

C.C. Lynxettes

Win District - Headed For State

The Lynxette Cross County team announced their intentions to repeat as State Champions with their 13 point win at the district meet Saturday in Lubbock. The Lynxettes were led in their district win by a second place finish by Junior Haley Shieldknight.

"The younger girls were pretty nervous before the race," said Coach Richard North. The nerves did not seem to have a detrimental effect, however, as it was three underclassmen who led the rest of the team at the end of the race. Besides Shieldknight, Jill Lusby, a freshman, finished in fourth place. Sophomore Joy Gafford finished eleventh.

Here is how the team finished:

Haley Shieldknight	2nd 13:16
Jill Lusby	4th 13:23
Joy Gafford	11th 13:33
Michelle Cook	15th 13:41
Nancy Ivey	18th 13:49
Sonya Nitschke	24th 13:57
Kyla Nelson	36th 14:21

With this repeat win at district the team is now looking for a repeat win at state. According to Coach North the main competition for the Lynxettes will be Levelland (ranked number 1), Marion (ranked number 2), and Wall (ranked number 3). These three teams feature two very strong runners that anchor their teams. Because of this, Coach North believes that winning the meet will depend on where the third and fourth runners on each team finish. If those runners finish before the third and fourth runners on the other teams, that team will win.

In order to have his runners finish higher, Coach North wants them to stay together as a group during the race. They must also stay near the front of the pack. Finally, he would like for his runners to not start off as quickly and then slow at the end.

The Lynxettes will be leaving for the State meet on Thursday afternoon. The meet will be held on Saturday at Georgetown, 28 miles north of Austin. The team will have plenty of time to scout the track and rest before they have to run.

Bullock's School Plan

State Comptroller Bob Bullock has proposed an emergency school plan to head off a looming crisis in Texas classrooms. "Unless there's a plan in place by May 1 that meets the Texas Supreme Court's recent order, I'm forbidden to send any more state money to Texas schools," Bullock said.

He said he wouldn't defy the court's order, and urged the Legislature and Governor not to wait until next spring to consider a plan that meets the constitutional test of the court.

"I'm suggesting a $600 million guaranteed yield plan—including more teacher pay—coupled with $200 million in bond money for school construction that is realistic and can meet the requirements and deadline the court set," Bullock said.

Bullock's plan, which is similar to one he suggested to lawmakers more than a year ago, makes up the difference between what a district needs and what it can raise by guaranteeing state money if the district meets a tax rate test.

"Texas will face an educational doomsday next May 1, if our schools don't have the money to stay open and operate. Time is short and we've got to focus on the immediate crisis and devise an equitable state aid formula.

"Solving the crisis will cost the average Texans less than $35 the first year. That figures out to less than a dime a day from each Texan to help our schools," he said.

A temporary increase in existing taxes may be the only way to pay for the first year cost of the plan, Bullock said. Some news taxes—like an income tax which others propose—and money raising schemes—like a lottery—can't be put into place in time to produce the money needed.

"We cannot abandon the children in our schools while we debate the perfect system of education or the ultimate financing method. We must fix a broken system. We have studied the problem long enough to know the immediate solution."

Lynx Stunned By W.T.

West Texas came to Spearman with a perfect record for the year, and when they left it was still perfect. They beat the Lynx 48 - 6. The Lynx were out manned on both defense and offense. West Texas scored two touchdowns in every quarter except the third one where they scored only one. On defense the Lynx were held to only 7 first downs and only 117 total yards offense.

On the bright side of the picture the Lynx did manage to hold WT to under fifty points, which is more than some other teams WT has played can say. The Lynx managed to score a touchdown on WT which very few of their opponents have done this year.

The Lynx touchdown came in the fourth quarter. It came in the form of a 50 yard run by Chris Williams. In fact he had to do it twice just to get the one touchdown. The first time it was called back because of a penalty. On the very next play Williams did the same thing, this time with out the penalty. The two point conversion failed, to leave the score 48 - 6.

This week Coach Don Mullins has been telling the Lynx players to forget last Friday. "Learn from your mistakes, do not repeat them. Be positive and go for a win."

They are going for the win against the Boys Ranch Roughriders. This is the second time this year the Lynx have played the Roughriders. They defeated them the second game of the season 22 - 13.

Coach Mullins says the game may be totally different. For one thing the Roughriders are at home. In the second place the Roughriders tend to change people and offensive and defensive alignments from game to game. In light of these things, Coach Mullins and the Lynx team are working hard to get ready this weeks game. They want to finish the season on a winning note.

SBA Loans Available

LUBBOCK, November 2 - Walter Fronstin of the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) in Lubbock announced today that SBA is accepting applications for Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDL) for eligible small business concerns and small agricultural cooperatives (without credit elsewhere) located in Dallam, Hansford, Hemphill, Lipscomb, Ochiltree and Sherman counties of Northwest Texas.

The Secretary of Agriculture made a disaster designation as a result of drought conditions in Oklahoma which occurred January 1 through June 1, 1989, to winter wheat. Businesses in these counties are eligible to apply with SBA in that they are adjacent to Oklahoma declared counties. Applicants must have sustained substantial economic injury because of agriculture damages to winter wheat caused by the drought conditions.

The interest rate for loans processed under this designation is 4 percent for small business concerns and small agricultural cooperatives without credit available elsewhere. The loans are limited to the financial needs of the applicant based on the actual economic injury and may be made for up to $500,000. A loan may extend to 30 years, depending on repayment ability. The deadline for filing applications under this designation is May 7, 1990.

Eligible victims seeking loan information and application forms may call, toll-free, 1-800-527-7735.

Announcement was made of the passing of Beatrice Gibner Hiler on October 27 in San Diego after a short illness.

A memorial service for Mrs. Hiler, 86, was held in San Diego before final services at El Paso, as she has requested interment beside her husband who died in 1946.

Mrs. Hiler, though not born at Hansford, lived there and in Spearman all her girlhood and often returned to Spearman. She was the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C.P. Gibner. She was last here at the 60th wedding anniversary of Pope and Margaret Gibner, and had attended several of the all school reunions. She was honored as being the oldest living graduate.

She is survived by a son, William Gibner, of Carlsbad, Calif.; a daughter, Barbara Erdman of Los Angeles; and three grandsons; as well as two brothers, Pope and Woodrow of Spearman.

Woodrow and Lois attended the services in El Paso on Wednesday.

Maxine Banister returned Thursday from several days visiting in Brady. She returned with Terry Vernon of Amarillo who was also visiting his sister, Janice Black, and other relatives.

Ora Lee Blackburn spent a pleasant weekend in Angel Fire and Taos. She and her daughter, Bodil Stockman of Amarillo, drove up Friday and returned last Sunday.

That satisfied fat-cat look on the face of T.D. Sansing on Sunday was the result of a bountiful dinner prepared largely by his culinary expert son-in-law, Perry Coursey. Perry and Martha came up from Lubbock and spent the weekend with him.

They report that they are pretty well settled in their new home and both are well pleased with their situation. Sons Corey and Chris are both students at Texas Tech; Martha is teaching in elementary school and Perry is coaching tennis.

Nancy and Don Robertson of Colorado Springs spent the weekend here as the guests of Barbara and Lewis Schnell. They were transacting business and renewing old friendships. Nancy is the daughter of Mrs. R.E. Lee and a former resident of Spearman.

Marva and Bob Hohertz are enjoying an extended visit with their daughter Lynn and Ondrej Foltin, and their six month old son, Dane. They are on a three months leave from his work in Australia and returned to the states on October 10 and plan to be here through Christmas.

They spent about a week in Colorado with her sister, and some time in Canadian with her brother and grandmother.

Lynn has had many interesting experiences in Australia which will be covered in a later issue.

The latest from Jeff Gressett is that he is recovering from an emergency appendectomy at a San Antonio hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gressett went down for the surgery last week, and his mother remained with him.

Jeff is a student at Southwest Texas College at San Marcos and expects to be dismissed from the hospital in a few days.

Doris and T.C. Kitchens returned Thursday from about a month's absence.

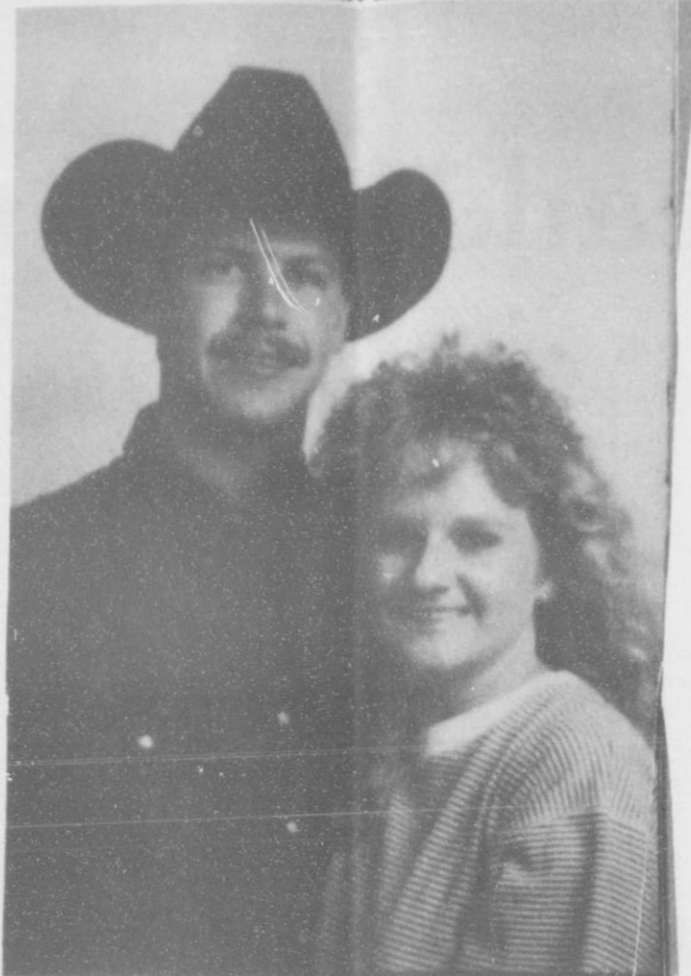

They went first to Gallup N.M. for a stay with her brother and other relatives. After a few days with their daughter, Barbara, and family in Tahoka, they went to Fredricksburg for a few days. Next, to San Antonio where they met his sister and husband from Austin. For several days they all toured San Antonio, including Sea World, then New Braunfels and San Marcos. The aquatic activities were spectacular.

The Kitchens then went to Waco and found many interesting places and especially enjoyed festivities in connection with homecoming of Baylor University-bonfire, parade, and football game.

After another stay at Tahoka, they reached home.

A Centerpiece

What a delightful meal we enjoyed Tuesday evening. First State Bank served around 80 of us all the Catfish filets we could eat. We had hushpuppies and all the trimmings.

It was so nice to see that many out to share a delicious meal and a time of visiting or game playing. Thanks, First State, for making it so enjoyable.

Our annual Health Fair was a huge success also. Thanks to each one having a part in making it go so smoothly. It's good to see people working together.

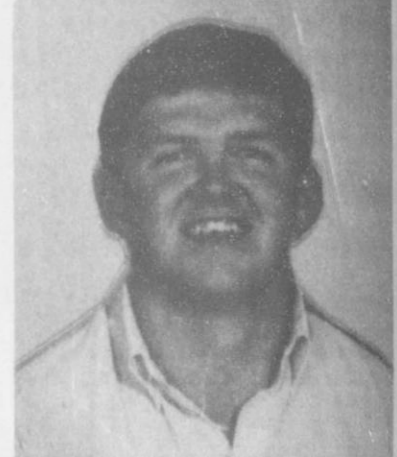

Saturday, Nov. 11, we will host a bridge tournament with players coming from several area towns.

We welcome and encourage any of you who aren't currently involved to come join us to take part in any of our activities during the week. We would love to have more of you sharing with us.

First, we have a covered dish lunch on Monday, then the ladies quilt. The first and third Tuesdays, we have a covered dish dinner, then play games such as pitch, 42, Skip-Bo, or rummy, and we'd welcome a new game if anyone has any ideas.

Wednesday is the day we take people to the doctor, shopping etc. Thursdays are arts and craft days from 10-5 with a covered dish lunch at noon. Then, the first Thursday night each month we have a covered dish dinner at 6:30 p.m. then play progressive 42.

The third Thursday night each month, it's another covered dish dinner, then progressive pitch. Fridays are game days, so come on about 1 p.m. We'd like to have more of you join us.

Daron Adkison

All-Academic

Daron Adkison, son of former Spearman residents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adkison, was recently named to the Western Athletic Conference All-Academic football squad. Adkison, grandson of Mrs. Eva Adkison and Mrs. Dona Wilde, is a student at University of Texas El Paso.

UTEP dominated the squad by placing seven players on the first team, eight on the second. Adkison, offensive tackle for the UTEP Miners, had the best grade-point average of any player in the conference. Yet the political science major with a 3.91 grade-point average does not consider himself the smartest player in the league.

"All it takes to get a 3.91 is hard work and dedication in the class room," said the 6-foot-6, 287 pounder.

Adkison, from Hobbs, N.M., is an academic junior with sophomore football eligibility. He said he studies at least two hours every night after practice and hopes to enter law school after graduation. His grade-point average is near perfection, since 4.0 is the best possible score.

"I think this is a tribute to the coaches," Adkison said. "They make sure we go to class every day. Really, it's a credit to the whole university. There are no dumb people on the (UTEP football) team," he said.

This past semester, the football team - not including players who finished their eligibility - had a cumulative grade-point average of 2.51, UTEP officials reported.

Gramm Nominates Collins For Second Term

WASHINGTON--U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm has recommended to the President that Marvin Collins serve a second term as the federal government's chief prosecutor in West and North Texas.

Collins, 46, has been the U.S. attorney for the 100-county Northern Judicial District of Texas since taking office in mid-1985.

"Marvin has done tremendous work as U.S. attorney," Gramm said. "From leading the Bank Fraud Task Force to cracking down on drug distributors, he has been exactly the kind of tough, innovative prosecutor that I'd hoped for when I asked him to take this job."

"At both the state and federal levels, Marvin has carved out a record as a superb prosecutor and I am particularly pleased that he has agreed to continue the critically important criminal justice work that he began by becoming the U.S. attorney four years ago."

Collins supervises 49 assistant U.S. attorneys--14 more than when he began--and 69 support staffers in offices located at Amarillo, Lubbock, Fort Worth and Dallas.

Before becoming U.S. attorney, Collins served as judge of Criminal District Court No. 1 in Fort Worth and as chief of both the civil division and the appellate section in the Tarrant County district attorney's office. He also served as legal adviser to the county government.

Collins is a criminal law specialist and holds a certification in criminal law from the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

Spiritually Speaking

by Todd Dyess
First United Methodist Church

Sometimes our terminology and choice of words can be sloppy and very inaccurate. A friend of mine recently related how one of his co-workers continually refers to members of a different Christian church as belonging to "another religion." He has explained this to him many times that people belonging to various Christian churches are of different denominations but should not be termed as members of different religions. However, he still continues to speak of those Christians in the neighborhood as belonging to other religions.

The apostle Paul proclaims that Jesus is the head of the church. All Christian denominations are united and living under the lordship and direction of Jesus Christ. We all commonly acknowledge and profess, regardless of our denominations, that Jesus has made peace "through the blood of his cross."

Those indeed are happy times, when we can pray to God and sense the reality of a common religious family. The Christian church today offers unified praise and worship to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

Although we have numerous divisions, many are of minor nature. Our unity and strengths are much greater, for the most powerful binding force imaginable is Christ - Our Saviour.

Dishwashers: Keeping Racks from Ruin

Dishwasher owners have a lot riding on their dishwasher racks. The ideal rack cradles and protects dishes, providing care almost as gentle as your own hands. Here are some important things to look for in judging racks:

- Quality racks are easy to load. They should pull out and push in easily, even when fully loaded.
- Look for flexible loading—fold-down dividers to make room for cups and bowls, and secure places for small or lightweight items.

Dear Bob Bullock:

In order to become a salesperson for a company, I have to pay a $100 "fee." In exchange for the fee, the company will give me a packet of brochures to show prospective customers. Customers will place orders with me based on what they see in the brochure. Is the $100 fee taxable?

M.L.

Dear C.S.:

Materials such as wood and nails aren't taxable if they're used to build nonreturnable crates to ship products to your customers. Wrapping, packaging and packing supplies used as part of selling goods are exempt from sales and use tax.

Dear M.L.:

The fee for the brochures is taxable and tax must be collected by the company that sells them to you. The fee represents the sales price of the brochures you have bought for you own use to solicit orders from customers.

Lometa Sparks of Spearman is the recent recipient of a "Golden Poet Award" given by World of Poetry, publisher of World Treasury of Great Poems, in which she has had three poems. If our homeowners' association plants shrubs and trees in a park or a right-of-way in our subdivision, and we give the land to the city, do we have to pay sales tax on the cost of landscaping?
B.H.
Houston

Dear B.H.:
If your homeowners' association gives the park or easement to a public entity such as a city or county, the association does not owe sales tax on the landscaping. Instead, give the landscaper an exemption certificate stating that the park or right-of-way has been dedicated to the city or county.

But if your association retains ownership of the park or right-of-way, it owes sales tax on the landscaping, even if the general public has access to the property.

Dear Bob Bullock:
Our company is considering hauling infectious waste from doctors' offices. This isn't part of the dumpster removal service. The waste will be hauled in special containers in refrigerated trucks. The type of waste we expect to haul is needles, cotton, gauze and other materials that touch the patient. Should sales tax be collected on this service?

Dear A.L.:
Provided your service falls under Texas Department of Health or federal Environmental Protection Agency regulations, and the waste is 'hazardous'

WHO ARE THE BABY BOOMERS?

The 76 million Americans born between 1946 and 1964 comprise the baby boom generation.

In fact, there are two generations of baby boomers: the older boomers, most of whom live settled lives (married with children), and the younger boomers, who are still looking for spouses and satisfying jobs. More than half the boomers who are still single live in a household headed by someone else—in many cases, their parents.

Typical of the baby boomers is the large group who makes up what is being called the New Collar Class—people with annual incomes between $15,000 and $30,000. The New Collars are the middle class of the baby boom (compared to the $30,000 plus Yuppies) whose values are a mixture of traditional and liberal.

New Collars seem committed to their families and are patriotic. They also are more liberal than their parents regarding such issues as abortion, premarital sex, use of drugs and alcohol, and "equal" marriages where both partners share work and family responsibilities.

The baby boom generation is thus composed of liberal conservatives — individuals who are liberal socially and conservative politically and economically.

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS FOR CHILDREN

Parents of young children should be aware that their 1989 income tax returns will require social security numbers for all children age 2 and older. The 1988 income tax return required Social Security numbers only for dependents age 5 and older. It is a good idea to file for a number early if you have not already done so. You will need Form SS-5, available from your nearest Social Security office.

BEING CREDITWORTHY

Who's considered credit-worthy? That depends on the creditor. Creditors set up their own systems to decide who's creditworthy and who's not. However, there are three decision-making systems—credit scoring, judgmental (subjective) or a combination—that creditors may use.

Most major lenders use credit scoring. With this system, creditors assign points to factors they consider to be the most important. Although these may vary from place to place, they often include the applicant's stability (as demonstrated by length of residence and employment, or home ownership), age, income, occupation and credit history. Points are assigned to each of these factors. Those whose scores fall within acceptable ranges are granted credit.

Musical Program Set At Apostolic Faith Church

The Apostolic Faith Church of Spearman will present a special musical program Friday, Nov. 10 featuring The Cooleys from Wichita, Kan.

According to Pastor Leland Grimmer, the program is scheduled to begin at 7:00 p.m. at the church, located at 9th and Dressen in Spearman. The public is invited to attend.

The Cooleys (Haskell, J. Lee, Cason and Camissa) present a gospel music program called "A Time For Refreshing." They present gospel music vocally and instrumentally. This family's "style" of music is easy-listening and is designed to be enjoyed by young and old. In 1981, at the age of 2, Cason began singing with his mother and father.

Most of the songs they sing and play are written by themselves and regularly make the radio stations' playlists throughout the nation.

The Cooleys' full-time music ministry takes them throughout the United States and portions of Canada.
