Temperature Hits 105° Here Sunday

Hansford County is heating up with extremely high temperatures this week. It was 105 for a high in Spearman Sunday and Monday and as we go to press Tuesday temperatures were once again crowding the 105 mark.

Spearman, Perryton, Gruver and numerous Panhandle towns reached the 105 degree mark Monday while Canadian, Texas was the high for the State with 109 degrees.

A high pressure system has moved over the area causing temperatures to soar according to the National Weather Service.

The system remains stationary Monday and Tuesday causing temperatures to top the 100 degree mark.

Weathermen stated there was little chance for rain through Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Actually there is no rain predicted for Hansford County in the near future. Tulia, Childress and Borger reported 105 degree temperature Monday.

Grasses in the area as well as Maize is suffering from the extreme high temperature. While the Southeast portion is getting some rain to relieve a small portion of their drought, Hansford County is continuing to set new heat records each day.

Texas Water Development Board Agrees to Purchase Palo Duro Bonds

The Texas Water Development Board on Thursday, July 24th, agreed to purchase $22.3 million in bonds to fund construction of the proposed Palo Duro Reservoir, Johnnie C. Lee, general manager of the Palo Duro River Authority, announced.

The bonds would be sold to the water board by the Palo Duro River Authority, which would own and operate the 2,413-acre lake 13 miles north of Spearman.

Voters will decide on August 26th whether to authorize the River Authority to issue the bonds. The reservoir would provide water service to municipalities in the River Authority.

The Authority covers Hansford and Moore counties and includes Spearman, Gruver, Sunray, Cactus and Dumas, as well as Stinnett in Hutchinson County.

"We're very pleased that the Water Development Board has agreed to purchase the bonds at a relatively low 7.6 percent interest to be paid back over 25 years," Lee said. "This makes it a very favorable time to build this lake."

The lake is designed to provide supplemental future water to the six municipalities and generate recreational opportunities for Panhandle residents and visitors. According to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, municipal water wells in the dwindling Ogallala aquifer are expected to be depleted between the years 2000 and 2037.

"Engineers say that there are no acceptable alternatives to meeting future water needs in the area other than building a surface lake," Lee said.

If voters approve the bond package on August 26th, the Reservoir could be completed by 1993.

DON TOWNSEN: President of First National Bank, Spearman, reminds tennis players that the big tourney is coming up this week-end.

The First National Bank of Spearman will sponsor a Junior Tennis Tournament July 31-August 1 and an Open Tennis Tournament August 2-3 at the Spearman High School's Omni courts. All proceeds from the tournament and concession stand will be donated to the Spearman YMCA.

The Junior Tennis Tournament will contain four classes of youngsters. There will be a 10 and under, a 12 and under, a 14 and under, and a 16 and under division. These classes will compete in boys' singles and doubles and girls' singles and doubles.

The entry fee for the singles competition is $7 per single event. For the doubles event, the fee will be $14 per team. There is a limit of three events per person.

First and second place winners in each competition will receive trophies to remain eligible for school athletics. The tournament will begin at 9 a.m., July 31.

The Open Tennis Tournament will have women's singles, men's singles, women's doubles, men's doubles, and mixed doubles, for classes A, B, and C. A competitor is limited to entering two events.

The entry fee for the Open Tennis Tournament will be $8 per single event and $16 per doubles team. The tourney will begin at 9 a.m., August 2.

The top two finishers will receive merchandise for their accomplishments. First place winners will receive water jugs and tennis towels with the bank emblem. Second place finishers will be given tennis towels with the bank emblem.

Entry deadline for both tournaments is noon, July 30. For more information, contact the tournament directors, Don and Barbara Townsen, at (806) 659-2735.

There are bound to be those who did not attend school in Texas who would like to learn more about the state in which they reside. If you are interested in such a class, please contact one of the members of Hansford County Historical Commission.

Classes would be held this fall, 1986, once or twice a week from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. This is for the adults in the community.

Contact by September 1, 1986, one of the following:

- Spearman: G.W. Robinson, Clementine (Mrs. B.F.) Renner, Rubyjo (Mrs. J.D.) Wilbanks, Sylvia (Mrs. T.Ray) Robertson, or Juanita (Mrs. J.L.) Pierce.
- Gruver: Helen Boyd (Mrs. Irvin), Joyce Johnson (Mrs. Wm. L.), and Melba Rasor (Mrs. Aubrey).

300 Attend Morse Celebration

IRENE FOSTER of Stinnett and Lee Forester of Dalhart were known as the Womble Sisters. When they lived in Morse. The two girls were daughters of Carson Womble of Morse and were home for the big reunion at Morse Saturday. Irene lives in Stinnett and Lee lives in Dalhart now!

Dismissals were: Sammie Bishop, Angel Chavez, Kelly Russell, Anna Sanchez, and Sara Vela.

The Morse Parade was one of the greatest in the state of Texas. Some 300 people were on hand for the barbecue and festivities Saturday. It was a record attendance for the Morse parade and barbecue!

More than Fifty-eight years ago the town of Morse was established with the building of the Amarillo-Liberal line of the Rock Island railroad.

In the 1900's the area surrounding the present site of Morse was open range with no paved roads or fences, just wagon trails and half dugouts dotting the countryside serving as homes for the early pioneers.

Another point of interest was the schools established. They were Lone Star, located southwest of what was formerly Natures Park; Lieb, which still stands midway between Morse and Pringle; Centerville, located west of Pringle two miles north of the present Jack Johnson place and Alpha, which stood west of Pringle on the Logan land.

The Lone Star school building and the one from Centerville, which was built in 1909, were moved to Morse where they were used for school facilities until a new building was completed in 1930. The Centerville district was also split with part going Texas History?

Members of the Hansford County Historical Commission have been approached by some local citizens, asking to have a class on Texas History. The Sesquicentennial Year for Texas seems to have sparked an interest for those who never attended school in Texas and want to know some of it's history.

The Historical Commission is considering such a class, if there is interest. Mr. G.W. Robinson, former history teacher in the Spearman Schools and present Chairman of the Commission, is willing to hold the classes. There would be no testing, and no cost, other than a minimal contribution to the Commission.

Congressman Beau Boulter Reports from Washington

A PROCESS THAT WAS FLAWED FROM THE START

On May 28th of this year, Secretary of Energy John S. Herrington announced that the Department of Energy will begin site characterization of Deaf Smith County, Texas as a potential location for nuclear waste storage. As you have no doubt read, the Deaf Smith site, along with one in Washington state and one in Nevada, is being considered as a possible site for the storage of an estimated 70,000 metric tons of this nation's high-level nuclear waste.

This decision on the Department of Energy's part, along with decisions and announcements the Department has made since, lends support to the belief that politics rather than science and safety are driving this nation's search for a high-level nuclear waste repository.

A national policy for the storage of nuclear waste is essential, but the federal government must realize that any decision made on this issue can have repercussions for over 10,000 years. That's the length of time that the waste to be stored will remain active. Any choices made are ones that future generations will have to live with, so we must do our best to ensure that the disposal method and site chosen are the best and safest available.

The three sites DOE has chosen, however, may not be the best and safest available. A July 8th article in the Seattle Times alleges that the Department of Energy's own records indicate that the best site considered thus far was located, not in Texas, Nevada, or Washington State, but in Mississippi. The Mississippi site, however, was not included in site characterization as were the three finalists.

In a similar vein, an investigation is underway by two Members of the House of Representatives into charges that DOE discarded documents from an earlier stage of the site selection process. These documents allegedly indicate that the three sites chosen are, in fact, not the safest alternatives.

Finally, the news of Deaf Smith's selection for site characterization included an announcement by the Secretary of Energy that the selection of a second disposal site in the Eastern U.S. was being postponed. The selection of this second site is required by law. But by postponing consideration of the Eastern U.S., the Department of Energy has failed to include all areas and geologies in its deliberations. This means that the site finally chosen for the storage facility can't possibly be the result of the best selection process the U.S. government can offer.

I believe that the problems with site selection began when Congress gave authority over the process to the Department of Energy. Responsibility for a decision of this magnitude is too much for any one governmental agency.

One can only remember that prior to the Space Shuttle Challenger disaster, many in this country felt NASA to be the model of efficiency for governmental bureaucracies. Events have shown, however, that the Challenger disaster was linked to mismanagement that had long been hidden under the rug of NASA's fine reputation.

The Department of Energy, however, has never had the fine reputation that NASA once did. On the contrary, this Department has often, and justifiably, been criticized for its lack of efficiency. Are we prepared then to trust the future of hundreds of generations of Americans to the political whims of a single bureaucracy in Washington, one that has never had a particularly good reputation to begin with? I don't think we should.

To alleviate some of these concerns, and place a restraint on the Department of Energy, Congresswoman Barbara Vucanovich of Nevada and I have introduced legislation which would force Congress to reconsider the process whereby sites for the disposal of nuclear waste are chosen. If passed, this law would ensure that the Department of Energy does not cut corners in making decisions that could affect our descendants for thousands of years to come.

August, 1986

*The flowers withered on their stems,
The leaves hung limp and wan,
Within the trees a wistful breeze
Whispered and was gone.*
-Anne Mary Lawler.

Perhaps the most nostalgic date in August is the 14th, the day President Truman announced the surrender of Japan, ending World War II, in 1945.

Hitler committed suicide in the face of Germany's defeat and his imminent capture in Berlin by the Russians on the last day of April.

Germany surrendered on the 8th of May, ending the war in Europe.

But the Japanese struggled on, even though President Truman and the retiring Prime Minister of Great Britain, Winston Churchill, gave Tokyo a virtual ultimatum at Potsdam on July 26, warning that unless they surrendered, the nation faced "prompt and utter destruction."

The massive U.S. fleet steamed into Japanese waters and sank the remainder of the Japanese fleet. Army and Navy bombers struck hard at many targets. The Japanese fought on—until the first atom bomb fell August 6, on Hiroshima.

In a few days another was used, and further warnings were issued. These new weapons and the horror of their destructive potential proved decisive. Japan surrendered, thereby preventing hundreds of thousands of fatalities which would have been suffered in an invasion of Japan.

On the 14th in 1935, social security was established in the United States, amid cries from the opposition that it would ruin the nation. Columbus sailed from Palos, Spain, on August 3, 1492, in his voyage to the New World. And David Crockett was born August 17, 1786, in Hawkins County, Tennessee.

A political assassination in 1935 took the life of Huey Long of Louisiana, then the virtual dictator of that state, born August 30, 1893, in Winfield, Louisiana.

Finally, the worst earthquake known east of the Mississippi occurred August 31, 1886. It was most disastrous at Charleston, South Carolina, but was felt from Jacksonville, Florida, north to Canada, and west to Iowa.

Weather Signs

Of all subjects, weather is the most universal, with which practically everyone is concerned.

It's surprising, however, how little most people know about the subject. If one will take the time, he can learn the signs valuable in predicting weather.

All you need is a barometer and a wind vane. Here are several: If you have a high and steady barometer, and the wind is from the southwest or the northwest, the weather will probably be fair with little temperature change for day or so.

If the barometer is high and falling rapidly and the wind is from the south or southeast, you will probably have increasing wind and rain within twelve to twenty-four hours.

If you have a high barometer, falling rapidly, and the wind is between the southeast and the northeast, the wind will increase and rain will come within twelve hours, in most cases.

If you have a low barometer, rising slowly, and the wind is from the south to the southwest, you will soon have clearing weather and it will be clear for several days.

If you have a low barometer which is rising rapidly, the wind is from the west, it indicates the weather will be clearing and colder.

Camp-Atwood Unite In Matrimony

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Atwood

Nuptial vows were exchanged by Frances Louann Camp, daughter of Fred and Helen Camp of Gruver, and Scott Ross Atwood, son of Harve and Phyllis Atwood, also of Gruver, on Thursday, June 26, 1986, at seven o'clock p.m. in Nature's Park, south of Gruver.

Officiating over the ceremony was Reverend Jeff Burress of the Community Bible Church in Gruver.

The bride's attendants were matron-of-honor, Mrs. Burke Trudel of Leoti, Kansas, and bridesmaids Raquel Rios and Tamara Wright, of Gruver and Lanece Lisenby of Miami, Texas. Flowergirl was Scott's niece, Randi Atwood. Crystal French, also a niece of Scott's, and Tina Camp, sister of the bride, registered guests and passed out rice bags.

Bridesmaids and matron-of-honor wore high-necked, tea-length dresses of the bride's chosen color, light blue. They were covered entirely with lace, and ruffles of the same material lined the hem.

The bride was dressed in a southern style gown of silk organza. It was accented by a V-neck of lace ruffles and many layers of the same kind of lace on the bottom part of the gown. Bows and gathers added the finishing touch to it. The headpiece featured a specially made bandeau with a fingertip veil lined in silk ribbon.

Bouquets were made of blue silk roses and white carnations with the bride's bouquet being a cascade of flowers, ribbons, and lace. Silk rose corsages were presented to both the mothers and grandmothers of the bride and groom.

Attendants for the groom were best man, cousin of the groom, Rocky Cribari of Grand Junction, Colorado, groomsmen Russell Tiner of Raton, New Mexico, Tad Lozier of Fritch, and Chet Pittman of Morse. Scott's nephews, Ryon Atwood and Skeeter French were ushers. Ringbearer was Fred Camp Jr., brother of the bride.

The men's attire consisted of dark blue jeans, white western shirts, tan corduroy jackets, navy blue ties, and straw cowboy hats. The groom was dressed the same for the exception of the jacket which was light blue/gray ultra-suede. All men in the wedding party had blue silk rose boutonnieres.

The bride arrived at the ceremony in a horse-drawn surrey with matching team of ponies and a red-fringed top. The bride was escorted by her father and given by both parents.

Balloons with announcements of the marriage and an RSVP were released while the two kissed. So far, the bride's parents have received five responses from Kansas, stating that balloons were found the day after the wedding. Responses came from the following people and places: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Murphy Jr. of Larned; Sarah (8) and her brother, John Krueser of Ellsworth; Eile Hall of Haviland; Lynn Hartwich of Omega; and Employees at Pratt Well Service of Pratt.

After the double-ring ceremony, the couple rode in the surrey through a flurry of rice. The driver, Emery Elliot of Texhoma, presented them with his and hers Bibles.

During the reception the bouquet was caught by Tamara Wright, and garter was caught by Fred Camp Jr.

The wedding cake was white and decorated with icing of blue flowers and bows. The cake top was the same one that the bride's parents had on their wedding cake when they were married in 1966.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Atwood, Lela Browell, and Ann Trout of Montrose, Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Cribari and Margie Ray of Grand Junction, Colorado; Louise Marx of Big Piney, Wyoming; Charlotte Harbor and Family, Richard Burton, and Chet Pittman of Morse; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dawson of Arnett, Oklahoma; Tad Lozier and Mray Lou Simmons of Fritch; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Tiner of Raton, New Mexico; Zane Brewer and Allen Mumau of Hardesty, Oklahoma; and Ruth Woodley of Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

A rehearsal and dinner was held the evening prior to the wedding day, Wednesday, June 25, by the parents of the groom. The festive cool greenery and atmosphere of a Chinese Garden was enjoyed by all the guests as Chinese lanterns swayed above the entertainment area and large brandy snifters of gaily colored candles gave a magical glow to the dining tables. Bride and groom were centered under an apple tree with a sign the bride's mother made which read, "Don't sit under the apple tree with anyone else but me." Entertainment was supplied by Margie Ray, aunt of Scott.

The couple came home from their two-week honeymoon in Colorado and New Mexico on July 10th. They reside in their own home west of Gruver. Scott is employed by Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Company and was a 1981 graduate of Gruver High School. Frances is employed at Hansford Steakhouse was also a graduate of Gruver High in 1986.

Letter to the Editor Fight For Your Quarter

To Whom It May Concern:

Dear Editor,
I, myself a Committee of one, how rarely ever continued to fight for a lost cause however in this battle of twenty one years, I believe I am close to a victory, I shall never say die, one day soon I think perhaps I shall drop a quarter into your quarter eating machine and to my surprise I shall get a paper on the first try. You would think after twenty-one years I would have learned not to trust that quarter eating thing, yet every Thurs. and Sunday I still try to outsmart the thing but therefore it has always eaten two quarters and I get no papers. I have watched people drop a quarter in the quarter eater and pull the handle, stand back and observe it tip toe up to this thing and very gently drop a second quarter in and gently pull handle, then they began shaking it, but this thing will not open nor will it return the quarter. This Committee already knows this, I continue to watch, people they hit it, kicked it, cursed it, spit on it, pick it up and drop it, cry tears on it, kiss it, hug it, beg it, and even try to choke it to death. Still that quarter eating thing will not open, nor will it give a quarter back.

Yesterday this quarter eating monster went to far, it took three quarters and would not open, the man was stranger, anyone living here knows better than to try three times. I told him you appear out of nowhere with your big coffee cans and open the quarter box, with a password, a secret code or maybe a magic potion. The can is so heavy you can hardly carry it, then you disappear quicker than a New York minute. The committee has tried to call you. No answer because you know what we want. Our quarters back.

So beware editor this strange man said would hide and watch and sooner or later he would catch you with your coffee can full of our quarters and he was going to pick up this quarter gobbling thing, and by now this committee thinks perhaps, you know by now this committee thinks perhaps, you know where he said it was going to shove it.

I shall try to contact the CIA* FBI, The President, Mr. Nixon, the Army, the Navy, the Marines, the AirForce, the Secret Service, the Governor, Fidel Castro, the PTA* and Charlie Brown, but I already know they know the solution. In the mean time I think I have discovered the formula I'm going to hurry and try again, it has to be a two headed quarter held very high, dropped at a slant. Bingo!

Sincerely
The Committee Of One.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

The Committee of two is so pleased Committee one is so anxious to read the Spearman Reporter and Hansford Plainsman that they will go to such degrees of physical labor. If they lose a quarter all one would have to do is come into the Reporter and get a paper or his or her quarter back.

Social Security News

You want a way to perhaps save yourself some time and money. Put your telephone to use. The Social Security Office can carry on almost, any type of Social Security Business over the phone.

You can file applications for benefits. Apply for Social Security numbers, report changes that need to be made, find out information and if you decide you want to come in and see us, you will know what documents and information to bring with you.

We know from past experience that people have driven many miles to see us only to find that we need another document or a letter they received. They could have saved themselves a lot of time by phoning first.

The most common problem deals with getting new Social Security cards. For years, people just went to a Social Security office, filled out an application, and were given a Social Security card. Either a first one or a duplicate for lost card or name change.

This isn't the case anymore. A person must show us documentation that establishes their age, citizenship, and identity for a first card. They must show us proof of identity and sometimes citizenship or legal admittance to get a duplicate card. Such as in name change or lost card.

A lot of people get irritated when they find they have to drive back home to get certified copies of the document we are required to look at.

So, save yourself some time and money. Call the Pampa Social Security at: 806-669-1018, Mon-Fri from 9:00-4:45. In the Oklahoma Panhandle you can call the Guymon Resident station at 405-338-6527.

WASHINGTON REPORT

U.S. Farms-1986 Wheat-Midwest-South-

WASHINGTON, D.C. --The latest Department of Agriculture projection for the 1986 wheat crop is 2.17 bushels, a hefty crop. A huge wheat stockpile already exists and this means Congress is faced with demands that something be done to avoid depressing prices.

The corn and soybean crops expected this year are somewhat down and will perhaps ease pressure on prices. Wheat, then, is the big if.

In the major grain-producing areas of the country the weather has been good, contrary to the plight of southeastern farmers in the Carolinas, Georgia and Alabama who are suffering a ruinous drought.

But 1985 farm legislation, designed to reduce price supports over the long run and make U.S. farm products more competitive on the world market, haven't provided much help.

Paychecks to farmers are larger, under special terms of the 1985 farm bill. But exports have not increased. The USDA says that, instead, from October to April, they fell a whopping 19 percent.

Still, experts in the USDA think the 1985 farm reform bill will eventually boost exports. They admit, however, that the cost of the 1985 farm bill is higher than anyone expected. Estimates range up to thirty billion dollars for this year's farm support program alone. It had been estimated at twenty billion dollars.

If the worst is now over for wheat farmers and the recovery is about to begin on U.S. farms, that might not include farmers in the southeast. After several years of weather and other hardship, the current drought has produced a crisis which almost resembles the depression days in many communities.

Members of Congress from these states are urging emergency aid programs. Republicans in the states most affected are hoping the Reagan Administration will move quickly and convincingly with new aid programs to help farmers retain their farms.

The real question is whether farmers and Congress will be patient enough to let the 1985 farm reform act have a chance to work. Ag officials say recovery is going to be a long, slow process. That doesn't sound good enough to some and there's a good chance Congress will rewrite farm legislation next year.

The only thing a man knows is himself. The world outside he can only know by hearsay.

-Alexander Smith.

"Know thyself" is a good saying, but not in all situations. For many it is better to say "Know others."

To God a note of Thanks

By: Mrs. E.A. Greever

Friends when beginning the message I think of two words. "Pilot Me," What does these two words mean to you and to me? Beyond doubt the answer I need a guide and leader. We people walking on this earth God made are helpless and hopeless whose life is short at the very longest are not forgotten in Gods plan for he has given us a guide and leader, and his name is Jesus.

A guide is one who points out the way, leads and directs, and this leader advises and commands. A pilot guides the ship through stormy or calm winds and waters and brings to the harbor to a place of safety and refuge. O how marvelous we creatures made of dust can have a guide and leader who has all power in heaven and earth and to be led and guided by him we must follow him and have an ear to hear his advise and commandments and then obey. Trust and obey for there's no other way. The word says the law of the Lord is perfect converting the soul. Psa. 19:7.

He goes before us and leads the way. In the word we read Jesus says, My sheep know my voice and they follow me and a stranger they will not follow but will flee from him. Now Jesus in person is not with us and has not been since he went back to the Father at the beginning of the early church age after only a short ministry on earth and when going back to the Father he asked him to send us another Comforter (The Holy Ghost) and the Bible teaches the Holy Ghost does not speak of himself but testifies of Jesus, and the Bible also tells us when He is come (into our life) He will lead us into all truth. Now our leader (Jesus) says, if ye love me keep my commandments and I will pray the Father to send you another Comforter (the Holy Ghost) whom the world cannot receive. We the people of God are strangers and pilgrims seeking a city whose builder and maker is God. This world is not our home. We in this frail barque or mortal body can do nothing without Jesus our guide and leader but the word comforts us by saying but with him all things are possible. We are frail, weak easily tempted to sin but by continually following our guide and leader we will reach the fair harbor at last and our frail barque changed to immortality. O thank you God. What a change it will be and here I feel we should be reminded this Comforter that leads to all truth does not come into an unclean life it must be made clean pure and holy by the blood of our guide and leader; and right here is a good place to read the 23rd Psalm. The Lord is my Shepherd I shall not want He maketh me to lie down in green pastures he leadeth me beside the still waters He restoreth my soul He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his names sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for thou art with me thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord Forever (Immortal body) and too let us remember to follow Jesus means a life of self denial and bearing the cross (of whatever it might consist) Often when meeting together to worship God we sing this old song, Must Jesus bear the cross alone and all the world go free? No theres a cross for everyone and theres a cross for me. Friends if you and I will turn to the Concordance in our Bible and read all scripture on lead and guide we will certainly find great instruction and admonition on our journey in the frail body which we live in and will be safely guided and have a confidence of that eternal and in Luke 1:79 will see all darkness flee and death will have no terror for us and within I am again glad to say Thank the Lord O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God how unsearchable are his judgements and his ways past finding out. Rom 11:33.

Out of State Firms Pay Half of Taxes

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Monday said out-of-state companies operating in Texas may end up paying more than half of the taxes collected in the near future.

"Out of the top 2,000 taxpayers in 1985, firms headquartered outside Texas paid 47.8 percent of the dollars collected and this was up 1.2 percent from the 1984 payments," Bullock said.

Bullock said the tax payments were another indicator that the Texas economy is becoming more directly related to the national economy and nationwide business operations.

He said a survey of the State's 2,000 top taxpayers revealed that while there are fewer out-of-state firms on that list, these companies are paying almost as much in total dollars as Texas businesses.

Texas firms surveyed paid the state $975.8 million in taxes in 1985 and out-of-state firms paid $894.8 million.

300 Attend Morse

Pringle and the remainder going to Morse.

H. S. Durham, H.C. Coffee, and J. P. Burgess, All Amarillo men, were promoters of the townsite of Morse in 1928. The building of the Amarillo-Liberal line of the Rock Island railroad in 1929 and the permit received by Santa Fe railroad in November of 1930 to construct a line from Spearman to a connection with the Rock Island tracks at Morse was the stimulus for a big celebration held in the town. Among dignitaries present were Lewis Nordyke who made the main address, Wes Izzard and Gene Howe, newspapermen from Amarillo and a number of high ranking railroad officials of both lines. A barbeque and lot sale were held along with the parade in which Bones Hans, driving a team of mules and Roscoe Parks and H. I. Gay, acting as clowns, were featured. A rodeo was held in the afternoon and an airplane, something new to most people, was available to offer rides to the public.

Since Pringle and Morse were two separate school districts in the spring of 1977 the voters decided that both Pringle and Morse school districts should consolidate with the school being located in Morse and now known as the Pringle-Morse school.

Shortly after Morse was established, several businesses located there. Among them were four lumber yards, a drug store and pharmacy, two grocery stores, three wholesale stations, four grain elevators, a dry goods store, a newstand, newspaper and printing shop, a doctor, telephone exchange, a barber and beauty shop, and a cleaning establishment. According to the Morse Monitor, March 27, 1929, the future of the town appeared to be bright with headlines reading, "Rock Island now constructing line from Morse to Dalhart"; "Santa Fe to extend line to Morse"; "Morse becoming center of railroads and state highways"; "Many new businesses are locating; see great future ahead".

Other points of interests are: First post office April 24, 1929, listing Mrs. Elita Powers as the first postmistress followed by Mrs. H. C. Coffee; The First Football Team in an early edition of the Morse newspaper dated November 27, 1930. The Mustangs closed the season with five wins and three losses, playing against Stinnett, Flemons, Gruver, Spearman, and Dumas. Boys Organization of the Morse Chamber of Commerce was in 1930 with Roy Womble heading the organization.

Another interesting note gleaned from the files of the Monitor is the mention of a bank to be established in Morse. Although the bank was to open in the 1930's it did not because of the Dirty 30's and the depression that followed. Businesses closed, people moved away, but a few held on. Then in the 1940's and 50's some farmers started drilling for water and the irrigation business came into full force and seemed to be part of the answer to the problems of the farming communities.

These are just a few history notes taken from the Hansford County History Book about the beginning of Morse, Texas.

Last week the Morse Community celebrated their Texas Sesquicentennial Celebration. The gathering was attended by over 300 people strong.

Another scene from the Morse Sesquicentennial Parade held on Saturday.

The Coffee Memorial Blood Bank will be in Spearman on August 4, 1986 from 2 p.m. - 8 p.m. at the Sacred Heart Parish Hall. Everyone is en-

Buying Jewelry?

One of the hardest tasks for those who undertake it is buying jewelry—precious stones, pearls, rings, etc.

Where can one go to get a fair price? The buyer usually can't determine quality, visually.

In resort towns and often at resort hotels, smart operators often fleece the public on quality and price.

Prices vary to the wildest degree. A single strand of pearls of a certain quality can cost as much as a double strand in another shop or city—of like quality.

Diamonds vary so greatly in price experts are needed for advice in purchasing them.

Many Americans today are wearing stones of little value for which they paid a considerable price. Perhaps it's better they don't know otherwise.

The best rule is to buy from long-established, home-town dealers of good character, who guarantee their merchandise, or from reputable estate dealers (who often have the best prices) of long standing.

WHO KNOWS

1. Who was the first American astronaut?
2. When was the first atomic power plant completed?
3. Who wrote the song "God Bless America"?
4. How many gallons of water are there in a 1 inch rain over a 1 acre surface?
5. Define odontopraxis.

Answers to Who Knows

1. Alan B. Shepard, Jr.
2. July 18, 1955.
3. Irving Berlin.
4. Approximately 27,143 gallons.
5. Grinding teeth.

Who?

Why all this talk about getting back to normal? Who would recognize himself?

-Piedmont, Greenville.

The drive will be held August 4th, at Sacred Heart Parish Hall in Spearman.

Reagan & South

President Reagan is depending on voters in five southern states (Alabama, North Carolina, Florida, Georgia and Arkansas) to help him retain Republican control of the U.S. Senate.

The G.O.P. majority in the upper chamber of Congress is slim—53 to 47. A net loss of four seats would give control to Democrats. And Democrats have a major advantage this November in the 34 Senate races; only 12 of them involve Democratic seats. Twenty-two Republican seats expire this year.

Mr. Reagan gambled that he could veto a bill giving the textile industry relief and not lose too much support in Dixie. He hasn't paid as much attention, in appointments and otherwise, to Dixie as he did in his first year or two in office.

He has been unfortunate enough to be president when a devastating farm crisis has engulfed much of the South (and Midwest). Should he try to do more about it? Some think so. Should he look to the South for more top appointees? Should he consider some special aid to the textile industry? These are pertinent questions, and they relate to this November's election and the 1988 election.

In addition to the five states above, in which Republican seats are expiring, and need to be held, Republicans have high hopes in Louisiana, and hopes for an upset in either Arkansas or South Carolina. But the farm crisis, textile crisis and what has appeared to be Mr. Reagan's concentration on other areas of the nation (West and Midwest) for political plums, appointments, etc., raise a good question.

Should the president redouble his efforts to insure that Democrats, who so long one-partied the South into a power base, won't make a comeback in November, a comeback that might cost him control of the U.S. Senate?

One thinks so.

Public Opinion

A prominent speaker once said: "The first lesson we must take to heart is that people are swayed by their emotions, not their intellects."

The majority, which acts according to emotional stimuli, are but tools handled by clever brains.

The individual whose decision is fashioned by an emotional response is a fish following the bait without seeing the hook. Let no one imagine that people, swayed by emotions, rule this country. The nation is ruled by the clever, who create situations which result in emotional reactions.

Back of the popular emotion, however expressed, is the mind that takes advantage of the nature of human beings to secure a definite, specific result.

Black Heroes

Congressman Nancy Johnson (R-Conn) has introduced a bill to memorialize the black heroes of this country who fought in the Revolution.

The extent of support for the bill is indicated in the 408-0 margin with which the measure passed the lower house.

Johnson says thousands of blacks supported their fellow Americans in the seven year fight for independence, some fighting in the Revolutionary Army. So she feels it's time their contribution be recognized.

There can be no argument against that, especially since blacks at that time were usually in the position of second class citizens. That makes their contribution more admirable.

Looking at WASHINGTON

BY EDWARD H. SIMS

Moscow & Bonn

After three years of almost frozen cold-war style relations, Moscow has shifted its policy and is now increasing its dialogue with West Germany. The three-year chill was caused when Bonn allowed new U.S.-manned intermediate range nuclear missiles to be stationed in its soil.

The change in Russian policy follows recent elections in Lower Saxony, where anti-government forces were expected to win control. Instead conservatives of Chancellor Helmut Kohl prevailed. This convinced Moscow, as it did others, Kohl's party will win a new term of office next January.

The Russians are obviously basing their foreign policy on the theory that they will have to deal with Dr. Kohl for four more years. They showed the same thinking when, in early 1984, they concluded President Reagan was unbeatable.

If Moscow is resigned to the prospect of having to deal with the Kohl government in Germany for four more years, the chance for significant U.S.-Russian agreements on arms and other matters is improved. West Germany has been this country's staunchest ally on the continent of Europe in the post-war years. Bonn is pushing for mutual concessions from Washington and Moscow and new arms agreements. But the Kohl government backs Washington's position, and can't be split away, as West Germany's Social Democrats might, by Moscow's threats and arguments.

Thus the thaw in West German-Russian relations is a hopeful sign. It reflects, most probably, the effort of new Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev to create a new and genuine detente, with accompanying arms agreements.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

By Edward Thorlund

Most of the nation's economists now feel growth in the last half of the year will not be what had been anticipated. And many think the Federal Reserve Board should have lowered money rates sooner than it did.

This would have helped debtor nations reschedule and pay their huge debts and it would have stimulated business in this country. The Fed finally moved, in the second week of July, but it lowered rates charged banks by only a half point.

That had been anticipated and what had been expected was a full point lowering. As a result, the stock market correction hardly noticed the Fed's action, which is unusual. To many, that was the signal that the substantial correction long awaited had arrived.

One might see a further lowering of interest rates in the months to come and many would welcome such a trend. Why so many investors pay attention to economist Henry Kaufman has long been a mystery, but he changed his tune in mid-July and forecast lower interest rates.

That just points up the difficulty for individual investors. Even top economists change their tune from week to week and month to month. Many had been saying for weeks that interest rates would move higher.

Mrs. Mack Dortch came to Morse in 1902 when there wasn't even a town called Morse! We proudly salute this fine pioneer of Hansford county and Morse during our Sesquicentennial Texas Celebration last Saturday at Morse!

Strengthening the Spirit of America

It's no secret that American family farmers and ranchers are living through an economic crisis as severe as the Great Depression.

Plunging incomes have forced several hundred thousand families from their land since 1980, and their departure is unraveling the fabric of a thousand rural communities. Plus, in many areas of America, the farm crisis is adding to unemployment in our cities.

The majority of Americans, while sympathetic, have little or no understanding of the root causes of the problem. And our national leadership has failed to address it in any meaningful way.

Through Willie Nelson's efforts with FarmAid, the American people have responded to the need in rural America, and FarmSid-funded emergency relief and crisis intervention programs have reached thousands of desperate farm and ranch families.

Now FarmAid is expanding its efforts into a new area. While the relief and counseling efforts are badly needed, they can only attempt to treat the symptoms of the crisis. Recovery and cure can only be provided by Washington, and with FarmAid's help, we are going to lend Congress and the Administration a hand in figuring out what exactly is needed.

Beginning July 16th and running through the end of August, more than 500 local meetings-- organized by 31 area coordinators throughout the nation-- will be held to draft farm policy resolutions and to elect delegates to the United Farmer & Rancher Congress in St. Louis, September 11-13.

Funded with more than $250,000 in FarmAid funds, the 31 area coordinators will cover all of the 48 contiguous states, and from the 500 local meetings, approximately 1,500 delegates to the Congress will be elected.

It's an ambitious project, to say the least, but if the delegates can indeed come together in a spirit of unity and demonstrate broad support for one farm policy option-- or even one philosophical position-- the impact of the Congress can be tremendous. In fact, our fervent hope is that it will mark the turning point in the fortunes of the American family farm and ranch system.

For years, Congress has told us-- with some justification-- that farmers and ranchers can't agree on what needs to be done, how are they supposed to figure it out? The United Farmer and Rancher Congress is designed to take that excuse away from them. We expect they'll be grateful for the guidance.

We embark on this project with no preconceived notions of what sort of policy recommendations might come out of it. However, a recent eleven state farmer and rancher survey-- commissioned by the League of Rural Voters indicates by a 2-to-1 margin that more farmers and ranchers feel our current farm policy is hurting them rather than helping them.

The United Farmer & Rancher Congress will give our farmers and ranchers a forum to tell the nation directly the condition of American agriculture and the policy changes needed to revitalize their industry and their communities.

It's going to take a united effort to stop the going-out-of-business sale currently underway in rural America. We're going to do our best to make the United Farmer & Rancher Congress truly a landmark event that can strengthen the spirit of America and deliver workable solutions to the crisis that is devastating rural America.

Unimpressive

The latest from NASA is as unimpressive as recent fizzles and failures in the space program. Continuing to over-react to the only flight disaster in twenty years, Administrator James Fletcher has announced that NASA has given up on another shuttle launch for next year.

Considering the fact that many shuttle flights were launched successfully in warm weather, that the cause of the recent failure has been identified, and that this information can be used to create very good chances of safety for another shuttle launch, soon, this super caution is misplaced.

The emotional civilian reaction to the space tragedy seems to have everyone in the space program going all-out for total safety and no chance whatsoever of an accident. No space exploration program involving rockets can ever attain that degree of safety and security.

Nor should anyone expect that. This nation is engaged in critical scientific competition for mastery in space, civilian and military. The outcome of that competition could determine the fate and security of the nation. With stakes of such gravity, there is no place for super-super caution and bureaucratic reluctance to take a chance, to avoid any blame.

Chances must be taken. The space exploration program has experienced remarkably few accidents. Far fewer lives have been lost than in many other critical national security programs. Chances are probably 99 out of 100 that O-rings could be strengthened and improved in a few months to guarantee a safe launch.

But we are now going the bureaucratic route. No one wants to risk having to take the responsibility for another accident. Risks must be taken, reasonable risks.
