Cooler Weather May Squeeze Food Budget

College Station. Cooler weather increases appetites and this may put a squeeze on your family food budget. Here are some marketing tips to help stretch those food dollars from Guendolyne Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist with Texas A & M University.

At meat counters look for best values on beef round steaks and roasts, the arm and blade roasts and steaks, ground beef, pork shoulder roasts and steaks, end-cut pork chops, bacon, sausage and pork liver. Fryers remain a bargain in most meat departments. Frozen turkeys are selling at reasonable prices, and grade A large size eggs continue to offer the greatest quality and economy combination.

Fresh fruit and vegetable items in good supply at economical prices include, apples, bananas, Tokay grapes, oranges, cabbage, dry yellow

Federal Tax Questions And Answers

This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—I have already paid my tax bill but I just got another bill for it anyway. What should I do?
A—Return the bill with the notation that you have already paid it. Give the date the payment was made and the office to which it was sent to help identify your payment.

The computer system used for the processing of tax returns operates on a sequential or step by step basis. Information can only be fed into the system at the beginning and not at any particular stage in the processing cycle. In your case, this could mean that the data on your tax payment had not reached the stage where bills are issued before it was time for a reminder notice to be sent to you.

Q—What's the provision of the law that allows a deduction for losses suffered as a result of street riots?

A—Losses stemming from riots are handled under the same provisions as those providing tax relief for casualty and theft losses. If a personal property loss qualifies under these provisions, that part of the loss exceeding $100 may be deducted. Qualifying business property losses are deductible in full. A casualty is defined as the complete or partial destruction of property, resulting from an identifiable event of a sudden, unexpected nature. Losses resulting from hurricanes, tornadoes, floods, fire storms, as well as from riots qualify under this provision.

For more details, send a post card to your district director and ask for a copy of Document No. 5174, "Disasters, Casualties and Thefts."

Q—Where can I get a copy of an estimated tax declaration?

A—Send a post card to your district director asking for a copy of Form 1040ES.

The next quarterly installment on estimated tax payments is due January 15. A taxpayer amending his declaration or filing an estimate form for the first time, should also do this by January 15.

Q—I've been supporting my uncle for some years. Will I lose my deduction for him if he goes into a rest home?

A—A close relative does not have to be a member of your household to qualify as your dependent. As long as other tests are met, you will still be able to claim your uncle as a dependent even though he no longer lives with you.

Q—I take care of my neighbor's child while she works. Do I have to pay tax on what she pays me?

A—The money you receive for this should be added to your other income for the year. If your gross income from this and other sources amounts to $600 or more then you must file a return. If you file a joint return with your husband then this income must be reported even when it is under $600.

PROTECTIVE HEADGEAR REQUIRED BEGINNING JANUARY 1, 1968—All motorcyclists and their passengers will be required by law to wear safety approved headgear whenever riding a motorcycle after the first of January. Headgear meeting Texas Department of Public Safety standards must bear a manufacturer's identification sticker on the back and reflective material on the sides (as shown in the photographs). A list of approved headgear may be seen at any police department, sheriff's office, Department of Public Safety office, or stores retailing motorcycle headgear.

If net income from taking care of your neighbor's child totals $400 or more you also may be liable for a self-employment tax. Be sure to check this when you add up your income for the year.

Q—I'm a salesman and had to buy a car to cover my route. Can I deduct this cost when I file my return?

A—No. However you may deduct 10 cents for every mile you used the car on your job up to 15,000 miles. If your mileage exceeds that, additional miles traveled on business may be deducted at 7 cents a mile. Tolls, parking and similar items are also deductible.

Instead of this method of deducting your business travel expenses, you may figure the actual operating costs of your car for the year. This would include depreciation, gas and oil, insurance, repairs and other operating costs.

Mrs. Dee Willis of Dallas and Mrs. Claud Tucker of Liberty were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Jones on Wednesday. The ladies are cousins, they all drove to the Ballinger Cemetery visiting the graves of relatives.

Fine Print In Your Deed

Could you take a boarder into your home if you wanted to? Use a back room for running a business? Add a second story on top of your garage? Of course, local zoning laws may stand in the way. But even if they don't your hands may be tied by the fine print in your own deed.

A typical deed, while giving you title to your property, also puts limitations on how you may use it. Such limitations, commonly called "restrictive covenants," may play a decisive role in your household planning.

Restrictive covenants, that are usually placed on deeds by the original subdivider, may forbid all sorts of things in a particular neighborhood.

They have been used to keep out everything from outdoor toilets to boarding houses from second stories to cemeteries.

Generally speaking, the law will enforce such restrictions as a reasonable method of preserving property values. After all, the same rules that restrain you, to protect your neighbors, also restrain them to protect you.

But restrictions will not be enforced if they are against public policy. Nor will the law enforce a restriction which, even though valid at first, has fallen out of date. For instance:

A home owner in an aging neighborhood decided to tear down his house and build a store. But a disgruntled neighbor took him to court, pointing to a restrictive covenant against any "business use" of the property on that block.

However, the first man showed that stores had already invaded not only the streets near by but also that very block. And, until this occasion, no one every objected.

On this evidence, the court held that the covenant was no longer binding. As one judge put it:

"Restrictive covenants will not be enforced merely to harass some particular person, when it is clear that the objective for which the restrictive covenants were originally entered into have already failed."

You can cook a 3-minute egg faster with gas than with electricity.

Here's why. With a modern gas range there's no slow warm-up period. You turn the burner on and get the desired amount of heat—instantly! Burner-with-a-Brain holds that precise temperature until cooking is done. No waiting, no watching, no wondering with flame fast gas. You can see the flame go to work the instant you turn the burner on.

(Of course, faster cooking means less gas used and more economy for you!) Only modern gas cooking gives you this much control, flexibility and speed. See the wide variety of modern gas ranges at your local gas appliance dealer or LONE STAR GAS.

GOLDEN TOUCH OF HOSPITALITY
BY JANE ASHLEY

Serve A Different Cherry Pie

A quick and different cherry meringue pie uses thickened canned cherries and a meringue sprinkled with cinnamon sugar for a spicy flavor.

SPICY CHERRY MERINGUE PIE

1 8-inch baked pastry shell
1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons corn starch
1 (16 to 17-ounce) can water pack cherries
2 egg whites
4 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon desired flavoring
2 tablespoons cinnamon sugar (about)

Combine 1/2 cup sugar and corn starch in saucepan. Drain juice from cherries and blend with sugar mixture. Add cherries. Stirring constantly, bring to boil and boil 1 minute. Pour immediately into baked pastry shell.

Beat egg whites until foamy. Add 4 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time, beating well after each addition. Continue beating until stiff peaks form when beater is raised. Beat in desired flavoring. Spread some meringue around edge of filling first, to touch crust all around; then fill in center or arrange in peaks in center. Sprinkle with cinnamon sugar. Bake until meringue is lightly browned, 15 to 20 minutes in 350° F. (moderate) oven or about 5 minutes in 425° F. (hot) oven. Cool at room temperature, away from drafts.

For 9-inch pie: Prepare double recipe of filling. Increase ingredients for meringue to 3 eggs whites and 6 tablespoons sugar.

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

Austin, Texas — Voter registration for the big 1968 election year is getting into full swing. Secretary of State John L. Hill already is busy sending out detailed instructions for county tax assessors.

As chief election officer, Hill discussed current problems with an advisory committee of tax officials (who are local registrars) and reviewed suggested ground rules.

He remains firm in his agreement with an attorney general's opinion that voters must bring or mail in their own registration applications or submit them through authorized members of their immediate family.

Bloc or bulk registrations are outlawed by an October 11 opinion. It brought critical comment from former State Sen. Franklin Spears, head of a liberal-backed drive to register five million voters.

Hill encourages house-to-house registration drives and says there is no restriction on the manner or the extent of distributing application forms. He is advising local registrars that:

• There is no limit on reproduction of sample registration forms by third parties or purchase of those ordered by official registrars.

• Solicitors may encourage individuals to register but must avoid inducing registration through false or misleading representation.

• Assistance to the applicant is all right (including filling out forms), but the voter must supply the necessary information himself and sign the form or place his mark on it.

• Drives may furnish envelopes and even stamps to voters, but the applicant must mail the form.

• Local registrars should provide blank, simple forms to all who request them, but each registrar may fix his own policies as to furnishing forms in large quantities to solicitors.

Spears has called on registrars to ignore the attorney general's opinion, and accept applications delivered by a third party solicitor in bulk, or a group of applications sent in the same envelope. Spears claims the opinion is the result of a "plot" to keep the registrations low.

COURTS SPEAK
The Texas Supreme Court

heard Sun Oil Company arguments for the right to use fresh water from the Ogallala formation, for oil well flooding purposes on their Hockley County lease. Lower courts have denied the Sun suit. A landowner and High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 contend that use of the water would dangerously deplete irrigation supplies.

Houston finance company seeks a ruling from the Austin district court as to its rights under the Texas Regulatory Loan Act to buy discounted home improvement notes from contractors. State Consumer Credit Commissioner Frank Miskell was named defendant.

The Supreme Court knocked out contempt of court citations against three in a Denton County dispute over a 30-foot strip of land because the district judge failed to follow procedural rules limiting duration of temporary restraining orders.

The state obtained a $34,952 judgment against a Dallas man by consolidating five cases involving slant hole oilwell drilling in Gregg, Wood and Rusk counties.

Court of Criminal Appeals divided 3-2 in upholding a Harrison County death penalty murder conviction, with the majority finding the condemned man had adequate warning of his constitutional right six days before he confessed to the crime.

INJUNCTION ASKED
Texas Water Quality Board has asked Attorney General Crawford Martin to seek an injunction to keep the Enchanted Oaks subdivision, just outside Houston, from making any more connections to new housing being constructed in the area until it complies with its permit.

A hearing revealed that the district had put in a temporary 19,000-gallon per day plant when its permit called for 60,000 gallons a day. Then it let contracts to build a 200,000-gallon per day plant without Board approval or a permit from the State Health Department.

Board wants construction on 18 new homes stopped along with the work on the unapproved treatment plant.

WORKMEN'S COMP PREMIUM CUT
The State Board of Insurance has approved a 4.2 per cent cut in workmen's compensation insurance premiums effective December 1. Slash, which is based on premium and loss statistics, mean a $7,000,000 reduction in 1968.

Board Chairman Hunter McLean said cuts in insurance company expenses and fewer accidents made savings possible, despite rising medical costs and incomes. He said this emphasizes the importance of accident prevention programs.

Reductions by major classes included: All combined, 4.2 per cent; manufacturing classes, 3.4 per cent; contracting, 5.1 per cent; oil, 4.2 per cent and all other classes, 4 per cent.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES
Attorney General Martin clarified the state's complex, mandatory retirement provisions for Texas judges, as set forth in the constitution, with a new lengthy opinion.

In another ruling, Martin concluded that the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation has the duty and authority to provide necessary medical treatment or services to persons admitted or committed to its institutions, without obtaining consent from relatives or guardians.

SCREWORM INCREASE FEARED Hurricane Beulah may have stirred an outbreak of the plant when its permit called for 60,000 gallons a day. Then it let contracts to build a 200,000-gallon per day plant without Board approval or a permit from the State Health Department.

Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation reports 151 cases in 24 counties from South to West Texas. These are the most cases of the year and actually occurred in cooler weather when the problem usually declines. The screwworm fly is windblown.

Foundation president Dolph Briscoe Jr. of Uvalde said hurricanes and floods posed an emergency situation in the screwworm eradication program. Foundation leaders are requesting the U. S. Department of Agriculture for additional funds to expand the screwworm sterilization program which faces the threat of a cutback to recent federal spending cuts.

RETAIL RECORD DUE
While downtown Christmas decorations are being strung up, Texas retailers already are looking forward to record sales in most lines during the next two months.

zTexas Bureau of Business Research reports that the 11 per cent Aug. to September decline in durable sales and five per cent drop in non-durable sales shook retailers' confidence "more than was warranted."

More encouraging signs point to "surprisingly strong" apparel stores sales this fall, and "substantial increases" are seen in furniture and appliance store sales.

Total construction index in Texas fell to 127.1 in September from an abnormal high of 245.8 in August. Mark was the lowest for the year except for January's 106.6 reading. Despite this decline, the September index still was 10 per cent above September, 1966. Building permits totaled $131,700,000. Value of 1967 building probably will hit an all-time record.

AIR BOARD HEARINGS SET
Texas Air Control Board scheduled hearings this week to consider adoption of revisions to its rules and regulations to bring them in line with the Clean Air Act of 1967.

Three other key regulations will be considered, namely, 1, those dealing with control of outdoor burning of waste; 2, establishment of air standards for sulphur dioxide, sulfuric acid and hydrogen sulfide; and 3, supplementation of controls for pollution from vehicles (generally applicable to 1968 and later model vehicles.)

SHORT SNORTS
Texas Public Employees Association named these new officers: president, Don Kirby Miller of the Comptroller's Department; vice-president, C. A. Shoemaker, Texas Employment Commission; treasurer, Rupert S. Gregory, Texas State Employees Retirement System; and secretary, Miss Evangeline Lane, Department of Public Welfare.

Justice Jack M. Langdon of the Fort Worth Court of Civil Appeals is unopposed as nominee for chairman of the Texas State Bar's Judicial section.

Rep. Don Gladden of Fort Worth, a liberal, said he expects to run for lieutenant governor in 1968.

Motocyclists must have authorized headgear by Jan. 1, Department of Public Safety Chief Homer Garrison, Jr. reminds.

Sens. Jack Hightower and James S. Bates, both former district attorneys, have been named to the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice.

Applicants for free hunts on seven wildlife management areas this fall totaled 24,950, or 7,500 more than last year.

Mrs. Frank Turner, who has been visiting in El Paso several weeks, is home and her daughter, Mrs. Dodson Garrett, who brought her will visit several days. Mrs. Emma Douglas, a niece of the late Mr. Turner accompanied them, visiting during the weekend enroute to Arkansas.

Mrs. Hardy Blue visited in Brownwood Sunday with Mrs. Ernest Allen.
