Mark White met with members of the Texas USDA's Food and Agriculture Council to endorse their newly initiated year-long Food and Fitness Campaign.

In line with the National program, all State USDA agencies will support the informational and physical fitness programs being developed by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service that will be made available to the general public in all communities.

The goals of this long-range cooperative venture are to emphasize the critical relationship between diet and regular exercise in maintaining total good health and physical fitness; to stress the importance of good nutrition throughout life; to promote the best use of natural, economic and human resources to assure continuance of the American food system and the furtherance of good health practices; and to demonstrate the vitality of the American agriculture system as evidenced in its ability to provide the world's most varied, abundant and nutritious food supply.

Working with the private sector that is involved with community activities for all age groups: schools, youth groups, parks and recreation, PTA, and senior citizens, the Extension Service promotion will involve individual and family fitness; fitness in the workplace, health fairs that feature home economics programming in the areas of foods, nutrition and health, and sports activities.

Governor White's official recognition of the program urges all citizens to join in establishing within their daily lives a responsible and proper program of nutrition and exercise, and to increase their awareness of the importance of good food and fitness.

The local ASCS office as well as all other local USDA agencies will support the plans and programs developed in the community by the Extension Service County Agent and local groups who volunteer to participate in the food and fitness programs.

Drug Testing

More and more colleges and universities--and high schools--have inaugurated programs to test athletes to determine whether they are using drugs.

This is appropriate in light of recent discoveries concerning the use of anabolic steroids by athletes of various countries. It's also appropriate because of the use of drugs by young people these days.

Massive doses of steroids are what is thought largely responsible for the sensationally strong showing of athletes from several communist countries in international competition recently. East Germany, Russia and Cuba come to mind.

Little sustained, thorough research has been done on the use of steroids over a period of years. That explains why some claim they're harmless.

But they have profound and obvious effects on women, since they are male hormones. Women who take them grow hair like men, and masculine muscle forms, and lose female characteristics.

Pioneers in the steroid field, who have said they experienced no ill effects, took about one thousandth of what some modern athletes are taking. Some today take in a day the amount athletes a few years back took in a year.

This is the major concern of medical authorities. Even males, where changed appearance and sexual characteristics are less noticeable, because they are taking testosterone, the masculine hormone, are gambling with their future health, since no long-term studies have been carried out with massive doses of these steroids.

School and college testing will also reveal the use of other drugs, and alcohol, and this is a legitimate concern. Athletes who oppose such tests would prevent authorities from knowing whether some competitors have an unfair, artificial advantage over others.

September's Sky

The first cool days and the first clear fall nights arrive in September and the sky is of unusual interest this month.

Jupiter and Saturn are still evening stars in September but the emphasis shifts to the morning sky by the end of the month when Mercury, Venus and Mars come on strongly.

The big event, of course, is the Harvest moon, which will brighten the early evening sky for four nights--from September 20 through the 23rd. It appears close to sunset these nights.

It's called the "harvest moon" because it rises only about half an hour later--each day--about half the usual daily difference. Thus it still gives farmers harvesting crops bright evenings of scattered moonlight for a considerable time.

The moon is full on the 22nd; summer ends next day, at the autumnal equinox, at 2:42 p.m. EST.

And, contrary to the popular belief, the day on which daylight and night are equal--12 hours--is September 26, not the 23rd.

Forgotten Hero

The 17th is the birthday anniversary of a sometimes forgotten hero of the American Revolution, Baron Friedrich von Steuben.

Steuben was born in Magdeburg, Prussia, in 1730, his father an engineer in the Prussian Army, the family having been soldiers since the 13th century.

He served as a volunteer at the age of 14 in the War of Austrian Succession. By 1755 he was an officer and soon afterwards was appointed to the staff of Frederick the Great, on which he served during the Seven Years' War.

After the war the emperor gave him a position which offered little income; he looked elsewhere, first to England.

On his way there in 1777, he passed through Paris and Count de St. Germain, then French Minister of War, who was his friend, urged him to go to America and help the Americans in their revolution. (The French were at war with England.)

Steuben was persuaded to meet with Benjamin Franklin and Silas Deane, American Commissioners in Paris. He agreed to go to America as a volunteer.

The French fitted out a ship with cannon and ammunition on which he sailed in late September, 1777, arriving December 1.

He presented himself to Congress and then went to Valley Forge, where Washington received him on the 23rd of February, 1778, making him Inspector General of the army. It was Steuben who trained and drilled the colonists into a formidable force.

Congress belatedly voted him a commission but never reimbursed him for many expenditures out of his own pocket. After Yorktown he was, however, voted a $2,500 annuity by Congress; also Virginia, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York voted him tracts of land.

He decided to remain in America and made his home on the tract in New York, twelve miles north of Utica. He died there only four years later, in 1794.

Looking at WASHINGTON

BY EDWARD H. SIMS

Weapons Publicity

Military contractors, and collaborating service officers, often claim impressive results for new weapons--as Congress considers appropriations to buy them.

A dubious claim was made recently concerning laser destruction of five Sidewinder missiles. Congress is now considering funding for the ALL (laser) program.

Newspapers all over the country recently carried the story that five AIM-9 Sidewinders had been shot down by Air Force airborne laser fire. That sounded fine--and perhaps encouraged members of the armed services and appropriations committees in Congress.

But the British-published magazine, Flight International explained afterward that what happened was that the laser had disabled the missiles' guidance systems.

The Air Force refused to give the magazine details of target aspect, range, closing rate, length of exposure to the laser or weather conditions. Nor would the service comment on how many attempts were needed to disable the Sidewinder guidance systems. The service refused to give any details on the tracking or target acquisition method employed, or say whether the targets were specially prepared.

In short, the glorified report in the media might mean something and might mean nothing. If the story was overblown propaganda for funding purposes, it is only one of many such publicity stunts by the military-industrial complex, which has passed off numerous sorry weapons on Congress in recent decades.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

By Edward Thorlund

Many investors worry about savings and investments. How safe are they in banks or brokerage houses? Those who remember the depression are the greatest worriers.

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insures depositors' accounts in banks. This has been a great comfort for many years. One can deposit up to $200,000 in any FDIC-insured bank and even if the bank fails, that money will be repaid, if necessary by a federal agency.

But brokerage firms also have good insurance. All brokerage firms doing business with the public are now required to be members of the Securities Investor Protection Corp.

SIPC was established by Congress and insures brokerage firm accounts up to $500,000 (including $100,000 in cash). Thus if a brokerage firm should fail, individuals with accounts valued at these limits or below will be repaid.

The record of both banks and brokerage houses is very good. When banks failed in the depressed thirties, many lost everything they had and others were returned only part of their deposits, sometimes years later.

But since SIPC was established no investor has lost any securities or cash covered by the corporation.

Thus, those pondering whether to put their money in banks, which have long advertised their guarantee, can feel similarly safe when they place savings or retirement money in custodial accounts and with brokerage firms.

And brokerage firm investments often offer better prospects for growth and also higher interest rates than deposits in banks at fixed rates. Their money market funds are also more flexible in many cases.

Life would be more enjoyable if you tried to enjoy it.

Politics in schools and churches is politics at its worst.

Dear Fellow Lions:

The Second Annual Lions Charity Bowl is just around the corner. Scheduled for Sunday, September 25, the West Texas State University Junior Varsity is playing the Junior Varsity from Panhandle State University. Last year's Charity Bowl raised over $5,000.00 for our local clubs, over $1,200.00 for West Texas State and over $1,100.00 EACH for Girlstown USA, the Hi-Plains Eyebank and the Crippled Children's Camp in Kerrville, a total of over $9,000.00 IN THE FIRST YEAR!

Here is your chance to VOLUNTARILY participate and help in this project. Enclosed you will find 5 tickets to sell for the game. One half (1/2) of the money from ticket sales goes to support W.T.S.U.; the other 50% is divided equally between the three charities. These tickets are tax deductible. We're asking that you VOLUNTEER a little time and find five people who can help us with the purchase of a $2.00 ticket. A postage paid envelope is enclosed for you to return a check (no cash through the mail please).

Please note the emphasis on VOLUNTEER. By no means are we suggesting that you must sell these tickets; nor will we later ask you for results or send you a bill. We want those of you who do help to do so with a big smile on your face.

Also, if you would personally like to make a donation directly to Girlstown, the Eye Bank and the Children's Camp, you may do so by sending a personal check back. All monies received as direct donations will also be split equally between the three charities and your name will be listed in a special section of the program for the football game. These donations will be full donations . . . none of this money will be used to pay overhead costs for the game. Send whatever amount you wish.

Our District has never used a direct mail campaign before. It is our hope that through the use of this Charity Bowl that we may support these Lion projects as never before. We hope that you accept this letter in the spirit it is written and as a VOLUNTEER you will help support these very worthwhile programs. Thank you for your help! We hope to see you at the game.

HOMINY, OKLA. -- Hundreds of National Guardsmen, police and prison guards herded away more than 700 manacled inmates from a steamy, overcrowded prison after a riot left one convict dead, 22 people injured and prison buildings in smoking ruins.

NEWS REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

The Republican Senate- Reagan's Support- Texas & South Carolina- North Carolina & Tennessee-

WASHINGTON, D. C. -- A key question emerging on the national political front is whether in 1984 the Republican Party can keep its strength in Dixie.

Dixie Republican senators are no more important than Republican senators from other sections. But by making inroads into the south, Republicans won control of the upper legislative body.

That has enabled President Reagan to get at least some of what he wanted from Congress. Without a G.O.P. Senate majority, Mr. Reagan could not have won tax cuts, cuts in domestic spending or the defense buildup he proposed.

That majority is not likely to be retained unless Reagan, the Republican Party and state Republican parties, see that their Dixie supporters get attention and build strong organizations.

Of the nineteen Republican seat elections next fall, six are held by southerners--Howard Baker of Tennessee, Thad Cochran of Mississippi, Jesse Helms of North Carolina, Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, John Tower of Texas and John Wagner of Virginia.

Without those six, Republicans in the Senate today would hold 48 of the chambers 100 seats and be the minority party. Howard Baker would not have been Majority Leader, John Tower chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, Strom Thurmond chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Democrats--vocal daily in efforts to win over the poor.

women and minorities (they have blacks in the bag), hope to recapture some of these seats. Helms is facing a hard race in North Carolina. Baker and Tower are stepping down.

Tower--contrary to what was said when he announced he wouldn't run again--might have faced a hard race next year. (The growing Hispanic population is counted on by Democrats. That's one reason key House Democrats stalled stronger curbs on the flow of these aliens into the U.S.)

Warner, Thurmond and Cochran are said to be relatively safe. And both Baker and Tower say there are Republican candidates in their states who will win their seats. Mr. Reagan will help them. He's coming to South Carolina this month, in a show of support for Thurmond, for example.

But statistics favor Democrats in the Senate races in 1984. Only 14 Democratic seats expire. The present Senate count is 54-46 Republican. That means Democrats have to gain five seats to take over full control of Congress (both houses).

If Mr. Reagan wins big, Democrats are unlikely to gain five seats. But southern Democrats always enter a race knowing they have twenty or thirty percent of the vote (the black vote) in the bag.

Thus they need only self-seekers and the far left among whites to eke out a win. They also can count on the effect of long-standing state and local Democratic control across the South.

Know THE Weather

How big is the eye of a hurricane? Is it true that the eye is sometimes completely clear while for hundreds of miles on each side the sky is filled with clouds?

The eye of a hurricane is never more than a few miles in diameter, usually less than five.

It's true that sometimes in the middle of the great storm--in the eye, so to speak--the sky overhead will suddenly appear blue.

Winds will calm down and for a few minutes a strange stillness will descend--with roaring winds just a few miles distant in all directions.

This is the very center of the circular motion of the winds (counterclockwise), the hub of a great blowing circle.

The lull soon ends and when the winds return--they are from the opposite direction--and often just as strong as before.

Fall & Trees

In the days and weeks immediately ahead the countryside and forests will again offer unusually beautiful and even inspiring scenery to all who have the time to enjoy nature and her annual autumn spectacular.

Maple, gum, oak, nut, sycamore and so many other trees, ending their 1983 cycle of life, now beckon all outdoors--to enjoy a beauty which can't be duplicated.

Who Pays Best?

The newspaper Today recently published a breakdown on federal taxes owed the government by states. States which owed the least were Vermont and the Dakotas, the totals for all three under $10 million.

It's difficult to rate individuals in the states because the amount of money owed in the table is not averaged out.

But the greatest sum back taxes owed, as might have been expected, is in California, whose citizens and businesses owe the Treasury $1.2 billion. California is the only state in arrears by over a billion dollars.

Next in line, as might be expected, because of population, is New York State, whose citizens owe the Internal Revenue Service $845,700,000.

States whose citizens owe relatively small amounts are Arkansas ($18.4 million), Delaware ($11 million), Idaho ($27.6 million), Iowa ($28.7 million), Maine ($11.8 million), New Hampshire ($16 million), New Mexico ($20.8 million), Rhode Island ($17 million) and Wyoming ($19.9 million).

Warm Fall?

The National Weather Service says odds are fall weather will be warm--and probably through November in the Mideast and Atlantic coastal states.

Much of the country, the ninety-day forecast predicts, will get more than the normal amount of rain in September. But there are exceptions--the Pacific Coast, Southeast, North Atlantic Coast and Central Plains.

If the forecasts are accurate, it may be a beautiful fall in much of the country, not too cold, even into December. That was the experience of many areas in 1979. It would be a just reward for the severe heat wave and drought so many have suffered this summer.

PORTS OF CALL

...FOR TRAVEL AND ADVENTURE

By Stanley James

WASHINGTON, D. C. -- In recent months filling stations have jacked up gasoline prices without justification.

Over the Labor Day holiday there was such ripping off it ought to be reported.

This writer was traveling north from Florida. The average price of premium was running between $1.30 and $1.40. This was when it was bought at stations not on the interstates, stations where managers feel they have the driver at their mercy.

For some reason, Amoco stations have been those this writer found to be charging the most unreasonable prices. On Interstate 4, between Tampa and Orlando, where highway 559 crosses 5, an Amoco station there was trying to charge $1.599 a gallon.

Managers can obviously take advantage of some people's ignorance by listing liter prices. A quick check, figuring just under four liters to the gallon, will spot the big price hikes.

An even worse example of excessive pricing was found at another Florida Amoco station that weekend. At Ormond Beach, coming north on Interstate 95, this station, at a community called National Gardens, was playing the liter game and charging $1.77 a gallon! Of course, both stations had the price per gallon listed, as is required.

These prices may not seem out of line for some in the northeast and other areas, accustomed to being ripped off--especially in the Metropolitan New York area. But when motorists have been paying $1.36 or $1.38 or even $1.42, to find a station selling the same gas a few miles away charging $1.77 is eye-opening.

Motels in Florida have come down to earth and many are still advertising one price for all rooms, or allowing children to eat free, or advertising special family rates. Some of the signs say that these special bargains remain in effect until December 15.

Two good places to eat in Florida at present are the cafeteria restaurants at Plant City and National Gardens--both Holiday Inns. Howard Johnson restaurants are still good after all these years and many in Florida now stay open 24 hours a day.

Travelers are advised to stay off interstate 4 between Tampa and Orlando if possible. Disney World, Epcot, Circus World, etc., have overloaded the six-lane highway from Orlando and driving through Orlando is a pain.

Going north from the west coast of Florida, one could take Interstate 75 up to highway 10, west of Jacksonville, and then turn east on 95 if going to the northeast or stay on 75 if going to the Midwest.

A scandal in Florida at the moment is the obvious arrangement which must have been struck between officials of the state road department and Tampa and St. Petersburg (and 301 roadside interests). A section of interstate 75 from Tampa about 18 miles south is left unfinished.

The bridge pilings and much of the crossover work was long ago done. Big, expensive machines sit idle there, and have for years. Quite openly, everything is being held up until St. Petersburg people get their way and the 275 alternate is completed.
