How Santa Anna And Communities Voted

Lane Guthrie Becomes Junior Member of Angus Association

Lane Guthrie, 12, Santa Anna, Texas, has been granted a junior membership in the American Angus Association at St. Joseph, Mo., announces Dick Nobis, president. This new junior membership entitles the member to register purebred Angus at regular membership rates and to the privileges of the Association until the age of 21. At that time junior members are eligible to convert to lifetime memberships in the association. There were 179 young people in the United States to receive junior memberships last month.

Fideles Class In All Day Meet Tuesday

The Fideles Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met at the church annex for an all-day meeting Tuesday, Oct. 15. Mrs. Fred Jones gave the devotional and Mrs. Keetie Haynes led the group in prayer. The class yearbooks were completed and a quilt finished during the afternoon.

Hunting Season Opens Saturday November 9th

The best hunting prospects in years face hunters this year when the season on deer, turkey and quail opens Saturday, November 9, in many counties in Texas.

Hunters are urged to check their 1968-69 Texas Hunting Guide, or consult local authorities to find out what seasons start when and where.

Texas has more than three million deer and approximately half the entire wild turkey population in the United States. Coleman County hunters have traditionally gone to the Hill Country or other areas to hunt game, but more and more people report deer and turkey on their ranches in the County.

The duck season will not open until December 14.

Junior Football Season Ends

The Santa Anna Junior High football team ended the season last Thursday night when they were defeated by the Coleman Junior High team, 28-0. The Junior Mountaineers will begin basketball practice for the coming season. Dwight Hudson is coach for the Junior High team.

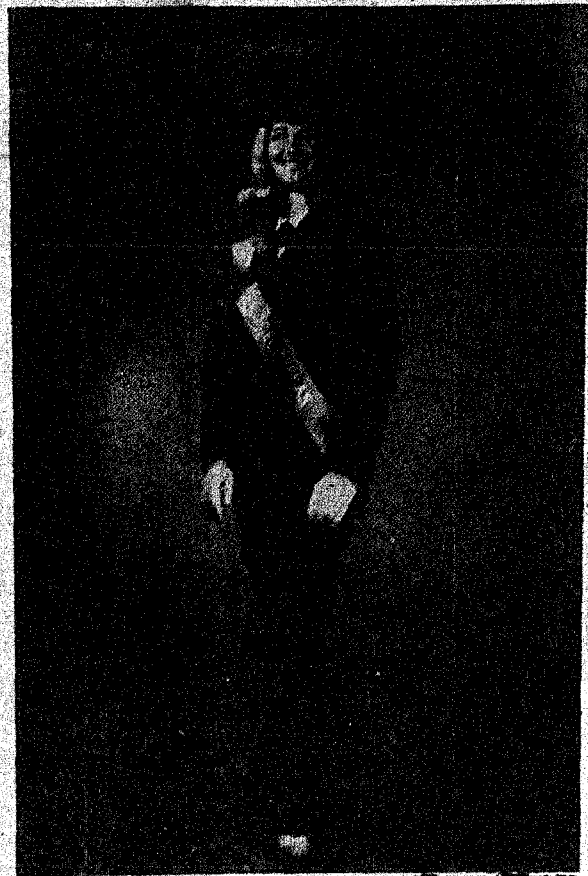

Voters turned out in our community in near-record numbers Tuesday to mark their ballot in the election. 592 people voted in the Santa Anna box with the totals as follows:

Humphrey — 247
Nixon — 213
Wallace — 131

At Rockwood the voters favored Humphrey who led with 47 votes. Nixon polled 12 and Wallace got 19.

Nixon carried the Shields box with 26. Humphrey received 20, and Wallace 11. None of the amendments were approved at Shields, while at Rockwood and Santa Anna two of the amendments passed.

Election Judges were, Glen Copeland, Santa Anna; Mrs. Edger Shelton, Shields, and Bert Fowler, Rockwood.

Miss Sonja Neff, Miss Rodeo Texas To Compete In Miss Rodeo America Contest

The Miss America of the Western World will be chosen in Las Vegas, Nevada next week and Santa Anna has an entry in the contest. Sonja Neff, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Neff will compete for Miss Rodeo America on November 10-13. Sonja was eligible for the contest after being named Miss Rodeo Texas in August.

Sonja, a sophomore at Texas Tech at Lubbock, is no newcomer to titles, rodeo or otherwise. She was chosen Queen of the Santa Anna Junior Rodeo while still in high school, and was Queen of the Coleman County Junior Rodeo last summer. Another honor was being named runner-up to Miss Texas Appaloosa two years ago. Rodeos and riding aren't the only interest for the pretty coed, who while in school here was an accomplished twirler, winning numerous medals and awards while a twirler in both the junior high and high school bands. She was chosen as Miss Key City Majorette in Abilene during her high school days. Other honors and awards Sonja has received have been Most Beautiful Girl, FFA Sweetheart, and Lions Club Queen.

The Miss Rodeo Texas title began in October, with Sonja's first official appearance at the recent Texas Tech College Rodeo. She will be available to attend rodeos all over the state during the next eleven months, with Houston and San Antonio on her schedule for February. Sonja has arranged her college courses with her rodeo activities in mind—she only has classes on Tuesday and Thursday in order to attend events held during the weekends. Sonja is majoring in elementary education and minoring in physical education. Plans now call for Miss Neff to fly to Nevada next weekend for the four-day contest, where about 20 state entries are judged on appearance, personality, and horsemanship. Sonja will be accompanied by her mother and sister, Vicki Jo.

Our congratulations to Sonja Neff, and the NEWS joins in wishing her success at the national contest.

New Meeting Date Set For PT-A

The Santa Anna Parent Teacher Association will meet at the elementary school auditorium Wednesday, November 13, at 3:00 p. m. The meeting is being held on the new date and time, recently adopted by the organization.

The program will include a film and discussion of the report of the Governor's Committee on Education, which especially affects the small schools such as Santa Anna.

All PTA members are urged to be present and parents of all school children and other interested people are invited to attend.

H. A. Burden Honored With Birthday Party

H. A. (Sy) Burden was honored Tuesday night with a surprise birthday party in the hospitality room of the Santa Anna Bank. Hostesses for the occasion were his wife and daughter, Mrs. Charles Snider.

Mrs. Snider greeted guests and each one registered before Mr. Burden arrived.

Refreshments of birthday cake, nuts, candy and frosted punch were served, from milk glass appointments. The decorations in red, white and blue were of political motif, with a donkey and an elephant used in the centerpiece.

Guests sat a quartet tables for games of dominoes. About 25 friends attended the birthday celebration.

Mounties Lose Close Contest

The Santa Anna Mountaineers really put a scare to the Colthwaite Eagles last Friday night when they held them scoreless through three quarters and scored nine points themselves in the first half. Most of the fans at the football game had already decided that the Mountaineers had won their first game this season.

The Mountaineers looked terrific all night as they have in past games and still came out on the short end of the scoreboard.

The first score of the game came in the second quarter when Don Fitzpatrick returned a Eagle punt 46 yards for a TD.

Then, Ricky Abernathy booted a 27 yard field goal to put the Mounties out in front 9 to 0 at the half.

The third quarter was scoreless and the Goldthwaite eagles, a 34-point favorite, ran over two touchdowns in the fourth period and kicked both extra points to defeat the Mounties 14-9.

School Board Holds Regular Monthly Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Santa Anna Independent School District Board of Trustees was held at the High School office Tuesday night. Routine business was attended to and reports were given by Supt. Cullen Perry on several matters concerning the school.

A new Interscholastic League rule limiting awards to high school students was discussed, with the new ruling to go into effect this year. High School students may be given only one major award (letter jacket) during their four years in school. Previously they have been eligible to receive one a year.

The board adopted a Guidance Plan—which is the policies under which the school counselor operates his program.

The bills and accounts for the month were approved for payment, and copies of a budget analysis were given to members of the board.

The next meeting of the board will be held on Tuesday, December 3.

Patricia Beard Is Halloween Carnival Queen

Miss Patricia Beard, junior class candidate, was crowned Halloween Queen at the coronation ceremony during the Junior Class Halloween Carnival last Saturday night. Named King was her escort Jerry Horner. Parents of the school royalty are Mr. and Mrs. James Avants and Mrs. Carson Horner. Other class nominees were Patti Perkins, freshman; Gail Robinett, sophomore; and Donna Strickland, senior.

A large crowd attended the carnival and coronation which is an annual event sponsored by the juniors.

One of the attractions at the Halloween Carnival Saturday night was a guessing contest, with a large table lamp given as a prize to the person guessing the number of pinto beans in a gallon jar. Guesses ranged from 1,000 beans to 2,000,000—with everyone speculating what the correct number would be.

To the amusement of everyone on hand, Supt. Cullen Perry quickly applied mathematics—his specialty—and calculated the number of beans in a cubic inch, multiplied by the number of cubic inches in a gallon, and won the prize. Mr. Perry's "guess" was only 150 beans away from the 3,855 total!

Self Culture Club To Meet

The Self Culture Club will meet Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W. B. Sparkman at 3:00 p. m. The program topic will be "Japan" and those on the program will be Mrs. J. L. Harris, Mrs. Hardy Blue, and Mrs. Bert Turney. Roll call will be answered with a current event.

Girls Basketball Scrimages Set

Santa Anna High School team has begun work-outs in preparation for the coming season. Tommie Tate, coach, has 28 girls reporting for the team this year.

The local girls finished second in the district race last year, losing only two close games to the district winner, Cross Plains. The Santa Anna girls are looking forward to a successful season as they only lost one starter from the squad, guard France Oakes.

Two all-district players on the squad are Vicki Jo Neff and Willie Lee Terrell. Other starters will be Frankie Bray and Gay Rutherford, forwards and Sue Kingsbery and Barbara Jones, guards.

The first outside scrimmage will be played with the Mozelle girls at Mozelle on November 7, at 5:00 p. m. Another game scheduled for the girls early in the season is with Evant, there, on November 12.

About 20 of the athletes will go to Plainview, Saturday, November 9, for the annual Basketball Clinic at Wayland College.

Hail Reported In Some Local Areas

A fast moving line of thunderstorms Saturday dropped rain and hail in some areas of the Santa Anna community, leaving heavy damage to a few isolated homes. The storm did damage as far west as the Leroy Kenney place where maize was knocked from the stalks in the fields.

The Virgil Newman home had its roof ruined by the hail storm, with damage to paint and window screens, and one window broken. In that same neighborhood there was damage at the Jimmy Boggus Farm and at the Dick Baugh home. The hail preceded one-half inch of rain.

Farther east in the Niwot Community, the Pete Moore home had seven of the eight west window panes broken by the hail, and the roof was ruined. About 7 inch of rain fell in that area. The storm covered a very narrow strip with no damage reported in Santa Anna or farther south.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bruce spent last weekend at Crystal City visiting the Jack Kingsbery family.

Editorial

Monday is Veterans Day. November 11, 1968, a day of hope. Fifty years have passed since the end of one of America's great attempts to ensure freedom and peace for the world. Silence had fallen over No Man's Land in Europe at 11:00 a. m. on November 11, 1918, ending World War I. This date and time marked the moment for an annual observance by the United States. It was called "Armistice Day."

Now, fifty years later, we are still looking forward toward the future and the achievement of a world free of aggression.

For eight years, the people of the nation paused on November 11 to pay homage to the 4½ million men who represented the United States in this great conflict. There had been 128,000 men who paid the supreme sacrifice. They were remembered in services beginning on November 11, 1921. Five years later, in 1926, "Armistice Day" was made the official name for this observance. Twelve years later, in 1938, a Congressional Resolution proclaimed the date a legal public holiday.

Just one year, later, in 1939, the hopes of man were shattered when World War II began. Once again, America responded to the challenge. 16½ million men were called to bear arms for the protection of our allies.

Twice since then Americans have rallied to the oppressed—once in Korea and now in Vietnam. When communists invaded Korea and South Vietnam, we came to the aid of those suffering men and women who had envisioned a land of freedom. Today, even though we are in the throes of such aggression, we still maintain hope, as Americans, for peace for the world, and will not accept a peace of slavery, but a peace of honor.

As we celebrate Veterans Day this year, we pause to remember the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, symbolic of all those Americans who paid with their lives, that our freedom might endure. In the past fifty years, over one-half million men have given their lives in this endeavor.

To these men that we honor, as veterans, we owe a pledge of assurance... that we are indeed worthy of the sacrifices that they have made in order that we may remain free men.

Note: Local citizens are reminded to fly their flags next Monday, November 11, on Veterans' Day.

Needlecraft Club To Meet Thurs.

The Needlecraft Club will meet Thursday (today) at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. John Brown. All members are invited to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Glynn McClure returned home last week from Fort Worth where she visited two weeks with her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Byerly and Christi LeeAnn. Mrs. McClure was there for the arrival of the baby girl.

57 Years Ago In The News

Items from the Community Correspondents in the July 7, 1911 issue:

Longview News:

People of this community are up with their work and haven't anything to do but talk politics and go fishing.

W. M. Phillips, W. E. Vanderford, E. Hardin and their families and Mrs. Phillip's sister from Coleman went to the Jim Ned fishing Saturday. Mr. Phillips happened to a very painful accident while on the trip. He and the other men were riding their horses and mules through the water, when his mule threw him up some distance and he came down across the mule and broke two of his ribs. Old men forget about their age when having a jolly time riding mules.

Trickham Talk:

The Trickham and Rockwood ball teams played a fast game of ball at Trickham last Saturday. Rockwood beat them so bad they didn't know what to do. Also Mr. Grady made a third base hit and crawled on his knees. Boys, Trickham has a swift ball team. If you don't believe it just get against them. The Hollness began a protracted meeting at the Union Church this week.

Live Oak News:

Live Oak celebrated the fourth with a picnic. Had plenty of good ice water and served a delicious supper and games of all kinds were indulged in. Sam and Miss Nellie Cobb, Roy and Misses Ethel and Juanita Freeman of the Plainview Community attended the picnic.

Liberty Dots:

Some of our farmers are cutting their corn. Cotton looks fine considering the drought. Some maize looks fine while most is burnt up. Robert Brown and lady, Kate and Gladys Walker, Bon Taylor, Cal Sheffield, Macie and Sid Blanton and Epp Glasscock were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Campbell on Thursday.

Plainview News:

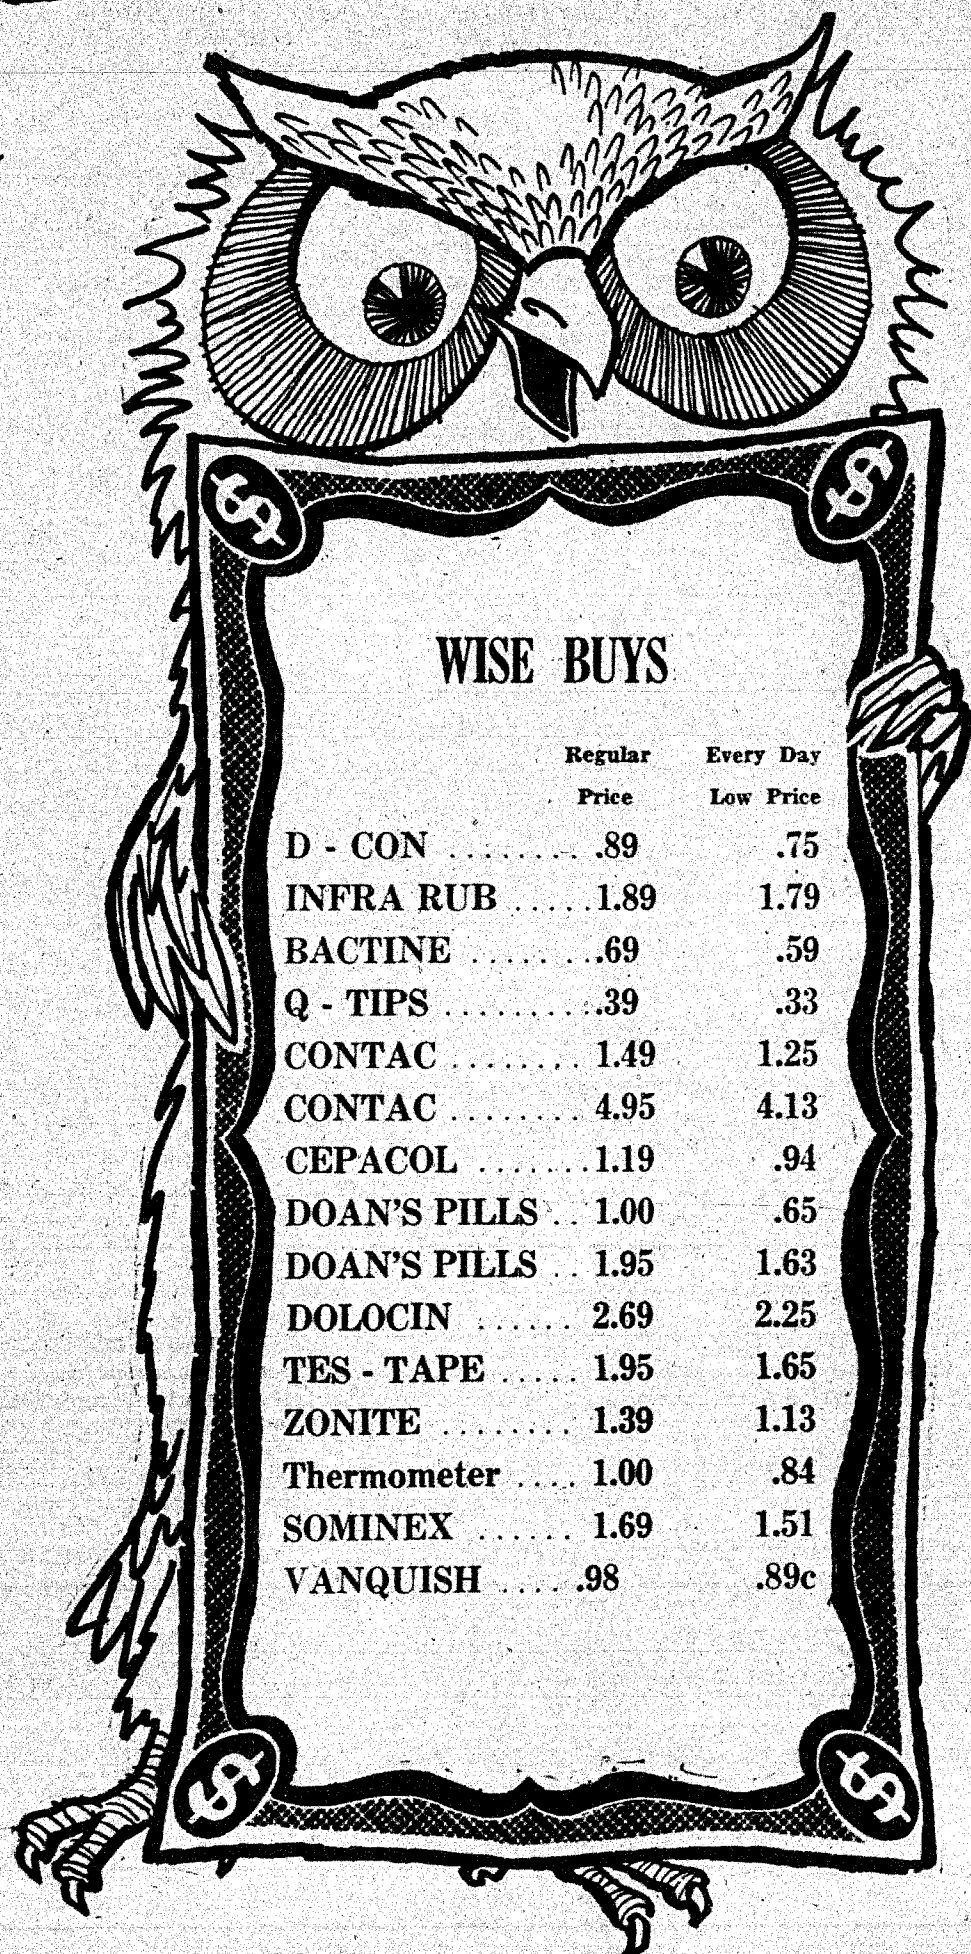

Miss Nona Wallace spent Friday night and Saturday with Maudie Kirkland. The singing at Mr. Gober's was largely attended—and enjoyed by all.

The prohibition club meets at Plainview Saturday night. Eureka Items: Mrs. Inez Drake entertained quite a number of young folks last Monday night as follows: Misses Lizzie Green, Florence Story, Nora Green, and Lew Story. The forty-two game seemed to have been most interesting.

JOE'S PHARMACY

Letter To The Editor

The following is excerpts from a letter from Dr. Chas. Henner, serving as a volunteer physician in Viet Nam.

Province Hospital, Dept. of Surgery, Nha Trang, Viet Nam

sition in America to go to a war torn area, risking life and limb for any purpose? Many of the individuals find themselves in the midst of war for many reasons. A physician who accepts assignments of volunteer services for such an area usually does so for one reason, that being giving service to some unfortunate fellow human

Dear Friends:

Many people will wonder and ask the question, why would anyone want to leave a comfortable and secure po-being that needs medical help! South Viet Nam is a tragic land of 16 million people. Most of these millions of human beings never see a physician. For those who receive some kind of medical care by all sorts of herbalists, healers, quacks, magicians, etc., it is a sad fact that if the individual is rugged enough he survives the treatment.

This letter will bring you up to date on current facts, news, and situation here, as I see it in this old French resort city, midway up the east coast of South Viet Nam.

A number of years ago this was an area of large population, facing the China Sea, on a rich flood plain with a marvelous beach extending some 10-15 miles of beautiful sands, palm trees, etc., surrounded by high tropical mountains on three sides. What was a sleepy little Asiatic sea resort area overnight became a refugee center for 200,000 refugees from the Communists and Viet Cong, thrown into pitiful slum conditions of mud, filth, disease, starvation and death.

As VPVN (Volunteer Physician for Viet Nam) I am classified under special State Department status. Although this is supposed to be one of the quieter and protected installations, frequently, day and night one will hear heavy artillery blasting the surrounding mountains, keeping the Viet Cong at a reasonable distance.

From what I have seen of our American men, both rank and file, and leadership here in Viet Nam, in Saigon, and Nha Trang, we can all be proud of these men, with very few and rare exceptions. Our men are well motivated, well disciplined and highly trained. Most of them have a sense of mission and reason for being here, but will all be glad when they can be back home again with their families and resume their normal life patterns.

Day or night one hears the rumble of the guns, and constant moving aircraft in and out of this tremendous base. A little later I will give you some specific details of how our operations coordinate and operate day and night.

In many respects this is a very vicious and unusual war situation. For the first time civilians, women and children and elderly are made the object of a military offensive, where anything and everything is made use of for propaganda purposes it is heart-rending to see 15-20 casualties brought in chewed to pieces with machine guns, flame throwers, knives and machetes, and other forms of torture. One of the unfortunate parts of this dirty war is that we, as Americans, seem to have boundaries beyond which we cannot go, such as north into the Viet Nam North area, Laos, and Cambodia, which are sort of our bounds. The Communists and Viet Cong can sneak over and move down into the delta region below us here, operate with supplies brought over in hidden routes, then strike, causing disruption, suffering and death. All These people look more or less alike, to us, so it is easy to camouflage themselves in peasant outfits.

These are little brown people. Quiet, friendly and somewhat reserved. Americans, in general, are approximately twice the size of these people whose women weigh from 70-100 pounds, and measure somewhat under 5 feet with the men being just a little bit larger and more muscular. Since I accompany me, and I weigh approximately 200 pounds, I tower over everybody. I am called BAC-S I-TEXAS - Big Surgeon. One does not wear a big Stetson hat from Texas here, as it makes too good a target, though it would be good to shed both the sun and the rain.

Good night from Viet Nam. Charles Mason Henner, M. D.

4-H Group Performs At Service Club

An unexpected treat during the recent Kentucky trip of the Singing Americans was the visit at the Louisville Service Club, located in the YWCA building. The director of the Club visited with some of the adult sponsors at an adjoining table in the hotel dining room on Sunday morning, and upon learning about our group of singers, invited the entire group to visit the Service Club.

Upon the director's invitation, the 4-Hers wore their western clothes for the performance, which was during intermission at the Sunday afternoon program. The group toured the Club, which included a game room, Activity room, Hobby shop, living room and auditorium-ballroom. We were all impressed by the fine facilities, and the friendliness of the volunteer hostesses on duty. Our delegation was made to feel very welcome, and the performance was well received by the large crowd of servicemen present.

A group of American Legion Auxiliary ladies furnished and served the buffet supper, a routine gesture of the organization. We felt honored to take part in the program of activities for our servicemen at the Service Club in Louisville and appreciated their hospitality.

Attend church regularly.

Rockwood News

A large crowd attended the Halloween supper at the Rockwood Community Center recently, with the proceeds totaling over $100.00. The fund raising project is held each year with money used for maintenance of the Community Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Box of San Angelo spent the weekend with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Wise.

A grass fire along a fence row on the Jim Rutherford place was extinguished before any damage was done Friday evening late. Mrs. Rutherford happened to go by that way enroute to town and got help putting out the fire. Although the Santa Anna Fire Department was called, the blaze had been put out when they arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Rehm and Mrs. Johnny Steward went to Larado last weekend to visit the Rehm's daughter, Mrs. Roger Gilpin and family. They also spent one night at Falfurrias with Mr. and Mrs. Chick Rehm, and visited enroute home with Mr. Willard Rehm, a patient at the Veterans Hospital at Kerrville.

Mrs. Carl Buttry is back home after several days in the Santa Anna Hospital. She was injured in a fall at her home recently, but is getting along just fine now.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Box spent several days last week in Midland with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Campbell and Pat.

Carol Kingsbery and Serena Bryan were guests of LeAnn Bryan Friday night. The girls also visited in the Bill Bryan home Saturday.

Mrs. Gussie Wise and her granddaughter, Dawn Echols, and both of San Angelo, spent the weekend with the Jim Rutherford family, and other relatives.

Judy McIntire, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy McIntire, was one of the representatives in the Halloween coronation at Santa Anna Saturday night. Jennifer and Gay Rutherford, and Frankie Bray were also in the ceremony as duchesses.

We would like to have news items for the Rockwood column each week, so new may be left at Bryan's Store or you may call the News Office or Barbara Kingsbery.

Austin, Texas—Texas' first bilingual education plan designed to curb the school dropout rate and provide better teaching for 500,000 children has been cleared for action.

Fifteen member advisory committee approved a plan as drawn by the Texas Education Agency task force.

Dr. Severo Gomez, director of TEA International and Bilingual programs, said the high dropout rate among Spanish surnamed pupils is largely due to traditional instruction methods.

New statewide plan would enable young pupils to learn their lessons in Spanish until they get through grounding in English.

At the same time, it seeks to teach English speaking children to be fluent in Spanish as well.

The federal government has allocated $7.5 million for bilingual education programs, and Texas is due to get a substantial share early next year.

REGIONAL PLANNING

The U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development has given Gov. John Connally's office its National Award for Outstanding Contributions to In-governmental Relations.

HUD Secretary Robert C. Weaver commended Connally, saying his regional planning programs are "indicative of how initiative, cooperation and sound program execution can improve the living environment of our citizens and meet the challenge of urban growth."

Connally released a directory of councils of governments and regional planning in the last fiscal year was in excess of $1.7 million to voluntary associations of local governments which serve 3/4 of the state's population.

Currently, there are 20 active COGs in the state, and they cover 101 counties, 277 cities, 72 school districts and 51 special districts.

LIQUOR IMPORTATION

Texas Liquor Control Board is launching a new program of public information, figuring that if the average citizen is well informed, he'll stay out of trouble more.

One new area is educating persons heading for Mexico. This will be in the form of letters handed out at all likely spots, telling the visitor that, when he returns, he can bring back only one quart of liquor every 30 days, and Texas law requires a tax of 42 cents per quart.

Emphasized will be the state law against importation or even possession of any liquor container of less than one-half pint. This prohibits the mini-bottles which many tourists try to bring back as souvenirs.

NEW BOTTLE CLUB PLAN DRAWN

Liquor Control Board staff has drawn another new set of rules for conducting private bottle club business which soon will be subjected to public hearing.

While rules of last February sought to tighten guest card distribution and eliminate cash sales of mixed drinks, this latest revision is not so strict. It does not deal with controversial guest card and cash sale issues which are still under court challenge.

Rules would require a minimum of 25 members to form a club and provide that new members be approved by a membership committee.

COURTS SPEAK

In a key labor case, Texas Supreme Court reversed the Beaumont Court of Civil Appeals and dissolved a temporary injunction which had halted picketing by the millwrights' union at Owens-Illinois plant in Orange. High Court denied a rehearing sought by a Waco man who unsuccessfully filed a defamation case when Sears, Roebuck posted his name on a hot check list.

In line with the U. S. Supreme Court Witherspoon decision prohibiting automatic exclusion from capital case juries of those who object to the death penalty, Court of Criminal Appeals reversed two Texas death penalty cases and affirmed two others.

Conviction of an Abilene man for violating the state securities act was reversed by Court of Criminal Appeals which earlier had upheld the trial court finding.

POLICE TRAINING PUSH ON

War on crime efforts is proceeding on many fronts. Many center around improvement of police training.

Sam Houston State College at Huntsville is pushing for recognition as the site of a statewide police academy.

Unless a statewide academy is created, says Sam Houston College President A. B. Templeton, 30 to 40 local academies soon will be started with federal funds. He proposes to build facilities between Sam Houston and the penitentiary at Huntsville with convict labor and materials produced at the prison at a cost of about $2 million. The federal government would be expected to pay half that cost.

BAIL BOND REFORM

State Bar of Texas and the State Junior Bar will ask the Legislature in January to change the state's system of making bonds for release while persons accused of the crimes are waiting trial.

Idea behind the new plan is to let judges release people, when possible, without making bond at all. But when the judge feels a bond necessary, the prisoner could deposit up to 10 per cent of the bond himself.

As it is now, the accused generally has to pay the 10 per cent to a professional bondsman, and the money is a fee for services rendered and is not returned. In the proposed system, the man would get his deposit back when he showed up in court.

COLLEGE ENROLLMENT

Enrollment in Texas' senior colleges and universities has grown by more than 88,000 students—47 per cent—since 1963, the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System reports. Almost 214,000 students enrolled this fall, compared to about 135,000 in 1963. An increase of 58 per cent was recorded by the 22 public senior institutions, and private schools numbering 37 grew by 20 per cent.

No public senior institution has declined in enrollment.

APPOINTMENTS

Liquor Control Board unanimously named O. N. Humphreys, Jr., its full-fledged administrator. Humphreys, ex-Department of Public Safety investigations chief, has been serving as acting administrator since last March following the resignation of Coke Stevenson, Jr.

Governor Connally appointed R. B. McGowen, Jr., of Pecos to the Pecos River Compact Commission, succeeding the late J. C. Wilson of Pecos.

HIGHWAY DELAY IS POSSIBLE

Texas highway projects may be stalled and their prices advanced by federal policies just invoked, according to a state highway commissioner.

Garrett Morris of Fort Worth said the Commission is concerned that the federal policies may further force the state to take over right-of-way buying now done by counties.

Morris said the state will be required to get appraisals and make money offers to land owners before any property is acquired for road building.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

Harris County auditor cannot take over county clerk's duties of issuing paychecks to his own employees, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held.

In another recent opinion, Martin concluded that expenses of a district judge (including such incidentals as laundry) while attending a National College State Trial Judges can be paid out of appropriations of the legislature for the general purposes of reimbursing those who enrolled.

WATER RESEARCH

The University of Texas at Austin has set aside $375,000 for a 35,000 square foot building to house facilities for its Center for Research in Water Resources.

Pointing to Texas' gigantic water problems, Dr. Earnest Gloyne, director of the center, said the facility will be dedicated to solving those problems. "In establishing this research capability," he

Shear Sheep Without Shears! Might Work

A young man with just a few minutes' instruction quickly took fleece from a sheep in a recent demonstration at the USDA's Maryland research center. He duplicated a job usually performed by highly skilled (and almost unavailable) sheep shearers, but without clippers. The sheep had been dosed with an experimental chemical previously used mainly in cancer therapy. The drug, aimed at stopping cell growth in tumors, also interrupted cell growth in hair roots, causing test subjects, including sheep, to lose their hair or wool temporarily.

The chemical causes a constriction of the wool fiber below the surface, and after 6 or 7 days the fleece can be separated leaving a wool-less sheep—without nicks or cuts. Wool has grown back normally on chemically defleeced sheep regardless of the time allowed between dosing the sheep and removing the wool.

Like most new innovations, this process must be tested. Chemical residue may remain in the meat or alter the wool quality. Also the cost of such fleece removal has not been calculated. The published report also stated that anyone could do the defleecing, without strain to themselves or discomfort to the sheep.

It sounds too good to be true!

said, "we expect to attract top-flight students and researchers from all over the U. S. and other parts of the world."

The unit will include such sophisticated equipment as special environmental control chambers, hydraulic model facilities, tanks for study of wave actions, flumes to evaluate selected stream flows, models for measuring mixing and dispersion patterns, pilot plants for water and waste water treatment studies and a materials test capability.

PENAL CODE REVISION AIDED

State penal code revision has been aided by a $5,000 grant to the State Bar of Texas committee on revision. Committee, assisted by the Texas Legislative Council, expects to have the proposed code ready for submission to the 62nd Legislature in 1971. A law enforcement advisory committee, headed by Dean W. Page Keeton of the University of Texas Law School, is comprised of metropolitan chiefs of police, representatives of the Texas Sheriffs' Association and the Department of Public Safety.

Gov. Connally proclaimed Nov. 17 "Safety Sunday" . . . Texas traffic accident toll is 2,577 this year compared to 2,566 for the same time in 1967, Department of Public Safety reports — State Building Commission will open bids on November 14 on the construction of the new veterinary medical diagnostic laboratory authorized by the Legislature in 1967 — Texas construction activity declined six per cent from August to September, but index remained 35 per cent higher than September a year ago.

Federal Tax Questions And Answers

This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—When my return was audited, your examiner said I owed $50 more in tax. I don't agree. Is there any way I can protest this assessment without getting involved with legal fees and so forth?

A—Yes, you may request a district conference at which you can present your side of the dispute to an impartial third party. It is not necessary to lodge a formal protest to obtain a conference or to engage legal counsel.

Procedures for requesting a conference are outlined in a letter you will receive from IRS setting forth the results of the examination of your return.

Q—I just took a job which requires me to do a lot of traveling. For tax purposes will I have to keep track of the money I spend on the road?

A—If you account to employer for these expenses and your reimbursement does not exceed these expenses you will not have to report them on your tax return. Employees who are not reimbursed for their business travel costs should keep records of what they spend and claim a business expense deduction for them when they file their income tax returns.

For details on record keeping, send a post card to your district director. Ask for Publication 463, Rules for Deducting Travel, Entertainment and Gift Expenses.

Q—I give my maid money for her bus fare. Do I have to pay social security tax on this as well as her wages?

A—Yes. The Social Security tax applies to the total amount of cash paid to a household employee for wages and transportation. The val-

First Baptist Pastor To Attend Meet

Rev. Bill Brewer, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Santa Anna is planning to attend the 1968 session of the Baptist General Convention of Texas meeting in the new municipal coliseum at Fort Worth, Texas on November 12 through 14.

About 5,000 messengers from approximately 4,000 of the Baptist Churches in Texas are expected to be in attendance. This year's convention will be unique in that a World Missions Conference will be a part of the program climaxed by an appointment service for several foreign missionaries.

Rev. Brewer will go as a messenger, not as a delegate. In the voting and other deliberations he will act as an individual, for convention actions are not binding upon the individual local churches. This is in accord with Baptist polity of the autonomy of each church and each Baptist organization.
