CHARLES SENNING

Fourteen Seek Office In Student Election

Student Council Proposes Three New Amendments

Student officers for 1944-45 will be elected and three amendments to the student constitution voted on Tuesday in a general election. Ballot boxes will be opened from 9 a. m. until noon, and from 1 until 3 p. m. in the Home Economics, Engineering, and Administration buildings.

Maxine Craddock and Charles Senning were nominated for student president. Miss Craddock is the second Student Council president ever to run for reelection. She is a senior engineer from Robert Lee. Senning is a senior arts and sciences student from Spur.

Candidates for vice president are Reta Norman and Oliver Ramsey. Miss Norman is a junior from Plainview. Ramsey is a junior from Ralls. Four women were nominated for secretary. They are Moreene Roberts, Fort Worth junior; Frances Sitter, McLean sophomore; Patsy Smith, Ralls sophomore; and Betty Herring, junior from Roswell, N. Mex.

The office of student business manager will be contested by Jimmy Witt, Lubbock junior, who is nominated for the position. There are no candidates for the office of student representative to the Athletic Council. Walter Schlinkman, who was nominated, is ineligible.

Yell leader's applications were turned into the Double T association last week. Billy Johnson, Hordley junior, was the only applicant for head man cheer leader. Applicants for head woman cheer leader were Billene Moseley, Pampa sophomore; Margie Gerber, Spearman sophomore; Elizabeth Robinson, Fort Worth sophomore; and Jackie Wilkison, Emma junior.

Names of eligible students who are recommended by the Double T association will appear on the ballot.

Nominations were made last Tuesday at a general convocation in the gym. Amendments were proposed at that time.

Amendments to be voted on are as follows:

ARTICLE 5, Sec. 1 (f) One representative from the Association of Women Students.

ARTICLE 7, Sec. 1 (h) The representative from the Association of Women Students shall be elected by the membership of the Association of Women Students and must meet the requirements set forth above for candidates for secretary and business manager of the Student association.

ARTICLE 7, Sec. 3 (d) The representative from the Association of Women Students shall be nominated and elected in the same manner as the other officers of the Association of Women Students.

ARTICLE 7, Sec. 1 (g) Any officer, elective or appointive, of any campus organization or student representative, elective or appointive, of the college in any official capacity, excluding beauties and queens, must have at least a C average in all his college work and must have passed a minimum of 9 semester hours with at least a C average for the semester preceding the one in which he serves. A C average is based on the quality point system and must be maintained for each semester during the tenure of office; the quality point system being an average of at least one grade point for every hour for which the student has enrolled.

ARTICLE 8, Sec. 8 (1) The Student Council shall have the right to elect and remove its officers and members.

ARTICLE 8, Sec. 8 (2) The Student Council shall have the right to elect and remove its officers and members.

ARTICLE 8, Sec. 8 (3) The Student Council shall have the right to elect and remove its officers and members.

ARTICLE 8, Sec. 8 (4) The Student Council shall have the right to elect and remove its officers and members.

ARTICLE 8, Sec. 8 (5) The Student Council shall have the right to elect and remove its officers and members.

ARTICLE 8, Sec. 8 (6) The Student Council shall have the right to elect and remove its officers and members.

ARTICLE 8, Sec. 8 (7) The Student Council shall have the right to elect and remove its officers and members.

ARTICLE 8, Sec. 8 (8) The Student Council shall have the right to elect and remove its officers and members.

ARTICLE 8, Sec. 8 (9) The Student Council shall have the right to elect and remove its officers and members.

Las Chaps Honors Seniors And Patronesses At Picnic

Las Chaparritas entertained Wednesday evening with a picnic for senior members and patronesses at Mackenzie park. Games were played following the serving of refreshments.

Donella Bucy and Mary Wells had charge of the refreshments; Margaret Ann Bell took care of transportation.

Seniors in secretarial studies and teachers of the department will be guests at a picnic Saturday at 6 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ethel Terrell, 1915 Ninth street.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Geraldine Simmons, Miss Lucille Robinson and Mrs. Ethel Terrell. Refreshments of ham, rolls, deviled eggs, potato chips and ice cream and cake will be served.

College Caper Tryouts Held Next Week

All students who plan to try out for College Capers of the Air must report to Miss Anna Jo Pendleton, head of the speech department, or Dr. Julie Paul Blitz, head of the music department, before Thursday and make their application.

Any student now enrolled in Tech is eligible to tryout. Singers, instrumentalists, imitators, monologists, announcers, or anyone with any sort of talent available for radio presentation is invited to participate in tryouts and auditions.

College Capers was first presented in the summer of 1942 by Interstate Theatres. Its cast was composed entirely of students of Texas colleges and universities. The production was designed to discover and encourage talented students of Texas schools.

After local tryouts, Charles J. Freeman of Interstate Theatres will visit the campus, conduct the auditions and select the two outstanding acts for presentation this summer.

Staff Accepts Subscriptions For Toreador

Subscriptions to the summer Toreador will be on sale today for students who do not plan to attend summer school. Subscriptions for the entire summer will be 75 cents and may be obtained in the Administration building, according to Virginia Forbes, business manager.

Students attending this summer will receive the Toreador with their recreation tickets. The summer Toreador, which will be published as a tabloid, will include not only news of Tech, but Count-Me-Out, Coed's Corner, and Life With the Exes, according to Editor Ellen Hill Miller.

"Take Tech with you during vacation by subscribing to the summer Toreador," Mrs. Miller says.

Artists Course Is Announced

This Year's Artists To Fulfill Schedule

Plans are being made for four well-known artists to appear in Lubbock next year as guests of the Tech Artist course. All indications are that they will be of the same high quality as those of the past year, according to R. A. Mills, sponsor.

Eleanor Steber, formerly scheduled to appear this spring, will come to Lubbock in October to open the season. For two years the Artist course committee has been trying to engage the renowned Metropolitan soprano but until this year has had no success. Metropolitan would not release her this year because she was scheduled to be here during their busiest season.

Another Metropolitan star, Kurt Baum, tenor, will come to Lubbock audiences in November. He is one of the outstanding tenors in America, having held from 50 to 60 concerts during the past year.

Mia Slavenska, who was also scheduled to come to Lubbock this semester, will open the spring semester Artist course program. Unable to make her engagement in February because of transportation difficulties, she will appear here next February, if at all possible. One of the world's leading ballet dancers, Miss Slavenska made her first appearance as a member of the Monte Carlo dance ensemble before organizing her own group.

Sixteen-year-old Patricia Travers will bring the year's activities to a close. Though very young, Miss Travers is a well-known violinist, and a member of the Columbia Concerts. She will give her performance either in March or April.

Speaking for the entire Artist course committee, Mills expresses his thanks to the student body, faculty members, and others who have made this year's programs a success, despite changes made because of the war and other factors.

Faculty Club Honors President

President and Mrs. Clifford B. Jones were presented with a copper service tray at the dinner given in their honor by the faculty club last night.

The semi-formal entertainment was held in the dining room of the Women's Dormitory number 2. Two hundred and fifty members and guests were present.

Dr. R. C. Goodwin was chairman of the hospitality committee, assisted by Mrs. Jonnie Michie, K. M. Renner, J. H. Wadsworth and Mrs. James G. Allen. The food committee was headed by Mrs. Neva Deen Bavousett, with Miss Evelyn Clewell, Fred G. Harbaugh, Robert L. Lockard and T. F. Wiesner also serving.

Chairman of the properties committee was O. A. St. Clair. Other members of this committee were L. G. Harmon, S. S. McKay, Dr. M. W. Lamb and G. C. Perryman. Fitzhugh McBee headed the program committee, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Manicappell and Miss Martye Polndexter.

Parsons Returns From Textile

L. E. Parsons, head of the department of textile engineering, returned Monday from Asheville, N. C., where he attended the spring meeting of the National Association of Textile School Deans. Meetings are held at different places throughout the country, and Asheville was chosen because it was possible to get housing in one of the resort hotels there.

The association met for three days, April 20 through 22. Representatives from the 10 textile schools in the country heard lectures by a representative of the War Manpower Commission on "Training Within Industry," and a representative of the veterans' administration spoke about the rehabilitation of veterans after the war.

Those attending the meeting took a side trip to the Euka Rayon mills near Asheville to observe the production of viscose rayon. The mills are now making rayon tire cord.

On his trip back from the meeting, Parsons stopped at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville to visit the fiber laboratory in the department of physics. There he saw a fibrograph, a newly invented device for measuring the staple length of cotton.

The greatest inspiration for subject matter in the arts is conceded to be religion.

The first crossing of the English Channel by air was made in 1765 by balloon.

Davidson Makes Senior Address

Commencement Service Will Be At Stadium

Approximately 100 seniors will hear the commencement address of the Hon. T. Whitfield Davidson, judge of the United States District court of Dallas, at 8 p. m. Monday, May 15, at the Tech stadium.

Dr. H. I. Robinson, pastor of the First Methodist church, will deliver the benediction at the stadium, 2:30-3:30 p. m. at the stadium. Rev. H. G. Gantz, pastor of the First Christian church, will give the invocation. Dr. C. E. Hereford, pastor of the First Baptist church, is to deliver the scripture lesson, and Father William F. Elstaker of St. Elizabeth church will give the benediction.

Rev. John A. Winslow, rector of St. Paul's-on-the-Plains, will deliver the invocation at the eighteenth annual commencement exercise. President Clifford B. Jones will confer the degrees and senior honors, and Eike Godfrey will present the senior gift which will be accepted by the Hon. Charles C. Thompson of Colorado City, chairman of board of directors. The benediction will be said by Rev. A. E. Carleton, pastor of St. John's Methodist church.

Robert Harvey and Raymond Swafford, juniors from Lubbock, will act as marshalls at both services. Another student marshall will also be chosen. Music for the services will be furnished by the Tech concert band.

President and Mrs. Jones will give the annual reception to members of the graduating class, their parents, to faculty members and their husbands or wives at their home Friday, May 12, from 8 to 9 p. m.

Spring Meet Home Ec Girls Hold Meetings

Eugenia Hopper, Lubbock freshman, was crowned May Queen at the Home Economics Spring Festival last Friday evening.

LaNel Doshier and Lucille Melton, students, crowned the queen. Jean Northcutt acted as herald. Jean Northcutt and June McAllister were deans. Other events on the program were an accordion solo by Mozelle Fleming; songs by a chorus of home economics students, tumbling acts by Yvonne Westmoreland and Faye Harlan, and the traditional winding of the Maypole. Marne Parrott was student program chairman; Jean Renner general chairman; and Miss Edith Coleman and Mrs. Neva Deen Bavousett, faculty sponsors of the Maypole dance.

A picnic supper, prepared by advanced foods classes under the direction of Miss Mayne Twyford, preceded the program.

Officers of the Home Economics club for the coming year were installed immediately after the program. They include Margaret Leonard, president; LaNel Doshier, vice president; Margaret Hiatt, secretary; and Margaret Leggett, treasurer. Retiring officers were Virginia Lee McSpadden, president; Margaret Leonard, vice president; Iva Lea McKay, secretary; and Daphne Stevens, treasurer.

Special guests were Dr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Jones, and officers and sponsors of prominent campus organizations.

Of Personal Concern-

NOW is the time that all Techsians should come to the aid of their government. Each Techsian should be considering which nominee is the best qualified to hold office, and should plan to go to the polls next week and vote accordingly.

Each ballot should be cast with care and confidence that those names preferred are those students who will best serve the student body next year. The qualifications of each officer must be fulfilled by the nominees before we Techsians can be sure of our governing body.

Let it not be said that Techsians vote sloppily or negligently. We want every vote to count for the best person to hold the office. Prejudice should not enter into the choice, but qualifications should. A student that has proven himself a leader and that understands the needs of Tech will surely make a better president than one who is a "yes-man" to the faculty and Administrative council.

Maybe you feel that you should vote for someone just because he or she is in your club or is a good friend of your best friend. Or maybe he or she, as the case may be, appears quite attractive and seems capable of performing the job. There is more to voting than just how he looks or what you have heard about the nominee. It takes thorough investigation and study to vote intelligently.

With a week's time one should be able to arouse interest in the election by discussing it pro and con in the Bookstore, on the avenue, on the campus and in the corridors. It might be wise to find out what a lot of different students think of certain candidates as they know them in class, in their organizations and as fellow Techsians.

If you think that there will not be any use in your going to the polls and casting your ballot, you are mistaken. Each vote counts, if the ballot is cast properly, for in our democratic system the majority rules. Every Techsian should feel the urge to be personally concerned as to what goes on on the campus and to demand a vote in the choice of the student officers.

Next fall Techsians will want enterprising student body officers that will see to it that Tech progresses and that the students have a hand in managing themselves. We will look to the leaders that we elect next week. Thus we must be sure that they are the ones that will serve us best. It is up to us Techsians to make the choice, to push all of the Milquetostas aside along with the self-centered or minority-interested candidates, and to elect those whom we know fulfill the qualifications of each officer.

Voting for this governing body is only a preparatory step in voting for our state and national executives and legislators. Why should we not feel our power to keep this country and this college democratic? There is no better time or place to learn this than next week at our own polls. So, Techsians, cast your votes for well-qualified candidates that will uphold our cause and make Tech a better place in which to live, to learn and to play. — G. J.

Seniors Bow Out-

EACH year the time arises for another class of Techsians to sign '30', such an event is not exactly as happy a one as we imagined it would be back in our freshman year. For the past four years we have been striving toward this goal, but on reaching it we are inclined to look back, omitting the hardships and remembering only the pleasures.

Tech has not been just a place to hang our hats, and we dislike saying "goodbye" to it and to what it stands for. We leave behind us our friends, both teachers and fellow Techsians, our books and studies, and our casual collegiate life. The fun and knowledge we have gained here will never be forgotten, nor will the friends we have made.

Many of our original class have wandered away in these unsettled times. Most of them have gone into service to fight for what they know is right, but they had at least a year and a half of Tech and still remember it on the battle-fronts and have hopes of returning to finish with another class. Tech at peace was in its glory and we Techsians of '44, who have seen it so, will remember it that way as well as in its efficient transformed wartime stage.

We did not want the war, especially during our years at college, but we take pride in saying that Tech answered its country's call. We feel that we had a part in doing our share, for besides giving up members of our class to the armed forces, we accepted the changed Tech and made the most of the situation. In such case, we have benefited by being faced with the reality of our country's predicament. On the campus we saw Tech offer its facilities to the government and saw how Techsians reacted to home front calls to duty. We also learned from our various courses how to aid in the war and how to prepare for an everlasting peace.

Yes, we Techsians of '44 have struggled together through a trying time in the history of Tech. But we will not regret it, for we are able to face the outside world with a keener knowledge of the situation at hand and with a sterner determination for success. We have much for which to be thankful, and credit is due to Tech and all that goes to make it what it is.

To Tech, we seniors present the portrait of President Cliff-

Life With The Exes

James Ross, who is stationed at Camp Chaffee, Ark., visited on the campus this week. He is with the Tank Destroyer corps.

Mrs. Norman Hardee, the former Margaret Ball, was married Saturday in Fort Worth. Lieutenant Hardee received his commission from LAAF.

Pvt. Delbert D. Cooper, who was called to service a few weeks ago, is stationed at Amarillo Army Air field. Cooper was a football and basketball player this year.

S-Sgt. Clarence E. Tilley, formerly of Tech, recently wrote a letter to J. H. Millikin, acting director of the division of extension, wishing to take courses which might apply on his degree. Sergeant Tilley is somewhere in the southwest Pacific area.

Maj. Robert Lee Campbell of the U. S. Army Air Corps was reported missing in action over France on March 20, according to a report received by his wife who lives in Maryland.

Aviation Cadet Ray B. Helton recently reported at Carlisbad Army Air field, where he will receive advanced flight training in bombardment and navigation.

Peter Coleman Harmonson recently entered Army Air Forces Training Command school at Yale university for aviation cadet training in maintenance engineering. While at Tech, Harmonson was a member of Sigma Gamma Psi, Psi Chi, Engineering society, and Wranglers.

Harold Carter Chapman received his silver wings this month when he graduated as flight officer from Pecos Army Air field. He was assigned to Pecos from Minter field, Calif.

Daniel B. Turrentine won his Navy "wings of gold" and was commissioned an ensign in the Naval Reserve recently, following completion of the prescribed flight training course at the Naval Air Training center, Pensacola, Fla., which is called the "Annapolis of the Air."

Having been designated a naval aviator, Ensign Turrentine will go on active duty at one of the Navy's air operational training centers before being assigned to a combat zone.

Cpl. Harold J. Altendorf is now attending the Signal corps OCS at Fort Monmouth, N. J. Corporal Altendorf entered the service in May, 1942, and hopes to complete his college training following the war and become an electrical engineer.

His brother, Cpl. Philip A. Altendorf, jr., is also in the Army Signal corps and is now attending OCS in New Jersey. Before entering service in May, 1942, he, too, had attended Tech for three and one-half years studying electrical engineering.

Pvt. Harold W. Hope has been listed as a casualty of the war and was awarded the Purple Heart posthumously. Private Hope enlisted in the Marine corps, June, 1941. He took his basic training at San Diego, Calif., and was then assigned to the USS Arizona. He was in Pearl Harbor at the time of the Japanese attack in December, 1941.

Sgt. Frank R. Elmore is now stationed at Buckley field, Colo., for training as an aviation cadet. Sergeant Elmore enlisted in the Army Air Corps in January, 1940. He was stationed for three and one-half years in Central and South America.

Aviation Cadet Victor R. Jury is now taking primary flight training at Memphis, Tenn. He joined the V-5 program of the Naval Reserve in June, 1942. He had three months of preflight school at Athens, Ga.

Sgt. John D. Stevens is now stationed at the Muroc Army Air base, Muroc, Calif. Sergeant Stevens entered the Army in the Field Artillery division in January, 1942. S-Sgt. Buster Kirk was a member of the service group which salvaged four P-40 Warhawks which crash landed in the jungle of a small island in the South Pacific. Sergeant Kirk entered service in the Army Air Force February, 1942.

Second Lt. Phil D. Phillips is now stationed at Fort Dix, N. J. He entered the Field Artillery two days before Pearl Harbor. Lieutenant Phillips was stationed in California for maneuvers in 1942, was shipped back to Fort Sill to get his commission, went to Camp Barkeley, and then to the California desert training center.

Second Lt. Neal Nichols transferred to the Marine corps. Lieutenant Nichols enlisted in the Navy and went to the Naval Air Training center in Corpus Christi, where he was graduated in October, 1943, and was commissioned an ensign before he was transferred.

Ensign H. A. Leslie, '38, is now studying Pratt and Whitney engines at Hartford, Conn. He entered the service in the Naval Reserve in June, 1943, at Indianapolis, Ind. Ensign Leslie was called into active service in November, 1943, with the commission. He was sent to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology to study aeronautical engineering. He remained there until ford B. Jones. He, too, is saying farewell at the close of this semester. We leave this painting to commemorate him and ourselves; it is our meager way of saying "thanks" to Tech and to President Jones, who has proven himself a well-qualified "boss" for us these past years.

There is no need to mention the fact that we will miss Tech and that we will retain vivid memories. It is understood that we will like to think of the bull sessions in our rooms, coke-chats in the Bookstore, football games, pep rallies and dances, to say nothing of the academic side of life here, of early morning classes, nights spent studying for exams, and the knowledge we soaked up from lectures, and of the information discovered in the Library while doing that last minute research on a term paper.

In spite of our reminiscing, we leave you other Techsians a school of which we are proud. We realize that we have accepted it for the best and we feel confident that we leave it in as capable hands as we found it.—G. J.

11 February, 1943. Second Lt. Bill Rives is in the Engineers Petroleum Distribution unit somewhere in North Africa.

He entered in the service at Fort Bliss in January, 1941.

Lt. (jg) T. B. Bain, an ex-Red Raider, enlisted in the Naval Reserve June, 1942, and was promoted from ensign to his present rank in May, 1943.

Lt. (jg) J. M. Bertrand, who is aboard the USS Bowfin (submarine) writes Dean A. H. Leidigh that he "happened to be at the right place at the right time recently—resulted in a Silver Star; lucky, cause it liked to have been purple."

Austin Dean Terrel recently received his wings when he graduated as a second lieutenant from the Pecos Army Air Force Advanced Two-Engine Pilot school. Lieutenant Terrel was assigned to Pecos from Minter field, Calif.

Aviation Cadet Robert Jackson has been stationed in California since he entered the service in the Army Air Corps in February, 1943.

Lt. Warren Adams was graduated recently from the Big Spring Bombardier school, receiving his commission as second lieutenant in the Army Air Force.

D. Varn Rober, who is a member of Phi Beta Phi Medical fraternity, recently was among the first class of seniors to be graduated by the Southwestern Medical college in Dallas. Doctor Rober will receive his internship at Gallinger Municipal in Washington, D. C.

Seaman Cecil Metrell of the Navy is stationed in Farragut, Idaho. He has recently completed his boot training. The former Red Raider coached Freshman football at St. Mary's university, San Antonio in 1939 and 1940, and before entering service he was employed with the Goodrich Synthetic Rubber company at Borger.

Lt. Penrod Pearson recently married the former Rosemary Smith of New York. Lieutenant Pearson received his commission in the Army Air force in 1942 and has since been stationed in Alaska and Canada.

Aviation Cadet Quinton Hamrick recently completed primary training at Blythe, Calif. and is now beginning flight training as a pilot at Ontario, Calif.

Maj. Roy A. Webb, jr., is now flying his P-47 Thunderbolt fighter. "Sweet Thing III," providing protection for the army's Flying Fortresses and Liberators smashing Germany's war production centers. Major Webb, who has been in the Army Air Force since 1940, is commanding officer of his squadron. He was commissioned on Nov. 15, 1940, at Brooks field, served 27 months in Central America and it was there that "Sweet Thing I" and "Sweet Thing II" were painted on the engine cowlings of a Curtiss Warhawk and Bell Aircraft.

Sgt. Maurice E. Jury is now stationed at Bushnell Army Air field in Florida. Corporal Long entered the Army Air Corps on September 1943, and he received his basic training at March field, Calif. Prior to joining the armed forces, Long served two years in the Dallas County Engineers office, and as chief engineer for a year with the American Highway in Central America.

Capt. Jerry Collingsworth has received the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Purple Heart, the Air Medal with 17 Oak Leaf Clusters and the European Campaign ribbon. He entered the service in August, 1941, and had been in 30 states before going overseas. Captain Collingsworth is the veteran of 125 combat missions over enemy territory including the battle of Dieppe in August, 1942, the invasion of Africa in November, 1942, battle for the Island of Pantelleria in June, 1943, and the invasion of Sicily in July, 1943. He is personally credited with shooting down six German Focke-Wulf planes. Captain Collingsworth is now stationed at Telahoma, Tenn.

Pvt. Harper Scoggins is stationed at Camp Sibert, Ala. He is in the Chemical Warfare service. Scoggins was inducted in September, 1943.

Sgt. Samuel W. McCloy has been in England since December, 1943. He was inducted into the Field Artillery branch of the Army in July, 1942.

Cpl. Dan Smoots, '41, enlisted in the Chemical Warfare division in June, 1942, however, he has been in the personnel department for the past year. Corporal Smoots was sent to the South Pacific theater of war in June, 1943, and was at Guadalcanal and New Caledonia.

Capt. Joseph Edson Herbst is now stationed somewhere in Italy. He entered the service on January 1, 1942, as a second lieutenant in the Army Engineers. Captain Herbst received his promotion to first lieutenant in England in July, 1942, and was promoted to his

2... Another By COUNT MEOUT

With the coming of spring poetry blossoms anew on the campus to wit:

Never trust a gentleman, Always hesitate

A gentleman is just a wolf, A wolf who's willing to wait.

And with the coming of spring, comes exams which brings to mind this thought: "Examinations are formidable even to the best prepared, for the greatest fool may ask more than the wisest man can answer." All and sundry have permission to use said sentiments in lieu of an examination paper.

Now the count will get down to facts:

BETTY McCOY is sporting a beautiful hunk of ring, naturally from REX HARRIS.

M. F. BLEDSOE was having a gay time with a sailor Sunday night.

ANNA LEE CONE and MARJORIE STREET were with ex-Techsian lieutenants at the DFD dinner-dance.

Wonder what the home town rancher is going to do since BETH JACKSON isn't going home again until school's out?

From what we hear Amarillo will never be the same again after the WRANGLERS get through painting the town red during their reunion to be held here after the semester's over.

ROSEMARY ANDERSON was visiting on the campus this weekend. She is a La Ventana beauty.

Martha Wilson was apparently running a one woman USO Sunday afternoon.

J. EVETTS HALEY would have got a better crowd if he had spoken in the Bookstore. Notably present were MAXINE CRADDOCK, CHARLES STEED, and MENON STANGLE.

BETTY HERRING is a firm believer in variety. She was seen making the rounds Sunday first with an enlisted man and later with a cadet.

HUGH MONROE and DORIS present rank in January, 1944.

Machinist Mate Carl Gardner is aboard the USS President Polk. He entered the service in the Navy in March, 1942, and he had been to New Zealand and other islands before returning to the states in July, 1943.

Second Lt. Bill J. Rives is now serving in the Engineers Petroleum Distribution unit somewhere in North Africa. He entered service at Fort Bliss in January, 1941.

Pvt. Maurice E. Jury is stationed at Dodd field, Fort Sam Houston. Sgt. Maurice E. Jury, who joined the Army Air force in April, 1942, was sent to Australia in October, 1943.

Sgt. E. Dewe Stevens has been in England since October, 1943, with his Liberator Bomber division. He has attended Balliol college, Oxford, for further training.

Campus Observations-

THE Toreador staff realizes that this is the last edition of the paper they will get out at Texas Tech, and its approach has been met with mixed feelings.

The entire staff hates to say goodbye to the "beats" that have given them news, and that have come to mean something more than a remote office or offices in some unfamiliar part of the campus. It is hard to leave all the copy paper and typewriters and waiting around to get a story, because by living with these things, a news reporter comes to hold them for ones own and hates to relinquish the right to some one else. At the same time it gives the staff a certain amount of satisfaction and joy to know that they have served this year to bring news to the Toreador, that bits from all over the campus might reach the entire student body. It has been a pleasure to associate with new faculty members named in getting out a college paper.

This year's Toreador staff wishes to thank the people on each of the different "beats" for their cooperation and to add that they hope all has been satisfactory.

Sometimes the news may have looked a bit thin, a story you wanted to read may have had to be omitted, and it makes us sad to realize that your school paper may not have always pleased you, but we hope you can give a thumbs-up sign and place an o.k. for the Toreador, 1942-44.

The college is not having to bid the Toreador goodbye until next Tuesday afternoon. So were HOPE HOLBROOK and BETTY COPE.

It's an old story with PHYLLIS YOUNG and RAY RHODES, KIDY BELLE COLE and DON KLEINSCHMIDT, MARY WELLS and PAT BLOUNT, SARAH WILKINS and CARL HUDSON.

VIRGIL MERRIS will escort dream-girl HOPE CADE to the Wrangler dance Friday.

PAT KEEN was seen walking to an 8 o'clock holding hands with MISTER X.

BETTIE WHITE, who certainly gets around with an ex-Techsian sailor in the Bookstore the other day.

Wish someone would tell the COUNT who RUTH YOWS finally had a date with the DFD dinner-dance.

ELIZABETH BELEW held the knot Saturday with LT. DONEL ROBERTS of Dallas.

Wonder if LULU VANLANDINGHAM has heard from the cadet she met at the introduction dance Friday night.

DOROTHY FOSTER and HERE were most surprised by a car which turned the corner by the Bookstore the other night.

LA VERNE HENDERSON was starting around "the other" night with a cadet.

DOROTHY MARRS is lighting the campus with her bright smiles these days. She receives a daily letter from pre-fighter what's his name.

ELEANOR JACKSON and ELIZABETH McLARRY didn't get to the DFD dinner dance because their dates were too busy holding down airplanes to get away.

FREDA HODGES is wearing a sparkler that is really a honey, contributor being WESLEY CRAIG.

fall as a group of summer school students have arranged to get out a paper once a week, but its present editor and reporters are signing 30 to a year's work and putting out their last edition.

New problems will come to Tech, but under capable leadership these situations can be mastered as has been shown by the past student body bowing out this semester. A war was raging when school opened and still is. Our student enrollment was cut to an alarming extent, and our faculty suffered as well, but we have managed to survive the storm and come out ahead looking forward to another year.

When former and new students return to the campus next year, it will be under different student officers, and probably new amendments to the constitution. It is up to us as Techsians to elect the best officers possible and to do all we can to insure for the new students, for the students leaving and for those listing Tech as their college to see to it that Tech will always be progressing toward becoming a better and better college.

This year we have seen another Red Raider team, probably the youngest yet, but still a good team, represent Tech to the best of its ability, we have cheered for the 1944 basketball five for the last time, we have heard the last Matador band concert and now we read the final 1944 long session edition of the Toreador, but we realize that these things are only passing to make way for others that will add history and tradition to Tech.

And now it really is "so long," and it's been swell editing a paper for Techsians by Techsians.—M. L.

Seventeen Men Report At Gym

Three New Players On Raider Squad

Spring basketball practice started this week with 17 men reporting to Coach Polk Robinson.

Plans for the spring workout include forming two teams—one composed of the men who will probably be here next year and the other of those who are not likely to stay.

Several scrimmages will be played between these two teams, and one big game will end their training for the spring.

Three new men not associated with the squad this past semester reported for the spring training. One of them, Odell Chandler, showed up especially well.

The men that have been placed on the likely to be back next semester squad are: Don Grove, Jay Kerr, who has received a discharge from Army, Tex Wallace, Jack Dillon, who has received a discharge from military service also, Paul Haskins and the three new men Odell Chandler, Charles Altmiller and Doyce Newton.

The lettermen from the past semester reporting are: Don Grove, Monument, N. Mex.; Hubert Bechtel, Lubbock; Phil Ragland, Lubbock; Jay Kerr, Channing; Tex Wallace, Portales, N. Mex.

Squadmen returning for this spring training are: Charles Miller, Hobbs, N. Mex.; Jack Dillon, Chillicothe; Leon Grisson, Farwell; Jan Blackwell, Littlefield; Ronald Cleavinger, Springlake; Jim White, Wichita Falls; Hubert Burgess, Lubbock; Claude Freeman, Fluvanna.

Callahan Was Named Honor CAA Graduate

Ex-grid star J. R. Callahan has had another honor conferred on him, and this one is not due to his ability on the football field.

According to the release from the Records office, Navy Pre-Flight school, Athens, Ga., Callahan ranked highest in the graduating group in overall averages in academic, military and athletic work.

Last season he was voted one of the outstanding grid stars in the Southwest. He played football at Tech before entering the V-5 program. He was sent to Texas university where he played on the Longhorn team. His work in the fullback slot last season for Texas university was rated tops in that section. He also played with the Longhorns in the Cotton Bowl. As a member of the 43rd Battalion, Callahan served as battalion adjutant and sub-commander.

Newman club had its annual spring dance Saturday night in Newman hall. This program dance was a semi-formal affair.

Those attending included members of the club and dates and faculty members who have been connected with the club this year.

Decorations were in the form of a tropical scene with palm trees and moon.

Eight Couples Play In Girls Tennis Match

Finals for the tennis tournament will be played tomorrow afternoon at the college tennis court.

The game was scheduled for last weekend, but the sand and wind made playing impossible so the tournament winners will be matched this week.

The eight couples from different teams taking part in the tournament were: Mildred Coleman, Patsy Sparks, Betty Coffee, Nancy Everline, Jannel Patty, An Cox, Evelyn Lea, Margarette Leggitt, Jane Oliver, Leslie Fox, Doris Richardson, Marjorie Hackbarth, Mona Stout, Kren Watson, Louise Ince and Anita Hale.

Joe Thompson Returns To Tech From Idaho

Joe Thompson has recently been on the campus. He has finished boot training in Idaho and will be stationed in California. Last year he was a letterman in basketball.

PI Department Sponsors Contest

"Identification of weed seeds is as important as crop seeds," states Dr. A. W. Young, head of the plant industry department, in his announcement of the annual spring freshman-sophomore crops judging and horticulture contests. The contests, sponsored by the plant industry department, will be held Saturday, April 29.

The identification list includes over a hundred different varieties of plant seeds, according to Dr. Young. The crops judging contest will deal with common threshed grains, such as wheat, oats, barley, alfalfa, and clover.

Students, who are planning to enter the contests and who wish to study the identification of the seeds, will find room 112 in the Agricultural building available in which to practice the judging, announces Dr. Young.

Lt. Ray Ramsey Visits Tech Campus Recently

Lt. Ray Ramsey, who received his commission April 15 at Columbus, Miss., was on the campus recently. He and Mrs. Ramsey were visiting friends in Lubbock during his short leave. Ramsey was a junior geology student when he was called to the Army Air forces last spring.

Language Award Goes To Majors

Students majoring in foreign languages who wish to apply for the Roscoe Wilson Memorial Scholarship fund should see Dr. C. B. Qualla, head of the foreign language department, immediately.

A stipend of $30 a month for nine months each year has been paid to a student majoring in foreign languages from this fund since 1939. Members of the foreign language staff will select the most deserving student.

The scholarship was awarded to Cullen Tibbets of Plainview in 1939-40; to Elizabeth Fox of Lubbock and Dorothy Margaret Forbis of Wellington jointly in 1940-41; to Rex Lowe of Cameron, 1941-42; to Wilma Ruth Forbis of Wellington and Ruth Joan Connolly of Plainview, jointly 1942-43; and to Monda Hamilton of Lubbock, 1943-44.

Wranglers Have Annual Reunion At Amarillo

May 18 Is Date Set For Opening Of Club Assembly

Fourteenth annual Wrangler reunion will be held May 18 through 21 in Amarillo with headquarters at the Amarillo hotel. The first reunion was held in Ft. Worth and last year's was held in Dallas.

Printed programs of gold paper with green lettering will be given to members and exes who attend. Program for the reunion begins with registration at the Amarillo hotel from 1 to 8 p. m. Thursday, May 18 followed by a short assembly from 8 to 8:15 o'clock in Parlor A after which the group will go to the Aviatrix for a dance.

On Friday a luncheon honoring dates will be held at 12 o'clock in the snack room; business meeting from 1:30 to 2:30 in Parlor A, refreshment hour at 8 p. m. in the snack room; and dance at the Aviatrix.

An all-day picnic will be held Saturday at Palo Duro canyon with a steak fry included; a banquet honoring ex-members will be held at 8:30 o'clock that evening in the Red and Gold room of the Amarillo hotel, followed by dancing at the Nat.

A breakfast Sunday morning in the Red and Gold room will close the reunion.

Wrangler members to attend include Marvin Nuckols, J. W. Hood, R. O. Jenson, Roland Progress, Troy Caldwell, Charles Fugitt, Virgil Miers, Marvin Berry, T. C. Root, Hoke Holbrook, Jackie Jenigan, James Furrh, Robert Schultz, Jimmy Williams, Billy Murfee, Dan Young, Owen Gilbreath, Ralph McCusker, Hugh Monroe, Earl Christie, Johnny Waddell, Bob Dennis, and Gene Nowlin.

Exes who expect to be present are Lehmer Graham, Bob Brewer, Bob Horton, Bill Jackson, Don Hockaday, Billy Aycock.

Members recently received a letter from Wrangler alumni who graduated last year, John Koffer and Billy Boston, now stationed in England, wishing them the best of luck in their reunion.

Approximately 25 Tech girls will attend as dates of members and exes.

Dance Tonight

Wrangler spring dance will be held tonight from 9 until 12 o'clock at the Lubbock hotel with music furnished by C. A. Rodger's orchestra.
