Mozell Rhymes To Retire June 1

Mrs. Mozell Rhymes, who has served as City Secretary since April 14, 1962, will retire on June 1st.

the years. She has met and made many lasting friends. She will continue to assist at the office whenever she is needed.

When asked what she planned to do after retiring, she smiled and said "nothing." However, she does plan to go fishing and golfing and visiting the children and grandchildren with her husband, Frank, who retired three years ago from Texas-Federal Inspection Service. And too, she said she might just use that porch swing her daughter, Beth, gave her last summer.

Mozell will be missed by everyone, as she was always willing to assist anyone at any time in her capacity as city secretary. She has served well as a diplomat and ambassador for the city. We wish her many happy years of "doing nothing."

Mozell has ably served in the capacity of City Secretary under seven mayors terms, all serving 2 years with the exception of the present mayor, who has served seven years.

When Mozell went to work for the city, James Mearns was mayor and commissioners were W. D. Preston, George L. Smith, G. C. Acrea and J. Davis Smith, E. E. Todd and A. E. Smith.

She served as city secretary under the mayorship of Ross Wilson, with J. Davis Smith, Charles Underwood, E. E. Todd, C. O. Revels and A. E. Smith as commissioners. Following Ross's term (J. Davis Smith) was elected mayor with Oda Monroe, Charles Underwood, C. O. Revels and A. E. Smith as commissioners. W. C. "Check" Smith was appointed to fill out the term of J. Davis Smith, with commissioners Charles Underwood, Oda Monroe, A. E. Smith, C. O. Revels and Bruce Hirst.

Wayne Eaves served as mayor for two years with commissioners Charles Underwood, C. O. Revels, A. E. Smith and Bruce Hirst.

Gene Baker served as mayor for two years with commissioners A. E. Smith, L. F. Kellogg, F. M. Dennis, C. O. Revels, Rodney Stephens, Jo Duran, Ray Hughes, Don Spraberry and George Simmons. W. C. Smith succeeded Baker as mayor and commissioners were George Simmons, Don Spraberry, Rodney Stephens, Ray Hughes, A. E. Smith, E. E. Todd, Billy Joe Dennis, Mike McCormick and T. N. Harrison.

Mozell states it has been a most enjoyable experience, and when she moved to Gorman in 1950 she never dreamed she would become City Secretary and hold the position for 15 years.

She feels sad when she thinks of retiring, as she will miss the daily association she has enjoyed with people over

Band Concert Ends Fantastic Year For Band

The Spring Band Concert, under the direction of Tim Falls, held on Thursday evening, ended the school year's activities on a beautiful note, and a fantastic program.

The stage was beautifully decorated with a spring setting of a star-lighted blue sky background with large sequin decorated butterflies and a rose trellis. Roses and greenery also outlined the stage and hand rails.

The band has received many honors in district and area contests during the year and their fans showed their appreciation with the many rounds of applause and standing ovation.

Seeing them all so well groomed in their pretty long dresses and suits and playing so well in a beautiful setting, we recalled the many times they played their hearts out at the football games in the cold, rain, snow and sleet - we were proud of them then as well as Thursday night. After all, they are the spirit of the football games and school, and the large crowd attending the concert enthusiastically showed their appreciation.

Doug Warren very capably serves as master of ceremonies for the program.

The Tonette Band presented the first part of the program with Anything Goes. The antics and music by this band is always an audience pleaser.

Members of the Fifth and Sixth Grade Band presented four numbers with a trombone solo by Jimmie Needham.

The program was concluded with the High School Band playing seven arrangements, including an unusual number, Tokyo Towers. Several members of the band were featured in solos.

Mr. Falls presented awards to Jennifer Roby, Tonette Band, Jimmie Needham, Fifth and Sixth Grade Band.

Receiving the Outstanding Underclass Awards were Paula Eaves and Paulette Baze.

Ron Roby received the Outstanding Senior Award.

Jerry Dennis received the Best Player Award. The Best Marcher Award went to Darrel Swanner.

Receiving G Achievement Awards were Patricia Hudson, Kala Odell, Beth Rodgers, Jackie Dennis, Bill Townley, Peyton Vaughn, Bethany Gibbs Allan Swanner, and Andy Kinser.

The bass was selected as the Best Section of the band and awards were presented to these members, Darrel Swanner, Sarah Slaton, Darla Good, Bill Townley, Vonnice Rodgers and Deliah Eaves.

Sarah Jo Porter received a plaque for her piano accompaniment performed for all band contestants in area and district competition.

The band members presented a gift certificate to Mr. Falls and following the program he was honored with a surprise pounding in the Band Hall. Punch and cookies were served to band members, parents and guests.

THIRD HIGHEST RANKING STUDENT BETHANY GIBBS

School Hill News

Mrs. Bill Riddell
Tena Marchman of Lingleville and Linda Johnson spent Wednesday in Fort Worth with Tena's brother, who is in the hospital there.
Valera Brown and Patsy Moon spent Friday in Fort Worth doing some shopping and seeing the doctor.
Eddie Johnson wants to do some reporting. Just don't you believe him, he's pretty "windy". Giff will agree with me. Everything was going along fine until Eddie drove up. It was all innocent, Eddie. We were only drilling oil wells.
I told William the kids should have an encyclopedia. He said "encyclopedia, my eye. Let them ride the bus just like I did."
Clayton Mayfield and Bud Whitefield of Dublin, Ruby Stokes of Lingleville, Patsy Moon and I spent last Monday in Fort Worth visiting Truman Mayfield in the hospital there. While we were eating lunch I yelped at my uncle to help me. He grabbed the tray of dishes I was holding, but it wasn't the dishes that were falling down. Oh! well, there were only a couple of hundred people there to see. Then someone said he'd been asked to knock when he comes in and he'd never had to knock at his own home before, but then he'd never done what he did before either and he's got to where he goes to a night club just to see if the handles on his car doors work. Such a strange party. My uncle came home Thursday from the hospital. Glad you're feeling better, Truman.
Aunt Fannie Mulloy of Stephenville and Aline Elston spent Thursday in Temple.
Belinda Staude and Cindy Moon helped with the FHA bake sale at Stephenville on Saturday.
Dorothy Bays spent part of last week in the Temple hospital for some special training for nurses.
Jay Moon of Stephenville spent Saturday with J. C. and Patsy Moon and family.
Oma Lee and Tena Riddell visited awhile Saturday with Leo Williams of Desdemona. Sorry we missed you, Eloise. Hope you're feeling better, David.
Visitors with us this week were the Grimshaws of Kokomo, Musicks and Ruby Stokes of Lingleville, and Jack Blackwell of Ranger.
Well, well, will wonders never cease? Heard this unbelievable tale this week about James Mac and Merle Jo Parks (after a hundred years of being married) going on their honeymoon. With the worse kind of crew you ever heard of. They call themselves the "Mild Drinking Crew." They are Clell and Dorothy Bays, Tommy and Valera Brown, Garner and Varela Rice, J. C. and Ernestine Roberson, all of Lingleville, Joe and Ann Staude, J. C. and Patsy Moon. They all enjoyed German food in Fort Worth. They announced there that James Mac and Merle Jo were on their honeymoon and even sang a song for them. They couldn't hardly decide whether to sing "behind closed doors" or "impossible dreams", but after looking at the grey hair, they sang "help me make it through the night."
We visited with Ralph and Aline Elston on Saturday night. Stacy Elston of Lingleville and Wayne Shaw of Dublin were there also. Then Ralph and Aline spent Sunday with us and all enjoyed the weekend. We finished it off at their house with Joe, Ann, Belinda and Joey Staude there, too.
Well I've gotta get busy. You know the saying: from dust we came and to dust we'll return." Well, there's someone either coming or going under my bed, and I must check on it.

SENIOR CITIZENS NEWS

What a wonderful week that just passed. Cloudy all the week, until yesterday, Saturday. Such a fine sunny day. The clouds were so threatening all week. Then on Friday night a shower. So wonderful that the hail and cyclones have missed us. That is something we are so thankful for.

The old 84 gang is down to a few notches below zero. How we are so glad that Granny Kent and Baldy are home once more. Fats and Murel are doing so much better at last. Ctt Fuzz and Double Six are on the mend with so much garden stuff growing now. He is supervisor, though he lets his slave do all the work on it.

Last Monday was Mr. Monroe's birthday. His wife (bless her heart) baked a large beautiful cake and her son brought it to our office. He served us cake and cold drinks. Thanks young mtn. He agreed to furnish the feathers when we dip Oda. Isn't that nice of him. The entire gang enjoyed the feast, including Slim, the Cowboy (Pickens). Our gang is still so honery. Some are getting so fussy lately.

Marcy ate Clyde out so Friday so bad that I am afraid that he cannot sit down for a week. He was so serious with it, too. The fish are still being fed very regularly now by some of our gang.

Just 58 years ago today George Hallmark and I came in on the same train at Eastland. My! what a change in just a few days. The auto and plane industry were in their infancy then, or had just been in us about ten years at that time. No paved roads in those days.

Several years ago they were digging a grave for an elderly man in East Texas. An old colored man was helping dig the grave. All at once he yelled "Oh Lordy Lordy," jumped out of the grave and started running and patting his hands still yelling. The men looked in the grave. He had dug into another coffin. They could not coax him in that graveyard again. In a few years the doctor told the old darkey that he could not do anything to help him. He told his folks to not bury him in that old "Hainted" graveyard. They obeyed his last wish.

Did any of you see that funeral on TV Friday night where that woman was buried in her sports car? She wanted to be put in that tilted seat so she could rest comfortably. She was hoping to be the first to drive a fancy car on those

SCRIPTURES SPEAK

"Given To Us Eternal Life" "And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son." — I John 5:11.

One of the truly great assurances revealed in God's word and enjoyed by all Christians is the assurance: "God hath given to us eternal life." The testimony is abundant that Christ came into the world in order that his disciples "might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." (John 10:10) No one would deny the fact that as many "as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ." (Gal. 3:27). No one would deny the fact that, because of obedience, "ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." (Col. 3:3).

But the problem that develops in the minds of many people as they try to comprehend what John has written in I John 5:11 is the idea that once a person has the assurance: "God hath given to us eternal life," he cannot be lost. This concept, when put into its simplest terms, teaches that once a person is saved, he is always saved. Nowhere in the context of I John 5:11 (nor in any scriptural context) is the assurance given that once a person is saved it is impossible for him to be lost.

While we know that, as Christians, "God hath given to us eternal life," we know also that we must continue to "walk in the light, as he is in the light." (I John 1:7). We must continue to "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world." (I John 2:15). We must continue to keep God's commandments for he that "keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him." (I John 2:4).

In light of what is taught in these and other passages of scripture, it is folly to teach or accept the erroneous concept that: "By the decree of God, for the manifestation of his glory, some men and angels are predestinated unto everlasting life, and others fore-ordained to everlasting death." (Confession of Faith, Chapter 3).

The key to understanding I John 5:21 and all passages of scripture dealing with who will enjoy eternal life is found in the final chapter of the book of Revelation. Jesus has said: "Blessed are they that do (emphasis-mine) his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life. . . And whosoever will (emphasis-mine) let him take the water

"Golden Streets" in the other world. I wish her the best of luck.

You know Vice President Mondale had a conference with Mr. Vorester of Rhodesia last Friday in Yugoslavia. If I was a betting man I would bet ten to one he could not tell the truth under oath. You know that in Rhodesia the blacks outnumber the whites about 8 to 1. Though the whites rule the country, Mondale said in America "we let the majority rule." He knows that is not true. As we all know that some two bit donkey Federal Judge says for the whites to be bused 20 to 30 miles to a negro community and the negro pupils are sent to white communities. Why does he make such statements when we all know that they are ---? That is not true Democracy, as the majority should rule.

Now I notice where the Mexicans in Texas are complaining and saying that 85 percent vote for Carter. They are wanting more help from Washington. If you do not like America, the road is open to leave. Any person who comes to our country should try to learn to love and respect it or get out, as you must be needed in your own country more than you are here.

I notice where the Legislature at Austin wants to buy school books for the church schools. This is not right. You are supposed to keep church and state apart. Just look at some of the countries that have churches supported by the government. God forbid it ever happening here.

Look up and smile. Remember a smile will help you win. Remember that the sun is shining very bright just beyond those dark stormclouds, so be ready to greet it with a smile. It will help you and all you come in contact with. Try it one time.

Benzene Standard Will Not Affect Small Businesses

WASHINGTON — Congressman Omar Burleson announces that independent petroleum marketers and jobbers will not be covered by the EMERGENCY TEMPORARY BENZENE STANDARD, which the Occupational Safety and Health Administration put into effect May 21.

OSHA had announced the standard in the April 27, Federal Register requiring that all employees be monitored and equipped with respirators.

Congressman Burleson had protested the fact that sufficient time had not been given to almost 10,000 small business men who would be affected by this requirement. The medical validity of the standard was not in question, but the fact that neither sufficient time nor the necessary equipment was available for businessmen to come into compliance with such a standard was protested.

Congressman Burleson indicated his gratification that this segment of the industry will not be covered by this standard. He also made note of the fact that we are finally getting OSHA's attention in view of the recent announcement that it would take a "more common sense approach" in its administration of the Occupational Safety and Health Laws.

It's Strawberry Season

With the appearance of fresh strawberries, summer has arrived and this Strawberry Blossom Cake is a perfect way to salute the season. Combining the best features of American strawberry shortcake and a continental fruit torte, its preparation is simple. An 8-inch layer is split horizontally to form 3 layers. Then fresh, sliced strawberries and thawed Birds Eye Cool Whip non-dairy whipped topping are combined as filling for the layers and the whole is frosted with more whipped topping which has been tinted a delicate pink. Prepare the cake at least 2 hours before serving, so the strawberry layers have time to mellow.

Strawberry Blossom Cake

1 baked 8-inch yellow cake layer, cooled	1 container (9 oz.) frozen whipped topping, thawed
1 pint fresh strawberries, hulled and sliced	5 or 6 drops red food coloring (optional)
1 tablespoon confectioners sugar

Split cake layer, making 3 thin layers. Combine strawberries and sugar. Top 2 cake layers each with 1 cup whipped topping and 1 cup strawberries. Stack and top with third layer. Tint remaining whipped topping pink with red food coloring; frost top and sides of cake. Garnish with additional strawberries, if desired. Chill at least 2 hours before serving. Makes about 8 servings.

Shopping Sense That Saves Cents

Skyrocketing prices have brought more and more consumers down to earth in considering how to spend their money. Whether budgets are large or limited, working at becoming wise shoppers seems to be the norm these days.

When you consider that grocery shopping is the largest single outlay of money that many families have each week, it's important to know how much you're getting for your money for each item placed in the shopping cart.

Reminders for concerned consumers that make a lot of sense are provided from the Scott Paper Company Home Service Center. Start with a basic, yet often overlooked rule: be prepared.

Remember to make a shopping list — not only to prevent forgetting something, but as a means of controlling what you buy and as a deterrent from purchasing unnecessary items.

Remember those coupons — you can't use a coupon that you left at home.

Make an extra effort to check unit prices. Those are the little price per pound tags on the shelves under specified items. By using that helpful device, you'll know exactly what you are getting for your money.

Concentrate on good buys for non-food items in the same way you look for best values in the foods you buy. After a trip up and down the aisles of a supermarket, it's easy to see that shopping baskets are filled not only with food, but with a variety of non-food items as well.

It's not unusual to see people checking produce to make sure it's fresh, and not wilted or bruised. Just as much attention should be given to non-edibles.

Always read the label —

"My electric bills have gone up like everyone's.

Of course, working for Texas Electric, I'm more aware of how expensive new plants are and how high fuel is. But that won't solve my problem at home.

That's why I'm checking the weatherstripping around all my doors and the caulking around the windows.

I mean I could feel air under the door and I'm paying for it. So I put storm doors on and that really made a difference. Gives me four inches of dead air. And that's a lot better than nothing."

We Pay Tribute to Those Who Gave Their Lives...

Today we pause to remember...with gratitude and respect... the men throughout this nation's history who answered the call to arms and lost their own lives so that we can live in freedom and dignity. Today we count our blessings; we also consider their cost. Nobody ever said it better than Abraham Lincoln: "...from these honored dead we take increased devotion...to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion."

Today let's pledge ourselves to just and lasting peace.
