Engineering Departments Formulate Original Plans For Approaching Annual Divisional Show

Chemical Group Hopes For Liquid Air Supply For Demonstration

More centralized and original demonstrations will be the bases of the chemical engineer's division of the 1938 engineering show, according to John W. Sheehan, chemical division superintendent.

The list will be checked and candidates voted at the April meeting. New members will be initiated at the last meeting in May.

Mary Beth Whiteman, president, appointed Eron Gafford, Oleta Claborn, and Estelle Hodel to plan initiation.

Plans were made to secure a scrap book in which will be placed the constitution, names of present members, and a report of work done by the Junior council, to be handed down to future councils.

Interscholastic League Programs Mailed This Week

Official programs for the District Interscholastic League meet, to be held on this campus April 8-9, were mailed this week to superintendents of schools in this district.

Approximately 2,000 contestants are expected to participate, according to A. W. Evans, director general of the meet. Participants will represent all the counties in district 3 and one city-county unit, that of Lubbock.

Rules are substantially the same as last year, with divisions made for rural and urban, boys and girls, and ward and high schools.

Registration and payment of entry fees will be made in the Administration building lobby for literary and athletic events, including declamation, debate, one-act play, volley ball, golf, extemporaneous speech, three-R contest, ready writers contest, tennis, typewriting, and track and field events.

League directors are Evans; J. W. Jackson, declamation; Doyle D. Jackson, declamation; Bonnie K. Dysart, extemporaneous speech; Berl G. Huffman, athletics; R. A. Mills, essay; Annah Jo Pendleton, one-act play; Mamie W. Jackson, typing and shorthand; and C. B. Qualla, Spanish.

Knapp Sends Open Letter Of Thanks

With the statement "someday we are going to have the most beautiful campus there is in America," Dr. Bradford Knapp, college president, expressed from his sick bed, Thursday, gratitude and personal thanks to every student and faculty member who participated in the Arbor Day tree planting ceremony.

Apparently touched deeply by the success of the venture, Knapp continued, "I personally regard the whole day not only as a wonderful success but as one of the keenest and finest demonstrations of student loyalty and enthusiasm ever held on any college campus."

Old West Lives As 20,000 Trees Go Into Ground

A scene reminiscent of the old West was recreated Wednesday afternoon as chuckwagons and horsemen dotted the Tech campus in celebration of the Arbor Day program.

About 1,000 students and faculty members joined to plant approximately 20,000 trees and 1,000 shrubs.

Girls attired in slacks, riding habits, and skirts and sweaters wielded picks and shovels with abandon as they planted trees for various campus clubs.

Original names were applied to several trees, such as "Fame" named in honor of Fran, Ann Margaret, and Eloise.

Formality was abandoned as students piled on the wagons to ride back and forth to the nursery.

Coffee and doughnuts were served from the chuckwagons to workers during the afternoon.

"The work went along smoothly," said O. B. Howell, professor of horticulture, who was in charge of the beautification program.

Trees planted included Russian olive, Chinese elm, American elm, Russian mulberry, green ash, red bud, Carolina poplar, Arizona cypress, Siberian pea, honey locust, Spanish locust, alninus, hackberry, apricot, and jujube.

Steele Discusses Conference Hope

L. L. Steele, Mexia member of the board of directors, will discuss Southwest conference football Monday night at 7:30 o'clock before a joint meeting of the Aggie, Plant Industry, and the Dairy clubs.

Meeting will be held in the livestock judging pavilion.

An ardent advocate of Tech's admission to the Southwest conference, Steele does much to get favorable publicity for Tech before the football fans of the Southwest.

Emmett Announces CE Students Plan To Show Miniatures

Civil engineers will present latest developments in their field at the tenth annual engineer's show in the Engineering and Chemistry buildings April 8 and 9.

John Emmett, senior student of Roswell, N. M., is in charge of exhibits in that division.

Models of various units comprise a large part of the civil engineer's contribution, with demonstrations of tests made by the department.

The major part of the models will be patterned after subjects observed on the inspection trip made to Conchas Dam, N. M., during the first semester.

Model Conchas Dam is being built for the show by Herbert Rule, senior student of Lubbock. The project will be cut off through the spillway of the dam and also beyond in order to show the tunnels for power and drainage.

Features of the show last year that will appear again are sieve analysis tests which are run on sand, and abrasion and impact tests which are made on rocks.

The Olsen concrete compression testing machine, which can exert a pressure of 20,000 pounds when breaking concrete cylinders, will be operated this year by Carl Kuentz of Dallas.

Bridge models, traffic intersections, and a rapid sand filter model will also be shown.

J. H. Murchough is head professor of civil engineering.

CHAPPELLE SPEARS

Ray L. Chappelle, head professor of agricultural education, spoke at a Cotton Center FFA banquet Thursday night.

Moreman Chosen Most Beautiful Of Entrants

Cincinnati Man Acclaims Tech Beauties Outstanding Examples Of College Pulchritude; Girls Judged In Personal Appearance Wednesday Afternoon

"ALL OF THESE girls would do credit to Fifth Avenue," said Arthur Portune, who judged the 14 candidates for La Ventana beauties in the Lubbock High school auditorium Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Portune accompanied Harold Bauer, famed pianist, who appeared on the artist course program Wednesday night. He is from Cincinnati, Ohio.

Ella Norene Moreman, freshman engineering student of Post, and a member of the Ko Shari social club, was acclaimed by Portune as the most beautiful in the group. The seven others awarded places were: second, Kay McCoy, sophomore arts and science student of Baird, and a member of Las Vivarachas club; third, Lorena Owens, senior arts and science student of Lubbock; fourth, Mary Price, sophomore home economics student of Pampa, a member of DFD social club; fifth, Merle Houston, sophomore arts and science student of Stanton, and member of Las Vivarachas club; sixth, Merle Haynes, junior arts and science student of Hobbs, N. M., member of DFD; seventh, Geraldine Crow, freshman bany, member of Las Chaparritas; home economics student of Al and eighth, Jean Faglia, junior home economics student of Greenville, who is a member of Las Chaparritas.

Fish Vote For Queen Monday

Class Members Schedule Semi-Formal Dance For Next Friday

Freshmen class members trek to the polls Monday for the purpose of electing a queen to reign over the annual freshman dance scheduled for Friday, March 11. Semi-formal, the dance will be held in Tech gym 9 to 12 p. m.

Seven girls which were nominated as candidates for queen in a special class meeting Tuesday night include: Geraldine Crow, Lucille Winter, Winnie Jo Hooser, Marjorie Burrow, Evelyn Patten, Nancy Anderson, and Gertrude Claiborne.

Polls are to be open 8 to 5 o'clock Monday. The only ballot box will be located in the east rounds of the Administration building, and preferential ballot system is being used. All returns will be in by 7 p. m. The six losing candidates are to serve as attendants to the queen.

A ticket committee for the dance consisting of Bill Treadway, Mack Barnes, Betty Lee Lindsey, Clifford Babb, and Tommy Jane Runkle was appointed with the former acting as chairman. Members may obtain tickets in the east rounds of the Administration building Tuesday and until 5 p. m. Wednesday. Prices are $1 and $1.25.

President Mack Barnes appointed the following to serve on the dance decorations committee: Helen Ann Cantrell, chairman, James Snyder, Lee Perry, Lucille Winter, and Marjorie Burrow.

College Judgers Will Enter Fort Worth Contests

Four judging teams will represent Tech in the Fort Worth Fat Stock show March 12-19.

Junior livestock team, according to Ray Mowery, professor of animal husbandry and coach, consists of Vestel Askew, Del Rio; John Henry Baumgardner, Wellington; Russell Cook, Littlefield; John Jackson, Roaring Springs; Eldon Lawrence, Peacock; and Leo Meier, Follett. Five of the men will serve on the team and the sixth will act as alternate.

First collegiate meat judging contest in Texas, says F. G. Harbaugh, associate professor of animal husbandry and coach of Tech's first meat judging team, finds Tech represented by three boys from the last semester meat judging class, John Henry Baumgardner, Wellington; Curtis Wheeler, Lorenzo; and Russel Reed, Stanton, compose the team. Meat will be judged by carcasses, and wholesale and retail cuts.

Dairy animal judging and dairy products teams will be announced next week. Members and contestants of the four teams are working out regularly in preparation for the meet.

Tech Enters Animals Tech will also have representative animals competing for honors in the stock show. Twelve steers are to be shipped Tuesday, six of the Angus Aberdeen variety and six Herefords. W. H. Rodgers, agricultural employee, and A. T. Rogers, senior agricultural student will accompany the animals. One of the steers was exhibited in the meet last year and won fifth.

Eighteen barrows will be shipped Thursday. Nine Duross and nine Hampshire will comprise the load. B. Odell, swine herdsman for the college, will be in charge of the animals.

Alumni banquets will be held at the same time in Houston, Chattanooga, and New York City, Dean O. V. Adams said. Ross Watson and Troy Mitchell, 1937 graduates, are planning the one in Houston.

The banquet committee consisted of Merriman, Carl Bechtold, Dosh McCreary, and George Dupree.

PRE-MED CLUB TO MEET Pre-Med club will meet Monday in the lounge of the men's dormitory at 7:15 o'clock, according to Ardell N. Taylor, president. Dr. U. S. Marshall will be speaker of the evening, and plans for petitioning for membership in a national pre-med fraternity will be outlined.

Make Personal Appearance This is the first time for the beauties to be selected in a personal appearance before the judge. Last year movie camera shots were made and shown to Billy Rose in Fort Worth, who made the final selection. Previous to that, an individual portrait of each contestant has been sent to an artist or other celebrity.

R. A. Miller, faculty advisor of La Ventana, assisted Marie George, editor, in presenting the girls. The fourteen girls appeared individually from between gray velvet curtains on the stage which was lighted by colored footlights. (See BEAUTIES, page 4)

From Other Campuses

Steamed Sidewalks

Students at Oklahoma A. and M. College can walk on dry, streamlined sidewalks even on icy, slippery days. When college engineers designed the underground system of laying steam-heating lines between buildings, they were placed underneath some of the main inter-connecting sidewalks.

The steam pipes keep ice from collecting on the walks.

Men Preferred

Asked whether they preferred men or women bosses, 520 women studied by a Colgate university professor, said they were in favor of men because women bosses let personal things creep into work, became angry over errors, were jealous, were efficiency-slaves, found fault easily and paid too much attention to details.

Superb Indifference

An example of superb indifference, a college student arose from his table in a swanky dining room and walked to the door. He was passing the house detective at the entrance, when a silver sugar bowl dropped from his bulging coat.

The guest calmly glanced at the officer, and turned with polite annoyance toward the other diners. "Ruffians," he queried, "who threw that?" Then, he walked out.

Engineers from all departments were interviewed last week by representatives of the Humble and Magnolia Oil companies.

R. N. Dyer of Abilene talked to about 30 senior engineers, on the possible prospect of obtaining jobs with the Humble company. About 16 civil and electrical engineers were interviewed by W. B. Raper, representative of the Magnolia company of Houston. No definite decision was made, but application forms were given to the boys.

Arthur Reinhart: A lighted Double T at the campus entrance.

Bob Surrat: Grass.

R. E. Martin: Take care of what we have and then ask for more.

Hardin Boswell: More trees and grass, someone to properly care for them.

Clarence Ranefeld: More grass and shrubs.

Eutrelle McClain: Watering the trees.

W. H. Shropshire: A fountain or two would aid materially in beautification of the campus.

Raymond Lee Johns: Put out some grass, plant some fountains among the trees.

The Dreamer

I am tired of planning and toiling.
In the crowded hives of men;
Heart-weary of building and spilling,
And spoiling and building again.
And I long for that dear old river,
Where I dreamed my youth away;
For a dreamer lives forever,
And a toiler dies in a day.

I am sick of the showy seeming,
Of a life that is half a lie;
Of the faces lined with scheming
In the throb that hurries by,
From the sleepless though endeavor
I would go where the children play;
For a dreamer lives forever,
And a toiler dies in a day.

I can feel no pride, but pity
For the burdens the rich endure;
There is nothing sweet in the city,
But the patient lives of the poor.
O, the little hands too skilful,
And the child mind choked with weeds,
The daughter's heart grown wifely,
And the father's heart that bleeds.

No, no, from the street's rude bustle,
From trophies of mart and stage,
I would fly to the wood's low rustle
And the meadow's kindly page.
Let me dream as of old by the river,
And be loved for the dream away;
For a dreamer lives forever,
And a toiler dies in a day.

Home Furnishers Hang Drapery In Laboratory Room

Draperies of chinoiserie have been made by the clothing class in home furnishings for the home economics dining room at a cost of $23. The price would have been $37 had not students done the work and used old curtain lining.

The chinoiserie was adopted by Chippendale, an eighteenth century English cabinetmaker, and has a Chinese influence in the design.

Aiding in the selection of the choice design was Frances Larmer, 1930 graduate of Tech, who is with the interior decorating department of Harbour-Lonnie, a large department store in Oklahoma City.

Pigskins Fly Monday As Matadors Open Spring Campaign

Men In Red Don Moleskins For Sul Ross Battle Here In April

More Than Sixty Gridders To Report For Workouts Under Cawthon; Sophomore Recruits And Former Ineligibles Bolster Red Raider Victory Hopes

BY BILL WOOD Toreador Sports Writer

MORE THAN 60 aspirants to Red Raider gridiron fame clamor into their harness Monday afternoon as Pete Cawthon dusts off his book of pigskin plays and marches the spring training legions out onto the Matador lot.

Conditioning is the pass word in the Bull Tossers' corral for the next three weeks. Workouts will be devoted principally to knocking out leg kinks and toughening stale muscles, then the Coach plans to divide the squad into individual elevens and turn them loose at each other in scrimmages.

Forecasting a first string for next fall would be like predicting next week's weather in West Texas, but there's lettermen for every position, and a few left over. There'll be a band of rip-snorting leather-luggers who were ineligible last fall, but who are ready to go now; Berl Huffman's 1937 Freshmen are on the lot, and present one of the most skilled bands of sophomores ever to don Matador shackles.

Watch the Sophs

Acquainting the sophs with Texas Tech's Notre Dame shift will be the chief difficulty Cawthon must face this spring. The former-fresh out their capers from short punt and single wingback formations, plus a mixture of every shift and trick play employed by the Red Raiders' 1937 opponents, but they have weight, ability, and the will-to-win.

Rumors state Captain Frank Guzik will be jerked off his regular pivot position and planted in the 1938 backfield as a fullback, the position he originally played at Tech, but Cawthon has made no statement to the Toreador concerning this change in position. Rex Williams gets the center's call if this change occurs. Line Captain Abe Murphy will take his old slot at tackle. Elasting Bill Davis, the 225 junior from Grapevine, is carded for the opposite key position. Leonard Latch and Lloyd Tallifero are other candidates for tackle wearing monogrammed sweaters.

Three lettermen from last year's campaign are scrapping for guard positions. Dixie White, Lubbock Holt Waldrep, Slaton, and Skinny Green, Gainesville, will handle most of the work from these blocking slots. The terminal jobs are in the hands of veterans George Philbrick and Thurman Bostwick, with Ralph Balfanz doing alternate work.

Backs Shape Up

A fleet of nimble footed backs in Charley Calhoun, Elmer Tarbox, Gene Barnett, Bobby Holmes, and Buzz Barnard will be on hand for the ground gaining work next fall; but, they'll be ably assisted by the ex-ineligibles. Butch Sachse makes his first serious bid for Red Raider recognition in the halfback department. Sachse was one of the chief problems attached to the Matadors' scrimmages last fall. Ty Bain, now employed in an light-heavyweight wrestling, is another contender for line-blasting duties. Forest Covin and J. B. Gilbert may be recruited for line duty, although the former is regular enlisted as a wingback.

The most promising prospect in Cawthon's ranks today is Jodie Mareck, the lantern-jawed halfback from Temple with the freight-train drive. Mareck was once the most sought-after high school grid graduate ever handed an imitation sheep-skin in Texas, but according to Dutchy Smith, escapee from Alcatraz, would be simple matter compared to snatching the M-neck from Texas Tech.

Sul Ross First

April 30 climaxes the Scarlet Scrappers' spring training saga, when Sul Ross climbs up on the South Plains with their squad of grid gazelles, for the annual spring clash in the Matadors' back yard. The Men in Red will be a hardened lot of cagy gridders by then after their allotted six weeks of workouts.

Then It's Summer

Following their warmup fracas with Sul Ross in April, the Crimson Crusaders fold up their togs and venture into the oil fields for the summer, then it's back to the Montana State. The northern crew opens Texas Tech's fall card September 17 on the Matador turf Wyoming university sneaks into Lubbock the following week-end, and six days later Cawthon's crowd will be in Pittsburg, where they seek to make it two in a row over Clipper Smith's Duquesne Night Riders.

October 7 finds the Gentlemen in Scarlet back home for a tilt with the flashy Oklahoma City Goldbugs, but the ensuing week-end they journey into Montana for a conference with Montana university, who handed them a 13-7 setback in Lubbock last fall. Odesa draws the Matadors October 22 for a setto with Texas Mines, and then the road-weary Raiders rest.

Loyola Plays Here

November 5 is the date for a call to arms, and the Matadors shoulder their muskets in defense of the local grid against Loyola's Wolves

Cinder Crackers Drill Hard For Four Big Relays

By T. J. HARRIS Toreador Sports Staff

FOUR—Fort Worth, Austin, Des Moines, Iowa, and Temple, Arizona—that's the sites where Texas Tech's thinly clad will pound the cinders this spring.

The Scarlet and Black track colors will be seen in the nation's greatest track show, the Drake Relays, April 29-30. Before this, however, Berl Huffman's boys will have performed at the Fat Stock Show Meet in Fort Worth March 18-19, and the Texas relays in Austin, April 2.

The team makes its annual trip to Tempe, Arizona, for the Border Conference Meet in May. Too, there is a possibility that the Crimson may enter the Kansas Relays the week before the Drake show.

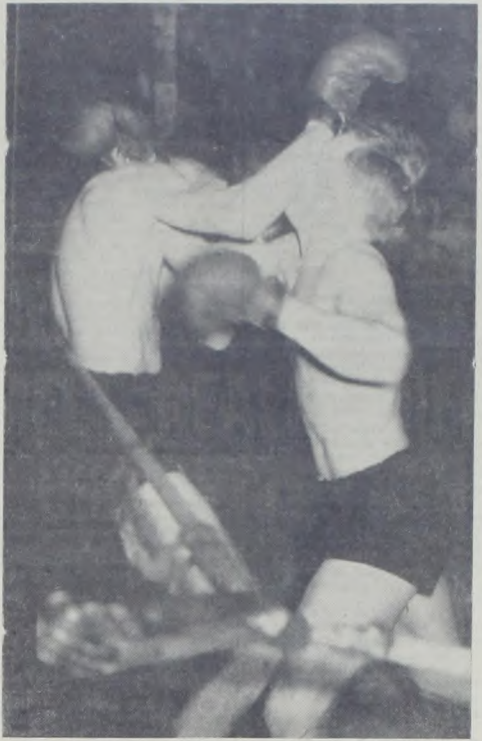

The team has been working out for sometime when the weather permitted. Prospects do not point to a chance that any world records will be broken but several boys are due to make some good showings, railbirds believe. One of the most promising is Marsh Farmer, a letterman from last year's squad. The Fort Worth lad has been working on the hurdles since September and looks good. He will run both high and low hurdles this year.

From football to basketball to track—that might be the success story of Elmer Tarbox, entrant in the low hurdles division. A distance man to wear the speedy shoes of John Case is seen in Hugh Huff. A sophomore from Lubbock, the Huff boy, has been going 'round and 'round the oval since September and should give a good account of himself.

Bobby Holmes, sophomore sprint star is scheduled to demonstrate his turf miracles in the dashes. He is also expected to team with Farmer and Tarbox in the low hurdles. And to completely prove his versatility he is a javelin thrower of no mean ability. Gene Barnett's strong passing arm of pigskin fame is sending the javeling through the ether to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Map Manglers To Enter Invitation Meet In Roswell

TEXAS TECH will box and wrestle.

Announcement of Texas Tech's acceptance to enter the Invitation Boxing and Wrestling tournament sponsored by New Mexico Military Institute March 11, 12 was made recently.

Art Gamble, wrestling coach, and Killer Coffey, Matador moping-mangler memento, will accompany a squad of Red Raider athletes to the Roswell, N. M. meet next week. The bone-bending and puss-pushing crew will number 18 when they board a bus Friday morning for the NMMI meet.

A definite list of boxers had not been received from Coffey last night, but it is believed that he will entrain with much the same squad that fought under Texas Tech's scarlet banner in the District Golden Gloves tournament in February. Rudy Russell is believed to be carded for duties in the flyweight division. Odell Justus or Buck Gregory will don the mittens for welterweight scraps, while Tommy Coals is down for featherweight work.

Pete Nachlinger, the poker-faced pugilist who pumps some of the most deadly, chopping rights seen in Texas Tech, will enter the light-heavy section. Middleweight, light-heavy, and heavyweight contenders for Texas Tech have not been definitely decided upon.

Heavy batter in the grunt and groan division will be Ox Wilson. Topping the list of wrestling entries is Ty Bain, the oval-mapped fish grider from last fall. Bain twists limbs at 175 pounds. Last spring's intramural champion, Jack Carr, is slated for duties in the 165 pound class, while Ed Goughly will wrestle in the 155 pound division.

Billy Schumpert of Portales, is listed as Texas Tech's representative on the 145 pound chart, with Tom Murray fighting in the 135 pound division, and Frank Scott competing the traveling squad. Scott tips the scales at 126 pounds.

Texas Aggies have begun training for defense of their Southwestern conference baseball championship.

Interest Swings From Mug-Mangling Over To Wrestling

WRESTLING, the intramural type, has been scheduled to highlight the campus sports entertainment for the coming week.

Tug and groan artists from the ranks of the social clubs will perform Monday instead of Tuesday, as originally announced with the independent prelims at 8 o'clock Wednesday if present plans are carried out. Plans call for the finals in both boxing and wrestling to be staged next Thursday as an intramural fun night. Dates were revamped so as not to conflict with previously scheduled engagements for the gymnasium.

Preliminaries in the mitt-slinging department were completed for Social and Independent entrants Tuesday and Wednesday nights respectively. The card for the independents lists six contests with five entrants drawing byes. Eleven bone bending encounters with two byes marks the Social prelims as a complete program for the fans. Weighing in for wrestlers of both circuits is scheduled from 4 'til 6 o'clock afternoons before the fights.

Lewis Spears, intramural director, has issued the following pairings for the independents:

- Flyweight: no entrants.
- Bantamweight: Malcolm Smith, Los Ratos.
- Featherweight: Frank Scott, Los Ratos.
- Lightweight: J. P. Kilgore, Main Street.
- Welterweight: Wallace Fields, Los Ratos, vs. Sam Drake, Dorn Fish; Harold Stewart, Main Street, vs. John Chambers, North Plains.
- Middleweight: Clifton Babb, Dorn Fish, vs. Randolph Brantley, North Plains; Harold O. Neal, Main Street, vs. Goughly, Los Ratos.
- Lightweight: E. G. Ralls, Dorn Fish, vs. C. C. Armstrong, Main Street; Carr, Los Ratos, by.

"ARE CAMELS REALLY DIFFERENT FROM OTHER CIGARETTES?"... a question of interest to every smoker

"I've never been very fussy about cigarettes myself. Do you think that Camels are really as different as some people say, Bill?"

"You bet they are different, John! A fellow in any work as hard as selling has to figure a lot of angles on his smoking, such as how it agrees with him. And just notice how many salesmen smoke Camels. I changed to Camels—smoked 'em steady—and I found a distinct difference in the way I enjoyed all-day smoking and in the way I felt. Camels agree with me!"

"YES!" says H. W. DALY, rayon salesman, and millions of other steady smokers too. And that explains why Camels are the largest-selling cigarette in America!

MARITA'S PLANNING a grand feed. "We enjoy entertaining," Marita says. "I like to have plenty of Camels at the table. Camels cheer up one's digestion."

ON WEEK-ENDS, Bill goes in for photography. On week days he "pounds the streets." "I get tired," he says, "but when my energy fails I get a 'lift' with a Camel."

PEOPLE DO APPRECIATE THE COSTLIER TOBACCOS IN CAMELS. THEY ARE THE LARGEST-SELLING CIGARETTE IN AMERICA.

A FRIEND DROPS IN (above) to see Bill's model sloop. Daly passes the Camels and answers a natural question. "That all-cigarettes-are-alike talk doesn't square with my experience. Believe me, steady smoking is the test that shows Camels in a class by themselves. They don't make my nerves edgy."

NEW DOUBLE-FEATURE CAMEL CARAVAN Two great shows—"Jack Oakie College" and Benny Goodman's "Swing School"—in one fast, fun-filled hour. Every Tuesday at 9:30 pm E.S.T., 8:30 pm C.S.T., 7:30 pm M.S.T., 6:30 pm P.S.T., over WABC-Columbia Network.

A KISS FROM MARITA (Mrs. Daly) and Bill is off to his work in the city. The Dalys agree about most things. Among them, Camels. Mrs. Daly smoked them first, noticed a difference. "Now we find Camels agree better with both of us," she says.

District Supervisor Gives Course Of Instruction In Consumer Buying

A course in consumer buying training is being taught in Lubbock Junior High school and Slaton High school by student teachers in home economics under the direction of Miss Esther Screenen, district supervisor of home economics education.

Eighth grade homemaking students study articles which they buy for themselves. Selection of lingerie is discussed with regard to types of material, cut and styles of undergarments, durability, prices, and suitability for junior high school girls. Cotton materials to be used for dresses, shorts, pajamas, and aprons are studied and tested for color fastness and shrinkage. Field trips are made to the different stores in Lubbock to inspect ready-made dresses, undergarments, and sleeping garments.

Girls Buy Food

Some of the grocery buying for the department is done by girls who are learning to be consumers. They study food labels, brands, and advertising and make field trips to acquaint themselves with the kinds of foods on the market, as well as sizes and types of containers and quantities of different food products.

In Slaton High school, tests, investigations, comparisons, and group discussions are centered around buying selection of slippers, shoes, dresses, household linens, and cosmetics. Each girl considers definite points before purchasing articles.

New Training

Training in consumer buying is a comparatively new course in the public schools, this being the first year for the course here. Miss Ruth Huey, state director of homemaking education, has recently sent heads of college homemaking departments, supervisors, and itinerant teacher trainers in the state copies of a letter from Robert Littell, associate editor of Reader's Digest, asking for material in detail about consumer courses offered in Texas. Littell, in his research on consumer education, found some reference to the work being done in this state. He plans to describe the consumer education courses, with regard to textbooks and laboratory tests on articles of common consumption of nationally advertised brands, and the advertising itself.

At the request of Portune, the performance was repeated a second time in order that he might conform his selections. All girls were dressed informally.

A Difficult Task

The tall, thin, keen-eyed judge stated that he was absolutely astonished at the excellent appearance of the entire group. He commented on the physical make-up, facial features, and unusual coiffures, and concluded that the college should be proud that 14 such beautiful young women attended. "The task of selecting 8 was extremely pleasant but decidedly difficult," he said.

Sixteen girls were elected by student vote during January to enter the beauty contest. Those other than the ones selected Wednesday who were elected were: Beverly Sue Smith of Fort Worth, Maxine Fry of Floydada, Bettie Lawrence of Houston, Nancy Anderson of Longview, Elroy Lewis of Wingo of Plainview, Winifred Pinner of Big Spring, and Priscilla Davis of Fort Worth were also elected, but are not in school this term.

Each of the girls will be given a full page in the college yearbook, Marie George, said. Natural color group picture of these girls is on display at Reeves Studio.

Mrs. O. D. Williams, the former Marjorie Scott, 1935 graduate in business administration, visited Lubbock and the campus last week. She now lives in Tulsa, Okla.

In the "heave 'em up and toss 'em away" division is Allen McNeese. He is a sophomore and a weight man of plenty of ability.

This season's excursion into the big time ranks is not a new experience for Huffman. He has journeyed to the Drake Relays for the past two years and his proteges did themselves right proud. for, announced yesterday that miniature silver gloves would be awarded winners of each weight division in the inter-club bouts.

First on Thursday night's card were Alton Hicks, Kemas, and A. P. Clark, Soccil, battling for lightweight honors in the social loop. Clark decided Hicks and won the social lightweight title when Rucy Beard, Wrangler, another eliminations winner, failed to appear.

Tom Copeland, Golden Glover, also fighting under the Soccil banner, swung into the inter-circuit finals with the failure of Ray Nobles, Kemas welterweight, to push his claim to social boxing honors.

Johnny Hatched, Kemas light heavyweight, also went to the money bouts when Troy Pickens, eliminations winner, didn't appear.

Gilbert Decisions Meredith

In the independent bracket, Jesse L. Beene, slinging leather for Los Ratos, made quick work of welterweight opposition when he took a technical kayo in the second round over Sam Drake, Toreador sports writer fighting for the Dormitory Fish.

Coming back to what appeared to be two losing rounds on his bill, Brad Gilbert, Los Ratos middleweight, extended himself in the final frame to decision Hank Meredith, North Plains leather tosser.

Gilbert will meet Ed Morrison, Wrangler and winner of the social middleweight title on bytes in next week's finals.

"Curly" Pharr, North Plains second fighter to go down in Thursday's independent finals, lost a three-round decision to E. G. Rails, spring term enrollee fighting for Dorm Fish.

In the only heavyweight bout of the intramural chase thus far, Frank Green, Main Street, who previously decided Ox Wilson, outpointed "Red" Sharp, the three North Plains man to drop from the finals list. Green is paired with Richard Godeke, Wrangler heavy, who captured the social title with no competition.

Results of the social league eliminations bouts Tuesday night were as follows:

In the curtain raiser Gene Nolte, Silver Key, decision Warren Nobles, Centaur, to take the bantamweight title. "Pinky" Sowell, Silver Key, outpointed Reagan Howell, Kemas, in the featherweight division.

Fighting in the lightweight division, A. P. Clark, Soccil, scored a technical knockout over J. Ross Bell, Centaur, and Rucy Beard, Wrangler, beat Harold Hightower, Silver Key, by the point method.

Scraps in the welterweight set found Ray Nobles, Kemas, taking a decision from Raymond Tapp and Tom Copeland, Soccil Golden Glover, scoring a technical K. O. over Jack Wells, Silver Key, in the second round.

J. H. Brewer, Silver Key flyweight; Ed Morrison, Wranglers; and Richard Godeke, Wrangler heavyweight, all drew byes to the finals.

The eliminations fights for the independent loop, Wednesday night, featured a series of knockouts.

Starting in the lightweight division the first bout ended in the first round when Pete Nachlinger, North Plains, scored a technical kayo over John Bergner, Main Streeters.

In the second scrap of the evening welterweight Jess Beene, Rats, beat Roy Armstrong, Main Street, with a knockout in the first round. Fighting in the middleweight class, Henry Meredith, North Plains, scored a technical knockout in the second round, over Wade Davis, Main Street. In the other middleweight bout Brad Gilbert, Rats, knocked out Clifton Babb, Dorm Fish, in the second round.

Wayne Pharr, North Plains lightweight, decisioned J. T. Singleton, jr., Rats, and Frank Green, Main Street heavyweight, won a decision from Ox Wilson, Rats.

The Coed's Corner

Congratulations are in order for the fair ones chosen as Tech's most beautiful girls. . . congratulations also to the very capable girls chosen to lead the AWS organization next year.

Interesting people on the college payroll — charming Mrs. Eunice Gates, genial Mr. Burgess, friendly Mr. Slagle, energetic Mrs. Louise C. Allen, likeable Dotsy Rylander, attractive Miss Helen Troy Allen.

Since the paragraph last week about an inter-club dance, the rumors and wagers have been flying thick and fast and furious in campus sessions. Some have it that Herbie Kay will be the one selected. This leader is now in Texas with his band and would probably consent to playing for a dance here. There's also the rumor that Anson Weeks will be the one elected to swing the music for Techsters. Some advocate George Olsen, others prefer to "swing and sway with Sammy Kaye." Still others state their choice of the more melodic Wayne King or Kay Kyser. But we (and plenty of others, too) are still pulling for the band that tops the rest, for a maestro of original swing—Benny Goodman!

And speaking of swing, it's THE thing at Tech now. Almost 200 students turned out for the Big Apple demonstration Monday night. The crowd was much larger than the WAA had anticipated and the ones in charge are worrying now about taking care of the large number. This campus has been rather slow in adopting the current feat, the Big Apple. By the time we learn to show chickens, and truck, and all the other childhood games, we'll have to start all over and learn the Shag, which appears to be having its fling on northern camp.
