

Jester, Rainey Gird For Runoff Battle

"Just Begun To Fight," Rainey Says; Jester Thanks Friends For Help

By The Associated Press Both Beauford Jester and Homer Price Rainey, assured of places in the runoff ballots for the governorship of Texas, were confident of winning the second primary in August, and have begun to lay plans for conducting their campaigns.

GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATES FACE RUN-OFF: (Left) Beauford Jester, Corsicana lawyer and state railroad commissioner, and (Right) Homer P. Rainey, Austin, deposed president of the University of Texas, are shown in characteristic poses in conducting primary campaigns for governor. Jester, with 376,964 votes, led a field of 12 men, and Rainey was second, polling 239,124 votes, in the latest tabulations of the Texas Election Bureau at 10:30 this morning. Both men have expressed confidence of victory in the August 24 second primary. (AP Wirephoto).

Bidault Calls On 21 Nations To Abolish War

Named Provisional Chairman At US Delegate's Motion

PARIS, July 29 (AP) — The 21-nation peace conference, convened formally in Luxembourg Palace more than a year after the end of the second World War in Europe, was summoned by President Georges Bidault of France today to abolish "the plague of war."

Addressing the 1,500 delegates of the victorious allies on behalf of the host nation, Bidault pleaded:

"The long suffering peoples of the world today look to you. If we cannot get complete peace solutions, I hope that at least we will get reasonable ones."

In an apparent reference to the United States and Russia, Bidault said that whatever blame could be attached to the failure to keep the peace after the first World War, a "fundamental cause of that failure was that the two great powers who had taken a decided part in the conquest of arms remained on the sidelines during the solution of peace."

"The hopes of plain men are turned toward us today," he said, concluding his 10-minute, slowly spoken speech. Bidault was then named provisional chairman of the conference on the motion of US Secretary of State James B. Byrnes.

McIntosh Dies; San Antonio Light Publisher

SAN ANTONIO, July 29 (AP) — William McKay McIntosh, 70, Publisher of The San Antonio Light, died Monday morning in Toronto General (Ontario) Hospital.

He went to Canada last week for a operation. Friday when it was reported he was making satisfactory progress. News of his death was received from his wife, Mrs. Clara McIntosh, who was with him. Services will be held Wednesday in Stratford, Ontario, his birthplace.

On Sept. 15, 1924, McIntosh came to San Antonio from Fort Worth and took charge of the Light. He was one of the few publishers of a Hearst newspaper with such a record of continuous service.

Born March 13, 1876, in Stratford, Ontario, of strict Presbyterian parentage, the genial Scotsman learned in early life the principles that followed him throughout his career. Himself a super-salesman, McIntosh insisted on but two principles in hiring employees—first that the employe conduct himself or herself as a gentleman or a lady and second, that the employe always display loyalty to the paper.

Senate Group Approves OPA Board Nominees

WASHINGTON, July 29 (AP) — The Senate Banking Committee today unanimously approved President Truman's three nominees for the new price de-control board.

The committee's action sent to the Senate for its consideration, possibly today but more likely tomorrow, these nominations: Roy L. Thompson, president of the Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, as chairman of the de-control board; Daniel W. Bell, former Treasury undersecretary, and George H. Mead, Dayton, O., paper company executive, as members.

Meanwhile, Mr. Truman arranged to confer (at 3:15 p. m. Eastern Standard time) with Mead, Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters.

Ross added, in response to questions, that all three nominees have told Mr. Truman they will accept the appointments.

Thompson will arrive tomorrow to meet with Mead and Bell. In creating the board with top authority over removal and restoration of price controls, Congress stipulated that no more than two appointees should be members of the same political party. Mead is a republican and Thompson a democrat. Bell says he has no party affiliation.

Miller Appears To Win Appellate Race In District

New associate justice of the 11th civil appeals bench at Eastland will be E. J. Miller of Brownwood, it appeared on the basis of returns collected from the large district at noon Monday.

Miller had an unofficial total of 39,366, nearly 5,000 more than his opponent, A. S. Mauzey of Sweetwater, whose total was 34,840. Reportedly the largest block of untabulated votes was in Comanche county, where Miller had piled up a commanding lead. It was estimated that about 4,500 ballots were still unaccounted for.

Miller would replace Courtney Gray, who was not a candidate for reelection.

The Brownwood candidate topped the ticket in Baylor, Brown, Callahan, Coleman, Comanche, Dawson, Eastland, Erath, Haskell, Knox, Palo Pinto, Shackelford, Stephens, Stonewall and Throckmorton.

Counties giving Mauzey a lead included Borden, Fisher, Howard, Jones, Mitchell, Nolan, Scurry and Taylor.

Long Range Housing Bill Appears Lost If Congress Quits

WASHINGTON, July 29 (AP) — Administration leaders virtually abandoned hope today for passage of the Wagner-Ellender-Taft long range housing bill at the present session of congress.

Chairman Spence (D-Ky) told newsmen after a closed door session of the banking committee:

"I think you can say we have given up hope, if congress goes through with its plan to adjourn Friday."

Shortly before, Speaker Rayburn told President Truman the house would consider the bill — provided the banking committee sent it to the floor.

Blount And Barnes In Close Heat; To Fight It Out In Second Vote

Tax Post, Commission Seats Still Undecided

Howard county voters will turn their attention in the August primary election to runoff for the county tax collector-assessor's post and three seats in the county commissioners' court.

John F. Wolcott, incumbent, will have R. B. Hood as an opponent for the tax collector-assessor's job. In polling 2267 votes Saturday, he led Hood by 1020 votes. W. C. (Charley) Stovall, third man in the race, finished with a 1225 total.

In the commissioners' races, incumbents will face strong opposition in all three races. In Precinct One, Walter Long polled 277 votes and led the present office-holder, J. E. (Ed) Brown by 25 votes. E. L. Roman was a lagging third.

H. T. (Thad) Hale was in front of a six-man field in Precinct Two with 368 but was only 47 votes ahead of G. E. (Red) Gilliam. A total of 1438 votes went to the polls in that precinct.

Grover Blissard led the present commissioner, R. L. "Pancho" Nall by 75 votes in the Precinct Three race while R. F. Bluhm, the other candidate, was far off the pace.

Earl Hull, present Precinct Four commissioner, beat his only foe, Monroe Johnson, by 183 votes in that contest.

Qualified to take office next January 1 without further challenge are Cecil C. Collins, district judge; Martelle McDonald, district attorney; Walton Morrison, county clerk; George Choate, district school superintendent; Walter Grice, justice of peace; J. T. Thornton, constable; and Ralph Baker, county surveyor; all of whom had no opposition in the first primary; and R. L. (Bob) Wolf, sheriff; George Thomas, county attorney; and Mrs. Ida Collins, county treasurer, who won in two-men races.

Results of the election will be canvassed later this week, probably Saturday, by the election board.

Stevenson Predicts Victory For Jester

AUSTIN, July 29 (AP) — Gov. Coke Stevenson predicted today that Dr. Homer Price Rainey, former president of the University of Texas, will get no more votes for governor in the Aug. 24 runoff than he did in the primary last Saturday.

The governor, at odds with Rainey for several years, said he was considering the fact that a somewhat lighter vote is ordinarily cast in Texas run-offs than in primaries.

Belden Matches Poll Predictions With Final Vote

DALLAS, July 29—Enroute to the first national conference of pollsters at Denver, Joe Belden, Texas Poll director, Sunday had this to say about Saturday's primary:

"Although by this time (Sunday morning) only a fraction of the vote was counted, every trend predicted by the Texas Poll was being borne out but with a single exception.

1. The Poll predicted flatly that Jester and Rainey would be in the runoff. No doubt now that this will be true. 2. The poll predicted flatly that Shivers and House would be in the lieutenant-governor's runoff, so close it was impossible to pick a leader. To date Shivers has a slight edge. 3. The poll estimated that Neff and Daniel would be in a close race for attorney general with Neff ahead. Returns are showing the two candidates in a photo-finish.

Belden recalled his final report to newspapers stated, "Since the poll was finished three days before election, any last-minute shifts in vote may alter the figures as published." The poll had indicated a remarkable trend favoring Jester, although the final survey had Rainey still leading at the time the poll was taken, July 20-24.

"Jester has forged ahead in the counting," said Belden. "His upswing, which tripled his support in about two months, apparently continued right up to election day after the poll was finished. Also to be considered is the 13 per cent which was undecided when the poll was completed. Most of these people seem to have gone for Jester. We will wait until every vote is counted before deciding on accuracy of the poll."

Officials Predict 1,215,000 Votes Cast In Election

By The Associated Press Election bureau officials, after the 10:30 a. m. tabulations, today predicted that the Saturday vote will total 1,215,000. In the governor's race, 945,722 votes have been counted, with Beauford Jester leading with 38.7 per cent and Homer Rainey second with 24.5, to be in the runoff.

At least three other state races will be held in the August runoff campaigns, for lieutenant governor, commissioner of agriculture and judge of the court of criminal appeals.

State Senator Allan Shivers of Port Arthur was leading Boyce House of Fort Worth by approximately 65,000 votes, but the vote was split by three other candidates.

Ten Persons Missing In Collision Of Mississippi River Ferry, Barge

CARUTHERSVILLE, Mo., July 29 (AP)—The muddy Mississippi river was searched today for the bodies of at least ten persons, possibly more, who were believed to have perished in the collision of a ferry boat and two oil laden barges near here.

Thirteen other occupants of the ferry were saved after the flat boat overturned, dumping at least five vehicles and their passengers into the waters.

The accident occurred at 9:20 p. m. last night 50 yards from the Missouri shore as the ferry neared completion of its crossing from the Tennessee side.

One was known dead, Jerry Vickers, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Vickers, Jr., of Caruthersville died after he was brought to shore.

A brother, Larry, 6, is among the ten missing. His parents were saved. Also missing are: Jesse Guy of Caruthersville, ferry boat deckhand, and Mrs. Guy, who boarded the boat with his supper. L. L. Green of Caruthersville, floated down the river.

Farrell Sentenced; Seeks New Trial

BOSTON, July 29 (AP) — Army Lieut. Thomas Farrell today was sentenced to three to five years in state prison for branding 18-year-old Helen Stavrou, but sentence was stayed after defense counsel announced he would appeal to the state supreme court.

Farrell, who served 35 missions in the Pacific, was released on bail set at $15,000 in cash or $20,000 surety.

The 25-year-old decorated army flier was sentenced in Suffolk superior court specifically to three concurrent terms of three to five years on charges of assault and battery with a lighted cigarette, with a razor blade and assault with intent to maim, cripple and disfigure.

Farrell, wearing his army uniform and decorations, showed no emotion as he heard sentence. Judge Edward Voke denied a motion for a new trial.

Farrell's attorney, Herbert F. Callahan, declared a man who said "his conscience was bothering him" telephoned him the day the case went to the jury and said he saw Miss Stavrou cut herself with a knife on the arm and hand until she drew blood.

Vacationers In Tire Plants Hold Up Shipments To Creighton Company

Workers in tire manufacturing plants are taking their vacations just as other people are at this season, which probably is one reason passenger car tire shipments to retailers have not increased appreciably during the summer months, Charlie Creighton, manager of the Creighton Tire Company, 203 West 3rd, said today.

However, for this same reason, the Seiberling company has indicated that more passenger car tires will be available in September, Creighton said, since full production is expected to be reached by then for the first time since the war. Creighton reminded that the task of providing new tires now is much greater than before the war. In 1942 statistics showed that approximately eight million passenger cars needed new tires, while today the figure is set at 24 million.

Creighton's has a good supply of tires now for large trucks and tractors, and the company maintains a complete stock of all types of wheels and rims.

Increased shipments of radios, lawn mowers and other items, all distributed by Seiberling, also are being received regularly at Creighton's. The stock of Seiberling batteries currently available is believed adequate to meet demand.

Creighton, who is assisted in the management of the company by his brother, Reuben, offers motorists a complete line of Magnolia gasolines and oils, and washing and greasing is a specialty.

Accidents Pushing Up Insurance Rate, Gibbs Warns Texas

AUSTIN, July 29 (AP) — J. P. Gibbs, Texas Casualty Insurance Commissioner, warns that Texas' increasing traffic accidents are pushing automobile insurance rates to alarming proportions.

Gibbs said that traffic accidents for the first six months of this year are 44 per cent higher than for a similar period last year and declared that his prepared radio speech that increased insurance rates would cost the injured public an additional six million dollars this year.

He said that reduction of insurance costs depends on Texas' becoming more conscious of the traffic accident situation that exists today.

"You must work objectively with others on specific programs to reduce accidents, and scrupulously observe the rules yourself," said the casualty insurance commissioner.

Postal exchange between the Soviet Union and foreign countries is almost four times the pre-war figure and mail connections are maintained with more than 80 countries.

These items will be increased in the future.

Assault May Have Strained Leg Muscle

CHICAGO, July 29 (AP)—Trainer Max Hirsch suggested today that the champion Assault may have strained a leg muscle while finishing last in the Arlington Classic, which a claimer, the Dude, won in one of the greatest upsets of the 18 year history of the race.

"Assault acted like he pulled or strained a muscle in his right hind quarters and that is maybe why he didn't respond to Jockey Warren Mehrtens Saturday," Hirsch remarked.

In the commissioners races, Kyle Shoemaker was returned in No. 1 over Lynn White, 359 to 200; Earl McCorkle lost to Ed Bloomer in No. 2 by 196 to 204; Otto Bearden continued in No. 3 with 119 to 99 for Sam Cox; and Joe Frohman polled 259 against 113 for P. O. Hughes in No. 4.

MONTGOMERY WARD

Let Justice Be Under The Law

Rumors connected with the case of William Heirens, indicted in some of the most heinous slayings in Chicago history, present a matter of general concern.

It has been reported that there is a "deal" afoot to offer life imprisonment to the accused youth in return for a confession. District Attorney Touhy repeatedly has denied this and more recently he has said he would take such a proposal "under consideration."

Of course, nothing that is said or done in these parts will have the remotest effect on what is done in this case, but it does appear that it would be bad judgment to accept any such "deal." Admittedly, the state is anxious to clear up these slayings and a confession might be the surest and easiest way. On the other hand, it will be better to take the chance of proving a case without having to compromise position and take the chance that a jury will convict.

In the final analysis, it should not be within the desire or power of a state's attorney to make such deals. To be sure, he can recommend, but the choice belongs to the jury.

It may be argued that there is question whether the accused is a psychopathic case and thus a confession would get around this hurdle. Again this is a point for regular procedure to settle, and if he is found to be sane, vigorous prosecution should follow.

Atomic Power Undetermined

It is yet too early for military men and scientists to make anything like an accurate appraisal of the second atomic bomb test, but this much is clear, the bomb remains unquestionably the most destructive force yet fashioned by man.

Admiral Blandy has ventured that the bomb is extremely effective within half a mile radius. It is probable, he says, that men on deck would have been killed outright at the time of the underwater explosion or would have died later from its effects.

This seems to be about the effective radius of the bomb which was exploded above the target fleet off Bikini, indicating that it is a diabolically potent force any way you take it.

Careful analysis of results in both test cases will tell much about the atom bomb that has not been known before. But the thing which should be borne constantly in mind about the atomic bomb is that the employment of atomic energy is not even yet in its infancy. Before reaching conclusions on its place in world history, thinking on the subject should be projected for many years.

VACATION TIME

Broadway—Jack O'Brian

Beauty And The Ballot

NEW YORK—When Billy Rose started using his advertising space in the New York newspapers to indulge a whim to become a columnist, he devoted one of his "advertisements," as he calls them, to a list of his 10 favorite women, or, as Rose noted in his own peculiar Broadway patois, the nation's "10 top temperature raisers."

When Bantam Billy asked his readers to send in their own choices of 10 each, he expected maybe a few hundred at most. But he also offered as a prize a champagne dinner at his glamorous sub-basement, the Diamond Horseshoe, and the result was 22,000 selections.

Billy's contest ended with 536 women splitting what amounted to 22,000 votes, since each letter included 10 choices. The winners were Lana Turner, Rita Hayworth, Ingrid Bergman, Gene Tierney, Betty Grable, Esther Williams, Hedy Lamarr, Jane Russell, Maureen O'Hara and Ann Sheridan, in that order.

Choices ranged from Cleopatra to Eleanor Roosevelt, from Annabella to Vera Zorina, from Mrs. John Jacob Astor to Kate Smith. Lana Turner scored 9,586 votes, beating out Rita Hayworth by 2,056. Runners-up were Marie (the Body) McDonald, Eleanor Holm (Mrs. Billy Rose), Linda Darnell, Lucille Ball and Lena Horne.

Rose's own list included his wife, Eleanor Holm of backstroke and champagne note, who he sheepishly suggested was included because he feared he would be henpecked if he left her out.

"One of the most amazing things about the lists," Billy said, "was that more than 2,000 writers included their own wives on the lists, just as I did, which is a pretty fair commentary on the opinions of wives as compared

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Peace Dreams Tinged With War Fear

(Editor's Note: Drew Pearson is now in Paris, covering the peace conference. This is the first of a series of columns diagnosing one of the most important peace conferences in history.)

ENROUTE TO PARIS—Today in the palace of Luxembourg begins the conference on which so many mothers set their hearts, for which so many mothers' sons gave their lives—the conference to win the peace.

Some 13,000,000 men in the American armed forces alone fought four long years—with the hope that it might be the last time human beings would have to go through the terrible ordeal of war.

Today in Paris comes the climax of their dreams, and already disillusionment has begun to set in. Already the dreams are tinged with nightmare—the spectre of another war.

Here are some of the distressing facts this conference has to face in trying to chart the peace of the world:

1. Historians criticized Woodrow Wilson because he was slow in negotiating peace. But he got started two months after the armistice and finished six months later, a total of eight months after the war. In contrast, it is now almost one year after the armistice with Japan and fifteen months after the armistice with Germany, yet the final peace conference is only getting started.

2. The longer peace is delayed, the more the Allies fall out; the more the other nations forget their gratitude. So the longer the delay, the harder it is to negotiate a permanent peace.

3. Russia has deliberately endeavored to postpone the peace. This conference could have been held long ago if the Soviet had not said no.

Russian Delay Tactics Planned

Moscow's delay tactics were by no means accidental. They were carefully planned, and with three motives behind them:

a. The longer peace was delayed the more time Russia got to nail down its hold on the Balkan satellites—Hungary, Austria, Anti-Russian factions had to be stamped out; pro-Russian factions trained to carry on. This could not be done overnight.

b. The more uncertainty and unrest occurred in the non-Soviet occupied countries—France, Belgium, the Netherlands—the greater the likely growth of communism. Unrest breeds communism, and the spread of communism is one great aim of Moscow.

c. Finally, Moscow did not want the Red armies converging back to Russia. There wasn't food to feed them, and their quick return risked economic, even political, turnovers. So they were left to live off foreign countries; and as long as no peace treaty was signed, armies of occupation were justified.

Thus, ever since V-J day, Russia has been the greatest obstacle to early peace.

Americans Not Blameless

In this peace conference, however, not everything is black or white. There is some gray shading in between.

And in real fact, American diplomacy during the early stages of this greatest of all diplomatic endeavors, was just as guilty of sabotaging the peace as the Russians—perhaps more so. I say more so, because we pride ourselves on being more advanced, more alert, more idealistic.

Yet actually, our diplomats for peace as the army and navy were for war at Pearl Harbor. When it should have been ready for the most important peace offensive in the history of the world, the state department was caught completely napping.

Congress has spent several months of intensive study to ascertain who was responsible for Pearl Harbor; yet no one has lifted a finger to probe the equally important disaster of our unpreparedness for peace.

If senators probed the files of the state department, however, or even their own files, significant facts would come to light. Senator Wiley of Wisconsin, for instance, has in his files a letter from the Secretary of State Hull dated Oct. 21, 1942, declining to give his views on world cooperation. The real fact was that Hull had not even begun to think about the vital task of winning the main objective of the war—world peace—and he could not answer Wiley's letter.

State department files will also reveal interesting insight into the most important factor before the present Paris conference—the presence of little nations.

Their attendance is one of the most important victories achieved by Jimmie Byrnes. He had to use all his persuasive charm plus threats to pin down Russia's Molotov on a full-fledged peace conference with the little nations present.

Yet back in 1943, state department files will show that Roosevelt and Churchill had ok'd a comprehensive plan for world peace worked out by the then Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles calling for the participation of smaller nations. They have most to lose by war, most to win by peace, argued Welles, and usually are to be found backing the United States.

FDR and Churchill backed Welles up but later, when Cordell Hull took his famous trip to Moscow, the Welles plan was drastically amended. The little nations were dropped. Perhaps this was because of Hull's antipathy for anything authored by Sumner Welles. Perhaps it was Russian aversion, even then—to the smaller nations.

But at that time, we had the diplomatic whip hand over Russia as we never have had since. Russia needed us more than we needed her. We were in a position to bargain. Mr. Hull, however, surrendered this important point.

Presence of Little Nations Important

Later the White House issued a public statement aimed at bringing the smaller nations back into the picture. But it was too late. Not until today, as all the Allies sit down at the conference table,

Social Welfare Plans For 1947

By PAUL BOLTON

AUSTIN, July 25—The association which has been very successful in its legislative campaigns for social welfare betterment has laid out its 1947 legislative program.

It is the Texas Social Welfare association, which has spearheaded the campaign for more social welfare legislation ever since it was established more than 40 years ago.

For 1947, it has decided to concentrate its efforts in four major fields, but it will cooperate with other organizations in subsidiary fields, giving what help it can.

The four major objectives are:

1. Elimination of the $35,000-000 ceiling on funds allocated to public assistance and the appropriation of separate funds for the administration of public welfare. The $35,000,000 ceiling was accepted by the association in 1945 as the only way it could get the legislature to increase old age assistance maximums to $40 a month. The appropriation of separate funds for administration is based on this reasoning: As it is now, the Department of Public Welfare must keep elaborate and costly time records on each of its field workers' time, in order to charge the right part of it to each of the three separate administration funds now in use. Since work with dependent children takes much more time than work with the needy blind or the aged, administration of this type is more costly and confusing than having one fund from which all three programs would be administered.

2. Establishment of a school of social work at the University of Texas. This is a major plank, simply because the state law requires that graduate social workers be employed on the state welfare jobs in many instances. There is not now any state school in Texas where such training can be had. Thus, many of these jobs are now being filled by out-of-state people.

3. Improvement of the laws regarding adoptions, guardianships, and licensing laws relative to children, with adequate appropriations for the administration of those laws. Texas laws on children have long been loose and lax, and as a result, the present wave of juvenile delinquency has developed with no adequate means of handling it.

4. The establishment of an adequate prison system. This is naturally such a broad program the association has narrowed its field down to four sub-points of more adequate housing with facilities for classifying prisoners and segregation of immature prisoners from confirmed criminals; setting up a civil service or merit system to improve the personnel standards of the Texas prison system; instituting a program of vocational and agricultural training for inmates; and that expert counselors be added to the prison staff to furnish both vocational and psychiatric counseling for inmates.

The committees of experts in the various fields covered by those points have been studying them for years, and the association's adoption of them for its 1947 legislative program means that experts will appear before legislative committees in behalf of the legislation supporting this program.

Hal Boyle's Notebook

Recruits For Palestine

By ROMMEY WHEELER

LONDON, (AP)—A broad-shouldered, grey-haired police officer looked up from a pile of papers and grinned happily.

"The bombing of the King David Hotel in Jerusalem won't hinder our recruiting. The kind of young men we're interested in aren't deterred by that sort of thing."

The police officer was James Munro, superintendent of the Palestine police force. The papers were part of the flood of applications and inquiries which are flooding the Crown offices in Whitehall as a result of an intensive recruiting campaign.

The tri-lingual, semi-military peace agency of the Holy Land is seeking 2,000 recruits in Britain. Munro estimated that 10,000 inquiries had been received since the campaign began July 1. Posters offering 20 pounds ($80) a month and full board, keep and uniforms are being plastered all over England in an effort to "sell" the opportunities of the Palestine force to ex-service men and others in the 18-28 age bracket.

Not all who apply are accepted. Munro said each applicant must be single, must be of English stock, must have good education and ability to learn languages as well as do police work. Higher posts are filled solely from the ranks, and no man can advance until he is proficient in Arabic, or Hebrew, or both.

Men of Jewish or Arab extraction are not accepted, Munro said, and must join the so-called Palestinian force which normally is recruited in Palestine.

Before the war, there were about 3,000 in each force. The 2,000 new enlistments are expected to bring up the British force to 5,000, which even then will be smaller than the Palestinian unit's present strength.

Political negotiations over the future of Palestine have small interest for Munro.

"We are here to keep the peace," he said. "We'll go on keeping the peace, no matter what international arrangements are decided on."

BUTTER, BACON MOVING SLOWLY

DALLAS, July 29 (AP)—Butter went begging at 79, 80 and 85 cents per pound in Dallas today and bacon was a slow seller at 69 cents per pound.

Meat and dairy counters were piled high.

"We can get all the butter we want," said William Clark, grocer, "but women simply aren't buying it at 79 cents a pound."

Clark said that suppliers were asking ten cents over the old OPA prices after the subsidy had been figured in.

Two others came in with 79's and should rate the championship flight easily. They are Leonard Morgan, brother to Jake, and Novice Womack.

Others who have an excellent chance to get into title play and their scores are:

Lewis Heuvel 82, Jake Anderson 81, J. M. Pipes 80 and Bob Hodges 83.

Other Sunday qualifiers and their scores are:

D. M. Bardwell 94; Bob Flowers 95; G. F. Gideon 88; H. M. Rows 94; R. L. Pritchett 95; Murlan Smith 88; J. C. Robinson 95; M. T. Staggs 88; Doug Hill 86; Travis Reed 82; E. J. Hughes 87; Johnny Burns 90; Vernon Aldredge 91; Tabor Rowe 87, and Bill Johnson 90.

Feller Earns 19th Decision As Sens Succumb, 2 To 0

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

Unless Cleveland's Bobby Feller or Detroit's Hal Newhouse hits an unexpected decline, there appears a good chance today that the American league will furnish two 30-game winners this season. Not since 1912 when the immortal Walter Johnson and Smoky Joe Wood reached the 30-victory mark did two great pitchers come along with such peerless parallel performances.

Following on Newhouse, who became the major's first pitcher to win 20 games Saturday, Feller racked up his 19th triumph yesterday by shutting out the Washington Senators 2-0 in the opener of a double header. The Indians also won the nightcap 7-4.

Newhouse, needing only five more victories to join Cy Young, Lefty Grove and Johnson as the only American league pitchers to win 25 or more three years in succession, was idle yesterday as the Tigers divided a double header with the Philadelphia Athletics.

Hard-luck Dirty Trout went down to his third straight shutout defeat as Jesse Flores scattered seven Bengal bingles in pitching the A's to a 2-0 win in the opener. Frank (Stubby) Overmire spaced seven hits to defeat the Mackmen in the nightcap 6-2.

The pace-setting Boston Red Sox maintained their 11-game lead over the New York Yankees by gaining an even split with the St. Louis Browns. After Denny Galehouse stopped them 3-2 in the first game, the Sox defeated St. Louis 11-4 in the afterpiece. Held to six hits in the opener by Johnny Rigney who blanked them 2-0, the New Yorker Yanks hopped on Ralph Hamner and two successors for 11 hits and an easy 7-1 win.

The second place St. Louis Cardinals narrowed Brooklyn's National league leading margin to a game and a half by blanking the Boston Braves 2-0 while the Dodgers were being humbled by Pittsburgh's Pirates 7-3.

The third place Chicago Cubs advanced to within six and a half games of first place by sweeping both ends of a twin bill from the Philadelphia Phillies 11-3 and 3-1. Despite a pair of home runs by the Giants' Johnny Mize, the Cincinnati Reds downed the New Yorkers twice, 8-3 and 5-4.

Stewart returned yesterday from Chicago where he attended a meeting of representatives from major conferences in the nation and also a session of the National Association of Football Commissioners.

The major conference representatives, all from schools of the NCAA, took a stand against the recruiting program which allows coaches to visit the athletes and urge them to attend their schools and also on schools that give tuition, board and room to athletes without their working for it, Stewart said.

The Southwest conference has a rule against coaches visiting the athletes but by mutual consent some years ago decided not to abide by it, Stewart said. This conference allows payment of tuition above $30 per semester for athletes but they must work for their board and room. Stewart said the suggestions would be taken up at the winter meeting of the Southwest conference faculty committee.

FORT WORTH, July 29 (AP) — Polytechnic High school (Fort Worth) pounded out a 12 to 3 triumph over the Sulphur Springs nine in the American Legion division playoffs here last night and won a right to enter the state tournament opening Thursday at Austin.

Jockey Roberts Up

JOCKEY Porter Roberts (in cockpit) buys a new plane.

MIAMI, Fla., July 29 (AP)—Porter Roberts, veteran race horse jockey, is the latest of the "little men" to take to the air lanes.

An injured arm suffered May 18 in a spill at Churchill Downs sent Roberts to Miami for a vacation of several months. With time on his hands, he took up flying and purchased a new two-seater which he plans to fly himself as soon as his arm mends sufficiently for him to get his private license. But he isn't giving up the track for aviation. When he returns to riding in a few months, he'll use the plane in traveling to various assignments.

Like Eddie Arcaro, Johnny Breen and other jockeys, Roberts salted his money away and later became an aviation enthusiast. He also owns a big expensive sedan and a Miami apartment house.

Roberts is 31, a native of Lexington, Ky. He has ridden more than 800 winners since he broke his maiden in 1934.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART
A couple of Howard Countians who intend to visit Lamesa the next time Albuquerque's baseball Dukes invade the village are Franch True and Bynie White.

True and White soldiered with the straw boss of the Albuquerque spread, Jimmy Zinn, during the first World War as members of the 141st Field Hospital, 36th Division.

Franch hasn't seen Jim since the day they were discharged after their return from France. He and White have intended to seek out Zinn on a number of occasions when the Dukes were on the prowl in this neck of the woods but something always came up to prevent their going.

According to True, Zinn was one of the best hurriers in the service and he proved it once in Bordeaux, France, when he went up against the great Grover Cleveland Alexander in a bout for the military championship in 1919 and beat him in a pitcher's duel, 3-2.

Bing Crosby will own a major baseball league franchise in either Los Angeles or San Francisco in 1947 or 1948 through transfer of two National league franchises to the coast. So says a sports scribe of the magazine, "All-American Sports," a weekly journal devoted to athletics.

The article says the seating capacity of the LA ball park will be increased to 75,000.

Professional basketball is going "big time" this fall with a new circuit called the Basketball Association of America.

There'll be an Eastern and a Western division in the circuit.

The West will be composed of clubs representing St. Louis, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Indianapolis and Toronto. In the East there will be Pittsburgh, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Providence and Boston.

Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland and Seattle may become members.

The teams will play a 54-game schedule and at the end of the season there will be a play-off similar to the one used in hockey.

Several Big Spring high school football players are planning on going down to the Corpus Christi coaching school this weekend to witness the All-Star football and basketball games.

A few District SAA representatives will be in uniform at the contests. J. W. Thompson, Odessa, could easily develop into the football bout's outstanding player.

There'll be at least three Southwest Conference products performing for the Miami football Seahawks of the All-American professional league this fall, among them Our Town's Ollie Cordill.

The others are Jack Crain, the Texas university jack-rabbit, who averaged 5.43 yards per try his senior year, and Preston Johnson of SMU, the league's greatest kicker of the past decade.

Sports Roundup— Sid Feder Asks If Our Town Boasts Record

By SID FEDER
(Pinch-Hitting for Hugh Fullerton, Jr.)
NEW YORK, July 29 (AP)—Midwest scouts report that while it's true what they say about Michigan and Notre Dame, Illinois has that grid talent piled higher than the mortgages on a sports writer's home. . . . The boys have been having a lot of fun needing Ted Williams about his .080 batting average against the Yankees this year. . . . But aren't they kind of overlooking the fact the Red Sox fireman has belted the Bomber flingers for a fancy .390 since he came up to the American league in '39?

The Gee-Gees' Emily Post—Assault and Lord Boswell feel that The Dude, In the Classic, to them, was very rude.

Weekend Hash—Phil Rizuto is almost ready to take over the Yankee shortstop again after his beaming. . . . But there's old Frankie Crossetti out there going along at a mere .340 since he's been filling in.

Quiz Program—Five players in pro football's big leagues next season came out of the "factory" at Big Spring (Texas) high school (pop. 18,000). Reading from left to right, they're Bob Flowers, who'll sprout for the Green Bay Packers, Sam Flowers and Cliff Patton, sentenced to the Brooklyn Dodgers, Harry Burrus of the New York Yankees and Ollie Cordill at Miami (Fla.). Now Tommy Hart of The Big Spring Herald wants to know whether any other high school of the same size can boast the same. One well-punched 1944 season ticket for the best ans.

Fort Worth, San Antonio Victors In Sunday Tests

By The Associated Press
Texas Leaguers yesterday turned a total of 118 hits into 63 runs in six games but didn't accomplish much more than keeping scorers sharpening pencils.

Fort Worth held its three game lead over second place San Antonio as the Cats defeated Houston, 10-2, while the missions were bumping Dallas, 13-5.

Beaumont and Tulsa broke even in a double header in their struggle for fourth place, Beaumont taking the first game, 6-2, and Tulsa the second, 6-4.

The Oklahoma City Indians defeated Shreveport, 8-5. A second game was called at the end of the 10th inning, with the score tied 2-2, because of darkness.

The Cats jumped on Houston's Charley Sprull and Less Stunder for 10 hits, Sprull being relieved after allowing five runs in the fourth. George Dockins allowed the Buffs seven hits.

The Missions hit three homers, one triple, three doubles and eleven singles in defeating the Rebels. Boyd (Jelly) Sorelle got credit for his third victory over Dallas but was relieved by Sid Juckucki in the sixth when the Rebels staged a three run rally.

Clarence Madden's second home run of the afternoon aided Tulsa in salvaging the second game of the Beaumont twin bill, the hit setting of an eight-hit, six-run third inning.

Manager Jim Turner of the Exporters scattered 10 Tulsa hits to take the first game for his 10th win of the season.

A balk by rookie Jess Harrison scored what proved to be the winning Oklahoma City run in the first game with Shreveport. Leo Hatley, first year southpaw, went all the way in deciding three Sport flingers.

Today's Schedule:
San Antonio at Dallas

Houston at Fort Worth
Beaumont at Tulsa
Shreveport at Oklahoma City
All night games.

New Construction Rental Ceilings To Be Relaxed WASHINGTON, July 29 (AP) - Rent ceilings on new construction will be set at levels designed to encourage rental housing on a large scale although efforts will be made to keep rentals in line with veterans' needs, the federal housing administration announced today. Wilson W. Wyatt, National Housing expediter and Raymond M. Foley, FHA Commissioner, said in a joint statement: "Under an agreement concluded with the office of price administration rent ceilings on new construction no longer must be held within 20 percent of ceiling rents for comparable existing housing." Their statement added that this will allow the FHA more freedom of action in meeting difficult production problems in high cost areas. The $80 per month top limit for rentals will continue under the veterans emergency housing program, Wyatt and Foley noted.

Texas Today— ELECTION TABULATIONS FOR PAPERS MEAN LOTS OF WORK AND HEADACHES

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

The little election tabulation represents more work per word than almost anything else in today's paper.

Maybe it takes up just six or eight inches of type. But do you realize what had to be done to whip it into shape for your quick glance?

Literally thousands of people, and thousands of work hours, went into it. Your own vote is tucked away in the tabulation somewhere. Let's follow it:

First, your precinct officials count it. It was slow, tedious work, counting it and the hundreds of others like it in your home town. It was checked and double-checked.

It was reported to a local official, and to your newspaper and to a correspondent of the Texas election bureau, shortly after polls closed Saturday.

Next it was given to a Western Union operator. In some cases it was telephoned to Dallas headquarters, but let's follow the telegram. It went direct to the election bureau in Dallas.

The bureau is located on the second floor of the dignified old Dallas News building. The entire second floor was turned over to the bureau.

This floor is known to employees of the News as the brains department, because it is here that the editorial writers, the top officials, the editors of the Texas Almanac, and others work.

But the brains department is strangely noisy at election night. The library or morgue, one of the largest in the United States, is the heart of the bureau. Here, amid thousands of books, the election bureau workers compile the figures. Telegraph operators are scattered all over other rooms on the floor, in private offices, in halls.

The figures are then routed to tabulators, experienced CPA men, clacking away behind a battery of adding machines.

Their totals are penciled on various forms for different races. A runner takes them to either the Associated Press, or in some instances, another telegrapher. Your vote now begins its return trip home.

An AP editor checks it, writes a story from the totals, hands it to another editor for double-checking, then a third editor gives it the final okay and hands it to a teletype operator, who punches it on his machine.

In less than a second, these words flash back to your hometown editor. He takes the copy, checks, edits the story or totals down to what he knows is the local interest, writes a headline, and sends the copy back to a linotype operator who sets it in type. A proof is pulled, and a proofreader checks it for errors.

Finally it gets into your paper, after going through the various intricate processes necessary for printing. Newsboys distribute the paper.

Your vote has made its mark. It has gone a long, long way. It has caused a lot of headaches. Starting in your precinct polling place, it may end there in a paper carelessly tossed on a table.

It's a necessary process, this tabulating. But what do you do? Maybe you pick up the paper, take a quick glance, say my gosh look at Jester's vote, and then go out and play golf.

Austin Swim Team Wins TAAF Crown

AUSTIN, July 29 (UP)—The Austin swimming team took 15 of 26 titles and a total of 181 1/2 points to win the state TAAF swimming championship here yesterday.

Fort Worth tallied 64 1/2 points for second place. Third was San Antonio with 55.

Marion McKellar, Austin, led the field in the women's 50, 100 and 200-yard free-style events for three individual crowns.

Here 'n' There

Mrs. Louise Hanke, as a traveler through Big Spring, remembers our city with considerable regret. She alighted from a Texas & Pacific train here last Thursday night, went into the business district to get a sandwich, and during the jaunt lost a valued watch, given to her by her husband while he was in the Air Transport Command.

In writing The Herald for help, she described the watch as a ladies' white gold Benrus model, with white gold bracelet. Information concerning the article may be given to The Herald, who will assist the finder in contacting Mrs. Hanke for a reward.

I. L. Redell, Rte. one, Big Spring, has received his discharge from the Navy's Terminal Island separation center at San Pedro, Calif. He enlisted Oct. 18, 1944, serving at the Naval Air Station in San Diego, Calif.

First Lt. William T. Robinson, has reported to Brooke Army Medical Center at Fort Sam Houston for re-assignment. He is the son of Mrs. H. N. Robinson.

Pipeliners Return To Munny Loop Wars In Manhattan Tilt Tonight

Jack Keith's Forsan Cosden Pipeliners, idle for the past two months, return to the Munny softball league wars at 7:30 o'clock this evening in a contest with the Manhattan Club aggregation at Forsan.

The Pipeliners have yet to taste the fruits of victory in four starts while the Clubbers are coasting along in fourth place, a half game out of third.

Big Spring Motor and Cosden's Oilers have at it at 9 o'clock in a game at Forsan.

The Oilers are leading the pack by a half game and are a full game in front of the Motorists, who need the victory to remain in the league chase.

Red Harrison or L. D. Cunningham will shoulder the pitching chores for the Cosdens while the Fordmen will counter with steady Leon Glenn Bredemeyer.

Big Spring Hardware, upset by Coahoma last Friday, seek to get back on the victory track in a 9 o'clock go with the strong Redcaps.

Doc Wilkinson's troupe is currently in second place in the standings but must win to protect that post. To do that, they must hurdle Johnny "Hawk" Daylong, a capable hurler.

The 7:30 p. m. debate here pits ABC against Coahoma in what could be an interesting rhubarb.

ABC came within a whisker of upsetting Cosden last weekend and seems to be improving with each outing.

AP German Staffer Dies In Florida

MIAMI, Fla., July 29 (AP)—Alvin D. Hallman, 41, an Associated Press staff member in Germany at the time Hitler first came to power, died last night in a Miami hospital.

He was a native of Smithville, Tex., and started his newspaper career at Wichita Falls, Tex.

Mark Wentz Insurance Agency now in new location, 407 Runnels.

My Sincere Thanks

For the votes and support which gave me a nice lead in the first primary Saturday, I am humbly thankful. I am deeply appreciative, too, to others in the race for the high type of campaign they conducted. I respectfully ask for support of all in the precinct in behalf of my candidacy to serve the people as county commissioner of precinct No. 2.

Bowel Cleaning Power of Inner-Aid Medicine

One man recently took INNER-AID three days and said afterward that he never would have believed his body contained so much filthy substance. He says his stomach, intestines, bowels and whole system were so thoroughly cleansed that his constant headaches came to an end, several pimply skin eruptions on his face dried up overnight, and even the rheumatic pains in his knees disappeared. At present he is an altogether different man, feeling fine in every way.

INNER-AID contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable peevishness soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get INNER-AID. Sold by all drug stores here in Big Spring. (adv.)

Thanks, Folks

Although I fell short of the democratic nomination as commissioner of precinct No. 4, I am nonetheless grateful for every vote and every measure of support accorded me. The people have spoken and I accept their will cheerfully and extend my sincere congratulations and offer my service as a private citizen to Earl Hull, who won the nomination.

Rodeo Stock Due To Arrive Here Tuesday

Stock for the annual Big Spring Rodeo will begin arriving here Tuesday, Charlie Creighton, chairman of the rodeo committee said today.

Creighton said Earl and Jack Sellers, who will stage the four-night event, notified him Sunday night that shipments are on the way. Among the first expected to arrive are 80 Brahma steers from South Texas ranches. Sellers and Son purchased the group, which have never been roped, late last week.

Also on the way here are three carloads of wild bucking horses purchased in Wyoming, Montana and Nebraska. At least 200 head of stock will be used in the local rodeo, Creighton said, and Sellers and Son have declared that the show here will have as many events as any of the larger rodeos, including Fort Worth and Madison Square Garden.

At least two world's champion performers, Louis Brooks of Sweetwater, champion bronc rider, and Toots Mansfield, champion calf roper, will compete here.

State To Investigate MP's At Marshall

AUSTIN, July 29 (AP) — Gov. Coke Stevenson today declared he will ask State Adjutant General Arthur B. Knickerbocker to investigate the reported presence of military police protection at Marshall during Saturday's election.

If the military police were called by an officer of the Texas national guard as reported, it is quite a departure from approved procedure, the governor said.

Myron Blalock, national democratic committeeman from Texas, protested the presence of federal troops during Marshall's election in a telegram to the governor.

Knickerbocker said he knew nothing of the incident.

Many Thanks Friends

Results of the democratic primary Saturday indicate that I barely fell short of entering the runoff for tax collector-assessor of Howard county. I deeply treasure the votes and the influence of friends in behalf of my candidacy. My opponents conducted a good, clean race and I have no regrets — only thanks for kindness shown me.
