

Third Army Battles Germans in Fort Driant Tunnels; Aachen Burning Under American Artillery Shelling

Germans Refuse Ultimatum Given By Americans

By WILLIAM SMITH WHITE and DON WHITEHEAD OUTSIDE AACHEN, Oct. 11 (2:05 P. M. (AP)—Aachen is being burned and beaten before our eyes today, but the final assault has not yet reached the tremendous fiery scale we had expected.

This is being written from a captured German barracks on the edge of the frontier city of 165,000, a gateway to Cologne and the Ruhr.

At noon — this silent city not having answered the American ultimatum for its unconditional surrender — big guns began to bellow against it and soon dive-bombers came screaming in shrilly, in flights varying from six to a dozen at a time. Their bombs sometimes are high explosives, sometimes fire bombs.

The whole face of the city is clouded in smoke which intermittently almost clears away. The Aachen cathedral, built in 796 and containing a throne of Charlemagne, stands unharmed as yet and the sun is glistening now on its lofty spire.

The fate of Aachen was sealed today when the German commander of the garrison there declined to accept the U. S. First Army's 24-hour ultimatum to surrender the city.

At exactly noon the Yanks began hurling a terrible weight of heavy shells and aerial might against the ancient city of Charlemagne. Eight-inch guns 155-millimeter and 106-millimeter guns unleashed a thunderous assault.

The cacophony signaled that the assault on Aachen had begun and served as a warning to the rest of Germany that their cities will be destroyed if they are turned into fortresses.

Divebombers roared out of the sky and dumped their explosives onto the enemy — hiding in cellars and the rubble of buildings battered by previous shelling and bombing.

If he accepted the ultimatum, the German commander of Aachen was to send a representative under a flag of truce to the railway on the outskirts of the city and arrange the surrender. The enemy was to pass through the line in groups of 50, leaving weapons behind.

At 10:50 a. m. no one had appeared. Automatically the plans for battering Aachen by artillery and air began to take shape. Noon was set for the opening of the artillery barrage. Extra ammunition had been issued to the gun crews. They stood in readiness. Then it began.

Motion Overruled On Rerearing Case AUSTIN, Oct. 11 (AP)—The supreme court today overruled a motion for rerearing of the case of the city of Wichita Falls vs. R. C. Bowen.

The effect of the action was to re-affirm its previous decision, favorable to the city, under which Sheppard Field is a military reservation, it still may be within the corporate limits of the city.

Bowen contended the city's rate ordinance was invalid because its enforcement would impair its rights under a license to operate buses in Sheppard Field.

Carrier Planes Slash Japanese

By LEONARD MILLIMAN Associated Press War Editor Hundreds of carrier-borne American planes, ranging to within 200 miles of Japan, struck at the Ryukyu islands Monday (U. S. time) in their boldest attack of the Pacific war, destroyed 89 planes and sank or damaged 58 surface craft.

Tokyo radio said today 400 torpedo planes, bombers and fighters participated in the surprise raid. It said they came in four waves, from dawn until mid-afternoon, roving over 500 miles of the island chain between southern Japan and Formosa.

The attack, the first in the area at the very gates of the East China Sea, failed to stir out the Japanese home fleet or the air armadas based in Nippon and Formosa, both of which should have been within range of the American carriers.

It was probably the closest approach to Japan of any great U. S. naval force during this war. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported that no supporting ships were damaged and losses to Vice Adm. Marc A. Mitscher's carrier planes were light. Tokyo asserted 26 attacking aircraft were shot down.

Nimitz announced that all Japanese "ships that could be found were attacked and severe damage was done to shore installations." He listed 12 ships, including a destroyer, as sunk, 14 probably sunk, 12 damaged and 20 luggers and other small craft as destroyed or damaged.

About 600 miles east of the Philippines, soldiers of the army's 81st division completed conquest of Garakoya islet in the Palau group within 24 hours. It was the tenth of the Palau islands to be conquered.

South of the threatened Philippine archipelago, fighter planes and PT boats broke up a Japanese attempt to reinforce organized remnants of the garrison on Morotal island, now the closest American airbase to the Philippines. Eighteen barges carrying troops and supplies were sunk or damaged.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek said 400,000 Chinese regulars, cut off in eastern China by the Japanese drive down the center of the nation, still "are capable of delivering massive blows against the enemy."

Western Africans re-captured Mowdok in the southeast corner of India, near the Burma border. They were putting the finishing touches on the Nipponese rout from India which British Lt. Gen. W. J. Slim termed "the greatest defeat" the enemy has suffered.

WPB Passes Crisis In Production—Jones WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 (AP)—The nation now is past the critical stage for war production, says War Food Administrator Marvin Jones.

"With this year's record of food production, we are safely through that critical period of expanding needs, both for immediate use and reserves, which challenged us at the beginning of the war," Jones said in a statement following issuance of the October 1 crop report.

REDS NEAR MEMEL Americans Reach Livergnano Edge

ROME, Oct. 11 (AP)—American troops, still slowed by rain and deep mud, have reached the southern outskirts of Livergnano, 11 miles due south of Bologna on highway 65, and advance elements there are meeting fierce German counterattacks, it was announced today.

The pace of the fighting along the entire Italian battlefield generally was reported retarded by adverse weather. West of the highway, too, the Germans were fighting for every mud puddle, but some progress was made in the drive for Bologna and advance elements were approaching Vado, 12 miles to the southwest. South African troops were reported locked in bitter fighting on Mount Stanco, just west of Grizzana on the American left.

The Eighth army appeared to be making some progress in the hills of the Adriatic front despite all constant rain. British and Indian troops reached the summit of a new ridge extending from Montiglio to Mount Farneto, northwest of San Marino, and threw the Germans out of a few houses they attempted to hold in the villages of Roncofreddo and San Paolo.

Air operations again were restricted by the weather, but there was some activity against rail, bridge and gun targets by fighters and fighterbombers. Five Allied planes were lost from about 800 sorties.

ROME, Oct. 11 (AP)—The Third battalion of the 362nd Infantry Regiment, a part of the 91st division, was the unit which broke through the Germans' Gothic Line Sept. 22 and took Futa Pass in the bleak Italian mountains between Florence and Bologna. Allied headquarters disclosed today.

Its troops are mostly from the midwest and Pacific coast states. At Senj, on the Dalmatian coast southeast of Fiume, an enemy ship was left afloat when Beaufighters hit it with 25 rockets.

The naval command announced that a British destroyer and a heavily armed landing craft shelled German troops and gun positions on the Albanian coast north of Corfu Oct. 8 with good results.

Soliciting For Community Chest Continuing Here

The general soliciting for the Community War Chest continued Wednesday after it opened Tuesday morning with breakfast for the block chairmen at the USO. Although there were only 12 chairmen present at the meeting, all assignments were accepted.

The Community War Chest quota for Big Spring has been set at $28,790. The special gifts committee, headed by G. H. Hayward, has raised $10,858.25, and all contributions have not been turned in. Hayward urged that all money be turned in as soon as possible.

Major Harry F. Wheeler is in charge of the drive among the officers of Big Spring Bombardier school. The quota has been set at $1,500. Civilian employees at the field met Monday afternoon at the theatre and pledged cooperation to the drive.

R. R. McEwen, chairman of the Big Spring drive, said Tuesday that deacomanias will be awarded to all business establishments that have 100 per cent contributions. The sticker bears an eagle symbolizing the national drive, a Texas flag and a man in a cowboy hat, representing Texas. The slogan on the sticker testifies that Texas is willing to do its share.

Although block chairmen have been chosen, McEwen urges that all citizens wishing to assist in the drive may do so.

Record Safety Class Enrolled

MEMEL Death-Trap Near For Nazi Troops

By EDDY GILMORE MOSCOW, Oct. 11 (AP)—Russian troops fought within seven miles of Memel and 15 of the East Prussian rail center of Tilsit today after slashing to the Baltic sea above the port, cutting land routes for up to 150,000 Germans still in Latvia and Lithuania.

Yet another death trap was being fashioned in a Soviet drive southeast of Memel, which Hitler annexed to East Prussia early in 1939 from Lithuania. Advancing along the last 59 miles separating them from the sea south of Memel, the Russians swept along the Niemen river in a lightning move which appeared likely to cut off from three to five enemy divisions between Taurage and Kirisches Haff.

Ten German divisions, totalling perhaps 150,000 Nazis, were trapped yesterday in a Latvian pocket north of Memel when Gen. Ivan C. Bagramian's battering ram overran the Baltic beaches 15 miles above the besieged and shell-rocked port.

Red army forces southeast of Memel were less than 18 miles from the German communications center of Tilsit, in East Prussia, and eight miles from East Prussia's northern frontier. Only 48 miles of the Niemen river — the Germans' defense line along the entire north of East Prussia — remained in Nazi hands.

At Riga, advance armored units were reported probing the city's outer defenses in repeated strikes. Meanwhile, on the Yugoslav-Hungarian front, one Soviet column was reported fighting in the outskirts of the Hungarian city of Debrecen, a communication hub controlling international routes to Czechoslovakia, Poland and Romania.

There were no new reports on the offensive aimed at Budapest. (The Germans have placed the nearest Russian force at Srolnok, 50 miles from the Hungarian capital).

Bricker Cites Need For Military Bases

BREMERTON, Wash., Oct. 11 (AP)—Gov. John W. Bricker today advocated that America maintain a "strong system of outlying military bases" after the war, and blamed President Roosevelt for the failure to fortify Guam.

The republican candidate for vice president, setting forth what he described as his party's position in an address prepared for delivery in the great shipyards vicinity of Bremerton where on Aug. 12 he said, the president stated:

"We were not allowed to fortify Guam, nor did we fortify Wake, or Midway or Samoa." Bricker, referring to the valiant, five month stand of American soldiers on Corregidor, said in a prepared text released by his campaign staff:

"If ever there was an argument for the retention, after this war, of a strong system of outlying military bases within the sphere of American responsibility for world security, Corregidor is that argument."

China Announces Need For Relief

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 (AP)—China figures it will need almost $3,500,000,000 worth of relief supplies in the first year after liberation, and has asked the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration to provide $945,000,000 of this total.

UNRRA published the Chinese program today, stating that for the first 18 months after liberation, China will require 10,000,000 tons of imported supplies with 55 per cent for rehabilitation and 45 per cent for direct relief.

About 320 technical experts will be needed to administer relief in China, the report estimated, although recommendations are made for establishment of Chinese government commissions to direct the program.

Canadians Widen Grip On Schelde

LONDON, Oct. 11 (AP)—As blows to level Aachen began, First Army men closed the ring tighter about the city. To the north they seized Scharfenberg and Bardenburg, advanced to Wurselen, and mopped up Germans in the southern part of Haaren, northeast of Aachen.

South of the siege site, Third Army men and Germans battled underground in a winding tunnel at Fort Driant before Metz, ricocheting bullets off the walls. Doughboys and Germans were so close they could hear each other's orders.

The fierce struggle for surface positions in the fortress continued unchanged. Farther south, Americans virtually cleared the enemy from Parroy forest, and scored gains east of Luneville and Epinal. A house-to-house fight was on for Maiziere six miles above Metz.

Canadians sliced the main highway connecting the Schelde estuary island of South Beveland with the Dutch mainland, looting off the escape route for thousands of Germans holding there who have prevented Allied use of Antwerp port.

To the southwest, other Canadian infantry widened their Schelde river beachhead to four miles, and drove three miles inland in the backdoor assault on the Germans below the Schelde's mouth. Berlin said this seaborne landing east of Breskens opposite Flushing had been reinforced.

The Allies heavily bombed the holdout port of Dunkerque on the French coast. South of Aachen, the communists reported gains to the southwest of the German town of Hurtigen and patrol and artillery action near Monschau.

West of Belfort, where the American Seventh and French first armies are striving to negotiate the Belfort gap between the Vosges and Alps, "progress has been made in the Champagne region," headquarters said. The last Allied position was reported within eight miles of Belfort.

Attention, however, centered largely on the dramatic climax approaching at Aachen. During the 24 hours which the ultimatum ran, the Allied radio at Luxembourg warned at intervals hour after hour that the defenders must make up their minds quickly, or see the city levelled.

Many high in Allied military circles consider Aachen a test case for all Germany. The action of the Aachen garrison may well set the pattern for sieges of other German cities as they are approached. A quick surrender or overwhelming of Aachen might mean a speedier termination of the war.

Cologne Targets Hit By Bombers

LONDON, Oct. 11 (AP)—Military targets in the areas of Cologne and Coblenz, key supply points close behind the western front, were attacked today by American flying fortresses, escorted by long range thunderbolts and Mustangs.

The attack was carried out by a smaller force than usual, indicating hundreds of heavy bombers possibly were being held in reserve for the assault on Aachen.

The German radio reported formations of Allied bombers also swinging up across Austria from the south.

FALSE ALARM

The Big Spring Fire Department made its first run of National Fire Prevention Week Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 p. m. to the Settles hotel. It was a false alarm.

Whereabouts Of Mysterious Ninth Holds Key To Western Offensive

LONDON, Oct. 11 (AP)—Where is Lt. Gen. William H. Simpson's U. S. Ninth Army? Secrecy with which Allied headquarters is surrounding this fighting force has left its movements and probable present location a matter of conjecture on both sides of the western front. Its whereabouts, when finally made known, may be the key to Allied strategy — the master plan to deliver a final knockout blow to Germany.

Allied headquarters emphasized the element of mystery concerning Simpson's Ninth Army when it officially disclosed last night that the French First Army has been combined with the American Seventh Army to form the Sixth Army group holding the extreme right flank of the western front. Previously, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower had said only that the new army group was composed of "French and American units."

There had been an unofficial speculation that Simpson's Ninth would be a part of this army group.

The Ninth has been in the news twice since its presence in France was first disclosed in September. The first time was when Lt. Sam Magill and 18 buddies rounded up 20,000 Germans south of the Loire river, and guided them to surrender at Orleans, Sept. 14. Next was when the Germans — fishing for information — declared in a Berlin broadcast that Gen. Simpson's men had taken up positions on the Belgian-German frontier.

Unfortunately, for German accuracy, there was no room on the northern flank, occupied by the 21st Army group composed of the Canadians First and British Second armies.

The middle of the line is filled by the American First and American Third armies. And the American Seventh and French First are holding the southern extremity of the line.

Is the Ninth poised in its secret location to exploit a possible Allied breakthrough like the St. Lo stampede?

Alamo Scouts Trained For Killing

By MURLIN SPENCER
AN ADVANCED DUTCH NEW GUINEA BASE (AP)—The Alamo Scouts are the most skilled of Lt. Gen. Walter Krueger's famed Sixth Army of jungle fighters. They have nerves of steel and they can kill a man with their hands or a knife. Equally important, they can write a full page description of a coconut tree.

They are men like Lt. John R. C. McGowan of 2206 Lipscomb St., Amarillo, Tex., who led a daylight scouting patrol to heavily-defended Los Negros Island and came out with highly valuable information.

They are men like Lt. John M. Dove who led a fiction-like reconnaissance patrol deep within Japanese positions at Hollandia.

They are men like Lt. Michael J. Sombar of Wyoming, Del., who led a patrol that rescued more than 100 missionaries in Dutch New Guinea.

night a Catalina flying boat sped them to Los Negros. McGowan and his scouts tumbled into a rubber boat and paddled hurriedly toward the south shore of Los Negros. They knew the Japanese were there.

The patrol quickly learned there were Japanese by the hundreds. Throughout the day the patrol hid in the jungle and early the next morning came out by Catalina.

What they didn't know, however, was that the Japanese soon were to learn that they had been there.

McGowan was rushed by flying boat to General Chase, even then at sea, and made a full report on his findings. By radio, reinforcements were ordered to back up the cavalry. The plan for naval gunfire was changed.

"The story of the landing long since has been told. The battle ebbed and flowed and at one point a part of the line was pushed back to within 25 yards of the beach. Finally the Japanese, in a suicide rush, destroyed themselves against U.S. guns.

One thing isn't known, however. The Japanese had known about the patrol where it landed. They made a fatal mistake—they guessed the cavalry would land at that same point, so they rushed a battalion of their best troops from Hyane harbor on the northeast to the south coast. The cavalry struck at Hyane harbor.

The final battle undoubtedly would have been more difficult if the cavalry had encountered the full Japanese forces at Hyane harbor. Among captured documents was one in which a Japanese officer admitted: "We were fooled."

Mén long have thrilled at the heroism and skill of the western scouts who inspired the battle cry "Remember the Alamo." The daring, bravery and skill of the modern Alamo Scouts are no less than the men after whom they were named.

For nearly a year the scouts have been a military secret. They are the pride of General Krueger who personally commands them and named them for the Alamo in his home city of San Antonio, Tex.

Gen. Krueger's idea of teams of patrol scouts pays dividends. William Chase had been ordered to make a reconnaissance in force against the Admiralty islands and, if feasible, to seize and hold them.

Chase's dismounted cavalrymen already were under way from the north side of New Guinea when General Krueger sent his scouts in for a final check.

Mother Dies As Sons Bring Death Telegram

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10 (AP)—Quiet and unsmiling, the six married sons of Mrs. Anna May Clampfer, 65, arrived at their mother's home.

One brought the family physician and friend. Another carried a war department telegram saying their brother, Pvt. Robert Clampfer, had been killed in France.

"Sit down, Mom," said Walter Clampfer.

Mrs. Clampfer seated herself slowly, and Walter went on: "We have bad news."

An inquisitive fear crossed her face.

"Bobby—" said Walter. The stare in his mother's eyes was unchanged.

"Bobby has been killed."

The physician stepped to Mrs. Clampfer's side and bent over her. "Mom is dead," he said.

Market Due To See Slight Increase In Manufacture Of Civilian Goods

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 (AP)—Some of the things Americans have wanted badly since the war started are being made now—or will be shortly—but don't expect the market to be flooded with them.

They include: Domestic vacuum cleaners, aluminum ware, domestic electric cooking and heating appliances, kitchen and household utensils, metal office furniture, plated silverware.

The number of such items being produced will not fill all civilian needs. This kind of production is fairly scattered and limited and many of the plants are small.

But these items and many others are being made under what the War Production Board (WPB) calls spot-authorizations. This is how it works:

On Aug. 15, WPB said in effect: Plants which are not needed in whole, or in part, for war work, which are in areas not too badly pressed for manpower, and which can be spared the materials will be allowed to make civilian goods.

Plants in such a situation ask for permission. If they fulfill the requirements listed above WPB gives the permission on Materials and the War Manpower Commission on manpower.

The plan is intended to help plants reconvert to civilian production where they can do so without injuring the war effort. It starts the general reconversion rolling.

At the same time such plants—until Germany collapses and almost all government controls are lifted—will be kept working, their workers will be kept employed, and they can be used for producing civilian goods.

Since Aug. 15 WPB has received 2,500 applications for spot-authorizations and has approved about 500.

(This spot-authorizations program is in addition to WPB's long-planned "programmed" production plan under which it orders certain plants to make certain needed civilian items).

Dies Will Stump State In Behalf Of 'Anti' Party

FORT WORTH, Oct. 11 (AP)—Rep. Martin Dies (D-Tex.) said today that he intends to stump the state in behalf of the Texas regulars, because "if Roosevelt loses Texas' 23 electoral votes he is certain to be defeated."

The Orange, Tex., congressman in a telephone interview, said his last night's attack on the new deal in an address here was just a starter and that he plans addresses soon at Houston, San Antonio, points in the Rio Grande valley and at San Angelo and possibly other places in West Texas. After that he will go to Oklahoma, he said, for a round of speaking engagements.

"People of this state are anxious for an opportunity to register their disapproval of the new deal," he stated, "and I am going to do my best to educate the citizens that by voting the Texas regular ticket they can vote democratic and still vote against the present administration."

Dies' speech last night keynoted the first state-wide rally of the regulars, the new anti-new deal party in Texas which will have 23 presidential electors on the November general election ballot.

In his address Dies said the new deal is anti-democratic and un-American, "a form of fascism disguised as a liberal movement to deceive gullible and unthinking people."

The representative said in a prepared address that as the result of his work as chairman of the house committee on un-American activities he had made discoveries which showed the new deal opposing democracy as Texas and southern democrats have known it.

Pvt. J. R. Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bennett of route 1, Big Spring, has received the Silver Star for gallantry in action, and has been shipped to England where he landed September of 1943. He was one of the first ashore on the D-Day invasion. He has been in service 21 months, 14 of these being spent overseas.

Commons Hears Dalton Speak On Peace Plans

LONDON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Hugh Dalton, president of the board of trade, told Commons today the government's postwar aim was to increase exports by at least 50 per cent over their prewar volume.

He made the statement after a labor member said the United States was making long term contracts with the dominions "running into millions of pounds" while similar contracts for purchases in Britain were being lost through lack of facilities and policy in Dalton's department.

Just Bear Facts

NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (AP)—Holding up a half-dollar, the last of seven defendants charged with feeding the bears in Prospect Park, Brooklyn, told the court: "I have a wife and three children to support and 50 cents is all I have."

"You can feed the bears but not your family. Either pay the dollar, as the others have done, or go to jail for a day," replied the magistrate.

The man sheepishly produced a dollar bill.

Shelter Of Pillbox Almost Turns Into Grave For Doughboy Guncrew

By HAL BOYLE
AT THE SIEGFRIED LINE.
 Oct. 5 (Delayed) (P) — It was just before midnight. American troops guarding the forward breaches in Germany's Siegfried line shivered sleepily in the chill foxholes, sopping with rain.
 The Nazis picked this disagreeable hour to launch a heavy artillery barrage preliminary to a night counterattack.
 The fire concentration became so heavy that Staff Sgt. Richard Sorensen of Chicago knew he would have to find shelter for his 57 mm. gun crew.
 Nearby an abandoned enemy pillbox loomed dimly and dimly, a grey mass in the black shadow. Sorensen led his men inside and they crouched behind the thick concrete walls until the barrage lifted.
 As they started to leave they heard someone outside the door. It turned out to be a 30-man German assault team assigned to destroy the pillbox. Sorensen and his men, feeling something like turtles being pawed by a bear, immediately began defending it.
 Sorensen's men leaped forward to close the steel blinds covering the embrasures but before they did so a German mouser poked its nose in and began spitting. It missed.
 An enemy "burp gun" rattled scores of bullets against the blinds, other Nazis tried to force the door.

The Americans held it desperately with aching shoulders.
 The enemy then brought up two flamethrowers. As twin, searing blasts hit the steel door Sorensen and his boys decided they had about lost their little game of hide and seek. They had nothing with which to fight flamethrowers.
 Just as the enemy was about to burn his way through, however, a group of Doughboys returning to positions they had left during the barrage caught the Nazis and opened fire. The survivors ran back through the night toward the Germans' lines and a few seconds later the squad of 57 mm. gunners stumbled out of the pillbox they had thought would be their grave.
 "The only difference was that every one of us sweated off about 30 pounds in weight in there," said Sorensen. "I never was so glad in my life to hit fresh air."

Rains, Wet Fields Delay Crop Harvest

AUSTIN, Oct. 11 (P) — Rains and wet fields have delayed harvesting and other field work, but moisture conditions are highly favorable for ranges and pastures and for growth of late feeds, the United States department of agriculture reported today.
 Reviewing farm and ranch conditions for the week ending Oct. 9, the USDA reported:
 Cotton was opening rapidly in northern, northwestern and western areas, and much was ready for pickers as intermittent rains again delayed harvest and lowered grades. Many north central counties were at the peak of harvest and picking was still active in south central counties, when weather permitted.
 Small grain seeding made little progress during the week. Much of the Panhandle acreage is already up to a stand and will afford additional feed in a few weeks. Small grain fields in remaining areas, where up to a stand, were making very good progress.
 Fall vegetable cultivation in the Rio Grande Valley and coastal bend districts was active under mostly favorable weather conditions.
 Livestock held their recent gains and were in good condition. Stock water was generally adequate and pastures were in excellent condition, with the exception of a few eastern counties where general rains would be helpful. Prospects for winter grazing and feed appeared favorable.

Dewey Campaign Nearing Last Drive

ALBANY, Oct. 11 (P) — Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's campaign managers indicated today the republican nominee had no intention of starting his stretch drive for the presidency until he felt the time was ready.
 Illustrative of the importance attached by his advisors to the timing and placing of the closing speeches of the campaign were announcements last night and today of broadcasts for which definite arrangements have been made.
 Six set speeches were announced, leaving wide gaps in the candidate's time in the nearly four weeks remaining between now and the election. Three of the six had been announced previously but were confirmed by the republican national committee.
 The committee's western division announced today that Dewey would speak in Madison Square Garden, New York City, Nov. 4 and deliver a studio address, election eve, Nov. 6.
 The committee announced last night a speech in Buffalo for Oct. 31 and confirmed these addresses: St. Louis, Oct. 16; Minneapolis, Oct. 24; and Chicago, Oct. 25.
 In addition, it has been announced that Dewey will speak before the New York Herald Tribune Forum on Oct. 18 and in Boston on Nov. 1.
 The schedule announced thus far made it evident that the New York Governor is determined to hold as much reserve strength as possible for the last ten days or so of the campaign. This is when, his advisors feel, that so many of the independent and "on the fence" voters finally make their choice.

Republicans Say Farmer Control Is Overlapping

By The Associated Press
 Renewed attention to the farm vote brought into the presidential campaign today a republican word picture of the American farmer as a man harassed by "overlapping control agencies" and a democratic assertion that under the New Deal once poor soil had been made to bloom.
 Those talking were Republican Governor Schoepel of Kansas and Secretary Ickes.
 Schoepel, campaigning at Benson, Minn., for the Dewey-Bricker ticket, complained of "government by bureaus," and said:
 "The basic philosophy of the New Deal in 1933 was one of scarcity in agriculture, x x x later the administration reversed this scarcity position and called for greater production. But reversal did not come soon enough to prevent serious scarcities in domestic food."
 Ickes pegged his argument, at Salt Lake City, largely on what he called "a campaign accusation" by Governor Dewey that President Roosevelt's administration has neglected the west.
 The cabinet member, whose department includes the reclamation bureau, told of its work in irrigating western acreage to such an extent that "the average crop value per acre has increased from $30.10 under republican reaction to $95.84 today."
 While Ickes was speaking to westerners, the democratic vice-presidential nominee, Senator Truman, told a news conference at New Orleans that he can not believe that the south will turn "against the democratic party," that "I can't imagine southern voters voting for a man like Dewey."
 Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) told a New York news conference that John Foster Dulles, Dewey's foreign affairs adviser, is offering "an open threat that members of his own party will repeat their performance of 1920, when they destroyed peace, unless Mr. Dewey is elected."
 Pepper based this on a letter purportedly written by Dulles, which said senate support of a peace program "will come more readily if Gov. Dewey is president than if Mr. Roosevelt is re-elected." Dulles declined comment.

G. B. Dealey Celebrates Anniversary On News With Eight-Hour Work Day

DALLAS, Oct. 11 (P) — G. B. Dealey, doyen of American publishers, chairman of the board of the Dallas Morning News, is celebrating his 70th anniversary with the oldest business institution in Texas. His celebration called for an eight-hour work day.
 Active at 65, he is in good health and good humor, and holds the deep conviction that newspapers have greater opportunities for public service than ever before.
 The Dallas publisher is proud of his unique record in American journalism. He joined the News as a 15-year-old office boy on October 12, 1874. Now as principal owner, he is a living link with the founders of the parent newspaper at Galveston in 1842, when Texas was a republic.
 He remembers Atlantic sailing ships, Civil war heroes and reconstruction. He remembers Ulysses S. Grant at Galveston in 1860, when he showed the globe-trotting president a new addressing machine. Phil Sheridan was there too. The regent Sheridan who had said, in 1866, "If I owned Texas and all hell, I'd rent out Texas and live in hell!"
 He remembers much, but his newspaper work is of today, and tomorrow. The Dealey eight-hour day is routine. It is routine six days a week. And regularly, on Sunday—after church—he stops by the office for his mail.
 He buys his copy of his newspaper, and buys copies for grandsons, nephews and other kinsmen in the services, about whom he has had news of heroism and tragedy.
 Plans for celebration of today's anniversary were waved aside by Dealey because of war conditions and because he says people have done too much for him.
 All the honors the Lone Star state can heap on a distinguished Texan have been accorded. He carries them lightly. Everything from his Phi Beta Kappa key—honorary, he points out—to his Knighthood of San Jacinto, the order founded by Sam Houston after the battle for Texas independence.
 Introduced as the "first citizen of Texas" for the San Jacinto accolade, Dealey replied: "There ain't no such animal."
 "You can no more designate the first citizen of Texas than you can pick out the most beautiful girl in Texas," he said.

Four-Month Old Baby Safe Again

DETROIT, Oct. 11 (P) — Paul H. Wencel, chief of Detroit detectives, said today that four-month-old Robert James King, who was abducted by a nursemaid Sept. 30, has been returned safely to his parents and that a woman identified as the maid was being held in custody.
 Although the woman, who gave her name as Mrs. Eleanor Smith, 33, maintains that the child is her own, Wencel said, positive identification has been made through footprints. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence King, said they were sure the baby was theirs, Wencel said.
 Police are holding Mrs. Smith. They also are detaining the woman's 34-year-old husband, Eugene, a pharmacist. The Smiths are negroes.
 Wencel said Smith apparently was the victim of a "hoax" by his wife and had no knowledge of the abduction since his wife had told him she was an expectant mother.
 Wencel said King was unable to identify positively his son or the maid on first sight because Mrs. Smith had used cosmetics to alter the appearance of both herself and Bobby.

"I'm in a Cold Sweat!"

FEAR IS WHAT DOES IT, and many a car-owner has felt that freezing chill this summer, when a sudden, new noise from his motor has filled him with dread that his car was chugging its last.
 There's nothing like that fear to make a stupid driver resolve to follow better driving practices. The intelligent motorist needs no such warnings and he always makes certain that the motor runs only with quality oil in the crankcase.
 Obviously there are a number of such oils. And to help you select one of them, easily and with certainty, Phillips gives you these facts:
 Phillips offers a number of oils because car owners' preferences and pocketbooks vary. But when you want our best oil, remember Phillips tells you frankly that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality; it is the highest grade and greatest value... among all the oils we offer to average motorists.
 It's good for your motor, under today's reduced driving conditions, to change oil every two months, say experts. For that change, and for seasonal draining and refilling, you make sure of getting a quality lubricant, when you simply say: Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

Yearlings Play Return Match Here With Tahoka B Thursday In Stadium

Victims of a 13-0 defeat in the opening game of the season, the Yearlings will seek to even matters with the Tahoka B squad here Thursday at 8 p. m. under Steer stadium lights.

The initial game not only splashed the Yearling record, but it cost the youngsters the services of Jim Bill Little, who went out with a broken leg.

Although some key members are still banged a bit, Coach Wayne Matthews figured his charges would be in a fair way to scrap on even terms with the Tahoka team. With Donald Anderson and Tipton Anderson as his aides, he has succeeded in polishing the Yearling attack somewhat.

Starters Thursday will be Benny O'Brien at center; Pete Fuglar and Wesley Rogers at guards; Reed Collins and Marvin Wright at tackles, and James Thomas and Jimmy Jones, ends. In the backfield he will start Gordon Madison at quarter, Harold Berry and George Worrell at halves and Ervise Campbell at fullback.

Berry has been ailing and Jimmy Shaffer and Jerry Houser may break into the secondary lineup. Bobby Hollis is due to see action at guard, especially since Rogers is still favoring minor hurts, and Cecil Gilstrap, one of the roughest players in the lot, will play some. Others on the line to see action are Rastus Sides, Bill Coleman, Pat Lamb, Bill Williams and Murph Thorpe. Co-captains for the game will be Wesley Rogers and Benny O'Brien.

Stevenson Proclaims Hearing-Pulaski Weeks

AUSTIN, Oct. 11 (AP)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson has issued proclamations setting aside Hearing week and Pulaski week.

The week of Oct. 22-28 was designated as Hearing week, to focus public attention "on the widespread prevalence of hearing defects" and on means of overcoming the handicap.

Pulaski week, in "grateful memory of General Casimir Pulaski, who gave his life in the service of the American colonies," is set aside annually by direction of 42nd legislature.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 11 (AP)—Two of baseball's most outstanding infielders, Bobby (the swinging) Doerr, Boston Red Sox second baseman and Martin (Slats) Marion, towering shortstop of the world's champion St. Louis Cardinals, have been named by the sporting news as the most valuable players in their respective leagues for 1944.

The baseball weekly made its selections independently this year, after working in conjunction with a committee of the baseball writers association since 1938. The association has announced that its selections, based on a poll of all its members, would be announced in November.

Sliding Down The Sports Chute

with BILL

Coach John Dibrell has issued a call for transportation for some of his football players to Lamesa when the boys go up there Friday night for their first road game. Dibrell dropped by The Herald office yesterday to inform me that there was no way of obtaining a bus and that private cars were needed badly. If there are any townspeople considering making the trip, or who might go for that purpose, it would be greatly appreciated by all concerned if they would contact Dibrell immediately. Their car would not be overloaded as only four or five boys will be placed in each car. (Also I would appreciate your calling him as it would prove that someone reads this column, this subject being of much speculation in this office... thanks.)

Neil Hilliard was over in San Angelo Saturday and passed the remark to Blondy Cross of the Standard-Times that five Big Spring players were missing teeth after the Odessa contest last Friday night.

Blondy mentioned the fact in his column Sunday and all the wrath of Odessa roared down like a West Texas sandstorm on the Angelo sports scribe. Blondy quotes Hopkins as saying, "If Big Spring had any teeth knocked out those teeth must have been in the seats of their pants because Odessa was knocking the Big Spring boys back on the seats of their pants."

Hopkins also inferred that we inferred that they played dirty football and that was a mistake because they did not knock out any Big Spring teeth purposely.

Hopkins also mentioned that if any teeth-knocking was going on out there Friday he might mention his two tackles who came up with bruised lips after the game.

So ends Blondy's discussion and begins mine. Now I have always been a believer in cool headedness and calm deliberation, but facts are facts and too much is too much.

Perhaps Odessa did not knock out any one's teeth. BUT there is this philosophy. I have seen the Steers play four games this year, and as is generally understood they are no world beaters. They are just a lot of kids who have nerve enough to go out on the football field and give all they have against an obviously superior team and keep plugging until they score, despite the fact that Coach Hopkins kept his first stringers in the game every time we threatened. And I also know that no matter how inexperienced they may be those boys did not get "knocked on the seat of their pants" so much the other night that they were running in to each other or slugging each other to cause said teeth to be misplaced.

Testimony of such treatment is the fact that Kenneth Huett is missing steak dinners these days due to two teeth that "dropped out" of his mouth last Friday night, and also that L. B. Bryan, who weighs 215 pounds, so I know he did not fall off of a kiddie car, also had a tooth broken in the fray. I could go on to compare bruises with Mr. Hopkins but will let the above suffice.

However, before closing this column, I might add a comment or so on the coming San Angelo-Odessa game that comes up the night the Steers play Tahoka. I am betting my last dollar now that Odessa comes out on the short end of the score, and also that if they try any rough stuff with the Bobcats, who are about as tame as their name implies except more so, that they will also come out on the short end of that score. It might be a different tale if they try a wild swing or two at some of the boys in THAT forward wall... one which Blondy assumes one and all has not been beaten and will not be beaten by any competition in "these hazy" parts... on which point I must agree. Thanks, Blondy, for the plug and give those Bobcats a warning now, the had better have their moustaches with them when they play Odessa or we may all have dental bills to pay. See you...

COLONELS TRAILING BALTIMORE, Oct. 11 (AP)—The Louisville Colonels of the American Association face an uphill fight in tonight's sixth little world series game with two victories to Baltimore's three.

Baltimore's Orioles, champions of the International league, pounded three Louisville hurlers last night to fashion a 10-0 victory behind the four-hit pitching of Charles (Red) Embree, ace of the Oriole staff.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (AP)—An Ohio football official reports finding the toughest and best football player in the world in a game between Columbus St. Charles and West Jefferson... A West Jefferson pass was intercepted and as the official headed toward the pileup, one West Jeff boy called: "Hey, Ref, watch that 79. He's slugging me on every play." ... Five steps further another kid complained: "Gee whiz, watch that 79. He just slugged me." ... As he stopped where the players were being untangled, the official heard still another West Jeff boy remark: "Keep your eyes on that 79; he just slugged me." ... When the pile of players finally was loosened, there on the bottom was 79—with the ball... Along the same lines is a story they tell in Iowa about Heavy Graham, who used to referee a lot of big games... On one occasion a player kept complaining that a rival was slugging, asking: "Did you see that?" ... Twice Graham ignored the complaint, then after a third terrific belt, the player again asked: "Did you see that?" ... "Yeah," replied Graham. "Wasn't it a daisy?"

Today's guest star—Joe Gootler, Paterson, N. J. Evening News: "Smile to end all smiles: As ineffective as a St. Louis Browns' pinch-hitter."

Before returning from the world series to Greenville, S. C., Carter (Scoop) Latimer dispatched this wire: "It may be a case of a man giving a hot dog indigestion, but take a tip that Marty Marion will receive the award as the most valuable player this year." ... Right on both counts.

Service dept.—Two communiques from Fort Benning, Ga., point out that the 3rd Infantry Cockades, representing the oldest unit in the United States army, is the football team that walloped Maxwell Field, Ala., and took the same from Morris Field, N. BROTHER BATTLE EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 11 (AP)—Brother will face brother at Ann Arbor, Mich., Saturday when Northwestern and Michigan football teams meet in a Big Ten conference game.

They are Duane Sickles, veteran Northwestern end, and Quentin Sickles, a freshman who has won a guard post with the Wolverines. Both were outstanding high school athletes in their home town of Benton Harbor, Mich.

Second Army Air Force In Texas To Meet NT Ags

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 11 (AP)—The Second Army Air Force's Superbombers, their two-year football winning streak broken by the Iowa Seahawks, are preparing for a two-game invasion of Texas gridirons.

Saturday, the Flyers go against the University of New Mexico in the Sun Bowl at El Paso and the following week they take on the North Texas Aggies at Odessa.

El Paso will be a familiar setting for Maj. William B. (Red) Reese of the Superbombers. Two years ago he led the team, then known as the Bombers, to a 13-7 victory over Hardin-Simmons in the Sun Bowl.

New Mexico, fast and tricky, took heart from the 12 to 6 victory of the Seahawks over the 2nd AAF outfit which had breezed through five victories this season.

The Reese attack preempted and stalled against the pre-flights in Memorial stadium at Lincoln, Neb., before 29,000 spectators. The Seahawks were strengthened by the addition of several hard-biten officer grademen. Two of these, tackle Vic Schleich and end Jim Poole, were the outstanding linemen on the field and conspired to check the 2nd AAF passing ace, Glen Dobbs, who managed to complete only eight of 20 throws for 71 yards.

Dobbs, however, owns one of the outstanding passing records in the land, with a season's showing of 32 completions in 50 throws for 451 yards, six of his passes going for touchdowns. And Texas fans will see Johnny Strykowski, former Marquette sophomore, who has carried 31 times for 273 yards, an average of 8.8 yards per try.

Golfers Qualify For TGA Opening Round SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 11 (AP)—A record number of 191 golfers, 96 more than last year, had qualified today for the opening round of the first round competition of Texas Golf association's senior golf tournament.

Ike Handy and Clyde Cunningham, both of Houston, tied for medal honors yesterday, both posting 73's.

The event is limited to golfers 49 years of age or over who belong to any club that is a member of the Texas Golf association.

Among those who qualified yesterday was Bob Higgs of Lufkin.

SCOTT DECISIONS MARSHALL GALVESTON, Oct. 11 (AP)—Buddy Scott of Tampa, Fla., 186½ pounds, Texas state heavyweight champion, successfully defended his title here last night by winning a decision over Jack Marshall, 191 pounds, of Dallas in a 15-round match.

The fight was witnessed by 4,500 fans. Marshall, fighting cautiously, nalled Scott on several occasions but was unable to tag him with a payoff punch.

Louis Returns From Exhibition Bouts

NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis, back from the European and African war theaters, expects some good fistic talent to emerge from the armed services.

The champ, only seven pounds over the 207½ pounds at which he made his last title defense against Abe Simon in 1942, said he ran into some "real tough boys" as he appeared in 73 exhibitions in England, Scotland, Ireland, Africa and Italy. More than a million G.I.s saw the shows free.

Louis said Elmer Thompson of Cleveland, whom he first met in a three-rounder in Reading, England, gave him so much trouble that he met him four more times. Then came Johnny Ebarb, an air corps mess officer from Oakland, Calif., whom he met in Italy twice, and George Culberson, a Brooklyn boy. Ebarb, said Louis, was a pretty good boxer, while Culberson was a puncher.

The champion arrived here by plane yesterday, and was to depart today for his permanent base at Camp Sibert, Ala.

While in Italy, he took several artillery shots at the German Gothic Line, pulling lanyards on big guns manned by the 92nd division.

The champ, now 30, said he'd be ready to defend his title when the war ends.

"Lots of fellows have been good heavyweights at 35 or 36," he said. "So I guess I'll be all right for a while. The army is treating me right, letting me fight like this, and keep close to the game. But there's goin' to be lots of good boys come out of that army—yes sir, lots of 'em."

Happiest Boy At Rice Couldn't Laugh At Win

HOUSTON, Oct. 11 (AP)—The happiest boy in Rice Institute Stadium Saturday afternoon couldn't laugh about it even a little bit.

Blond Frank Lawrence, Rice blocking back, was rushed into the LSU game by Head Coach Jess Neely to kick the all-important extra point.

Rice had just tied the score at 13-13. There was five minutes left in the ball game.

Lawrence kicked the extra point. He couldn't laugh because he still had four stitches in his nose from the Randolph Field game.

1—Promote the flow of vital digestive juices in the stomach

2—Energize your body with RICH, RED BLOOD!

Improper diet, overwork, undue worry, colds, the flu or other illness often impairs the stomach's digestive functions and reduces the red-blood strength.

A person who is operating on only a 70 to 75% healthy blood volume or a stomach digestive capacity of only 50 to 60% normal is severely handicapped. At such times Nature needs extra help to restore its balance and function properly. Undigested food places a tax on the system...insufficient blood strength is a detriment to good health.

If you are subject to poor digestion or suspect deficient red-blood as the cause of your trouble, yet have no organic complication or focal infection, SSS Tonic may be just what you need. SSS Tonic is especially designed (1) to promote the flow of VITAL DIGESTIVE JUICES in the stomach and (2) to build-up BLOOD STRENGTH when deficient.

These two important results enable you to enjoy the food you do eat, to make use of it as Nature intended. Thus you may get new vitality... pep... become animated... more attractive!

Build Sturdy Health and Help America Win

Thousands and thousands of users have testified to the benefits SSS Tonic has brought to them and scientific research shows that it gets results—that's why so many say "SSS Tonic builds sturdy health—makes you feel like yourself again." At drug stores in 10 and 20 cent sizes. U.S.S. Co.

DOES YOUR CHURCH LODGE, OR SOCIETY WANT TO RAISE MONEY?

How many times have you had to say, "We'd like to do that but our organization just hasn't got the ready cash." Here's one of the easiest ways of raising money—and at the same time of patriotically serving your country—save waste paper!

Waste paper can add to your income. You won't have to increase dues or fees. Just sell enough waste paper to your own local dealers at standard market prices.

At the same time you'll be helping to win the war. Remember this year we need 2,000,000 extra tons of waste paper.

Paper makes ammunition cases, helmet linings, flares, supply parachutes, and blood plasma containers. Our boys in uniform need the waste paper which you can collect for them.

Have every member of your organization bring a bundle of waste paper to your next meeting: : Save waste paper, sell it, and help to shorten the war.

Must Regain Initiative

Somehow, our drive to raise the $28,000 quota for the Community War Chest of Howard county seems to have eased off to a slow start. This doesn't give grounds for discouragement, but it does put us in a difficult spot. It is the losing initiative in a battle.

Something Can Be Done About It

Last week, in analyzing their difficulties, dairymen pointed out that the rising cost of feed has necessitated the reduction of herds and consequently a cut in production. This also resulted in eliminating 12 dairymen, or roughly 40 per cent, since the start of the war.

However, the one item which impressed us was this: One dairyman said that while feed was higher and more was being fed, he got 25 gallons a month less production out of the same number of cows than he formerly received.

E. R. Eudaly, extension service dairy specialist, has for a long time stressed the importance of forage in dairying. There is nothing which will return quite as much in production, he has said, as succulent forage. In dry years, such as we are experiencing, the problem is aggravated because the forage is limited and dry. Dairy cows need something green, something high in vitamin content.

We can't do much about the weather, but we can do something about the forage situation. The trench silo is no longer an experiment in this country. It's worth has been established time and time again in feeding enterprises. It is even more aid in milk production.

Of course dairymen aren't in the feed raising business as a general rule, but they could be in the trench silo business. There is scarcely a producer in this milkshed but who could arrange to buy feed at the time it is ready for insilage and put it up. It might be one, two or several years before he needed it, but when he did, the feed would still be fresh and succulent, high in water and vitamin content.

But his art and craft may yet come into their own. Romanian-born Negulesco, an eligible bachelor since his divorce—his former wife facetiously suggested that he was balding, which he is—is becoming discouraged.

"The beautiful and unattached girl in Hollywood," he lamented on the set, "becomes an institution. You suddenly want a companion for dinner, for dancing, and you call up. But no, she says she must look in her book. She can't go tonight, but on next Tuesday, yes, she is free. But by Tuesday, maybe you are tired and want to stay home. . . ." He shrugged, sadly.

"You have a suspicion, too, that she is consulting her boss, her publicity man, her whole career as well as her little book. Will it be advisable to be seen with this man tonight, or would another night be better?"

"The whole thing gets to be too much trouble. That's why you see four or five guys sitting around the Mocambo, stogging. They have a few drinks, talk, do a little table-hopping, see the pretty girls the other fellows brought. One finally invites the rest up to his house for a brandy. They go. Then maybe there's a little gin rummy, and so home again. Another evening killed."

That led to further observations

The War Today

by Dewitt Mackenzie Associated Press War Analyst

One strongly suspects that the sudden and officially unexplained conference in Moscow between Marshal Stalin and British Prime Minister Churchill ranks among the far-reaching events of the war. News dispatches from the Soviet capital say it's believed the meeting will deal with the final assault on Germany, with the military occupation of the defeated Reich, and with many European political questions.

All that sounds reasonable enough, but thus far details are sub rosa. I don't know what these representatives of Europe's greatest powers are talking about. But I think I know what they OUGHT to be talking about—and that's the vastly altered post-war spheres of influence of their giant empires.

No more important or delicate question has grown out of the European conflict. There are innumerable angles to the situation, but they're all part and parcel of this momentous and fundamental fact: That whereas Britain prior to the war was the dominant power of Europe, Soviet Russia is now emerging in this role.

This isn't an isolated viewpoint, but one widely accepted. None less than the famous Field Marshal Smuts, prime minister of the Union of South Africa and member of the British war cabinet, nearly a year ago in London declared that the end of hostilities in which "three of the five great powers in Europe will have disappeared (meaning France, Italy and Germany) Russia will be mistress of the continent."

As I see it, the manner in which this epochal change is met will go far toward determining whether the peace hopes of Dumbarton Oaks are realized. Fortunately we are encouraged to expect a favorable outcome, in view of the cordial and frank relations between Messrs. Churchill and Stalin—two of the greatest figures of our time.

Obviously John Bull will find it tough to see his badge as gendarme of Europe pinned on the broad chest of another. Still, as things now stand it's one of those inevitable developments which can be met successfully only by the exercise of great common sense on both sides.

Hearings Postponed On Hour Wage Scale

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Senate hearings on whether wages below 65 cents an hour should be legally defined as "substandard" today were postponed until after the election.

Chairman Pepper (D-Fla.) of a labor subcommittee, originally had scheduled the hearings to start tomorrow. Pepper is author of a resolution proposing the 65-cent floor.

The Pepper resolution would have the effect of making 65 cents an hour a new minimum wage level by having Congress so define it as a guide to the war labor board. The present minimum wage law fixes the wage floor at 40 cents an hour.

Ernie Pyle: Correspondent Finds Ditchdigging Fun But Hopes It Will Be Wasted

(Editor's Note: This is No. 26 in a series of Ernie Pyle war stories we are reprinting during Ernie's leave of absence.)

BY ERNIE PYLE ON THE NORTH AFRICAN DESERT, March, 1943—When our Sahara salvage expedition finally found the wrecked airplanes far out on the endless desert, the mechanics went to work taking off usable parts, and four others of us appointed ourselves the official ditch-diggers of the day.

The day got hot, and we took off our shirts. One sweating soldier said: "Five years ago you couldn't get me to dig a ditch for $5 an hour. Now look at me. You can't stop me digging ditches. I don't even want pay for it; I just dig for love. And I sure do hope this digging today is all wasted effort, I never wanted to do useless work so bad in my life."

While we were digging, one of the boys brought up for the thousandth time the question of that letter in Time magazine. What letter, you ask? Why, it's a letter you probably don't remember, but it has become famous around these parts.

One nice little problem already has arisen in connection with this clause. Near Moore, Okla., the Navy started to establish an aviation training station. Oil was discovered nearby, and after grading the land and spreading tons of gravel for the runways the Navy decided to abandon the property because of the barrier of derricks springing up around the field.

New Mexico Resort Is Almost A Transplanted Bit Of Texas

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD Associated Press Staff

Nights are cold even in early October in the New Mexico mountains, and Texans by the hundreds have hit for home after vacations in the cool-climated hot spot of Ruidoso, 72 miles west of Roswell and 135 miles north of El Paso. Ruidoso is Spanish for "noisy."

Most of the people at the mountain resort at any given time are Texans. "This is a piece of Texas, all right, says Jack Hull, soft-spoken president of the chamber of commerce. "Ruidoso is a Texas town if I ever saw one."

Bill Against Press Defeated in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 11 (AP) - A bill to prohibit the press and theaters from "ridiculing congressmen" was defeated today by the chamber of deputies, lower house.

Congressman Jose Maria Suarez Tellez de Guerrero, who introduced the measure, contended that "the dignity of the representatives of the people must be upheld."

Other speakers replied that it was more important to uphold the freedom of the press.

Stone Has Birthday

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 (AP) - Chief Justice Harlan F. Stone, presiding over a tribunal now tackling the first work of a potentially complicated new term, became 72 years old today.

His schedule called for spending the day on the bench and in conferences with his supreme court colleagues. Indications are that he expected to serve indefinitely as head of the tribunal although he has been eligible to retire, at full pay of $20,500 annually since Oct. 11, 1942.

Mechanics Threaten Tie-Up Of Plants

CLEVELAND, Oct. 11 (AP) - Officials of the Mechanics Educational Society of America (independent) stood firm today on their threat to tie up 64 war plants in Ohio, Michigan and New Jersey if a Cleveland Graphite Bronze Co. dispute is not placed before an arbitration panel.

Matthew L. Smith, MESA national secretary, declined to estimate the total number of war workers that would be made idle if the unionists, some 68,000 strong, walk out as planned at 10 a. m. tomorrow. He indicated that in several plants the stoppage probably would halt work by other non-MESA employees.

In Washington, Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson said he telegraphed Smith the strike would represent a "stab in the back of American soldiers who now are locked in battle with the enemy."

Smith asserted the strike was called because the Cleveland concern failed to follow a regional war labor board order to appoint an arbitrator in the dispute. The W.L.B. ordered a public-union-company panel to settle the case of a machinist whose discharge precipitated a strike which resulted in army seizure of the company's two plants Sept. 5. The army still supervises the concern.

Fans in tulle, velvet, chiffon, lace and ostrich feathers are staging a comeback.

Louisiana Ballots Omit Three Names

BATON ROUGE, Oct. 11 (AP)—Louisiana ballots for soldiers for the Nov. 7 general election were being distributed today without the names of three electors who refused to pledge their votes to the Roosevelt-Truman ticket and who entered suit to have their names printed on the ballot.

The three, E. Wayles Browne of Shreveport, George Billeaud of Lafayette and Frontier Thibaut of Napoleonville, lost their plea in district court Monday and appealed to circuit court here where the case is still pending.

Secretary of State Wade O. Martin, Jr., said last night the distribution of the ballots was begun after the district court refused the trio's plea and after he warned their attorney that the ballots would be mailed beginning at 5 p. m. yesterday unless he was enjoined.

The state democratic committee last Saturday named new electors in the place of those who refused to sign the pledge or who resigned rather than pledge their support to the Chicago nominees.

Hospital To Be Built By Navy At Marlin

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 (AP)—A 1,000 bed hospital will be built by the navy at Marlin, Tex., the surgeon general of the navy, Vice Admiral Ross T. McIntire, has informed Senator Connally and Rep. Poage, of Texas.

Several months ago the navy announced that another large hospital would be built at Houston.

No cost estimates for the Marlin hospital were available because detailed plans had not been completed, but other hospitals of that size have cost from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000.

Poage said that the exact site for the hospital had not been picked but that it would be in or near Marlin because of curative powers of the water in that health resort city. He said construction might begin within 30 days, but emphasized that this was uncertain.

Connally, a resident of Marlin, said that wounded and sick naval personnel would use the hospital throughout the war and thereafter as long as there is need; that it then would be turned over to the veterans administration.

Supreme Court Turns Down Injunction Writ

AUSTIN, Oct. 11 (AP)—The motion of E. C. Marrs et al for leave to file a petition for injunction and writ of prohibition against the railroad commission was overruled today by the supreme court.

The case grew out of the court's ruling last summer, directing the commission to write a new proclamation for the McElroy field. Marrs contended the new order did not satisfy terms of the supreme court's judgment.

Dunham Appeals For Generous Response

Mayor Grover C. Dunham today called upon the people of Big Spring to "respond generously to appeals for contribution to the Community War Chest of Howard County."

In a proclamation calling attention to the chest drive, the mayor said: "More than well wishes will be required if we are to go over the top. Many volunteer leaders and campaign workers are giving their time to the drive and everyone in the city must have a part if we are to succeed in making our quota."

"These dollars go to support of our own fighting men and their allies, to alleviate suffering among war victims throughout the world; to provide USO centers and to send USO shows to every battlefield; to provide rest and recuperation camps for our merchant sailors; to send equipment to our war prisoners to combat "barbed wire sickness"; to aid helpless orphans of China; to help the helpless in liberated countries; help with the Salvation Army's program here at home; make possible our fine Boy Scout and Girl Scout programs."

"I, therefore, proclaim the period from Oct. 10 to Nov. 11 as War Chest Month in Big Spring and urge every person to give a Texan's share to the drive."

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 11 (AP)—The newspaper Stockholmstidningen declared today that telephone communication between Berlin and Stockholm had been interrupted by the German Gestapo because of a new opposition group composed of army officers was trying to establish contact with Allied legations in Stockholm through industrial representatives.

The newspaper said all those suspected by the Gestapo now were believed arrested. It did not cite the authority for its statement.

Telephone communication between Berlin and Stockholm ceased last Saturday after heavy Allied air raids on the German capital.

Treats tenderly

War has proved the value of considerate driving. And now this fine national habit keeps spreading.

There's been a fellow-feeling about cars. When it comes to even a dented fender it's no longer a question of who's to blame, but of sparing one another from costly slow repairs—and footwork. Some such spirit has been making live-and-let-live driving so general. It's only logical to be fully as thoughtful of your engine. You'll exercise wise foresight by having it OIL-PLATED.

You can defy internal acid corrosion... engine suicide! ... by means of OIL-PLATING. You can do it by changing to popular-priced patented Conoco Nth motor oil—energized to surface your engine's interior with an acid-resistant shield of OIL-PLATING. This is the result of the special Conoco Nth ingredient developed by costly pioneer research. And while fluid oil alone goes draining down to the crankcase, OIL-PLATING remains as closely attached as if it were chromium plating—keeps on serving its special purpose of hampering contact between corrosive acids and metals!

These unavoidable acids of combustion—always bad—reach their worst in cold weather, when there is rarely heat enough to get rid of acids. Hence they linger inside—splotchy. But every OIL-PLATED surface is armed against the spread of acid corrosion. That's why you want Conoco Nth oil now... from Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company
