"He Profits Most Who Serves Best"

VOLUME LV.

SANTA ANNA, COLEMAN CO., TEXAS, FRIDAY JANUARY 12, 1940.

NUMBER 2.

This Week in Our Town

"Our holiday mailings totaled about 25,000 letters and cards," Postmaster Jack Woodward reports, "of which about 17,000 were Christmas messages. Quite a nice increase in the holiday spirit and postal receipts." No greater evidence of the return of the old spirit is to be found than in Christmas messages on the increase. Of recent years a reduction was noted. This upturn is part of the return to normalcy in this country.

"Did more business Monday than we did all day Saturday," says Mr. Purdy. That's unusual, since the largest crowd and the most buying is the Saturday feature here. Possibly the colder weather forced the townspeople, who leave certain kinds of shopping to the last minute because they are handy to the stores, to do some rush buying of warm clothes, bedding and long handed underwear. Others were investing in heating equipment.

"Bill's out vaccinating turkeys today," is the answer most people get from Mrs. Griffin when they enquire for Bill. There are a lot of turkeys in this part of West Texas and Bill Griffin is a turkey and chicken doctor of rare skill. When Doc Bill can't diagnose the illness of Biddy or Turkey-Lurkey, he calls on Doc Salsbury and in consultation the tougher cases are cleared up. That's some free advertising for the two medicos.

"Brother Penny mailed a lot of circulars to Jack Woodward's waste baskets this week," remarked a reader who had seen a squib in the News in the past about Penny, the Hub and Bro. Grammar circularizing the baskets so heavily in the past. "What's the matter with them? Are they trying to get a lot of business out of Santa Anna without spending a cent over here?" That's the way it stacks up. Get all you can and give nothing. They'll probably be able to retire in a century or two on the savings effected by this economy method.

"I have a mutiny stirred up in our club," Joe Bridges reports. Joe is president of the Aw Gee Whizz Club, which meets in almost continuous session these cold days at the Service Cafe. "We have had so many applications for membership we are being forced to limit the number on the roster. Too many want to join for the cup of coffee we are set up to ever so often, but these birds won't buy any coffee themselves. The old members want to throw moochers out, and we have no by-law to permit it, so there's mutiny on." Our opinion is that the big boss of the cafe told the club members to buy now and then or make themselves scarce. The regular members resent the pickle the new members put them in. But Joe can handle them.

Oil Briefs

The only change effected in the personnel of the Santa Anna National Bank Tuesday was the appointment of O. L. Cheaney to the position of Cashier, vice Dewey Pieratt, resigned. Cheaney has been with the bank for several years, knows the work and it the right man to step into the place.

New County Agent Addresses An Open Letter to Citizens

"It is my desire to be of the greatest service to the largest possible number of farmers and ranchmen of the county," says D. D. Steele. "Most of my time will be spent in the field, but I plan to be in my office on Saturday and Wednesday mornings. You are cordially invited to come by and get acquainted, thus helping me to help you. My office at present is in room 204, New Moore Hotel.

"Although I have been in Coleman County only a short time, I have been greatly impressed by the extensive and far-reaching agricultural program already being promoted by the various local and governmental organizations. Everywhere there seems to prevail a spirit of enthusiastic cooperation that becomes contagious as it reaches into all phases of rural and urban activity. Much of the achievement and accomplishment no doubt reflects much of the good work of my predecessor, C. V. Robinson who served the county for ten years as County Agent. In undertaking an agricultural program in a new county, the agent is usually greatly handicapped by not knowing the needs, the problems and the best methods of procedure. In Coleman County, however, I have found a group of farmers and ranchmen ready and willing to point out the needs and help work out the best ways of attaining these ends. The Land Use Planning Committee has outlined a program that covers all phases of well planned activity. It included oil and water conservation, livestock improvement, 4H Club work, pasture improvement, Better Seed, Orchard and Pecan work, Improvement of Poultry, Feeder-Breeder movement, Live-at-home program, diversified farming, irrigation of home gardens, swine and dairy production and a program on wild life conservation.

"It is indeed encouraging to find so many groups eager to work in a spirit of unity toward a common goal—that of improving the agricultural and industrial interests of the county. The Home Demonstration Agent and Woman's Council, Vocational Teachers, Farm Security Administration, A. A. A. officials, Rural Board of the C. of C., Production Credit Association, County Judge and Commissioners Court, local cooperative associations and many others have already shown a most friendly and helpful spirit. "Although I will assist in every way I can to promote the A. A. A. program, I have no official connection with it. County Agents' now act as an ex-officio member of the County Committee and only in an advisory capacity. All questions pertaining to the A. A. A. program should be taken up with the A. A. A. office where complete records are kept and competent officials are ready and willing to serve you."

COLEMAN COUNTY MISS OPENS FAT STOCK SHOW

Miss Billie Marie Miller, 16, Coleman high school senior, officially opened the 1940 campaign for the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show when in Fort Worth recently. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Miller of Coleman and great-granddaughter of the early trail driver and ranchman, Joseph J. Morris. Morris came to Coleman County in 1884 from DeWitt county. He amassed a cattle ranch that covered 110,000 acres and extended into Taylor, Callahan, Shackelford and Coleman Counties. The Morris estate was divided in 1937 upon the death of Mr. Morris. The Millers now live at the original ranch headquarters near Coleman.

Miss Miller, who will be one of the ranch girl honor guests at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth, March 8-17, began a round-up of Southwestern automobiles. She hopes to have a windshield sticker on each of 50,000 cars before the show opens.

Emergency Loans Are Now Available Co. Agent Reports

Emergency crop and feed loans for 1940 are now available to farmers in Coleman County and applications for these loans County Agent's office, Coleman, Texas by D. H. Harrison, Field Supervisor of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section of the Farm Credit Administration.

This early opening of the loan program in Coleman County is part of a plan recently announced by the Farm Credit Administration whereby emergency crop and feed loans are being made available immediately in all areas where farming conditions are seriously affected this year by drought.

These loans will be made, as in the past, only to farmers whose cash requirements are small and who cannot obtain a loan from any other source, including production credit associations, banks or other private concerns or individuals.

As in former years, the money loaned will be limited to the applicant's necessary cash needs in preparing and cultivating his 1940 crops or in purchasing or producing feed for his livestock.

Borrowers who obtain loans for the production of cash crops are required to give as security a first lien on the crop financed or, in the case of loans for the purchase or production of feed for livestock, a first lien on the livestock to be fed.

TEXARKANA WILL OPEN MODERN FEDERAL PRISON EARLY IN 1940

One of the nation's most modern prisons, a $1,058,000 Federal detention farm near Texarkana, Texas, will be opened by the Bureau of Prisons of the Department of Justice early in 1940. Funds for the project were supplied by a Public Works Administration grant of 100 percent of the cost.

The new prison will house 416 male prisoners. Prisoners sentenced for not more than 18 months and whose records and reputations place them in a low category as escape risks will be assigned to the institution.

The prison farm will also be used for the detention of men awaiting trial on charges of not too grave character.

The Texarkana detention farm is the newest of a series of similar regional prisons being built by the Federal government to alleviate the increasingly over-crowded conditions in Federal penal institutions.

Regional Office Of PWA at Ft. Worth Is Closing Feb'y. 1.

The work of supervising the completion of Public Works Administration projects in the seven states comprising the PWA's Fifth Region will be transferred to the PWA office in Chicago on February 1 and the regional offices in Fort Worth, Texas, will be closed.

The closing of the regional offices in Fort Worth is due to the rapid completion of the PWA program in the states of Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. George M. Bull, Regional Director, said.

Bull pointed out that on January 1, 135 non-Federal PWA projects remained to be completed in the region. The value of the remaining construction was $14,000,000.

By the first of April, only 50 projects will be under construction in the seven states, with the remaining construction to be done estimated at $5,500,000.

UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS HAS VACANCIES

Vacancies in the ranks of the United States Marine Corps are being filled at a very gratifying rate according to information received from Washington, D. C.

Of the original 5,000 vacancies existing two months ago, approximately 2,000 now remain to bring the Marine Corps up to the authorized peace-time strength.

Texas, because of its size, has been allotted a January enlistment quota of 120 men by Headquarters, Marine Corps, according to Captain J. D. O'Leary, Officer in Charge of Marine Corps recruiting in Texas, with headquarters in Dallas.

These 120 young men will be accepted for enlistment through recruiting offices located in Abilene, Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio.

Applicants may secure further information by contacting the postmasters or the recruiting offices of the above named cities.

Old Folks Receive First Old Age Payments February 1

February 1 will be a big day for many an elderly American. For on that day the United States Treasury will make its first old age retirement payments, under the terms of the social security act. To be eligible for the benefits you must be 65 (by January 1), must have worked in six different calendar quarters since the end of 1936, and must have earned $50 or more during each of them. Persons of 65 who can't quality may work on until they have gained sufficient wage credits. And pensioners may continue to work after qualifying—providing they don't earn over $15 a month. Maximum benefit at this time is $82.40—for a worker with a wife over 65 and one or more dependent children.

So government "social security" is now a going endeavor. But that doesn't mean the problem has been settled. The present system, in the view of most economists, is financially and may prove unworkable inasmuch as the sums paid in by the workers of the country must be invested in government bonds, and the money goes into the Treasury where it can be spent for any purpose Congress desires, there is no absolute guarantee that the future benefits will be paid as contracted. Under any circumstances, unless the law is changed, the program will increase the Federal debt by tens of billions. Many officials of both parties are convinced that the system must be revised.

On top of that, the present law makes no provision for the millions of farm and domestic workers, or for people who own their own little businesses and make smaller incomes than many salaried workers. Persons in these categories are exerting pressure on Congress to extend the program to cover them.

Water consumption in Brownwood during 1939 set an all-time record according to O'Neal Archer, superintendent of the Brown county water improvement district's plant. During the year just past Brownwood used 594,540,000 gallons of water, an increase of 20.6 percent over the 493,000,000 gallons used in 1938.

The peanut acreage yield for Brown county this year was only slightly over 20 bushels, due to a summer drought and a severe hailstorm over a part of the peanut belt. Brown County Agent C. W. Lehmburg reports. But the quality of nuts and the price obtained made up for the low per-acre yield.

The Brownwood precinct for the last year recorded 387 births and 203 deaths, according to Justice of the Peace E. T. Perkins, official registrar. There were 41 births in other precincts bringing the county total to 498, while the entire county registered 241 deaths.

December postal receipts for Brown County established an all-time record, with the total 12 per cent ahead of that for the previous year, according to Postmaster J. Edward Johnson. A final check is expected to reveal receipts close to the $9,000 mark.

A check for $77,555 has been given to V. W. Wallace, Bangs farm center, for use in purchase and improvement of this farm on which he has lived for the last five years. The money came from the Farm Security Administration in the form of a 40-year loan at 3 per cent.

Philip Charles Murry, World War veteran who found his wife and two children in Brownwood last autumn after a story-book Rip Van Winkle absence of 15 years due to a lapse of memory, has vanished again, according to a story published in the Dallas Journal. Mrs. Murry, who lived in Brownwood, prior to her husband's homecoming, is now living in Dallas. She reported to Dallas police that her husband left home Nov. 15 and has not returned.

A two-day district Golden Gloves tournament in Brownwood will be held Monday and Tuesday, January 29 and 30, according to announcement by Gus J. Rosenberg, tournament director. Mr. Rosenberg was named tournament director by Flem R. Hall of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, state director. Profits from the tournament will go to a fund that will be used to equip the new National Guard Armory in Brownwood.

Fifty-seven residences were constructed within the Brady city limits during 1939. Most of them were built under the Federal Housing Administration plan.

The Advantages of Student Government

That student government in our schools is advantageous is proved by the fact that all modern, progressive schools operate under that system. It is beneficial, first to the school, in several ways. By having student officers in the corridors during intermissions between classes, the students are more orderly and quiet. The teachers are relieved of the small but irksome duties of discipline between classes.

Student government benefits especially, those students who participate. It develops in them a sense of responsibility, encourages the quality of leadership and proves their honor. The punishment of a semi-serious offense, if meted by the student council may not be as severe as that given by the teachers, but it is much more humiliating. It is far worse to be despised by one's contemporaries than by one's superiors.

In developing the aforementioned qualities in the student, the school can aid. Participation in student government develops a higher type of student. The quality of a school is determined by the quality of the students which make up the school.
