The peanut harvest is in full swing now and the farmers are really going after it fast and furious as the weatherman is predicting the movement of a front into the area which is expected to bring some showers. The crop results are, of course, way below the anticipated outcome back when all the rain fell early in the season. The dry weather sure hurt the peanut crop when the plants needed the moisture the worst. Most indications are that the peanut crop will be about 50 percent of the normal crop. Of course some of the producers had such bad luck that they just dug and baled the crop. Others, who got a shower or two along the way came out with a fairly good harvest. But of course, overall, the crop will be far below the normal expectations.

Noticed that the J. S. Ripleys have completed their new home out on the Duster road and should be moving in real soon. We have a picture elsewhere in the paper. Poor ole J. S. finally got all that cleaning up done where we could take the picture. Man, that "Honey-Do" work is sure hard on a guy. I told him that kind of job was "Squaw Work", but evidently it did not turn out that way. Oh well, the best made plans just don't turn out sometimes J. S. The Ripleys have a pretty home.

Noticed that the Eison home on the Desdemona hwy. is receiving a renovation project. Extensive exterior work is being done on windows, doors, etc., and the exterior is being repainted. The place is sure beginning to look nice.

Work is progressing on the new home of the C. W. Swanners in the southeast part of town. We took a picture on Wednesday morning and hope it turns out okay.

I took another picture of the expansion project at the Eaves Bros. plant in the Kokomo community Wednesday since the sampler and scales have been added and the walls of the warehouses have been installed.

The work on the expansion project at Birdsong Peanuts hull and pellet plant is coming along nicely. Will have another photo of the facilities as soon as the project is completed.

Work on the renovation of the hotel housing project is underway and is coming along pretty well. We still haven't gotten the picture of the contract being awarded to Clark Construction, but we hope to soon.

George and Donna Fraley have moved a mobile home on the lot just south of Mrs. Vergie Brown and are getting settled in.

The Panthers had bad luck at Blanket on Friday night and turned the ball over 6 times via the fumble and interception route and were defeated by a 26-6 score and passably knocked out of the playoff berth they were hoping for. The Tigers will have to lose to the Mountaineers and the Panthers will have to win over Rising Star Friday night to get a spot in the playoffs. But if the Tigers win over Santa Anna, then they are in the playoffs no matter what the outcome of the Gorman and Rising Star game is due to the Tigers having defeated Gorman. So the fans will have to wait and see how things come out on Friday night before the play-off berth will be decided.

Most folks will be getting their paper a little late this hospital, and was, therefore, unable to attend the wedding.

The altar was decorated with a center arch candelabra with spiral stands on either side entwined with greenery and holding long white tapers. The aisles were marked with lighted carriage lamps.

The bride wore a designer gown of celesta chiffon embellished with Venice lace.

The Queen Anne neckline featured a crystal pleated ruffle and delicate Venice appliques. The Gown's fitted bodice and waist also displayed the intricate lace workmanship. Long sheer puffed sleeves accented with rows of Venice lace and wide crystal pleated cuffs, along with the soft skirt flowing into a semicathedral train added to the look. She wore a single floor-length veil trimmed in Venice lace and applied throughout. The veil cascaded from a caplet of Venice lace and tiny seed pearls. The bride carried a cascade of white roses and greenery attached to a small white Bible which was carried by the bride's mother at her wedding almost 25 years ago.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore floor-length old dusty rose quiana sundresses with semifitted short jackets with shawl collars and cap sleeves. They wore white picture hats trimmed in burgundy ribbon and they each carried a single deep red rose.

The flower girls and female candelighter wore dresses identical to the other attendants and wore barrettes woven with rose and burgundy ribbon in their hair.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length dusty rose dress with long puffed sleeves, pleated bodice and soft gathered skirt. The groom's grandmother wore a street-length violet dress with an orchid lace long-sleeved jacket.

The groom wore a white tuxedo, a white ruffled shirt and a white rose boutonniere. The best man and groomsman wore burgundy tuxedos and white ruffled shirts trimmed in burgundy. They also wore white rose boutonnieres. The ring bearer and male candelighter were dressed identical to the male attendants.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church, immediately following the ceremony. Serving at the bride's table were Marsha Stone, Jana Koehn and Susie Gaunt of Granbury and Julie Harris of Lubbock. At the groom's table were Pennie Parrish and Jan Mason of Lubbock. Kaye Moore of Granbury registered the guests.

The bridal table was covered with a white tablecloth edged with ruffles which were brought up with roses into scallops. Crystal appointments were used. The bride's bouquet was used as decoration. The 3-tier cake was trimmed in pink roses and

The Gorman Panthers invaded the Tigers den at Blanket on Friday night in a game that could have clinched a berth in the Class A playoffs for the Panthers. However, the Tigers had other ideas and really got after the Panthers, and came away with a 26-6 win and a tie with the Big Red in the district standings for second place. If the Tigers win over Santa Anna this Friday night they will be in the playoffs no matter what the outcome of the Gorman-Rising Star battle here Friday night. The only way the Panthers can advance to the playoffs is to win over the Wildcats and hope that Santa Anna can defeat the Tigers. This would give Gorman a 6-2 record and Blanket a 5-3. But if Blanket and Gorman both win, then the Tigers will go to the playoffs due to their victory over the Panthers. It was a tough loss for the Panthers, who just couldn't seem to get rolling, and they could not stop the fine running attack of the Tigers, who amassed 300 yards on the ground for the night.

The two teams played on even terms until just 34 seconds before the halftime intermission when the Tigers recovered a Panther fumble at the Gorman 14. The Tigers scored in 5 plays with Carey Darden getting the final 2 yards on a run. Scott Darden booted the extra point and the Tigers were out in front 7-0.

should immediately report it so that this type of criminal action can be curtailed in Gorman.

They added another score with 9:34 left in the game when they blocked a Panther punt at the Gorman 13. From there they scored in 4 plays with Carey Darden scoring from 7 yards out. The kick for point failed and Blanket led 20 to 6.

The Tigers added insult to injury with just 25 seconds left in the game when they scored from 14 yards out when Scott Darden ran it in. Again the kick failed and the Tigers had spoiled the Panthers playoff hopes by the

Panthers Lose To Tigers; Host Wildcats Friday Night

However, the fans had no sooner gotten set down before the Panthers had taken the kickoff and returned it to their own 36. The Big Red ran for 5. Then Dane Gressett tossed a 13 yard pass to Mark Swanner for a first down at the Blanket 46 with only 6 seconds left on the clock. From there Gressett again found Swanner in the open field and hit him with another pass at about the Blanket 15 or 20 yard line, and Mark eluded the three Tiger defenders and ran into the end zone with time gone on the clock for the score. A pass try for two points failed and the half ended with Blanket ahead 7-6.

Following the intermission the two teams exchanged fumbles and the Tigers took over on their own 31 following a Panther fumble. The Tigers scored in 7 plays with Scott Darden racing the final 19 yards for the TD with 8:06 remaining in the third quarter. Scott Darden booted the point after and the Tigers were out in front 14-6.

The Panthers came back and got a long drive going which carried them to the Tiger 5 yard line. However, another one of the 4 Panther fumbles took place and the Tigers escaped the Possible tying score at their own 5 yard line.

The Tigers added another score with 9:34 left in the game when they blocked a Panther punt at the Gorman 13. From there they scored in 4 plays with Carey Darden scoring from 7 yards out. The kick for point failed and Blanket led 20 to 6.

Mark Swanner was the leading ground gainer and pass catcher with 85 yards on 18 carries and he caught 2 passes for 59 yards to account for 144 yards of the Panthers total output of just 174 yards.

The Panther turnovers killed the Big Red as they gave the ball away 4 times via the fumble and twice on interceptions. The Big Red defense again had trouble stopping the run as the Tigers ran through and around the Panthers for 300 yards. The Panther defense is small this season compared to the past several years and its sure had to play across the line from 200 pound linemen and not get worn down. The Panther fans will be hoping for a victory for the Big Red this Friday night when the Rising Star Wildcats come to town. The Wildcats haven't defeated the Panthers in many seasons and will be trying to break that streak and the Panthers will be fighting for a victory and hoping that the Mountaineers will take the Tigers, thus putting the Panthers in the playoff berth.

Dr. Kenneth Heathington Receives Promotion

Dr. Kenneth W. Heathington, director of the UT Knoxville Transportation Center and a research engineer in transportation planning and highway safety for 19 years, has been appointed associate vice president for research in the statewide UT administration.

In announcing the appointment, Dr. John Prados, UT vice president for academic affairs and research, said Heathington will assume his new duties on January 1, 1983. UTK administrators are seeking his successor as Transportation Center director.

Last December the UT Board of Trustees gave Prados the additional responsibility for UT's statewide research effort.

As associate vice president for research, Heathington will work with Prados and the UT campus research officers in formulating university-wide research policies.

"He will encourage and develop support for research projects involving more than one UT campus, and he will promote the patenting and TO GIVE AWAY: Blue Healer and Shepherd dogs. Bud Cornwell, 734-2185. 1-11-11C commercialization of inventions resulting from research done by UT staff members, working through the UT Research Corporation," Prados said.

The associate vice president also will provide liaison between Prados' office and the UT Space Institute, site of the multi-million dollar MHD energy project.

Heathington's appointment also will allow Prados additional time to work with Chancellor Jack Reese on the University's proposal to manage Oak Ridge National Laboratory.

A nation-wide search to fill the new UT position was conducted, with more than 150 applications received. Six finalists, including Heathington, were interviewed by Prados and the chief research officers from the campuses and Institute of Agriculture.

On the UTK staff since 1972, Heathington has degrees in petroleum and civil engineering from the University of Texas and the Ph.D. from Northwestern University.

Besides teaching at Purdue University, the 46-year-old Heathington conducted research for the Illinois division of Highways and the Texas Highway Department before coming to UT.

During 1979 he was on leave from UT, serving as

ELECTIONS SUPPORT GUN OWNERSHIP
 If the November 2 elections prove anything it's that "The American people, when given a voice in the matter, not only reject gun control but strongly endorse their right to gun ownership," said Warren Cassidy, executive director of the NRA Institute for Legislative Action.
 Not only did California voters reject an anti-handgun initiative by a substantial margin, but voters in New Hampshire and Nevada approved amendments to their state constitutions guaranteeing the citizen's right to keep and bear arms. "The handgun prohibition movement has backfired," said Cassidy. "It has awakened in many the stark reality that their rights and freedoms can be seriously jeopardized."

As a result, Cassidy said, more and more communities across the country are enacting ordinances requiring their citizens to own firearms. "It is clearly a symbolic gesture in defiance of those who would deny gun ownership," he said.
 According to Cassidy, the gun bans adopted by the city councils of Morton Grove, Ill., and San Francisco were passed despite overwhelming public opposition. One poll of 39,000 bay area residents revealed 59 percent objected to the city's handgun ordinance.
 From Kennesaw, Ga., to Chiloquin, Ore., "And at least a dozen points in between, cities and towns are passing laws or resolutions in support of the right to keep and bear arms," Cassidy said.
 "When the people have the freedom to choose, they will always choose freedom," he said.

SENIOR CITIZENS NEWS

NOVEMBER 4, 1982

Hil On this last day of October. A nice warm evening here. Tho we will awake some morning soon and lo and behold there will be Frost on the pumkin. The leaves are changing colors and falling to the ground what a joyous job that is.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the Ernest Norris family. He was one of my teenage pals. We had so many good times together.

Their home was just like a second home to me. As we were growing up. May you look to the omnipotent one in your time of sorrow.

Last week, when I wrote about the ones that were sent to Miami from Bonus "March". I said or intended to say that after the Hurrican, the U.S. "DID NOT" give the ones that lost everything one penny in aid to them.

I wrote that to show the injustice shown to different vet groups.

Last week Isaac Capers was here visiting Lonnie and I talked to him. Had not seen him since 1916. He is in mid 90's. That was several years ago.

We planted our first peanuts in 1913 on that place. Dad had started planting. We had a box on planter that held about a bushel of nuts; just in front of planter chute. Had a large funnel that went to chute to ground. He had just started by the time school was out. He told me to try my luck. He told me I had the job. Just put lines over shoulder and let mules go. So I planted 25 acres. I fall at digging time, they just plowed them up. At that time no fertilizer. Peanuts were on a lot of lines then. When threshing they always got peanuts in first. For peanuts with dark or stained hulls were really docked in price. Live and learn.

The peanuts were put in large stacks and thresher would go between town stacks. When they were stacked you would cap off stack with tall cane. The thresher was pulled by steam engines. I mean just at stack. Team would pull engine to places.

The Blue Cross - Blue Shield Bill on Breathing Machines for this year is 80 billion dollars and they say more than 75% is an extra waste.

Say you can take some deep breathe yourself and it would have done as much good.

Well, this is the 1st day of November and tomorrow we will stop some of these lies that have kept the TV smoking. It is nearly down to who is whom.

Go Big Red. You have a good chance. So step high and proud.

Hil To all this Monday Morn. The life refreshing rain keeps on passing us by. My it would be fine to get a foot of snow in a few days.

Well by the time the votes were counted, Mark White discovered that he could not change those utility bills. I wonder how many people believed he could. I wrote President Reagan last year when he claimed he reduced the US Debt. I said you borrowed the money to pay that great Tax Reduction. I told him we owned the money he used to reduce those taxes; we owned it plus interest on same and that at the end of this year the debt would be at least 300 billion dollars. Now with several liberal congressman elected last week, we will be on the skids. Enough of that. It looks too gloomy.

Our sympathy goes to the Ollie Yarborough family in your sorrow. May you look to the Master of all.

My first teachers job. All I knew was that books had a front and back in them. I had so much to learn and I learned more first year at that than any 5 years as a scholar.

I remember 64 years ago this Thursday Nov. 11th. Armistice Day I know we thought the men in Guard House were Rioting. There was just a street between our building and prison. They were yelling "The War is over." They were all dancing and yelling. There were many happy men there. Our building was brick. Made for 12 men there were beds, showers, electric mixer, etc. There were 7 of us, five were mexicans, an indian and myself. Those mexicans never spoke spanish. They said they were american first and last a mexican Sgt. was in charge and I was in 2nd place. Chief was a fine likeable person all called him chief. We had to go about 600 yard of eat. Capt. said at noon, all were off duty and camp closed. The mid-night crew would start mixture, so it would be ready to start work at 7:30 a.m. sponge dough. So we bought 6 lbs. boneless steak at 10c a pound and 2 cans milk. We took a bath and a nap, then put steak on. Took milk and RJC Cross Country Team To Run Sat.

RANGER — The Ranger Junior College Cross Country Team will be in Utica, N.Y. this Saturday for the National Junior College meet and the Rangers have the second best time in the nation this fall.

Agapus Amo, a freshman from Tanzania, is regarded as the top junior college cross country runner in the nation with his 23:15 time for five miles. However, most of the courses in West Texas are not as hilly as the one the meet is being held on.

Other members of the team are Paul Rugut, a sophomore from Kenya, Christopher Bloor, a freshman from England, Richard Gardner, a freshman from San Antonio, and Mike Polk, a made gravy. Took sliced bread put lard, sugar, and cinnamon on it. Toasted and had it fit for a king. We also kept sugar syrup flavored with maple. We went to Lawton on Trolly about 8 miles for 10c, or 12 far $1. In town those squares would sit flat on the ground in a circle. You had to go around them. They would be sitting there as quiet as a Statue and they would like a group of wild geese. Then stop. People were there with pistols and shot guns out in the street drinking and shooting. I was too nervous to be a casualty after the war was over. So I left for camp. They had a victory parade on a Saturday evening about 10 days later. They put an oven on a truck and showed how we baked that bread. I could have gotten in that. Tho is wanted to watch the entire parade. It was really interesting.

When we were there, they would ship an entire train load of cord wood in there. That was the only fuel that was used. There were 58,000 ther in winter of 1912-18. So you see they needed that wood. Tho 17-18 I would say we did not have fire in our ten over 5 times and in 18-19 winter I will say I never had fire one time in winter from Dec. 15 thru rest of winter. War I was to end all wars. Tho it was a plaything beside War II began.

So Big Red. They put the heat on you.

FREE CRAPE MYRTLES GIVEN BY FOUNDATION

Free Crape Myrtles are part of the Foundation's effort to promote fall tree planting.

"Fall is an excellent time to plant trees because the roots establish themselves over the winter and support faster tree growth in the spring," John Rosenow, foundation executive director, said. "The National Arbor Day Foundation is making this special offer because the advantages of fall planting are often overlooked."

Crape Myrtles can be pruned as 15-20 foot trees or as an informal hedge. They have beautiful red blooms throughout the summer and early fall.

Two one-to-two foot trees will be shipped this fall, postage paid, with enclosed planting instructions. The

None can hear,
They have no pain,
They sleep:
Some lie under the sod,
Others their graves Known only to God.

While on hospital bed they await
The sleep of death.
Oh how bitter the harvest of war!

VETERANS DAY

More than 1.65 million veterans now live in Texas -- and will be among the 30 million nationally who will be honored on Veterans Day next November 11.

There now is an average of nearly 12 veterans in Texas among every 100 residents. Further, about 45 percent of the Texas population is affected directly or indirectly by VA's benefits, including medical programs.

The Texas veteran population breakdown, based on VA Office of Reports and Statistics totals: 1.41 million war veterans from World War I through the Vietnam era ending May 7, 1975; 529,000 Vietnam era, including 32,000 with Korean conflict service; 307,000 Korean conflict, including 72,000 with World War II service; 662,000 WWII, 21,000 WWI; one Spanish-American War veteran on VA rolls; 168,000 with service between the Korean conflict and the Vietnam era, and 75,000 post-Vietnam era.

Although a state breakdown of veteran age averages by service periods isn't available, the national averages (with total veterans in brackets) are: War veterans, 50.2 years old (25.6 million); Vietnam era, 34.8 (9.11 million); Korean conflict, 51.6 (5.75 million); WWII, 60.9

$1000 scholarship offered

TSU, CTFAC sponsor contest

Some talented high school senior from the Cross Timbers area will get a $1,000 educational assist -- in the form of a scholarship -- thanks to the Tarleton State University Development Fund and the Cross Timbers Fine Arts Council.

The two organizations have joined hands to sponsor a writing contest for all graduating seniors in the eight-county Cross Timbers area. The winner of the contest will be awarded a $1,000 scholarship to TSU.

Connie Birdsong, president of CTFAC, said, "the whole concept is to nurture a creative feeling and provide additional incentive to look forward to a higher level of education." Ms. Birdsong said the contest is one of her group's yearly projects. "If this generates a lot of interest and enthusiasm, it will be an on-going contest," she said.

The rules of the competition are as follows:

- 1) The contest is open to any graduating senior of a high school in one of the eight counties of the Cross Timbers area -- Erath, Bosque, Eastland, Hood, Palo Pinto, Somervell, Comanche and Hamilton.
- 2) The student must submit one original and three typewritten, double-spaced copies of an original short story, poem, essay, one-act play, or non-fiction article.
- 3) Single-spaced at the top of the left hand of the first page should be this information:
— student's name
— address
— name and address of school
— name of sponsoring teacher
- 4) No limit has been set on the number of words, but each student may submit only one entry.
- 5) As a cover letter, each entry should have a note from the sponsoring high school teacher, on letterhead school stationery, certifying that the work is original and was composed by the submitting student.
- 6) The entry should be received by the Cross Timbers Fine Arts Council, Inc., P.O. Box 1172, Stephenville, 76401 before midnight Feb. 28.
- 7) A panel of judges will decide the winner. All decisions are final.

CHIT CHAT

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bolt have returned from a visit with their son, Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Bolt and family in Nashville, Tennessee. While there they went sailing with the family and the dog on pleasant days as well as on windy sailing days. They also drove through the North Carolina Blue Ridge area visiting the Blue Ridge Parkway, Asheville, Baltimore, Gattinburg, and enjoyed the fall foliage. They report a wonderful trip and Mr. Bolt is feeling better, but glad to be back in Gorman.

4-H'ers

4-H'ers will match foods-and-nutrition expertise against each other in the Eastland County 4-H Food Show Saturday, November 20.

About fifty youth will compete in senior, junior and sub-junior divisions.

Entries will be on public display for tasting from 11:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon at the Corral Room, 400 Ave. D in Cisco.

Senior-division entrants are ages 14-19, junior-division entrants are 12-13, while sub-junior division youth are ages 9-11.

This year's theme is "Texas Foods."

For the contest, each 4-H entrant will compete in one of four classes, including main dishes, fruits and vegetables, breads and cereals, or nutritious snacks and desserts.

Because the foods and nutrition program focuses on nutrition, each contestant will have to demonstrate what she or he knows about nutrition, meal planning, food buying and meal service, as well as preparation techniques.

For additional information, contact Leonard Marusak at Ranger Junior College.

Lone Star buys the gas you need. Bob Kimbrel is one of Lone Star's gas buyers who constantly shop the Southwest for gas value and quality, and for contract terms that are favorable to you.

300 smart buys a year help keep gas first in efficiency.

From offshore and onshore. From East Texas, far West Texas, West Central Texas, North Texas, the Gulf Coast and Oklahoma. From 20,000 wells and 790 producers in 690 different fields, Lone Star gets you the gas you need.

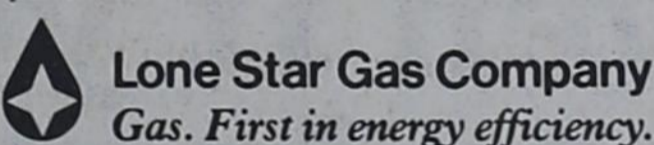

Like you, we buy our gas. Lone Star buyers shop for value and quality, and for contract terms that are most favorable to you.

These purchase/delivery transactions are extremely complex. The buyer needs to know the good gas from the not-so-good, the rich source from the skimpy one. Each buy has its own variables, and we make about 300 new buys a year.

Our buyer may have to bid against as many as 15 others from all parts of the country. And Lone Star's delivery system must be right there. Able to move the gas from the wellhead directly to your home. Today, that requires 32,000 miles of pipeline. And the system keeps growing.

There's plenty of gas. But it takes a smart buy to secure it. And a mighty pipeline system to deliver it.

Lone Star has both. We get you the gas you need.

Even if you're unhandy, you can do something to help hold down
electric bills.

Save energy and money at home by learning how to insulate, caulk and weatherstrip — it's easy when you know how. Just call us, or ask for our "Unhandy Person's Guides" on the comments portion of your bill.

It's important to learn ways to conserve energy, especially since we're having to pay more for fuels to make your electricity — partly because another of our contracts for low-cost natural gas has expired, but mainly because the price of all fuel continues to rise.

You can conserve and help hold down your bill by using the "Unhandy Person's Guides" from Texas Electric.
