Coach Jones

LYNX 74 RIVER ROAD 45

What a difference a week makes. After being idle Tuesday night due to the weather the Lynx traveled Thursday to Sanford-Fritch to meet the River Road Wildcats in a first round match.

After viewing tapes of River Road borrowed from Gruver and making the necessary adjustments the team felt well prepared to grab an opening round victory.

The players executed well against River Road and at the 2:34 mark the Lynx held a seven point advantage. At that point River Road elected to press again, the only difference this time was that the Lynx did not use their set offensive pattern and as a result saw River Road score six quick points. The inability to slow down the game and run time off the clock was also a factor in the outcome of the game.

No one should lose a game after being in that particular situation the inability of the coach to make sure the players carried out instructions was also a determining factor in the final outcome.

The team learned the hard way why we practice on time and score

T.): Shannon Jenkins (8-6-2-22); Jill McLain (4-3-4-11); Mary Lou Baker (3-3-1-9); Carrie Guthrie (4-0-4-8); Cayla Eaton (2-2-4-6); Margie Evans (1-0-0-2); Jennifer Yarborough (0-0-5-0); Kim Jenkins (0-0-0-0); Ginger Pearson (0-0-0-0); Lisa Cazarez (0-0-0-0); and Heather Murrell (0-0-1-0).

Crime Prevention Program

Texas - New Mexico Power Company, in cooperation with local law enforcement officials, will launch a crime prevention program across the company's Panhandle Division beginning in January.

The Panhandle Division includes the towns of Perryton, Spearman, Follett, Higgins, Booker and Darrouzett, and rural areas of Hansford, Lipscomb and Ochiltree counties.

Joe Cook, TNP's Panhandle division manager, said that the crime prevention program will function as an extra set of eyes for local police and sheriff's departments. TNP meter readers, lineman and electric servicemen will watch for possible criminal activity in the neighborhoods where they are working and will use the company's radio dispatching equipment to report anything suspicious to the proper authorities.

"We represented the idea at a meeting of our key personnel. The response from them was very enthusiastic. As each manager told his people about it, the enthusiasm continued to grow," Cook said.

One employee, Craig Vinson, an electric serviceman from the company's Spearman District Office, went so far as to develop some slogans that will be incorporated in advertising about the program.

TNP employees began training sessions with law enforcement officials earlier this month. Cook stressed that employees will not attempt to apprehend criminals but will provide information that will help authorities do the job.

"We wanted to meet with the authorities and let them inform our servicemen, meter readers and linemen what to look for and how to submit the information. We will keep our eyes open and report any criminal activity, but we will not act like law enforcement officials," he said.

Employees observing suspicious activities will contact TNP offices by radio. The office will then relay the information to the appropriate law enforcement agency.

Information on suspicious activity within Perryton and Spearman will be relayed to the police department in those towns. Reports of criminal activity in rural areas and those towns without police departments will be relayed to the sheriff's departments in Hansford, Lipscomb and Ochiltree counties.

The crime prevention program is being adopted in the Panhandle Division First, but could eventually be adopted in each of the company's five other divisions in Texas and New Mexico, Cook said.

"Our people are real excited about getting started. We see this as a golden opportunity to get involved and be a part of the communities we serve while looking out for our customers."

Merry Christmas is the message at this beautiful home in Spearman.

A Christmas Candlelight Festival

The Chancel Choir of the First United Methodist Church will perform a special called A Christmas Candlelight Festival. On Sunday, December 21, 1986 at 7:00 p.m.

First United Methodist Church is the setting for A Christmas Candlelight Festival, by Lani Smith. She writes, "Somehow Christmas and candlelight seem to go well together. Perhaps this is due in part to symbolism. The lighted candle is like the newborn Christ child, a small solitary light that is capable of kindling many lights, they in turn kindling others, until the darkness is no more. Christ came into the world to banish darkness and it is through His light that this is accomplished."

Leading the service will be the Chancel Choir, Betty Womble directing. The Sunshine Bunch II (children in grades 4-6) will also participate. Verna Strawn is their director.

The public is urged to attend this meaningful service, Sunday, December 21, at 7:00 p.m.

A nursery will be provided. The address is 407 South Haney.

To God a Note of Thanks

Friends, definitely we learned in our last weeks study using a few of the Bible scriptures that in this mortal body we do not have glory honour immortality eternal life and Gods word tells us for this we are seeking. In Rom. 2: 6-7; we read (God) who will render to every man according to his deeds. To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality eternal life. In 1 Peter 2:19-23; we are told through Christs sufferings He took it patiently. When reviled He reviled not again when suffering He threatened not but committed himself to him (God) that judgeth righteously leaving us an example that we should follow His steps by doing the same. For this is acceptable with God. Now the two questions: Are we counting the cost to receive glory and honour and immortality eternal life? Are we able to pay the price? Answer: In John 15:5; Jesus said, without me ye can do nothing Phil. 4:13; I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Now what has He done for us that we can have His help through anything that may come our way. Answer: He shed His lifes blood at Calvary to forgive all our sins as we come to God with a godly sorrow and by the same offering gave it to purify to make us a holy righteous person in the world but not of it and this is the grace where in we stand and rejoice in hope of the glory of God and not only so but we glory in tribulation also knowing that tribulation worketh patience and patience experience and experience hope and hope maketh not ashamed because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Rom. 5:1-5; With this experience in our life the Lord said in John 8:31; If ye continue in my word then are ye my disciples indeed and this means we must continue so as long as in this mortal body. Deny self take up our cross whatever it might be and follow Him. Why choose the way of such persecution tribulation and endurance? Answer: For the joy that is set before us, we have laid aside every weight and the sin that could beset us and patiently running the race set before us looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross despising the shame. Heb. 12:1-2; Gods word says we are heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ if so be that we suffer with Him that we may be glorified together.

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us Rom. 8:17-18. Friends, it seems to me there should be no doubt among any of us who have been bought by the blood of Christ in being able to go through with Him for He has promised I will never leave nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper and I will not fear what man may do unto me. Rom. 13:5-6.

The trials of life may be many The frowns of the world now are cold For blood washed saints all forgotten When they walk on the street of gold. Rev. 21:4; To God a note of Thanks.

Double Ring Ceremony

Mrs. Philip Wayne Tripp

Miss Beth Ann Holt and Dr. Philip Wayne Tripp were united in marriage on Saturday, November 29, 1986, at three o'clock in the Gruver United Methodist Church, Gruver, Texas. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Jim Terry, pastor of Gruver United Methodist Church, and the Reverend Jim Smith, pastor of Saint Stephen United Methodist Church, Amarillo, Texas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Holt of Gruver. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur N. Tripp of Guymon, Oklahoma.

The church sanctuary was decorated with arched candelabra arranged in an overlapping pattern with spiraling candelabra on either end and one large floral arrangement of gladiolas, mums, and carnations.

Wedding music was provided by Mr. Erwin Elms, organist, Mrs. Erwin Elms, pianist, and Mrs. Lon Godley, soloist. Vocal selections were "O Perfect Love," "A Wedding Prayer," "Heavenly Father," "The Lord's Prayer," "Bless This House," "Whither Thou Goest," and "This Is The Day."

As the "Processional from the Sound of Music" was played, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a formal gown of white satin. The fitted bodice was covered with Alencon lace which was adorned with sea pearls. The dress had a basque style dropped waistline. The Renaissance sleeves had Alencon lace and a touch of sea pearls. The satin skirt flowed into a Cathedral length train with an Alencon lace edging. The bride chose a veil edged with Alencon lace and sea pearls.

The bride carried a bouquet of pink and white roses and baby's breath. She carried out the bridal tradition of wearing something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue, and a sixpence dated the year of her birth in her shoe for good luck.

They wore ruffled dresses of pink shimmer satin made by Mrs. Kevin Holt and Miss Kristi Holt. The flower girls carried pink rose petals in miniature white baskets accented with pink satin ribbons.

Ring bearer was Brad Holt of Gruver, nephew of the bride. He wore a black tuxedo and carried the rings on a white satin and lace pillow designed by Mrs. Kevin Holt.

Remember Your Museum on Christmas

Christmas gifts are on our minds at this time of the year. Why not make this an unusual one and remember your museum. Give a tax deductible donation and help yourself at the same time.

If history is not preserved now, children will never know how their ancestors lived and how hard they worked to make the future better for them and for generations to come. Let them see the many changes that have taken place over the years.

Your Museum Board is anxious to preserve Hansford County's history; but it takes money to do this. The doors are kept open only by donations. Any size gift is greatly appreciated and assure you of the best possible use. Will the $5000.00 check earmarked for Old Zulu go unmatched and consequently lost? We hope not.

Annual Fish Fry

Ann Johnson, Marietta Huse and Smokey Huse enjoying their annual Family and Friends Fish Fry.

Smoky and Marietta Huses' daughter and son-in-law; Ann and Doug Johnson from Houston came over the week-end to Pheasant hunt with Smoky. Ann was bringing fish for a fish fry Saturday 13, but the fish almost didn't make it to Spearman as they were leaving for the airport a Sheriff Joe King called Ann to inform her that he was coming to Spearman for a Pheasant Hunt. He said the fish could ride in the back of his pick-up so the fish left Freeport Thurs. and stopped at Sheriff Joe Kings' house to ride in his pickup to Spearman where he was going to join Pheasant Hunters, but before he reached Dallas he had car trouble and had to return to Angleton.

ShaunTa West (Smokys' granddaughter) took it to the Houston Airport to fly to Amarillo where Al Tucker drove to meet the fish at the airport and brought it back to Spearman for Sat. night fish fry where 56 people enjoyed fresh red snapper and shrimp caught by Smokys' daughter Ann Johnston & husband Doug & children; Kevin, Kim & ShaunTa. People drove from far and near to pheasant hunt & enjoy family fellowship.

Among The Neighbors

Tommie White is an example of the versatility of some American farmers. Tommie was born and raised on a farm, raising his own children on the farm, and now a grandfather, expecting to live out his days farming. Circumstances changed his plans and he is now attending school at Greenville, Texas, in training to become an assembler installer on airplanes. He is finding it interesting and enjoyable and is quite optimistic about his new career.

Tommie and Sue were back home this week-end entertaining pheasant hunters. The hunters bagged their limit, but Sue says there was no limit to their liking of her cornbread and stew!

Their guests were their son-in-law, Doug Holmes and two friends of Amarillo, Joe Moore of Burk Burnett, five men representing the Skeeter Boat company of Kilgore, Bob Nolan and Don Allison of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Cook returned Sunday from Las Vegas, Nevada where they had been since Wednesday attending the National Finals Rodeo. Although recovering from a painful fall on the ice, Mrs. Cook enjoyed the trip. Their daughter, Stacy, was contestant in the National Rodeo Miss America Finals, representing Texas. Stacy placed in the top ten, and won the Western Attire Division.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Beck of Madison, Kansas visited his sister, Betty, and Richard Gaines a few days last week. They were enroute home from California where they had been visiting their daughter. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Greg Purcell and the Owen Pendergrafts while here.

April and Lane Heitz of Canyon spent Friday and Saturday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Peary. Actually little time was spent in the home; mostly they were pheasant hunting. April has become as effective in hunting as she has been in fishing.

Bill Kuehl underwent by-pass surgery on Friday, and is recovering and looking forward to returning home. He is in room 210, St. Anthony's hospital, Amarillo. Mr. Kuehl is retired from Exxon Company.

Paula Warren of Los Angeles, California has been spending several days here with her mother, Mrs. Lucile Hagerman. It has been some time since Paula has been back; she is now a respiratory technician.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pender Craft spent Monday and Monday night with an old friend, Mrs. Lillian Ottaway in Tryone, Oklahoma.

The annual Christmas party of the Sid Beck family was held in the home of Hester Sue and John Crawford on Friday night. After the meal, a family gift exchange with an unusual angle was held. Each gift was made by the donors.

Out-of-town members attending were the families of Ann Johnson, Freeport; her daughter of Austin, Charles Lane and son, Houston; James Beck and son Sulphur Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kiker, Albuquerque; Mr. and Mrs. Billie Joe Beck, Balko; Mr. and Mrs. Doug Beck, Booker; Mr. and Mrs. Don Beck and Toby Hindman, Amarillo; and from Spearman-Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Huse, Mr. and Mrs. Al Tucker and Pat, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Beck and Marie Beck.

Alta Fisher spent several days last week with her mother, Mrs. Mary Sexson of Cache, Oklahoma visiting and taking her to the doctor.

Mrs. Maudine Patterson dusted off the long-stored recipes and had a busy week-end of cooking which she thoroughly enjoyed. Her son John and seven friends from the Houston area were here for a week-end of pheasant hunting. Tho their hunting results were skimpy, they enjoyed seeing the country and the hospitality.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Montgomery attended funeral services for her brother, John H. Kirby, 65, Saturday afternoon. It was in Dumas where he has lived since 1948.

Pheasant hunting high-lighted by a fish fry has become an annual affair and was held Saturday at the Home Demonstration building. Ann and Doug Johnson of Freeport are the unofficial hosts since they bring huge quantities of red snapper and shrimp, fresh from the Gulf.

Our-of-town pheasant hunter attending were: Kenneth Beck, St. Louis; James Beck and son, Sulphur Springs; Charles Lane and son, Houston; Gus Ferris and son and two friends of Midland; Robert Beck and friend, Plano; Robert Huse, Lubbock; and the Misters and Mrs. Don Beck, Amarillo; Billy Joe Beck, Balko; Doug Beck, Booker; Toby Hindman, Amarillo and the Johnson of Freeport and Austing.

The ladies didn't do any hunting, and the men didn't get many pheasant, but the fish and fellowship were thoroughly enjoyed.

Many Spearman relatives and friends were there also totaling around 60 in attendance.
