PRE-EASTER MERCHANDISE NOW ON DISPLAY

Pleasing Novelties and Useful Gifts On Sale Locally

Heralds of the Easter Season are appearing daily in the shop windows and on the counters in the stores.

Beautiful displays of lovely clothes, Easter novelties and delicious things to eat tempt the eye and the appetite with the dainty lines and vivid colors, and satisfy the desire for the useful and unusual.

An increase in business activities is making the pre-Easter days pleasant for other merchants.

You will notice that the bakery is advertising a new feature. Watch the page ad for Easter specials.

Several parties are planned for the Easter season. The churches are working on special music for the Easter services and the citizenship in general is looking forward to Easter day as it should with joyful and thankful hearts.

Mrs. Erban Voss of Houston is here for a visit with her mother Mrs. B. A. Creamer and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Harper, Sr. left Monday for Eldorado, where they will visit with their son S. D. Harper, Jr.

WARD SCHOOL NEWS

Our junior boys went to Coleman Saturday, March the 21st and entered the Interscholastic League track and field events.

Out of about forty-five entries in the fifty yards dash M. T. Traylor won third place. Wayne Webb took second place in the hundred yards dash being beaten by one of the S. A. H. juniors for first place. Roscoe McKeand won third place in chinning the bar. Our relay team composed of Howard Pittard, Junior Snook, Wayne Webb and M. T. Traylor won second place.

The boys worked hard and we are proud of them for their success and true sportmanship.

On Friday March the 27th our school will send the following representatives to compete in the literary events of the Interscholastic League: sub-junior spelling Nannie Robbins and Ina Neill; junior spelling Bess Inez Shield and Elizabeth Rollins; arithmetic Dosh T. McCreary, Eddie Vaughn Mills and Bess Inez Shield; junior boys declamation Bob Pearce; junior girls declamation Gladys Creamer; essay May Campbell; picture memory Ruby Lee Price, Doris Spencer, Annette Shield, Helen Martha Zachary and Carlene Ashmore.

These boys and girls have been working hard and we should like to see much enthusiasm on the part of the student body and parents.

The seventh grade has been working hard for the Interscholastic League to be held on Mar. 27, 1931. We are proud of those who have won out in some event and hope they bring back some cups from Coleman next Friday.

We have talked some about graduation. We have been studying about Texas Government in Civics. We organized a Bird Club in which we have to color birds and do other interesting things. We also organized a reading club which meets once a week. During this time we read good books and magazines.

Jack Laughlin Post of the American Legion, meets on the first Tuesday night of each month. All ex-service men are earnestly requested to be present at these meetings, as they will get information that will be of benefit to them. They should come out and learn what the Legion is doing for ex-service men in the way of getting them Government aid. Everything that has been done for them has been sponsored by the Legion and they should get behind it and help all they can for the Buddies need their assistance. Come!

New Consul-General

Gerald Campbell, Britain's new consul-general to N. Y. C., is no stranger in this country, having served in a similar capacity at San Francisco. Succeeding Sir Harry Gloster-Armstrong, Campbell becomes the highest ranking British consular officer.

SINGING AT LIBERTY

There will be a singing at the church in the Liberty Community, Sunday afternoon, March 29th at two o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited. Especially the singers.

SANTA ANNA HIGH SCHOOL WINS JUNIOR TRACK IN COUNTY MEET AT COLEMAN

Last Saturday three of the Junior boys in Santa Anna High School went to the Play Day at Coleman and won the track meet for Juniors. John David Harper, Samuel Everett, and Woodrow Neal are the happy trio.

John David took first place in the 100 yard dash, second place in the broad jump, and fourth place in the 50-yard dash. Samuel Everett won first place in the high jump and tied for fourth place in chinning the bar. Some of the boys were unable to go, and we did not have a relay team. Woodrow was unable to place in any of the events, but he did his best and got a lot of practice that will help him to make a good track man in years to come.

Mrs. Frank Mills and children of Coleman are visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Williams and children of the Buffalo community, were shopping here on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Loudermilk, spent the week-end in the Albert Reed home of Goldthwaite.

Judge Pinkney Woodruff of Brownwood visited his mother Mrs. N. F. Woodruff, here Sunday.

G. A. Shockley left Tuesday for Hamilton for a visit with his father and other relatives.

Suppose three other men had lost their lives—Command-Performance.

N. E. Atkinson, of Brownwood visited his daughter Miss Geneva Atkinson here Sunday.

Deputy Sheriff Bob Somerall of Coleman was a business visitor here Friday.

WHERE SANTA ANNA STANDS

By Leola Christie Barnes

Just where the hills are a little bluer,
Just where friendship's a little truer,
Just where crimes are a little fewer,
Just where the pavements a little newer,
That's where Santa Anna stands.

Just where the people are a little sincerer,
Just where honor is, considered dearer,
Just where language is a little clearer,
Just where folks seem a little nearer—
That's where Santa Anna stands.

Just where the handclasp a little lighter,
Just where the heart beats a little brighter,
Just where God's love is a little mightier—
That's where Santa Anna stands.

Boy Scouts Chisholm Trail Council Meet

FUTURE FARMERS PROGRAM TONIGHT

Chisholm Trail Jamboree Set

The fourth Annual May Jamboree for the Boys Scouts of the Chisholm Trail Area Council, will be held this year at the Boy Scout camp near Buffalo Gap 8 and 9. The program will start Friday afternoon May 8 and will conclude with a free dinner to Scouts and officials at 6 p. m. Saturday under the direction of Camping Chairman Ed. S. Stewart. More than four hundred Scouts are expected to attend.

Excitement is at fever heat and interest more intense than ever. To win the beautiful silver cup trophy donated by the Minister Department Store of Abilene the troop must win the Jamboree three times. Troop 2, First Baptist Church, Abilene, won the Jamboree in 1928 and 1930. Troop 3, University Baptist Church, Abilene, won in 1929. If Troop 2 wins this year the cup will be their permanent property.

The Jamboree program is one chock full of Scout activities, fun good eats, and clean sportmanship. All events are based upon Scout progress, outdoor life and discipline.

Each Troop will cook their own dinner May 9 and without using any utensils. Many Patrols will start the preparation for their meal Friday so as to be ready. The Bean Hole will undoubtedly be popular.

Embodied in the program will be: Firemanship, First Aid Demonstrations, Signaling, Bugling, Fire Building with bow and drill, Fire by Flint and Steel Archery, Athletics, Knot Tying, Wall Scaling, Scout's Pace, Pony Express Race, Indian War Dance Troop Songs, and Troop Yells, Troop Inspection, The Modest Scout's Predicament, Handcraft displays, Wearing of the Uniform, etc.

The public is invited to attend. The local Boy Scouts will hold the Court of Honor next Thursday night. Every Scout is urged to take part.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Wednesday afternoon, April 1, at three o'clock at the Christian Church. A good program is being arranged. All who have given their names for membership urged to be present, and others invited. Come.

SANTA ANNA HIGH SCHOOL WINS THREE TENNIS CUPS

Last Saturday at the county meet in tennis our entries brought back nearly all the bacon there was to be had. Just one more big slice and we would have had it all. The three cups that we have now in our possession are: boys' doubles, boys' singles, and girls' singles.

Our boys had very little trouble in winning any of their matches. In the singles which were played in the morning, Leon Ward drew for the first match Wallace Best, Coleman High entry. Leon won easily with two straight sets at 6-1 and 6-1. He then played the other entry in singles, Talpa, and won 6-2 and 6-3. Leon is a sophomore. He is expected to go far in the District meet this year and before he graduates from high school we are hoping that he will be going to the State meet.

Our boys team in doubles won as handily as did our singles player. There were three entries, Santa Anna, Coleman and Talpa. Coleman best Talpa in the first match. James Gipson and Jack DuBois then won easily from the Coleman team beating them the first set 6-2 and then smarting under the thought of letting the Coleman team have two games, they got down to business and won the last set 6-0. Here's hoping that James and Jack get right and go far in the District meet.

SPODDERS BACK IN WICHITA FALLS FOR EXHIBITION GAMES

Wichita Falls, March 23.—The Spudders arrived late from Dallas Sunday night and so were allowed to snooze Monday morning, but in the afternoon a hard routine drill was ordered.

The business office reported Milton Steengrafe, sole absentee, had agreed to terms and was on his way to camp from California.

Wednesday and Thursday the team resumes exhibition warfare with St. Paul Saints at Mineral Wells. They play the same team here Saturday and Sunday. It was announced negotiations were under way for a home series with the Dallas Steers here next week.

Santa Anna Debates Coleman

Rebecca Turner, Irene McCreary, Wilburn DuBois, and John Franklin Turner will represent Santa Anna High School in the Interscholastic League debates at Coleman this week. Irene and Rebecca hope to win the loving cup which will then become the permanent property of the school. John Franklin and Wilburn won the boys' debating cup last year and are hoping to bring it back to Santa Anna this year.

Mr. Hennan, county director of debating, has announced that there will be three girls' teams contending: Novice, Coleman and Santa Anna. Coleman will be the only school offering the Santa Anna boys competition. The exact time for the preliminary debate has not been definitely decided. The finals are to be held in the Coleman High School auditorium Friday night.

Miss Land judged in the county debates at Cross Plains last Saturday. Other judges were: Mr. McGaugh, Mr. Powell and Mr. Wilson of Brownwood; Miss Freeman and Mr. Hennan of Coleman. Callahan county had five girls' teams and five boys' teams participating in the debates.

If you were the royal queen actor in Command-Performance. A wonderful sweetheart is The Girl of the Golden West.

Mrs. A. V. Voss and children of Houston are visiting her mother, Mrs. B. A. Creamer and other relatives.

Jack Casey and son Larry of Falfurrias visited relatives in the Longview community last week.

FARM RELIEF LOANS BEING PAID FARMERS

County Agent C. V. Robinson received more than one hundred farm relief loan checks this week. The checks are averaging $180.00. $18,000 was placed to the credit of county farmers up to Thursday for this week.

Two hundred and seventy Coleman county farmers have received checks that total $40,000.

The effect of the circulation of this money has been a gradual increase of confidence in business circles. While no decided wave of prosperity has been felt, the under-current of returning prosperity is evident.

QUILT FAIR

Don't forget the Quilt Fair to be given next Saturday from one to five in the vacant Crum building, cakes, pies and candy will be on sale many lovely and interesting quilts will be on display.

Miss Janes Caldwell of Rockwood spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Belle Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill and baby of Midland spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Presley Atkinson of Brownwood visited friends here Sunday.

Mrs. John Norwood and daughters Misses Vela and Vivian were Tuesday evening guests in the C. P. Petty home.

Mr. and Mrs. Boardman and daughters were visitors Sunday in the Jess Boardman home in the Longview community.

Mr. and Mrs. Crews Hardy of Brownwood visited Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Todd Sunday.

Leamon Brown and Dr. T. R. Sealy were in Austin Monday on business. They met with a Senate committee on an important bill.

Bryon Buck and family of Sweetwater were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Holcomb.

Mrs. W. M. Holland of Coleman was a guest over Monday evening of Mrs. Jonnie Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Strange of Bangs were here Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Griffith.

F. F. A. Boys On Radio Program

Friday night at 8:30 there will be a program over station WFAA, Dallas. The Pool Manufacturing Company saluting the Future Farmers of America.

Some of the main features will be Bill Smith of Georgia, Tennessee State Camp, L. S. U. Colleague Chapter, and Henry Gros-close, founder of the Future Farmers of America, from Virginia.

The music will consist of the Future Farmer March and other selections popular in above represented states.

The public is invited to listen in on this interesting program. Reporter, F. F. T.

Geo. Johnson and sister, Mrs. L. Gene Hensley, left Tuesday for Fort Worth where they will attend a telephone convention.

John Wofford arrived here Saturday from Colorado for a visit with home folk.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Oliver of Ballinger were Sunday guests in the home of Mrs. M. L. Bowers.

A devil-may-care romance in Command-Performance.

QUEEN THEATRE

"I'll play you straight poker for this man. If you lose—he's mine. If you win—he's yours, and I'm yours too!" "The Girl of the Golden West" is not a typical Western—it is a story of the gold-rush days, but not a gold-rush picture. Ann Harding plays the leading role and she displays the same wonderful talent that made such a big hit in "The Trial of Mary Dugan" and "Paris Bound," two of her greatest leads.

"The Girl of the Golden West" opens tonight at the Queen theatre.

The first of next week a Tiffany picture starring Nioll Hamilton and Una Merkel, a story of royalty, of love and intrigue, is coming to the Queen for a three-day run. A splendid picture, handled in a splendid way. You will like it.

A Just Recompense For Labor

EVERY farmer is entitled to a recompense for his labor, which is a safe margin of profit from the land he cultivates.

ONE CROP never has and never will give him a just return for his labor, but a variety of crops, suited to his soil and needs will give him a chance to make money and some measure of independence for himself and his family.

IT'S TIME to think about home gardens. Let's have more and bigger ones this year. It's always time to think about cows, hogs, chickens and the feed to feed them.

THE EARNEST hope of this bank is that each farmer in this community will so plan for the coming months that the harvest will bring him a sure and just recompense for every hour of labor.

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HAS GOOD PRESBYTERY

The local Cumberland Presbyterian Church was host to the Brownwood Presbytery, from last Friday night over Sunday afternoon. The Rev. F. A. Brown of Ballinger preached on Friday night and the Rev. A. J. Mann of McGregor preached the opening sermon Saturday morning. Rev. Mann will be remembered as holding a meeting here a few years ago. Business of the Presbytery was conducted on Saturday. Rev. J. B. Wright of Waldrip, was the moderator of the session. The ladies' missionary organization put on a program or pageant Saturday night depicting the needs of the foreign field. The writer did not get to attend these services, but heard many favorable comments on them.

On Sunday at eleven o'clock Rev. F. A. Brown delivered a masterly discourse on "The Love of God" using Ephesians the third chapter and the seventeenth and eighteenth verses as a text. The unmeasurable heights the unfathomable depths and the all encompassing breadth of Gods love was given a new meaning. At the close of the sermon the communion was observed and upon dismissal this spiritual feast was followed by a feast for the physical side of man. This consisted of baked chicken and dressing, boiled ham, fresh pork all the usual and then the unusual in potato, vegetable and fruit salads, stuffed eggs, sandwiches, cucumbers, beet, and peach pickles, olives, pies two crusted meringued latticed etc; a variety of cakes and coffee. This abundant and well prepared dinner shows that these good people have heeded Paul's admonition to the Romans and are "Given to hospitality."

In the afternoon the young people put on an excellent program using both local talent and visiting young people. Well prepared papers, readings and special songs were featured.

Nature Thought of Everything

Nature thought of everything when the human body was made. When the body is about to become ill, nature planned danger signals to warn us. Thus, if our children grind their teeth when they sleep, or lack appetite, or suffer from abdominal pains, or itch about the nose and fingers, we should know that they may have contracted worms. Then, if we are wise, we buy a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and safely and surely expel the worms. Thus we avoid the danger of very serious trouble. White's Cream Vermifuge costs only 35c a bottle, and can be bought from

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Coleman County—Greeting:

You are Hereby Commanded to summon Ira Deakins, Pearl R. Deakins, G. N. Tompkins, Susan Tompkins, Western Land Corporation, a private corporation and the stockholders of the Western Land Corporation, a defunct corporation, South Texas Mortgage Co., a corporation, and the stockholders of the South Texas Mortgage Company, a defunct corporation, and the heirs of the following named deceased persons, to-wit: Ira Deakins, Pearl R. Deakins, G. N. Tompkins and Susan Tompkins, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Coleman County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Coleman, Texas, on the second Monday in April A. D. 1931, the same being the 13th day of April A. D. 1931, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 2nd day of March A. D. 1931 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 4853, wherein W. H. Bush, D. E. Beal and W. J. Smith, Trustees of the Goldsboro Common School District No. 64 in Coleman County, Texas, said Trustees being a body politic and corporate in law under and by the title and name of District Trustees of District No. 64 and County of Coleman, state of Texas, are plaintiffs and the above named defendants are the defendants and the only defendants in said cause; and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

That heretofore, to-wit, on the 1st day of March, 1931, plaintiffs were the owners of and in possession of the following described lands and premises situated in Coleman County, Texas, owning and holding the same in fee simple from and under the sovereignty of the soil, to-wit: The East 1-2 of block 103 in the town of Goldsboro, according to the map of said town and of said block, of record in Vol. LB, pages 2 and 3 Plat Records of Coleman County Texas, to which reference is here made.

That afterwards and on the 1st day of March, 1931, while plaintiffs were in possession of said lands and premises, owning and claiming the same as aforesaid, the defendants unlawfully entered in and upon said lands and premises and unlawfully ejected and dispossessed plaintiffs therefrom and unlawfully withheld from plaintiffs the title and possession thereto, to plaintiffs' damage in the sum of $1,000.00.

That in addition to their title in fee simple aforesaid, plaintiffs are the owners of said lands under the five years statute of limitations in this: That plaintiffs and those under whom they claim have had peaceable and adverse possession of said lands and premises, using and enjoying the same and paying all taxes thereon, claiming under deeds duly registered, for more than five years next before the institution of this suit and next before the 1st day of March, 1931, and plaintiffs here plead said five years statute of limitations as grounds of their title to said land.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, plaintiffs pray the court that the defendants be cited to appear and answer this petition and that upon hearing hereof plaintiffs have judgement for the title and possession of said lands and premises and for costs of suit and for such other and further relief general and special, as they may be entitled to in law and equity.

Herein Fail Not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Coleman, Texas, on this 2nd day of March A. D. 1931.

(Seal) W. E. Gideon, Clerk, District Court Coleman Co., Tex.

SHADOWS

They seemed, to those who saw them meet, The casual friends of every day; Her smile was undisturbed and sweet, His courtesy was free and gay.

But yet if one the other's name In some unguarded moment heard,

The heart you thought so calm and tame Would struggle like a captured bird:

And letters of mere formal phrase

Were blistered with repeated tears,—

And this was not the work of days,

But had gone on for years and years!

Alas, that love was not too strong For maiden shame and manly pride!

Alas, that they delayed so long The goal of mutual bliss beside!

Yet what no chance could then reveal,

And neither would be first to own,

Let fate and courage now conceal,

When truth could bring remorse alone.

Nine-Tenths Preventable

Nine-tenths of all the diseases of the American people can be traced directly to constipation, doctors say. Constipation throws into the system poisons which taint and weaken every organ of the body and make them easy victims for any germs which attack them. Prevent constipation and you will avoid nine-tenths of all diseases, with their consequent pain and financial losses. Herbin, the good old vegetable cathartic, will relieve constipation in a natural, easy and pleasant way. For sale by

MISS PEEK VISITS HIGH SCHOOL

Miss Lillian Peek, State Supervisor of Home Economics, spent one-half day in our high school recently and in her report to Superintendent Scarborough she had the following to say in regard to this important department of our curriculum: "Santa Anna has a well equipped department. The library is quite complete and is being used. Other departments in the school use it also. Some excellent books not on the required list are in the library. Miss Hays has prepared much illustrative material. She has plans for more and will spend much of her summer improving herself professionally. She is self-critical and eager to improve. She plans her work well ahead and uses a Standard Plan Book. The allowance is budgeted and a ledger which will be good for four or five years is used as a financial record. Santa Anna is to be congratulated upon having Miss Hays as a teacher. She has a deep reserve and consequently has much to give. She attended summer school all last summer and is a better teacher as a result.

Santa Anna has an active Home Economics club in two sections, meeting on alternate weeks. A dietetics and bacteriology class for nurses is being taught in co-operation with the Trade and Industrial division of the state department."

BRADY AND SANTA ANNA DEBATE

Brady's debaters came to Santa Anna for practice debates last Thursday night despite the unfavorable weather. Brady won the girls' debate and Santa Anna won the decision for the boys' debate. This was the first time this season that the Brady boys had lost a decision even though they have debated some very strong schools.

Mrs. Blagg, coach of the Brady teams, is to be congratulated for the successful coaching she has done. Her teams are by far the best that the Santa Anna debaters have met this year. It is a pleasure to debate such splendid teams.

Mrs. Oder, Rev. Wingo, and Rev. Womack served very efficiently in the capacity of judges at this practice debate.

GIRL'S TENNIS

The girls of Coleman county met in Coleman last Saturday to see who would win the cup for 1930-'31. There were four girls to play singles; Talpa, Novice, Coleman and Santa Anna. The singles started Saturday morning at ten o'clock with Nila Slaughter of Santa Anna playing against Talpa. Nila won the first and second set. Coleman played Novice and Coleman won the first two sets from Novice. Santa Anna and Coleman played off the final games. Coleman winning the first set and Santa Anna winning the last two sets, giving Santa Anna the Girls' tennis in singles. Nila Slaughter has won Girls' tennis in Coleman county last year and this. We are proud of Nila's ability, she is a very graceful winner.

The girls' doubles were played off Saturday afternoon, starting at two o'clock, Talpa playing against Santa Anna. Mary Alice Mitchell and Thelma Lowe were Santa Anna's double team. Talpa won the first two sets. However, our girls played a close and good game. Talpa played against first two sets, giving Talpa the Girls' tennis in doubles.

All of the girls that took part in the tennis Saturday found that great opportunities for development are offered by school activities, each of which has something of value not to be found or learned from books.

LOVING CUPS WON BY S. A. H. S. STUDENTS

Our school has on display nine Loving Cups which have been won by the S. A. H. S. students. They were given by different business firms of Santa Anna and Coleman. Some of these cups are ours permanently and some more of them may be after this year's county meet, which will be held in Coleman March 27-28. To make a cup ours permanently, it must be won three years in succession.

These are the cups which we have:

Girls' Tennis Singles, presented by the Coleman National bank. Nila Slaughter won it in 1930.

Girls' Debate, given by S. A. H. S. P. T. A. and was won by Merle Polk and Myrtle Mae Brown in 1929 and by Velma Oder and Irene McCreary in 1930.

Boys' Debate, presented by Hemphill-Robertson Co., was won by John Franklin Turner and Wilburn DuBois in 1930.

Extemporaneous Speaking, given by Texas Mercantile Co. This is our own cup. Jewel Jean Kirkpatrick won it 1927. Maurice Curry won it in 1928 and Jesse Lee Sparkman won it in 1929.

Essay, given by Coleman National bank, is our permanent cup. Lila Belle Smith won it in 1926; Lula Harvey in 1927; and Pauline English in 1929.

Boys' Tennis Doubles, given by classes of S. A. H. S. was won by Buster Turner and Wilburn DuBois in 1930.

Boys' Tennis Doubles, given by State National bank, Santa Anna. Won by William Wheeler and Curry Mills in 1927; by Joe Christ Barnes and Sparks Whitstone in 1928; and by Buster Turner and James Gipson in 1929.

Boys' Tennis Singles, presented by business men of Santa Anna. In 1927 Curry Mills won it and in 1928 Sparks Whitstone won it. We lost it in 1929, but James Gipson won it back in 1930.

The Mile Relay cup was also won by one of our students.

GOVERNMENT A LAVISH SPENDER

James E. Boyle, of Cornell University, writing in Commerce and finance, says:

"In these days when all sections of the country are turning to the Federal Treasury for relief—farm relief, drought relief, unemployment relief, depression relief and soon, it may be well to remember that when the Federal Government begins to spend money it spends it both lavishly and wastefully.

"For one simple illustration of this very serious fact, go back to some of the expenditures made for the equine branches of the army during the World War.

"The War Department never had at any one time over 300,000 horses and mules.

"The Government bought 2,850,953 halters.

"The Government bought 1,637,199 horse brushes.

"The Government bought 2,033,304 nose bags.

"The Government bought 1,148,364 horse covers.

"The Government bought 8,781,516 horseshoes.

"The Government had, in all, only 86,148 cavalry horses. For these—

"The Government bought 945,000 saddles.

"The Government bought 585,615 saddle bags.

"For the ordinance officers the Government bought 712,510 complete sets of spur straps or about 36 sets for each officer.

"The Government ordered 41,100,152 pairs of shoes and received deliveries of 32,227,450 pairs for 3,513,837 men, or about ten pairs for each man.

"The money spent by the Federal Government comes directly out of the taxpayer's pocket. It is not a free gift from heaven as some seekers for relief seem to think. The next relief we need is relief from our tax burdens."

TIGER EYE

by O. M. Dower

FIRST INSTALLMENT

The kid was running away, but he was taking his time about it, and he enjoyed every foot of his flight.

He was running away from several things that had begun to harru him, even at twenty: his father's enemies—such as old outlived straight-shooting old Killer Reeves; but he was not running from his enemies so much as from the impending necessity of shooting them. The kid had no ambition for carrying on a feud and getting the name of being a killer, like Pap. He did not want to kill; he had seen too much of that and it carried neither novelty nor glamour of adventure. Then, too he was running away from a girl who had called him Tiger Eye to his face. The kid felt a streak of fire shoot up his spine when he thought of the way she had pronounced the name—men called him. Always before he had accepted it just as he would have accepted any other nickname suggested by something in his character or appearance, but she had made it a taunt.

He couldn't change the yellow stare of his right eye, any more than he could remember not to squint his blue left eye nearly shut when he really meant some thing. His mother always told him he got that tiger eye at a circus she had visited before he was born. The kid didn't know about that, but he knew he had it and that it was the eye that looked down a gun barrel when he practised shooting; the eye that stared back when somebody tried to give him some of their lip. They didn't, very often; they seemed to expect him to ride with his right glove off and his gun loose in its holster, the way Pap always did.

But the kid never wanted to shoot any one. That was the main reason why he had left home.

That was nearly six weeks ago. The kid had pointed his pony's nose to the north and never once had he spread his blankets twice in the same camp. He'd be in Canada if he didn't stop pretty soon, he thought. He didn't want anything of Canada; too cold up there. He'd stay down in Montana. Lots of the boys went up into Montana with the big trail herds and didn't come back; seemed to like the country fine.

It was nice country, all right, and the kid decided that he had about reached the end of his journey. From where the trail approached the edge of a high, wide plateau, he had a splendid view of the country spread out below him.

He could look right down into the wide mouth of that coulee and see corrals, the squatly stable and the small house backed up against the red sandstone wall. Maybe he could get a job and stop right there, without looking any farther.

The kid swung his slim body around in the saddle to see if his pack horse was coming right along as he should and as he did so his buckskin horse squatted and shied violently away from something white fluttering in the top of a soapweed alongside the road.

He spurred Pecos toward the white flutter, talking to him softly; leaned over and plucked the paper off the bush and examined the thing as he rode. It seemed to be a crude map of the country lying down below him, between the bench and the river.

The kid spread the paper flat on his saddle horn and got it lined up with the country. Yes, here was the place he was coming to. According to the paper the ranch was owned by a man named Nate Wheeler and his brand was the Cross O. He was in luck. He could ride up and call the man by name, just as if he'd heard all about him. Nate Wheeler wouldn't think he was just some fly-by-night stranger riding through. He'd probably give him work; he would if he had any.

A man was riding toward him coming out of the wide-armed coulee to the left—the one which the map had identified as Nate Wheeler's place. The kid saw him the minute he came around the bold rock ledge that marked that end of the coulee and he wondered if this might not be Nate Wheeler himself. He'd ask him, anyway, as soon as they met.

The two solitary horsemen rode up into sight of each other suddenly, fifty yards apart and the slope dropping away on either side. The rancher jerked his horse up as if about to wheel and ride back whence he came. The kid kept straight on. Then the rancher did a most amazing thing. He yanked his gun from its holster, drove the spurs against his horse and came lunging straight at the kid.

"Draw, you coyote! I'm comin' a-shootin'!" he yelled as he rode.

The kid was caught completely off his guard, but he had been trained in a hard school that accepted no excuse for fumbling. The pow-w of his forty-five was not a split second slower than the other. He felt a vicious jerk at his hat as his finger tightened around the trigger of his gun. Then he was riding forward to where the man toppled from his horse. The little pinto shied away and would have started running but the kid caught it with one sweep of his long arm that gathered in the trailing reins.

He was sitting there on his horse, staring incredulously down at the dead man, when another horseman came galloping down a grassy ridge, no more than a stone's throw away. The kid turned and looked at him hardly along the barrel of his gun.

"Yo'll stop where yo're at" he commanded in his soft drawling voice, and the stranger stopped, throwing up both hands laughing as he did so. The kid surveyed him critically with his peculiar, tigerish eye, the other squinting half-shut. It gave him a deadly look in spite of his boyishness, but he did not know that.

"That's all right—I'm a friend. Think I'd rode out in sight if I wasn't?" the stranger remarked easily. "I'm riding for the Poole."

Without moving his gaze, the kid tilted his head slightly toward the twisted figure on the ground.

"Yo'all heahd what he said?" "Yeah, I heard 'im. He had it comin' Kid."

"I aimed to shoot his gun ahm down. I didn't aim to kill him." "You'd been outa luck, Kid, if you hadn't. He'd'a got you."

"Plumb crazy," said the kid. "Comin' at me thataway." "Sure was. You from the South?"

"Brazos," the kid answered succinctly.

"Yeah. My name's Garner. Babe Garner. How come yo're ridin' to Wheeler's?"

The kid gave one further look at Garner, decided that he was all right and holstered his gun.

"This place over heah was the closest," he explained. "This Wheelah?"

"Yeah." Babe Garner looked from the paper up into the kid's face. His own steely eyes were questioning, impressed. "You sure as hell don't waste an' time. Mind tellin' me your name?"

"Bob Reeves." The kid looked full at Garner, a defiant expression around his mouth. They gotta be friends to do it, though. Babe Garner glanced obliquely at the heap on the ground, nodded and looked away, up the road and down.

"Say you better fog along to my camp with me," he said uneasily. "These damn nesters is shore mean. Let the pinto go. Anybody come along and catch you here, it's fare ye well. What kinda gun you got?"

"Colt forty-five."

FORD SAFETY

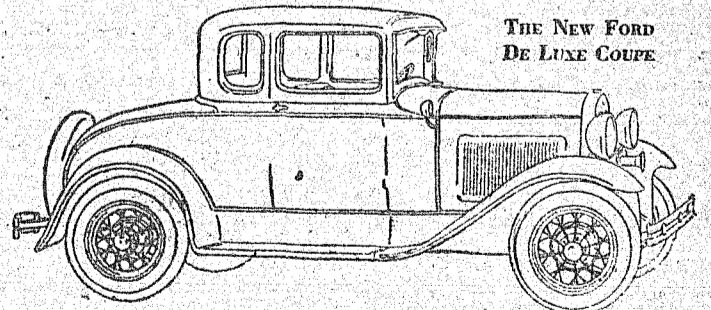

Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield has saved many lives in collisions

EVERY new Ford is equipped with a Triplex shatter-proof windshield. This is made so that the glass will not fly or splinter under the hardest impact. It has saved many lives and prevented injuries in many automobile collisions.

This shatter-proof glass windshield is just one of many features that make the new Ford a value far above the price. Others are the silent, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, sturdy steel body construction, four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, more than twenty ball and roller bearings, extensive use of fine steel forgings, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, torque-tube drive, three-quarter floating rear axle, Rustless Steel, and unusual accuracy in manufacturing.

In addition, you save many dollars because of low first cost of the new Ford, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation.

THE NEW FORD DE LUXE COUPE

LOW PRICES OF FORD CARS $430 to $630

F. O. B. Detroit, plus freight and delivery. Bumpers and spare tire extra at small cost. You can purchase a Ford on economical terms through the Authorized Ford Finance Plans of the Universal Credit Company.

Electricity Aids the Small City

ELECTRIC power has been called by many economic authorities the "Equalizer," because it puts the small town on an equal basis with the large industrial center. No longer is it necessary for industries to locate in congested, expensive and competitive metropolitan districts, for the transmission line system has built an ever-growing network of electric highways, over which is transported unlimited power—available in the smallest of towns at an inexpensive rate.

This development in the electric light and power industry holds forth greater opportunities to the small town than it has ever enjoyed in the past. The "Decentralization of Industry" which has followed this development has been advantageous to the country as a whole. West Texas has profited her full share, and will continue to participate in this new industrial growth throughout the years to come.

The West Texas Utilities Company, manufacturing inexpensive electric power, dependably serves 120 prosperous cities and towns in West Texas, the "Land of Opportunity," distributing its services over more than 2,500 miles of transmission line to a territory approximately 45,000 square miles in area.

Washington, D. C. Mar. 20.—The resignation of Alexander Legge as Chairman of the Federal Farm Board and the appointment of James C. Stone as his successor is not expected to result in any change of policy on the part of the Board, but it will probably result in a change of methods.

The difference between the two men is that Mr. Legge is a corporation man and Mr. Stone is a corporationist.—He built up the Kentucky Burley Tobacco cooperative Association, and knows cooperative tactics and diplomacy from the ground up. He is not only thoroughly familiar with what can and what cannot be done by cooperatives, but he realizes, what Mr. Legge did not always clearly appreciate, that the American farmer is so much of an individualist that the way to get him to cooperate is to persuade him rather than to try to drive him.

The enemies of the cooperative movement will undoubtedly try to make trouble for Mr. Stone, as they did for Mr. Legge. The private traders in farm commodities are fighting for their pocketbooks and they have not yet given up hope of creating a political situation which will result in the repeal of the Farm Marketing Act. They can get plenty of support from politicians, and if there is any way of misrepresenting the Farm Board actions, be sure that it will be done.

It is likely that Mr. Stone will take the people of the United States into his confidence more fully than his predecessor did. And the belief of those in Washington who are closest to the Farm Board situation is that there will be a more friendly feeling toward the Board as a result of Mr. Stone's persuasive and conciliatory attitude.

The Ohio wool growers, who have not yet come into the National Wool cooperative, are reported as being about to make a move in that direction. The fruit and vegetable situation is beginning to clear up, and it is expected that before Mr. Teague retires from the Board, which he has stated he will do in July, a strong national fruit and vegetable marketing organization will be set up.

Now that Congress is out of the way for nine months and the President will have a clear track to administer the laws as they stand, the question of Prohibition comes up to the front again. One of the most important pieces of legislation which was adopted last year was the consolidation of Prohibition enforcement in the hands of the Department of Justice. Those closest to the President say that the most vigorous effort that has been made yet to stop the inflow of liquor from Canada and Cuba and to check the activities of illegal distillers, may be looked for from now on. President Hoover's refusal to indorse any proposal which has been made for the repeal or revision of the Eighteenth Amendment arises from his firm conviction that the Prohibition law is necessary, that the control of "Hard Liquor" is States must solve as every other

Methodists to Observe Holy Week

Daily Sunrise Prayer Services to Be Held at Church

Holy Week, the most Sacred of days to every Christian, will be devoutly observed at the Methodist church under the direction of the Young People of the congregation.

A series of services will begin Sunday evening at 6:30 at the regular worship service of the Epworth league in the church auditorium, when Lonella Taylor, president of the Epworth League will conduct the Palm Sunday service.

On Monday morning promptly at 7 o'clock a Sunrise Prayer Service will be conducted by Rebecca Turner. The topic will be "A Presentiment of Death on the Cross. Tuesday, "Life Through Death" will be the subject of the devotional led by Ruth Polk. Wednesday morning at the same hour June Bond will civilized country is trying to solve it. There probably will be less interference with "home-brew", home made wines and other stimulants made by individuals for their own use than there has been in the past. California grapejuice makers have apparently legalized their plan of selling grape-juice to private persons and sending their representatives around to supervise the process of making it into wine. So long as the wine is not sold it does not seem to come within the provisions of the law.

The main issue is the suppression of whisky, gin and rum. It is on that issue that the greatest political split since the 1850's may occur between now and the 1932 election, shrewd observers here say. President Hoover will be renominated, they declare and on a bone-dry platform which will be unequivocal in every way. Senator Capper of Kansas has come out strongly to that effect. The leaders of the Democratic party split among themselves at the National Committee meeting here a few days ago, with Chairman John J. Raskob and Alfred E. Smith on the wet side and Joe Robinson, who ran for Vice-President and is powerful in the South, on the dry side. It seems certain that a Democratic "wet" declaration would result in the loss of most of the South for that party, while Republican leaders are beginning to think that they can win on a "dry" platform without the aid of New York and other Eastern "wet" states—which may not be as wet as their leaders claim they are.

Governor Roosevelt of New York, for example, is said to be opposed to committing his party to a "wet" program and is not convinced that even New York state would give a "wet" majority. If he should be nominated, it will be the result of his party deciding to "lay off" the Prohibition issue, declaring for the maintenance of the Constitution and the Volstead law as in 1928. While that would nominally take the Prohibition question out of the Presidential campaign it would still hover like an evil spirit over the whole proceedings and leave the nation about where it has been for the past few years.

be in charge of the service lesson "The Attractive Power of the Cross" forms one of the most powerful topics of the week.

Maurice Kirkpatrick will conduct the Thursday morning service on "The Redeeming Power of Lowly Service." Myrton McDonald will hold the Good Friday program on "Why Cannot We Follow Him Now?" Arlene Harper will conduct the Easter Even topic Saturday morning and a breakfast will be served on that day. Sunday evening again at the 6:30 p. m. Epworth worship hour "The Resurrection of Jesus Proof of Immortality," an Easter lesson, will be led by La Rue Curry.

Every member of the Methodist church is urged to attend these services. They will be short, devout periods of wor-

Like Liquid Porcelain

USING LOWE BROTHERS LINDURO ENAMEL is like flowing "liquid porcelain" over the surface to be finished.

It produces a finish that is as easy to clean as a china plate—and one that stands wear and hard use.

It is beautiful and just the color you want where the finish result is desired.

With LOWE BROTHERS ENAMEL UNDERCOATING, the companion product, Linduro produces the ideal in enamelled surfaces.

"Good. That won't tell nothin' if the nesters get snoopy. Come on, Tiger Eye. I'll see yuh through this."

He wheeled his horse, and led the way back up the hill, and the kid followed without a word. The damned, dirty luck of it! Having to shoot the first man he saw in the country, the one he was going to strike for a job! Another thing bothered him;

Wheeler's gun arm. How had he shot so far wide that the bullet went through Wheeler's head?

It never occurred to him that his father or any one else would disapprove of the shooting. That would be called a case of "have to." And as he meditated gravely on the necessity of defending himself, he remembered the jerk of his hat and took it off to see just what had happened.

There it was—a smudge hole right in the middle of the crown.

"Damn close Babe commented. You want to keep your eye nee-ed hereafter. These nesters'll shoot a man on sight."

"What foh?"

"Cause they're damn' cow thieves and the Poole has called the turn," Babe said savagely. You heard what he hollered."

"Yeah, I heahd."

"That's the nester's war whoop these days. The Poole has had four men fanned with bullets in the last month. We're needin' riders that can shoot. You come in time."

"How many men has the nest-tahs lost?"

Babe hesitated, gave his head a shake, laughed one hard chuckle.

"You know of one, anyway," he said meaningly.

The kid questioned no further but followed silently in Babe's lead. Over a lava bed they went where the horses must pick their way carefully but where they left no track. Down along the rim of the benchland, past the head of the coulee marked on the map as Wheeler's. Once, the kid looked down almost upon the roof of the cabin. A woman came out and began pulling the clothes off the line her back to the bluff. A baby in a pink dress toddled out on the doorstep, sat down violently and began to squirm backward off the step. Wheeler's baby. Only there wasn't any Wheeler, any more. Just a heap of dressed-up bones and meat, back there in the trail.

"What devil's luck was it tha' had made the kid shoot wide, like that? Used to shoot the pips out of cards somebody held out for him to shoot, any time Never had he missed that-a-way before. The kid could not understand it. It worried him almost as much as the killing.

Babe Garner had a snug cabin not to be approached save from one direction, up a bare steep little ridge to a walled-in basin where two springs bubbled out from the rock wall and oozed away through ferns and tall grass with little blue flowers tilting on the tops.

When they had eaten, Babe took a paper-bound novel down off a high shelf where many more were piled. He glanced at the kid inquiringly.

"Lots to read if you want it," he offered. "Make yourself to home, Bob."

"Reckon I'll take a ride," the kid said quietly. "Aim to get the lay of the land."

"Oh, sure," Babe studied the kid from beneath his lashes. "Want any help? We're pardners from now on—Tiger Eye."

"Don't need hep' right now, thanks," said kid. "Yo'all lay still and read yoah book, Babe. I'll come back."

"Give this signal when you come up the trail, Tiger Eye," he directed, and whistled a strain like the cry of some night bird. "Us Poole boys hall each other."

This Woman In 4 Weeks Lost 17 Pounds of Fat

Here's a letter written October 21, 1929, by Mrs. Fred Barringer of Lewistown, Montana, that ought to be read by every overweight woman in America:

Gentlemen: I started taking Kruschen every morning as directed as I was very much overweight and wanted to reduce.

I had tried going on a diet but would get so hungry that my diet would not last long, so I decided to give "Kruschen Salts" a fair trial. The day I started to take them I weighed 256 lbs. and at present, which has been just four weeks, I weigh 239 lbs. And I must say, I feel better in every way, besides looking much better.

May all large people, both men and women, who want to reduce in an easy way, give Kruschen Salts a fair trial. I am sure it will convince anyone."

A bottle of Kruschen Salts that lasts four weeks costs but 85c at Turner's Drug Store or any drug store in America. Take one half teaspoon in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning. To help reduce swiftly cut out pastry and fatty meats and go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar.

The Kruschen way is the safe way to reduce—Try one bottle and if not joyfully satisfied—money back.

but followed silently in Babe's lead. Over a lava bed they went where the horses must pick their way carefully but where they left no track. Down along the rim of the benchland, past the head of the coulee marked on the map as Wheeler's. Once, the kid looked down almost upon the roof of the cabin. A woman came out and began pulling the clothes off the line her back to the bluff. A baby in a pink dress toddled out on the doorstep, sat down violently and began to squirm backward off the step. Wheeler's baby. Only there wasn't any Wheeler, any more. Just a heap of dressed-
