Mr. Golf U.S.A., Byron Nelson, and Abilene Christian College President Don Morris will be the speakers at an undenominational college-day meeting at 9:45 a. m. Sunday at the Broadway Church of Christ.

"Approximately 2,500 students are expected to attend the special meeting" stated Ronnie Clark, attendance chairman.

Byron Nelson's topic will be "It is Smart to be Good." Don Morris will answer age old questions on religion. An old-fashioned dinner at Pioneer Park will follow the services.

Special invitations are extended to students, organizations and personnel of Tech according to Allen Byron, educational director of Broadway Church of Christ.

This meeting will be covered by KDUB-TV.

In conjunction with the college day, there will be classes for all ages.

An organization may reserve a section in the auditorium by calling PO 3-0465. Students needing transportation can also call this number. Each organization will receive recognition.

This is the beginning of an annual event for Tech. In the future other churches in Lubbock may hold similar days.

Compulsory Fee Passes in Senate; House Action Next

The compulsory activity fee came one step nearer reality last week when it passed in the Senate after considerable debate.

A bill which would allow governing boards of state colleges to charge students a compulsory activity fee of up to $15 per semester passed in the Senate and was sent to the House. It passed the House Committee on Education last Thursday with only one dissenting vote. Final action in the House is yet to be made.

Senate Bill 185 originally set the limit at $20, but an amendment by Senator Jimmy Phillips, which passed April 12, brought the figure down to $15.

The bill would allow the governing board of each institution to require and collect a fee to cover the costs of student services. These services would include health and hospital service, recreational activities, artists courses, debating activities and student publications.

President E. N. Jones and Glen Cary, representing the Mens Inter-Fraternity Council and the local alumni organizations, appeared before the State Affairs House Committee and the Senate last week on a discussion of a bill that would allow the Tech Board of Directors to lease college land for the construction of fraternity houses. The House committee approved it unanimously and the Senate referred it to a subcommittee for further study.

A proposal to increase tuition from $25 to $50 a semester is being studied in committees.

'Arms and the Man' Opens Next Week

"Who's this guy Shaw?" curious Tech students asked yesterday noon in and around the Union. Their queries were made in response to "pickets" carrying signs reading, "Shaw Unfair to Women," "Shaw Unfair to Soldiers," "Shaw Unfair to Operatic Tenors," "Shaw Unfair to Lovers," "Shaw Poses Virtue."

The students saw the light when Dee Bowman, disguised as play-

Annual Senior Carnival Goes Outdoors; Begins Tomorrow Night Behind Union

FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Official Announcement - A Warning

April 28, 1955

May I express cordial approval and appreciation to the great majority of the students at Texas Tech who not only disapprove but are disgusted with the two recent demonstrations of the so-called "panty raid."

This announcement is therefore directed to the less than one per cent of the student body who have shown themselves lacking in the sense of responsibility and good judgment which is expected and required of all students who would retain their names on the rolls of the college.

It is hereby officially announced that any student of Texas Tech who is identified while participating in such a raid or other unlawful assembly, will be suspended from the college. Participation, as applied to men students, will be interpreted as presence in any crowd which is bent on entering a dormitory by force or otherwise creating a disturbance on or off campus. As applied to women students, it will consist of aiding or abetting such activity.

Please be assured that in issuing this statement there is no intention of casting a blot on Tech's fine student body. Rather, it is a warning to those who would.

Stormy Student Council Session Tuesday Marked by Exchange Between Members

Flaming tempers and strained relations keynoted a stormy called meeting of the Student Council Monday night.

Ronnie Averyt moved that the Council recommend to the president of the college that the profits from non-dormitory vending machines on the campus be allocated to the Student Council. The motion was seconded and discussed during which time the Council directed questions to faculty guests. Averyt's line of questions at the guests set the stage for a very fiery discussion later on in the evening.

During the discussion Bill Scott, Student Union Director, explained plans for a proposed addition to the Student Union. Dodd Vernon, Toreador faculty adviser, gave figures comparing the amount that The Toreador receives from each activity ticket sold with those that other colleges in the southwest receive. After answering numerous questions the four guests left the meeting.

Glenn Rainer relinquished the chair to the Vice President Bill Hudson and indicated that he thought Averyt stepped out of his right as a representative in inviting several persons on the faculty and staff to attend the meeting.

Several Council members expressed objections to Rainer's statement. Averyt got permission to speak and defend his cause. After much bitter debate Rainer apologized to Averyt but still maintained that additional money for the Council be allocated from the athletics portion of the activity ticket.

Averyt still maintained that additional money should come from the vending machine profits in non-dormitory buildings on the campus. In expressing his views Averyt stated, "We want to do the most good for the most students." Averyt's proposal if approved by the Council and the Board of Directors would provide more money

Everything from pie throwing to dunking boards will be in store for those attending the annual Senior Carnival.

The carnival, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, will be located southeast of the Union Building. This is the first time it has been held outdoors.

The purpose of the show is to raise money for the senior class to buy a gift for the college. Several clubs are sponsoring booths but will turn over all money to the senior class.

Carl Kennedy, Pampa senior, is in charge of the carnival, while seniors Charles Harper of Bonham, and David Clark of Lubbock are publicity directors.

Bill Burton, Fort Worth senior, is in charge of a contest in which gifts donated by downtown and local merchants will be distributed about 10 p.m. Friday. Gifts already turned in include: scarves, wastepaper baskets and slip-on seat covers for an automobile. Contest tickets are ten cents each and can be bought from any member of the senior class.

Prizes Awarded

Prizes will be awarded to the booths making the most money. Last year Kappa Alpha Theta won the prize with a chorus line of girls dancing to "Night Train." This year they will present the chorus line again. Delta Delta Delta will show a movie of a bar-room scene. The movie was made from a skit they put on recently.

Weekend Show Amazes Spectators 13,000 See Tech Engineer's Show; Constant Crowds At Both Sessions

Amazement and amusement showed on the faces of spectators as campus engineers, physicists and chemists showed their talents in the 23rd annual Tech Engineer's Show Friday and Saturday.

Blowing sand hampered attendance, but despite the weather, approximately 13,000 people turned out to see the show.

The Textile Engineering Building drew an almost constant crowd during both sessions of the show with an exhibition that started out with raw cotton from the bale and ended with cloth as a finished product.

With the Engineer's Show, the Home Economics Open House and the Region 1 Track Meet all in session at the same time, visitors to the campus got more than they bargained for, including the sandstorm which was not included in the original plans for the weekend.

Officers Impressed By ROTC Cadets

Army and Air Force inspecting officers were impressed by the "enthusiasm" shown by Tech ROTC cadets during a recent federal inspection of military facilities and training here, according to Army ROTC director Col. Luis F. Mercado.

He said that "Army ROTC classes at Tech compare favorably to other schools we've visited and the facilities are most adequate."

The Army-Air Force inspection team also voiced appreciation of the cooperation and support given the ROTC program here by the administration.

To support further research and study of the behavior of molecules in different environments, a $2,000 grant has been awarded Dr. George K. Estok of Tech by the Research Corporation of New York.

Dr. Estok is an associate professor of chemistry and chemical engineering.

The grant, to aid Dr. Estok's research in "Dielectric Properties of Solutes in Mixed Solvent Environments," is the first received by Tech from the Research Corporation, which concerns itself primarily with the support of original fundamental research.

"I'm chiefly interested in how molecules behave in different molecular company," he explained.

"Chemists are greatly interested in the structures and behaviors of these small parts of matter known as molecules. Such knowledge is fundamental to physical science," Dr. Estok added.

Dr. Estok joined the Texas Tech faculty in 1951 as an assistant professor and was promoted to associate in 1953. He previously had taught at St. Vincent College, Latrobe, Pa.; St. Mary's College, Notre Dame; and Loyola University, New Orleans.

AN EDITORIAL

A Stitch in Time

Dr. E. N. Jones this week took steps to handle a situation which could become a nightmare to anyone interested in the welfare of the college. He announced stiff penalties for anyone taking part in "panty raids."

Two such disturbances have already taken place this spring at Tech. Although both were in good humor and did no harm, the time is ripe for a more serious demonstration. Dr. Jones realized that, and hoped, by means of his announcement, to quell any tendency the less responsible element might have to make a raid.

No challenge is intended. Those who are concerned for the college realize how unfavorable is the publicity which results from such ill-advised larks. Tech could suffer irreparable harm, even though the stunt were conceived in fun and begun in good humor. Demonstrations have a way of turning into riots.

Dr. Jones has made the administration's stand clear. Blame will be placed on the men and women who take part. It is to be hoped that his warning is unnecessary.

BUDDING 'SMITH BROTHERS'

Beard Wearers To Be Judged During Western Week Activities, May 5-7

By GLADYS PARKEY
Toreador Staff Writer

The Smith brothers "ain't got nothin'" on Tech beard wearers! Sporting enough foliage to thatch a roof, Tech males daily bask in gawks and stares of fellow students and professors, due to beard the growing contest which ends Western Week activities at Tech next week.

The beards come in all lengths and sizes, with a wide variety of shapes. Colors range from topaz, rust, and flame, to beige, taupe, fawn, and dishwater blonde.

To be different, some Tech male might trim his beard in a shamrock shape and dye it green, as some did at Oklahoma University. Some merely have goatees and sideburns, while others blend their beards into mustaches. Others are cut like the spire of a steeple, look many or might be a perpetual temptation to owls requiring a nesting site.

The non-bearded can rest assured that the gaudy display is almost over. Next week barbers will growl and gripe, razor blade a half hours. Admission will be 10 cents in order to meet expenses of securing the film, and tickets may be purchased from any IRC member or in room 324 of the Administration building. Ronnie Avery, IRC president, urges all interested students and faculty members to attend.

sales will zoom upward, chins will reappear, and all over the campus glad little cries of recognition will greet the male population of Tech.

Placement Office Slates Interviews

Representatives of four industrial organizations, an accounting firm, and Camp Fire Girls, Inc., will be on the campus during the coming week to interview prospective graduates.

A representative of Rowan Drilling Company, Inc., of Fort Worth, will, today, interview persons interested in drilling contracting.

Tomorrow, Eaton and Huddle, an accounting firm, will have a representative at Tech to talk with accounting graduates.

A member of the personnel division of the S. H. Kress Co., a retail store chain, will see men interested in a management training program on Monday. The same day a Camp Fire Girls representative will talk with graduates interested in professional positions in youth work.

The Firestone Tire and Rubber Company and the Container Corporation of America will have representatives on the campus Wednesday to interview men interested in sales careers, and related jobs.

THE GREAT CAP and GOWN CONTROVERSY

The cap and gown season is upon us, and with it comes the perennial question: which side of the cap should the tassel hang on?

This is an argument that arises every year to roil the academic world, and it is, alas, no closer to solution today than it was in 1604 when Fred Tassel invented the troublesome ornament.

Fred Tassel, incidentally, never made a penny from his invention. The sad fact is he never took out a patent on it. This tragic oversight becomes understandable, however, when one considers that patents were not invented till 1851 by Fred Patent, himself a pitiable figure. A compulsive handwasher, he died in his fourteenth year, leaving behind a wife and five spotless children.

But I digress. We were discussing which side of the cap the tassel should hang on.

For many years the universally accepted practice was to hang the tassel over the front of the cap. This practice was abandoned in 1942 when the entire graduating class of Northwestern University, blinded by tassels hanging in their eyes, made a great turn during commencement exercises and ended up at the Great Lakes Training Center where, all unwitting, they were inducted into the Navy for five year hitch.

There is one school of thought—large and growing daily larger—which holds that the tassel should be worn on the same side you carry your Philip Morris cigarettes. Thus a quick glance will show you where your Philip Morris are and save much time and fumbling.

This makes a good deal of sense because when one wants a Philip Morris, one wants one with a minimum of delay. One does not relish being kept, even for a second, from the clean, delicate flavor of Philip Morris, so artfully blended, so subtly concocted to please the keen and alert taste buds of young smokers. One chafes at any obstacle, however small, that is put in the way of enjoying this most edifying of cigarettes, so pleasing to the perceptive palate. Here, in king size or regular, at prices that do no violence to the slimmest of budgets, is a firm white cylinder of balm and pure, abiding content.

There is another group, small but vocal, that insists the tassel should hang over the back of the cap. The tassel, they say, is a symbol like the bullfighter's pigtail, signifying honor and courage.

They are wrong. Bullfighters wear pigtails for only one reason: to keep the backs of their necks warm. Do you have any idea what a draft a bull makes when he rushes past you? A plenty big one, you may be sure.

In fact, upper respiratory infections, contracted in the wake of passing bulls, are the largest single cause of bulling fatalities. I have this interesting statistic from the Bullfighters Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut, one of the few insurance companies in Hartford, Connecticut, which writes insurance exclusively for bullfighters. Incidentally, Hartford, the insurance capital of America, is a most interesting city and well worth a visit if you are ever in New England, as north-eastern United States is, for some reason, called. Hartford can be reached by bus, train, plane, and the Humboldt Current. Try to make your visit in spring, when the actuaries are in bloom.

But I digress. We were talking about what side to wear the tassel on. An ingenious solution to this troubling problem was proposed a few years ago by Fred Sigafoos, perhaps better known as "The Quoit King of Delaware." An early forer of Mr. Sigafoos, Humboldt Sigafoos (who later invented the current which bears his name) was granted a monopoly by King George III on all quoits manufactured in Delaware. Somehow the royal appointment was never rescinded and from that day to this, every quoit made in Delaware has been a Sigafoos Quoit.

Well, sir, Fred Sigafoos once suggested that an equitable settlement to the great tassel controversy would be to starch the tassels so they stood upright and hung on no side of the cap at all. Mr. Sigafoos was, of course, only seeking to broaden his market, because after graduation, what can you do with an upright tassel but hurl quoits at it?

©Max Shulman, 1955

The makers of PHILIP MORRIS who bring you this column make no recommendation about which side to hang the tassel on. But with cigarettes they say: Stay on the gentle, tasty, vintage side—with PHILIP MORRIS, of course.

Professors Hemmle, Gillis and Bowling Among 150 Given Faculty Fellowships

Three Tech professors are among 150 college educators throughout the nation awarded Faculty Fellowships from the Fund for the Advancement of Education for 1955-56.

They are Dr. Gene Hemmle, professor and head of the music department, Dr. Everett Gillis, associate professor of English, and Dr. Lawrence Bowling, assistant professor of English.

Each Faculty Fellowship provides a one-year grant equivalent to a professor's present salary plus certain expenses essential to his study plan.

Dr. Hemmle plans to study music curricula at Columbia and New York Universities and to plan a liberalized music program for Texas Tech.

Dr. Gillis will work at the University of California, the Huntington Museum at San Marino and the Southwest Museum Library at Los Angeles and concentrate on American cultural history as it influenced the Southwest.

Don Dille, Borger junior, Tom Nash, Dallas junior, and Jo Dan Bailey, Ralls junior, will sing some of their club songs.

The Apple Polish Hour is sponsored by the Union Hospitality Committee, who invites all students and faculty members to attend. Free refreshments will be served.

Spring Cleaning Theme Is Evident In Baptist Student Center Activities

"Rag Mop" seems to be the theme song at the Baptist Student Center this week.

Spring cleaning is in full progress; each student who visits the center is handed a cleaning brush.

"Spring round-up in enlistment to the entire Baptist Student Union program will start soon and will be climaxed by a wiener-roast May 12," stated Bettye Fay Dickey, new assistant director.

Serving as a link between the campus and the community churches, the BSU fills the role with various activities.

Morning watch at 7:30 a.m. and noon watch at 1:30 p.m. is one of these. Retreats offer students time for reflection upon Christianity. Four college credit Bible courses are taught by Bruce McVey, director of BSU.

Every Friday students have night mission programs on order of a vacation Bible school.

Erected in 1952, the BSU building at 2401 13th St. offers students recreation and a chance to grow into mature Christian leaders.

"Tech Tab" the BSU paper was started in February, and reaches 2,000 Baptist students enrolled on Tech. Tuesday nights are devoted to socials such as taffy-pull, jean cleans and stunt nights.

"My maximum for Christ" is the motto selected 30 years ago and is still used.

Industrial Editors Discuss New Field

"Journalism majors fail to recognize the opportunities offered in the field of industrial publications," said Charles H. Annett, editor of Southwestern Public Service's "Southwesterner" magazine.

Annett and Alton D. Sears of Pioneer Natural Gas expressed the advantages of entering the field of industrial publication before journalism majors in two classes.

A question and answer period was held by the two men for the benefit of Press Club members.

Annett bases his enthusiasm for the field on the fact that there are over 7,000 employee magazines now in circulation with a readership surpassing the combined readerships of "Life" and the "Saturday Evening Post."

Tech Musicians Display Talents

Approximately 18 music students performed a recital of classical music Tuesday afternoon in the Music Building Recital Hall. Piano soloists were James Carthel, Doshia Lusk, Jennie Ruth Thompson, Jeannette Berry, and Joy Sue Downing. Singing solos were Wayland Stevens, baritone; Myron McCarty, bass; Sandra Hemmle, mezzo soprano; Sue Applegate, soprano; and Iva Ruth Crowley, soprano.

Margaret Ammer played a violin solo. Accompanists for the solos included Martha Judah, Jennie Ruth Thompson, Joanne Dean, Sandra Hemmle, William Murphy, and Glenn Finney, pianists.

Tech Spikers in 4-way Meet Here Friday

Three other Texas members of the Border Conference will join Texas Tech here tomorrow afternoon in a quadrangular track meet on the new $50,000 cinder track west of the campus.

Hardin Simmons, Texas Western and West Texas State will send full squads to compete in the meet scheduled to begin 4 p.m.

The relay strong Texas Western men will rule as slight choices in the team title, although the Red Raiders may have reached a peak of improvement and would cause no surprise by coming out on top.

Texas Western has an unusually well-balanced team, although star weightman Mike Finerty is out of action with an injured hand received in an auto accident earlier this week.

Sanford Is Sure Point-Getter

Coach Ross Moore of the Miners has sure point-getters in sprinter Bill Sanford, the little El Pasoan who came near upsetting the great Joe Childress of Odessa during his high school career; former hurdler Don Maynard of Colorado City who has forsaken timber-topping to concentrate on the sprints; and all-around star Berman Corbell, also of Colorado City, who has been high-point man in three dual meets this spring.

Also expected to contribute heavily to the Miner point total is a mile relay quartet that has hit the 3:25 mark on a couple of occasions this season.

Hardin Simmons lacks team strength but in broad jumper Delnor Poss and high jumper John Whately have a pair of capable performers. Particularly outstanding is Whately, defending Conference champion in his event.

Burrus Places in Two-State Relay

West Texas State is in much the same shape as the Cowboys, but again have an outstanding individual in big Ray Burrus, the basketball center. Burrus is one of the finest weightmen in the Southwest. He placed in both the discus throw and shot put at the Texas and Kansas Relays, and probably won't even be approached during Friday's meet.

Retiring coach Landon Westbrook's Raiders may have first place cinches in the form of hurdler Leon Chester, the Andrews freshman; broad jumper

Don Covey of New Deal and high jumper Ray McDonald of Blanket.

McDonald Wins In Relays

McDonald has never failed to place in a major meet this year, and was the winner in the West Texas Relays.

The Red Raider Relays, involving regional qualifiers from West Texas high schools, is also scheduled to begin on the Tech track Friday afternoon with preliminaries. However, sponsors of that event may wait until Saturday for their activities.

Contestants from Amarillo to Abilene will be in action there.

Sul Ross Games Postponed; Red Raider Losses Total 12

Two games scheduled between the Texas Tech Red Raiders and Sul Ross Lobos at Alpine this weekend have been canceled, according to Coach Beattie Feathers.

A disastrous weekend tour saw the Raiders drop four consecutive games to Texas Lutheran and in Houston State. The Techs now have a 2 won, 12 lost season record. Two of those losses were the hands of the Sul Ross team at the beginning of the season.

Only two wins on the credit of the ledger have been against Sheppard Air Force Base at Wichita Falls, which brought a season record against that team to 2-2.

During their recent swing to the north and east Texas, the Raiders are the victims of a no hit, no run game by a red-hot Texas Lutheran pitcher. The Lutheran team thus ended their series with Tech with four wins and no losses.

Intramural Track Events Play May 7

Intramural track entries will close May 4, according to George Philbrick, intramural sports director. The annual track meet will be held May 7.

Anyone is eligible to compete except those who are on the city track squad, and those who have previously lettered in the sport.

Persons interested in entering on a team or as an individual participant, may contact Philbrick in the Gym.

Scaling, Brown Reach Intramural Golf Semifinals

Harry Scaling and Jack Brown have reached the semi-finals of the intramural golf tournament.

Scaling defeated Don Barnett in the second round 1-up 19, after drawing a bye in the first round. Barnett had defeated Jack Vass 1-up in the opening round.

Brown dropped Ted Hardy in the second round after defeating Richard McClure 1-up 21 in the first round. Hardy drew a bye in the first round.

Gary Mitchell defeated Calvin Garrett via the forfeit route in the first round, and will meet the winner of the Fred Currie and Jim Walker match.

Max Chappell took a default over Max Dreyling in the opening round, and will encounter the winner of the match between Ted Millinger and Neal Pipkin in the second round.

Tech Tennis Team Plays WT Today

The Raider tennis team, fresh from a 5-2 victory over ACC here last week, will meet the West Texas State netters here today and leave tomorrow for a Saturday match with Sul Ross at Alpine.

The ACC victory gave the Raiders their eleventh win out of thirteen team matches this season. David Clark and David Kent paced the Techs, by winning both their singles matches and then teamed to take a win in doubles play.

Clark trounced Max Leach 6-4, 9-7, while Kent was beating Ronnie Walcher 6-3, 1-6, 7-5. Other singles action had Billy Gowan winning easily from Jerry Griffith 6-2, 9-7.

The only Raider losses were in the number four and five singles—James Tudor of the Wildcats took Dick Spiers 6-3, 2-6, 8-6, and Jack Arnold nipped Van Hall 6-2, 7-5.

In doubles play top-seeded Clark and Kent toppled Leach and Griffith 6-0, 6-2, while Gowan and Spiers slipped by Walcher and Tudor 7-5, 6-4.

Commandant Will Assist In ROTC Unit Coordination

Brig. Gen. Albert G. Franklin, Jr., assistant commandant of the Ft. Bliss Artillery School, will visit Tech Wednesday to give assistance in coordinating ROTC affairs with the college.

Accompanying General Franklin will be Lt. Col. R. A. Felter, ROTC advisor, Ft. Bliss; and 1st Lt. Daniel L. Criswell, aide-de-camp. Announcement of the forthcoming visit was made by Col. Hampton L. Green, Tech professor of military science and tactics.

Delmer Brown Assumes Tech Duties, June 1, Replaces Coach-Trainer Landon Westbrook

Delmer Brown, current trainer and track coach at East Texas State College, will arrive at Tech June 1 to begin similar duties. Brown will replace Landon Westbrook whose resignation becomes effective at that time.

Brown was trainer at Baylor for six years previous to his term at East Texas which began in 1953. His first track team at East Texas finished second in the Lone Star Conference last spring.

Former North Texas Great Brown was a track great at North Texas in the 30's and captured American honors in 1937 and 1938.

Brown is married and has four children. He is also a Mason, a member of the Lions Club and active in boy scout work.

Landon Westbrook, who leaves June 1, that he was seeking a job doing only one primary duty, coaching or track coaching. A former University middle distance and hurdles standout, Westbrook came to Tech in the fall of 1952. Previously he had been in the direction of the Red Forces Athletic program in Lubbock.

Ex-Gridded Red Phillips Returns To Alma Mater

Aubrey (Red) Phillips, former Tech gridded, will return to his alma mater as freshman football coach September 1, according to Weaver.

The former all-conference center for the Red Raiders has been assistant coach at Boca Ciega High School, St. Petersburg, Fla., for the past two years.

Phillips played on the 1951 Tech team which won the Border Conference and later that year went on to beat College of the Pacific in the Sun Bowl.

According to Weaver, "Our expanding freshman program makes it imperative that we have a coach with the primary duty of coaching first year men. We are extremely fortunate to obtain Phillips for this post."

Johnny Sartain Pitches No-Hitter in Softball League

Bledsoe Hall won the Dormitory League championship in the intramural softball program with a 4-2 record, followed closely by Doak and Sneed Halls with 3-3 seasonal marks. Gordon Hall finished with a 2-4 mark.

The Sluggers won the Independent League championship with a 7-0 record. The Rebels finished second with a 5-2 standing.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon is setting a torrid pace in the Fraternity League with a 7-0 mark, followed by Kappa Sigma's 5-1 record.

Johnny Sartain pitched a no-hitter for the leaders over PIKA in a night game Tuesday. SAE slapped the Pikes 10-0. Following the game Phi Kappa Psi bested Alpha Tau Omega 5-4.

Sunday, SAE defeated Phi Delta Theta 12-7, Phi Kappa Psi bested Sigma Nu 18-17, and Kappa Sigma beat Phi Gamma Delta 9-2.

This week's schedule calls for games on Sunday between Phi Psi and Chi Sigma, and Phi Gamma and PIKA. Night games on Wednesday's schedule calls for games between Kappa Sig and ATO, and

Entries Close Soon In Frat Tennis

Entries for the inter-fraternity tennis tournament will close Saturday, according to George Philbrick, intramural sports director.

The tournament is scheduled for Monday.

Each fraternity will be allowed to enter one singles team and one doubles team.

Those interested in participating may contact Philbrick in the Gym.

Look for the Spalding "Tennis Twins" Wherever Top Tennis Is Played

There are good reasons why Spalding's tennis twins are used in more major tennis tournaments than all other tennis balls combined.

Top players want a tennis ball that can take rough treatment... and give uniform performance set after set. They pick the Spalding and the Spalding-made Wright & Ditson over all others for uniform wear and better bounce qualities.

Army ROTC Boys To Tour Fort Sill

The Fourth Army at Fort Sill, Okla., Saturday will demonstrate its facilities and activities to approximately 46 Tech Army ROTC cadets who are scheduled to participate in ROTC Day activities at the artillery center.

Army officials will provide special demonstrations in Army aviation, infantry and artillery weapons.

Cadets are slated to depart Friday by bus being provided by Fort Sill. The students will be housed in barracks at the installation.

Included in Saturday's program for the students is a tour of the post, a visit to Fort Sill's museum, and weapons demonstrations.

Accompanying the group is Lt. Col. John B. Webb and Maj. Lyman C. Richardson, both members of the Army ROTC staff at Tech.

FRESHMEN PLAN PARTY

A freshman class swimming party has been scheduled for 2 to 9 p.m. at the Mackenzie Park swimming pool.

The free party will include dancing on the terrace, according to Walter Schuler, class president.

Instructor Ratings May Be Earned Red Cross Aquatic, Small Crafts Schools To Be Sponsored for Midwest Students

Red Cross Aquatic School will be held for students interested in qualifying as leaders or instructors in water safety and small craft handling at summer camps, beaches or pools, or in first aid.

The nearest aquatic schools will be in Austin and Palestine, Texas and in Ardmore, Okla. The only small craft school listed is to be at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin.

Students may enroll in standard, advanced, and instructor first aid courses only and earn an instructor rating at any of the aquatic schools. To qualify in water safety they should hold a current senior life saving certificate or have swimming ability to pass a senior life saving course. Students who enroll in aquatic courses and hold a current water safety instructor authorization certificate may enroll in an elective course, including recreational swimming, synchronized swimming, canoeing, boating, and sailing.

Individuals interested in making application to attend one of the 10-day schools must be at least 18.

The cost of each school is $45, which covers board, lodging, and materials used in the courses. The schools may be attended at individual expense if sponsorship by local Red Cross chapters or other organizations is not available.
