Lesser Cornstalk Borers In This Area Causing Considerable Peanut Damage

The lesser cornstalk borer, a subterranean feeder, was found to be causing considerable damage to peanuts this week. In one field near Stag Creek, the lesser cornstalk borer was infesting from 50 to 75% of the plants. They feed principally on the pegs, pods, stems and roots of peanuts. The pegs are cut off immediately below the surface of the ground, and the developing nuts are hollowed out. The stems and roots are scarred and may be girdled so that the plant dies if the infestation becomes severe.

The lesser cornstalk borer adult is a brown moth with a wingspan of approximately three-fourths of an inch. The males have light brown to dark forewings with gray to black margins. The front wings of the female are almost black throughout. The moths are most active at dusk and early evening. During the day they stay under the leaves of the peanut plants. The moths live an average of about 8 days and the female deposits an average of 124 eggs.

The eggs are greenish-white when laid but change to pink within a day and become a deep red before hatching. They are laid on the soil around the base of the plants or lower stems. It takes about 3 days for the eggs to hatch.

When the eggs hatch, the tiny larvae which emerge have pale yellow bodies with the top back part of each segment bright red. As the larvae mature, they change to pale yellowish-green with reddish-brown bands and stripes. The larvae pass through six instars, or growth stages, before they become full grown, attaining an average length of two-thirds of an inch. Their basic color is bright green to turquoise, striped longitudinally with brown. Their heads are a highly polished dark brown to black.

The larvae feed on the peanuts and construct a tube composed of sand, silk and excrement which lies horizontally in the soil and is loosely attached to the stem where the borer tunnel starts. Usually the larvae are located within an inch of the soil surface. The silken larval tubes are very delicate and vary in length up

He emphasized that farming remains one of the most hazardous occupations in American today. He also said farm and ranch families can reduce these costly farm accidents by using some of the tools of safety, such as seat belts, fire extinguishers, and SMV emblems.

In his official proclamation, County Judge Bailey said: "All the citizens of Eastland County are deeply concerned about the safety and well-being of farm families from whom we received our abundance of food and other essential agricultural commodities."

"Farm and ranch accidents reap a grim harvest of approximately 150 fatalities and thousand more suffer painful disabling injuries each year in Texas, plus the great economic loss, cause profound physical and psychological damage suffered by members of farm families that are involved."

"During this special week, a statewide farm accident prevention education program will be undertaken by the Texas Farm Bureau, the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, the Agricultural Extension Service, 4-H Clubs, the Texas Safety Association, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers of America, Young Farmers and Young Homemakers of Texas and the Eastland County Farm Bureau, with the theme "Think and Act Safely."

County Farm Bureau President Jack Cozart said that a different phase of safety would be emphasized each day during the week: Sunday - reverence for life; Monday - safety begins at home; Tuesday - agricultural chemicals; Wednesday - prevent falls; Thursday - rural highway safety; Friday - farm machinery; Saturday - recreation safety.

Approximately 5000 delegates are expected to attend and awards will be presented to chapter members who have earned the Lone Star Farmer, Area Star Farmer, Star Chapter Farmer of Texas, Star Greenhand of Texas awards. Research Funds - Allotment Bill Is Discussed By Group

The Comanche County Farmers Union held their called meeting last Thursday night at 9 p. m. at the SCS building. The meeting was called to order by the president, Lyndell Coan.

Coan stated that he had received correspondence on the allotment transfer bill now in Congress. The bill had been almost completely re-written and its number is now 11222. The O'Neal bill is now called a "Clean Bill." It still allows transfer of allotments out of county by sale or lease and still requires a two-thirds referendum vote in the county to transfer. This land is not transferable if a lien or mortgage is being held by anyone.

If there is ten percent difference in the average bushels per acre in the area to be transferred to or from the Secretary of Agriculture still has the power to limit the acreage. Also under the new provisions the maximum amount of time to be allowed will be 5 years on transfers.

The bill also stated there would be no effect on the national peanut allotment program.

The Farmers Union and the Chamber of Commerce are still opposed to the bill, according to Farmers Union President Lyndell Coan and De Leon CofC Manager Ham Locke.

Coan then gave a brief review of the last meeting.

Arbilla Wilson of San Antonio is visiting this week with her sister, Cora Richmond. They attended the Leon Homecoming on Sunday.

Mrs. Laura Westmoreland left Tuesday for Andrews following an extended time spent in her home here. She will remain in Andrews for some time for medical treatments.

Mr. and Mrs. Brownie Woods and Cheri of Midland visited last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huddleston in De Leon, and in Gorman with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Speedy Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bohannon, Jack and Edward of Phoenix, Arizona visited in the home of Mrs. Bert Kent from Thursday to Tuesday.

Weekend visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jay and Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Jay were Mrs. Frank Ragland and Fran of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parks of Eastland, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jay, Kelly and Phala of Houston.

The next item of business was the $50,000 peanut research grant, the reason for the meeting. Ham Locke read a resolution which had been prepared. The resolution included a breakdown of nine different general items on which the research money could be spent. They were irrigation and water management, diseases, weed control, insect and nematode control, harvesting and drying, plant breeding, fertilization, extension and cooperation and miscellaneous.

The resolution then stated that in 1966 in the United States the crop brought approximately 45 to 50 million dollars. The resolution also stated that there were approximately 80,000 acres on which basic research could be done, asked Secretary of Agriculture John White to approve the use of the grant by contract through the Texas A&M Extension System, that experimental pilot plots could be set up in the area and for a Grower Committee to be formed.

Mr. Ross Wilson, manager of Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association, said Mr. Locke was right, but that Comanche County had 53,000 acres of peanuts while Eastland County had 33,000 and Erath County had 18,000, almost one-third of the peanut allotment in Texas. Last year Comanche County sold eight million dollars worth of peanuts while Eastland County had five million and Erath County had two and one-half million.

He had talked with Dr. Cross of Texas A&M and B. C. Langley of the West Cross Timbers Experiment Station in Stephenville during the past several months about the possibilities of peanut research in the area and on which phase it could be best applied. Mr. Langley, as most folk in this area already knew, had developed the Starr Variety of peanuts which has been most profitable all over the world. This variety was in research 13 years before it was finished for production. The SWPGA granted Mr. Langley $40,000 for research purposes.

Mr. Langley stated he thought research could best be used in three phases of peanut production, namely, irrigation and water management, nematode and related diseases or genetics and breeding. These areas had been discussed previously in the Thursday night meeting, and was finally agreed as the main points of research to be asked for.

When asked about pilot plots that could be used, Mr. Wilson was asked about the farm in Caddo County, Oklahoma and if they were pleased with the progress they had made. He said the farm, 20 acres, was under the management of Oklahoma State University (formerly Oklahoma A&M). The two main points of research on the farm were irrigation and diseases. He also stated the USDA estimates losses each year at 28% from diseases.

It was decided on by those present to ask a meeting with Secretary of Agriculture White, and one of his able assistants, Bill Pieratt, to see if this would be the best way to use the money from the grant.

"Fine, I'll take it," the boy said, "but don't cut it off the vine yet. I'll call for it in a week or so."

WASHINGTON, D. C. — WE ARE STILL TRYING TO BUY FRIENDS and influence people with the taxpayers' hard-earned money.

THE FOREIGN AID BILL IS SOON to come before the Congress, and it is pretty much the same old story of the past 15 years — keep the hand-outs going and everybody around the world will love us.

THE FACT IS, SOME OF THOSE WE HAVE HELPED MOST kick Uncle in the seat of his pants the hardest.

WE CONTINUE TO DIP OUR OAR INTO EVERYONE'S business — Rhodesia, the Congo, Greece — to play Santa Claus and the policeman at the same time.

NOW, IT IS PROPOSED THAT, FOR ALL INTENTS AND purposes, we give away the Panama Canal, which has cost the American people more than $5 billion since our Treaty with Panama in 1903. This magnanimity on the part of the United States is supposed to placate Panama's demands and to show all Latin America that we no longer claim sovereignty over that which we have bought and paid for in perpetuity.

SINCE THE BOLSHEVIK REVOLUTION OF 1917, the Russians have demanded and announced their intention to overthrow U. S. control of the Canal. They have never lost sight of that goal. After last month's Mid-East crisis, the Soviets repeated their demand that all strategic waterways be put under "international" control. Yet, that same crisis and the shut-down of the Suez Canal by Egypt, demonstrate how important it is to freedom that the Panama Canal remain in strong and responsible U. S. hands.

TO "INTERNATIONAL" THE CANAL OR TO SURRENDER our sovereignty over it, can have the effect of augmenting Soviet power in the Western world and to weaken our own capability to resist aggression everywhere.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT, QUOTED IN THE KANSAS CITY STAR on December 2, 1918, following the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution, had this to say:

"THE PANAMA CANAL MUST NOT BE INTERNATIONALIZED. It is our canal; we built it; we fortified it; and we will protect it and we will not permit our enemies to use it in war. In time of peace all nations shall use it alike, but in time of war our interest at once becomes dominant."

THE DETAILS OF PROPOSALS TO ABROGATE EXISTING Treaties over the Panama Canal and to change its status of sovereignty are not yet known in detail. Both Houses of Congress, however, have repeatedly reiter-

LEON HOMECOMING

Well, our homecoming Sunday was enjoyed by all. We had a wonderful day visiting with loved ones and friends that we had known down through the years. Food, food at the noon hour was plentiful. The oldest person was Mrs. Allie Rawls, 88 years, and the youngest was Little Miss Rene Michelle Hoover of Gorman, 11 mos. old granddaughter of Mrs. Roma Porter. Mrs. Arvilla Wilson of San Antonio came the farthest. We enjoyed the day and it was a day that we will relive and have memories of in our hearts in the future. We elected new officers for another year. Mr. George Bell, President, and Mrs. Harley Rawls, Secretary. We'll be looking forward to next year. We ated their approval of the fundamental provisions of the Treaty of 1903. Should the Senate approve, a profound change will come over the operation of the Canal. The question to be seriously considered is the soundness and workability of any new and untested concept — the concept of whether the Canal can still serve U. S. interests if it is no longer operated under the direct control and sovereignty of our Nation.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE THE RIGHT TO CLEAR ANSWERS to many questions involved in this proposed transaction. Paramount are these:

WOULD A NEW TREATY PROTECT the American soil of the Canal Zone, obtained by both Treaty with Panama and purchase of property from individual owners?

WILL ANY NEW TREATY ABROGATE THE BODY OF LAW in the Panama Canal Zone Code and the administration of justice based upon it?

WILL ANY NEW TREATY PROTECT the investment of approximately $5 billion made by U. S. taxpayers since the building of the Canal?

WILL ANY NEW TREATY PROTEST U. S. interests in the Canal in the event that a sea level design or nuclear excavation prove impractical?

IS IT PRETTY WELL UNDERSTOOD that we may propose the building of another canal, but probably without sovereignty over it for the protection of our tremendous investment?

OUR SOVEREIGNTY IN THE CANAL ZONE has been used for the good of all and honorably exercised for civilization. The demands of Panamanian politics and to show our generosity to the world are hardly enough to justify giving it away.

ICC Examiner Asks Train Halt From Stamford-Belmead

By JOHN MOORE
Reporter-News Capital Bureau
July 12, 1967

WASHINGTON — The dropping of train service between Stamford and Belmead, outside Waco, was recommended to the Interstate Commerce Commission by one of its examiners Tuesday.

The examiner, John F. Collins, agreed with the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad that the 250-mile line is a losing proposition and should be abandoned. Only freight trains now use the tracks. But the recommended order provides for continuation of service on the 25-mile portion between Dublin and Gorman, a stretch where freight operations has remained profitable.

The Dublin-Gorman line would be operated by the Texas Central Railroad, which would be reorganized to give control to a local citizens group headed by M. E. Shell.

Texas Central owns the right-of-way but has leased it to the MKT Railroad since 1915. Reorganization would be accomplished by having local residents buy up 2,700 shares of common stock at $10 a share.

The new stock would be in lieu of 26,750 shares of common stock with a par value of $100, and cancellation of 13,250 shares of preferred stock with par value of $100.

MKT in its petition said the trackage is in such poor condition it would cost $4 million to repair. Because of declining revenues on that line, MKT said it would rather abandon service than invest in the needed improvements.

After considering testimony presented last Feb. 13 and 14 in Fort Worth the ICC examiner found that abandonment is justified because revenues are falling off and because it would permit the Texas Central reorganization to take place. Also, the affected area is served by truck transportation and part by other rail lines, Collins said.

His recommended order is subject to approval by the ICC itself. A spokesman said such approval would normally follow almost automatically if no protests are filed within the 30-day appeals period.

Editor's Note: Thanks to the Abilene Reporter-News for permission to reprint the above article.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Atchison spent Monday visiting in Goldthwaite with Mrs. Atchison and the Irby Mauneys.

Has Interesting Hobby

Mr. W. H. Bohannon of Fort Worth, a former resident of Gorman, working as plumber here during the 30's, was here over the weekend to visit relatives and to attend the Bohannon family reunion. Mr. Bohannon has turned his hobby into a profitable business.

The following is a letter written by Mr. Bohannon telling something of his hobby and how he became interested in rabbits.

How I Got Interested In Raising Rabbits
By W. H. Bohannon, Sr.
In December of 1953, I had a severe heart attack, the doctor told me positively that I would never be able to work anymore. Since that time I have had 15 heart attacks, one major surgery. I was in the hospital a long time with double pneumonia, I knew I would have to find some kind of hobby to do. I tried leather craft in my home, made pretty good at that for a year or so, I got nervous and quit.

Then during the National Convention in Fort Worth in 1960, Mr. Hoyle Kidd from Maryville, Tenn., my son-in-law's uncle brought some Chin Rabbits to the Convention. He was at this time a widely known Chin breeder. During a conversation he asked me if I'd like to try to raise some rabbits. I assured him that I would like to try, so he left me a few of 6-8's. I exhibited them the following January, they were the only Chins there, and I won first place. The following year I raised three litters, and chose the best ones for breeders and sold the rest to other breeders. All this time Chin breeders told me there were no breeders in Texas. I finally got breeders to exhibit Chins at the shows, now I am selling Chin Rabbits all over Texas to breeders and now every show or club has Chin Sweepstake. I have sold Chin Rabbits in the Northern States including Kansas, Iowa and Illinois. There are now 15 breeders in Texas. I have worked hard to get Chins started in Texas. I am now Breed Chairman for the Texas State Show which is set for April 22-23, 1968.

This is how big my hobby has grown and I am very happy with it and enjoy every minute. My greatest joy is attending the local shows. Without this hobby I would be an excellent one.

My sincere advise to anyone, or retired persons who have time on their hands, is to get interested in a hobby, and raising Chins would be sitting in my arm chair doing nothing.

Bohannon, Jr., and Bill of Irving; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bohannon, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kent, Shannon, Randa and Shelley of Ranger; Mr. and Mrs. J. T.
