"SILENCE IS GOLDEN"

But due to the cards and good wishes from our friends and neighbors, we are very grateful, even though the Progress was not supposed to snoop.

Friendly Ladies Meet With Mrs. Green On Tuesday

Mrs. Bob Green and Mrs. Ross Wilson were hostesses for the Friendly Ladies Sunday School Class Coffee on Tuesday, June 19, in the Green home. The coffees are always a pleasure, but this one was very special, for it afforded everyone an opportunity to meet and visit with our pastor's wife, Mrs. Robert Sanders.

Class president, Mrs. Edgar Higginbottom, presided during a brief business session. The piano project was discussed, ways and means for climaxing this goal were presented, and it is hoped that this project can soon be successfully completed.

Secretary, Mrs. Bill Parr, read the revised class roll, and expressed the hope that with the beginning of this church year, June 1st, that everyone would renew efforts to attend class regularly.

Mrs. Bob Green gave the devotional, a timely study of Christian faith in this space age. Reading thoughts expressed by John Glenn, "Why I Know There is a God," Mrs. Green reminded that Christian faith, religion, God, are eternal, tried, old, and yet as modern as tomorrow's space adventures.

Coffee, cold drinks, cake, cookies, and peanuts were served buffet style.

Everyone must have enjoyed the food, fun and fellowship, for it was almost time for lunch when the group finally called out goodbys.

Mrs. Goodwin Is Honored At Coffee

Mrs. G. L. Whitley and Mrs. Junior Jackson were hostesses for a coffee Wednesday morning honoring Mrs. David Goodwin, whose husband has accepted the position of superintendent of the Tolar Schools and will be moving Monday.

Some 40 guests enjoyed coffee, tea, cold drinks, nuts and cake while they reminisced over the past eight years with Mrs. Goodwin.

Gifts of cushioned folding chairs, pot plant, pillow cases, bath mat and cut glass sandwich plate were presented to the honoree. The chairs matched a table that was given to Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin by members of the Church of Christ Young Adult Sunday School Class when they honored them on Friday night with a class ice cream party.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank the doctors and nurses, and the entire hospital staff for their care and kindness to me while I was in the Blackwell Hospital, and to my friends for the visits, flowers, cards and letters and most of all for your prayers. Thanks a million for the Sunshine Box and the food that has been sent to my home. I shall always be grateful.

May the Lord bless each of you.

ROSCOE REEVES, DEAN OF RURAL MAIL CARRIERS, WILL WIND UP COLORFUL CAREER ON JUNE 30

On Saturday, June 30, when Roscoe Reeves finishes serving Route 2, it will be the end of a postal career stretching back into the past more than forty-six years. In all the history of the Gorman Post Office only two other persons have served even half as long as he has served; and, of those who composed the post office force when he entered the service, only one is still living, Mr. T. J. Hailey, now of Eastland and his wife, the former Ima Lee Collie, sister to Mrs. J. E. Walker and Mrs. T. F. Morrow. In fact, his service covers much more than half the life of the Gorman Post Office itself.

Originally appointed carrier of Route 4, April 1, 1916, at which time Uncle Charlie Gates was postmaster, he has been regular carrier on three different routes; and, during emergencies, has carried all other routes out of the Gorman office. During the first oil boom he resigned from his route long enough to accept appointment as Acting Postmaster and to conduct the office safely through the boom days, reinstating then to his position as carrier on Route 2. The new Postmaster, being unable to obtain enough competent clerical assistance, was granted special permission to employ Roscoe as temporary sub clerk until such time as other capable help could be obtained. Accordingly, for a period of eight months, he carried his Route in daytime and served as night clerk in the office eight hours every night — doing the work and drawing the pay of two men.

As a carrier his first equipment was horse-drawn and he drove his favorite horse more than forty thousand miles — a distance equal to that entirely around the world plus five times across the United States from coast to coast — before retiring him. "Scamp" was a remarkable horse. He was so familiar with the route that reins and bridal were not necessary as he would automatically stop at each box and with "Git Up", "Gee and Haw," somehow got the mail delivered.

Turning then to motor equipment he bought a second-hand Ford roadster. He does not remember how many cars he has worn out on his Route since that time, but one fact is outstanding: during the forty years he has used motor equipment, he has never been involved in a collision, wreck or traffic accident while serving his route.

Although the length of his service is impressive it is not more so than is the high quality and excellence of the service he has rendered. Not above making an occasional mistake, he has always appreciated having his errors brought to his attention saying it helped him to render better service. It is doubtful that in all Uncle Sam's thirty-odd thousand rural carriers one could be found that is better liked or held in higher esteem by his route patrons, his fellow workers in the office, and the public generally than is this veteran of the mail route.

His acts of kindness and assistance to his route patrons are far too many to mention here. They cover a wide range of activities and include such activities as carrying out medicine and groceries to patrons unable to go and get them; interrupting service on his route long enough to deliver safely to their homes several school children he found trying to make their way home during a blinding snowstorm; collecting money and household articles for families who lost their homes and contents by fire; standing ready to interrupt serving his route long enough to rush an expectant mother to the hospital; and so on indefinitely.

He recalls with a chuckle an old lady who called him a liar and

by Kernel Gene, aPe

Members of the Excelsior Club, Mesdames Walter Steele, Dona Moorman, Edna Kirk, and Misses Margaret and Mollie Steele have spent many hours in the Progress Library cataloging books. This is a big help in knowing what books have been contributed.

As you know Kernel Gene lets the library run itself. Folks who use the library could help each other by replacing books on the shelves. Thanks.

Kernel Gene and the Texas (un) Employment Bureau just can't get together. I almost made up my mind to accept the penalty of placing another young man permanently on the payroll BUT I have been informed if I do I will have to back up to the first of the year and pay a 2.7 percent penalty on all salaries and then continue to pay this penalty for two years at which time I will be given a better rating.

This law may be justifiable where companies work on a cost plus basis with the government or have enough surplus cash to handle this penalty. However, there are thousands of small (peewee) businessmen who could use extra help a few months out of the year but hesitate to hire anyone due to the increased cost of social security and unemployment taxes. Counting the cost of book-keeping, a businessman must take approximately 7 cents out of his profit dollar to cover this cost — and if the new socialized medical bill is passed the cost could jump to 10 cents.

Unions and some government officials seem to think it is better to have young men loafing or doing menial labor than it is for them to learn a trade.

WHAT A CATCH! — Ollie Linder of Plainview, Texas and Marvin Churchwell, Plainview, were fishing in Dr. Rodger's lake Thursday morning and caught a nice string of fish. Ollie hooked a 7 lb. channel cat on a Pekoe Perch plug and landed him. The two caught several bass also casting.

made him like it. She lived alone far out in the country in a big house only one room of which was furnished and she existed on a pitifully small old age pension. During severe weather shortly before Christmas she handed Roscoe two dollars and fifty cents and asked him to bring her certain groceries. The old lady's need and the spirit of Christmas got hold of him and the next day he set out on her doorstep twelve dollars and fifty cents worth of groceries. Looking at the pile in astonishment, she asked: "Well, where did all this stuff come from?" "That's what you ordered," Roscoe answered. Looking him straight in the eye, realizing what had happened, and smiling through her tears of gratitude, she said: "Roscoe, you're a liar, the best, most adorable liar that ever lived, I reckon. May the Good Lord forever bless you!"

Throughout the years of his service Roscoe has been glad to give information and assistance to those of his friends who wanted to enter the Postal Service. Some of his proteges have made good records and have passed on. Others have retired, and still others are active in the service at this time.

Asked how he felt toward retirement, he made the following statement: "I believe I'm going to enjoy it very much. I do regret breaking daily contact with the wonderfully fine route patrons who have been so nice to me down through the years; and I certainly do regret breaking an even closer contact with the pre-

U. S. Investment In Price Supports Dips $221 Million

WASHINGTON — The government's investment in price-supported commodities totaled $7,183,657,405 as of April 30. This was about $221.4 million less than the investment a month ago.

The investment was made up of $4,722,930,978 in commodities owned outright by the Commodity Credit Corporation and $2,460,726,427 is outstanding on farm products still held by producers.

On the same date a year ago the investment was $7,427,918,532. Wheat continued to be the top item in the investment. The government owned outright 1.17 billion bushels valued at $2.3 billion and held loans totaling $147.4 million on 82.6 million bushels.

Corn in inventory totaled 825 million bushels valued at $953.3 million and loans on 890.8 million bushels totaled $998.4 million.

sent postoffice force. Anybody who wouldn't enjoy working with Postmaster Baze, Bill Parr, George Elbert Bennett, John Sutton, Speck Clark and Speedy Clark certainly would be hard to please. They have all shown me more consideration and greater kindness than I have deserved; and I truly appreciate and love them for it. I must also acknowledge deep gratitude and warm friendship for the following fine ex-postmasters under whom I had the privilege to serve and who did so much to make my years of service pleasant and enjoyable: Edward E. Layton, who later carved out an enviable record as Postmaster at Eastland and is now retired; that capable, efficient and well-liked Mrs. Rosa Boucher; and our own much-loved Dona Moorman who broke a few post-office records herself by serving many years longer than any other Gorman postmaster ever did; by being the first to successfully weather pressure caused by administration change in Washington; and by being the first Gorman postmaster to serve right on through to age retirement."

A native of Brownwood, Roscoe is a member of the Baptist Church and a Royal Arch Mason, has served as secretary of the local lodge and has served as Worthy Patron of the Eastern Star.

At the present time his son, Roscoe Jr., is his sub carrier and his second son, Charles Clay, is employed with the Missouri & Pacific Railway, his wife, Ruth, is the daughter of Will Haynes of Route 1. A town farmer, Roscoe is looking forward to continuing with his hobby.

The postoffice force, his route patrons, and his many friends generally, unite in congratulating him on the completion of a good job well and faithfully done, and wishing for him many years of happy and contented retirement; for they feel that the best life has to offer is not too good for him.

TEXAS FARM PRICES MOVE UP SLIGHTLY

AUSTIN — Prices received by Texas farmers and ranchers on May 15 for all farm products showed a 3 point increase from mid-April according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. The May 15 index was 263 percent of the January 1910-December 1914 base, compared with 260 last month and 248 a year ago.

An increase of 10 points in the all crop index offset a loss of 10 points in the livestock and livestock products group. The all crop index at 248 was 10 points above a month ago, and was 19 points above a year ago. The livestock and livestock products index was 286, a drop of 10 points from a month ago, and only 6 points above a year ago.

Most changes in crops from a month ago were slight. However, cotton showed an increase of 2½¢ per pound, from a month ago and was also 2½¢ above a year ago.

Compared with a month ago, grain sorghum showed a gain of 2¢ per cwt. and corn 1¢ per bushel to more than offset slight losses in hay, oats, and barley. The feed grain and hay index advanced only one point from last month but was 9 points (almost 8 percent) above a year ago.

Meat animal prices were all below those of a month ago; hogs 20¢ per cwt., beef cattle 90¢, calves 70¢, sheep 60¢ and lambs 70¢. The meat animal index was 5 points below mid-April. However, with the exception of hogs all prices were above May 1961 and the index was 21 points, almost 6 percent, above last year.

Broiler prices at 13.7¢ per pound were the lowest for May since this series started in 1940. Eggs were 1.1¢ below mid-April. Turkey prices continued at a low level. The price of 19¢ per pound being the lowest May price since 1942.

Wool at 48¢ per pound was 3¢ above last month but mohair at 69¢ was 1¢ lower. Wholesale milk dropped to $4.40 per cwt., the lowest May price since 1946, and 10¢ below the April price.

Lone Star State Joins Observance Of Dairy Month

COLLEGE STATION — June is a time of recognition by the nation of the dairy industry's vital contributions to the health and wealth of America. The month-long observance, now in its 26th year, continues to pick up promotional steam, says A. M. Meekma, extension dairy specialist, and ranks as the biggest single dairy food sales and information campaign in the food field.

June was selected as the time to tell the dairy industry story for production is at its peak during this season, explains Meekma. Businesses of all kinds endorse and support the observance and nationally 13 organizations cooperate with the American Dairy Association to sponsor it.

Richard M. Riley, a well-known Travis county dairyman, is serving as Dairy Month chairman in Texas, according to Meekma. Riley is an immediate past president of the ADA of Texas and currently a member of the Association's Board of Directors. He is also president of the Mid-Texas Milk Producers Association; vice president of the Travis County Dairy Herd Improvement Association and a member of the Travis County Dairy Program Building Committee.

Meekma and Riley point out that dairies throughout Texas and the nation will be holding "open house" during June and that many special events ranging from a "three minute cow wash" to milk drinking contests will help acquaint the public with the dairy industry and make dairymen better known to the public they serve.

Food editors, nutritionists and others concerned with the American diet will emphasize milk as "nature's most nearly perfect food" during the month and point out that proper diets for every American should include milk and milk products.

The two dairy leaders extend an invitation to the public to take advantage of the open house offer by dairymen and pay them a visit.

Easterwood Field was dedicated in 1941 as the Texas A&M College airport.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hollinsworth, Susie and Somer of Las Vegas, Nev. are visiting this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Martin.

Mrs. Kimble kept the five grandchildren in Ft. Worth with her while the Rev. and Mrs. Sanders were in the process of moving from Waco to Gorman.

Mrs. Bud Crawley of Stephen-

EVERY LITTER BIT HURTS

DON'T BE A LITTERBUG!

Drop every litter bit in the litterbag you should always carry in your car. Then carefully stash your travel-trash in the next roadside trash basket. That's the way you can best contain and prevent the ugly spread, the pile-up of trash that blotches America's beauty, and costs $50 million a year to pick up from major highways alone. Remember, just as every litter bit hurts when it's tumbling free — every litter bit helps when you land it in the litter basket.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

The recently announced completion of negotiations on tariff cutting under the present Reciprocal Trade Treaty Act probably best illustrates a point of futility about the proposals to slash U.S. protective tariffs even further.

It is the contention of the adherents of this new measure that if the U.S. cuts its tariffs to permit greater floods of cheap labor into the American market, the European nations will also cut their tariffs so that the U.S. can sell more to them. As part and parcel of the plan, the U.S. taxpayer will be called upon to finance aid for workers, and for industries that are liquidated in U.S.

In the recent tariff go around, one of the items on which tariffs were further cut was automobiles. The U.S. agreed to cut the tariff and European nations agreed to cut their tariffs on U.S. made cars.

From the standpoint of money it works about like the following. The U.S. import duty on one small, cheap European "poodle jumper" type of cars will be about $25 lower. The typical European duty on a standard sized American car will be about $125 lower.

Does this mean there will be a big rush on foreign orders for the products of Detroit? In 1960 the U.S. imported $596 million dollars worth of foreign cars, exported to Europe only $76 million worth.

There are two basic reasons why more Europeans do not buy American cars. One is that they do not make enough money to afford them. The second is that their own governments put such a high purchase tax on autos, foreign or domestic built, that they are priced out of the market.

C. W. Harder

Consider a typical illustration. A medium priced American car can now be landed in England for about $125 less than formerly. How powerful a buying incentive is this? It is perhaps as much an incentive as a price reduction of $500 on a 100 foot yacht would be to someone living on Social Security payments.

For there is a matter of a 55% purchase tax in England.

Thus, for example, an American medium priced car is sold by Detroit to a British dealer for $2,000. When freight, dealer mark-up, other extras are added, the cost to the potential buyer is around $3,000, or about equal to full two years income for the average Englishman.

But if this average Englishman figures out how he can afford it, he has to pay a tax of 55% on $2,000 manufacturer's price, or pay over $4,000.

This perhaps well illustrates the nonsense at the heart of a great deal of the current mystical fervor about "free trade."

For as long as governments use power to inflate wages in the U.S., or hold them down as in other nations, as long as world wide monopolies can rig prices of basic commodities, and as long as governments can levy taxes on transactions in the market place, the whole concept of "free trade" is an illusory myth.

How much longer will your water heater last?

Replace it now with a modern flameless ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

If your present water heater is operating on "borrowed time", why risk the inconvenience and possible added expense of a "breakdown"? Install a modern, quick recovery, electric water heater now and enjoy all these advantages that only flameless electric water heating can give you:

FAST. New quick recovery electric water heaters with immersed heating elements give you hotter water faster and it stays hot longer. All the heat goes into the water—none is wasted up a flue. And the tank is completely insulated—even on the bottom—to keep heat inside where it belongs.

SAFE. No flames to blow out accidentally. No fuel to leak. No pilot light or flue to worry about. An electric water heater gives you peace of mind.

CLEAN. No by-products of combustion to soil walls or ceiling. No unpleasant fumes. No flue to accumulate soot.

LONG LIFE. The tank bottom is not subjected to the corrosive action of flames. There are no valves to stick, no burner to adjust.

INSTALLS ANYWHERE. Because an electric water heater needs no flue, it can be installed anywhere in the house, close to the point of greatest use. This saves long heat-wasting pipe runs.

SAVE NOW GET THIS... $50 INSTALLATION CERTIFICATE

USDA NEWS TO REFLECT NEW DUAL BEEF GRADING SYSTEM

DALLAS — How will the new dual beef grading system of the U. S. Department of Agriculture affect the federal-state livestock market news reports?
Very little until trading practices start changing, say the reporters covering the livestock markets in this region.

Livestock market reports will continue to quote prices of live cattle as they are now. However, reporters are being trained in the dual grading system and will report sales along the dual grading concept to the extent it is reflected in the trade.

The same practice will be followed in meat reporting. Probably the first noticeable differences caused by dual grading will be seen in carcass beef prices.

How will the dual grading system benefit the cattleman? It is intended to reward him if he produces meat-type cattle, the kind of meat the consumer desires, and to give him lower prices if he produces cattle with wasty fat covering. In time, this will reduce the production of waste fat, with producer and consumer sharing the savings — and it should also strengthen the market for beef.

As the name implies, dual grading is based on two separate factors. One identifies eating quality such as USDA Prime, Choice, and Good. The other identifies the "cutability" or yield of trimmed retail cuts from the carcass. This is a numerical grade, ranging from 1 through 6, with the lower number representing animals with higher cutting yields.

Beef carcasses with high cutability come from meat-type cattle, which may well be worth $50 to $60 per animal more than excessively fat cattle of the same grade.

Both the federal-state livestock market news service and the federal beef grading service are handled by the Livestock Division of USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Federal-state livestock market news service is issued from eight southwestern markets. They include: Houston, San Antonio, Ft. Worth, Amarillo, Clovis, Oklahoma City, Tulsa and Ft. Smith.

These offices are connected by a leased teletype circuit with federal-state market news offices at Kansas City, Chicago, Wichita, Denver and other livestock centers.

Texas Tops Nation In Production Of Cattle And Sheep

COLLEGE STATION — Texas leads all other states in the live-weight production of cattle, calves and sheep, but ranks 15th in hog production. Iowa is the top hog producing state by a wide margin.

The total number of pounds of cattle and calves produced on Texas farms during 1961 reached 2.8 billion pounds, reports Ed Uvacek, extension livestock marketing specialist. During the same period, sheep and lamb production amounted to 195 million pounds while 288 million pounds of hogs were produced, he says.

Thus, Uvacek points out, Texas production last year of cattle and calves represented almost 10 percent of the nation's total output. Though the number of sheep and lambs produced in Texas far exceeds the next ranking state, the percentage of liveweight production amounted to only about 12 percent of the nation's total. This, Uvacek says, is due to the fact that Texans are not as heavily in the lamb feeding business as are operators in California and Colorado.

Liveweight production for the nation last year was 29,688 million pounds of cattle and calves; 20,216 million pounds of hogs and 1,688 million pounds of sheep and lambs.

TEXAS RANGES IMPROVED BY RECENT RAINS

AUSTIN — Range and pasture feed condition average 73 percent of normal on June 1 — 7 points below the 10 year average according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

This compares with 80 percent last month and 78 percent this time last year.

June 1, 1956 is the only time since the beginning of records in 1923 that range condition was below the present level. Ranges averaged 68 percent at that time.

A month of hot windy weather sapped topsoil moisture and slowed growth of native grasses and temporary pastures. All areas registered a drop in condition from last month ranging from 12 points in the Northern High Plains to 1 point in Trans-Pecos areas.

After many reporters had returned their reports, widespread rains were received. This will greatly improve conditions, but more will be needed if conditions are to be maintained.

Cattle Average 79 Percent
Cattle condition on June 1 averaged 79 percent, a drop of 3 points from last month and compares with 84 last year and a 10 year average of 83 percent.

Cattle are in the poorest condition for this time of year since 1956. Reporters in several areas commented that ranchers were reducing herds rather than resume supplemental feeding. Moisture

THE GORMAN PROGRESS, Eastland Co., TEXAS, JUNE 21, 1962

Meat Production In Texas Is Down For Second Month

AUSTIN — Commercial slaughter plants in Texas produced 98.6 million pounds of red meat during April, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. This is 1 percent below April 1961 and the second consecutive month that red meat production has been below the month a year earlier. Most of the decrease from last year was in beef production.

Red meat production during the first four months of 1962 totaled 401.5 million pounds — 3 percent above the comparable period last year.

received the last days of May should curtail sell-offs.

Hay prospects in Central, Blackland and eastern counties were boosted by the moisture. In southern areas, hay was already stunted by dry weather.

Sheep Drop 2 Points
Sheep condition averaged 77 percent on June 1 — 2 points below last month and 3 points below average. Plateau sheep ranges were dry much of the month. Shearing is virtually complete in all areas.

Goats Average 81 Percent
Average condition of Texas goats on June 1 was placed at 81 percent of normal, 1 point below last month, 3 points below last year and 2 points below average.

Cattle slaughtered during April totaled 113,000 head — 6,000 below this month last year. During the first four months of 1962, 464,000 head of cattle have been slaughtered in Texas, 4 percent above these months last year.

Calves killed during April numbered 55,000 head, down 1,000 head from a year earlier. The January-April calf kill totaled 224,000, 3 percent below the 232,000 in 1961.

HEY JOE - Why you work so hard?

Get um new mattress and box spring at Watkins Furniture Co. in Stephenville! Feel um so good in morning, get um twice as much work done!

At last! From Arkla-Servel comes a GAS heating and air conditioning unit that's really new... converts an ounce of GAS into more than enough heating and cooling to slug it out with Summer heat and Winter cold and never yield a degree... laughs at repair and utility bills, because it has NO MOVING PARTS in the heating and cooling cycle... wrings out, sifts and cools or heats to just the temperature that suits you... leaves dust and pollen outside to irritate the bees... operates like a coffee percolator and who ever heard of a coffee percolator wearing out?

If spending a penny to get 2c worth of heating and cooling makes sense to you, then call us for further information about the Arkla-Servel Sun Valley* All-Year® GAS air conditioner.

NATIONAL DAIRY PRINCESS IS TRULY A TRAVELING TEXAN

COLLEGE STATION — Miss Louise Knolle of Sandia, since being named National Dairy Princess at Chicago last September, has traveled widely telling of America's great and vital dairy industry. As a spokesman for the million dairy-farmer members of the American Dairy Association, she visited 26 states and South America and currently is on her June Dairy Month tour urging consumers to use dairy products for health reasons.

The South Texas beauty has traveled by plane, train and automobile and has run the weather gamut from snow, blizzards, fog and drizzle, rain to the clear and sunny. She has experienced temperatures ranging from 30 degrees below zero to 90 degrees above and by her own word has enjoyed every minute of it.

Miss Knolle has addressed six state legislatures, met 16 governors and 25 mayors and made countless friends for the dairy industry in her official capacity as American Dairy Princess.

The Texas lovely is no stranger to the dairy industry. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Knolle of Sandia and the operators of one of the nation's best Jersey dairies. The name of Knolle has long been associated with progressive dairying and fine Jersey cattle, and Princess Louise for several years was an outstanding 4-H Club member in Jim Wells county and was a member of their state-winning dairy cattle judging team three years ago. She is a capable judge of dairy animals. She demonstrated her ability during her recent visit to Columbia, South America, when she was asked to place a class of animals at one of their major dairy shows.

She won the title at the annual meeting of the American Dairy Association over 34 state finalists who represented some 30,000 initial entries.

Lint Consumption Due Big Decline

WASHINGTON — The Agriculture Department estimates cotton consumption during the 1961-62 marketing season at about 14 million bales, about 900,000 bales below last season.

This decline is likely, the department said in a review of the cotton situation, because the drop in cotton exports is expected to more than offset a prospective increase in domestic mill consumption.

The department estimated the supply of cotton for the current season at 21.7 million bales, down 400,000 bales from 1960-61. This would provide a carryover on Aug. 1, of about 7.7 million bales, up 500,000 bales from the carryover a year earlier.

FEEDER COSTS SAG IN MAY

KANSAS CITY — A set-back in the cost of stockers and feeders occurred in the first half of May. It was slight, but it was a decline — the first this year.

Replacement steers averaging over 500 pounds at 10 leading markets averaged $24.25 the first two weeks of this month. This compared with an April average of $24.85, and with a March cost of $24.05.

Rather slight though this was when compared with the earlier advances, it registered the sharpest drop for any month since last June.

May costs still are at the highest levels in three years for this month, and 8.8 per cent above last year, a gain of $2 a hundred. Three years ago the May average was $28.50.
