Arbor Day Plans Near Completion

Clean-Up Drive Is Main Objective

A pep rally, possibility of an all-college picnic, a clean-up campaign and dismissal of students from all classes will mark Wednesday's annual Arbor-day clean-up drive sponsored by Tech War Veterans association.

Activities for the day will begin with the appearance of all candidates for cheer leader at a special rally to be held at 9:30 a. m. on the boulevard between West and Doak hall. Tech band will present several numbers. Candidates for cheer leader must appear on the 9:30 program to conform with section 710 of the student constitution which states that each candidate for yell leader must demonstrate his ability as a yell leader at a rally.

Possibility of an all-college picnic, following the morning's clean-up drive, was discussed by Gene Nowlin, TWVA commander, when he stated that tentative arrangements were being made to sponsor the picnic, which would be held at noon on the Ad building green.

A bon fire behind the Journalism building will initiate the afternoon's activities, which will include landscaping of the Rec hall grounds and beautification of the band hall area.

After the day's work, everyone is invited for dancing in the Rec hall from 7 to 10 p. m.

All dormitories will combine to cover the campus area throughout the day. Three areas will be designated and assigned to dorm groups composed of West and Drane, Sneed and Dorm III East, Doak and Dorm III West, according to Nowlin. Plans will be posted to designate specific clean-up areas for the groups and final plans will be made at dorm meetings Tuesday night, he added.

Placement Office Reports Openings

Several notices of civil service positions have been received by Placement office, according to Mrs. Jean Jenkins, secretary of the service. The past week notices for positions for engineers were received from the Bureau of Reclamation. Positions are also open in the Texas Department of Public Welfare, she said.

Jobs for engineers of all fields open in the Bureau of Reclamation, have a salary range of $2644.80-$4902 and temporary appointments are also available. The bureau has an engineering trainee program through which an engineering student in his sophomore, junior or senior years may obtain professional training during the summer months. Any student interested can make application to the chief of personnel field office, Bureau of Reclamation, Denver Federal Center, Denver, Colorado.

The Merit System council of Texas gives the information for employment with the State Department of Public Welfare. Positions open in the department include auditors, accountants, child welfare workers, field workers, chemists, physicists, and people majoring in foods and nutrition and agriculture. Application blanks for these state civil service positions are available in the Placement service office, Mrs. Jenkins said.

Mrs. Margaret Long Allen Joins Publicity Department

Mrs. Margaret Long Allen, assistant in the publicity department, succeeds Mrs. Ellen Miller, resigned. Mrs. Allen, 1944 Tech journalism graduate, worked four years as general reporter on the Wichita Falls Record-News. She was editor of the Toreador in 1943-44.

Tom Allen, her husband and a senior journalism student at the University of Texas, will transfer to Tech at the close of this semester.

Gamma Delta Installation To Be Held Saturday

Beta Rho chapter of Gamma Delta, national fraternity of Lutheran students of Missouri Synod, will hold its formal installation banquet at 7:30 p. m. Saturday at the Hilton hotel. Installation will be conducted by Rev. R. W. Hahn, student pastoral advisor of the national church council.

Officers for Tech's Beta Rho chapter are Eugene Streger, president; Richard Siewert, vice-president; Janice Clark, secretary and Bayburn Hahn, treasurer. The function of this fraternity is to foster closer relations between Lutheran students of all schools.

Candidates Commence Vigorous Campaigns For Campus Offices

Engineers, Homemakers Plan Special Displays And Exhibits

Kitchen Devices To Be Featured

Exhibits planned by the home management department for the Home Economics open house, April 23-24, will feature the latest in gas devices in the home, emphasizing kitchen and laundry equipment. The "New Freedom Gas Kitchen," which will be on display, is to be a permanent part of the home management laboratory equipment.

Through local dealers the latest models of gas ranges, refrigerators, clothes driers, hot water heaters, floor furnaces, wall panel heating, and displays on year-around air conditioning for the home, are to be shown in Annex K. Students from the department will explain the new outstanding features and some of the equipment will be demonstrated.

Bulletins explaining the selection, use and care of equipment, arrangements of kitchens, cooking with gas, and gas refrigeration, will be distributed.

Through the courtesy of the West Texas Gas company and the American Gas association, a motion picture in technicolor, "Winning Seals of Approval," explaining the various seals used on gas appliances, and how to select and care for them, will be shown in Annex G.

The Home Management house will be open for visitors at hours designated on the program. Tours will be conducted by students from the house.

Geologist Speaks Tuesday On Dead Sea Formations

Louis Franklin, geologist and independent oil operator of Houston, will lecture on the subject of grabens, with emphasis on the grabens of the Dead Sea of Palestine. Sigma Gamma Epsilon will sponsor the lecture at 5 p. m. Tuesday in the geology lecture room C-D.

Franklin has made a geological survey in Palestine, and did his work under an armed guard, as the English geologist who preceded him was murdered by the Arabs.

The lecture will be open to everyone, according to Dr. L. T. Patton, head of the geology department.

Dean Holland Speaks At MICC Banquet

By BOB WILLIAMS Toreador Staff Writer

"We should strive for a common ground and a common loyalty between students and faculty," Jack Holland, assistant dean of men at the University of Texas, told members of the Men's Inter-Club council at a banquet Wednesday night in the Hilton hotel.

Dean Holland, whose duty it is to act as a co-ordinator between the 33 Greek and local fraternities on the University campus, advocated a mutual understanding between student organizations and members of the faculty so that the school would be benefited by their combined efforts. "Before the war," he explained, "Faculty members at the University went each week to student houses for 'Fire-side Forums' where school problems were discussed. These unprepared talks ranged in subject matter from religion and politics to 'women,' he said.

These informal gatherings were discontinued during the war but now the fraternity houses make it a practice to invite a faculty member to dinner each week for similar discussions. Citing another example of the University's effort to achieve better student-faculty relations, the dean spoke of the "Prexy's Coffee Hour" when the

5 Seek Position Of Toreador Editor

Seventy-three candidates have entered the race for Student association and council representative offices, Bill Nugent, Student association president, said Thursday. Enthusiasm is great and the competition is keen and well distributed for most offices, Nugent added.

An election rally will not be held this year according to Nugent, but a special rally will be held at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday, Arbor day, in which the candidates for cheer leader will be able to qualify for their candidacy. A Student association constitutional stipulation states that cheer leaders must perform at a rally to be eligible for candidacy for the office.

Toreador Editor Race Close Competition for the office of Toreador editor is the strongest in the Student association offices with five competing. Head girl cheer leader and secretary of the Student association will lead with four competing for each. Three candidates are in the race for La Ventana editor with two competing for business manager of the Toreador and vice-president of the Student association respectively.

One each have entered their candidacy for the following offices: President of the Student association, head boy cheer leader, business manager of La Ventana, and business manager of the Student association.

Forty-nine candidates have filed petitions from the five divisions for representative to the Student council. Arts and Sciences leads with 20 candidates. Business administration boasts ten office seekers; Home Ec, seven; engineering seven; and aggie division five.

Candidates for the various offices include: La Ventana editor: Bob Williams, Jim Biehn, Joe France.

Toreador editor: Mary Louise Clayton, O. A. "Cotton" Fanning, Ray Cook, C. E. Wendt, Jr., Orin Brewer.

Formby Unopposed President Student association: Clint Formby.

Vice-president Student association: Don E. Sloan, George C. Wilmoth.

Student association secretary: Anita Oliver, Margaret Clark, Beth Neely, B. J. Parnell.

Head boy cheer leader: Andrew Willingham.

Business manager Student association: Bill Reid.

Business manager La Ventana: Jack Thompson.

Business manager The Toreador: Calvin L. Carpenter, John Perkins.

File For Representative Candidates of representatives to the Student council include: Arts and Sciences: Joe Meador, Ralph Bucy, Winston Churchill, Alice Barron, Jean Alger, Jayne Thompson, Oleta Stewart, Mary Hartgraves, Lamar Jackson, Welborn Willingham, Nancy Wilson, Jerry F. Sides, Bill Savers, Curtis Sterling, Ted Forsythe, M. N. "Pug" Davidson, Glenn E. Lewis, Peggy McClatchy, Corrine Thomas, Barbara Scott.

New Type Engines To Be Revealed

Demonstration of a water injection engine will be among the new displays in the Sixteenth annual Tech Engineers' show, announced Donald J. Helmers, senior from Detroit, Mich., and manager of the mechanical engineering exhibits. In this demonstration water is injected along with the fuel into the carburetor of a standard automobile engine. This procedure increases the power output of the engine.

Another exhibit which will be shown for the first time is a natural gas engine an internal combustion engine which uses natural gas for fuel. Helmers indicated that this exhibit will be of special interest to citizens of the South Plains because of the abundance of natural gas in this section of Texas.

A model of Here's turbine, the first heat engine of any type, will be displayed in comparison between this engine and the modern heat engines on display will show the advances which have been made in mechanical engineering.

Other exhibits which are being shown again because they have been so popular in the past are the Diesel engine and steam engine displays, the cutaway gasoline engine and many others.

Dupree Addresses Alumni And Exes

Each active member of the Tech Alumni and Ex-Students association should contact at least ten other exes and encourage them to join the organization according to George W. Dupree, Lubbock attorney. He spoke in a meeting of the Lubbock chapter March 25.

Dupree stated that Tech could never be great without the united support of its ex-students, some 50,000 men and women working for a common cause. James G. Allen, dean of men, spoke briefly inviting alumni and ex-students to attend the reception in honor of Dean J. M. Gordon April 25. Ben Cowling, chapter president, president and Clarence Whiteside introduced the speakers.

College Club, Centaurs, Wranglers Receive Awards At MICC Smoker

College Club received the Men's Inter-Club council scholastic award for having the highest grade-point average among the men's social clubs for 1947 at the MICC smoker Wednesday night in the Hilton hotel. The large bronze plaque was presented to Fred Butler, president, by MICC President, George Wall. The club's grade-point average was 1.53.

George Philbrick, director of intra-mural activities, presented the sports trophies to club presidents whose organizations won in inter-club competitions last spring and fall.

Aubrey Ferguson accepted the football trophy as Centaur president and passed it to outstanding player, Tom LeMond.

Softball award for the spring of 1947 went to the Wranglers. Jack Thompson, president, gave the trophy to Bob Rollins, pitcher of the team.

Basketball competition for the spring of 1948 is tied up between the Centaurs and Wranglers and will be played off Sunday. One member and one pledge

Debate Students To Attend Meet

Four debate students, accompanied by Miss Anna Jo Pendleton, are leaving today for Nashville, Tenn., to attend the debate tournament and student congress, sponsored by the Southern Speech association.

Jacquelyn Reynolds, Betty Jo Maynard, Floyd Sadler, and R. T. Scales will represent Tech in the tournament. Debates will be held Tuesday and Wednesday while Thursday, Friday, and Saturday will be devoted to the Student Congress on Human Relations to be held in the state capitol. Miss Pendleton will be one of the tournament judges and will attend the Southern Speech convention while there.

The question to be debated is "Resolved that Federal World Government Should be Established." Each team will debate both the negative and affirmative sides of the question.

Honorary HE Club Will Initiate Nine

Nine students will be initiated into Phi Upsilon Omicron, national home economics fraternity in a traditional sunrise service Sunday. The initiation will be followed by a breakfast.

Thelma Shepard, Billie Harvey, Rosalyn Schreyer, Martha Lewis, Elizabeth Craig, Thelma Zimmerman, Wilma Wheeler, Willa Mae Ferris and Mary Nell Callihan are the initiates. Gladys Dawson, senior from Tulsa and president, will act as toastmistress and Betty Davin, senior of Vigo Park, will give the invocation. Other numbers on the program include "Signs of Spring" by Miss Dawson; "Blossoming Forth," Elizabeth Craig; "Flowers in Bloom," Ruby Tom Rhodes; "Remembered Fragrances," Dean Margaret Weeks, head of the division of home economics.

Active members of the Tech Omega chapter of the fraternity are Verna Dene Beene, Gretchen Clift, Barbara Conkling, Gladys Dawson, Betty Devig, Betty Ewen, Avis Fuchs, Sue Lynn Guthrie, Doris Dean Irvin, Nell La Roe, Pauline Lokoy, Delilah Manire, Mary Ruth McClain, Katherine Nelson, Faye Nordyke, Norma Grace Reid, aMtha Lou Sageser, and Mary Welch.

Sterling C. Evans, president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, will be the speaker at the commencement exercises to be held in Jones stadium, June 7, President W. M. Whyburn has announced.

Approximately 500 students will receive degrees at this ceremony, the largest graduating class in the history of Tech, W. P. Clement, registrar, estimated.

The 48-year-old speaker has been a leader in Texas agricultural circles since his graduation from Texas A&M College more than 20 years ago. As a boy's club agent, 4-H club leader and district agent of the extension service, Evans showed a sympathetic understanding of farmers' problems and applied himself intelligently to their solution, according to President Whyburn.

Evans' efforts brought him, in 1943, the position of first presidency of the Houston Bank for cooperatives. He has always shown special understanding of cooperatives' problems and has been highly active in their development.

Whyburn said. As a result of his work, he was offered the presidency of the Federal Land Bank of Houston in 1940. He accepted and still retains that position.

Li'l Abner has his Fearless Fodick-Tech has one, too. oe H. Smith, senior business student from Lubbock, has just been tagged "Dick Tracy," "Fearless Fodick" and "Jack Armstrong."

In Wichita Falls Monday night, Joe and two buddies were in Weeks park. The three college students overpowered a knife-wielding holdup man and took him to the police station. When the robber asked Smith for his money, he was given the change (6 cents). When the knife was flashed at the other boys, Joe knocked him out. The three loaded the bandit in the car and began the journey to the local "cooler." On the way downtown Joe's punch began to wear off, and the young man attempted to wreck the car by grabbing the wheel. The same routine of punches again induced the robber to sleep, and delivery was made.

Three other young men later reported to police they had been hijacked at knife point in the same park. They identified the man in the police lineup.

All comic script heroes are in great danger at the last scene. This is the whole story. Smith, alias Dick Tracy, Jack Armstrong and Fearless Fodick, received a small knife cut on his head and a badly bruised hand.

Dr. T. W. Camp Addresses Sigma Tau Delta Dinner

"Club Life in the Eighteenth Century" was discussed by Dr. Truman W. Camp at the Sigma Tau Delta dinner Thursday night at the Hilton hotel. Sigma Tau Delta is the honorary English fraternity, and the dinner marked the fifth anniversary of its Psi Delta chapter at Tech.

Dr. Camp, head of the English department, is sponsor of the fraternity, and Joe Anderson is president.

MICC PLAY-OFF MONDAY

The play-off between the Wranglers and the Centaurs of the Men's Inter-Club council basketball league is scheduled for 8 p. m. Monday in the Tech gym, announced George Philbrick, director of intra-mural sports.

from each men's club was recognized as having the highest grade-point average for the fall semester in his organization.

Men recognized and their averages are: College Club: Joe Arrington, member, 2.94; Gene Couch, pledge, 2.40.

Barking Barkers Begin At 7 P. M.

By JOHN ANDERSON Toreador Editor

"Step right up, ladies and gents! See the greatest group of shows ever exhibited on Tech campus."

Cries from the throats of "howl-wah" trained collegians will herald the 1948 Senior carnival tonight in the Ad building. Come-on pleas of the would-be barkers will start at 7 p. m. and continue until 11 as the annual shindig raises funds for the senior class gift.

"Come right on in. Don't be bashful. We've got legs we've not shown yet."

The Esquire calendar show promises to recall shades of Varga—without the shades. With Las Chapparras club girls modeling for each month of the year, who can but hope for a mild winter? And anyway, "If winter comes, can spring be far behind?"

"What you get for a buck at the Supper club, we give you for a dime."

Sans Souci's taxi-dance will hold sway during the evening, with a ten-cent fee entitling the buyer to a ticket. The ticket itself is no good, but a fellow has to have one before he can gain entrance to the dimly lit dance floor where a Scotter waits to endocrinate him into the secrets of classroom dancing. Center room at the head of the stairs; no stag bids required.

SHAWTNING BREAD "Cakes like Mothah used to bake; cakes like father used to eat; cakes like the army never heard of."

The Home Ec girls' cake walk is not to be confused with any trip through Aggie grove. In the cake walk, a limit is placed on the number of persons per prescribed area—in this instance, chairs. If you happen to sit in the right place, you win a cake with no expended effort other than a couple of trips around the room. But a reminder to refugee couples from the taxi-dance: only one chair to a customer and vice versa.

"See the greatest shideshow on earth. Our exhibitions are not limited to mere freaks. We have freak freaks; we have freak freak-freaks. See the Bearded Ladies. (No, son, Aggie grove to see the ladies bearded). See the blonde gargantua-ess. See them; they have just been captured from a remote corner of the gym."

Las Vivaszechas is not only sponsoring the freak show; the club is furnishing the freaks from among its members. The supreme sacrifice.

Shut My Mouth "Win a fortune right here, ladies and gentlemen. Take a chan—"

(This paragraph censored by Postal department regulations which prohibit publication of games of chance.)

"Harry, Hurree, Hu-u-r-ry, come this way to win a prize. A winner for each and every prize. Don't delay, people, we have it in for the lucky one. The unlucky ones have it in for us. Hurry!"

The list of prizes is incomplete, but it includes a pin-up man (not to be confused with the Esquire show), a study lamp (to be awarded too late for assistance with mid-semester exams), hot plates, electric beanyery, Proctor iron, hose (silken knee type), blouse, play shoes, sport shirts, billfold, tailor-made slacks, cigarette lighters, $10 worth of cleaning, candy dress shirts, stuffed dog, escapee from the freak show? T-shirts, buckles, bracelets, ladies' slacks, theater passes, sweaters, studs and cufflinks.

Campus organizations which will have booths tonight are: Wranglers, Las Chapparras, Kemas, Silver Keys, Centaur, K. S. H., DFD, Sans Souci, Saddle Tramps, Home Ec club, Aggie club, APO, Las Vivaszechas, College Club and TWVA.

Izzard To Speak At Press Banquet

Wes Izzard, managing editor of the Amarillo News-Globe and a radio news commentator, will be guest speaker at the second annual Press club banquet, which is to be at 7 p. m. Tuesday, in the Yaqui room of the Hilton hotel.

Aubrey Shouse, president of Press club, will welcome guests, and John Anderson, editor of The Toreador, will be master of ceremonies. As a specialty on the program, La Rue Malouf, junior from Lubbock, will sing several numbers.

Special guests for the occasion will be Messrs. and Mesdames J. G. Allen, W. M. Whyburn, R. C. Goodwin, Cecil Horne, Clark Schooley, Wayne Kitley, and John Miller. Others include Miss Jane Watson, Arlee Gowen, editor of the Southwestern Cross and Stock magazine, and Miss Margaret Turner, Hank Hankins, and Joe Kelly, all of the Avalanche Journal.

Invitations, Caps, Gowns Orders May Be Placed All seniors are urged to place their orders immediately for invitations and make reservations for caps and gowns, Floyd Read, senior class president states.

Up And 'At 'Em

Texas Tech students will be put to another test Wednesday. The examination confronting them has nothing to do with books, grades or graduation. It is a rather simple method of testing each student's desire to make Tech campus respectable looking.

Every Techman is looking forward to Arbor day next Wednesday, but nine out of 10 students have not seriously considered participating in the clean-up drive. For this majority the day will be one of rest, recreation and an opportunity to catch up on back work. These students can not be classified as lazy, but largely are just not interested enough in their school or its general appearance to devote a few hours or minutes of their time to remedying the deplorable condition which now exists.

Upon announcement that next Wednesday would be declared a college holiday, practically every student started making personal plans for that day. Numerous clubs and societies have organized clean-up groups and it will be these students who will be responsible for the success or failure of Arbor day.

Many Techs do not plan to enter into clean-up activities now but Wednesday, when they see the industrious veterans and students, who dream for a better and cleaner Tech, working like mad to remove every objectionable item on the campus, they should feel a little ashamed; perhaps they will lend a helpful hand. Many will not even make an appearance and will not be bothered by their consciences, but mind you, they will be the first to stick out their chests to receive credit when someone remarks about the clean appearance of the campus.

Officials of TWVA, which is sponsoring the campaign, hope that workers may be induced from their siestas with afternoon refreshments and the thrill of participating in a program which should bring personal satisfaction to all.

Will you pass the test Wednesday or do you have something else on your agenda? Texas Tech is beginning to roar like the lion it is, but you with your "don't care" attitude are keeping it penned up with the cubs.

Up and at 'em—let's put Tech's million trash piles where they belong! Might make you feel good to get your hands a little dirty for a change—huh uh, quit thinking about that sack—let's make Arbor day a success.

Screen Fare

By ALICE MEADING

The Smugglers at the Midway theatre with Michael Redgrave and Gene Kent is a first run show in Lubbock which depicts smuggling off the English coast.

If Winter Comes, starring Walter Pidgeon, Deborah Kerr and Angela Lansbury, takes place in a small English village at the outbreak of World War II. It tells of a liberal-minded textbook writer, Mark Sabre, and the lovely Nona Tybar, each of whom has made an unhappy marriage. Mark to the narrow minded and unimaginative Mabel; Nona to the gambling playboy, Tony. Nona is resolved to leave her husband but honor and compassion prevent her from doing so when the war sends Tony away with his regiment. Mark, in the meantime, has become the target of a scurrilous attack due to his having befriended Effie Bright, daughter of a fellow employee who has been thrown out of her home because of an alleged misconduct. When Effie, waiting in vain to hear from the soldier who has gotten her into trouble, learns that Mark is being sued for divorce, her feeling of guilt is so great that she commits suicide. It is now that the whole town turns against Mark with vindictiveness and hatred and brings him to trial in one of the most powerful courtroom scenes ever depicted on the screen. Mark's refusal to take the easy way out and his ultimate vindication in the eyes of the woman he loves brings the narrative to a close in a moving climax. It is showing at the Lindsey prevee Saturday night and Sunday through Wednesday. Showing for the last time today at the Lindsey is Song of Love with Kathryn Hepburn and Robert Walker.

Tycoon, starring John Wayne and Lorraine Day begins today and shows through Tuesday at the Tower and State.

Revolving around the determination of a Central American priest to perform his duties in spite of a government ban against religious activity, The Fugitive, is a highly dramatic production. Henry Fonda has the title-role as the courageous Father, with Dolores del Rio returning to the American screen as a native girl who shields him when the police get hot on his trail. Pedro Armendariz, a top favorite among Latin-American audiences, is co-starred as the lieutenant in charge of the police bent on capturing the illusive priest. The clashing viewpoints of the two men, as each goes ahead with what he considers his duty, motivate the tense drama of the story, which builds to a poignant climax when the Father, after fleeing to a neighboring country, deliberately returns into danger to minister to a dying outlaw. A half-caste who treacherously seeks to betray the priest for a reward, a grafting police chief and a refugee doctor also play prominent roles in this unusual film.

They are telling this one about Orin Brewer: On his return from Austin and the Journalism congress, he went to the infirmary to be treated for a sore throat. The doctor, mumbling, "Hang-over", was misunderstood by the nurse, who thought he said, "Hold over." Orin was released two days later.

Brac Biggers almost broke up Student council meeting the other night when he learned that Joe Meador had the part of the Angel in this year's Varsity show. He casually remarked that he'd always thought those were ears.

A Tech graduate after a good many years in the business world retired with a comfortable fortune of $60,000. He amassed this large sum through courage, enterprise, initiative, faithfulness, the careful investment of his savings and the death of an uncle who left him $59,999.50.

A message to you from the Chief of Staff

"April 6 is Army Day. It is a day which will have a special meaning for college men. More than half of you are veterans of the last war. Many of you are members of the Organized Reserve. Many others belong to the R.O.T.C. or National Guard.

"All of you are making a vital contribution toward World Peace and the security of this nation.

"The U. S. Army is the finest army in the world and the only one of its kind among the major powers. It is 100% volunteer. It is composed entirely of civilian soldiers . . . men like yourselves who realize that a strong America is a peaceful America, and that the responsibility of making America strong rests in the hands of every American citizen.

"The U. S. Army is not a large army, as armies go. It is shouldering tasks far greater than any other army of like size has ever attempted.

material learned. A brave Techman might have the best intentions of reading Dante's "Inferno," translating 20 pages of French, or working a few dozen math problems, but fellow travelers are seldom understandingly quiet, and the constant mobility of a printed page is not one of the recommendations of the national vision association.

There seldom breathes a normal student who does not get behind in assignments during the semester and rely on an approaching holiday to save him. He promises faithfully that if the powers that be will only deliver him this time, no more backsliding on homework will occur. But the poor reformer doesn't have a chance because if he does his back work, the new assignments must be ignored and his purpose is already defeated, and what's the use of studying for the future, if the student is already flunking the course, which he will be if back work isn't turned in. It's just a vicious circle of punctuation and thought, and seemingly a problem without a solution.

Why must it be traditional for professors to give holiday homework when it stands to reason that if they can't educate their avid pupils in the eight months of school days in the long terms, then it is highly unlikely that the Herculean task can be accomplished in

Our occupation force in Japan is the smallest per capita of any modern occupation army. Our force in Europe is the smallest of the three major powers.

"But behind this Army stand you men of the Organized Reserve and the R.O.T.C. I have known many of you personally. I have been with many of you in action. I know the fine type of men you are and the realism that leads you to equip yourselves with military training.

"Further, I know the valuable service you can render the nation in time of emergency. A great deal of the success of fast mobilization and the actual winning of the war was due to the 106,000 trained Reserve Officers and the top-notch National Guard units which were available for quick action.

"To you, on Army Day, I believe I speak for millions of Americans in offering commendation for the fine job you are doing."

Centaur's Defeat Wranglers, 26-25 In MCCC Basketball League Upset

By AUBREY SHOUBE
Treador Sports Writer

In one of the best games of the Men's Inter-Club council basketball league the Centaurs eased by the favored Wranglers, 26-25, to place them in the MCCC play-off with the Wranglers in another game to be scheduled. The Wranglers held a decisive lead at the end of the first half, but the Centaurs gradually closed the gap and, for the first time of the game, took a one point lead over the Wranglers before the final whistle.

The Silver Keys defeated the Kemas club, 33-28, last Tuesday in the Tech gym, and the College Club decidedly beat the Socii, 30-16, the same afternoon.

The Wranglers beat the Kemas, 33-29, a week ago Wednesday to place them in the finals of the MCCC basketball league with the Centaurs, who defeated the Los Cams, 45-17, the same day. The College Club beat the Kemas club, 23-21, in another MCCC thriller the following day.

Reynolds, Pinnell Face Tough Foes

By BOB LILLY

Six Raider tracksters are competing in five special events and the mile relay against some of the nation's top tracksters at the twenty-first annual Texas relays in Austin today. Officials expect 1,000 entries from about 70 schools throughout the South, Southwest and Midwest.

Border conference 100 and 220-yard champion, Charley Reynolds from Odessa, is entered in these events and will run as anchor man on the mile relay team. Others on the relay team are: Joe Wilson from Claude, Costin Bufkin from Hobbs, N. M., and Ernest Hawkins from Lamesa.

High hurdle champion at the Southwestern Exposition and Recreational track meet, Charles "Chuck" Pinnell, freshman from Andrews, is competing in this event and also the pole vault. He is competing against Minnesota's Harry Cooper, who vaults in the neighborhood of 14 feet. Ed Clepper, from Mobeetie, is entered in the high jump and the high hurdles.

Tech did not enter the sprint relay, field events, 440-yard dash or the mile. Coach McKnight said that Tech's half-mile, Henry Briscoe, freshman from Devine, would not be in shape for the medley relay. Sprinter Seth Murphy is remaining in Lubbock for the youth revival.

McKnight and the special event men left Thursday morning for Austin in preparation for the preliminary tryouts yesterday afternoon. The remainder of the tracksters followed yesterday morning. The team, traveling by private cars, will return to Tech Sunday afternoon.

Among the entries in the university and college division are: Arkansas, Bradley, Drake, Kansas, Kansas State, Lackland Field (San

Spring Football Starts Monday; Six Spots Open On First Team

When the 1948 Red Raiders start spring training Monday, Head Coach Dell Morgan will be faced with six problems other than rounding his gridmen into shape.

Every time Coach Morgan briefs the Raiders on football fundamentals, he will be casting his eyes over the group in search of capable men to replace a half dozen starters from last season's Sun Bowl crew.

Gone through graduation from the starting line-up of the 1947 Border conference champions are End Joe Smith, Tackles Bernie Winkler and George Zoller, Center Tuffy Nabors, Quarterback Freddy Brown and Fullback Leete Jackson. Also missing will be Guard Floyd Lawhorn, Halfback Ralph Earnhart and End Ralph Geddie, first line replacements.

Tech will have 21 lettermen from 1947, plus Doug McSwane, 1945 letterman tackle from San Angelo, and numerous reserves and last fall freshmen when some 50 men report Monday. But at the moment, men to fill the starting berths present question marks to Morgan and aides Polk Robison, Geeber Morris, Tipp Mooney and

Nine Guards To Report

Prospective men in the center slot are Lettermen Bobby Williams of Sanford and Joe L. Thompson of Lubbock and Bud Henderson of Quanah. Gridmen aiming for the guard positions are stacked nine deep, including four lettermen—Dorrell McCurry of Lubbock, Dan Parsel of Glade-water, Don Orr of Graham and Milburn Hayden of Weatherford. Also on hand for a try at guard will be Robert Hix of Sherman, T. K. Hardy of Ranger, Bobby Garner of Denison, Wayne Gynn of Wagon and Tom Pirtle, 1944 letterman.

Marshall Gettys, Amarillo, and McSwane are the only lettermen tackles who will don football togs Monday. Special attention is planned for Don Williams of Sanford, John Tom Baker, Denison, and Bob Morris of Austin, freshmen, and John Andrews and Billy Joe Russell.

J. L. Guley, Quanah, Bill Kelley, Idalou, Walter Edrington, Odessa, and Frank Ottmers, Fredericksburg, are lettermen ends on hand for the spring campaign. Fresh

Three Quarterbacks On Hand

Lettermen Quarterbacks Ernest Hawkins of Lamesa and Ray Crenshaw of Temple will have to win out over Bill Lyman of Littlefield to keep the young transfer out of a possible starting berth in the man-under post.

Bud Conley, Quanah halfback, may possibly be shifted to the fullback slot to aid Letterman J. W. Thompson of Odessa, Earl Jackson of Phillips and Keith Butler of Lubbock.

The left halfback notch may develop into a quadrangular battle between Ike Stuver of Ysleta and Lettermen Cal Stevenson, Brownfield, Walter Maloney, Roscoe and Zac Henderson, Quanah. Depth at right half will include Lettermen Charles Reynolds, Odessa, Costin Bufkin, Hobbs, and Glenn Lewis, Quitaque. Also on hand will be Cecil Norris, who missed last season due to illness, Bill White of Vernon, Tim Hatch of Wellington, Wallace McBryer of Lorena and Henry Briscoe of Devine.

STAFF SLANTS

Charley Reynolds has definitely become the hard luck man on the Tech track squad. It should be considered hard luck when a sprinter faces some of the nation's top century men and then runs the fastest 100-yard dash in his career and fails to place. This happened to Reynolds at Fort Worth in the Southwest Exposition track meet. He was clocked in the usual winning time of 9.7 seconds yet he wound up in fifth place. He trailed Flying Charlie Parker of Texas university who set a new meet record of 9.5 seconds. The top five men were so close that it almost required the aid of a photographer to ascertain the winner. Reynolds will have an opportunity to gain revenge today when he will be facing those same sprinters at the Texas relays in Austin.

Our neighbors, the Lobos of New Mexico, have picked the Tempe tracksters to win the Border conference cinder meet following a dual meet between the two teams. The Lobo Lair, a column in the college newspaper, gave Tech and Arizona each an even break for second place. Raider followers will have an opportunity to draw their own conclusion on April 24 when the Tech-New Mexico-West Texas triangular meet is unreeled here. The New Mexico dopsters have really given Techsans some food for thought as Tempe possess one of the nation's leading hurdlers in Joe Batiste. This is one event in which Tech is considered strongest with two capable performers in Charles Pinnell and Ed Clepper.

faloes have signed to meet East Texas State in the famed bowl the night before the SMU-Santa Clara tilt.

The Red Raider freshmen will tangle with the West Texas frosh in a grid battle next season. The frosh encounter will take place the night before West Texas's annual homecoming.

Spring football training gets underway Monday and with a little aid from the weather Coach Dell Morgan should uncover some talent that will deal 1948 Tech opponents a lot of misery. The Raiders will face a rugged schedule when fall rolls around but they should better their six won and four lost record of the last regular campaign. At least they should crack that iron curtain which surrounded victories from Southwest conference opponents last year. Coach Morgan will have a difficult time replacing several key men, but a number of outstanding freshmen should develop sufficiently to remedy this situation. The backfield was least hit by graduation and with proper coaching Tech should have a bang-up good, point making combination by September.

Kittley-McClung Vows Exchanged

Miss Laurette McClung, former Tech journalism student of Kerens and Wayne Kittley, superintendent of Tech Press were married March 26 at the Munger Place Methodist church in Dallas.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Weddle, of Dallas. Mr. Weddle is a Tech journalism graduate.

Dusters Top Elks For League Title

The Dusters took the Independent league basketball crown Tuesday afternoon by decidedly defeating the Elks, 47-36, in a fast game on a dusty floor. David Bradley, Jay Bryan, and James Cunningham of the Dusters led the games high scorers with 14, 12 and 10 respectively. Sharp, of the Elks, scored 10 points to tie for third place scoring honors.

Earlier in the week the Lazy Five outdid the Elks, 39-33, with Guinn Johnson scoring 18 points for the Lazy Five to take the high scoring honors.

Vicious Circle--

holiday alcohol just to get away from the headaches of homework. The Circle fails to see the advantage of one variety of headaches over another, but the idea of getting away from or doing away with unreasonable quantities of holiday homework has its advantages!

This admittedly concerns a small percent of Tech's instructors, because for the most part the only kind of assignments given are the "you might think about that during the holidays" variety. What is considered unfair, however, is for a prof to give heavy amounts of work just because he is behind in his teaching plan, or because a large number of students cut the last day or for some other similar reason.

This fall a co-ed replied: "I came to be went with, but I ain't yet."

Annual DFD Presentation Held In Hotel Lubbock Last Night

DFD, women's social club, revealed Mary Jane Hinchey as its president for next year at its annual presentation dance last night at Hotel Lubbock Hinchey, who is the first girl to take office as president of the club for a second term, was introduced previous to the presentation of twelve new members and fourteen pledges.

The new president, members, and pledges were presented to the tune of the DFD club song through a chaise longue, tufted satin frame which represented a large picture album. "DFD" in old English gold letters decorated one side of the chaise longue frame, and a fuchsia satin curtain formed the background of the album.

Bob Williams announced the following members and pledges and their escorts as they were presented: Peggy Abernathy, Ted White; Athalene Allen, L. D. Ballard; Betty Bonner, Winston Churchill; Margaret Clark, Guy Tom Cowden; Thala Foster, Bill Watson.

Loyd Jenkins' orchestra furnished the music and special guests were Miss Martye Poindexter, Miss Ina Bacon, Messrs. and Mesdames James N. Michie, Leonard L. Jansen, and Dr. and Mrs. Doyle D. Jackson.

JEFFERSON'S ROUGH DRAFT OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

A Declaration by the Representatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in General Congress assembled

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's god entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness; that to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, & to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles & organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall
