LET'S CONSIDER THE RECORD

-PAUL BRASHEAR has served us in a job where seniority is a real investment . . where experience counts. His representation has demonstrated his energy and ability in behalf of this distirct.
- PAUL BRASHEAR has always voted to keep our lakes open for fishing, boating and picnicing. At the request of the members of the Sabanno Game Preserve he introduced and secured passage of a bill "regulating the taking of deer and turkey" within the preserve.
- PAUL BRASHEAR'S record supports the soil conservation, agriculture and water programs of our state. He has supported legislation to bring about better cooperation between the State Department of Agriculture and the peanut growers and other agricultural interests.
- PAUL BRASHEAR'S record will show he voted against the judge's pay increase in the 55th Legislature as an economy measure.
- PAUL BRASHEAR has consistently supported the best interests of our senior citizens, school teachers and state employees.

 PAUL BRASHEAR voted against additional taxes on the automobile, feeling that this machine is already paying more than its share of the taxes.

Experienced

Family Man

Veteran

- PAUL BRASHEAR supported the fishing license increase because of the need of the fish and game department for more funds to improve our lakes and recreation programs. He voted for the boat safety law to make the lakes (and boats) safe for sportsman and the general public.
- PAUL BRASHEAR has consistently used good judgement in every instance where legislation affecting REA and public utilities was concerned.
- PAUL BRASHEAR has always sought to be a representative of ALL the people and has never been sponsored by any special interest group.
- PAUL BRASHEAR is a veteran of World War II, a church member, active in community affairs, a Mason, a family man and a native of the district he serves. He is qualified by residence, education and experience to do the best job of representing ALL the people of the 76th District.

(Paid for by Gorman Friends and Supporters of Paul Brashear)....

PAUL BRASHEAR has been instrumental in keeping the 91st District Court in Eastland County, and has prevented the introduction of legislation that would have tried to move the Court of Civil Appeals from Eastland County.

The Farm Bureau DOES NOT Endorse Any Candidates

Recently the Eastland County Farm Bureau organization received notice that a candidate for state representative from the 76th District has mailed out literature using the Farm Bureau letterhead. The Farm Bureau DOES NOT endorse any candidate for any governmental office. The Eastland County Farm Bureau encourages individual decision for candidates.

The Eastland County Farm Bureau has received this telegram from Mr. Bob Lilly, legislative director for the Texas Farm Bureau:

"Voters of 76th District have recently received letter written by Texas Farm Bureau Legislative office. Suggest careful study of contests and date of such letter. Letter was designed to obtain vote on pending legislation during 56th session. The Texas! Farm Bureau as an organization endorses no candidate. Signed, Bob A. Lilly."

We, the Eastland County Farm Bureau, hope this literature does not cause any misunderstanding. We knew nothing of this mailing until our members started receiving this information. We urge each member to study the contents of this literature carefully.

JACK COX FOR GOVERNOR

Texas Needs His Dynamic Leadership

LET'S BACK JACK!

What COX Stands For:

LIMITATION OF THE GOVERNOR'S TERM IN OFFICE — Jack Cox advocates a State Constitutional amendment which would limit a Governor's term of office to two 2-year terms as he believes the writers of our Constitution intended.

ELIMINATION OF WASTE IN STATE GOVERN-MENT — Cox believes in economy in every branch of government. With real leadership in the Governor's office this could be accomplished and such items as special sessions of the legislature could be eliminated.

A COMPREHENSIVE EDUCATIONAL IMPROVE-MENT PROGRAM — Cox is certain that the future of Texas prosperity and progress is fully dependent upon the quality of education provided for our children — his dynamic educational improvement program offers the permanent solution to Texas' educational problems.

THE PROTECTION OF FARMERS TAX REFUND - Farmers should not be asked to "donate" one fourth of their gasoline tax refund from fuel used for farm tractors and agricultural machinery. Cox states that this is an obvious flagrant discrimination against one particular group of taxpayers.

STOP THE SHIFT — STATES RIGHTS TO WASH-INGTON, D. C. — The maintenance of a strong State Government provides the key to the preservation of our State's rights and liberties and Cox is an avowed advocate of this kind of good local government.

ADHERENCE TO STATE CONSTITUTION — Jack Cox will act to get Texas out of debt and keep our State on a sound pay-as-you-go basis in accordance with the State Constitution.

UTILIZATION OF UNTAPPED TALENT AND ABILITY - There are many jobs Texas senior citizens are capable and qualified to perform that would benefit them and in turn keep them off the State Welfare rolls.

KEEPING THE TEXAS RIGHT-TO-WORK LAW -No man's job should be put in jeopardy because of any "pressure" tactics.

CREATION OF A FAIR BUSINESS CLIMATE -Prosperity depends on jobs for people and Texas must develop and maintain the kind of business climate that fosters progress and prosperity for all Texans.

To The Voters of the 22nd Senatorial District:

I am seeking reelection to a second term as your State Senator.

I sincerely appreciate the support that you have given me in the past and thought that I would write you this last minute note before the election with the hope that you will approve of my past record.

When I was first elected to the Texas Legislature, the elderly people of my District were getting about $23.00 per month average Old Age Assistance. I have helped raise that average to $55.00 per month at the present time. By the addition of less than two per cent more money per year to this program I am told that the average payment can be moved up to $65.00 per month. This will allow the maximum payments to run about $75.00 per month.

As your State Senator I will continue to wholeheartedly support aid to the needy, schools, and other necessary State Programs.

If possible, be sure and vote on May 7th.

Sincerely yours,

Borrowed Ring By James P. Foley

ATHLEEN DUNCAN sat stiff-A backed on the depot's only bench listening to the growing rumble of the train carrying Captain Ted Murphy back to Ashville. The rhythmic drum of the wheels vibrating through the rickety station tingled Kathy's slight frame with a mixture of excitement and fear. Her small hand opened and | . Minute closed slowly, pushing the borrowed engagement ring in and out of the noon

The tiny diamond sparkled her brown eyes and seemed to reflect Ted's departure two years before when, tall and boyishly proud in his Air Force uniform, he had left for Wright Field and Korea. Kathy remembered how Ted tried to push the undersized ring on the finger of her twin sister, Dianne. She could even see Dianne frivolously avoiding Ted's kiss.

afraid that you wouldn't come."

"Darling, stop. You'll muss my makeup," Dianne had said. "I love you, Di," Ted insisted.

"Will you wait for me" "You know I will, silly," Dianne promised laughingly. That was two years ago and Dianne hadn't waited a minute of it nor did she write much more than a brief note. Then, when the news came that Ted had been injured in an ammunition explosion and had to undergo eye surgery, Dianne had stopped thinking of him altogether. "Who wants to risk being a seeing-eye wife?" she

Now, as Kathy watched the train chug to a halt, she realized what a fool she had been to have written those letters to Ted, each bearing Dianne's signature. If it had not been for those letters, Kathy would not be at the depot now, waiting, hoping to ward off

Ted's shock at not finding Dianne. Suddenly, Ted stood before her, leaning slightly on a white-tipped cane, a clean white bandage covering his eyes. Kathy ran up to him. Bursting into a flood of tears, she flung her arms around his neck and sobbed, "Ted, dear Ted. It's been so long." Ted hesitated momentarily, then responded almost fiercely. His arms tightened around her back. His lips roamed over her neck and hair whispering, "Darling, I was afraid you wouldn't come."

Kathy went cold knowing it was her sister he wanted. Slowly she withdrew from his arms. "The car is out front," she said softly, guiding him toward the parking lot. "Where to Captain," she kidded after they were seated in the convertible. "Home first?" "Yes, please," Ted said. "There. something I must do and then would you pick me up at home at eight tonight!"

"But, Ted, there's something I must tell you," Kathy blurted out. "You see, I'm . . ." "Not now, please," Ted interrupted gently. "Let's talk about it this evening." It was exactly eight o'clock when Kathy pulled to the curb in front of Ted's home that same evening. Hearing the car, Ted started down the path from the porch where he had been sitting, waiting. "Ted, there's something I must tell you. Something you've a right to know," Kathy said.

"No, me first, honey," Ted insisted. "You see this bandage comes off tomorrow and I'll be able to see again. I wasn't sure until this afternoon. That's why I wanted to go straight home, to call the doctor and find out if the operation was successful. Of course, I'll have to wear dark glasses for a short while. After that, will you marry me, Kathy?"

At first Kathy wasn't sure she heard right. He had said, "Kathy" not Dianne. "You knew," she sobbed. "You knew all the time."

"That you weren't Dianne!" he said. "Sure. You gave yourself away long ago with those letters. But I wasn't certain until today."

"Today," Kathy stammered. "Sure, that borrowed engagement ring. It was too small for Dianne. She had to wear it on her little finger. But you, dear Kathy, have it on your third finger, left hand. Will you keep it there?" Ted

Calvert Is Only Candidate With Court Experience

One of the important races to be decided in Saturday's election will be for Chief Justice of the Texas Supreme Court.

Associate Justice Robert W. Calvert of Hill County is one of the two candidates for this position.

Judge Calvert has been on the Supreme Court since 1950, and is the only member of the court who is a candidate to succeed the present chief justice, who is retiring, and is the only candidate for chief justice with Supreme Court experience.

"Judge Calvert has served with great distinction as associate justice for almost ten years," Gaynor Kendall of Austin, state campaign manager, said. "He therefore knows from actual experience the additional administrative duties which he must assume as chief justice, and he has demonstrated by his service with the other judges his ability to furnish the leadership the court requires."

Don't Let a Faulty Title -

... push you off your land. And about the only way you can find out about your title is to get an abstract and have it examined by an attorney. If the title proves to be faulty in most cases he can cure the defects for you. Fortunately, most property owners have an abstract. If you do not, now is a good time to place your order while we are not too busy to give you prompt service. Some day you will have to have one, why not now?
