Mapia Islands Seized

The first moisture in more than a month to fall in this area Thursday had enhanced prospects for winter range forage and benefitted small grain crops.

The U.S. weather bureau gauged the rain at 1.40 inches, and the U.S. Experiment Farm checked the fall, which continued all of Wednesday night, at 1.45.

Over the area the rain was general, but varied in intensity. At Ackerly, beyond the northwest corner of Howard county, the total was estimated at only quarter of an inch from a slow mist. In the southwest corner of the county it was substantially heavier.

Joe Williams reported a government gauge on the Robb farm registered two inches. At Stanton the precipitation was figured at an inch and a half and was said to be of much benefit to ranchers and to farmers with winter forage patches.

Further south in Glasscock county, the rain slackened until Garden City reported only about half an inch, enough to bring on winter weeds and grasses. Forsan reported a slow rain all night had all soaked into the ground, greatly aiding pastures.

Coahoma received about the same as Big Spring but northward to Vincent and above, the rain appeared heavier. John Conrad reported heavy rain on his south-eastern Borden ranch. South of Coahoma rain was heavy enough that all school buses in that area stuck Thursday morning.

Cotton harvest was interrupted by the rain but outside of grade loss, no damage was anticipated.

Because of the slowness of the rain, there was little to no runoff, hence city lakes did not trap any appreciable amounts.

F. E. Keating, U. S. Experiment Farm superintendent, said that the rains not only be beneficial to small grains, but that they may be planted for spring harvest at this late date. Except for chicken yards, he felt that weeds would make winter forage as fast or faster than small grain planted now.

Around 2,000 acres of wheat in the ground will be greatly aided by the rain, said M. Weaver, AAA administrative assistant. County Agent Durward Lester estimated that there would be around 3,000 acres of other small grains, mostly barley, which has most luxuriant growth, and oats, a fast maturing winter crop. Most of the grain is in the area here.

Big Spring Business Houses Will Observe Nov. 23 As Thanksgiving

Big Spring business, in an about face, will observe Nov. 23 as Thanksgiving. This was the result of a poll of a majority of establishments of all character here Thursday, Mrs. L. A. Eubanks, Retail Merchants association manager, reported Thursday.

Previously, at a meeting called by the chamber of commerce merchants' committee, a majority of those attending had voted to observe Nov. 30.

Since then, however, some expressed a desire to reconcile Thanksgiving observance with that of the schools. The date is traditional with schools in that it coincides with the state teachers association, said W. C. Blankenship, superintendent, and is the date of the Big Spring football game in Sweetwater.

Another factor which had a bearing on the switch in plans was the fact that several large industries have pay days on Nov. 30. Banks had planned on observing the 30th, but said dates would be made to conform with general business observance.

Reds Push Around Nazis

Armor Hurlled At German Troops As Battle Rages. By DANIEL DE LUCE. MOSCOW, Nov. 16 (AP)—The Red army has cracked the German flank east of Budapest, and is hurling its armored might through a breach within 12 miles of the Hungarian capital, front dispatches said today.

A sustained pounding by Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's assault forces forced the enemy into a damaging withdrawal from more than 50 towns and villages, including the large railway junction of Jaszbereny.

The German withdrawal extended along a 100-mile front from Mende, 12 miles southeast of Budapest, to Korom and other towns 10 miles below the north Hungarian rail junction of Miskolc.

The tired and mauled German panzer units fell back toward the southern base of the Matra mountains and westward to the perimeter defenses of Budapest.

One Soviet column, following way, passed well beyond Mende, 12 miles from the capital, and drew the siege line tighter against the virtually doomed city.

Other Russian formations of tanks, cavalry and infantry, supported by swarms of attack planes, drove straight north in a continuation of the challenge for mastery of the highway and railway communications leading to Vienna.

Overcoat Weather Sweeps Over Texas. By The Associated Press. Overcoat weather spread over Texas today (Thursday) and the weatherman warned "don't throw away your galoshes."

A slight rain covering the state brought an electrical storm to Laredo today. Temperatures showed little rise from yesterday's first below-freezing weather and the U.S. weather bureau at Dallas predicted lower ones tonight. Ice and sleet at Lubbock and Big Spring damaged tomato and bean plants yesterday.

At Laredo, a lightning bolt struck a palm tree setting it afire and disrupting electric service for a time. Rainfall was recorded at .64, hating harvest of tomatoes, sweet peppers and interrupting Bermuda onion transplanting.

Guadalupe Pass, in far West Texas, had snow, fog and a strong north wind along with its 29-degree temperature. Snow was reported at Lubbock where the temperature was 33.

Amarillo reported no rain and 36-degree weather, a rise from yesterday's low of 29. Marfa had 36 degrees, Big Spring 41 and Abilene and El Paso, 44. The mercury at Dallas dropped two degrees to 48 this morning. In warm South Texas, Brownsville had a reading of 69, Corpus Christi 59 and Houston 56. Austin had 48 and Lufkin 50.

Rainfall, general over the state except for the Amarillo and El Paso areas, was heaviest at Brady, 1.12 inches, and Eldorado, 1.05.

Overseas Kits Are Needed By Red Cross. Mrs. Moree Saville, executive secretary of the Big Spring chapter of the American Red Cross, announced Thursday that there is still a large number of overseas kits which must be made.

Knitting wool for sweaters and gloves can still be obtained. The sweaters are women's refugee garments and the gloves are for service men, she said.

Year's Damage By Fire Is Recorded. There has been $17,790.99 in damage by fire to Big Spring insured property thus far this year, according to Fire Marshal F. W. Bette.

The high month for 1944 so far was March when the damage amounted to $3,922.67. The fire at the West Texas Compress and Warehouse occurred during that period, and there still is an estimated damage of $22,500 which has not been settled. During that month there were two other fires causing loss to insured property.

August had the least damage with only a total of $303.12 for damage of blazes on insured property. In September, October and so far in November there have been 29 fires, none of which destroyed insured property.

Confidence that Howard county will set a record on the Sixth War Loan drive, which begins Monday, was expressed Tuesday at an organization meeting headed by Ted O. Graebel, drive chairman.

Already letters have gone out to managers of concerns with headquarters out of town, seeking firm investments toward the overall quota of $1,420,000, reported Marvin Miller, special funds chairman. In this connection, it was reported three companies already have invested $27,000 in bonds in Howard county for the Sixth War Loan, two of them doubling previous purchases. Mrs. Doug Orme reported that her women's committee had secured workers for all booths which include those at both banks, headquarters in the Empire Southern Service office, and the Ritz theatre. B. & P. W. members will handle the latter spot with the P.T. A. units and other clubs taking other spots. Mrs. Hugh Davis is serving as co-chairman with Mrs. Orme.

Headquarters office hours will be from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., it was announced. Mrs. Mary Louise Griffin will be in charge of the office.

Pat Kenney, drive co-chairman outlined plans for retailer aid in the drive and said there would be a prize for the best decorated booth.

Capt. John Auerbach reported the Big Spring Bombardier school was after an objective of $175,000 in bonds during the campaign and pointed out that this meant at least $100 per officer, $20 per enlisted man, and 35 per cent of September pay for civilian employees. In addition, the school will assist in the promotion of a "GI Jamboree" possibly on Nov. 30, when a lively bond show will be presented by an all-GI cast.

Dec. 1 has been set as movie day and plans were made to have both a children's and adults' bond matinee on that date. J. Y. Kobb reported the traditional Ritz bond premiere would be staged during course of the drive. Other special assignments were

Ninth Launches Giant Offensive Into Rhineland

By WILLIAM FRYE. LONDON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The American First and Ninth armies, paced by a 1,700-plane bombardment of German defenses northeast of Aachen, launched a massive offensive into the Rhineland today.

Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' First army veterans sprang forward at 11 o'clock as 1,200 heavy bombers crashed their bombs on the Duren-Eschweiler arc from four to six miles ahead of the doughboy lines east and southeast of Aachen.

An hour and 45 minutes later the U. S. Ninth army, whose whereabouts had been a secret two months, plunged into a new assault on the German homeland defenses near the Dutch frontier, and the entire 400-mile Allied front from the Marshy lowlands of Holland to the Alps of Switzerland was in motion.

This may be Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's all-out winter offensive.

At least six great Allied armies were on the march. Lt. Gen. William (Texas) Bill Simpson's Ninth army popped up at the German front 500 miles across France, Belgium and Holland and moved across the lines of communications of several other armies. Simpson is a native of Weatherford, Tex.

Fragmentation bombs fell on a 15-mile stretch of the Cologne highway between Eschweiler and Duren ahead of the First army veterans of the St. Lo breakthrough. Anti-aircraft positions, gun batteries and other German defenses were showered.

The British Second army plunged to within a mile of the Mass in Holland and captured Horn, only two miles from the German bastion of Roermond, 34 miles west of Dusseldorf on the Rhine.

The First French army, which joined the array of offensives yesterday, pushed forward on a 25-mile front on both sides of the Doubs river to a point 11 miles southwest of Belfort in the gap just north of Switzerland.

A sudden break north of Metz brought U. S. Third army troops in their eight-day-old offensive to within a mile and a half of the northern outskirts of Metz, although the Americans to the southeast and west gave ground slightly, losing one fort and a village.

North of Metz near the Luxembourg border the Americans astride the Maginot line pushed forward another mile near Ewendorf, only four miles from the German frontier.

Below Metz the Seventh army took Ste. Pole, 42 miles from Strasbourg, the closest the Allies have yet come to that key crossing of the Rhine.

Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's Third army southeast of Metz captured Morsange, a mile beyond Morhange where Doughboys were last reported in possession of two-thirds of the town, and clung to high ground in the forest of Bride and Koeking overlooking Dieuse and practically denying that road center to the Germans.

Jett Named FCC Head. WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—President Roosevelt today designated Ewell K. Jett to be acting chairman of the Federal Communications Commission.

Jett, a native of Baltimore and long-time member of FCC, will fill in for James Lawrence Fly pending selection of a regular chairman in succession to Fly. The latter's resignation to enter private law practice, became effective yesterday.

WINFIELD KING DIES. TUCSON, Ariz., Nov. 16 (AP)—Winfield Scott King, 82, who constructed stockyards in Omaha and Lincoln, Neb. St. Paul, Minn., and Fort Worth, Tex., died yesterday.

Pearl Harbor Club Honors Two Texans. PEARL HARBOR, T. H. (AP)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson and Senator Tom Connally have been honored by the Pearl Harbor Texas Club, which represents the state's 500 navy yard employees here.

President John S. Knight of Amarillo announces the club has elected the two prominent Texans honorary members. Previously, only Texas service men, either in transit or stationed on the island, have been similarly honored.

H. B. Hooten, Dallas, is vice president and Howard A. Chisholm, Vernon, secretary-treasurer.

Committee Checks Rainey Controversy. AUSTIN, Nov. 16 (AP)—The attorney general said in an opinion today the senate's special educational investigating committee has full authority to investigate the University of Texas' administrative controversy.

The committee which had voted to ask for the opinion after its authority had been questioned was in recess until 1:30 p. m. when it intended to begin its inquiry.

Specifically, the committee which was created at the last session of the legislature was authorized to investigate the purchase and distribution of free public school text books. It also was authorized, by resolution, to inquire "into such other matters affecting the schools of Texas as in its wisdom it may see fit."

Only 10,700 Lbs. Of Paper Collected. Only 10,700 pounds of paper have been picked up for the paper salvage drive being conducted in the schools of Big Spring and surrounding communities.

Sgt. E. K. Henderson, director of the drive, said Wednesday that unless more paper is turned in, the quota will be short about 100,000 pounds at the end of the contest. He reminded the school children that the prize for the winners in each class of each school is a conducted tour through the Big Spring Bombardier school.

The need for paper to be salvaged in the United States was pointed out by Correspondent Quentin Reynolds when he described a battle field by saying that wherever he saw a battery in action there was always a huge pile of paperboard shell cases around.

Sgt. Henderson urged that every scrap of waste paper be turned in, in order that these cartons may be replaced.

Dobie Enters Fight For Rainey Renaming. By MARY L. KENNEDY. AUSTIN, Nov. 16 (AP)—J. Frank Dobie was home today after a year of teaching American history at Cambridge University, England. The University of Texas professor said he was no sooner off the boat than he was on a broncho.

"The first thing I heard when I landed was that the regents had fired Dr. Rainey as president of the university. The first thing I did was wire Rainey: 'I am for you and I will fight for you.'"

Dobie plunged into the fight yesterday with a cocklebur statement: "The only solution is a new board of regents and the reinstatement of Rainey," he said.

tween Fairview and Vealmoor, and around Gay Hill, Luther, Vincent and some in the Coahoma territory.

By settling fine autumn dust, the rain was particularly welcome in Big Spring, where sleet fell briskly Wednesday afternoon to the accompaniment of intermittent thunder claps and sunshine. Temperatures never approached freezing although it is a week past the normal first frost date.

Jones Reported As Missing In Action

J. D. Jones has received word that his brother, Pfc. Jimmy (Clon) Jones, with a tank unit attached to Gen. George Patton's sector, has been reported missing in action.

He was missed on Oct. 29, about the time forces began probing German lines in the Metz offensive, according to press reports.

Pfc. Jones spent the summer of 1940 in Big Spring working for his brother. Many remember him as a softball player here and subsequently as a star fullback with Howard Payne college.

High School Students Surprised By "Spook"

Saturday night, 15 high school students left a dance and journeyed to the deserted Watson place located around three miles out on the old San Angelo highway. They wanted to see if there would be any ghosts. There were no spooks waiting, but the care-taker was, and promptly ushered the 'haunters' back to town.

J. B. Bruton, juvenile officer, said there were no charges against them this time for "kids will be kids."

Local police picked up two women for VD check ups Wednesday night.

Large Hogs Bring Same Ceiling As Given Smaller Ones

Hogs weighing up to and including 270 pounds may now bring the same ceiling as those of lesser weights — $14.75 per hundred weight, Chicago basis, according to announcement made by the Office of Price Administration.

Improvement in the feed supply is the most important factor for making the shift in the weight at which hogs can command the higher ceiling.

The principal reason for lowering the ceiling on heavy hogs last May was to save feed by discouraging the use for increasing the weight of hogs beyond 240 pounds OPA officials stated.

In view of the improved feed situation, encouraging the production of relatively more hogs in the 240-270 weight bracket will have several decided advantages.

1. The present hog supply is 28 per cent lower than last year. Civilian and military demands for pork continue unabated. Extending the higher ceiling to heavier hogs means more pork can be produced from the pigs on hand.
2. Many farmers have pigs that of 240 pounds within the next two months. Instead of glutting the market with them during that period they will hold some back for later sale at higher weights and better prices.
3. The extension of the $14.75 ceiling to heavier weight hogs will speed up the sorting and weighing of the animals at the stockyards.

Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District News

Level broad based terraces are being constructed on approximately 395 acres of cultivated land on the Wilson Bros. ranch in the Gay Hill community. These terraces will be built broad enough so that they can be farmed easily with any implement desired. This practice is being established in accordance with a soil and water conservation plan in cooperation with the district.

A. H. Shroyer, with the technical assistance of Soil Conservation Service employees of the Big Spring office, is making a soil and water conservation plan on his stock farm located four miles east of Knott. This plan includes a terracing system, soil building program, wind erosion control practices, and a range use program.

Some terrace maintenance is being accomplished. D. W. Christian of the Morgan community is maintaining and broadening his terraces by plowing to them with a breaking plow. R. N. Adams of the Soash community used a whirlwind terracer. Several farmers are using one-way disc plows to maintain terraces.

A number of barley fields in Howard county have already supplied some grazing for livestock this season, but the need for moisture is urgent in order to furnish winter grazing.

Forsan 4-H Club Meets

The Forsan 4-H Club boys met November 15th at 2:30 p. m. and elected Lloyd Claxton, Secy-Treas., as Donald Gressett resigned from 4-H club work. Many boys at Forsan are making preparations for planting their gardens early.

A genuine piece of leather (cow side) was observed by the boys. The defects in this cow hide was caused by cattle grubs which ruined over 50% of the leather for commercial use.

Farmer Committee Heads To Be Named

Farmer committeemen who will have important roles in war and post-war farm problems will be named at annual AAA elections in Howard county between December 11th and December 16th. Locations and dates of the election meetings will be announced as soon as they are arranged.

Farmers will choose committeemen for each community, and delegates from these meetings will later name three county committeemen and alternates. Conservation practices for 1945, production goals, and general agricultural outlook will be among the subjects at the meetings.

"The election meetings will give local farmers a chance to consider the problems and the demands of the coming year," L. H. Thomas, county AAA chairman said. "A program is being arranged for a full discussion of what's ahead. Every farmer should attend the meeting in his community to take part in that discussion and to vote in this election."

Ruth Thompson To Be Transferred From Here

Ruth Thompson, home demonstration agent for district No. 6 for almost a decade, is to be transferred to another district, it has been learned here.

Miss Thompson will go to district No. 3, which includes Tarrant county and extends northward to include Gainesville, Denton and west to the district No. 2 boundary.

Her successor here has not been announced by extension service officials. Miss Thompson succeeded Kate Adele Hill in No. 6.

Four Members Are Inducted By Lions

Four members were inducted into the Lions club Tuesday in a program set apart specially for the purpose and to refresh the membership on objectives of the organization.

John Coffee, Llantamer, was in charge of the program and inducted new members of the scope of Lions International and of the workings of an individual club. Inductees were William R. Dawes, D. T. Evans, Joe Williamson and Frank Hood.

Dan Conley, club president, conducted a short quiz program on questions affecting the international and the local club. Alton Wheeler entertained with a baritone solo, accompanied by Mrs. Anne Houser.

Local TB Group To Have Broadcast

In cooperation with the Howard County Tuberculosis association seal drive which begins Nov. 27, the city-county health unit will present a radio drama entitled "Postage Due" on their weekly broadcast. The play will be presented on KBST at 6:45 p. m. Friday.

"Postage Due" will be enacted by Mrs. Jane Haller, Max Fann and Jack Reece, under the sponsorship of the Business and Professional women's club. It concerns the work carried on by the drive.

The Seal drive, beginning in ten days, is the 38th annual drive, the funds, which help in the fight against tuberculosis.

The 1944 seal was drawn by Spence Iley, inspired by the story of Einar Holboell, Danish postal clerk who originated the Seal idea in 1904. It portrays in modernistic lines a postman, denoting "everybody's postman."

4-H Club Boys Will Explain Work Friday

Explanations of 4-H club work will be given by boys actually in the program when the American Business Club meets Friday noon at the Settles.

County Agent Durward Lewter, who is stressing the 4-H program among boys of the county in extensive feeding and other projects, said that four of his club boys would tell of their work, describe the club emblem, give the pledge and creed.

BRITISH CAPTURE POINT ON ROAD

ROME, Nov. 16 (AP) — British Eighth army forces have captured Petricone, a village approximately two miles west of the Montone river below the Rimini - Bologna highway and six miles southeast of Faenza. Allied headquarters announced today.

The Eighth army has pushed to the Montone on a wide front west of Forl and north of the strategic route on the southern border of the Po valley, the headquarters announcement said.

The Florence - Forl road is entirely in Allied hands, and Polish troops have improved their positions farther west, a communique said.

Snow was blanketing the mountainous central sector of the Fifth army front, and some enemy troops were observed wearing white uniforms as camouflage.

Pulling Strength Uniform On Cotton

Pulling strength remains uniform in one variety regardless of staple variations, L. E. Ellwood, cotton work specialist from the Texas A. and M. extension service, told those attending a cotton planting seed improvement meeting at the office of County Agent Durward Lewter at 9:30 a. m. Thursday.

This chief advantage in having a one variety county means that manufacturers can purchase a uniform variety without having to readjust their equipment even though staple and grade may vary from one location to another. The pulling strength of a particular variety remains constant, said Ellwood, who was Caldwell county agent for 18 years before becoming an extension service specialist. He also told how new varieties could be introduced into an area for a comparison with existing varieties in the area.

Sam Little, cotton breeder in the Knott community, displayed an interesting cross section from one of his breeding plots. Suggestions were offered for improvements by proper selection and stalk elimination.

John Saunders, chairman of the Texas Cotton Planting Seed association, discussed problems of securing good seed for planting. This year he has sold seed through co-op organization from his 7,000 acres near Victoria. E. C. Martin, assistant state agent, stressed the importance of continued improvement in any phase of agriculture reminding that cotton is no exception.

Over 100 Herefords Are Auctioned Off

RATON, N. M., Nov. 16 (AP) — One hundred forty-six registered Herefords went through the auction ring at the second annual sale of the Northeastern New Mexico Hereford Breeders association, and the grand champion bull consigned by Mrs. A. M. Van Dyke of French, N. M., went to Goemmer brothers of La Veta, Colo., for $3,000.

The Goemmers also bought the champion female, consigned by George Hardesty of Folsom, N. M., on their bid of $1,700. The 146 animals averaged $462.

Approximately 700 cattle growers from New Mexico, Colorado, Texas and Oklahoma attended yesterday's auction.

Recipe for a V-Mail Letter

Read the other day about a G.I. overseas who received an installment notice from the income tax collector. He wrote back: "Over here, even a letter from you is news from home."

A gag, of course—but with an overtone of truth about it. More than anything else, the men like getting letters from home. More than anything else, our V-Mail letters can help to keep up their morale.

What to write about? That's the easiest thing of all. For it's the little things they dream of and remember! The backyard baseball games... the fishing trips... the picnics with the chicken sandwiches and ice cold beer.

From where I sit, the least we can do is write those V-Mail letters often—let our men know that those little things they miss so much—from the ball games to the beer—are still here, waiting for them till they come back home.

Tricks For Making Roasted Nuts Just A Little Better

By HEBA MERLE BOYLES
County Home Dem. Agent

Home salted nuts are enjoying renewed popularity this fall with a record nut crop moving to market. Nuts salted at home are comparatively inexpensive and can help to make up for shortages of other holiday season delicacies this year.

Frying in deep fat is generally considered to give the best flavor to many nuts—almonds and peanuts for example. But since fats are scarce now, the oven or frying pan methods are suggested, which roast delicious nuts with a minimum of fat.

Blanching—removing the skin from smooth sufficed nutmeats—is not necessary before roasting such tender-skinned nuts as pecans, hickory nuts and walnuts. To blanch almonds, pour boiling water over them and hold at simmering temperatures (185 F.) for 3 minutes. Then drain. The skins should come off easily when pressed with thumb and forefinger. Spread the blanched kernels on absorbent paper and dry overnight at ordinary room temperature. Peanuts may be water-blanching like almonds but this is unnecessary if they are to be prepared in the oven, because the skins will slip off easily after roasting.

In the following recipes, 2 teaspoons of cooking oil or melted vegetable or table fat—just enough to cover the kernels—and 1 teaspoon of salt, are sufficient for each cup of nutmeats.

"Frying pan roasting": To roast pecans, hickory nuts, or Persian (English) walnuts, combine whole nutmeat halves with the oil or melted fat in a frying pan. Place over low heat, stirring constantly, until hot through. Avoid overcooking. Nutmeats, particularly pecans, darken a little more after being removed from the heat, and become crispier as they cool. Drain on absorbent paper and sprinkle with salt.

Blanched almonds or blanched raw peanuts may be roasted similarly, but they must be heated a little longer—until light brown in color—(about 15 to 30 minutes in all, depending on the size of nuts and degree of browning desired). For "redskin" peanuts, follow this same method, but use unblanched raw peanuts.

"Oven-roasting": Combine nutmeats and the oil or melted fat, and spread in a single layer in a shallow pan. Heat in a moderately hot oven (375 F.) stirring frequently, until hot through. Drain on absorbent paper and sprinkle with salt. As in the "frying pan" method, almonds and peanuts must be heated a little longer than pecans, hickory nuts, or walnuts.

Another method of preparing raw peanuts is to roast them in the oven with their skins on, adding the fat later; first, spread the shelled peanuts in one layer in a shallow pan and heat in a moderately hot oven (375F.) stirring frequently, 15 to 30 minutes. For "redskins", add fat immediately after removing from oven, 1 teaspoon to each cup of peanuts. Stir until evenly coated, drain on absorbent paper, and sprinkle with salt. For plain salted peanuts, cool, and slip the skins off by pressing between thumb and forefinger. Add fat and place over low heat, shaking or stirring nuts constantly until well coated and warm. Drain on absorbent paper and sprinkle with salt.

Peanuts bought roasted in the shell may be shelled, warmed in a little fat over low heat, and salted as in above recipe.

TEXAS CO. TO GIVE BONDS
NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP)—Harry T. Klein, president of the Texas Co., announced today the company would buy a $100 war savings bond during the sixth war loan drive as a Christmas gift for each of the more than 5,000 employees of the firm now serving in the armed forces.

Information May Be Had On Testing Of Birds For Pullorum

The problem of pullorum testing turkeys in Texas has developed into a tremendous job. With the northern egg market increasing each year and the northern buyers demanding that all turkeys be tube tested, this has caused the state to establish two laboratories to conduct this work. The laboratories are: (1) Division of Veterinary Science, College Station, Texas, (2) Department of Biology, John Tarleton Agricultural College, Stephenville, Texas.

It is permissible for anyone to draw blood at either of the laboratories as an unofficial test, which means that the test will not be recognized under the national turkey improvement plan.

There is a list of officially qualified blood samplers at the County Agent's office, and anyone interested in getting further information may get it at the County Agent's office.

Dallas Union Terminal Employees May Strike

DALLAS, Nov. 16 (AP)—Dallas Union Terminal employees are voting on whether to call a strike "not later than Dec. 21."

Ballots were issued yesterday and will be counted Nov. 18. H. R. Lyons of Minneapolis, international vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, has announced.

Employees ask time and a half pay for Sundays, holidays and all work over eight hours and a guarantee of an eight-hour working shift, Lyons said. He added the controversy has been before the national board of mediation since February, 1940.

The word mongol comes from mong, a term meaning brave men, that was first used under the Chinese Tsang dynasty.

Admiration - Where All Tastes Meet

Dear Son:
I know it all too well. She called you a mouse and you called her a moose. Twenty five years ago your Mom and I started every breakfast the same way. It went on for months. I had to sift a lot of sand to find the flea but I found it. It was the little things of married life—like squeezing the tooth paste tube in the middle, cold flabby pancakes, uncombed hair, and others. We both were guilty and admitted it. After that compliments replaced criticism and well, Mary and I agree that life without each other would be like wandering in deserts. We still do.
Affectionately,
Dad

Tips To Hostesses

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
AP Food Editor

Every hostess today is a busy woman. Yet none of us wants to give up the joy of entertaining friends in our homes. The answer is to make entertaining as simple as possible and still to please our guests.

Here is a suggestion for the sort of food that's right for a variety of occasions. It's a platter of cold cuts, cheese, tomato slices and hard-cooked eggs, with a plate of assorted crisp crackers beside it. In addition, there should be a little bowl of mayonnaise, seasoned in your best style, and mustard, preferably more than one kind. Offer first a good, plain prepared mustard and then add one flavored with horse-radish, or honey, or a Bohemian type, or a Chinese (the best of the hot mustard). This makes fixing their own much more fun for the guests. So does a little dish of dill pickles, sliced thin.

Remove Stains, add New Sparkle to FALSE TEETH NO BRUSHING

KLEENITE ends messy, harmful brushing. Just put your plate or bridge-work in a glass of water, add a little KLEENITE. Presto! Blackish stains, tartness, food film disappear. Your teeth sparkle like new. Ask your druggist today for KLEENITE.

KLEENITE needs no brush.

ing guests, there are foods you can arrange which require slightly more preparation, but still are simple. For instance, you can wash and drain and crisp in the refrigerator vegetables to be eaten raw. Make carrot and celery curls, separate cauliflower florets, cut radish roses. Then cut sticks of parsnip, rutabaga, or cucumber. Almost any vegetable which can be prepared for holding in the fingers is good to eat raw. Make a beautiful, colorful platter of these vegetables and with them serve just plain salt and pepper, or seasoned salt—bought ready-prepared or arranged by your own addition of paprika, pepper, onion salt and garlic salt to regular table salt. Cream cheese, softened considerably for "dunking" with thin cream, and pepped up with chopped chives or scallions and a dash of Worcestershire, is also good with raw vegetables. Another good accompaniment is Russian dressing.

Russian Dressing
1 cup real mayonnaise
1 ripe tomato, peeled, chopped
1 tablespoon onion, minced
4 stuffed olives, chopped fine
1 teaspoon parsley, minced
1 teaspoon paprika
Mix all ingredients together thoroughly and serve icy cold from the refrigerator.

The above dressing is also excellent for serving with cooked shrimp. If possible, substitute chopped dill for the parsley in this case. Dill has an affinity for seafood. Serve the shrimp thoroughly chilled in a large bowl with a little dish of toothpicks beside it so that the guests may spear them for dipping into the dressing and popping, into the mouth.

It's better to offer ready-prepared food and be a relaxed and happy hostess than to have elaborate canapes and look like a harassed hostess!

Pumpkin Chiffon Pie Recipe

Pumpkin Chiffon Pie
1 envelope gelatin
1-4 cup cold water
1-2 cup milk
1-2 teaspoon salt
1 1-4 cups canned pumpkin (or cooked pumpkin.)
1-2 teaspoon each of ginger, nutmeg, cinnamon
1 cup sugar
3 eggs separated
1 baked pie shell (9")
To slightly beaten egg yolks add

1-2 cup sugar, pumpkin, milk, salt, and spices. Cook until thick in double boiler. Pour cold water in bowl, sprinkle gelatin on top. Add to hot pumpkin and mix. Cool when mixture begins to thicken, add remaining sugar and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into pie shell. Chill. Pie may be sprinkled with chopped nuts or garnished with whipped cream just before serving.

BOBSLEDDER KILLED
PARIS, Nov. 16 (AP)—Marquis d'Aulan, French olympic bobsledder, was killed while flying with the French airforce on the Lorraine front official sources said yesterday.

Ex - Wesley College President Succumbs

DALLAS, Nov. 16 (AP)—Seth Edward Green, 64, former president of Wesley College, Greenville, Texas, died here yesterday. Born at Cumby, Hopkins county, when that town was known as Black Jack Grove, he was a graduate of East Texas State Teachers College. He was southwestern manager for the John C. Winston company, a book firm, for 13 years. From 1920 to 1925 he was superintendent of schools at Texarkana, Ark.

He is survived by two sons, J. Ed Green and Wesley W. Green, Dallas; a daughter, Mrs. J. D. D. Cavness, Arlington; two sisters, Mrs. Ida Dougherty, Emory and Mrs. Jim Burns, Millers Grove; and a brother, Grover Green, Millers Grove.

Funeral will be held here tomorrow.

Cartel Battle Out In Open And It Is Expected To Last A Long While

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—The Cartel battle is out in the open now. Expect it to go on a long time.

Our exports, imports and may be our postwar prosperity are involved. So may be world peace. There are roughly three schools of thought.

1. Those who think cartels should be allowed to continue after the war.

Example: This week at the International Business conference in Rye, N. Y., the Netherlands delegation said cartels are necessary.

(The Indian delegation denounced the notion.)

2. Those who want cartels abolished everywhere on the grounds that they choke free trade and lay the groundwork for military, economic and political warfare.

Example: Our senate subcommittee on war mobilization. This week it said cartels should be stamped out. It thinks international trade can be regulated by agreements between governments.

3. Those who say there will be cartels anyway so the best thing to do is to remove their worst features by controlling them.

Example: Milo Perkins, former executive director of the board of economic warfare in Harper's magazine says:

"We have to operate in the world as it is today and not in the fairland of our own oratory. It's time for us to make our foreign trade policy fit the realities of an era which has already gone a long way toward cartelization."

International cartels are agreements between firms of two or more countries. Independent of government control they can divide up trade territory, fix prices, and even limit each other's production.

They also exchange patents, ideas and information. Through these they can produce more cheaply but also stifle competition by monopoly.

Under the prodding of president Roosevelt a committee of representatives of various departments in this government—led by the state department—was set up a year ago to lay plans for controlling cartels.

These plans still are only in their tentative stage. Such as they are, they are thinking in terms of controlling cartels, not abolishing cartels as cartels.

As of the moment, the United Nations have no agreed plan about cartels.

The president has said: "More than elimination of the political activities of German cartels will be required. Cartel practices which restrict the free flow of goods in foreign commerce will have to be curbed."

Note, however, that he doesn't say here cartels themselves will have to be destroyed.

Two years ago bees took a fancy to the inner-wall space in the R. E. Martin home in the R-Bar area. Ever since then they have been buzzing in season with typical industry. If there is honey in them their walls, anybody is welcome if he will only take the bees, too, Mrs. Martin says.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP)—Haven't confirmed this yet, but word comes from a good source that the army air forces are going all out for big-time basketball even more than for football... A team being assembled at Wright Field, Ohio, includes John (Georgetown) Mahnken, Harry (St. Johns) Boykoff, George (St. Jo) Senesky and other big stars—big in every sense... Col. Heinie Miller, former N.B.A. president now overseas (or on his way) with the Marines, has authored an article on Joe Gans for the current Esquire... After those trimmings by Navy and Army, Ed McKeever still thinks his Notre Dame team could play Ohio State on about even terms.

Today's Guest Star
Lynn C. Doyle, Philadelphia Evening Bulletin: "The Penn team still has a chance to survive against Army if the coach will swallow his pride and trade all the V-12's and V-7's to the Nazis for one of those V-2 gadgets."

Belated football results from England: The Air Service Command Warriors beat the Bearcats, 6-0, before 30,000 at Blackpool stadium when Ted D'Uva of New York scored on a triple lateral pass... A navy team trounced a GI eleven 12-0 at Tewksbury and the unbeaten, unscored-on shuttle raiders from an air depot station commanded by Col. William E. Shuttles whipped a Thunderbolt team 20-0. The raiders included former collegians Pfc. Ashley Anderson, Wisconsin; Pvt. Ed Dosey, Purdue, and Pvt. Ed Snow, New Hampshire... Lt. Comdr. Baptist Foundation Has Good Finances

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 16 (AP)—The improved financial condition of the Baptist Foundation of Texas as was reported to the Baptist general convention here yesterday.

The foundation has reduced the $6,000,000 debt of Texas Baptists to $1,000,000 and has increased endowments for Texas Baptist institutions from $2,000,000 to $10,000,000 since 1931, George J. Mason, Dallas, executive secretary to the convention, said.

The convention also was told that the board now has 514 missionaries working in 1,050 churches and mission stations in every state of the Southern Baptist convention and in Cuba and Central America. Debts which formerly hampered the missions program have been liquidated, said Rev. E. G. Gregory, Jr., Comanche chairman of the home missions committee who made the report.

The committee on Baptist hospitals of Texas reported that during the past year five hospitals under the Texas convention cared for 35,193 patients and gave $139,232 to charity. Total present assets of the hospitals, said Chairman Rev. E. S. Hutcherson, is $6,011,810.

The executive board presented for approval and adoption a $3,000,000 budget for the next convention year. It will be divided equally among state missions, endowments and southward causes. Speakers yesterday were Dr. J. M. Dawson, Waco, and Dr. J. B. Lawrence, Atlanta, Ga.

Central American JCC Conference To Be In Mexico

MIDLAND, Nov. 16 (AP)—The first Central American junior chamber of commerce work conference will be held in Mexico City Dec. 5-12, Taylor Cole of Midland, vice president of the U. S. junior chamber of commerce, said today.

He said that the state department and Nelson Rockefeller, coordinator of inter-American affairs, had approved plans for the session.

Two representatives from each Central American country are scheduled to attend the Mexico City meeting.

The purpose of the conference is to revitalize Jaycee organizations in Central America and to form new organizations, he explained.

Clint Dunagan of Midland, president of Texas Jaycees, has called officers of the state organization to meet in Dallas Dec. 3 and 4 with the national and Canadian officials.

Midland Plays Cisco In Lone Tilt Of District Outside Big Spring

By BILL BARNETT

In the only game outside of Big Spring that throws a District Three eleven into competition...

The Lobos have met only one team this season in the Midland circuit...

Since that time the Cisco team has come along fast in offensive and defensive style...

The invaders will be sparked by such boys as Johnson and Tipton in the backfield and Williams on the line...

As for Tipton there is no forgetting the lad where the Steers are concerned. It was this young speedster who grabbed the final kickoff...

Williams is a rangy lad who was on the receiving end of the few passes completed here against the Steers...

Midland, however, is favored heavily to take the game with their attack that has scored against all opponents...

Some few veterans of the season on the Bulldog squad were injured in the encounter with the defending state champs...

The game is scheduled to begin at 8:30 Friday night on Lackey Field.

Sweetwater, San Angelo, Odessa and Lamesa are all idle this week. The Mustangs meet Big Spring next week...

Navy Meets Purdue In Stiffest Test

BALTIMORE, Nov. 16 (AP)—With a devastating Army eleven just over the horizon, the Navy sails into what Midshipman Coach Cmdr. Oscar Hagberg believes will be its hardest game to date Saturday at the Baltimore stadium against Purdue.

And Hagberg, may be right, for the powerful Bollermakers have exhibited one of the season's better ground games. Led by Fullback Boris (Babe) Dimancheff, Big Ten Conference high point scorer and ground gainer de luxe, Purdue has rolled up impressive yardage with its distinctive type of modified "T" formation.

Abilene Eleven Thinking Of Tilt With Champions

Chances of a slip up on the parts of the Abilene Eagles in their Friday night encounter with the Big Spring Steers seem to be pretty slim, and the Eagles are rated to take the game with little trouble...

Meanwhile the local eleven is laying big plans for an upset that would most certainly jar the entire state by knocking off the team listed in the top ten of Texas schoolboy football.

Coach John Dibrell has issued no statement as to what he expects to happen come Friday night, but indications are that the Steers have high hopes of catching an Eagle team that is not too interested in the game.

The local offensive lineup will still be marked by the changes that first appeared against the San Angelo Bobcats. Big Leo Rusk, who ran from the blocking back position last season...

John "Red" Cooper, who has been pushing 215-pound I. B. Bryan for his tackle position all season, will move into the game as defensive end and offensive guard.

The spread formation will again be in use by the locals in an attempt to find a system of running and passing that will confuse and defeat their heavily favored opponents.

Tickets are on sale at the Big Spring Hardware, the chamber of commerce and the high school administrative offices until 5 p. m. Friday.

The game will be an afternoon affair on Thursday, November 23.

Sliding Down The Sports Chute

with BILL

There comes the time each week for forecasting on the outcome of the Southwest conference, and as each seven day period passes the picture becomes more and more muddled with no team having a cinch on the pennant...

TCU, at present, stands at the top of the heap with no defeats to mar its circuit record, while Arkansas spoils the Frogs' perfect ledger with a tie game some weeks ago with a 6-6 draw.

However, the Frogs are not the choice of the lot by most scribes as they have seemed to impress none since losing so many transfers in the Navy. However, their kicking of Texas Tech, which downed Rice leads all to believe that all may not be cream and honey for their up-coming opponents.

Texas and Rice are now tied for second place with one loss each, the Longhorns losers to the Owls, while the latter fell before the Arkansas Razorbacks last week.

Next come the Aggies with losses to T.C.U. and Arkansas and a victory over the SMU eleven which is now holding down the cellar position after losing to Rice and Texas before the Ag defeat.

Now let's look and see how they lineup this week and an early forecast as to how they will end up in standings after the week's fracas is over.

Texas plays TCU in Fort Worth. This game has always proved a nemesis for the Steers and two of their best teams have fallen in clashes with the inspired Frogs.

Arkansas, in pulling for the Aggies and Frogs to win, can down SMU and come out second if everything goes according to their plans. They (the Razorbacks) could take the Mustangs and be out in front of everyone except TCU who still has a game with Rice and one with SMU to play.

Or if the Longhorns win they will be ahead of Arkansas. That means that the Aggies must also trounce Texas to win the pennant for the Ozark eleven.

To sum it all up very briefly Texas must win all of her games, and Rice must lose one before the Steers can win.

Rice must win all of hers and TCU and Texas must lose one each before the Owls can win. TCU can win all of the remaining games on her schedule and come out on top, no matter how the others play.

The Aggies can take all of their games and have TCU lose two, Rice one more and Arkansas one more, and come out in a three-way tie for the pennant.

Thank goodness for me... the Mustangs are out of the running entirely. What a headache this is going to be before the week ends. Hang on to your money and do not give or take any points, bets, or predictions. No one knows what will happen next.

Longview Plays Marshall In Top Schoolboy Game

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

Associated Press Sports Editor

Veteran Pete Shotwell, who has coached high school football teams as long as the Texas Interscholastic league race has been run, sends his Longview Lobos into their do or die battle Friday night as the feature of a week's play in which every district has important games.

It's Longview vs. Marshall at Longview and if Shotwell can get his Lobos over this hump—which he is not favored to do—it will virtually mean the District 11 championship for him.

Longview staged a season upset last week in smacking down Tyler but few expect the Lobos to turn the trick this week against the fleet Marshall Mavericks.

Lamar of Houston is in a feature battle Friday night. It can virtually set up the District 13 championship by beating John Reagan, one of two teams having just one defeat against it.

Otherwise, other games over the state, while important, risk the district leaderships in few instances.

There are 43 games on the schedule with 39 of them conference affairs. The week's schedule by districts:

1-Friday: Brownfield at Plainview (conference), Borger at Pampa (conference).

2-Friday: Gainesville at Wichita Falls, Vernon at Graham (conference).

3-Friday: Abilene at Big Spring (conference), Cisco at Midland.

Colored Bombers Clash With Hood Team Sunday

At 3 p. m. Sunday afternoon Big Spring football fans will have an opportunity to see some "heavyweight" football that will be a distinct change from the usual brand seen in these parts between high school teams.

At that time out in Steer stadium the local army post's Colored Bombers will clash with the Camp Hood Tank Destroyers in what may prove to be one of the best games, between two of the classiest teams seen in these parts since Pete Cawthon brought his Brooklyn Tigers to town last summer.

The two elevens met last Sunday on the Destroyers' home grounds in Gatesville and battled to a scoreless deadlock. The local offensive that is sparked by speed and deception found itself lost against the powerful and heavier line of the big Hood eleven and could not score, while moving to the eight-yard marker ones before stopped. On the other hand the host eleven last week found the lighter Bombers too tough and determined and though they were deep in scoring territory twice could never gather enough spark to drive over the local forward wall.

Some of the glamour has been taken from the game by the notice that Jackie Robinson, former UCLA all-American, has been transferred and will not play with the Destroyers.

His appearance was being banked on as a big drawing card for fans, and an even larger scoring threat for the invading eleven Sunday.

However, on the Bomber eleven is a colored flash who bids to show local fans some first foot-work. This lad comes in the person of Paul Blanchard, 150-pound speedster who has plenty to burn. Blanchard recently legged it down the football field for the full distance clad in complete grid uniform in the fast time of 10 seconds.

Behind this terrific speedball the local eleven has been concentrating heavily on an offensive that will crack the big forward wall that is to oppose them. Plans have included, if the running game fails to find a loophole through which to plough, to pass over the heads of the defenders and score with a fast aerial game.

The kickoff is slated for 3 p. m. The game is under the sponsorship of the local American Legion post. Tickets are selling for 50 cents for general admission and $1 for reserved seats.

All funds will be used for a worthy purpose, and tickets may be obtained at the chamber of commerce and the post exchange on the grounds at the bombardier school. Officials urge that all tickets be purchased early to assure seats for all and give them an estimate as to the size of the crowd. By early purchases the last-minute rush and confusion can be avoided.

Waco Named Top Team In Schoolboy Grid Circles Replacing San Angelo

By The Associated Press

Waco's Tigers returned to first place in Texas schoolboy football ranking today after being in the runner-up spot for two weeks in the vote of more than 20 sports writers of the state.

The Tigers gathered seven first place ballots, thirteen second places and three thirds to edge out San Angelo with its ten votes for first, seven for second, three for third and one each for fourth, fifth and sixth.

Amarillo replaced Highland Park (Dallas) in the third spot, moving up from fifth, while Highland Park dropped to fourth.

Waco, San Angelo and Amarillo scored impressive victories last week but Highland Park and Austin were just so-so.

Here's how the top ten rank with 10 points for first, 9 for second, etc. And with the number of first place ballots in parenthesis: 1. Waco (7)—21; 2. San Angelo (10)—20; 3. Amarillo (2)—14; 4. Highland Park (Dallas) (1)—13; 5. Austin (0)—13; 6. Lufkin (1)—10; 7. Vernon (1)—7; 8. Port Arthur (0)—7; 9. Abilene (1)—6; 10. Sunset (Dallas) (0)—4.

Oklahoma Scribe Proposes Game For War Bonds

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 16 (AP)—The navy's best service team vs. the army's No. 1 club in a post-season war bond benefit game...

That's the proposal made today by Hal Middleworth, sports editor of the Daily Oklahoman, in his column "On the Level." Middleworth suggested that the game be played in the Los Angeles coliseum and predicted that a game between, say, the undefeated Norman, Okla., Navy Zoomers and March Field would fetch several million dollars in bonds.

He thought the game should be either a week before or after New Year's to avoid conflicts with OWL contests, and in addition to the Norman club, said that the Bainbridge, Md., Commodores or the Port Pierce, Fla., Amphibians could hold down the ship for the navy, with the Randolph Field Second Air Force or the Third Air Force as army possibilities.

For A Rich Experience

Through cooperation of 100,000 ministers and 8,000 chaplains serving with the armed forces, the American Bible Society has arrived at 33 daily Bible readings suggested for reading all over the world from Nov. 23, the nationally proclaimed Thanksgiving Day, to Christmas Day, Dec. 25.

The Herald will carry, in subsequent issues, these suggested readings in the hope that all who see them will be constrained to open their Bibles and read.

There was never a time in history when the comfort and inspiration of the Scriptures mean more than they do now. There was never a time for most of us when we possibly needed to get back into the habit of consulting the Word of God and applying its truths to our lives.

The American Bible Society plan, we believe, is a sound one and is doubly commendable in that it calls the entire world to concerted reading of the Holy Bible. Think what a rich spiritual experience this could be for the world if all of us made it a point to read these chapters at the appointed time.

Check The Records

Your doctor is a busy man these days and it is barely possible the demands on his time may cause him to slip up now and then in promptly filling a birth certificate for your baby. But you should check within a week or so after the arrival of your baby to see if his or her birth has been entered correctly on the records at the county clerk's office.

The reasons are many. This record establishes the date for the child's entrance in school, for the right to vote, for work in federal projects, to establish American citizenship, for entering the military service, to prove legal age for inheritance of property, for proving claims of widows and orphans, for settlement of insurance, for right of admission to certain professions, for collecting compensation from the government, and a host of other items. More and more, birth certificates are personally important records. Make sure your child is given this start.

Your Best Bargain

Statistics show that it costs taxpayers $600 a year to keep a youngster in the reform school. According to an article by Stanley S. Jacobs in the November issue of Magazine Digest, it requires only $10 to keep him out of trouble. Of boys committed to penal institutions, 85 per cent are never reformed. This helps keep the crime bill about 15 billion dollars annually.

Washington—Helmick May Decide Future In China

By JAMES D. WHITE (Substituting for Jack Sinnenet, Who Is Ill)

WASHINGTON — A man left for Chungking the other day on a new kind of mission. Upon its success may depend the welfare of every American who goes to China after the war.

It is Milton J. Helmick, judge of the United States Court in Shanghai until Pearl Harbor. The State Department said he will survey the Chinese legal system.

Judge Helmick is a sandy-haired man in his fifties who looks vaguely like the late Irvin S. Cobb. He is a quiet, friendly citizen who gets along with the Chinese. He probably knows more about the wide gap which separates Chinese laws from our own legal practice than any other American.

The Chinese want to buy great quantities of machinery and heavy industrial goods from us after the war. We shall have to send a lot of technical people along with the machines, so there will be more Americans in China after the war than ever before. Most missionaries and teachers and businessmen want to go back.

Today, if an American soldier in China accidentally hits a Chinese with his jeep, the matter is settled through his own military authorities. But after the war an American civilian getting into a similar scrape may find himself facing a lawsuit in a Chinese court.

When Judge Helmick was on the bench in Shanghai, Americans in China were subject to the authority of his court, not to those of the Chinese. This was because America, like many other foreign nations, enjoyed "extra-territorial" rights in China which exempted them from Chinese law.

The Chinese always claimed upon their sovereignty as a nation, and in 1943 this country and others recognized this claim by signing a treaty with China which abolished the whole extra-territorial system. Thus Americans in China are now subject to Chinese law and will be henceforth.

Now that is all very fine, but there are spots in Chinese law which are unclear or just don't deal with the foreigner in their midst. Some were written before there were foreigners around, and others obviously omitted the position of foreigners because of the hated extra-territorial system.

Thus, it's uncertain today whether foreigners technically can own land in China. And foreign firms are supposed to register, and the business laws call for a list of stockholders. If a big American oil company, for instance, wants to register in China, does it have to submit a complete list of all its stockholders at home?

Such gaps in Chinese law can be easily bridged, it's believed, once Judge Helmick and other American experts sit down with the Chinese and talk things over. Most of the muddled spots occur in the commercial code, and the Chinese already have drafted a new trade law which they hope will serve as the basis for a new commercial treaty with this country.

Time For Mulching

BOZEMAN, Mont., Nov. 16 (AP)—Montana State College horticulturists send out this SOS: It's time for Victory gardeners to mulch those strawberry plants.

Mulching is best done with straw, often obtainable at homes of nearby milch cows, or old potato vines. The experts from leaves raked from lawns—they smother wintering plants.

If you're wondering, mulch keeps roots warm and comfy.

How To Torture Your Husband

Hal Boyle: Frontline Patrols Have System For Directing Unwary Doughboys

By HAL BOYLE WITH AMERICAN TROOPS IN GERMANY, Nov. 8 (Delayed AP)—Patrols near Haaren, Germany, got so tired of rescuing unwary drivers who drove heedlessly past their outposts that they have put up a large sign reading: "Front line 400 yards ahead—are you lost, Bud?"

It was a French family and they were very hospitable to the two American soldiers. After drinking wine with the folks for half an hour, Maj. Paul A. Danahy of Buffalo, N. Y., and his scout, Sgt. Dave Bernay of Berlin, N. H., asked casually, "Where are the Germans?"

Just as casually, one of the French replied: "Out in the back yard." The startled Americans looked out a window, and sure enough there were several heavily-armed German troopers hanging about. The Americans had only one carbine and a pistol between them. They thought it over—and left.

Hollywood—Domestic Argument Ends In Movieland

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD — The big domestic argument is all over but the shouting and groaning, and now's the time, we respectfully submit, for Hollywood to glance its own way and take steps for its own future peace.

Too often is the nightclub air by the shrieking scream of flying powder puffs cutting through the tobacco smoke and the liquor haze. Too often are balconies, built for serenading used for mayhem. Too frequent is the boastful cry: "Ya oughta see the other fella." Too many hostesses are giving prizefights, not parties.

First step in our Hollywood Peace Project is a drastic one. All balconies shall be removed at once from the houses. Better a scarred house front than a scar-faced Adonis, we always say.

Second: Since it is impractical to limit production of powder puffs, we advocate a puff stand at every nightspot, checking of weapons being mandatory. The girls who used to sell cigarettes when there were cigarettes shall have this concession.

Third: The permanent office of Other Fella shall be created. He shall be selected from the ranks of Central Casting's extras, and he shall have an Assistant Other Fella. After each brawl, each pugilist shall have the company of the O. F. or the O. F.'s aide for one week. Both these worthies shall be made up something awful by Max Factor's or Westmore's, who can fight—we mean bargain—for the job. With an Other Fella always handy, no protagonist can boast about "You oughta see the Other Fella" because there he is. You take the boasting out of Hollywood fights and what've you got? Peace.

Fourth: The use of force, if necessary, to halt aggression is advocated. A strong-arm squad, preferably headed by Mike Mazurki shall keep vigilant guard over Ciro's, Mocambo and other high-toned saloons. At the first sign of an argument, the squad shall move in, forcibly remove highballs from the table, and forcibly pour hot black coffee down all belligerent gullets.

Fifth: Everybody especially blondes, shall stay home. We'll have you know, Sirrah, that Hollywood is interested only in Art. Oh, so you wanna get tough about it, huh? So you wanna fight? Just wait'll I get my powder puff. G'wan, I'll show ya!

Tin Can Sailor--Former Big Spring Resident--Philosophizes On War

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD Associated Press Staff

Al Coker, Texan, is a tin can sailor and he stands his watch in Torpedo Junction. Which means that Coker represents the drive and power of a destroyer for he stands his watch in the boiler room, the place where a ship comes alive. His story is the unwritten story of many another sailor—unwritten because a man who works in the throbbing heat of a ship's vitals has a dangerous but thoroughly unspectacular time.

In battle he feels danger but does not see it; the roar of guns topside is muffled by the time it reaches him; the boom of a depth charge to him is just a turching jar. He doesn't see enemy planes; he just knows they are there. "You don't really get scared though," he says, "because in a fight you work as long as 24 hours at a stretch and you drink the coffee and eat the sandwiches they bring down to you and all the time you figure that if your number is up you'll get it and if your number isn't up you're as safe as if you were sitting on the bank of some little river fishing for trout."

At 45, Al Coker's years in the Navy have kept him trim. Al is from a lot of places in Texas—Wolfe City, Honey Grove, Big Spring and Austin. He had been selling sewing machines in Dallas for 11 years when the Japs struck Pearl Harbor. "That made me right angry," he remembers. "Being an old Navy man I figured I could help give those Japs a bad time. Way back in 1920, '21 and '22, I was a fireman on the battleship Oklahoma and you don't stop thinking about the Navy, once you've been in. But the big thing is, I've got a boy—he's 15 now.

"I guess I wanted to get in and help polish the Nips before he had to go. Anyway, I joined 18 days after Pearl Harbor."

Al has served on four new-type destroyers, which he describes as "slick ships." He has served two years on the Atlantic and eight months in the Pacific and prefers the former. Three sections of service ribbons across Al's chest testify a lot of water went under the prows of the slick ships he served on. There were patrols in American waters and convoy duty along the thril-packed Murmansk route with menacing German bombers outlined against the dark sky and there was the fury at Tinian and Saipan, days and nights of almost constant bombardment.

"When you get into a fight you don't mind the work and the strain. You think about the job you are doing and it makes you feel proud and kind of important."

"The only thing you mind is not being able to see what's going on. Once I sneaked up the hatch and looked out. I was just in time to see a Jap plane diving. His bombs missed.

"Another time, when we depth-bombed a sub I got to come on deck to watch the big mushrooms of water that came up when the charges went off. We got the sub. Planks and stuff floated to the surface and oil covered about five acres."

Al works four hours and has eight hours off and when working he wears the customary dungarees, blue chambray shirt and blue denim trousers. In the tropics he never wears an undershirt. Down in the ship, he has a bunk with steel springs and a cotton mattress. There are rows of bunks, three-tiered "like a pull-man car," he says, "without the curtains."

Below the bunks are the individual foot lockers and men use these for chairs. Nearly always there is some sort of a card game going on, generally poker or acey ducey. Poker is played with chips since money on the table is not allowed. Al said that he had never seen a domino on a destroyer and said bridge is never played. The card games are quiet, the men speaking generally in whispers to avoid waking the sleepers. "Sailors are like brothers and they stick to one another like brothers. When a bunch of men live together they learn the real meaning of consideration."

"We have better food than the army," he claims. "The army boys admit it so it must be true." For recreation at sea, he does a lot of reading and often he sits in on the card games. At night, when the ship is blacked out he likes to sit on deck and watch the stars and clouds and waves.

"Out by yourself, like that," he explained, "you can look your life over and add up the totals."

Two-Price System For Surplus Crops
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP) — A two-price system or controlled acreage are alternatives which must be considered if the nation produces surplus crops after the war, Senator Thomas (D-Okla.) said today.
Thomas, slated to become chairman of the senate agriculture committee next January, has introduced a bill at the request of Texas agriculture officials calling

Ex-Sailor Charged With Double Murder

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16 (AP)—A husky, 31-year-old waiter was held incommunicado today after confessing, police said, one of the most fiendish crimes on record—the mutilation slaying of two nude women in separate downtown hotels.

Drinking wine at a nearby bar, Otto Steve Wilson, recently medically discharged from the navy, was handcuffed last night by an alert patrolman shortly after the suspect's description had been broadcast.

The first was Virgie Lee Griffin, 25, wife of a truck driver. A hotel maid on routine cleaning rounds found her lying disemboweled in the closet of one room. The torso had been split from neck to abdomen, the right leg severed at the hip and knee, the right shoulder hacked through. Bits of flesh, cut from other parts of the body, littered the blood-soaked carpet. A butcher knife with a 9-inch blade lay nearby. Razor blades were scattered on the floor.

Police Detective Lt. R. F. McGarry quoted Wilson as saying he killed her "because she wanted more money."

Even as a screaming hotel maid set off an intensive city-wide police search yesterday, the second victim was dying in another hostelry a few blocks away.

She was Mrs. Lillian Johnson, about 38, wife of a merchant seaman now reported in the South Pacific.

Found stretched on a bed, she had been slashed from the breast to the pelvic region.

Lt. McGarry said Wilson related that he hit her, then slashed her with a razor "for some reason—just pure cussedness, I guess."

Both the operator of the first hotel and a bellboy at the second had identified Wilson as the companion, first of Mrs. Griffin and later of Mrs. Johnson, in registering at the two hotels.

Social Security Tax May Get Rise

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—You're involved in the fight shaping up to freeze the social security tax—if you're one of the 69 or 70 million workers or employers in commerce and industry. If you're an employe, the tax on you is 1 percent of your pay. If you're an employer, the tax on you is 1 percent of your payroll. This totals 2 percent from both.

But each employe and employer in commerce and industry will have to start paying 2 percent Jan. 1, 1945 unless con-

FDR Did Not Need South's Vote For 1944 Election Win

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The democrats have now won a presidential election regardless of the south for the fifth time since the Civil war.

The three other times they won the presidency in that 80-year period the "Solid South" was needed to put their candidate over—in Grover Cleveland's election in 1884 and 1892 and Woodrow Wilson's second election in 1916.

In every campaign it has been a bulwark in which the democrats counted.

But an analysis today showed that President Roosevelt would have won all his four terms without counting the South's eleven-state electoral vote. The same held true of Wilson in his 1912 election.

Politicians expressed surprise at these facts. But beyond an observation here and there that Southern voters also might be unaware of the historical record they preferred to let the situation speak for itself.

It is obvious, however, that the democratic party, while not needing the South's vote in the electoral college to win with Roosevelt four times and Wilson once, could not have maintained its majorities in congress without that big bloc of votes below the Mason-Dixon line.

The presidential vote usually determines the make-up of congress. Thus, if the South's 127 electoral votes had gone this time to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey instead of the president the republicans might have come close to controlling the next house.

Soldier Settlement Program Advocated

DENVER, Nov. 16 (AP)—Early enactment of a "soldier settlement program" to facilitate the rehabilitation of war veterans on new farms was advocated today by Harry W. Bashore of Washington, commissioner of the U. S. Bureau of reclamation.

He reported in a speech prepared for the annual convention of the national reclamation association that the bureau already is working with Rep. Murdock (D-Ariz.) "to formulate a plan which will be to the best interests of our service people."

"It will be ready soon," said Bashore.

The demand for farms by discharged soldiers, he predicted, "will far exceed anything we can offer, large as our program is." He explained that the program, submitted to congress, provides for development of about 135,000 new farms on some 6,700,000 acres of desert land plus supplemental water for approximately 10,000,000 additional acres having inadequate supplies.

German Minister Reports To Berlin

The German News Agency DNB sent as a "flash" in its overseas service today an announcement that Dr. Hans Thomsen, German minister in Stockholm, "is in Berlin to submit his report."

This emphasized recent tension between the Germans and Swedish governments and recalled that Germany recently summoned to Berlin her envoys to neutral Portugal and Spain and announced they would not return to the Iberian peninsula.

Answer Due Today On Army-Navy Game Site

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—A direct answer to the question of whether the army-navy football game Dec. 2 will be moved from Annapolis to a big city stadium may be received today from Navy Secretary Forrestal.

The matter was up for a going-over at a news conference arranged for Forrestal this afternoon.

Eisenhower Offers Shoe-Trade To GI

ADVANCED POST, Supreme Headquarters, Nov. 16 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower came near swapping his sheepskin-lined over-shoes for a GI's pair of beat-up artics today, but the soldier finally turned down the deal.

Quishing through knee-deep mud near the frontlines, Eisenhower paused to talk to S-Sgt. Darrell Van Ness, a "Stars and Stripes" writer reported.

"Sure wish I had a pair of over-shoes like yours," Van Ness said.

Eisenhower hopped on one leg in the mud while he tugged at a frozen zipper.

"No, General," Van Ness said finally, "I guess you'll need those flight boots more than I will. The deal's off."

The four-star commander compromised. He offered the soldier 500 francs — on the line — for his first dead Jerry.

Final Judging Of Herefords Is Today

DALLAS, Nov. 16 (AP)—Final judging of choice stock will be made today by Pablo Riso, Uruguayan judge, at the Pan American Hereford Exposition here.

Riso will pick winners of all remaining classes including the set of sire, two females bred and owned by exhibitor, pair of yearlings and pair of calves. The best five head owned by one exhibitor will be chosen tonight when special awards will be made.

Yesterday Lady Domino 19th, two-year-old heifer from the ranch of James M. Brook, Brady, was judged grand champion female over WHR Miss Mixer 57th from the Wyoming Hereford Ranch, Cheyenne.

Bud, grand champion steer of the 4-H club and Future Farmers of America entries brought the top price of $2.25 a pound. It will be slaughtered and sent to Ashburn General Hospital at McKinney. It was bought by Sanger Bros.

Sales on registered Hereford show stock brought $6,650 for 13 animals. Highest price was paid for RS Domino Royal 25th, a bull owned by Rancho Sacatal, Paul Spur, Ariz. It brought $2,150.

US Will Protect Farmers By Force

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The United States wants the world to know that it is ready to use aggressive measures to preserve overseas markets for its farmers.

This notice was given in twin announcements of the War Food Administration (1) that it will cut prices on American cotton and wheat in world markets, and (2) that it will encourage farmers to continue large production of these and other products.

The price cutting will be made in the form of subsidies to exporters designed to enable them to meet prices of other countries which have not raised their prices to levels prevailing in this country.

The Roosevelt administration has in times past condemned the use of export subsidies and other aggressive measures in world markets. It has urged, on the other hand, the establishment of world agreements dividing markets and stabilizing markets. Such agreements were recommended by the United Nations food conference held at Hot Springs, Va., last year.

Announcement of export subsidy programs at this time is interpreted in official as well as trade quarters as a psychological weapon in behalf of international trade cooperation.
