4-H NEWS
 The Gorman 4-H held their meeting after school January 10. In the absence of the president, the vice-president, Danny Snider, called the meeting to order. The pledge and prayer was offered. The secretary, Barbara Williams, called the roll. Due to the previous meeting being a Christmas party, no minutes were read.

The decoration ideas to be used for the Outstanding Farmer Banquet was then discussed. Due to the conflicting ball games and limited number of days to do the work only a few worked.
 Being no other business to take care of our Speech Leader, Mrs. Bob Green, and Cathy Parr gave the program. Being able to give a good talk requires much time in thought and preparation. We are fortunate to have a person like Mrs. Green to be a part of our club to help make better speakers of her group.
 Our Assistant County Agent, Bill McCutchen, and Wanda Watson, Assistant HD Agent, was with us. Miss Watson gave a short discussion and demonstration on Money Management.
 We would like to say a special thanks to Arland Watson and Dick Foster for clearing the building so we could sweep and prepare it for the banquet.
 Those present for the meeting were Danny Snider, Teddy Jordan, Marilyn Thompson, Dorenda Arnold, Barbara Williams, Cathy Parr, Ricky Fuller, Christi Fuller, Mrs. Glenn Jordan, Mrs. Bob Green, Mrs. Claude Fuller, and visitors, Phillis Watson, Wanda Watson and Bill McCutchen.
 The next meeting date will be February 14 at 3:45 at school.

Guess the radish just didn't know when the season changed and just kept on growing!
