WHO IS TO BLAME?

Football games provide one of the greatest pastimes in America today. Second only to baseball, they draw thousands of fans annually. So great has the crowds become that most colleges are employing special officers to look after the welfare of the fans whose lives are endangered at different times by pillow-throwers, staggering drunks, and pop bottle-wielders.

This college has special officers to protect the fans that come inside of Tech field. Granting that these men are of the finest calibre among our citizenry, there was an incident that happened at Saturday's game that was as disgraceful to them as it was to the person that tried and successfully resisted their arrest.

There are two sides to the question; the person who resisted arrest was in the wrong; the officers that choked up when he resisted were in the right, but they took an undue advantage of him.

Should we protect our fans from possible harm by persons who can not leave their goggle soup at home, or should we let the law handle them—handle them like they are rightfully supposed to be handled?

NEED FOR A TICKET BOOTH

For the last three years Tech has been playing to capacity crowds on the home field. Most of the tickets that are sold for the games are bought at the ticket booths at the entrance to the field, which are entirely inadequate for the purpose they serve.

In the first place, the booths are only temporary buildings that are not fitted for the sale of tickets. There are no wire nettings on the windows for protection from a would-be stick-up artist, who would not have any trouble in getting the receipts. The doors to both buildings have no locks on them, and the floors have been torn up. The booths are an eyesore to one of the most well-constructed athletic fields in West Texas.

Last year several members of the Chamber of Commerce discussed the possibilities of constructing a perma-ment structure that would take the place of both of the flimsy shanties. Before the end of the year it was revealed that this booth could be constructed at a nominal cost, and that it could be built in accordance with the design of the rest of the campus buildings. It was pointed out that one contractor went so far as to offer the required building materials to build the booth if some public spirited Tech organization would pay the cost of labor.

On the suggestion of the ticket sellers and several students The Toreador writes this need in its editorial columns. It hope that some organization will get down to business and see if they can put a ticket booth at the entrance to our athletic field that will not draw the criticism of the visitors. It may be possible that all the social clubs could merge into one group to accomplish this task. The Senior class of this year would like to leave a gift to the college. Why not investigate the needs of the college before leaving this gift?

CAMPUS CHATTER

Wal, fellers, Ole Mike aint been with you fer sum time. The MANE reason was because there was sum EDITORIAL comment in the kolum an EDITER TRACY decided that Mike was INFRINGING on his RIGHTS. Wal, that might of been so, but that were none of them HOT WRITERS in the TORRIDOR office what would take on thim selves to say sumthin about it, so Mike thought it would be all right to call the STEWDENTS attention to sum things in his writin. It must of been a bad idee.

Sumthin else has happened which is just as bad if not WORSE than what Mike had to say in his other kolums which he is going to mention now. Maybe if the EDITER don't like it, he will write a EDITORIAL about it and leve Mike out agin. It don't make no difference, so long as the thot gits in print.

There was a RUMOR on the kampus not long ago about a organization called the BLACK SHIRTS which was supposed to instill pep and enthusiasm into the stewdents. Wal, the idee is grate and a organization like that on the Kampus could do more good to help bring back the WANING spirit in TECH

Alumni News

If you didn't get back for Home Coming you certainly missed a big time; even the weather was ideal. The day started with registration and greeting old friends at the Lubbock Hotel from 8 until 12. There were approximately 150 alumni and exes at the luncheon.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Scotty Poage and wife of Waco, Texas. Scotty, you remember, was once a yell leader for Tech and is still an enthusiastic booster. And, James F. Denny, Jr., of Paducah, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Schmidt, of Panhandle; Bobbie L. Rhoads of Lorens; W. R. Underwood of Perrytown; Richard Cavett of Southland, Staniel Bagwell of Amarillo; Lloyd Croslin of Colorado; Mary Evelyn Gordon of Big Spring; Marshall Formby of McAdoo; Mr. and Mrs. William Edelman of Sumnerfield, Texas; Yone Stone of Levelland; Jack Camp of Pecos; Carl Pilgrer of Eden; Lynn Gray of Pilgrer of Eden; Lynn Gray of Pilgrer of Eden; J. than anything else. But—when such a organization puts on such a EXHIBITION as they did during the HALF tother day, they should not be allowed to MEET no more. The bunch of ROUGHNECKS what run out on the field, while thim VISITIN gals was puttin on a good show, pulled off the greatest act of DISCOURTESY which Mike has ever saw in his many years in these here parts. In case the YELL LEADERS don't know about it, the visiting folks am supposed to FINISH their act completely, before the HOME products start their KAPERS. Hope the ALUMNI at the game didn't notice it two much.

Wal, we shore had a weak end of it fer HOME COMING. Beginning with that SOOKIE MASK-A-RADE

There are 6 types of home-grown tobaccos that are best for cigarettes

BRIGHT TOBACCO U. S. Types 11, 12, 13, 14.
BURLEY TOBACCO U. S. Type 31.
SOUTHERN MARYLAND TOBACCO U. S. Type 32.

U. S. Type 11 is produced in the Piedmont Belt of Virginia and part of North Carolina.
U. S. Type 12 is produced in eastern North Carolina.
U. S. Type 13 grows in South Carolina.
U. S. Type 14 is produced mostly in southern Georgia—a few million pounds in northern Florida and Alabama.
U. S. Type 31 includes what is called White Burley tobacco. It was first produced by George Webb in 1864. It is light in color and body, and is milder than the Burley used for pipes.
U. S. Type 32, Maryland tobacco, is noted for its "burn". In this respect Maryland excels most other tobaccos.
These are the kinds of home-grown tobaccos used for making Chesterfield Cigarettes.
Then Chesterfield adds aromatic Turkish tobacco to give just the right seasoning or spice.
Chesterfield ages these tobaccos for 30 months—2 1/2 years—to make sure that they are milder and taste better.

Baylor Bears Seek Vengeance Over Tech Men Friday

Morley Jennings Brings Team To Lubbock In Second Fracas In Two Years On Local Field

Under The Double "T"

By LOMER NELSON
Toreador Sports Writer

Pete and "Dutchy's" scarlet-panted Matadors are primed for Bear meat tomorrow after they humbled their arch rivals, the Simmons Cowboys, in the Armistice battle Saturday. The Grizzlies have been gaining power with each game since the season was unveiled in September. Baylor's victory over the powerhouse Texas Longhorns means that the Waco school is a formidable foe.

The Gold and Green Bruins will be out for blood against the Mats tomorrow. The 14-0 defeat the Scarlets handed them last year on Tech field still rankles in their minds. Baylor and Tech have never been the best of friends, athletically speaking, largely because of the influence wielded by Jinx Tucker, the dean of Central Texas sports writers. When the Techsters journeyed to Waco a couple of years ago to dispute the Baylor grid supremacy, the two elevens almost came to blows, and a barrage of accusations was hurled across the state for many months afterward.

STRINGER'S GREAT TO
When Aubrey Stringer, brilliant soph halfback, booted a three-pointer from the 20-yard line in the last minute of play against the Texas Longhorns Saturday, he put the Bears back in the conference race. Baylor also boasts of a victory over Texas Christian. The Baptist school dropped a heart-breaker to the loop-leading Arkansians a few weeks ago. All things considered, the Scarlet and Black is in for a very strenuous afternoon tomorrow, with the hope inclined to swing a little toward the Gold and Green.

Tech evened up matters somewhat with Simmons in the annual homecoming feud. Although the score was not very impressive, the Cowhounds had something besides a "pass, a punt and a prayer." They were playing Texas Tech which meant more to the Ranchers than if they had been snatching wits with the Trojans of Southern California. The deep-rooted hatred the two rivals nurse for each other was exemplified in every tackle, plunge, punt and push.

PETE IS PLEASED
Although the score was low, Coach Cavithon was well pleased with the result and even congratulated the Matadors after the grudge skirmish. The Mats dished out some new plays and formations. Fans were pleased with the way the Tech men snapped out of their new huddle with military precision.

Coach Dell Morgan's rambling Picadors, inactive for the past two weeks, are seething with impatience, to get into action again. And what's more they don't want a "breather." A rough, tough, steam-rolling outfit is desired. Dell says the frosh are so cocky that they have threatened to cancel an engagement with the University of New Mexico yearlings here Nov. 24, for fear that they are set-ups. The slimes are unanimous in saying that none but the best need apply.

Baylor Boys Feel Confident As Texas And Texas Christian U. Are Bumped In Race For Flag In Southwest

BY LAWRENCE MESSERSMITH
Fresh from defeating Texas 3 to 0 last Saturday, the Baylor Golden Bears will arrive in Lubbock today for the game with Tech tomorrow at Tech field.

The Bruins, who on the last two week-ends have played the "giant killers" role, are beginning to show the form that the majority of the Southwest conference coaches predicted them to have earlier in the season. Two weeks ago the Bears took the Horned Frogs of TCU into camp to the tune of 7 to 0, and last week defeated the favored Longhorns on the latter's home field.

Heavy Team
Baylor boasts the most outstanding material in the Southwest conference. There are twenty men on the squad that weigh around 200 pounds on the average. The team that Tech played last year are giving some of their positions away to sophomores; however, there are enough veteran regulars to give a smooth working team. At end, Baylor has two of the outstanding wingmen of the conference in James and Peity. Clark and Weathers are two towering tackles that have dealt misery to the opposing backfields this year, and Clem and co-captain Norton are stellar guards. Cloyd, sophomore center, is one of the shining lights of "that good old Baylor line."

The 1933 pigskin season is about ready to sing its swan song but the Matadors face their two toughest assignments in Morley Jennings Baylor Bears and "BO" McMullin's Kansas Aggies. Led by "Rambling Ralph" Graham, who received All-American mention last season, the Farmers swept over the Iowa State cyclone, 7-0, Saturday at Ames. Kansas State is firmly entrenched in second place in the Big Six conference, giving way only to Dana X. Bible's Nebraska Cornhuskers. It looks bad for the Matadors Turkey day.

You may not know it, but—The Matadors have tallied 125 points to 30 for the opposition. . . . The quarterback used to wear handles on his trousers. . . . a couple of burly teammates would pick him up and fling him over the line of scrimmage for the necessary yardage. Forest Peters of the University of Montana kicked 17 field goals in one game in 1924. . . . all seventeen were drop-kicks. . . .

with any team. John Williams, sophomore fullback, was thought to have broken a rib in the TCU game, but an x-ray revealed that the bone is not broken and the plunger is likely to see service in the game tomorrow.

Many Reserves
Besides these men, Coach Morley Jennings has an abundance of reserve material that are capable of taking care of themselves in a game

What A Game! Society Writer Sees Crooshul Game

The Toreador won a basketball game Monday night by the score of 29 to 10. They won from the Rockne Hall bunch and did they get hot? They were so hot that they finally had to take the baskets off the back board to keep them from ringing up too many. "Standing Forward" Holmes, "Standing guard" Watson, and "Running Center" Hale were out standing men on the paper quintet. Hale's sensational shots were marvelous. The guard work of Watson will probably win for him All-American honors this year. Just after the first kick-off, (I mean Tip-off) the Reporters got going and never stopped except for time-out 31 times. They expect to go thru the season undefeated this year and win the National Tournament at Chicago this season.

Ransom Walker, known as "Hansome Ransom," former halfback at Tech, drove over seven hundred miles from Mission, Texas, to attend the home-coming game here last Saturday.

HELP THE HILTON HOTEL WELCOME OUR VISITORS FRIDAY -- BAYLOR BEARS SATURDAY -- PAMPA HARVESTERS

FRANK CARR'S HOLLYWOOD ORCHESTRA PLAYING NOON AND DINNER CONCERTS DAILY BIG DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT THE HILTON HOTEL

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO BE A CHAMPION BRONK RIDER!

RIDE 'EM COWBOYS! Every second is crowded with danger for Eddie Woods, twice all-round cowboy champion at the famous Calgary Stampede. It sure takes healthy nerves to stay on board a fighting bronk! "Camels are my smoke," says Eddie Woods. "They never jangle my nerves."

"OUT ON THE RANCH I became devoted to riding and smoking Camels. Even if I am not in the championship class I need healthy nerves. And Camels do not upset my nerves. They are the mildest cigarette I know!"

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

Eddie Woods, one of the "top hands" of the cowboy world, says: "Ten seconds on the back of an outlaw horse is about the hardest punishment for a man's nerves that anybody can imagine. To have nerves that can take it, I smoke only Camels. I've tried them all, but Camels are my smoke! They have a natural mildness, and I like their taste better. Most important of all, Camels do not jangle my nerves, even when I light up one Camel after another."

If you are nervous... inclined to "fly off the handle"... change to Camels. Your own nerves and taste will confirm the fact that this milder cigarette, made from costlier tobaccos, is better for steady smoking.

Ko Shari Club Are Hostesses

Two Entertainments Given At Homes Of Patronesses Friday And Saturday; Alumni Return For Week-End

Ko Shari club members were hostesses on two occasions during the past home coming week end. Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. E. L. Robertson, 1902 Broadway, club patronesses and other town women called for tea between the hours of 5 until 6:30 o'clock. Saturday afternoon following the football game between Tech and Simmons, the club members entertained for alumnae members and dates with a tea dance from 6 until 8:30 o'clock in the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. Matadors Win Over Cowboys With 7-0 Count

Dowell And Butts Star For Tech In Homecoming Tilt; Cowhands Put Up Stubborn Resistance

By LOMER NELSON

Armistice day failed to effect a truce between Texas Tech and Simmons university and the traditional feud of these two rivals blazed anew as the Matadors gained a 7-0 verdict over the Cowboys before 6,500 homecoming fans Saturday.

The staunch line play of both teams coupled with a varied running and passing attack featured the melee. Doped to win by a wider margin, the Scarlet met with stubborn resistance from the Buckaroo forward wall. Mate and Ranchers battled on fairly even terms throughout the contest, but the Tech men held the upper hand in nearly every department of play. Tech chalked up 185 yards from scrimmage and 13 first downs as against 160 yards and nine first downs for the Baptists.

The Matadors rained the air with long passes, spot passes, and laterals to roll up 91 yards via the aerial route. The Punchers' air raid was squelched, completing only one toss for eight yards. Six of the for long returns.

Smart Quarterback

By playing the full hour, calling a good "heads up" game, and by turning in a brilliant game on the defense, Joe Jack Pearce, Baylor quarterback, continued to make himself conspicuous as a possible all-conference back. Pearce is one of the finest passers in this circuit, is a good punter, a great ball carrier, and is a hard, sure tackler. Aubrey Stringer, sophomore halfback, performed a feat that will place him in football's all time hall of fame when he booted that ball between the posts from an exceedingly difficult angle in the final 30 seconds of the game. That goal gave Coach Jennings his first win over Texas since 1926, and was the first score the Golden Grizzlies have chalked up against the Longhorns since 1927.

This week Coach Jennings is pointing his charges for the Tech battle, though it will have no bearing on the conference status of the Bears. The Grizzlies are expected to uncork a game consisting mostly of running plays, punctuated with occasional forward passes against the Matadors.

Cowboy heaves were intercepted. The opening quarter was aging when the Cawthonsmen rang up seven points on the score board. From their own 28-yard stripe, the Bullfighters launched a 72-yard drive that culminated in a touchdown. The ball totting of "Mule" Dowell and "Bear" Curfman, and the two aerials from Dowell to "Preacher" Butts placed the oval on the Cowboys' 1-yard mark. At this point the invaders staged a spirited goal line stand. On the fourth down Dowell cracked the line off left guard on a spinner for the counter. Gaines Davis converted the extra point and the scoring was ended for the day.

Tech knocked again at Simmons' door in the second frame but was refused admittance. After a "Whacker" Barton had intercepted a Cowboy pass on the Tech 23, Dowell, Butts, and Curfman advanced the leather to the Punchers' last chalk line, and the big fullback laced but inches of plunging over for a tally.

Simmons' most serious scoring gesture came in the third chapter when the mercury-footed Guy Creighton gained the Tech 22-yard line after being assisted by Carl Pee and Gene McCullum. Curfman stopped the march when he intercepted a Cowboy pass and brought it to the Simmons 44-yard line where he was dropped by Dee To "Mule" Dowell, line-ramming halfback from Royce City, and Aubrey Butts, when the backfield honors for Tech. The former gained much yardage and the latter turned in an all-around good game. Curfman also showed to advantage.

Tech Line Holds
The entire Matador line performed creditably, time after time jamming up plays. Captain Elva Baker "Whacker" Barton, Bennie McWilliams, and Gaines Davis all looked good in the Tech line. "Moon" Martin, versatile wingman, staged his customary act of playing in the other team's backfield.

Yancy Price, fleet Tech fullback, was carried off the field in the last period with a head injury which may keep him from seeing service in the Baylor go.

Baylor's Cubs Meet Marshall

"Jim" Crow And His Tough Crew Of Bearlets Go Against Undefeated Junior College Eleven At Waco Today

WACO, Texas, Nov. 15—Coach Floyd "Jim" Crow will send his Baylor freshman football eleven against its second foe of the season here Thursday when the College of Marshall Tigers, coached by Clarence Hamel, invade the Waco Cotton Palace.

The Cubs go against an undefeated junior college team in the Bengals from Marshall. This season they have tied the Centenary frosh, beaten Lamar Junior college, the team that turned in a 71-0 victory over Blynn Memorial, and last Saturday the White and Gold team whipped Lon Morris.

Coach Crow's eleven is also undefeated, but it has gone into battle but once, beating the Weatherford Junior College Coyotes on a muddy field, 25-12. The Bearlets have a capable field general and a sensational broken field runner in Lloyd Russell, of Oak Cliff. They have two more backs of rare ability in Bob Masters of Comanche, and Sonny Bartosh, Granger. In the line John D. Reynolds, Waco, Aubrey Jones and William Barclay, Lufkin, Dan McGlasson and Foster Coleman, Waco.

Thursday is the last time the Cubs will appear in Waco this fall, as they go to Bryan for their closing contest of the season, in which they play Allen Academy. The Marshall game is being financed by the Waco Junior Chamber of Commerce and all excess profits will go to the Baylor student loan fund.

Matadors May Meet Trouble For Bruin Go

Baylor Squad All Pepped Up In Two Upsets; Jennings Points Toward Lubbock Game As Crucial Contest

WACO, Texas, Nov. 15—After upsetting T. C. U. and Texas in two consecutive weeks, Coach Morley Jennings' Baylor Bears are still determined to go places in the 1933 flag chase, in spite of the fact that they dropped their first two conference battles to Arkansas and Texas A. and M.

This week the Golden Bears are slated to encounter their last non-conference opponent of the season Friday afternoon the Grizzlies will take their stand against Texas Tech in Lubbock. In 1932 the Matadors sent Baylor home on the short end of a 14-2 score. After the Tech battle the Bruins meet S. M. U. in Dallas Nov. 25, and return home to face Rice on Carroll Field Dec. 2.

Bears Uninjured
All the Baylor squad emerged from the Texas scrap without a serious injury and will be ready to send its full strength against Pete Cawthon's eleven in Lubbock, although it is probable that the Bruin mentor will use a number of sophomores, saving the regulars for the more important battles with the Ponies and Owls. Co-Captain Dub Norton and Warren Weathers, linemen, had to be removed from the game, but their injuries are not considered serious.

Aside from the educated toe of Aubrey Stringer, the Bears owe their victory over Texas to their line. Co-Captain Frank James and Jim Tom Petty, ends, and Weathers led the way by getting through time after time to throw the Steer backs for losses. These three men also went down on punts and kept the Longhorn backs from getting away
