GOOD NEWS

By WRIGHT PRICE, Pastor

Faith is never stationary. God's word declares: "Faith without works is dead." James 2:20.

"But, with the addition of virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness and love to your faith, you shall abound (be full) and fruitful in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Without these things, you can add to your own faith, you are spiritually blind, with no Godly vision.

But with proper attention to your faith, and doing these things, you will never fail." 1 Peter 1:5-10.

SWTSU AWARDS CEREMONY — Tammy Ellis of Santa Anna was among students honored with academic achievement. scholarship and leadership awards during Southwest Texas State University's School of Applied Arts Awards Day Ceremonies. Miss Ellis was cited as outstanding freshman in home economics, and received a certificate from Dr. Mary W. Harp. Chairman of the Department of Home Economics.

Santa Anna HS Graduate Gets SWTSU Recognition

Fifty Southwest Texas State University students majoring in fields within the School of Applied Arts were honored at an awards ceremony Sunday, April 17, in the Lyndon B. Johnson Memorial Center at the San Marcos campus. School Dean Dr. O. L. Dorsey was master of ceremonies . Except for two special award categories, all presentations were made by the academic department chairmen in the various fields.

Award recipients in the Department of Home Economics included a former Santa Anna High School student, Tammy Ellis of Santa Anna who received the award as outstanding freshman student in the department. Others were Cynthia Whitfield of outstanding Coleman, sophomore; Jane Hickman of San Antonio, junior; and Ruth Popp of Garwood, outstanding senior.

Miss Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ellis, was valedictorian of the 1976 SAHS graduating class. During her senior year she served as president of the FHA chapter and several academic received awards.

Lois Gordon A Winner In Golf Event

Santa Anna's lone girl golfer, Lois Gordon, is the only local student so far qualified for the State UIL competition in Austin next month. The SAHS sophomore placed second in the regional golf meet last week and will be in competition Friday and Saturday, May 6 and 7.

The Santa Anna girls track team failed to qualify anyone for the state literary meet or track meet with Cindy Cozart scoring the only points for Santa Anna when she placed third in the 80 yardhurdles with a time of 11.6.

The Meridian girls took the team championship and Windthorst was second.
