Mrs. Ed Wyatt, president, called the club to order and the Club Collect was read in unison.

Mrs. Eison was program chairman for the meeting and introduced Miss Ozella Pulley who reviewed the book, "Belles On Their Toes" by Frank Gilbreath and Ernestine Gilbreath Carey. Speaking in the first person in her calm, well-modulated voice as she gave the story, Miss Pulley very ably kept the attention of her listeners to the antics and trials of her family.

A gift was presented to her by the two hostesses.

Mrs. A. G. Lee, Past President of Heart of Texas District of the TFWC, read the poem "My Home Town" by Mrs. Kirk.

Mrs. Berenice Jeffs served punch and Mrs. Eison served cake and cookies. Also sandwiches, pickles and olives were served at the refreshment table.

A pink hydrangea and white Maderia tablecloth completed the club colors of pink and white. Iris, pine needles and lilacs were other Easter flowers in the living room.

Guests present were Mmes. A. G. Lee and George Rollins of De Leon, Berenice Jeffs and Miss Ozella Pulley, and members, Mmes. Ed Wyatt, Eugene Baker, S. A. Baker, Dona Moorman, E. C. Sutton, John Kirk and Lawrence Eison.

Woman's Study Club Enjoy Book Review By Mrs. J. D. Roach

The prevailing mood was very definitely one of gaiety last Monday evening when members and guests of the Woman's Study Club gathered in the home of Mrs. Don Laminack. And, in reality, the meeting was more in the nature of a party, for the group heard a guest speaker, Mrs. J. D. Roach of De Leon.

Mrs. Berenice Jeffs, president, welcomed guests, Mrs. Roach, Mrs. Glenn Justice, Mrs. B. E. Simpson, Mrs. Ben Koonce and Mrs. Estelle Craddock, and presided during a brief business buzz.

Most exciting of the business is the news that the swimming pool can maybe be built soon. It was never really admitted out loud, but some three or four weeks ago it seemed as if it would likely just have to be next year. All of you have been responding so well to the plea for funds in the letters that were sent out, and a site for the pool has been donated, so maybe the dream will come true in time for the rapidly approaching hot weather. If you haven't given, please do. The fund is still short and any amount will help.

Miss Ozella Pulley, program chairman, introduced the program topic, a book review, by reading the quote, "A house without books is like a room without windows." Mrs. J. S. Ripley then presented her long-time friend, Mrs. J. D. Roach, and announced that the book she would review was "Please Don't Eat The Daisies" by Jean Kerr. And indeed, both the book and the reviewer were delightful. The very talented Mrs. Roach was quite expert in capturing and expressing the humor in this very humorous book, a Mother's tale of the woes she had endured in rearing her imaginative young sons. Yes, the prevailing gay mood was certainly enhanced by this happy story.

Nor did the announcement that refreshments were ready dispel it. Co-hostesses Mmes. Dave Smith, Graydon Baze, Ray Rankin, and Don Laminack undoubtedly had been cooking all day. There were, appropriately, daisies (the cheese kind), and chicken salad sandwiches, assorted nuts, olives, pickles, and lots of chocolate cake. And there was fruit punch and coffee. The centerpiece looked good enough to eat, too, — it was pure Springtime captured

Motions were made to give $5.00 for Gorman Band Booster's Calendar listing and $5.00 to Cancer Crusade and carried unanimously.

After the business session Mrs. Delmon Eaves, club leader, gave a most interesting demonstration on "Section and Care of Cooking Utensils."

Recreation was led by Mrs. Glenn Jordan in the absence of club recreation leader, Mrs. Joe O'Neal. Mrs. Frank Williamson led the closing prayer.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following: Mmes. Bill Brown, Delmon Eaves, O. T. Hazzard, Albert Hendricks, Glenn Jordan, J. L. Morrow, Wayne White, Frank Williamson, and the hostess, Mrs. John Donaldson, and guests, Mark and Deliah Eaves.

The next meeting will be an all-day meeting in the home of Mrs. Joe O'Neal on April 25 to make cancer dressings. Visitors are always welcome.

in an arrangement of white and yellow iris amid greenery.

MR. & MRS. D. F. COGBURN TO CELEBRATE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY, APRIL 24

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Cogburn will celebrate their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary Sunday, April 24. They and their children take pleasure in inviting all their friends to share in the occasion in the Cogburn home at 4927 Seventeenth Street, Lubbock, Texas, anytime between the hours of 2 p. m. and 5 p. m. Sunday.

Fayette Densley Cogburn was born near Rucker and grew up there. Some of the old-timers may remember his parents, Newt and Lyda, and the old Cogburn home place where they reared a large family, many of whom are still living in the Gorman and De Leon communities.

Katie Myrtle Vaughn was born in Black Springs, Ark., coming to Gorman with her parents at the age of three. Kate and Fate both attended Hankins College at Gorman.

They were married April 21, 1916. For the next eleven years they farmed near De Leon, during which time Blanton, Bonnie Faye, Arnold and Foy Lee were added to the family.

In 1927 they decided to move to West Texas. Kate and Fate and the children remember that trip yet. They spent all night Christmas Eve night sitting in the car just outside Justiceburg, Texas, waiting for the creek to go down so they could see where the road was.

The Cogburns settled near Littlefield, Texas and farmed there for several years. In 1936 they moved to Lubbock in order that the children could attend Texas Technological College. Lubbock has been their home now for thirty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Cogburn have been members of the Church of Christ all their married life. They reared their four children in Christian principles and all are now active members in the Church. The children are all married and have families. Blanton lives in Colorado Springs, Colo.; Bonnie Faye Champie, near Sherman, Texas; Arnold, near Happy, Texas; and Foy Lee lives in Plains, Texas. They have ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

"THE LITTLE GOOBER" — There was a day when peanuts were considered good only for field laborers and farm animals. Many jokes have been made about the little fellow and there was a time when you could buy them for as little as ten cents a pound, roasted. Those were called the good ole' days.

TODAY, Senor Cacahuete Espanol (Mr. Spanish Peanut to you) is respected by scientists, doctors, and people in general from all walks of life.

Being so closely associated with the little cacahuete, we are prone to overlook, or take for granted, the part he plays in the economic stability of our community. Think about it. There isn't a person in this area who does not receive, directly or indirectly, some monetary benefit from peanuts grown in the Southwest. Why the Southwest?

Because two local young men had a "nutty" idea a few years ago and had the nerve to put their idea to work. It worked so well The American Cold Storage Corporation joined with them last year to help expand their plant and increase the volume of production so they can shell and store more peanuts locals and handle more peanuts from other points in the Southwest.

The larger this plant becomes the more people they will employ. The more employees they have, gives us a better chance to increase our school and church enrollment. . . . and our merchants will have more business.

Whatever you do to let these men know you appreciate what they are doing for our community may cause them to strive to do a little bit more. - - That last sentence sounds real mercenary, doesn't it? Just try and see if it works.
