PARADE MARSHALLS FOR THE HANSFORD ROUND UP parade will be Spearman's John and Sammie Bishop. The Bishop's came to Hansford county in 1929 and the couple operated Spearman Hardware until their retirement in 1969.

Hansford Round Up unfolds this week . . .

Bishops to lead Hansford parade

When the big Hansford Round Up Parade steps out this Saturday morning, a pair of old Round Up hands will be there to officiate the spectacle -- John and Sammie Bishop of Spearman.

The parade is a key feature of the 3-day Hansford Round Up which begins today (Thursday) in Spearman. Opening the 3-day run will be the Miss Hansford Pageant tonight in the Spearman high school auditorium. Friday night will have a featured Street Dance in the Plains Shopping Center parking lot beginning at 9 p.m.

Saturday morning, Spearman merchants will move out of their buildings and onto the sidewalk for a special sidewalk sale beginning at 8 a.m. and running until the parade starts at 11 o'clock.

Then John and Sammie get to take over for the official Round Up Parade which will feature floats, antique cars, horse clubs and others from around the Panhandle area as well as Hansford county.

"I hope it doesn't take a whole lot of experience," declares John in his usual humorous tone. "Cause I don't have any."

Despite being members of the Hansford community since 1929, both John and Sammie confess to very little knowledge of what parade marshalls do.

"I figure it'll come to us pretty quick, though," Bishop laughs.

The Spearman couple have seen almost every Hansford Round Up Parade since the inception of the celebration back in the 1930's, they report.

They also note there have been a lot of changes in both the parade and Hansford county since those early days.

Bubbling with an almost infectious sense of humor, Bishop can get the most out of any listener as he tells of those early days in Spearman and Hansford county.

The couple -- they celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary this past December -- came to Hansford county shortly after they were married in 1929 from Higgins.

THE HANSFORD REPORT

by JAMES JARRETT

Murphy is working overtime here at the newspaper.

While I've never met Murphy personally, I am, and have become, extremely well versed in his most famous law: If it can go wrong, it will.

As I said, he's working overtime at the newspaper.

Where else can you find a "GM Dilly"? And nothing can be more comfortable than the word "comfort".

Last issue we discussed the problems with Mrs. Whitson. These are but the tip of the Murphy iceberg.

This past week we had the pleasure of taking in the Spearman chamber of commerce tennis tournament. It was also our responsibility to get pictures of the winners.

This came about Sunday afternoon. So, bright and early Sunday morning, we go by the news office, pick up a fresh roll of film, pop it in the camera and we're off to the tournament.

During the afternoon we have to go to Gruver to take a few candid shots at the Caprock Industries open house of their new offices there.

While in Gruver, we snap a few pictures of kids enjoying the first day of swimming at the Gruver swimming pool.

Then it's rush back to Spearman to finish taking pictures of the tournament winners. We even missed one and went to where the people were to get a picture.

And we waited around until 6 p.m. for the final picture of our local winners.

Finally, exhausted from our rounds -- and on a Sunday, too -- we take the camera, put it up and quietly forget about it. Until press time Tuesday for the Gruver paper.

Then, upon developing the film

Cowboy camp

for June 11-14

The second annual Palo Duro Cowboy Camp Meeting will unfold June 11-14 at the rodeo arena located one and one-half miles east of Gruver on FM 15.

The annual event features special Gospel meetings, traditional cowboy rodeo events as well as special family events and meals throughout the 4-day meeting.

On tap for the event are a series of messages from Boyce Evans who has become well known as the "Cowboy Preacher" from Lubbock. Also scheduled will be evangelist R. L. Chandler, a former saddle bronc rider and saddle-making teacher at TSTL. He also does western sculpture.

Buster and Debbie Reedy of Wheeler will lead the music for the meeting and Rick Steele of Aledo, Ill., -- a camp association manager -- will be heading up the behind-the-scenes organization.

The Palo Duro Cowboy Camp Meeting features an interdenominational series of meetings which include meals, singing and worship services.

Also on tap are team roping for the cowboys along with stick horse races and sack races for the youngsters and youn-at-heart.

There will be outdoor camping and family-style eating with all meals provided. There is no charge, but contributions are accepted.

from the camera, we discover pictures that were taken in March . . . of 1986. They're not tennis pictures. They're not even open house pictures. And no one but no one was swimming.

Instead, there are pictures of Mike Cudd in a business suit. And another of a 1986 trophy saddle for a rodeo.

The only thing we can surmise is that somebody, some time, rolled an already developed piece of film into a film cartridge.

Why? I don't know. But had the film been undeveloped, there would have been double exposures. But the prints were bright, sharp and clear. Which means they had to be already developed when I was snapping my tennis, open house and swimming pictures.

Therefore, there are no tennis, open house or swimming pictures in either the Gruver Statesman or the Spearman Reporter.

And somewhere, Murphy is rolling, probably doubled over in laughter.

As for me . . . I've learned to quit asking, "What can go wrong next?" Frankly, at this point, I don't want to know.

Now, about that tennis tournament. Scott and Jeff Beedy deserved more than a pat on the back for their efforts as codirectors of the chamber's second annual tourney.

Last year -- which also was the first year -- the dynamic duo served as directors for what turned out to be a pretty good tournament. They had over 107 entries.

This year they were hoping to do just as good as they did last year. And they did, almost.

This year, thanks to their efforts in getting the word out to area schools and communities, they didn't have 107 entries. They had 173.

And it took every bit of two full days to complete the tournament.

Now this was a full-fledged tournament. It wasn't just singles play or just doubles. It was five divisions -- men's and women's singles and doubles as well as mixed doubles.

Add to that the three different classes for each -- A, B and C -- and they had to seed 15 brackets.

Then they had to get it coordinated and organized each day of the tournament, keeping six matches going at all times.

What did they get out of it? Other than the satisfaction of a job well done, not much.

Except for a real decent sunburn . . . on their legs. Late spring tennis tournament will do to white legs, fellas.

If you haven't been told already, thanks for a great job.

Our final note: Will Rogers probably summed it up best when he said, "A stranger is just a friend I haven't met."

Spearman retailers slate sidewalk sale

Spearman merchants are gearing up for the gala Hansford Round Up as well -- offering a special Sidewalk Sale Saturday morning before the parade.

Round Up celebration opens

A beauty pageant, a western barbecue, dances, carnival midway and a parade are just a few of the items on a long list of events slated for the 1987 Hansford Round Up which will run off this Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Spearman.

Following a long-established tradition, the Hansford Round Up starts with the Miss Hansford Pageant which this year features some 46 Hansford Lovlies vying for five separate crowns, including the coveted Miss Hansford County title.

The pageant unfolds beginning at 7:30 this evening in the Spearman high school auditorium.

Friday night will be the gala street dance, held each year in the High Plains Shopping Center parking lot. The dance will begin at 9 p.m.

A carnival midway opened Monday evening in Spearman, and will continue it's nightly operation through Saturday.

Saturday, the celebration gets into full swing with a parade, barbecue, old timers reunion and a literal host of other activities slated for this festive occasion.

The parade opens the day-long activities at 11 a.m. It will run down S. Kenneth then onto Main Street and will feature everything from antique autos and tractors to spectacular floats, riding clubs and more.

Acting as parade marshalls for the event are John and Sammie Bishop of Spearman.

Reigning as Pioneer Queen over the 3-day celebration is Viola McNabb Whitson.

The Old Timer's Reunion will begin around 10 a.m. Saturday in the offices of Crawford Motors at S. Kenneth and Main.

Following the parade, the crowds will move to Swimming Pool Park where the Jaycees will dish out their special barbecue dinners with all the trimmings.

Cost for the barbecue is $5 for adults and $3 for children under 12 years old.

A host of other events, ranging from horse-shoe pitching to water polo will also run off during the afternoon at the park.

SHE FLIES THROUGH THE AIR . . . a young Spearman Miss takes in a ride at the midway during the 1987 Hansford Round Up. The special celebration got to an early start with the arrival of the carnival. The official celebration begins this evening [Thursday] with the Miss Hansford Pageant and winds up Saturday with the big Jaycees Barbecue.

Liberal's Cunningham claims A singles . . .

173 entries in tennis tournament

Liberal's Kevin Cunningham defeated Borger's Scott Clark in straight sets, 6-3, and 6-3, to claim the class A singles title in the Spearman Chamber of Commerce Tennis Tournament this past Sunday in Spearman.

Then he turned around to team up with Chuck Thomas to capture the men's class A doubles title, dumping fellow Jayhawkers, Randy Pipkin and Jim Cromer in straight sets, 6-3 and 6-2.

These were just a pair of the matches during the second annual Spearman chamber's tennis classic which saw some 173 entries from across the area compete for top spots in men's and women's singles and doubles as well as mixed double's play.

There were three classes for each of the five divisions for A,B, and C players.

Gwen Clark of Borger outlasted Perryton's Christi Freeman in a women's class A title match, 6-3 and 1-6, 6-2.

Spearman's Sheila Watley and Mollie Holten won the women's class A doubles, dumping Stratford's Tania

Wilson and Shawna Dettle in straight sets, 6-3 and 6-2.

Class A mixed doubles saw the Borger duo of Gwen Clark and Scott Clark capture the win over Stratford's John Wilson and Barbara Dettle, 6-3 and 7-6.

In men's B singles, Dub Vandiver of Dumas outlasted Borger's Fitz Moles, 6-4 and 7-5, for the title there.

Borger's James Brown and Haskell Jack claimed the men's B doubles, 6-3 and 6-1, over Willie Griffin and Allen Pool of Dumas.

Christy Allison of Hereford took a 6-3, 6-2 win over second place finisher Sharon Wilson of Stratford in class B women's singles play.

Women's class B doubles action saw Spearman's Karen Thompson and Shelly Beedy outlast Gruver's Tracy Logsdon and Cindy Barkley, 2-6, 6-4 and 6-4 to claim first place there.

The mixed doubles team of Jim Cromer and Mary Kay Daniel from Liberal took a 6-3, 2-6, 6-1 win over Perryton's Christi Freeman and Brad Butler.

Joseph Marney of Dumas captured the class C men's singles with a win of 6-4, 6-2 over Spearman's Clint Townsen.

The Perryton men's doubles team of Lance Robertson and Steve Black outlasted Spearman's Lonnie Lusby and Trevar Pool, 4-6, 6-1 and 6-0 to claim the class C win.

Stratford's Sharon Smith won the class C women's singles by concession from Spearman's Kimbre Townsen when storms threatened Saturday evening.

But Townsen teamed up with Adrian Blackburn in class C women's doubles to down fellow Spearman players Shea Crawford and Laura Pearson, 6-2 and 6-2 for the win there.

Wrapping up the 2-day event was the class C mixed doubles where Perryton's Linda Robertson and Gary Black took wins of 7-6 and 6-4 over Hansford duo Shea Crawford of Spearman and Matthew Hoel of Gruver.

A total of 94 matches were run off in the 15 different brackets during the 2-day event.

Spearman chamber members Scott Beedy and Jeff Beedy served as tournament co-directors for the second annual tennis classic.

1986 MISS HANSFORD COUNTY, Jill McLain will step down when the new 1987 crown is awarded tonight during the 1987 Miss Hansford Pageant.

Crouse art exhibit set Saturday

The AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL ART EXHIBIT by R. L. Crouse will be on exhibit in Spearman, Saturday, June 6, during the Hansford Round Up. The exhibit will be located at Swimming Pool Park. This major watercolor exhibit is displayed in the beautiful environment of a 40' Semi-Gallery-Van. Agri-Artist, Raymond L. Crouse and the unit travels across the Plains exposing FARM ART to rural communities. Crouse comments that this is art our people can relate to and appreciate.

Authentically, Crouse is documenting the reality of today on the farm. This western art show does not contain cowboy and indian paintings. This exhibit portrays the huge combines and four-wheel drive tractors.

January 1987, in Bonner Springs, Kansas, the NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL HALL OF FAME effected a resolution endorsing the Farm Art by R. L. Crouse stating, "Everyone with any interest in food production should view the exhibit. We also believe that this art is a better way to educate the urban society of the importance of farming, that it promotes pride for rural America to see their life and times recorded in an art form, and that it expresses the beauty in agriculture to everyone."

In a letter from SUCCESSFUL FARMING magazine to R. L. Crouse, " . . . You are the better known artist in rural America, and I appreciate the fact that you do contemporary farm art. I look forward to seeing your art sometime in the future." Loren Kruse, managing editor.

Kruse will get a chance later this month. The John Deere Company has invited the exhibit to tour their factories in Iowa and Illinois in celebration of their 150 year anniversary. Crouse was the artist of Deere's 1984-85 Commemorative Collector Plate series. To date nine national magazine covers have portrayed Crouse compositions.

The exhibit has FREE ADMISSION. "We hope your family will be able to take the time to experience the AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL ART EXHIBIT coming to Spearman," says Mike Cudd of Hansford Implement.

Michael Lyn Wilkerson graduated from Terrebonne High School in Houma, La. this past May.

Buchanan owns Hansford Agency

BARBARA TAYLOR OF THE HANSFORD AGENCY

Burl Buchanan and Zack Fisher opened the Hansford Agency in 1978 at 16 S.W. Court and Burl became the sole owner in 1979. He entered the venture with some experience and high hopes and has been gratified with its development and current status.

Burl felt that his knowledge and experience in a variety of previous business associations would be beneficial background for insurance expertise.

Burl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Buchanan, and grew up on a farm south of Spearman. He graduated from Spearman High School and attended A & M University.

He served in the U.S. Army and was stationed in Germany near Mainz. Upon his return to Spearman, he was employed by the Permian Corporation six years, getting experience in various capacities and receiving several promotions.

During this employment he was called up in the Army Reserves during the Berlin Crisis and served nearly a year in Louisiana. After his discharge, he went back to Permian and was situated in Midland.

Returning to Spearman, he was manager of booster-Ag Chem., Inc. for seven years.

Burl and Nellie Sharp were married in December, 1959. Nellie, a native of Hutchinson County is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Sharp of Stinnett and a graduate of Stinnett High School.

Burl and Nellie have two children - Jana Beth is an education major at West Texas University and Roger is a student at Tartleton at Stephenville, majoring in animal science.

Nellie is employed by the Spearman Independent School District in the Business Office. Both Burl and Nellie are active members of the Methodist Church.

Burl is an active member of the Spearman Lions Club, having been a member for nine years and serving one term as president. He has been a member of the YMCA Board of Directors for three years and was recently elected to his third 3-year term as City Councilman.

Although the primary reason that Burl entered the insurance business was economic, there is an unexpected fringe benefit which gives him much personal satisfaction, when one of his policy-holders suffers a tragedy or catastrophe, through his efforts and concern, he feels he can be instrumental in making their future brighter, and that knowledge transcends economics.

The Hansford Agency has two full time employees - Barbara Taylor has been employed since 1980 as the office manager and Beverly Vinson has been responsible for the bookkeeping duties for two years.

Burl has been a member of the Chamber of Commerce for four years and is a firm advocate of their efforts, feeling it is a vital part of

OIL & GAS REPORT

U.S. Rig Count, Week of May 26, Count 762. Change from previous week up 18.

COMMENTS

Saudi Arabia and its OPEC allies rejected Iran's demand that the cartel raise oil prices when it meets this month in Vienna. (THE WALL STREET JOURNAL, May 22)

Instead, Saudi Arabia and its closest allies say OPEC should strive to foster stability in world oil markets by keeping prices balanced with production.

OPEC ministers say oil prices should remain around $18 a barrel. They also insist that OPEC production should slowly rise, according to the program it set last December, by nearly 2.5 million barrels a day to a ceiling of 18.3 million barrels a day by year-end.

The 1987 Hansford Round Up

..... 3 big days of family fun

There's three full days of activities planned for young and old alike as the 1987 edition of the Hansford Round Up Days celebration unfolds in Spearman this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Beginning with the Miss Hansford Pageant Thursday evening, the action-packed 3-day event is highlighted by the annual Jaycees barbeque on Saturday along with dances, parade and Old-Timers Reunion.

Sponsored by the Spearman chamber of commerce, the Hansford Round Up is a community collaboration with at least eight county organizations involved in preparations for the 3-day whingding.

A carnival atmosphere will permeate the county with a midway at the Spearman city hall parking lot, complete with booths and good of fashion fun for the entire family.

The Miss Hansford County pageant is the kick-off for the celebration and it will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Spearman high school auditorium.

A total of 46 young Hansford ladies will be vying for five different crowns in that night's competition with the culmination being the crowning of the 1987 Miss Hansford County.

She will receive her crown and title from the 1986 Miss Hansford County, Jill McLain.

Friday night, the Spearman chamber will sponsor a family street dance from 9 o'clock until 11 at the Plains Shopping center. Music will be provided by the South Wind Band.

Saturday the celebration will come to full life starting with a sidewalk sale at 8 a.m., then running quickly through an arts and craft sale, a 10-K run, a big wheel race down Main Street, the parade at 11 a.m. and the Jaycee barbeque at noon.

If that's not enough, then there's the mid-way, booths, a fiddler's contest, water polo, horse shoe pitching contests and -- culminating the day-long activities, a dance at the Moose Lodge beginning at 9 p.m.

Serving as Pioneer Queen for the 1987 Hansford Round Up is Viola McNabb Whitson. Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop will be serving as Parade Marshalls.

The organizations involved in putting on the 3-day celebration include the Golden Spread Center with their arts and crafts sale;

The old-timers reunion is an effort of the Hansford County

Historical Society; the Spearman Lions are the host for the 10-K run;

The Spearman Moose Lodge conducts the Saturday night dance finale and also a beard growing contest; the Rotary race. Nancy Graves is in charge of the Miss Hansford Pageant.

And finally, the Spearman chamber of commerce is responsible for making sure everything fits together.

It takes an entire community of hard-working, industrious folks to put the Hansford Round Up together. But then, they have an ulterior motive -- they plan on enjoying it, too!

Round Up Edition Official Miss Hansford Program

This special Hansford Round Up edition is the official program for the 1987 Miss Hansford County Pageant.

In addition, it is also a souvenir copy for readers to keep in the years ahead, to compare one celebration to the next.

It is an industrious endeavour by a small country weekly to provide a piece of history in the making for those yet to come and to recognize those individuals and organizations who invariably make community efforts such as this a success.

Our hats are off to those behind-the-scene workers who make being a spectator and participate so much fun . . . and so easy to do. Many hours have gone into the preparation of the 1987 Hansford Round Up celebration. Those hours have been recorded by selfless and dedicated individuals who -- while they could have been doing something else -- worked together to make it the success it has been, is and will be.

Just as there's something for everyone at the Hansford Round Up, there's just a little bit of everything in the 1987 Hansford Round Up Souvenir Edition. Read it at your leisure to find what events interest you. Then lay it aside and come on down for the festivities.

This is the annual event you won't want to miss. Come on in for the Hansford Round Up celebration . . . remake a few old acquaintances and generate some new ones at the same time. The 1987 Round Up promises to be bigger and better than ever!

Club helps with the parade and the Station Masters House Museum also helps with the celebration.

This year's 3-day Hansford Round Up is being headed by Rich and Helen Melton along with Buford and Karen Bahitzke, Eddie and Carmelita Gage are in charge of the big wheel

Pageant chairman is glutton for punishment

Some call her a glutton for punishment . . . some mention her virtues of both patience and tenacity . . . most simply call Nancy Graves -- chairman of the 1987 Miss Hansford Pageant -- a saint.

It's no easy task working with 46 young ladies, 46 mothers and other assorted relatives, not to mention judges, MC's, and 1001 others to put on a one evening show--especially when that show acts as the opening performance of the Hansford Round Up celebration each year.

And the good-natured Spearman woman has been working with it for a total of four years now.

"There's no way one person could do it all," she declares. "I've got four assistants who work like there's 24 of them. Without their help, forget it."

Working with Mrs. Graves this year is Loretto Cook, Charlotte Jackson, Linda Butt and Sherri Benton.

Each of these ladies have different tasks assigned to them and it's Nancy's job to act as coordinator and head gopher for the group.

Preparation for the annual pageant is a year round thing, notes Nancy.

"I get suggestions all the time and make note of them as the year goes on," she reports. "Then, around January, we start having planning sessions."

Each year something new is added to the pageant with each new or different suggestion designed to enhance the pageant -- to make it bigger and better than the year before.

"Last year we added the clinics for the girls to help them during the pageant," Nancy states. "This year we broke it into more age groups."

The 46 entries for the 1987 version of the Miss Hansford

NANCY GRAVES

Pageant is the most ever. This year there are five titles on the line including Junior Miss, Little Miss, Miss Hansford Pre-Teen, Miss Teen Hansford and the coveted Miss Hansford crown.

This is the second year for Mrs. Graves to chair the pageant committee. Following this year's production, she will step down and allow someone else to take the spotlight.

"People's ideas get stale after a few years," she remarks. "You need new people with the fresh ideas to keep things building and rolling along."

Prior to taking over the leadership of the annual spring pageant performance, Nancy had worked on the committee for two years. What is truly remarkable is the fact that she doesn't even have a child who can enter.

As the days grow closer to pageant night, the pace begins to get more hectic with details either falling into or out of place.

"I couldn't get it done without the girls' help," she says emphatically. "They take so many of the responsibilities off my hands . . . especially Cora Queener at the chamber."

Cora -- executive vice-president of the Spearman chamber -- acts as the depot manager for the different groups who help put on the entire Hansford Round Up celebration.

Mrs. Graves' helpers each have their own tasks as well. Their work goes together to make the Miss Hansford Pageant the success it is each year.

Loretto Cook is responsible for decorations and helping to get together diddy bags for each contestant.

Charlotte Jackson's tasks include lining up the clinics for

Times have changed

... but not our spirit!

It took rugged individuals to tame Hansford County and the Panhandle of Texas. Our frontier ancestors arrived to this great land on horseback, prairie schooner, and on foot. Making their homes on the High Plains, they had to overcome a variety of adverse elements. Their independent spirits were often bent, but never broken.

As our Round Up celebration gets underway, we are reminded again of our proud heritage. The heritage lives on via the spirits of freedom . . . the spirit of pursuit . . . the spirit of choice . . . the spirit of try, fail, and try again until we meet our goals. First State Bank encourages everyone to join the Hansford Round Up and the rest of the county in celebrating our proud past and bright future.

In your program, she'll be listed as contestant number four in the Miss Hansford County division of the Miss Hansford Pageant, but there won't be any confusion when this petite Spearman Miss takes the stage.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.L. McFarlin, Kellye is sponsored by Hickerson Jewelers of Spearman.

At 113 pounds and standing 5-foot, 7-inches tall, Miss McFarlin has blonde hair and green eyes. The 18-year old girl is a 1987 graduate of Spearman high school.

Active in both the school and her community, Kellye enjoys band, the flag corps, horseback riding, dancing and photography.

She is a member of the Church of Christ and was a member of the Spearman speech team and duet acting.

Steak is her favorite food while pink is her favorite color. Her music tastes run the gamut from George Strait to Lionel Richie.

the girls, then working with Loretto to set up the tiara's for each winner in the different divisions.

Sound system and music falls into the capable hand of Linda Butt who also winds up preparing the production numbers for the night of the pageant.

Finding judges for the young-er kids' divisions is the job of Sherri Benton. She's also in charge of those children. No small task in itself.

So, what does that leave Nancy to do? Short of getting judges, writing the MC's notes, getting the judges score sheets and tally sheets as well as typing up each entries' information sheet, coordinating the program, helping to place the prizes and a few hundred other tasks, there's just not much for her to do.

Hours of work and preparation will culminate in a mere few hours Thursday evening as the 1987 Miss Hansford Pageant unfolds.

Then, if they have done their job properly, no one will be able to tell, because the proof of the work is in the smoothness of the operation.

And each year, under Nancy Grave's capable hands, things have been running smoother and smoother.

Join with your Hansford neighbors and friends for the gala kickoff of the 1987 Hansford Round Up.

Be on hand at the Spearman high school auditorium as 46 young ladies vj for five different crowns during the Miss Hansford Pageant.

It's a spectacular well worth ing, and one which provides a lovely send off to a gala 3-day celebration each June. As always, this is one you won't want to miss.

Round Up is Tradition

The history of Hansford county is rich with the traditions of hardy pioneer stock -- the Texas Panhandle was still wild and untamed in the late 1800's when those first settlers trudged here to make a home.

They fought Indians, sickness, the weather and the loneliness that only those early pioneers could have known; shut off from neighbors miles down the road.

When an opportunity came for them to gather together, it was the only cue they needed for a celebration. And celebrate they did!

It's that same tradition which is carried on today, although in a modern setting and with up-to-date mores -- but it's the tradition of the old west which permeates the annual Round Up Celebration.

Those early settlers were separated by miles that could only be traveled on horseback or buggy at best -- and occasionally by foot if the need arose.

But the tradition of gathering together for a community social became established in those early days when neighbors were sparse and visits were seldom possible.

Things are a little different today. . . parades were slim in the early 1900's . . . the mid-way attractions had yet to become a reality . . . and beard-growing was frowned upon in those days.

The 1987 edition of the Hansford Round Up boasts a good many of those same early-day happenings, however.

You can't escape the street dance or the air of celebration and relaxation which is a part of each and every Round Up.

There's the opportunity to meet old friends, to finish discussions left off from last year's celebration. And, of course, to find out who's new in the county as well.

Things have changed . . . and changed considerably. From flamboyant floats to pageants for pretty young ladies. But every change has been one for the better -- an addition to the tradition which soon becomes part of the tradition itself.

Cowboys and cowgirls, city folk and country gents alike mingle together like long-lost friends, found again only because of the opportunity presented by events such as the Round Up.

Don't miss your opportunity to make the new, improved edition of the Hansford County Round Up . . . it's a tradition you'll want to keep for years to come.

★ Quartet heads up 1987 Round Up ★

They could be called the Four Musketeers and, in fact, their operation is very similar to the camaraderie displayed by Louis Dumas' famous trio -- they're the four people who help coordinate all the different factions associated with the Hansford Round Up into a cohesive production.

Rich and Helen Melton, along with Buford and Karen Babitzke, are the 1987 Hansford Round Up committee chairmen and the four talented members work like a true team as they prepare for the 3-day celebration.

Even during the interview for this story, the quartet popped questions to each other, checking to see if this or that had been done, or that person located or lined up.

"Last year's Round Up went so smooth, we're just hoping to repeat it again this year," declares Helen.

Why four committee chairmen... it's a baton-passing roll which was put into effect this year.

Last year, the Meltons chaired the operation by themselves. This year the 4-person chairmanship was hit upon.

This year, Buford and Karen are the newcomers and are learning the ropes from Rich and Helen. Next year, the Melton's will step down and a new couple will be added to the roster, putting the Babitzke's as the "old" hands.

"Acting as the coordinators of the entire round Up is a big responsibility," remarks Rich of the work involved in setting up the celebration each year.

"With four people the job is spread a little more evenly and, when we step down, there won't be somebody coming in without any experience."

The unique arrangement has proven both workable and foresighted as the work on the celebration comes to its climax this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The goal of the committee is to gradually improve the Round Up each year, making it bigger and better with each celebration which runs off.

"We rejuvenated the Fiddler's contest last year," reports Karen. "This has really proven entertaining and something that people enjoy."

In turn, they contact the various groups and organizations which take their part in making the Hansford Round Up the success it has always been.

"To give credit where credit is due, the women do the bulk of the work," laughs Rich as his wife, Helen, sits close by shaking her head.

1987 ROUND UP CELEBRATION ORGANIZERS

Whoever winds up doing the job, the public is the benefactor as year after year the Round Up celebration ticks off yet another milestone in its long list of successes.

Of course, this is not all they do. In addition to the work on the Round Up, each member of this foursome also has other responsibilities.

Rich works in Perryton for Texas-New Mexico Power while Helen maintains her own business, a beauty shop, in Spearman.

Buford is employed by Enron Pipeline Operations while Karen is the Hansford county extension agent for home economics.

Obviously, they just felt like they needed something else to do with their spare time.

While they take suggestions from anyone and everyone throughout the year, the busy stage of the preparations begin around the first of each year in January.

From there the pace picks up with each passing month, then weeks and finally days causing them to spend more and more time lining up all the details for the county-wide celebration.

"There's no way to count all the hours," Helen laughs.

"That's right," enjoins Karen, "we don't want anyone to know we work that cheap."

The camaraderie is there between the four and the chemistry it provides has helped to turn the 1987 edition of the Hansford Round Up into one of the best ever.

★ Old Timers Reunion for pioneers ★

It's the single most enjoyable time of the year for Hansford county pioneers -- the Hansford Round Up which runs off every June. And the 1987 edition promises to be just as entertaining as Hansford settlers join together to renew old acquaintances and share fond memories.

The Old Timer's Reunion is an annual feature of the Hansford Round Up . . . a tradition which is fairly young, especially when compared with the age of those who attend.

It got its start in 1971 when the Old Timer's formed a loose association. Now, each June, they meet in the Ford building -- now Crawford Motors -- to enjoy coffee and snacks.

From this vantage point they are also able to view the parade as it passes by.

"It's really very nice," declares Clementine Renner, -- chairman of the Old Timer's Reunion. "If the weather is bad or the sun too hot, then we can watch from the comfort of the building."

The Old Timer's Reunion is a special event of the Hansford Round Up. And it's an exclusive club that only allows time to certain membership.

To be a member of this exclusive club, a person has to be born in or on the fringes of Hansford county. Wait a minute, that's not all. You have to be born on or before 1915.

If you meet that criteria, then you're a member of the club.

The Old Timer's Club, that is.

Each year the Jaycees offer a free feed to the Old Timers with a generous portion of their succulent barbecue dished out to each member of that exclusive club.

"We really appreciate what everyone does for us," notes Mrs. Renner. "It's truly an enjoyable time for all of us."

Registration of the Old Timers begins Saturday morning around 9 o'clock in the Crawford building located just across from the Hansford courthouse.

Coffee is furnished by the Old Timer's Association with the wives baking cookies and good snacks for everyone to enjoy.

Last year some 55 Hansford Old Timers and their guests registered, recalls the chairman of the group.

"They weren't all Old Timers," she remarks. "We have really lost a lot of them."

Just a few years prior, the definition of an Old Timer had the cut off date at 1910 or before. Due to attrition in the ranks, it had to be moved to the 1915 cut off date.

"It's sad to look over the list we made when we formed the association back in 1971, and see just how many are gone," says Mrs. Renner. "The list just keeps getting smaller."

The Hansford Old Timers -- they're a non-replenishing resource and every one of them has a story to tell of old Hansford and the surrounding country.

Each are a walking bit of history and are eager to share their experiences, their knowledge with any willing listener. It's just one of the things that help make the Hansford Round

Up the feature attraction it is each year. Don't miss your opportunity to get first-hand accounts of Old Hansford and the lives that helped make this county what is today.

She lists her favorite color as lavender and enjoys crab legs.

Standing 5-foot, 9-inches, the Gruver freshman also lists reading as her favorite school subject.

Active in outside activities as well, Miss Hiller enjoys basketball, track, water sports and is a member of the choir.

Her goals are to become a psychologist when she has completed her schooling.

The talented young Gruver Miss lists Whitney Houston as her favorite singer.

It was a matter of geography which established the city of old Hansford near the banks of the Palo Duro Creek in the county which bore the same name.

The Palo Duro Creek made access to an easy water supply. And it supplied a beautiful and scenic backdrop for the city, nestled in the Palo Duro draw with rolling hills rising to both the east and the west.

It was this geography which saw the railroads bypass Hansford, building instead on the flatter ground to the west and east by Spearman and Gruver, effectively spelling the end of the strength, life and character of Hansford's first county seat.

Built west of the Palo Duro Creek, old Hansford was heir to numerous problems with Mother Nature.

When the Palo Duro Draw flooded, residents near the creek had to seek high ground.

A pair of cyclones demolished the first two attempts at building a courthouse in old Hansford. Once in 1891 and yet again when construction was resumed.

The original construction of the Hansford courthouse called for a 3-story building and was awarded to a Kansas City, Mo., firm for a bid of $13,132.

The land around the city couldn't yield sufficient stone, however, and an additional $5,700 for the making of hand-pressed brick was later approved by the Hansford court.

Then the first cyclone hit on April 11, 1891. The Kansas construction firm agreed then to build a 1-1/2 story building for a fee of $5,670. The lower floor was complete and being utilized as a schoolroom when the second twister struck.

In August of 1891, the Kansas City firm agreed to complete a single story structure utilizing material on hand. The price for this was set at $5,675.

In September, with dollars for construction of the courthouse running out, the commissioner's court agreed to pare down the height of the roof from 10-feet, 6-inches to 5-feet even. They also agreed to a tin roof instead of shingles.

The courthouse was finally completed, however, and on October 5, 1891, it was accepted by the Hansford commissioners' court.

The single story structure became not only the county's government offices, but also the meeting place for the area.

Socials, church meetings, civic events and even parties were held in the building during the years following its construction.

The town of Hansford got its start in 1887 with the establishment of a post office. It served as a stage coach stop for the Dodge City-Tascosa Trail.

It became the county seat and served not only as the government for the still-growing county community, but as the center of most social functions as well.

Old Hansford was also the trading center for the area and businesses soon began to build and grow in the early 1900's.

Meanwhile, other communities began to pop up around the county. First Spearman, in 1917, then Gruver in 1925, along with numerous others.

But Gruver and Spearman became the focal point of a building boom which was given added impetus by the arrival of

fall of old Hansford

the railroads to the Panhandle plains.

The first official signs of attrition appeared in 1920 when the Hansford post office was closed and moved to Spearman.

Old Hansford began to dwindle as residents, then businesses moved to Spearman. In 1921, Hansford county commissioners were presented with their first petition to move the county seat.

Pride dies hard anywhere, but perhaps even more so in West Texas. The commissioners balked, time and time again.

Numerous petitions were made over the ensuing years and commissioners even went so far as to hold the elections the petitions called for.

The first petition was presented to the court on December 14, 1921. Grudgingly, the court ordered an election to be held the next January.

Election results saw Spearman receive 277 votes for becoming the county seat while Hansford tallied 157.

In the convenient manner of those pioneer spirits, no one questioned the vote. They simply ignored it.

It wasn't brought up again officially until January, 1927, when the Hansford court received another petition requesting an election.

The numbers changed in the March election that year. Spearman received 654 votes and Gruver -- newly added to the list of possibilities -- totalled 307. Votes for Hansford now had dwindled to 33.

This election wasn't ignored. It was contested and the county clerk was ordered to remove the ballots from the courthouse for safekeeping.

A third petition was presented to the court in July, 1927. The election was set for August 12. The results again gave the county seat to Spearman.

County commissioners refused to take action on the election. By the close of 1927 the furor had died down somewhat. But the feelings would never be quelled.

On March 14, 1929, the fourth petition was presented to the court and an election was ordered for April 20.

The Hansford court canvassed the returns at their meeting of April 25. Spearman received 876 votes, Gruver 399 and Hansford only 13.

Finally, the commissioners gave way to the inevitable. The county sheriff was instructed to "move from Hansford to Spearman the following:

All seals of office, books, records, documents, furniture, fixtures, equipment and paraphernalia of every kind and character belonging to, owned or used by Hansford County in connection with the transaction of said county now located at Hansford."

And with that, the deed was done. Old Hansford quietly settled back and disappeared.

All that's left now are the memories as scattered houses and fenced off areas cover the land where old Hansford once stood.

Dreams die hard in the fierce bosom of Texans. Nowhere is that more evident than in the history of old Hansford and the stories of the people who helped tame this wild land.

★ Barbecue good . . . but a lot of work! ★

When folks bite into the succulent barbecue beef at the Hansford Round Up Saturday afternoon, they might not realize -- while they're enjoying it -- but it takes three full days and the efforts of some 20 individuals to put together all the fixings for the Jaycees annual feed.

Mike Cudd has headed the annual Jaycees Barbecue for the Hansford round Up celebration for the past five years, making him a veteran if not a fully qualified chef.

"I need to let the people know that I'm not even going to touch the beans this year," he laughs, remembering how his helping hand created a half-cooked, half-raw mixture last year. "I may never live that one down."

Cudd acts as the organizer for the Jaycees feed, a chore he has handled for the past five Round Ups. It's up to him to order the beef and trimmings which will eventually go out to over 1,000 Hansford folks.

"It's not my show," he enjoins. "There's always from six to 20 Jaycee members out there doing all the work. And our Jaycee president, Jimmy Nicholson, has a lot of responsibility himself."

Folks begin lining up as soon as the parade finishes down town for a taste of the Jaycees barbecue which is served at the Swimming Pool Park in Spearman on Saturday.

Cost for the meal -- which includes meat, cole slaw, beans, applesauce, bread, pickles and onions -- is 5.50 per plate with children 12 and under $3.

That is unless you happen to be a resident of Hansford Manor, a qualifying Old timer or one of the parade judges . . . then it's free.

"Donations help us feed these good people," notes the Spearman Jaycee. "We couldn't do it if people didn't give us a hand."

Profits from the barbecue are awarded each year in the form of a pair of scholarships for $500 each, one each to a boy and girl senior graduate.

According to Cudd, the recipe to feed over 1000 hungry people is fairly simple.

Merely start three days in advance. Take 1,250 pounds of beef, cut and season it. Bag it then wrap that in a burlap sack.

Later that night -- Thursday -- go out and dig a 2-foot wide, 4-foot deep trench. By the way, make it 60-feet long. Fill that with six cords of seasoned oak and hickory.

Get up at 3 a.m. Friday so you can stagger out to the trench to fire the wood. Wait patiently while it burns down to a hot bed of coals some eight hours later at noon.

At noon Friday, wet down the burlap bags containing the meat. Then place tin over the hot coals in the trench. Place the meat on the tin, then put more tin over the meat. That's right, cover it all with the dirt which was excavated the day before.

Friday night get together with a group of friends and cut up 35 pounds of onions and wash and clean 125 pounds of beans. Load your supplies for the next day and send a group over to the park to set up the serving lines.

Saturday starts out better . . . sleep until 4 a.m. then, at 5 that morning, start the beans cooking in large cast iron pots.

Around 10 o'clock that morning, the tension begins to mount as the meat is uncovered.

"This is probably the most tense moment of the entire three days," declares Cudd. "If the meat didn't cook, you've got a lot of explaining to do to a thousand people."

Fortunately, that has never happened to the Spearman Jaycees, Mike reports while knocking on wood.

Haul the meat to the serving grounds and begin cutting off the burlap bags. By the time this is done, the lines are forming and -- within a few short minutes -- this year's three days of work is over.

Whatever it takes, most Hansford folks are proud someone is doing it. And most are looking forward to see how the 1987 meal compares with others over the past years. For some, it takes two or three plates full before they can make up their mind.

Here are some others to try out on friends on a lazy summer evening:

-How much does the star atop the San Jacinto Monument weigh? 50, 100, or 150 pounds, or 220 tons.

-In Lubbock there is a lifesize statue of Buddy Holly. What is he holding? (A younger person may ask, "Who's Buddy Holly?")

-In 1950, who was voted by the Associated Press as the greatest woman athlete of the first half of the century?

-Where can one find swimming pigs?

-What is the jeans brand on Big Tex at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas?

-When did Jim Bowie die? (Clue: He's not a rock star.)

-When were University of Texas supporters first introduced to "Hook 'em Horns" hand signs? (Aggies have used "Gig em, Aggies" much longer.)

-What is the motto of Texas

A&M? (Clue: There's no such thing as an ex-Aggie.)

-Texas is 1-50 of the United States, but what is the percentage of land mass the state occupies in the union?

-What Indian word is the root of "Texas"?

What is the state bird of Texas?

-What is the title of the state song of Texas? (Aggies know that it isn't the "Eyes of Texas.")

-What is the motto of the State of Texas? (Indian derivation, again.)

-Some other "State" designations are applied, such as the tree, stone, flower, grass, gem, and dish (as in food). Name them.

-Name men who became president of the United States who were born in Texas.

-Where was the Texas Declaration of Independence signed and what was the date?

Now obviously, all of the foregoing questions are not trivia -- some are Texas history for natives, but maybe emigrants would consider them trivial.

But, every schoolboy and girl in Texas is exposed to some in history class, and for persons needing an update in Texana, there is no better resource than the Texas Almanac.

Published bi-annually, the Almanac is a wealth of information just waiting to be absorbed by the real student of Texas history.

Besides the matters related to history, the publication is a veritable gold mine of information, ranging from annual rainfall in cities to population charts as far back as 1850.
