

Pat Kaiser, antique expert, from Amarillo visited the Spearman Senior Citizen Center Tuesday afternoon and gave an informative talk on antique tagging and indentifying techniques.

Kaiser was preparing the public for the upcoming charity auction that will benefit Panhandle Area Senior Citizen's.

The auction will be November 11, 12, and 13 at the Amarillo Civic Center. Citizens that might have art, coins, memorabilia, furniture/etc...to donate may call 555-1212 or drop their items by Panhandle Keenagers, No. 1 Shady Lane, Heritage, Texas. The group asks for your help in making this the biggest and best auction ever.

Golden Spread Center involved in Yesterday's Child program

The senior citizens of the Texas Panhandle, with the assistance of the Panhandle Area Agency on Aging, are going to be holding a charitable antique auction for "Yesterday's Children" at the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum, November 11, 12, and 13, 1988. Monies realized from this charity auction will go toward daily operation and the establishment of a permanent fund to provide for the future of the organizations.

The senior organizations participating will be responsible for securing antiques and collectibles from their respective members and communities, with a distinguished panel of civic leaders from the Panhandle assisting in securing items for sale, with proceeds to be divided by all the organizations involved.

The objectives of this cooperative effort are to protect the future of senior organizations in the Texas Panhandle by establishing endowments or foundations, to reshape attitudes toward independence from the federal dollar, stimulate senior organizations toward ongoing organized fund raising, focus community interest on the moral need to provide for the future needs of the Panhandle senior citizens, and to instill pride of ownership, enabling senior organizations to map their own destinies through a joint effort toward self-sufficiency.

The Golden Spread Center is the local entity which is participating in the "Yesterday's Children" Auction. If you have a donation or desire more information please contact Pearl Pierce at 659-3866 or 659-3521.

Hansford County Fair Sept. 29 - Oct. 1

Fair committee encourages participation

A Hansford County Fair Committee has been formed to organize the fifth annual Hansford County Fair. This year the Fair will be held September 29, 30 and October 1.

Officers elected to the committee were, Troy Morris, chairperson, from Gruver; Joan Farr, Vice-chairperson, from Spearman and Julie Ortega, secretary/treasurer, from Spearman.

Other members of board include Harry Stumpf, Spearman; LaVon Reid, of the Morse Community; Melba Rasor, Gruver and Melyn Johnson of the Oslo Community.

Executive advisors to the committee are Burt Williams, county

ag. agent, Karen Babitzke, county agent for home economics; Wanda Wagner, secretary to the county agents and Cora Queener, executive vice-president of the Spearman Chamber of Commerce.

Another organizational meeting of the committee and of the fairs departmental superintendents will be held Tuesday, August 9 at 7 p.m. at the Spearman Chamber of Commerce.

This year there will be 18 departments ranging from agriculture to needlework to lamb and steer show. All county residents are encouraged to begin work on their exhibits now to display and show their wears during the fair. With this large variety of departments there is something for everyone. Any and all Hansford County residents are encouraged to enter exhibits in the fair. Many talented people think that their works are very ordinary, but no work is ordinary unless it is not shared with others.

The fastest way to build the Hansford County Fair into an event that its residents can be even more proud of is through your participation and attendance of the fair. Several department superintendent positions have not been filled at this time. Committee members are currently contacting county residents to serve as superintendents in the different categories. The County Fair Committee has selected at least two persons throughout the county to serve as co-superintendents.

The committee asks persons contacted to fill the superintendents positions to please consider the job. These positions are very important and the individuals asked to take on the superintendents jobs are people the committee feels can help improve the fair.

Bank tennis tournament success

The First National Bank of Spearman hosted their fourth Annual Junior and Open Tennis Tournament over the weekend. All the proceeds from the annual event are donated to the Hansford County Activity Center in Spearman.

The tournament is organized and run by tennis enthusiasts Barbara and Don Townsen. Don is President of the First National Bank in Spearman.

Twelve Spearman individuals or teams were victorious in the tournament. Participants were from Perryton, Spearman, Gruver, Canadian, Canyon, Pampa, Boys Ranch, Dumas, Borger, Morse, Liberal, Kan. and Dodge City, Kan.

The results of the finals matches are:

Girl's 10 and under singles; Christy Pearson of Perryton beat Chandra Smith also of Perryton 6-2, 6-2.

Girl's 10 and under doubles; Kara Townsen and Leslie Holton of Spearman defeated Christy Pearson and Chandra Smith, Perryton 6-0, 6-1.

System has safeguards

Dear Commissioner Nabers: I would like to comment on what I see as a growing area of abuse in the unemployment compensation system. More and more people are working temporary jobs these days, some because that's all they can find, some because they do not want to be tied to a full-time job. The unemployment insurance system is not structured to distinguish the former from the latter and, consequently, many people who have no desire to hold down a full-time job use unemployment benefits to supplement their occasional earnings. I do not think it is fair for taxpayers to pay the bill for someone's flexible lifestyle... a lifestyle they have voluntarily chosen. What, if anything, can be done to close this loophole?

— W.J. Richardson, Texas

COMMISSIONER
Mary Scott Nabers

TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY

Dear W.J.: I think it is helpful to understand the relationship between unemployment insurance and wages. Benefits do not provide more than a 50% replacement of a person's average earnings for a maximum of six months. The system is designed to assist people temporarily without eliminating the incentive for them to return to full employment. People who normally work only very sporadically will not qualify for much in the way of benefits and they will have to report any money they make while filing claims. This will in turn further reduce an already small benefit amount.

There have always been individuals who will abuse or take advantage of a system designed to assist large numbers of people. Fortunately these individuals are in the minority. Even so, some states have regulations requiring an individual to name not just his last work but his last work of a specific duration, for example, six weeks or more. The Texas Unemployment Compensation Act does not require this, but it does have several safeguards which attempt to prevent the form of abuse you describe. Under Texas law a person receiving benefits must be able, available for, and actively seeking full-time work. A person who restricts his availability will be held ineligible to receive benefits. Also, if suitable work is offered and refused, the claimant will be disqualified from receiving further benefits.

The increase in the number of people who prefer to work temporary or part-time jobs is indeed an interesting phenomenon. About 11 percent of all temporary workers are now professional level workers including engineers, attorneys, managers, and computer specialists. I think it is a trend worth watching.

Ms. Nabers represents 336,000 employers throughout Texas. If you have any questions you want answered, please write Commissioner Nabers at: TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY, 614 Texas Employment Commission Building, 15th and Congress, Austin, Texas 78778.

Letter to the editor

I received a Petition from United Methodist Church of Gruver, signed by Rev. James S. Terry, concerning the movie, The Last Temptation Of Christ. The movie allegedly presents Jesus committing sin. As a Christian and a member of First Baptist Church, I believe that Jesus was the only man who ever lived that committed no sin. The Petition not only asks me not to run the movie, but threatens me if I do, by boycotting my business for one year, and encouraging others to do likewise. I do not intend to run The Last Temptation Of Christ; not because of a petition with threats, which I do not consider very Christian, but because I believe the Bible to be the word of God and all true. The Bible says Jesus was without sin. Those who change the teachings of the Bible are lost and need a lot of prayer.

By Helen Fisher

Now that his 80th birthday reception is past, life is back to normal out at the J.R. and Frances Stump farm. He is in the fields and she is making a hand inside and outside.

Her sister, Mrs. Nadine Maczko of San Diego flew home from Amarillo several days after the occasion. She was here more than a week, coming to assist in the festivities. She also visited her nieces, Judy Irbeck and Sandy Drake. Mrs. Maczko enjoyed greeting childhood friends as she was reared in the area.

From all directions came the entire family of Mrs. Jewell Pearson over the weekend. The main gathering was Saturday evening in her home.

Out-of-town relatives were: Mrs. Bill Bischoff, with Marc and Kelli of Las Vegas, Nev.; Mrs. Lorin Patton, with Stephen and Valarie, Burns Flat, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Sheriff Blackburn, Casper, Wyo.; Mrs. Russie Mae Anderson, Sunnyvale, Calif.; Barrett Goodson, Baco Raton, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Kengle Pearson, with Christi and Kyle, Perryton, and Mrs. Ken Bridgeman with Scott, who came from Corpus Christi on Sunday.

Family members from Spearman were: Mr. and Mrs. Dan Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pearson, with Ginger, Laura and Carrie; Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Copeland, Jerry Pearson, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ware with Todd, and a friend, Kevin Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sheets of Woodward, and their granddaughter, Lynda Johnston, visited in the home of his brother, Bruce and Freda Sheets on Saturday. This was the first Spearman visit for Lynda who is a teacher in Bartlesville.

Mrs. Winnie Allen and Mrs. Lena McCrory were pleased to have their niece, Lee Marie (Dacus) and Dwayne Watson stop in Spearman. They went on to Hardesty to visit her brother, Joy Hendricks and family.

Lee Marie grew up in Spearman and now lives in Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Holt have been enjoying two young house guests for more than a week. Her grandchildren, Fowler and Courtney Palmer, flew in from Kingsport Tenn. Fowler feels quite at home in Spearman as he made his home here with his grandmother for 18 months.

Five weeks old Andrew Dixon is paying his first visit to Spearman getting acquainted with grandparents and great grandparents and sundry other relatives. His parents, Shannon and Mike Dixon, who live in Clemson, S. Car., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Dixon. They will be leaving the latter part of the week.

Lee Ann and Stan Josephson of Lubbock are welcoming the arrival of Sarah Elizabeth. She was born at Methodist hospital in Lubbock on July 25 and weighed 6 lbs. 9 ozs. She joins sister Megan and brother Mark.

Grandparents are Betty and R. L. Uptergrove, Spearman and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Josephson, Borger, and great grandmother, Mrs. Irene Parks, Amarillo.

Mrs. Day McClellan spent a long weekend here in the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Jim and Lynda Davis. Day and husband, Burl, now live at Granbury where he is in the insurance business. They were in the newspaper business in Spearman a number of years ago.

Ora Lee Blackburn is aware of the quiet and inactivity in her home now after a very enjoyable three weeks. Her granddaughter, Joby Blackburn, of Brownwood has been visiting her, and Joby's father, Bill, joined them for three days last week. Bill lives in Llano where he is a game warden.

While he was here, Bodil Stackhouse of Amarillo came over for the weekend. On Friday they all enjoyed a picnic in the Canadian River Breaks. They were joined by the J.E. Blackburn family and the Joe Hutchisons with Anna. Anna stayed on with her grandmother for a few days.

Mary and Buford Baker, with Brandon, Melissa and Kevin, returned the first of the week after a cool week in Estes Park, Colo.

On the way there, they stopped at Dodge City, Kan. where Melissa and Kevin participated in the swim meet.

George Eisenhaur from Corpus Christi has been spending most of the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O.C. Holt. George, who is in high school, expects to be with them until school starts.

Megan Josephson, of Lubbock, has been visiting her grandparents, the R.L. Uptergroves. Other guests were their son and wife, Donna and Alan Uptergrove of Dallas. Megan rode back as far as Lubbock with them.

Gregg and Becky Hazlewood greeted their new son on July 29 at Hereford. Christopher William weighed 7 1/2 lbs. He has a two year old brother, Nicholas.

Grandparents are Paul and Betty Hazlewood, Spearman; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hughes, Hereford.

Paul says now he has his basketball team with 5 grandsons, so he will not order another. They have one granddaughter.

Verifying that the gentle and gracious Mary Harmond is held in high esteem was the registration of 111 guests and many others who did not register at her 91st birthday observance last Sunday.

Mary Stump and Earl Harmond were married on December 21, 1915 in Ochiltree county and moved into Spearman in the middle 1920s.

Her husband and one son Joe, are deceased.

All her children attended the reception, and 6 of her 9 grandchildren. She has 12 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

Her children were Sylvia Fleenor, Sunray; Rodney Harmon, Wharton; Garnet Bailey, Stinnett and Bonita Ohlson, Colorado Springs.

She left Spearman in 1985 to live near her daughter in Stinnett.

Tom and DeLoris Taylor of Heber Springs, Ark. were weekend guests of his mother, Cleo and Lowell Denman.

Visitors Sunday were Dora Kate and Lovell Lee, with Kyle and Kent and also Melissa Hawley, all of Amarillo.

Five youths of the First Baptist Church, together with Mr. and Mrs. Scott Taylor, Counsellors, returned Saturday from a six day camp at Camp Pan Fork near Wellington.

The theme of the camp was "Destined to Win" and was a balance of fun and seriousness. Each morning a Soul Winner's Seminar was held, all afternoon sports and relaxation occupied the Campers, then another service in the evening.

The youths were Tracy Tigrett, Larry Dunn, April Graham, Regina Abston and Jimmy Boykin.

All those who are interested in the Holt Cemetery are hopeful that the Texas Historical Commission will have the cemetery and school building declared a historical site and place a plaque there. The commission requires a number of documents, pictures and other memorabilia related to the historical background. A number of the requirements have been met.

The Cemetery association would greatly appreciate the use of any old pictures or documents connected with the school or cemetery. Nolan Holt or Olive Pendergraft could be contacted.

Haun reunion held near lake Monument

The Haun family reunion was held July 22, 23, and 24 at Stonewall, Colo. near Monument Lake. The weather was beautiful and the scenery was very beautiful. The exciting thing this year was the bears at the dump and also after sitting around the campfire Sunday evening after putting out the fire the bears raided the trash cans right in the middle of the camp.

Those attending were Clayton and Dora Haun, from Harrison, Ark.; Ken and Marjorie Callstrom and Chris and Tyra and children from Adrian, Tx.; David and May Gouser, Ray and Gwen Lucero, Mark and Larry Joplin from Farmington, N.M.;

Mary Schumann, Craig and Denise Schumann and family, Marsha, Cody, Mika and Holly Pipkin, Vic and Debbie Schumann, Michele, Blake, Brittni and Tanner Beedy all from Spearman.

Stanley Haun from Portales, N.M.; Gary, Sharon, and Melinda Haun, Ft. Worth, Tx.; Lee and Melinda Nicholson of Granite Shoals, Tx.; Alan and Marilyn Davis and girls, Conway, Ark.; Grace and
