Applications Slow In Veterans Training Program

Are the veterans of Coleman county asleep to the opportunities for education and training offered them under the G I Bill of Rights? That is the opinion of Harold Prater, recruiting representative of the Coleman County Vocational Training Program. Forty-two applications have been received. That is only a small percentage of the eligible veterans in the county.

Why this small percentage? Mr. Prater states that there are two main reasons. (1) Many veterans are under the self-employment program because of the guaranteed monthly income of $100 and (2) many veterans do not know about the training offered in the school.

The first point is easily outweighed by the facts. While the school does not guarantee the veteran a wage while in training, the Veterans Administration does pay the married veteran $90 per month and the single veteran $65 per month subsistence allowance. In addition to this subsistence allowance, he received valuable training. The veterans under the self-employment program can only participate in that program for 52 weeks or until he has received $1040. The veteran in the school can draw as much as $1080 per year for a period of as long as 4 years or a total subsistence allowance of $4320. The period of eligibility is determined by adding 12 months to the months of active service, not to exceed 48 months. The average veteran has served 24 months active service and would be eligible for 36 months training. The second point can only be overcome by the veterans themselves investigating the opportunities offered in the school.

All eligible veterans should apply immediately.

Mr. Prater will be in the Burkett high school, Monday, April 22 from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. He will be in the U. S. Employment Office in Coleman all day Tuesday and Wednesday and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings. ## Easter and the Cross

This will be the first peacetime Easter for the world in many years. All of us have sufficient reason to observe this Easter in a solemn manner and give thanks that the world again has silenced the guns of war.

On this day we observe the passing of Him who died that man might live. Ancient writers admitted that crucifixion was the cruellest and blackest of punishments. It gave the greatest torture for the longest time. If tetanus set in, a merciful torpor hastened death; but there were men who held out, suffering always more and more, until the second day after crucifixion, and even longer. The thirst of fever, the congestion of the heart, the rigidity of their veins, the cramped muscles, the dizziness and terrible pains in the head, the ever-greater agony—all these were not enough to make an end of them.

Thus died a God, who had called mean souls to holiness but had fallen into the hands of villains and demons. He had brought life, and in return they gave Him the most ignominious death Roman law allowed.

All this was necessary that men should learn again the road to earthly Paradise; that they should mount above drunken bestiality and attain the exaltation of saints; that they should be resurrected from their sluggish folly which seems life and is death to the magnificence of the Kingdom of Heaven.

After His crucifixion the Cross became an emblem of hope and promise of life eternal to whosoever believed.

We have just witnessed a period of self-destruction thru war, brought about by greed and hatred. The same emotions that led to the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

We can observe this peacetime Easter by attending church and giving thanks to Him who died in order for us to have life everlasting.

Results Count..

IN THE CATTLE BUSINESS, same as anywhere else—a ranchman may have a wonderful-looking bunch of cows and good-looking bulls. If they do not nick, the results are apparent both in the show ring and in commercial auction sales. That is, even with good pasture, chemicals, water and feed, it takes proper handling and management.

The same conditions apply to the electric business. Miles of well-constructed transmission lines, neatly-kept substations and impressive generating stations do not complete the service of an electric company to its community. It takes folks seasoned in the "know how" of their business to render proper service and steeped in the customs of this section to sell this section's advantages to the nation.

Employees of this company are proud of their West Texas ancestry, and of their part in rendering, in addition to electric service, community service worthy of this great section.

FRESHMAN NEWS

The Freshmen are never considered very important but regardless of that fact the Freshman Class of S. A. H. S. for 1945 and 46 have done some important things.

Three of our most outstanding boys, Stanly Cobb, Freddie Henderson, and Kenneth Vance, played on the football team. One of the Freshman girls, Kelly Wise is F. F. A. Sweetheart, and we are very proud that the sub-drum-major, for next year, is a Freshman. The two flagbearers are Freshman, also.

The half-day holiday offered to the class with best attendance was won by the Freshman.

The standard set by this year's Freshmen will be used for many years. We want it to be a high, good standard.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for April 21

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

TWO FRIENDS TALK WITH CHRIST

LESSON TEXT—Luke 24:13-21, 25-31. MEMORY SELECTION—They said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?—Luke 24:32.

Fellowship with the risen living Lord is the unfailing source of faith and courage. Such certainty is the very essence of our observance of Easter.

We declare with Paul, "Now is Christ risen from the dead" (I Cor. 15:20), and that He is "declared to be the Son of God with power . . . by the resurrection from the dead" (Rom. 1:4). We would join the apostles who "with great power gave . . . witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus" (Acts 4:33).

Come with us as we join two men who had become bewildered, who felt that all their hopes had been crushed.

We join them as they walk wearily along the road from Jerusalem to Emmaus. Suddenly there is another with the little group. Let us listen to their conversation.

Something is obviously wrong here. These two men are disheartened and discouraged. They are men with . . .

I. Chilled Hearts and Sad Unbelief (vv. 13-26)

Teachers will observe that we are using the full story in Luke 24:13-35.

The two sad men, who had left Jerusalem to go to Emmaus were disciples of our Lord, and they had just been through the crushing experience of seeing Him crucified.

True, there had been some reports on the morning of this third day, that the women had seen Jesus alive (vv. 23, 24). But their hope and faith were at such low ebb that they could not—or did not—believe.

Their hearts had been chilled by the dreadful things which had taken place.

Eyes closed by unbelief; faith hindered by doubt and fear; a despondent heart slow to believe God—how very effectively these shut out the blessing of God and of His Word, even to the believer. Even deeper is the darkness in which the unbeliever finds himself.

II. Warmed Hearts and Renewed Faith (v. 27-32)

Although they did not realize it (how slow we are to appreciate our blessings!) until after Jesus was gone (v. 32), their hearts burned within them as soon as He began to expound the Scriptures to them.

What a Bible exposition that was, as Christ Himself opened all that the Scriptures taught concerning Him! Bible teachers have talked about this and it makes one's heart burn just to read their suggestions (see, for example, G. Campbell Morgan on Luke, p. 278).

The way to have a burning heart is to read God's Word, or to have it expounded by a Spirit-filled teacher or preacher.

When the heart has been warmed by the written Word and by fellowship with the living Word, our Lord Himself, the opened eye of renewed faith follows as day follows night. Now they knew the Stranger who was with them—and He was gone.

How did they know Him? We read that they knew Him in the breaking of the bread (v. 32).

Paul declared that same truth when he said, "The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned" (I. Cor. 2:14).

III. Quickened Hearts and Glad Testimony (vv. 33-35)

The seven miles (sixty furlongs), (v. 13) which had passed so slowly as they came over were now quickly retraced. They had glorious good news to bring to the disciples at Jerusalem. How swift are the feet of the one who has good tidings to bear (see Rom. 10:15)!

One wonders why so many professed Christians are so slow about carrying His message. Can it be that they do not yet know the risen Christ? For if we know Him, we will realize that "we do not will" to keep silent in a day of good tidings (II Kings 7:9).

Note in verse 34 that before they could speak, the others gave them the good news of the resurrection. It is proper and delightful that believers share spiritual blessings (Rom. 1:11, 12). That's why we

For generations the Cross was an emblem of sorrow, pain and death.

Thieves, murderers and other transgressors of the law paid the penalty for their crimes on the Cross.

It was not until after the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ that the Cross ceased to be an emblem of shame. It became the insignia of Christian Society with the promise that whosoever looked upon the Cross and believed would have life abundant and eternal.

Sunday, April 21, is Easter Sunday in every Church throughout the land. Pastors will again tell the story of life, death and resurrection of this same Jesus who changed the Cross from one of death and disgrace to one of life, honor and glory.

You are invited to attend Church somewhere Sunday. A welcome awaits you. You will hear a message that will help you bear your Cross without complaint.
