

Miss Miller Wed Tuesday In First Baptist Church

In the presence of only members of the families and close friends, Juanita Miller, daughter of Mrs. Inez Miller, was married to L. B. Conway Tuesday evening in the parlor of the First Baptist church.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien read the double ring ceremony. For the ceremony the bride chose a street length frock of white wool designed with a yoke of blue embroidered in gold and pastel sequins, with matching bands set in the three-quarter length sleeves. Her shoulder corsage was of gardenias combined with American Beauty roses. She wore a hat of gold-colored fallie with black veiling, and black accessories. For something old she wore a ring belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Rufus Miller, something borrowed was a pair of pearl earrings belonging to Billie Jo Riggs, and she had a penny in her shoe for luck.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Leta Cowley, her sister, who was attired in a suit of rose wool with black accessories and a corsage of white shaggy chrysanthemums. B. E. Conway attended his brother as best man.

Mrs. Miller, mother of the bride, was dressed in a two piece dress of black and fuchsia, crepe with a gardenia corsage, and Mrs. Conway, the bridegroom's mother, wore an aqua suit with gardenias.

The bride attended Big Spring high school and prior to her marriage was employed at Banner creamery, Conway, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Conway, attended Knott schools. He served in the Navy for nine months, and since his discharge has been employed at White's stores.

The couple left immediately following the ceremony for a wedding trip to Coleman. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Conway will be at home in Pecos where he was recently transferred.

Attending the marriage rites were Mrs. Inez Miller, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Conway, Garland Conway, Wendell Conway, Doyle Conway, Debert Conway, LaVelle Conway, Mrs. Rufus Miller, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hammons, Raymond Underwood, Lazell Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Faulks, Roy Childers, Billie Jo Riggs, Don Burnham, Jean Johnson, Roscoe Gray, Paul Graham and Mrs. O'Brien.

The bride was complimented last week at a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Rufus Miller, and the couple was feted Saturday evening at a party in the Roy Childers home.

Veteran Sales Woman Honored For Years Of Service At Store

Thursday, October 24, has been declared as "Timmie McCormick Day" at Montgomery Wards store here, in honor of Mrs. McCormick, who has been associated with the store longer than any other employe there now.

Mrs. McCormick has been with the local retail store since 1935 and is now in her 11th year of continuous service. During that time she has been associated with practically every department in the dry-goods division, beginning as a salesclerk in the piece-goods department. From that department she progressed to the warehouse, and later returned to the store as a shoe clerk. She reached the position of assistant department manager of that unit before being transferred again.

Her next position was in the children's and infants' wear and ladies' lingerie departments. She now serves as manager of that department. "Of all the departments in which I have served," Mrs. McCormick declared "I believe that I've enjoyed my work in my present position more than any other."

"I have no children of my own, but I like helping other women who do have them select their clothes," she stated. "Also, I get to be with children more here."

Quiet and soft-spoken, Mrs. McCormick is obviously not the "high-pressure" type of saleslady, but her abilities in selling cannot be denied. She has won contests for the largest number of sales many times, and her all-store high last Christmas won her a three-day vacation. At other times she won days off but worked through them, "because we were very busy then, and the help situation was bad."

Mrs. McCormick is so well-liked among her customers, that once during a three-month illness her commissions were as large as if she had been there because her regular customers asked that their purchases be attributed to her.

In token of her years of service J. M. Wagner, manager of the local Ward store presented her with a corsage.

The Army has made Army life so attractive that voluntary enlistments are filling quotas, he said in an interview here yesterday. He predicted that Selective Service legislation, which expires March 31, will not be renewed unless an unforeseen emergency arises.

"I want it understood, however," he said, "that I am for an American Army, Navy and Air Corps second to none."

Interest In Club Essential, Abilenian Tells Rotarians

Whatever else Rotarians may have, if they lack interest, they lack effectiveness, George Barron, president of the Abilene Rotary club, told members of the Big Spring club Tuesday noon at the Settles.

Barron was the speaker on an inter-community program exchange.

An appeal for support of the Community Fund in effort and money was voiced by Joe Pickle on the basis that the fund drive meets a need, is good business, and benefits the individual by service participation.

In his address to the Rotarians, Barron drew an analogy between the impelling motives of Paul and good Rotarians. Members are chosen for a high degree of character and intelligence, he said, but unless they capture some of the interest and zeal of Paul, they fall in their responsibility in serving others.

Barron put it on a basis of individual participation and interest. He scolded Rotarians who thought they had reached the "retiring" age in club service and pointed that they should concern themselves with vital issues of the day.

"If we had been privileged to see the birth of the nation in 1776, all of us would have been vitally interested," he said. "But today we are witnessing the same thing on a world-wide scale and many of us do not know what it's all about."

Announcement was made that Ladies Day will be observed next Tuesday. Rotary Anns will be special guests.

Visiting Rotarians were Ray Upham and W. R. Mann, Midland, Barron and Robble Roberson, Abilene, and Mack C. Lindsey, Lamesa. Other visitors included Rev. H. C. Smith, Bob Flint, and Clyde Angel, Hamlin.

Makes Farm Chores Easier

LINCOLN, Ill. (U.P.)—Inventive Erwin Gehlbach has ended the water-lugging and scooping drudgery on his farm. A special truck hauls grain from bins at the corn crib to self-feeders in the pasture, where an elevator spout on his portable grain bin puts the grain in the feeders. He waters his cattle by lines running to pastures and feed lots from elevated tanks.

New Airline Strike Feared

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23. (AP)—The threat of a possible new airline strike early next year cast a fresh shadow over the aviation industry today as the walkout of 1,400 TWA pilots moved into its third day.

The latest wage dispute, involving pilots of two-engine American Airlines, Inc., planes, landed before the National Mediation Board after the company and the AFL Air Line Pilots association failed to reach an agreement.

An AA spokesman said the pilots are demanding a 30 percent boost in their present average earnings of $9,477 a year. He said this would make pilot pay for flying present DC-3 equipment virtually the same as for four engine DC-4's and that the amount would rise to $13,845 a year when the after two engine CV-240's are put into service next year.

The strike against Trans World Airlines, which involves pay demands for four engine pilots, went through mediation machinery months ago.

Taxpayers Hurry To Get Discount

A rush by Big Spring taxpayers to clear current assessments before the deadline for full three percent discount was reported this morning by the city tax department.

Several payments were received as soon as the receipt books were made available, a full day ahead of official notice deliveries. Although an accurate total of the early payments was not available this morning, they were estimated at more than $18,000.

Since notices were late, the three percent deduction period has been extended to Nov. 15, and if the present rate continues, last year's total of some $90,000 paid before deadline will be topped, officials estimated.

It's not that we don't love our work!

WE DO LOVE our work—but these days, we almost dread leaving home and going to our showroom.

So many people want new Packards, and there are so few coming through!

But you can't build cars without materials!

The factory is straining every effort to get more parts and material so production can be increased.

We're doing our best!

Some cars have been shipped with wooden bumpers, some without window regulator handles. This costs the factory a lot of money, for it means that replacements must be shipped and installed later.

Under such difficulties, it's a wonder the folks at the factory have done as well as they have. This year, compared to the same period of 1941, Packard has built a higher percentage of cars than the industry as a whole.

We don't dare predict!

Our customers have been so patient that we'd like to sound some optimistic note.

Community Fund An Investment, Lions Are Told

The $32,000 quota for the Community Fund is so dwarfed by comparison to the estimated $4,000,000 a year which Big Spring and Howard county subscribed for a war effort that it ought not to be any chore at all to raise.

This was the basis on which the Rev. H. C. Smith put an appeal for Community Fund work and gifts to members of the Lions club Wednesday.

"I know what you are thinking—that the money raised during the war was an investment," said Rev. Smith. "But if the Community Fund is not an investment in boys and girls, then I don't know what it is."

He went on to say that of course "we don't expect to get any of this back (as in the case of war bonds) before the day of judgment, but who wants it back?" Rev. Smith said that if a value could be placed on youth, each one would be a million dollar item. He said he was "glad to live in a community that is concerned about its youth."

Mel Hargis, whose professional name is Ivan Barcoff, played two piano selections for the club. He was with Dr. Leon B. Staats, who is leading in the Bible conference this week at the municipal auditorium. Dr. Staats was introduced by Rev. James R. Clark. Other guests included Dick Young, Lameas, W. D. Greenleaf, formerly of Houston, and three members of the Steer football team—Enser Puckett, Marvin Wright and Eddie Houser.

The Price Of Educational System

The price being paid for education in Texas and many other states may shortly become a topic for discussion. The press noted this week that the biggest chunk of revenue in Texas goes to education. Approximately half of the total outlay for local political subdivisions in Howard county for the next year will go for education.

Unless history has ceased to repeat, we may expect the cry to be raised that "we are spending too much for schools." This could be possible, or at least that we may not be applying the proper amount of funds at the proper place.

In the main, however, we doubt that a nation that spends only 43 per cent as much on education as it does on liquor is in a position to get in a heat about education costs.

It is easy to look at comparative salary schedules for teachers now and several years ago and note that they have had, for the most part, pretty substantial raises. This does not take into consideration that the starting point was disgracefully low, nor that the increases have been offset wholly or largely by increased living costs. Thus, it should not be anticipated that the salary situation is solved.

Nor should it be until it amounts to real wage or salary to a level commensurate with the profession. All inspirational stuff considered, the hard fact remains that there must be a sufficiently comfortable living wage to entice qualified people into the teaching profession. This cannot be done by paying an average wage which is, according to some estimates, $500 per annum under the average wage for industrial workers.

Thus, the question is raised as to whether it is more important to build things or to mould boys and girls of intelligence and character.

The answer to this is so obvious that we believe that the public must eventually come to grips with the problem of being responsible for adequate remuneration for a high profession, of providing adequate facilities, and of giving moral support to an envigorated school program.

In turn, the educational profession is obligated to furnish a more select personnel from the point of being vitally interested in teaching as a profession; personnel practically trained for modern requirements. Many in the profession acquit themselves nobly because they have sacrificed themselves in love of their work. There are too many, however, who regard it as a stepping stone or stop-gap employment. These, in time, must be replaced.

With the public and the profession working together with vision and unselfishness, our schools can hope for still greater development and service.

WELL, AT LEAST—

The Voters Know Who's Who

Not long ago the Denver Post made a survey.

William Lee Knous is chief justice of the Colorado supreme court and unopposed democratic nominee for governor. Leon Lavington is Colorado state treasurer and unopposed republican nominee for governor. Mr. Dagwood Bumstead is Chick Young's delightful contribution to the comic pages. Who is Dagwood Bumstead? Who is William Lee Knous? Who is Lavington? These are the question the Post asked the public.

Eighty-one of every 100 knew Dagwood; 31 per cent knew Lavington, 30 per cent Knous.

Lewis Takes On 'The Champ' Again

WASHINGTON. (AP)—John L. Lewis—with his big hat and his ten-gallon words—is back in the ring, punching again.

Lewis has spent years slugging away at heavyweights like the coal mine owners. It seems now they were just preliminary boys. He was just warming up.

This time he takes on the champ, the US government itself. Last spring Lewis hit the mine owners with a bucketful of demands which he deliberately made vague.

The owners wouldn't give him what he wanted entirely. His miners struck. Pretty soon the country's factories were gasping for coal.

It was a tough, tight squeeze for the whole country. Reconversion was groggy from the beating. Then the government stepped in, took over the mines, and talked Lewis with Lewis.

The government signed a contract with him, giving him most of what he wanted. His miners went back to work. That was last May. They've been working since.

But the government isn't in the coal business. It was supposed to continue running the mines—on Lewis' terms—only until he and the mine owners could reach some agreement.

Lewis and the owners have not yet reached an agreement. The government still runs the mines. And now Lewis is mad at the government. He says the government has violated its contract with him.

Secretary of the Interior Krug is the government representative who made the contract with Lewis last spring. Last Saturday Lewis, in a head-to-head talk with Krug, told the secretary:

"The government wasn't living up to its contract and was doing things Lewis thought violated the contract."

Krug apparently didn't yield to the man in the big black hat, so Lewis wrote Krug a typical Lewis letter which began:

"On Saturday, Oct. 19, 1946, you in conference with me again refused to correct the unilateral misinterpretation you have heretofore issued of the Krug-Lewis agreement of May 29, 1946."

So Lewis, under the terms of the contract with Krug, wants a conference with him Nov. 1 to iron out the dispute. If Krug and Lewis don't reach some agreement, the miners may walk out again Nov. 20.

Another coal strike—a long one—would really put the country in a box. It's just getting over the no-meat blues and never has run smoothly on the reconversion program since reconversion started after Japan's surrender.

Whether Lewis—in addition to wanting the government to straighten out what he considers a violation of his contract—wants higher wages for his miners remains to be seen.

He told Krug in his letter that one of the reasons he wants to talk with him Nov. 1 is for the "purpose of negotiating new arrangements affecting wages, hours, rules" and so on.

He's not specific on wages. He's more specific than he was last spring when he told the mine owners he wanted higher wages for his miners.

By being vague, Lewis is causing a lot of wondering between now and Nov. 1. This will whip up public interest in his case. It will leave the government a little in the dark on exactly what he wants or is talking about.

Keeping the other guy on the defensive like that is an old Lewis custom, except this time the other guy is the government.

Child's Records Go Big

NEW YORK — Freddie Brisson, husband of Roz Russell and son of Carl Brisson, has $17,000,000 budgeted for two films a year during the next five years.

He's president of independent Artists' Inc., other owners of which are his wife, Dudley Nichols and Frank W. Vinton. The new firm will produce and release through RKO Radio

Murvyn Vye, who became a movie star after scouts caught him as the villain in "Carousel," has amassed such an acting rep among the Hollywood characters who've seen the rushes of his first movie, "Golden Earrings," that Mike Todd has offered him a major star's salary to appear in Todd's imminent "Curiosity."

... Just a couple of years ago Mike was paying Murvyn the bare minimum as a chorus boy in "Something for the Boys."

FRANK LOESSER, heretofore known mostly as a lyricist, will do music and words for the Paramount movie, "Variety Girl."

Pearl Bailey, comedienne of "St. Louis Woman," will make her film debut in the Loesser musical. Professional Children's School tossed a cocktail drink at Cafe Society Uptown. Former stars graduates of the Pro Kiddies school, who appeared include Milton Berle, George Price, Kenny Delmar (Senator Claghorn of the radio), Beatrice Kay, Mary Small, Rex Ingram.

George Olsen's band back on Broadway, at the New Yorker's Terrace Room. Marlene Dietrich in town briefly for conferences prior to hopping off for Paris and another French film. Mark Hellinger's movie, "The Killers," busted every movie mark at the Winter Garden Theater. Pat O'Brien tapped for a command performance in London this November.

CHILDREN'S record now big business, with every major disc firm turning 'em out. Lorraine Rogan, whose husband was killed in the Lisbon Clipper crash early in the war, has decided to continue her dancing career after all with an ex-GI named Pat McCaffrey whose style reminded her of her husband's. She saw him while she was USO-touring Hawaii, told him to look her up after the war if he was interested. He was.

Fannie Hurst now a drama critic on a New York radio station. Bob Hope in town. He adopted two children recently, making his adopted total now four. Things which drive a stage manager dizzy: Eugene Leontovich couldn't start her role in "Obsession" on time the other night because she couldn't get away from the telephone, through which her husband, Gregory Ratoff, was delivering his Russian dialect best wishes.

He was on the coast. Sculptor Jo Davidson's bust of Frank Sinatra will be peddled in the nation's stores, with bobby soxers expected to break precedents, windows and probably the plaster figures in the rush.

Assembly Has The Power To Debate

WASHINGTON. — The American people are now beginning to realize that the road to peace after war is never easy. Beating our swords back into plowshares sometimes is more difficult than forging the swords of battle.

But one encouraging milestone on the road to peace begins in New York when the smaller nations of the Allied world, who for months have had to sit and take it from the Big Four, now debate on an almost equal footing.

Many may have forgotten it, but this issue of free debate caused a bitter battle at the San Francisco conference. Mr. Molotov then wanted to stifle free debate. He proposed that the general assembly of the United Nations not even be permitted to discuss or criticize decisions of the big powers sitting on the Security Council.

Australian Foreign Minister Evatt, spokesman for the little powers, spoke. He went further and demanded that the general assembly under the recognized principles of democracy have the power to overrule the security council. He was rebuffed, not only by his own "mother diplomats" from London, but by the isolationist-grounded Senators of the US delegation.

In the end, the general assembly was given the power to debate, discuss, criticize, and recommend—but, not to carry out. That is what it will do as it begins sessions today.

Note—Actually in the Western World, where public opinion has become so important, this power of debate can be all-powerful. Mr. Molotov, of course, realized this when fought so vehemently to restrict the assembly's power of debate at San Francisco.

Behind the iron curtain, public opinion still is tightly controlled when it is degenerated, then we need no longer worry about war between the USA and the USSR. Meanwhile, the sessions beginning in New York today are like the first struggling but healthy debates of the Continental Congress and of the United States Congress which grew therefrom. They won't achieve much at the moment, but they should pave the way to great and hopeful things.

Coughlin Sought Nazi Tie

For years, speculation has continued as to whether Father Coughlin's attempts to stir up racial and religious strife among Americans was inspired by Nazi Germany. The testimony of Nazi officials arrested in Germany now appears to answer the question for once and all.

The answer is that the radio priest did seek cooperation from Hitler, but the Nazis figured he needed no help from them. The suppressed Rogge report on Nazi activities in the USA carries the following interesting references to Coughlin:

"Early in 1939, according to Richard Sallet (propaganda attaché at the German embassy, in Washington from 1935 to 1937 and subsequently an employee of the German foreign office), an agent of Charles E. Coughlin, named Leo T. Reardon, came to Berlin and wanted to see Von Ribbentrop and Hitler. Sallet's job was to entertain Reardon and talk to him about German problems. Reardon talked against President Roosevelt and against the Jews, and conveyed Coughlin's suggestion that Hitler personally make some sort of statement that the Nazis were supporters of the Christian religion."

"After spending a few days with Sallet, Reardon saw Ribbentrop. To Ribbentrop he repeated the things he had told Sallet. As for the statement that the Nazis were supporters of Christianity, Ribbentrop replied evasively that he would do the best he could on it. At the close of the interview, Ribbentrop said: 'Give my regards to Father Coughlin. I have a high regard for him.'"

"Later in the year, Coughlin followed up on the suggestion he had made through Reardon. He wrote a letter to the German honorary consul in Detroit, Heller, in which he repeated his suggestion, and Heller took the letter to Berlin. A copy of Coughlin's letter is in the files of the German Foreign Office, together with a memorandum under date of August 11, 1939, signed by one Woermann, head of the political department of the German Foreign Office. Woermann's memorandum reads as follows:

"The German honorary consul in Detroit, Mr. Heller, who was introduced to me by the German consul in Cleveland, handed me the enclosed copy of a letter directed to him by the well-known Father Coughlin. He showed me the original letter bearing the signature of Coughlin. The aim of the letter is to support Coughlin in his fight against Roosevelt and the Jews by improving the position of the church in Germany to a certain extent. As is known to you, Father Coughlin sent his manager, Leo T. Reardon, to Germany, the matter about which Mr. Sallet is informed in detail. Mr. Heller asked whether it would be possible to give him some reassuring information for Coughlin when he returns to the United States.

"He also pointed out the necessity to bring out in the United States the German point of view. Mr. Heller will call on me before his return to the United States. I told him that it probably would be difficult to formulate an official German statement for Coughlin."

"Paul K. Schmidt told us: 'Father Coughlin was extraordinarily frequently discussed at his foreign office. His activities in the United States were frequent topics for conferences among the department chiefs of the foreign office. The matter was assigned to six's department.'"

What UN Will Debate

Here are the most important problems to be threshed out before the UN general assembly: The veto—Cuba will propose that it be eliminated entirely. Russia will vigorously oppose. The United States and Britain will weigh. They still like the power of the veto, despite their criticism of Russia for using it; so they will propose that the veto be eliminated eventually, but that debate be indefinitely postponed.

Palestine—Mandates and trusteeships will cause caustic debate. Britain still clings to Palestine though the League of Nations which loaned it to her is defunct. Some UN members will now try to take it away. The USA will be in for trouble when Roads raises status of Pacific Islands now held by us.

Home for United Nations—delegates are fed up with New York's lack of hospitality, and Soviet will take advantage of this by urging transfer to Europe. Delegates will argue that even in wartime London or Paris they get better treatment than in the busy subway-rushing, beserk New York. San Francisco will take advantage of this.

Troops on Foreign Soil—Russians will get under British skin by demanding size of British troop forces in Allied countries. On this, USA and UK will split, as we are quite willing to give figures of our troops abroad.

Real Progress—Despite lack of publicity, despite vitriolic debates, the United Nations has made great progress of less spectacular problems: refugees, health, aid to children, construction of devastated areas, human rights. Though obscured by international wrangling on other things, this is one of the most important jobs the UN is doing.

One Day In England

LONDON. (AP)—Almost anything can happen in an English day. For instance:

Pat Marchant, 21, found wandering in the street on her wedding night, explained to police there was no room in her husband's parents' house. Mrs. Elsie Hart showed up at a Slamese cat show with an entry named "Shah-Pa-Shah"—phonetic French, she explained, for "cat-not-cat." The owner of another cat, which wolfed a neighbor's fish and mince pies, was forgiven by the Liverpool County Court which held that the cat was "following its natural propensities."

W. E. Nicholson of Torquay died and left 177,609 pounds ($710,436) to his two young sons, a week housekeeper. Mrs. A. Pratt of Middlesbrough got tired of bawling about the housing shortage and took a job as a bricklayer's helper. The Eton rural council ruled that restaurant dinners must not be fed to dogs. Alternating current electricians went on strike at a London hotel but the DC men stayed at the fuse boxes.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART
Our Town greets a Fort Worth high school football team for the first time in eleven years Friday night, and what a long time that is.

It was in October, 1935, that Luther Scarborough brought his Polytechnic Parrots to the village for a taffy-pull with Obie Bristow's Steers at the wind-swept old balliwick on the hill north of town. Yes, a lot of water has moved downstream since that time. If it's hard to realize it, that was the year a young negro boy by the name of Joe Louis Barrow punched Maxie Baer to the floor in four rounds in New York.

Bobby Wilson was starting SMU's Mustangs on a grid season that led them to the Rose Bowl. Red Womack was a 120-pound passing genius for Ben Daniel's Junior high school Devils. Harry Hays was starting for San Angelo's Bobcats and was destined to lead them to the district championship.

George Brown and Milton "Speedy" Moffett were helping Bristow coach the Steers, who had been installed as favorites to repeat as conference champions. Such operatives as Sleepy Jones, Olie Cordill, Woodrow Harris, Paul Coburn, Robert Hildreth, Steve Baker, Jack Wilson, Cecil Wisenhunt, Cliff Trainer, Sam Flowers, Woodrow and J. W. Coots, Louie Madison and Leonard Morgan were wearing local mole-skins.

Cecil McClung and Durward Horner, later stars at Texas Christian, led the Poly club into town and it was Horner's toe which ultimately provided the edge that gave the Cow-Town clan a 13-12 triumph over the Longhorns.

Cordill counted both the Big Spring touchdowns against the Fort Worthians but failure to boot the extra points cost the Bovines the victory.

Big Spring got stronger as the season progressed that year and knocked over Sweetwater by a record 44-0 score at season's end.

The Poly team fielded a line that autumn that averaged 177 pounds a man. The Parrots outweighed the Longhorns at most positions anywhere from five to ten pounds.

The North Side club has a line that is very similar in weight and height to that Polytechnic eleven, will boast virtually the same edge over the current edition of the Big Springers.

Local players will be running into many of the hold-overs of a North Side contingent that subdued the Big Springers by a 24-6 count. The homecomings reportedly played one of their better games of the

Fenimore, Duke Star Standouts On Punt Returns

NEW YORK, Oct. 23. (AP)—Two of the most dangerous safety men in college football this season are George Clark of Duke and Bob Fenimore of Oklahoma A&M, who have covered more ground in returning punts and kickoffs than any other players in the nation.

Statistics announced today by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau show that Clark has run back 11 punts for a total of 251 yards and Fenimore, a member of the 1945 All-American team, has carried eight kickoffs back a total of 215 yards.

The longest punt return so far this season has been that of George Wamsley of Rice against Southwestern of Texas for 90 yards.

Hardest workers among the safety men are Jack Hutchinson of VMI and J. P. Moore of Vanderbilt. Each has returned 15 punts, Hutchinson for 168 yards and Moore for 140.

The second high man in kickoff returns is Forrest Hall of San Francisco, who has run back six for 203 yards.

The longest kickoff returns recorded this year have been for 98 yards, and there were three of them. They were turned in by Hall against Stanford, Howard Turner of North Carolina State against Clemson and Lou Ceccoli of Pittsburgh against West Virginia.

Nine players have intercepted four passes, with Marion Timberlake of Richmond running his back a total of 92 yards to top the rest in that department.

There are others, however, who boast a better total on a single effort. Joe Golding of Oklahoma went 99 yards with an intercepted pass against Texas; longest run of its kind this year.

The leading pass received at this point is Neill Armstrong of Oklahoma A&M, who has caught 18 for a total of 234 yards.

Among the ten leaders in each department were:
Punt returns: fifth, Guess of Texas 9, for 168; sixth, Welch for Texas A&M, 12 for 170; seventh, Berry of Texas Christian, 10 for 168.

Pass Interceptions: Ninth, Cleveland of Hardin-Simmons, 4 for 15. Pass Receiving: sixth, F. Salem of Texas Mines, 14 for 135.

Punting: Sixth, Wendt of Texas Mines, 42.5.

season against the Tarrant county crew, but were outclassed from here to there.

However, given any sort of a break, the Big Springers could hand the visitors a surprise package. The Amon Carter school team, a cross-town rival, held the North Siders to an 8-7 win last week and might have plastered its better known rivals with a defeat with a break or two.

Incidentally, the referee of that Steer-Poly 1935 outing was the late Jim Cantrell of Colorado City, a one-time TCU star who later coached the high school team in his home town.

Another official was Harry Faulkner, Bristow's first coach and later a baseball magnate at Lubbock.

Joe Black, who saw them play the Odessa Broncs, says Abilene's Eagles have the best passing game of any high school team he ever saw, and Joe was here back in the days of Tack Dennis and Sammy Baugh.

The combination of Lloyd King as a pitcher and Duane Hendley and Harold Middlebrook as catchers, insists Joe, is one that would do credit to many a senior college team.

Youths Take Over At Army's Citadel For 'Fight Night'

Three free-for-all bouts in which contestants were permitted the use of but one hand, featured the Salvation Army boxing card staged at the citadel Tuesday night.

Charles Franklin won one of the matches, outsparring Kenneth Prather and Billie Woods. J. W. Holt proved the superior of Stanley Decker and Earl Holt in the second while the third featured Charles Wright, Gleason Wright and Melvin Byers in which no decision was handed down.

In other bouts featuring junior boys, Earl and J. W. Holt fought to a draw, Earl Holt dethroned Stanley Decker. Milton Berry thumped Douglas Berry, and Chubby Moser, age 5, gained the nod over Donnie White, 6.

A total of 48 boys were on hand for the exhibitions.

Tales Of North Side's Woes Being Taken Lightly Here

Dibrell Beset With Problems In Own Camp

Stories originating in Fort Worth to the effect that the North Side Steers will field an injury-riddled football club here Friday night hasn't caused Coach Johnny Dibrell to send home half his local troops in order to guarantee the spectators a more interesting contest. Dibrell has troubles of his own. The home towners are, physically speaking, in their worst shape of the campaign. Bob Hardy reports to practice today for the first time this week and prospects are that he'll be used on sparingly come Friday.

Larry Hall is gritting his teeth and getting about somehow on a game leg. Jackie Barron has an ankle swollen all out of proportion. Others are favoring minor wounds which came as a result of the Brownfield adventure last week. Dibrell figures the best thing for the boys this week would be a holiday but, since the schedule rules out that possibility, he'll make out somehow.

Coach Paul Show of the North Side club had told the world he doesn't know whether or not he'll be able to put 11 men on the field here this weekend. His captain, Wallace Hooper, is on the shelf for at least the next three games and perhaps for the season because of a knee wrench.

Yale Larry, a crackerjack back, is lame and will probably be used only for kicking. Al Williams, a guard, is favoring a knee injury. So the story goes from Fort Worth.

However, Dibrell is taking such stories with a grain of salt and making preparations for a major campaign. He figures the North Side club will be one of the toughest the Bovines will face this fall and has the record to back him up. The Cow-Town terrors have drubbed Adamson of Dallas, 20-0; Woodrow Wilson, also of Big D, 19-0; Sulphur Springs, 31-0; Poly of Fort Worth, 6-0; and Amon Carter Riverside of Fort Worth, 8-7. In five tests, the Fort Worthians have rolled up 84 points while holding the opposition to seven.

In most quarters the Snow forces are rated among the state's top ten teams. They come to town the decided favorites over the resident eleven.

The Big Spring forward passing game that elicited so well against Brownfield last week may get quite a workout Friday night. The attending gentry can expect to see the Bovines lay down their most versatile if not effective offensive barrage of the campaign in the quest for victory. And a win would put Our Town right up in the preppers' elite pigskin society.

After this week's outing, the Bovines take a rest until Nov. 8, when they entertain the San Angelo Bobcats in another District 3AA outing.

All players who do not see action against North Side Friday night will be eligible to play Saturday, Nov. 9.

Harris 'In' As Manager Of Yankees, Says Rumor

NEW YORK, Oct. 23. (AP)—Stanley "Bucky" Harris, a suave baseball diplomat, is the new manager of the New York Yankees—that is if the latest rumor is true.

Harris, appointed executive assistant to Larry MacPhail, Yankee president, a month ago, was said by the Daily News to have been "sold" on the post at a secret meeting yesterday. The News reported the confab was attended by Bucky, MacPhail, Will Harridge, president of the American League, and Charley Dresen, present Brooklyn coach, who the News said, had been named Harris' No. 1 aide.

MacPhail termed the story "pure cock and bull." "I don't know who the Yankee manager is going to be," fumed Larry. "And if I did know now I wouldn't tell anybody."

Neither Harris, Harridge nor Dresen was available for comment. The news related that Harris, before the World Series, twice turned down the managerial post, but during the series games at Boston, confided to a close friend that if the job were offered to him again, he would accept.

"This (third) offer," obviously, came immediately after the series when Yankee executives met at French Lick, Ind." The news asserted. "From there the scene shifted to yesterday's secretive meeting here, where final details were worked out—with the inclusion of Dresen as No. 1 aide."

The News asserted Harris was given a two-year contract at $40,000 per year.

Harris, who first gained fame as the "boy manager" in guiding the Washington Senators to the 1924 American League pennant, last was in the majors in 1943 when he piloted the National League Phillies until he resigned in mid-season.

Berwanger To Help Waker Tilt For Staggs

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 23. (AP)—In a game being played more in the honor of Amos Alonzo Stagg than for the sake of competitive seriousness, three former Western Conference officials will come out of retirement to join with Jay Berwanger, one of Chicago's greatest football stars, in officiating the Northwestern-College of Pacific game Saturday.

The three "oldtimers" are James Masker of Northwestern, referee, John Schommer, umpire, and Joe Lipp, head linesman, both of Chicago teams which Stagg coached during his 41 years there. Berwanger, All-American back at Chicago in 1935, will serve as field judge.

Stagg launched his coaching career for Chicago against Northwestern in 1892 with the game ending in a scoreless tie. In the second meeting the same season, Northwestern won 6-4. Stagg not only coached, but played on the Maroon eleven that first season.

Intersectional Record Of Prep 11's Healthy

By The Associated Press
Texas schoolboy football teams have compiled a gaudy intersectional record this season, winning 16 and tying two in 22 games played against elevens from other states.

No other state has managed to break even. Louisiana has come the closest to it with two victories against three defeats. New Mexico has lost six and tied one, Oklahoma has won one and lost four, Arizona has won one and lost two and Mexico has lost one and tied one.

There will be four intersectional games this week with El Paso high meeting Phoenix, Ariz., Austin (El Paso) playing Roswell, N.M., Bowie (El Paso) tackling Globe, Ariz., and Las Cruces, N.M., playing Ysleta.

Forty-four games are on the schedule in Texas this week-end—the shortest card of the season—but it is not lacking for top games.

Four games will be played Thursday night, only one a conference affair. Lamar meets Sam Houston in the Houston district. In non-conference tilts, Benham will be at Denton, Sherman at Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) and Reagan (Houston) at Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio).

Galveston plays Orange and Austin meet Brackenridge (San Antonio) in the week's top contests Friday and Saturday nights. The former will virtually determine the champion of District 14 and the Austin-Brackenridge tilt will be the start of the championship play-off in District 15. All four of these teams are undefeated and untied.

Embargo Lifted On N. Y. Express

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—The city's strike-battered economy received an extra lift today as the Railway Express Agency abandoned an embargo on outbound shipments of express from New York City to the six New England states.

The embargo was imposed Sept. 9 after a general truck strike congested express terminals. A spokesman for the express agency said, however, that the ban on incoming shipments to New York, except for perishable foodstuffs and medicine, would remain in effect.

The action also followed partial settlement of the 53-day strike of AFL drivers resulting from the acceptance of union terms by many individual operators.

Cooked A Fine Dinner; Then Threw It To Dog

One lady recently stated that she used to throw her own dinner to the dog most of the time. It made her sick just to look at anything to eat. She was swollen with gas, full of blood, had headaches, felt worn out and was badly constipated. Finally she got INNER-AID and says she now eats everything in sight and digests it perfectly. Bowels are regular and normal. She is enjoying life once more and feels like "some other woman" since taking this New Compound.

HEREFORD BREEDERS START TOUR OF COUNTY TOMORROW

Howard County Hereford Breeders Association will launch its annual fall tour Thursday, with a group of breeders and visitors scheduled to depart the county agent's office at 8 a.m. The tour is to be a two-day event this year, with registered Herefords of 19 local breeders to be inspected. Stops will be made at 10 ranches the first day, mostly in the north and eastern part of the county. The Friday schedule is to cover south and western ranches. Lunch is to be served Thursday at the W. W. Lay ranch, and Friday at the E. W. Lomax ranch. A highlight of the tour will be a brief pest control demonstration at the Lomax ranch Friday. County Agent Durward Lower has carried on a series of experimental demonstrations there during the summer and fall, and a group of cattle which has been used continuously in the work is due to receive final spraying treatment with insecticides. George W. Barnes, animal husbandman for the Texas A&M college extension service is to be here for the Friday demonstration. Barnes will demonstrate and discuss latest pest control methods as recommended by the extension service. The experiments have been designed especially to study controls of flies, ear tick and lice among cattle.

WALSH CAMPAIGNS ON HIS OWN, IGNORES TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION

BOSTON, Oct. 23. (P)—Senator David I. Walsh has cut any Massachusetts ties he may have had with the Truman administration and is waging a lone-hand fight for his political life against the vigorous challenge presented to his reelection by Republican Henry Cabot Lodge.

Walsh, 73 year old veteran who is serving his twenty-sixth year in the Senate, is running on his pro-labor, big Navy record, with no mention of President Truman or the national administration. He is being strongly opposed by Lodge, 44 years old, who quit the Senate after his re-election in 1942 to enter the armed forces.

Most political observers here agree that, in a campaign which is almost painfully polite in its absence of the customary recriminations between candidates, the issue is so close the result might be determined by the extent of the protest vote of the still short supplies of meat and other commodities.

Walsh, who opposed the late President Roosevelt's pre-war foreign policies and hasn't always gone along with Truman administration proposals, told this reporter he believes he will be less affected by this "irritation" vote than most of his senatorial colleagues.

38 Dead, 45 Hurt In Explosions On British Ships

LONDON, Oct. 23. (P)—John Dugdale, financial secretary of the Admiralty, announced today that 38 men were killed and 45 injured in explosions which damaged two British destroyers off the Albanian coast yesterday.

Dugdale told the House of Commons the first vessel, the Saumarez, "was believed to have hit a mine." The other, the Volage, was damaged nearly two hours later while towing the Saumarez. He said "there was an explosion" which blew off her bow.

Both ships have arrived at Corfu. An Admiralty board is inquiring into the cause of the explosions, he said.

"I should explain that at the time of the accident, both ships were in the very center of the (mine) swept channel, which is one mile wide, and their position at the time was one and half miles from the Albanian coast," Dugdale said. "The channel was searched by British minesweeping formations periodically from October, 1944, to February, 1945, and no mines were found."

Parts of the bows of both ships were blown off.

Baby Chick Output Shows Some Increase

AUSTIN, Oct. 23. (P)—Commercial production baby chickens bounced back somewhat in September from the all-time low in August, but it was still nearly 50 per cent under normal.

The September output was 800,000 baby chicks. The United States Department of Agriculture reported today, compared with the 1,500,000 hatch of last September and the 1,494,000 four-year September average (1940-44).

Demand was heavy for broilers, and there was still a great shortage of hatching as well as eating eggs.
