Another Death in McHorse Family

Clarence McHorse Buried at Tuscola

Funeral services for Clarence McHorse, 19 year old Tuscola youth who died here Monday at 5:30 p. m. at the home of a sister, are set this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at the graveside in the Tuscola cemetery. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McHorse of Tuscola.

The boy became ill 15 days ago at Junction where he was employed, and was brought here to the home of his sister, Mrs. M. D. Johnson, 1202 Pecan street, for treatment last Friday. Improved he was down town for a while Sunday afternoon, but that night took a turn for the worse.

Young McHorse, was born at Round Rock and moved with his family to Coleman in 1915. For several years the family had lived at Tuscola and in Abilene. The youth attended school here two years.

Besides his parents, McHorse is survived by eight sisters and brothers; Mrs. Truman Foy, Mrs. M. D. Johnson, Mrs. Dorothy Whittier, Abilene; Florine, Wadys, Adellee, J. W. Jr., and Alton McHorse all of Tuscola. A grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Whitfield of San Angelo, also survives—The Abilene Daily Reporter.

The youth was the nephew of Mrs. H. L. Lackey and Mrs. T. L. Huggins of Santa Anna, and had visited in their homes a number of times. Many of the young people will mourn his death.

Returns Home
Mrs. C. A. Doose of Ballinger returned home Tuesday night after spending several days with her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Stacy.

SLOW RETURN TO NORMAL SEEN

West Texas Utilities Sales on Increase

Abilene, Texas November 21—Indicating a slow but consistent return to normal business conditions, national electric output figures for the week ending on November 1st show a 3 per cent increase over the same week during the normal year 1928, and but a slight decrease as compared with abnormal production schedules for the year 1929, according to information made available at the general offices of the West Texas Utilities Co. here. The gain over the same week in 1928 is the largest recorded during the preceding thirty-day period.

It was pointed out that national kilowatt-hour electric output comparisons constituted a valuable index to the general business conditions of the country, inasmuch as the strength of commercial activity is reflected immediately in the use of electric power.

West Texas Utilities Company executives receive complete tabulations from the National Electric Light Association's Statistical Research Department, each week, enabling them to keep their fingers on the very pulse of the nation's industrial activities.

Hunting First of Week
Fred Coleman and C. A. Walker were hunting in South Texas as the first of the week.

Mrs. C. P. Zenor Jr. is here this week. Mr. and Mrs. Zenor are temporarily located at Mrs. W. E. Marshall's.

They Have Only a Few Days to Live

This rural scene is duplicated in thousands of places as preparations for Thanksgiving Day are made. Perhaps the sight of Miss Edith Cromwell, feeding them their last meal before they are prepared for market, may reconcile the gobblers to their fate.

Mrs. M. M. Jennings and children.

NEW CHEVROLET NOW ON DISPLAY

Mathews Motor Co. has Coach on Floor of Showroom, Shows Many new Features

Thousands of people who thronged showrooms throughout the nation last week to get their first view of the new 1931 Chevrolet commented particularly upon the features new to the low priced field achieved in the current lines of Fisher-Chevrolet bodies.

First remarked among the new features are the increased size and roominess made possible by the longer wheelbase, while numerous other changes not obvious to the eye combine to make the bodies stronger, more rigid, and as completely squeak-proof as human ingenuity can devise.

A surprising amount of hand work goes into every individual body in the new Chevrolet series. In the application of the exterior finish, alone, 22 individual steps have to be taken along the line, ranging from the cleaning of the metal with an acid solution through the glazing and wet-sanding operations, the dry-sanding and application of a mist coat to the final Ducoing, touching up and striping.

The combination steel-and-hardwood method of body construction, the most durable and desirable known to the industry, is continued, although with important changes at vital points. The new roof construction, for example, is now a separate assembly known as the slat-and-bow type, the strongest known to the industry. The bows, instead of being steam bent, are cut to shape so that they will retain their shape indefinitely. Double steel braces easily accessible for servicing, replace the wood strainers formerly used.

Santa Anna Parties Open New Store in Brady

Helpy-Selfy Inaugurated in Brady

Brady's latest addition to the business enterprise in the name of a Helpy Selfy Grocery Store, began to take form Wednesday morning with the installation of the new fixtures. The store is being opened in the Wulff building on the north side of the plaza next to the Cobb Drug store, by Mr. McFarland, formerly of Santa Anna.

Mr. McFarland is an experienced grocery man having been in the business for a number of years, and having recently been in business in Coleman county. He ran a store in Santa Anna, and two others at neighboring points.

He plans to open on or about the 20th of this month and give to Brady and its trade territory one of the best and most modern grocery stores and meat markets to be found anywhere. He will handle a complete line of fancy and staple groceries of nationally known brands, as well as fresh vegetables and fresh meats and packing house supplies.

Brady and surrounding territory welcomes Mr. McFarland and his family to Brady as well as the two other families who will be associated with him Mr. M. G. Taylor will be his assistant and Mr. Stewart of Brownwood will have charge of the market. Brady Heart of Texas News.

Santa Anna friends regretted to see Mr. and Mrs. McFarland and little son leave our town but are sincerely glad that the Brady people are welcoming them so heartily.

SANTA ANNA TO PLAY COLEMAN

Merchants to Close for The Game

The annual football clash between Santa Anna and Coleman High Schools has always been the talk of the football public in Coleman county. These are the only major football teams in this county, therefore there is always a strong spirit of rivalry between the two schools.

This year the two teams are fairly matched with Santa Anna perhaps a favorite by a slight margin. Santa Anna has won five games and tied one this season while Coleman has won two and tied two. Coleman has a slight edge on the line weight, their weight being about 160 lbs. while Santa Anna's average is slightly over 150. Still the Coleman forward wall does not seem to possess the aggressiveness that Santa Anna has nor does the backfield appear to be so effective. For the past several years Santa Anna has been able to win or tie the first game and then lose the final game by a fairly large score. But this year the primary game was played in Coleman and ended in a 6-6 tie with Coleman bled out-played.

Come out Friday and support your team. They have made a good showing this season against much stronger teams and have failed to score but twice in eleven games. This game will end the current season and therefore both teams will be at their best. We the undersigned agree to close from 3:30 to 5:00 o'clock on Friday Nov. 21 to show our support to the Santa Anna High Football team.

FIRST THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

Few Americans know that the original Presidential Thanksgiving Proclamation was lost for over a hundred years; that it was found at an auction sale in 1921; that it was bought by the Library of Congress for $300.00; and that it now reposes in the archives of that institution, one of the most valuable documents in the world. The Division of Information and Publication of the George Washington Bicentennial Commission, in a statement issued recently relates the story of the lost proclamation.

On September 25, 1789, Elias Boudinot introduced the following resolution in the House of Representatives:

"Resolved, That a joint committee of both Houses be directed to wait upon the President of the United States, to request that he would recommend to the people of the United States a day of public Thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed by acknowledging, with grateful hearts the many signal favors of Almighty God, especially by affording them an opportunity to establish a Constitution of government for their safety and happiness."

Harmless as this resolution seems, there were objections to it. In reading the Annals of Congress of that period, we find that Representative Aedanus Burke of South Carolina thought we should not mimic Europe "where they made a mere mockery of Thanksgiving."

Representative Thomas Tudor Tuckery, also of South Carolina, argued that it was not the business of Congress to ask for a National day of Thanksgiving.

"They (the people) may not be inclined to return thanks for a Constitution until they have experienced that it promotes their safety and happiness."

These objections, however were overruled; the resolution was passed and sent to the Senate for concurrence. The Senate approved and appointed its committee to wait on the President. The joint committee was made up of Ralph Izard of South Carolina and William S. Johnson of Connecticut, from the Senate; Elias Boudinot of New Jersey, Roger Sherman of Connecticut, and Peter Sylvester of New York, from the House.

Washington complied with the request and on October 3, 1789, issued his proclamation, calling for a National day of Thanksgiving on Thursday, Nov. 28.

And then the document dropped out of sight. It apparently was misplaced or attached to some private papers in the process of moving official records from one city to another when the Capital was changed. However, it happened. The original manuscript was not in the official archives until 1921 when Dr. J. C. Fitzpatrick, then Assistant Chief of the Manuscripts Division of the Library of Congress, and now Editor of the forthcoming George Washington Bicentennial Commission series of Washington's Writings, found the proclamation. It was at an auction sale being held in the American Art Galleries of New York City. Dr. Fitzpatrick, an expert in Washington, examined the document and found it to be authentic. It was written in long hand by Wm. Jackson, Secretary to President Washington at the time, and was signed in George Washington's bold hand. Dr. Fitzpatrick purchased the document for $300.00 for the Library of Congress, where it is now kept as a treasure. And no amount of money could remove it.

HIGH SCHOOL MOUNTAINERR

November the eleventh month of the year, gets its name from the Latin word novem, meaning nine, as ninth was the position November occupied in the year until Julius Caesar, revised the calendar, adding two months; at first November had thirty days, then twenty-nine and again thirty-one. There had been no change since the time of Augustus when it was given thirty days. Less has been spoken for November than probably any other month and when spoken of it is usually referred to as "melancholy" month. However, it is not without its attractions and many lovers of out-of-doors find the hazy, mystical days of Indian Summer the most delightful season of the year. The topaz is the special stone for November and the chrysanthemum its flower.

First Grade (B)

We have thirty four children in our grade. We have finished reading one book. Our class makes charts, original stories about pictures and the "Good News Corner" is also made by us every day. When it is time for our "free period" we go to the reading table and look at picture books and try to read easy stories; we draw and write on blackboard; study C blocks, count spoons, play at the sand table and do lots of other things.

Our teacher is helping us to decorate our room for Thanksgiving. We know the story of the first Thanksgiving.

Some children help to take care of the room every week, we have a boy who is the doctor and a girl who is the nurse. They inspect us. If we do not meet their requirements we are sent "to bed" while the other children sing and have a good time.
 Come to see us.

Kaufman Family Move to Santa A.

Mrs. E. V. Day Honoree at Luncheon Wed.

The ladies of the Christian church honored Mrs. E. V. Day with a luncheon Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Buchanan.

The home was beautifully decorated in pink and green colors with an assortment of Autumn flowers artistically placed about the home.

To the 40 or more people who attended the luncheon a menu as follows was served: cream chicken, congealed salad, spanish spaghetti, hot rolls, hot coffee, pickles and mince meat pie.

Mrs. Day was presented with a beautiful picture by the women of the Christian church as a departing gift.—Kaufman Daily Herald.

"GOODBYE" TO EMMETT DAY

Emmett V. Day, junior partner of the jewelry firm of "Maphis and Day," having made an advantageous connection in Santa Anna, Texas, has moved to that place and Mrs. Day and the two boys, Robert and George, will join him shortly.

To those who know this charming family it goes without saying that their departure is deeply regretted as almost any event of the last year. Of course the boys, like all youngsters of preschool age, are well known all over town, and Mrs. Day has been a most useful member of the church, social, and civic, and civic life of the community.

Mr. Day, always courteous, smiling and cultured gentleman, was active in Chamber of Commerce work, was a member of the Kaufman quartette, a consistent church worker, and a certificate Mason. There is scarcely an organization in town which will not miss this family and Santa Anna is to be congratulated upon receiving them. The best wishes of Kaufman for their success and happiness attends them. Adios.—Kaufman Daily Herald.

Santa Anna folk are delighted to welcome these new people. Mrs. Day and the boys arrived last Friday and say that they are pleased with our town and the people they have met. The days are at home in the G. W. Faulkner residence.

Bud Everett of San Saba was here Sunday visiting with his father and mother.

Mrs. J. A. Bridges and daughter Mrs. Robert Dyess, Miss Geo. Rüst and Mr. George Hartsell of San Angelo with Mrs. Kate Lightfoot of Coleman were visitors in the Joe Bridges home Sunday.

Otho Polk was here from Abilene, Sunday, visiting his grandparents.

Thanksgiving Recipes to Help COOKS BE THANKFUL

"Punkin Pie"
Speed Crust: 2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 cup corn oil, 4 tablespoons cold water (about). Sift flour and salt together. Stir in oil, using a fork or wire beater and add a little at a time distributing it well, so that when stirred the result will be many small lumps. (Do not work up lumps as they make flakes when baked.) Add enough water to hold dough together. Turn out on well-floured board and roll half at a time. Do not chill, roll only once.

Filling 2 cups canned pumpkin, 1-1-3 cups sugar, 1-1-2 teaspoons ginger, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 well beaten egg yolks, 2 cups milk, 1-2 cup canned coconut, and 3 stiffly beaten egg whites. Mix ingredients in the order listed, folding in the beaten egg whites last. Fill pastry lined tins with the mixture. Bake for 10 minutes in a hot oven. Reduce the heat to moderate (325degrees F.) and bake 30-40 minutes longer. Makes 2 8-inch or 6 individual pies.

A FRUIT GOBBLER
1 portion Salad: 1 strip pimiento, 1 pitted date, 1 small piece banana, 1-2 slice canned pineapple, 1-4 red candied pear, quartered lengthwise, or 1 red apple, unpeeled.
Place the pineapple slice on end to make the turkey's spread tail. Stand the apple in front of the pineapple. Place the section of banana (which has previously been margined with lemon juice to prevent its turning brown) on top the apple, to form neck of turkey. On this place the pitted date, and lay on top the strip of pimiento to make the "comb." Surround the gobbler with a nest of lettuce leaves and pass mayonnaise.

"THE TRIMMINGS"

Creamed Mushrooms 1 lb. mushrooms, 1-4 cup corn oil, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1 teaspoon salt, pepper, paprika, 1-1-2 cups cream, and bread cases or French Toast. Stem and pare mushrooms. Cover stems with cold water and bring to boil. Let simmer twenty minutes. Heat corn oil in heavy frying pan and cook mushroom caps in this on both sides. As soon as tender, about five minutes, sprinkle with cornstarch, add salt, pepper and paprika, and stir carefully with hot oil until well blended. Measure stock and add milk enough to make one and one-half cups. Add mushrooms, and stir over low fire until smooth and thick. Cook three minutes. Add cream, heat and serve.

CREAMY DESSERT SAUCE

3-4 cup corn syrup (butter-scotch, maple, or caramel flavored), 1-4 cup salted nuts.
Add cream or evaporated milk to corn syrup and bring to a boil. Boil two minutes. Garnish with salted nuts and serve.

Kitchen Gossip

Your child will drink his milk with less urging if you add two tablespoons corn syrup to each glassful. It doubles the energy value besides improving its taste.

Mrs. Clinton Lowe was made a life member a number of years ago. The State association is meeting in San Angelo this week.

Mrs. Will Bell's Pecan Pie

The two recipes below were turned in by Mrs. Will Bell. Just as in the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love, so in the Autumn our fancies turn to thoughts of pecan pie as pecans are fresh, many have their own supply, and they are not so very expensive. This kind of pie is little known outside of pecan growing territory, but are very popular when once tried.
"She may dress in silk, she may dress in satin,
She may know the language, Greek and Latin,
May know fine Art, may love and sigh,
But she is no good if she can't make a pie."

Pecan Pie No. 1

Yolks of two eggs, scant cup of sugar. One table spoon of flour One or two tablespoons of butter Pinch of salt, one cup of sweet milk. One half to one cup of pecans. Vanilla flavoring. Use whites of eggs for meringue.

Pecan Pie No. 2

One and one half cups of sugar mixed with three tablespoons full of flour, four eggs and one and one half cups of white karo syrup. One tablespoon meryed butter, one cup of crushed pecans This will make three pies.

INTERESTING BREVITIES

Traffic congestion, caused by downtown parking costs Boston $81,000 a day, according to J. A. Conry, new traffic commissioner of the New England City. Boston streets are intended for traffic, not for parking, he asserts. And he intends to see that this principle is carried out.

During the past four months of 1930 Maryland which requires all automobile drivers to be licensed, suspended licenses of 994 drivers, revoked 761 and refused applications from 1,262. Drunken driving, failing to stop after accidents and speeding were the major causes of license suspension and revocation.

Texans should watch with absorbing interest the experiments of the industrial chemist. Upon them depends much of the prosperity and happiness of the State.

Speaks For Crazy Water

Thought Hopeless Yet He Lived to Tell His Story

Three weeks ago today, I came to the Crazy Water Hotel on a stretcher from the city of Lubbock, Texas, with what the doctors called Typhoid Spine, and they told me that there was no medicine that would cure me. I started drinking Crazy Water and taking baths, and on the 12 day after arriving, I took to the wheel chair and on the 17th day I started walking on crutches and can now walk without them. So I feel if Crazy Water will do that for me I cannot say enough for it.

Mrs. E. M. Critz Buried Last Sunday

In the year 1892 Col. A. G. Weaver moved to Santa Anna, bringing his family here to live on the ranch, he had purchased six miles North of town. In his coming, Santa Anna gained some of the best citizens that have come our way. Col Weaver and his wonderful companion were always found in the fore front in all things worth while, and a great help to us in every way. Mrs. E. M. Critz was the third daughter in their home.

In the going of Mrs. Critz (Nee Maud Weaver) Santa Anna feels the loss very keenly, probably more so than Coleman as she spent her school days here, met her husband here and it was here that they married Oct. 30 1907. Judge Critz having come to our town as a young lawyer. As his practice grew they moved to Coleman in Jan. 1912, he became one of our leading attorneys and where they have spent a happy and useful life.

Mrs. Critz, died after a protracted illness, at nine o'clock last Saturday morning, at her home in Coleman. Funeral services were held in the Baptist Church where she had been a faithful member by Re. E. C. Lancaster, Sunday afternoon. Interment was made in the Santa Anna cemetery.

Mrs. Critz leaves besides her husband, five brothers: Dr. Thad Weaver, San Antonio; Ernest and Leon Weaver of Coleman; Norman Weaver of Wichita Falls and four sisters: Mrs. Alice Bennett, Eden; Mrs. Vertie Moore, Fort Worth; Mrs. Era Strozler, Houston; and Mrs. Nettie Mitchell of Santa Anna.

She was born, Feb. 15, 1877 at Rogers Prairie, Leon county, Tex educated here and in Brownwood at Howard College, converted in a Methodist meeting when 19 years of age, has lived a consistent Christian life since. No young lady ever grew to womanhood in this community that was held in higher esteem. She is mourned by her many friends. Sincere sympathy is extended to her loved ones.

West Texas Utilities

Abilene, Texas, November 18—Indicating the largest program of extension and improvement announced in some months, advance construction information from the West Texas Utilities Company general offices here reports considerable activity for both construction and maintenance crews.

Electric, water and gas distribution systems will be improved, rural and urban extensions made, new oilfield lines built, company property improved, new lines built to serve airport facilities, and improvements made on existing interconnections.

To provide beacon facilities for the new air mail routes, primary lines will be built to emergency landing fields at Merkel, Baird, Sterling City and Water Valley. Construction work on the fields is progressing rapidly and service will be tied-in immediately following completion of the standards.

At Vernon, 66 kv synchronizing equipment will be installed on the West Texas Utilities Co. Texas Power and Light company interconnection. This equipment will make possible better synchronization and dispatching control of the service.

New transformer equipment will be added to the distribution system in the rear of the Texas Theatre Building at San Angelo to take care of increased demand for service.

Nine blocks of distribution line will be re-built in Dalhart, and several blocks in Texline. This work will improve service and provide for increased demand.

Oilfield activity includes the installation of new lightning arresters on the oilfield distribution system at Iraan; a line to serve the drilling activities of the Texas Company at Roby; a three-phase line to serve the Shell Pipe Line Company with power for Bakersfield holdings; a three-phase, 12 kv line in the Powell Field to serve increased requirements of the Shell Petroleum Company and California Oil Company, and a primary line to the Humble Lease near Hamlin to furnish power to drill the M. Y. Wilson No. 1.

Extending electric facilities to new customers and new commercial enterprises, primary and secondary lines will be built in San Angelo, Melvin, Texline, Stamford, Sagerton and Quanah.

The local office at Hedley will be remodeled, work including the plastering and stuccoing of the building and installation of new plate glass windows.

Gas and Water development plans call for the purchase of water meters for the city of Dumas, and the laying of over two thousand feet of two inch gas mains. These improvements will greatly facilitate service in this

DEPRESSION CURE

Here is my solution to relieve the present situation and prevent future depressions.

Let the heads of all big business institutions cut salaries down to where no one in such institutions would draw over $5,000 a year, and put back on the pay roll all their former employees at a living wage. The wheels of progress would immediately start rolling and all business institutions would show a good profit. When you stop the pay of the employees that barely earn a living you have killed the "goose that laid the golden egg". The heads of all the big institutions of the United States continue to draw their big salaries and lay off the employees that draw small salaries and in so doing they have cut off the buying power of the entire country.—J. B. Brock, 408 South Marlborough avenue, Dallas, Texas.—Dallas News.

While there are not many of us drawing much over $5,000 a year, we feel that the above sentiment would be effective in relieving the depression.

New York not only suspends or revokes licenses of incompetent or reckless drivers, but refuses to relicense them until they prove they can satisfy damages that may accrue from future accidents in which they figure. Careless drivers are penalized in Connecticut by permitting them to be charged higher rates for liability insurance than careful drivers.

When it comes to politely showing a Lady the door and bowing her out into a snow storm Colonel James Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, has no peer among the gallant knights of history.

The Democrats gained nine Senate seats and lost one—a net gain of eight. The next Senate, on the face of the unofficial returns stands: 48 Republicans 47 Democrats and 1 Farmer-Labor—a greater victory than anticipated.

Texas and Texans

By WILL H. MAYS

Troubled by frogs croaking in a nearby lake, whose noises disturbed the guests, a Pasadena, Cal., hotel lighted the lake with bright electric lights. Baffled by science the frogs sit dumb, vainly awaiting the curtain of darkness under which they practice their vocal organs.

Probably Colonel Talbot is the most popular Republican ever to make so futile a gesture for a high office. The overwhelming margin by which he lost his cause only proves that Texans are always Democrats, even if they vote Republican under duress and extreme provocation.

The facts are, of course, that Colonel Talbot took his candidacy lightly. He seized an opportunity to write some healthy prescriptions for the well-being of a state which he loves with all the fervor a Republican heart may contain. Good Democrats well may borrow a leaf or two from the Colonel's note-book, especially the portions which prescribe the general purchase of Texas-made products.

With November 4th behind us, we can turn more resolutely to the tasks of farm and drouth relief, of efficiency and economy in government, of increased employment and prosperity.

In Memory of Mrs. Sarah Bodenhamer

Sunday night Nov. 2, 1930, death claimed one of Coleman county's oldest and most respected citizens, Mrs. Sarah Bodenhamer of Rockwood, Texas.

Mrs. Bodenhamer had been suffering for some months and in the past few weeks, her condition was such that little hope was held out for her recovery. Everything was done for her that human hands and loving hearts could do.

Mrs. Bodenhamer was born in Boone Co. Mo., Nov. 16, 1854, was reared in Pitts county and later married to Mr. B. Bodenhamer. In 1888 she moved to Texas, settling in Coleman Co. where they remained until death called them away. Her husband having passed away in 1921.

To this union was born 2 girls and one boy, Mrs. Lula Stobaugh of Lorena, Texas, Mrs. Beulah Maness of Rockwood, Texas and their son Jim, died in 1910. She is also survived by three brothers and one sister who live in Mo.

and were unable to attend the funeral. She has nine grand children and three great-grand children.

The funeral services were held at her home in Rockwood, on Monday afternoon at 3:30.

She was a faithful member of the Christian Church and Rev. Mickey of Coleman, conducted the service. The floral offering was beautiful.

'Tis said, Death loves a shining mark. It must be true for the deep sorrow that now envelops the home, the town, is written in silent language of tears, and hearts that loved her bleed now that she is gone. Yet as the sorrow deepens, as clouds cling close, as tears course their way unbidden down the cheek, we can but know its God's will.

She was tender of heart and kindly of spirit but these qualities were known most by those who were intimate with her and particularly to those bound to her by ties of affection and kinship. She was a good wife, a loving and faithful mother, her family was ever dear to her, as she to them and their happiness and welfare were uppermost in her thoughts. Now that she is gone, now that she rests in the Fathers House, we bid her farewell but cherish still, deep within the sacred precincts of the heart, a memory of her—our friend.—A friend.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many friends who were so thoughtful and kind during the illness and death of our loved one, and for the beautiful floral offering.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

REV. W. H. MITCHELL, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, (© 1930, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for November 23

THE RICH YOUNG RULER, REFUSING A LIFE OF SACRIFICIAL SERVICE.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 10:17-27. GOLDEN TEXT—And he said unto them all, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A Man Who Failed Jesus. JUNIOR TOPIC—A Man Who Failed Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Choices Which Must Be Made.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—What Following Christ Means.

I. The Young Ruler (v. 17). For a complete view of the characteristics of this young man see also Matthew 19:16-30 and Luke 18:18-30.

1. His virtues. (1) He was courageous. He was a man of high standing—a rich young ruler (Luke 18:18, 23). With manly courage he came to Jesus.

(2) Earnest (Mark 10:17). He came and knelt before Jesus, thus showing his earnest sincerity.

(3) High aspirations (v. 18). He wanted eternal life. He felt the need of preparing for a life beyond.

(4) Pious and moral (v. 20). He professed to have conformed to God's only law from his youth.

(5) He believed that Christ could inform him of the "good things" to be done to inherit eternal life.

2. His errors. (1) About Christ (v. 16). He esteemed Jesus to be good, but did not apprehend him as God.

(2) Concerning himself. He was self-righteous. He thought he was good and that he could do something good.

(3) Concerning eternal life. He had a defective theology. He thought that eternal life could be obtained by good works.

II. Jesus Dealing With the Young Ruler (vv. 17-22).

Jesus skillfully led the young man to see his errors and then put his finger on the weak spot in his life.

1. His question: "Why callest thou me good?" (v. 17). His object in this was to lead the young man to a correct apprehension as to who he was. Before giving him a chance to answer he declared that only God was good, as if to say, "I am good and therefore God."

2. Jesus' answer to the young man's question (vv. 17-20). "If thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments." Christ met him here on his own ground; namely, that of the law. He took the young man's level that the young man might be revealed. If one insists on getting life by doing something, the law declares what must be done. It must be perfectly kept.

3. Christ's command (vv. 21, 22). Replying to Christ's citation of the commandments of the law, the young man glibly asserted that he had kept them from his youth up. He no doubt was sincere, but deceived. In Christ's command to go and sell his possessions and distribute to the poor, he put his finger upon the weak spot.

4. The young man's fatal decision (v. 22). His going away sorrowful proved that he was covetous and did not love his neighbor as himself.

III. Jesus Showing the Peril of Riches (vv. 23-27).

This teaching concerning the peril of riches was most timely. Covetousness was fast taking hold of the people. Even one of his disciples, Judas, was well under its sway.

It is difficult for the rich to enter into the kingdom (vv. 23, 24). This difficulty lies not in the possession of riches, for a man may possess great riches and be an heir of the kingdom. The difficulty lies in trusting in riches.

2. Entrance into the Kingdom is possible, though difficult (vv. 25, 26).

(1) It is possible for the grace of God to sanctify riches. The very thing which hinders may become a great influence for good in the hand of a regenerated soul.

(2) It is possible for the grace of God to open man's eyes that he may see his downward course and repent.

(3) It is possible for the grace of God to change a man from self-seeking to self-sacrifice.

(4) It is possible for the grace of God to make men humble.

IV. Rewards for Following Christ (vv. 27-30).

Those who turn their backs upon their kindred and possessions for the sake of Christ shall receive an hundredfold in this life, and eternal life in the world to come.

FIDELIS CLASS

Members of the Fidelis S. S. Class met at the Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon for a business meeting. They discussed plans for making the S. S. work more interesting.

The class is now re-organized and doing splendid work. They extend a special invitation to all who wish to be an active member with them.

A Happy Evening at The Parsonage

Last Monday, early in the evening, visitors began to drop in at the parsonage. Each one had a package: A jar of sweet pickle, of preserves, of chow chow; a can of fruit or of vegetables; a pound of this that or the other. One brought a box with a live chicken in it, and an original poem written on the outside of the box about "a hen that went astray, but now was turned in the right way."

Everybody stayed, and soon two or three rooms were well filled. All seemed to be in high spirits and to radiate good-will and good cheer. Toward the close of the evening, after the women had served refreshments, Mrs. Patterson called everybody around the dining table where she looked into each package and expressed her appreciation to the donor.

Then the pastor spoke a few words saying that the whole affair was entirely unexpected, and it was a complete surprise, but that it was a very pleasant one. Looking at the table he said that we have more provisions now than we have had at one time in a great while. We especially appreciated the friendship and good will that was manifested in the gifts and goodfellowship of the evening, and he said that he thought such a spirit bespoke a successful year together in the services of the Lord.

This happy occasion was brought to a close with a prayer by Mr. Frank Turner, President of the Board of Stewards, and a prayer by the pastor. And when the visitors were gone they left a happier family in the parsonage.

Methodist Church

The "new" pastor of the Methodist Church wants to take this opportunity to thank all those of the Church and of the town and community who have received him back so graciously. Come with your family and your friends to church Sunday.

Thanksgiving Service

The Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the Baptist Church Wednesday night, November 26, at 7:15. Rev. J. I. Patterson will preach the sermon.

This is a splendid time for us all to meet together and unite in praising God for His mercies and unbounded goodness, so let all the people of all the churches come together in this union Thanksgiving service and render unto God that sacrifice that is well pleasing in His sight. "By Him therefore, let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to His name (Heb. 13:15).

EPWORTH LEAGUE

An interesting program is being prepared by Helen Hall for Sunday evening. It is important that every young person in the Church attend these services.

COUNTY UNION OF EPWORTH LEAGUE WELL ATTENDED

Our sixty Leaguers of the county attended the Union Meeting here Tuesday evening. Santa Anna, has never enjoyed a meeting so much. We feel that this is because we were permitted to serve.

Baptist Church

Last Sunday was a good day with us, with fair crowds at all services. We had several visitors in the preaching services. We are always happy to have visitors and invite all who are heart-hungry and not elsewhere enlisted to come and worship with us.

Our Sunday School Training School is making headway with about twenty-five enlisted in the classes. We are striving to better prepare our teachers for their great task in the teaching of the Word of God to the people.

Regular services next Sunday in all departments. The pastor will preach at both hours. Night service at 7:15. Miss Lula Jo. Harvey will sing at the morning hour, as a special number.—Hal C. Wingo, Pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Ereckson of Brady spent Sunday in the home of Bro. and Mrs. E. H. Wylie.

Presbyterian Church

Come to church next Sunday. We will not try to entertain you but will try to preach the gospel. You know that this is good news. You will be glad to join in a song. You will be surprised how well you can sing. Bring the children. Come with your wife. Surprise her next Sunday by coming with her as you did years ago.

Presbyterians be loyal. Fight the good fight. Some of you are very loyal. This little church has done many fine things. You can do whatever you want to, when you want to with all your heart. When you try earnestly God will help you.

Young people don't forget the Endeavor. Everybody welcome.—M. L. Womack, minister.

Signs of the Times

The best indication of the real condition of a country or a community is the advertising that is done. Measured by that standard most of this part of the world is fairly prosperous. An unusually large per cent of the advertising carried in publications of all kinds is of merchandise generally regarded as luxuries, such as automobiles and car supplies, radios, cigarettes, and what were once called "fancy groceries." Evidently the advertisers find that it pays to advertise these goods or they wouldn't keep it up. The people must have the money with which to buy them and must be buying them. All reports of statistical bureaus show this. Where local papers are not carrying a fair share of this "luxury" advertising for local merchants there is something wrong with either the merchants, the town, or the local paper, and it is easy to make comparisons with other towns and locate the trouble. In 99 out of 100 cases it will be found that the local merchants have been put to sleep by the hard-time-talk anaesthetic.

Governor of Arkansas. Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them; for this is the law and the prophets.—Matthew 7:12.

Comment: The Golden Rule fits admirably into the life of every one almost every moment of every day. The very fundamentals of our social and business standards are based with a psychological effect upon the true meaning and intent of this wonderful passage.

After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.—Matthew 6:9-13.

Comment: The Lord's prayer has been indelibly imprinted on my mind and it affords quiet, peace and consolation at all times. (Compiled by the Bible Guild.)

Early Days in Coleman County as Told by a Pioneer Merchant M. J. Stacy

This is the Second of a Series of Articles on Early Days in Santa Anna and Coleman County, by Mrs. Ollie Pearce-Weaver.

M. J. Stacy
Santa Anna, Texas

One of the leading pioneer citizens of Coleman and McCullough counties M. J. Stacy, came to Coleman county when a boy in his teens from Lavaca county in 1880. His father J. B. Stacy, Henry Volentine, W. D. Wilson, Frank McGonnagill and Frank Davis, all moved to Coleman about the same time and settled near Trickham, which was the largest town in Coleman county at that time. Mr. Stacy's father purchased what was then known as the Calloway ranch, on Mike Water Creek, and engaged in the sheep business for several years. Mr. Stacy, says "My first adventure in life was helping drive several herds of sheep and cattle from Lavaca county to Coleman county. Our nearest neighbors were J. L. Vaughn, Cook Walters, Mose Walters, Bill Baxter and Dave Snodgrass. In those days neighbors were neighbors in the true sense of the word. They were always willing to help in sickness. We had great times in all public gatherings. It was very common for young people to ride 35 miles or 40 miles on horseback to a dance or a picnic, these were the principal amusements in those days.

"Trickham at that time was considered the largest town in this section. There were no railroads. Later the Santa Fe road, was built as far West as Lampasas, which was the terminal of that road for several years. Brownwood at that time was nothing more than a small country village. If I remember correctly, there was one bank, The First National and J. L. Vaughn, was president and Brooke Smith, was cashier. There was no Santa Anna at that time except in name only. Wofford Bros. had a small store just in the gap of the mountain which was on the road from Trickham to Coleman. Coleman then was a very small village where the ranchmen bought some of their supplies. There was one bank there, The First National, Jim Coleman, was president and L. E. Collins, cashier.

"This country at that time was practically all open range for stock. Some men rode the range with branding irons tied to their saddles, stopping at the water holes where the cattle would stop. They would rope and brand every calf and yearling which did not have a brand on them. By this means they got their start in the cattle business. Land was very cheap. Some of it could be bought for twenty five cents per acre. People did not want it except where there was lasting water on it. Later when the land was bought up and fenced into large pastures the fences were cut down by the wire cutters. These wire cutters were the settlers that believed in an open range. A special session of the Legislature was finally called by Governor Ireland and a law was passed which made wire cutting a penitentiary offence. By this means it was stopped. Some years later the large pastures were cut up in small tracts and sold to what they called nesters or farmers. There were many houses built by the new settlers most of whom were good substantial people who changed the country rapidly into a fine agricultural region.

"When I left Lavaca county I also left my sweetheart, Miss Lula Taylor of Flutonia, behind but in 1884, I returned to Flutonia and bought her back with me as my bride.

"We came by train from Flutonia, to Lampasas. From there we finished our bridal tour in a two horse covered wagon and I was very happy to get back to Coleman county, which I believe was the garden spot of Texas. Our marriage has been a very happy one. We have four children, namely Mrs. C. A. Doose of Ballinger, Texas; D. Talmage Stacy of Coleman, J. G. Stacy of Los Angeles, Cal. and Mrs. Roy Johnson of Chicago, Ill.

"Most of my life has been spent in the mercantile business. In 1887, I launched out in the commercial world by starting my first mercantile business at what was then called Lohn valley. I applied to the Government for a Post Office and asked that it be named Lohn. There were very few people in this section and great herds of antelope roamed over the vast prairies. So the outlook for business was not very flattering. However settlers soon came in and the ranches were soon changed into farms and my business became prosperous in a remarkably short time. I remained there several years and invested my surplus money in fertile lands. In 1892, I sold my business to W. T. Roberts, now of Brady. I then went to what was then called Brown Town, which was only a neighborhood on the Colorado river. I started another business here. I again applied for a Postoffice and asked that it be called Sloan, in honor of my friend R. C. Sloan, who had influenced me to locate here, but instead of naming it Sloan, the government called it Stacy.

"Stacy at that time was in the O. H. & D. pasture which contained about 30,000 acres of land. There was no road only a trail leading to the store. But soon this great pasture was sold out and this part of the country grew from a ranch country to a great farming district. My business grew and for twenty years it was quite prosperous, then my health failed and I had to give up business and travel from one climate to another, for relief now at the age of 68 years I find my old home county the best climate yet for me. I could tell many more pioneer incidents but fearing I shall tire my readers I shall stop."

Mr. Stacy says when the old Melton Hotel which formerly stood where the State National Bank building now stands was built, that it was considered a very fine building and Santa Anna, celebrated with a big barbecue. A brush arbor was built up near the mountain and people came from all the adjoining counties to help Santa Anna celebrate.

POWER DETERMINES FARM INCOME

The income of the modern farmer is determined, to a large degree, by the amount of mechanical power employed in his work, according to a recent survey by the American Research Foundation of Chicago.

The survey analyzes the average farm income by states. In one state, with an average of only one horsepower per worker, the average crop value per worker is $475 the average income is $1,700. It is said that mechanical power will reduce labor to about one-half, or double the speed of operation.

Electric power, the most efficient and economical form of mechanical power, is being extended to American farms thru out the nation as rapidly as is possible. In its widespread use is at least a partial solution to farm problems, and the key to agricultural prosperity. Animal power is generally wasteful, expensive and inefficient. The machine is doing for the farm what it has done for industry.

CRIME PREVENTION THEORIES FAIL

According to the American Eugenics Society, crime costs the United States at least $10,000,000,000 a year. In other words, every 3-1-4 seconds we sustain an economic loss of $1,000 due to crime.

Thus, crime becomes a financial as well as a social problem. We must all pay for it. Scientific crime prevention, then, not only safeguards the persons and properties of our citizens, but directly benefits their pocket-books.

Unfortunately there has been very little scientific crime prevention in the United States. We have attempted to fight crime on the theory that a social and economical disease can be cured by legislation.

Recently the Grand Jury in one of the largest American cities charged that there was a well-established, three-cornered alliance between the police department, the corrupt politicians and the criminal element. Protection of this nature is the greatest possible stimulant to crime. It can only be stopped by a public demand for the enforcement of basic, long-established laws.

Crime statistics indicate that major crimes such as murder, manslaughter and robbery are on the increase. This in spite of a vast volume of suppressive legislation, which, while it restricts the law-abiding, has no effect on the law-breaker.

FARM RELIEF

Dallas, Texas—A practical plan of "farm relief" which has attracted national attention with less than six months of operation has been worked out and is being applied in North Texas by Industrial Dallas, Inc., as a supplementary activity of Dallas $500,000 national advertising campaign.

The work, directed by John T. Orr, practical farmer and former president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, is designed to encourage the diversification of crops on Texas farms, and to mitigate the evils of the one crop system which has this year worked hardship upon farmers who raised nothing but cotton.

The Agricultural Bureau, as the organization is designated, however, does not confine its work to merely "advising" farmers to diversify. Its aid is of much more practical variety. Selected farmers in various communities are chosen, and encouraged to plant feed crops sufficient to finish a given number of feeder cattle.

ber of feeder cattle. Those cattle are purchased through the Bureau in carload lots in the range areas of West Texas, and shipped to central points, where they are allotted among the approved farmers. Specific instruction is given to farmers unfamiliar with feeding routine and credits for the purchase of these cattle are arranged by the Bureau, either from the funds of its own finance corporation, which has a fund of half a million dollars available for the purpose, or through local bankers in the farmers' own communities.

The cattle are fed out, and sold, usually at a good profit, and the loan repaid. The project thus far has resulted in the abandonment of the one-crop farming system on many farms in this territory, and in addition has provided a profitable method of marketing the grain which is selling at low prices in the open markets. In addition, it has provided an outlet for a substantial quantity of West Texas cattle in areas where drouth has impaired pasturage and grain crops.

"The Agricultural Bureau's work," said R. L. Thornton, president of Industrial Dallas, Inc., "is the logical outgrowth of our recognition that Dallas can only prosper in proportion to the prosperity of our neighbors in the Southwest. By showing the farmers of our trade territory a route to prosperity, we make Dallas a more prosperous city, and thereby make it more attractive as a location for the industries which we are seeking to bring here by our national advertising campaign."

Dozens of inquiries concerning the work of the Agricultural Bureau have come to Industrial Dallas during the past few months from many parts of the United States, seeking information about the operation of this practicable "farm relief" program.

along the sides of the roof and strong steel braces are now used at the corners to add to the roof rigidity. The roof structure is thoroughly padded to prevent drumming, and is covered with a material consisting of two layers of fabric bound by an inner layer of rubber.

Anti-squeak material in liquid rubber dough or friction form is used between all steel braces and their respective wood parts. As a further aid to quietness, insulating material is used wherever wood touches metal.

Exclusive patent rights just obtained by the Fisher Body Corporation for a new type of spring never before used in automobile seat construction assure greater comfort for the passengers. The coils of these springs are larger, with strips of burlap running lengthwise to separate the rows of coils.

In the sedan 32 coil springs make the front seat unusually resilient, and 45 coils are in the rear seat, nine more than in the 1929 models. Over the springs is placed a thick layer of padding unusually durable and soft. The upholstery cloth is piped with another layer of padding and the seats are trimmed with a "Turkish" front with tufts and buttons ranging along the front side of the cushion, a style of trim which adds much to the tailored beauty of the interior.

For the greater protection of front seat passengers, a layer of jute or felt is vulcanized, this year, to the rubber floor mats and an insulated pad covers the entire dash to keep out heat or cold and add to quietness. The mats in the rear compartments of the coach and sedans are a round wire tapestry type of great durability, and in the sport sedan the carpet has a high wool content with a new mottled pattern.

Option of broadcloth or mohair upholstery trimming is provided with every closed body in the new Fisher line. Curtains on all bodies have a high luster, and curtain tassels are provided in the special sedan and sport coupe.

All interior hardware has been newly designed and beautified. Exterior handles have the Protectalock features which foils the would-be-thief. Doors are locked from the inside simply by lifting the door handles.

Door lights come with the coach, sedan and sport models. A highly polished robe rail is found in the sedan, while a silk cord type is used in the special sedan. Foot rests, comfortably located in all sedans and the coach are regulated from the front seat adjuster.

Irene Rountree. "I understand that the girls in your time set their caps for the boys, grandma."

Grandma. "Yes, child but not their kneecaps."

Miss Land. "Now, John, you may give the definition for exercise."

John H. "Exercise is work what a fellow likes to do because it isn't work."

Brownlee. (Our first time in their car) "Don't talk for a moment my dear; here comes a telegraph pole."

Jewel. "Do you know what Kathryn, told me last night?"

Billie "No".

Jewel. "Howja guess it?"

Miss Land. "Noel, what are the two genders?"

Noel. "Masculine and feminine the feminine are divided into frigid and torrid, the masculine into temperate and intemperate"

Mrs. Scarborough. "Charles, if you always treated your classmates kind and considerate what would they think of you?"

Charles. "Some of them would think they could lick me!"

There Is Much to be Thankful For!

BUSINESS is on the upgrade. So is employment. Better times loom ahead. Compared with conditions in other nations, our country has much to be Thankful for this Thanksgiving.

So here's hoping the traditional holiday of our Pilgrim forefathers finds every family in Santa Anna content and happy. Yes and THANKFUL as it gathers 'round the festive board.
