NUMBER 15

R. E. DeRusha Is Candidate For Commissioner

Well Known Farmer, Former Commissioner, Offers Self for Office

R. E. DeRusha, one of our well known farmers living out on Home Creek, who has been considering the feasibility of entering the race for County Commissioner of this precinct for several weeks, authorizes his name placed in our column, and makes the following statement: "As a tax paying citizen, I favor a considerable reduction in taxes and county expenses, including a 25 per cent reduction in commissioners' salaries and others in proportion."

"This is submitted on its face value and without argument. I believe in strict economy in government and a dollar value for each dollar spent."

"If elected, I will at all times look after the affairs of the office to the best of my ability and guard well the expenditure of the county's funds, giving the most I can for the money spent, considering the interest of the people each day in the year."

"I am making this announcement, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries in July and will certainly appreciate your vote."

In addition to the above, Mr. DeRusha has served his home county, Calhoun, in the capacity of commissioner, prior to his moving here 25 years ago, and has always made a study of the county affairs. He made the race for the office he now seeks four years ago, and was left out by a small margin of votes, but has never given up the hope of serving the people of his home as one of their county commissioners. His record as a citizen speaks for his honor and integrity, and if elected, he will make a good servant of the people in Coleman county.

Baptist Church

We failed to reach our goal for Sunday school attendance last Sunday, but hope to have an increase next Sunday. We invite you to come with us and we will strive to do thee good.

Our B.Y.P.U. showed a splendid increase last Sunday as a result of our Training School. There are others who should be in our B.Y.P.U., and we urge you to come. We have all unions now organized, from primary to adult, with new officers in all places, with two exceptions. Help us to make this Training Service a great success.

The pastor will preach at the morning hour, but will leave in the afternoon to start a revival at Winters Sunday night. We invite you to worship with us. Come to our mid-week prayer service if you feel the need of a spiritual blessing.

Last Sunday was a good day in all departments. We had one addition to the church by profession of faith.

W. C. T. U. Meets With Mrs. Lowe

The W. C. T. U. had a very interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Clinton Lowe. All present took part in the readings and discussions. Morris Sheppard's recent speech in defense of the 18th Amendment was reviewed.

Miss Louise Gray gave a very humorous reading and several piano numbers. Jesse Goen gave several pieces on the accordion. During the social period each one present had to perform some kind of a stunt. The next meeting will be with Mr. Paul Van Dalsen on the first Wednesday in May. The members are urged to keep this day in the month open and to come to the meeting.

Santa Anna Lions Honor Internat'l Pres., J. C. Hyer

Seventh Anniversary of Local Club Marked by Visit Of Internat'l Pres.

Tuesday afternoon, the local lions met at the High School to celebrate the seventh anniversary of the organization in Santa Anna. Several guests were invited and a number of the business men and their wives who have worked with the club in sponsoring projects for community development were present to help entertain and enjoy the birthday celebration.

The distinguished guest of the evening and principal speaker was the International President, Hon. Julian C. Hyer of Fort Worth, who talked to the crowded auditorium for some thirty minutes on the service the lions over the country have rendered. It was a signal honor to Santa Anna and the local club to have the International President visit here and take a part in the evening's entertainment. His talk was worthwhile and well received.

Visiting Lions, some of them accompanied by their wives and other members of their families, were her from Coleman, Brownwood, Ballinger, Menard, Abilene, Cross Plains, Junction, Winters and other places. Thos. E. Hayden, Jr., former mayor of Abilene, at present president of the Chisholm Area of the Boy Scouts of America and Ed Shumway, chief executive, were here and took parts on the program.

President R. E. Lovelady presided at the meeting. Mayor W. E. Baxter delivered the address of welcome and Lion N. H. Pierce of Menard, District Governor of Group No. 22, introduced the speaker.

A basket luncheon, supplemented with barbecue, was served on the lawn prior to the program, which was opened in the main auditorium with a number by Miss Louise Gray with her choral club. The number was very interesting and appropriate. Mrs. Ford Barnes very charmingly recited a poem, "Texas, Wonderful Texas", composed by Mr. Hyer.

The evening was well spent and we believe it will be a profitable move for the cause of Lionism in this part of Texas.

Candidate For Governor Visits In Santa Anna

John F. Grant, Republican Candidate, Visits Santa Anna in State Tour

Wednesday morning the editor had the privilege of examining at close range a real Republican and he admitted his identity without any apology. The visitor was John F. Grant, who lives in Houston, and is engaged in the lumber business for a livelihood and is now trying to adopt politics for a business.

Mr. Grant has made a success of his own business and says he would like to guide the wheel-of-state for a term, and see if he can improve general conditions. Personally, he would not be a bad fellow in the governor's mansion, but his chances to occupy it are just about as good as that of many others who have the inclination and instinct, but can never meander the path leading up to the place. This, of course, is just our surmise, and not authentic.

BEST COUNTY!

People passing on the highway near Plainview community stopped Tuesday morning to look at a very interesting sight.

Luther Dunn has been sick all this year, and had not been able to plow any of his land, but Tuesday night practically all his land was prepared to plant. His friends and neighbors came in Tuesday morning and caused the passersby to stop and count twenty men with their plows and four tractors at work in one field. And they try to tell us the country is going down, that people are becoming inhuman. Several men who were unable to go themselves hired men to go and drive their teams, and some half-dozen men are going later in the season, who were unable to go this time.

One man said: "They didn't do this where I came from." Coleman county is a fine place in which to live!

2 New Members Elected on School Board Saturday

Surprise Vote Names Hardy Blue and Taylor Wheeler New Members

The trustee election here last Saturday started off very quiet, only four or five votes being cast until after noon. Shortly after noon, a whispering campaign started over town, and before the polls closed more than a hundred votes were cast.

Notice of the election had not been published, only posted around town in three or four places according to the old method of calling an election prior to the days of enlightenment, and the old board was placed on the ticket for re-election, and if things had gone on without a contest, only a very few would have voted, but after the word was noised around that a contest had been started, work began in earnest, and resulted in the election of two members whose names were not printed on the ticket.

The old board, which had been nominated for re-election, was: Dr. R. R. Lovelady, W. DuBois, Joe Mathews and J. W. Tabor.

We don't know what started the contest, whether it was just a little friendly rivalry or some other object that prompted the action, we cannot say, but the results are that Taylor Wheeler and Hardy Blue were elected as new members in lieu of Dr. Lovelady and W. DuBois.

The school board, as it now stands, is: Stafford Baxter, W. H. Ragsdale, J. Frank Turner, Joe Mathews, J. W. Tabor, Taylor Wheeler and Hardy Blue. This is a strong board and the destinies of our schools are safe in their hands.

Local Golfers In Celebration After Spirited Contest

Losers of Contest Entertain Winning Side With Big Barbecue

The contest between the local golf players came to an end this week, the losers treating the winners to an outdoor barbecue luncheon on the course Wednesday evening.

The writer has never learned the technic of writing in golf terms, parlance, or whatever you might call it, and feels a bit reluctant to mention the affair in an effort to be of interest to the players and readers in general.

About all we know how to write is the following line-up challenged other players to a match with certain rules, known only in the language of those who play golf, the losing side to treat. You know golf is a game played by sports, and the better the sport the better the golf. Santa Anna has several sports numbered among her citizens, thus, the game of golf is among the interesting sports of this city. Not all sports are golfers, but all golfers are sports. The writer is a sport, but our elements run in a different direction to that of playing golf.

The contest started March 22 and ended April 6 with the following line-ups:

O. L. Cheaney, captain, W. DuBois, J. P. Woodruff, Virgil Newman, W. T. Wheeler, N. H. Hosch, Leman Brown, Sparks Whetstone, Tom Sealy, Byron Joiner, Emmitt Day, V. L. Grady, W. H. Ragsdale, C. B. Verner, Dr. T. Richard Sealy, D. L. Pieratt, Rex Golston, Bob Baskett, Eddie Paul Voss and H. A. Turner.

The above named team was opposed by the following team: W. I. Mitchell, captain, J. T. Garrett, H. G. Agnew, P. P. Bond, W. Carl Williams, E. R. Purdy, F. C. Woodward, Dr. L. O. Garrett, W. H. Thate, Geo. M. Johnson, Jodie Baker, Gordon Holcomb, J. B. Lowe, P. H. Hosch, C. A. Walker, I. O. Shield, C. A. Crump, J. Ed. Bartlett, Lynn May, Fred Faulkner, Dr. R. R. Lovelady.

Cheaney's group won seven of the finals while Mitchell's group won thirteen. Mr. Cheaney and his defeated group treated with a barbecue luncheon at 6:30 Wednesday evening, and the editor had the pleasure of participating in the feast. Thanks for the invitation, and the only regret is those onions were so dog-gone hot the chevon failed to counteract the odor and other effects, and the writer took an overdose to the tune of one big headache. But that's alright, we had enough fun to pay for all after-effects, and will be present at the ending of the next match if we are invited.

The losers, after treating to a fine feed, challenged the winners to another match, which was accepted.

Coleman County Grand Jury Finds Four Indictments

COLEMAN, April 2.—The Coleman county grand jury for the spring term of district court, empaneled by District Judge E. J. Miller of Brownwood Monday has recessed until April 13. Before quitting it returned four felony indictments, the smallest number in many years. Dennis Livkins is charged with possession of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale, Clark Brashers, George Butler and Lester Taylor are charged jointly with burglary, Walter Carriger is charged with possession of liquor for sale and William Watkins is charged with burglary. Two divorces were granted by the court during the week.

ASSOCIATIONAL B. T. S.

The Coleman County Association of Baptist Training Seminars will meet next Sunday afternoon at two thirty o'clock in the First Baptist Church of Coleman. The local B. Y. P. U.'s will have charge of the program.

Judge S. J. Pieratt Announces For Office Co. Judge

Former Office Holder Seeks Place Again, Promising Rigid Economy

TO THE VOTERS OF COLEMAN COUNTY: In this issue of the Santa Anna News I make my announcement for the office of County Judge of Coleman county.

To the most of you I need no introduction, having lived in this county the greater part of my life, and having served you one term in the office I am now seeking.

Fully realizing that we are now facing one of the most trying times in many years—a time that requires strict economy and cooperation of the entire people, a time imperative that at start must be made in the reduction of the expenditures of this county—I offer myself to the consideration of the voters of Coleman county on the basis of reductions and economy in the administration of the affairs of the commissioners court. I realize that our bonded indebtedness must be met, but I am of the opinion that our county budget could be rearranged to be in keeping with the times. I hereby endorse and pledge to you my support of the recommendations of the Tax Reduction Committee of our county. If I am elected as your county judge, it shall be my chief concern to cooperate with the commissioners court, because taxes cannot be reduced until expenditures are.

I do not expect to make a close canvass of the county as my means are limited and most of my time is taken up making a living at home, but I do expect to visit at your gatherings.

If you favor my policies and believe that I can serve you, I will thank you for your support and influence in the July primaries.

Very respectfully,
S. J. PIERATT

Buckner Orphans Home Friends To Hold Egg Shower

The ladies of the Santa Anna Baptist Church will ship eggs to Buckner Orphans Home at Dallas next week. If you are interested leave your eggs Friday and Saturday of this week, April 3 and 9, at the L. G. Bobo Poultry House.

Hal F. Buckner, co-superintendent of the institution, the foremost of its kind in the entire South, states that for the first time the Home has had to borrow money to meet the current expenses. This is due, according to Mr. Buckner, to the public's misinterpretation of the recently announced endowment gift of one and one-quarter millions of dollars. He reminds the public that Buckner Orphans Home has not and will not realize a penny from this gift until after the death of the donors.

Miss Bradford To Entertain the C.E.

Miss Mary Bradford will entertain the members of the Presbyterian C. E. Society in her home Friday evening, April 8th, before the social hour there will be an election of officers and other business.

Spring Clean-up Is Being Agitated

In several of our exchanges we notice this week, April 3-8, has been designated "Spring Clean-up and Sanitation Week." City officials, civic organizations and women's clubs throughout the State have united in a drive to better the living conditions and lessen fire hazards.

There are many reasons why the Spring Clean-up campaign this year should receive the enthusiastic support of every man, woman and child. First, because a city that is clean and beautiful creates cheer and banishes gloom. Cheer produces courage and confidence, and no doubt, most of us are so badly in need of both these attributes at this particular time. Second, because every dollar in property destroyed by fire, which so frequently is the result of "careless" housekeeping in the home and in the average place of business, is a serious drain upon our present economic condition. Third, because every job created in connection with the Clean-up Campaign not only develops better fire protection, but supplies better sanitation and public health. It creates an atmosphere of encouragement.

The Santa Anna News feels somewhat reluctant to bring up this, what we think is, a very important subject for discussion, but so long as we live, so help us Moses, we are going to respond to the inkling of our conscience and advocate such things as we think will be elevating and beneficial to our town and the community. It seems the Santa Anna News is being discriminated against by our city dads, the school board and, possibly, others who should be interested in the bringing about of better conditions, and, we confess, it is somewhat embarrassing to us to be ignored, or whatever you may call it, by those elected to places of responsibility, but they are excused and the Santa Anna News will continue to make its weekly appearance in the town and school district just the same.

In this connection, the Santa Anna News has done as much as any business or industry in Santa Anna to promote and further the progress of our town and schools, and has never failed to take advantage of every opportunity to assist in any way when our help was needed for betterment. Regardless, we are going to continue to boost Santa Anna and our wonderful schools, and if we fail to get the cooperation needed, we will fight the best we can and proceed under the handicap.

Living conditions could be very greatly improved in Santa Anna by taking the old town to a general cleaning, and with the proper encouragement, it would be done.

The WAY of LIFE BY BRUCE BARTON

WE RICH

A young man, who is vice-president of a New York bank, told me that he dined recently at a fashionable resort.

"All the other guests were very rich," he said. "They were older people, many of them retired. They were shaking in their boots. They are afraid there will be a social upheaval and that their money will be taken away."

I told them I thought these people had a right to worry.

"The social order will not be over-turned," I said, "nor will people like your friends be stripped of their possessions. But I do believe that, when this depression is over, the rich will be poorer and the poor will have a degree of comfort and security that they have never possessed before. And this will be better for everybody."

In saying this, I am taking a position which is contrary to my own selfish interests, for, while I am not and never shall be rich, I have an income that is much above the average. If taxes are higher mine will go up with the rest.

But shouldn't they? What have I done to deserve as much as I get out of life?

You may answer: "You have worked hard. You have been ambitious and intelligent. Any man who will apply himself in this country can do well."

This is not a complete answer. To be sure, I have worked. But where did I work the hardest? On a farm one summer (I still ache when I think about it). And in a construction camp. In each case we were more than twelve a day and at night we were too weary for anything but bed.

On my farm my income was one dollar a day; in the construction camp it was sixty five dollars a month.

If I have increased my income it is not because I have worked harder but because I happen to get out of these tough jobs into one that is much easier and much better paid.

If I have used intelligence, it is not greatly to my credit. I happened to have been born in a home of culture. I was sent to college, and my expenses were paid.

Many rich people, who are worried for fear they will have to bear a larger burden in the future, have had all these advantages, plus the added advantage of inherited wealth. When they grumble they give me a pain.

Surely, we who have had the best luck in this country are going to be wise enough to recognize it, and to assume cheerfully our full share of the load.

Card of Thanks

We take this means of expressing our heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation to our many friends who were so kind and considerate during our recent bereavement. Especially do we thank Dr. Sealy and Dr. McDonald, Nurses Peel, James and Yancy. Your sympathetic condolence and assistance during this trying time will remain one of our most cherished memories. We are also grateful for the beautiful flowers and the dear friends who served our dinner.

Mrs. VanZandt Is Hostess To Class "All Fools' Day"

Last Friday evening, Mrs. V. VanZandt entertained the members of her Sunday school class and their invited guests with an April Fool's Party. The home was beautifully decorated with balloons and other things in keeping with such a gala affair as was enjoyed by those present.

Upon entering the house each guest was asked to register, and while registering a slip of paper was secretly pinned to their back. On these slips of paper were written foolish stunts for everyone to do for the owner. This started the merry fun to going. It was interesting to see the foolishly dressed fools running around pulling jokes on their fellow fools.

There were many other clever contests and funny games played such as the "Dancing Fools." Mrs. Balke and Lenton Oakes won the prize of a dancing doll in the race of the cardboard dancing fools. Miss Catherine Rollins won the prize for being able to name the most characters of the funny page from pictures out on the wall. Miss Olivia Land, Ernest Lee Womack and Helen Turner won prizes in other contests.

Of all the gay, tacky, foolish, clever, and clownish costumes, Theodore McCaughan won the prize for having the most appropriate for April Fool's evening.

After participating in the clever contests, funny games and playing jokes, what did our hostess do but serve hoax refreshments—lovely looking pies but they did not taste like pies, as they were filled with cotton. Before we could decide whether to eat them or not to eat, our hostess served delightful refreshments of salad, cake, and lemonade to about twenty-five guests.

John Fiveash

John Fiveash was born in Erath county, February 19, 1854, and moved with his parents to Coleman county, settling near Trickham, in 1865. He was married in 1875 to Miss Sarah Brannan, a sister of Jim Brannan, who lives in Santa Anna. To this union was born the following children: Enoch, who lives at Trickham; Mrs. Mollie Cooper, deceased; Mrs. Nettie Blackwell of Whon; John, who died in infancy; Gus of Whon; and Mrs. Gertrude Woods of Pachey. Mrs. Fiveash died in 1885.

Mr. Fiveash married Miss Maggie Walters in 1890. To them were born R. L., living at Whon, Beulah, who died in infancy, John of Eola, a baby boy, who died before he was named, W. F. of Sweetwater, and Lena Bell, who died when a baby.

All of the surviving children attended the funeral at the Fiveash cemetery Thursday.

Mr. Fiveash is also survived by a brother, Dick, who lives near Grosvenor, and a sister, Mrs. Dollie Chatman, of Connersville. Mrs. Chatman was unable to attend the funeral.

Mr. Fiveash has made his home with R. L. and Mrs. Blackwell since his wife died two years ago. Prior to her death, he had lived eight years in Santa Anna, moving here from Whon, where they had lived since their marriage.

Mr. Fiveash has been a farmer all his life. He had acquired a lot of property which was divided among the children several years ago.

He became a Christian and joined the Methodist Church in 1892. Having lived in the county since before it was organized, he has told and re-told stories of the Indians, who made many raids in his community. He served for several years as a frontiersman, guarding homes from Indian depredations and from other dangers.

Coming to Coleman county before it was organized, he was known by most all the pioneer settlers, and was always regarded as an honorable citizen. He never had any school advantages, and was ignorant from a literary standpoint, but rich in good qualities, honest in his dealings, and followed the old adage of making a living by the sweat of his brow.

Peace to his remains!

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

International Sunday School Lesson for April 10

HOW SIN BEGINS

Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-8
Rev. Samuel D. Price, D.D.

If ever there was a love nest on earth it should have been when Adam and Eve were habited in the Garden of Eden. Certainly there could be no triangle love affair which would lead to a divorce court. One of the charming touches that is revealed in the declaration that God came down to walk and talk with them "in the cool of the day." Safeguards were placed about them too.

Character is developed when one has the opportunity of doing either right or wrong but prefers the way of rectitude. We are still free moral agents and have the power of individual choice. We live in a world where no one can continuously have his own way. We are strengthened when we obey the negatives that are for the common good. There was just one prohibition in Eden. Full freedom was given except that there was the fruit of one tree that had to be avoided.

Satan was created as an angel of light but chose to rebel against God. Thereafter he became the enemy of all who would stand with the heavenly father. The devil sought to reach God through man and began by casting slurs upon the commands of the Almighty. When we stop to argue with the tempter we are on most dangerous grounds. We are wise when we actually run away from temptation. Otherwise we argue against the prohibition and fail to note that each limitation is for our own good. All too soon the lie of the devil was accepted and personal sin brought its terrible consequences. One sin does not stand alone very long. Soon Adam was also involved and he was a coward when he tried to lay blame on Eve. We are still and always individually responsible. That very day the dire consequences of sin began and they have continued to this day. "Be sure your sin will find you out," Numbers 32:23.

Nothing could be simpler than the construction of a coolie coat. It can be made entirely in one piece or sleeves may be pieced to the one piece that comprises front and back, or if you like you may make the back in one piece with two front pieces attached.

The diagram shows how to cut the material for a coat coming to the finger tips. The dimensions are as follows: AB and CD equal 24 inches. AC and BD equal 1 1/2 yards. AE, BG, FC and HD equal 18 inches. EF and GH equal 18 inches. IE, JF, GK and HL equal 10 inches. MN equals 6 inches. Following a pattern cut according to this design you may make ABCD from one piece of material 1 1/2 yards long and 24 inches wide. Beginning at O, which is midway from C and D, slash to the center point Y to make the front opening. Then cut three inches either side from Y to make

M and N 6 inches long for the neck opening. The sleeve extensions at either side (IEJF and GKHL) are 10 inches wide and 18 inches long. If your material is wide enough you can cut it all from a piece 44 inches wide. You may, if you like, slope the front edges from M to O and from N to O or you may turn back the material from Y to M and from Y to N to form revers.

In sewing the coat together fold over at XZ and join AEI to CFJ and BGK to DHL in a fell or French seam. Hem or face along OC-AB-DO, the edges of the sleeves, and down the front opening and neck opening. You may use figured or bordered material or you can make the back and front from one color and sleeves from another.

Rambling Rhymer Bobs Up in Santa Anna Past Week

It's mighty fine to buy, you know, If we know just when and where to go. But if we don't buy at the right place It leaves in our mouths an awful bad taste. But if you'll listen now (this is not fun) I'll tell you where to buy and save yourself mon.

The first thing I think of is groceries, you see, And, naturally, there's only one place for me. Right straight to Piggly Wiggly Grocery I'll go. For there's not a better place in Santa Anna I know.

The next thing I think of is drugs, good and pure. There's only one best place in Santa Anna, I'm sure, That's Phillips Drug, where most folks buy, And if you'll do the same you never will sigh.

The next thing is work clothes, piece goods and shoes, And that store should be an easy one to choose For there's only one real one in our city; Gehrett Dry Goods, if you don't buy from them it's a pity.

But we must not leave out the ladies so fair, For, you know, they too, must have something to wear, And R. F. Crum Dry Goods is where they should buy. For their things are the best, and not high.

And if cleaning you need of any description, There's one in this town who can fill your prescription; And that's E. G. Overby, who's been here so long. When you have work done there you sing a song.

If it's radio or radio repairs that you need, And from all your radio trouble be freed, Then Geo. M. Johnson is the best place to go And when you do you'll be glad, I know.

If it's something you need for that old car, There's no need hunting both near and far, Just call Mathews Garage, they are always near And can fix anything from front to rear.

If it's lack of gas why she won't run And the old boat really is not on the bum, Then just give Calvin Campbell a call. They will have you five gallons in no time at all.

Or maybe you're thirsty and want a drink. There's no need for you to sit and think, For there's only one logical place to go, That's over to Corner Drug, you know.

If it's sausage or ham, or bacon or cheese You can look around as much you please, You'll find no better place to buy Than Hunter Bros. They always have a fresh supply.

Now we've told you where to buy And if you don't do it we'll wonder why. But you're the guy that will pull your hair If you make the mistake and buy elsewhere.

4-H CLUB NEWS

Eleven year old Vernon Ullman had a big problem before him. He wanted to be a 4-H club member. He wanted a nice big Holstein calf. Wanted to be a regular dairymen some day. But he was only "a kid." How could he hope to see it come true.

Six years later he is at the state fair at Brookings, South Dakota, not far from where he lives. He has made great strides in his club work toward the great hope of "being someone" some day. He is yet only 16. In the stalls of the dairy cattle barn are some of his calves, grown up into fine cows and heifers.

When the show of his breed—those big growthy black and white cattle called Holsteins, and which are pronounced as if the last syllable was spelled "stine"—was all finished and the ribbons counted this Ullman lad had a dandy collection. The three fine heifers he showed had won first in the special class of state owned cattle, and in the 4-H club classes they won second, fourth and sixth.

All three of the heifers which helped Vernon to make the fine winning were daughters of the calf which he started out with as his first project back in 1926 when he was eleven years old. So Vernon has really achieved more than merely showing and winning. He had raised three animals from babyhood and they were something of his own creation. And at home he had 5 more a nice little herd of 8 head.

Vernon lived on a farm and helped as much as he could and go to town school look after his herd and take a hand in various young peoples and community affairs. He took part in a community play, made talks, was president and also secretary of the Young Citizen's League, secretary of the Future Farmers of America local society, took part in musical affairs, and all that. But most of his interest was in 4-H club work. He was secretary and president of his own club, the Blue Ribbon Club, was organizer and leader of a pig club, was a member of the 1931 dairy judging team of his county, and won a trip to the National Dairy Show.

In 1928 he was a member of the state champion dairy demonstration team. And all the time he was looking after his calves and heifers and helping his father care for the dairy herd. He also grew seven acres of corn last season. Then he entered in a national scholarship contest supervised by The National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, in which 100 scholarships valued at $500 in cash were offered. Vernon won of course. He had learned to win.

ALGERIA

THE STALK IS SWEET, CONTAINING A LARGE AMOUNT OF SUGAR, AND LIVESTOCK EAT THE ENTIRE STALK WITH RELISH. STALK GROWS FROM 4 TO 5 FEET TALL, WITH 15 TO 20 HEAVY LEAVES. THE HEADS ARE 12 TO 18 INCHES IN LENGTH, AND WEIGH FROM 3/4-LB. TO 1-LB. PER HEAD. THE GRAIN IS LARGER THAN MAIZE AND MUCH SOFTER. THE PLANT STOOLES OUT WELL AND MAKES SEVERAL STALKS.

The following is a brief account of my experience with ALGERIA in 1931:

I purchased 40 pounds of ALGERIA seed in the Spring of 1931, and planted it on about 9 acres. I intended to plant 5 pounds to the acre, but did not plant more than 4 or 4 1/2 lbs. per acre. The soil was fairly good, but it was planted late. The land was bedded and planted the third week in May. The only rain we had after April 28 was on June 9, until after the feed was harvested. I gathered about 15 tons of heads from the 9 acres. I have never fed a better bundle feed than the bundles cut with a row binder. Stock relish my bundle feed and eat it all. ALGERIA has roots similar to corn, except they grow straight down. I found ALGERIA to be the greatest drouth resister of any of the eight varieties planted in 1931.

Agents are selling ALGERIA seed for 25c, 50c, 75c and some are taking orders for the seed for as much as $1.00 per pound. I paid a high price for my seed, but, under the circumstances, I will offer it for sale at only 6c per lb. Several of the merchants have agreed to sell ALGERIA seed for me, and the seed will soon be placed on sale in Santa Anna and Coleman. We took first and second prizes at the Coleman County Fair last Fall.

Are You Fair To Yourself?

Are we keeping up with the trend of times enough to carry on an intelligent conversation, or are we losing that art through an engrossment in petty details? Most of us have fallen into a stupor which closes our minds to questions outside of our small sphere of existence.

One quickly loses his place in the conversation when the tide turns from the trite stock of favorite expressions, which make much of our small talk, to any other topic. With the fascinating wealth of news within reach, some balance of time might be worked out in which we can avail ourselves of its resources. Those who are alive to what is going on about them have something interesting to put forth. They find some observation to contribute to any subject which may come up.

Beside the sympathetic and tolerant understanding which enables one to carry on a serious conversation, those who would help keep themselves alert and stimulating personalities have some knowledge of sports.

Industry

Industry was the topic discussed in the Character Training period Monday morning. This topic may be well applied to all.

Through industry, and also self-reliance and concentration, the superiority of man is attained; it is not attained through merely a greater knowledge.

Success is due largely to hard work. Edison worked hard; so did Lincoln, and surely the lives of these two great men are considered successful. But what does success mean? Does it mean the greater accumulation of wealth? It does not. The one who is really a success is the one who is of the greatest service to his fellow-men. And this is achieved through industry.

Sophomore News

Sophomores were unusually busy during the month of March as they served the Lions Club its weekly luncheon and participated in several Interscholastic League events. Their industry has not diminished, and they are ready and anxious to continue their activities which result in a more stable financial condition. Just now they are much concerned over the approaching six-weeks examinations. By means of hard work they hope to continue and increase the high per cent of the class membership on the honor roll.

Nell Bell, who was ill most of last week, is able to be in school again.

Jim Bob Gregg is able to be in school despite his inability to prepare written work, as the result of a broken arm.

Debating Club

Debating is continuing even though the major project for the school year has been completed. The forensic orators have selected as their next topic for pro and con discussion, "Resolved, That Intelligence Tests Should Be One of the Eligibility Requirements of All Voters". The formal debate will be presented to the club on Wednesday, April 20, with Jesse Lee Sparkman, John David Harper, Robert Hunter, and Lois Crump attacking and defending the proposition.

The girls in this club will give the following debate. The subject which they will select will not require the detailed work that an Interscholastic League debate requires, but it will serve to keep them in practice for another school term. This form of public speaking has been valuable in helping the participants to form better speech habits.

Freshmen Celebrate

Last Friday, April 15th, nearly all of our class came to school decorated in various colors, for many adorned themselves in green, pink, red and yellow to celebrate the day. The climax of hilarity came when our sponsor presented us "suckers" during the home room period. Perhaps there was a two-fold purpose in giving us something to eat, for it not only pleased us, but also made us get quiet. We just couldn't talk with a big, red, hard, sucker concealed!

We enjoy these home room parties and hope to have another soon.

Freshman News Debating Club

The class of 1935 is proud of the record set by loyal members in the Interscholastic Meet.

Our first victory came when Bess Inez won tennis singles. J. W. Zachary came next by winning the 220 yard dash.

Our prospects are good for a good, live, cooperative group, for all feel the individual urge to work for class honors—eliminating personal gains entirely.

Sylva Ann Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Everett, and Eddie Vaughn Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mills, scored perfect papers in the delayed junior spelling contest last Saturday. Both write beautifully, and with the intense studying manifested easily made the highest grades.

Doris Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spencer, also had a perfect paper. Marilyn Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Baxter, missed only two words thereby giving her Santa Anna Ward School second place in the county.

Coleman High School won the third place, missing four words.

Teachers will attend the Mid-Texas Teachers' Association in San Angelo, Friday and Saturday.

Many prominent speakers have been secured for the meeting and the modern applications of teaching will receive due consideration. The program is interesting and sure to be instructive.

Superintendent Scarborough is chairman of the Committee on Educational Progress in the Mid-Texas organization.

The question of the hour is, "What time is it?"

Senior Picnic

Mrs. Bartlett entertained the senior class from two-thirty until six o'clock Thursday afternoon with a picnic and weiner roast at the city lake. The class left the building at two-thirty and soon reached the lake. After they had entertained themselves for several hours by playing games and various other amusements, they roasted the Weiners and proceeded to devour the abundance of good things that the thoughtful sponsor had provided for the occasion. The eats consisted of bread, weiners, pickles, fruit, cakes and soda pop.

About six o'clock, after giving fifteen cheers for the sponsor, they returned to town, and, as a token of thanks to Mrs. Bartlett for the entertainment, many seniors changed their plans for April Fool. The seniors were almost one hundred per cent present Friday, physically, at least, if not mentally. We wish to thank Mr. Scarborough for so kindly letting us have the last two periods.

Buenas dias! The second year Spanish students are getting up several short Spanish plays and will present them in chapel some time soon. The class is also practicing a song called, "El Himno Nacional de Mexico."

The new Spanish readers have come, and the class is starting on them now. The book is about a good dog which is named "Fortuna." Our class is looking forward to much enjoyment from this book.

Scribblers' Club

Scribbling cubs resumed their study of journalism at their club period last Tuesday morning. During the month of March they spent the club period preparing the play which will be given in chapel as soon as it can be arranged.

The last topic studied by the Scribblers was "Reporting Plays and Chapel Speeches." That completes the study of routine and spot news. Since routine and spot news is often rather scarce, the Scribblers will learn to rely on feature and human interest stories as this is the next topic of study.

This is the third year of the Scribblers Club in Santa Anna High School. In the previous years the group of girls received the school letter as a recognition of their service to the school. The entire group of fourteen are striving to make themselves worthy of that honor this year. Most of them are preparing a scrap-book of their work and notes on journalism so that they will be in the contest for the sweater which will be awarded to the one doing outstanding work for the year.

Character Education

Margaret Harvey, La Rue Curry and Besse Evans, members of the program committee for character training of the senior class, worked out the following program on Industry: Life of Andrew Carnegie by Marian Foley, Industry of Ants by Mary Ola Dockery, Life of James A. Garfield by Mattie Ella Estes, and Marvel of Bees by Besse Evans. The program was enjoyed and was helpful to the senior girls.

Moya Haynes, Wilma Davis and Louise Zenor were appointed on the program committee for next meeting.

The last two character traits to be studied are initiative and thrift.

The Economic Strength of Our Community

Banks are a part of the economic blood and sinew of all community life. Without banks commerce and industry could not carry on, nor contribute to the economic welfare of the people.

In times of prosperity unusual demands upon financial institutions are few; therefore their stability is considered a matter of fact. But when conditions drop to normal or blow-tis then the fundamental soundness and foundation strength of a bank is tested.
