

HULLS

By KERNEL GENE BAKER, ap6

Recently the Kernel received word that he used the personal pronoun "I" too much. The Kernel is grateful for all criticism, good or bad.

Of course, the Kernel has every reason to feel egotistical, but that has not been the reason for using the personal pronoun "I." Whatever is said or put in the Progress, the Kernel is personally responsible for same and by using the personal pronoun was under the impression that he was keeping anyone else from being "cussed or pushed."

So, if the Kernel has offended by being an egotistical - - - ?, please forgive and overlook same if he does it again.

Attended the Twenty-Sixth Annual Texas Conservation Awards Program at Tarleton in Stephenville on Tuesday evening. Watching farmers, young and old, from several districts receive awards for their work was indeed inspiring.

Speaker for the evening was Miss Barbara Bailey of Hico. I hope to have a reprint of her speech in a future issue. Incidentally, if you need a speaker on Americanism and can entice this young lady to accept the invitation to speak, you will understand what I mean. In conversation with Mr. Meador, publisher of the Hico News, he stated that Miss Bailey, a student of Hico High School, made over 140 speeches before various groups in Texas last year. More on this later.

Vote Now Official 18-Year-Old

Seventeen more states will have to adopt the amendment to put it into effect. In the event that three-fourths of the states (38) have not acted on this by the November, 1972 general election, Texas will then vote on the constitutional amendment.

AN EDITORIAL

Texas voters will be going to the polls May 18. Amid emotion-packed publicity about liquor-by-the-drink and welfare, facts about one of the most important decisions facing Texans are being lost. Proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 4 on the May 18 ballot has been aptly referred to as the "Clean Water Amendment."

Passage of this amendment is vital to every citizen in the Lone Star State. The "Clean Water Amendment" allows Texans, particularly cities and towns, to get on with the important task of cleaning up our rivers, streams, lakes, bays, and estuaries. Briefly, it would provide state assistance for construction and improvement of sewage treatment plants, assistance in the form of loans to local governments.

Through no fault of their own, local governments have simply not been able to keep up with the sewage deluge. The heavy influx of new residents into urban areas has created intolerable loads on existing sewage treatment facilities, loads that local governments have been financially hard-pressed to adequately cope with.

The amendment earmarks $100 million in bond funds for this assistance. Since those local entities taking advantage of the funds will eventually retire the bonds, there can really be no valid objection to the measure. Surely, voters will see the wisdom in passage of the "Clean Water Amendment."

Too long we have allowed our waterways to become open sewers.

Brummett, 70, admits that the physical appearances of the North Texas State University college students have changed a good deal in the past 20 years he has served at the NTSU office, "but as far as courtesy goes, it is about the same. They are very nice."

Tuesday was Brummett's last day as an official employee of the United States Post Office, NTSU station.

I have no plans. I'm just going to play it by ear from here out," Brummett said.

Though he said he didn't have any hobbies, he added that "I'm going to try to play a little golf to keep in shape."

Rep. Joe Hanna Is Part of Delegation Drought Severity

AUSTIN — State Representative Joe C. Hanna of Breckenridge will be part of a Texas delegation of five representatives to emphasize the severity of the drought conditions to federal agencies in Washington, D. C. Speaker Gus F. Mutscher announced today.

"The Texas farmers and ranchers have appealed for tangible help — not a whirlwind tour by Secretary of Agriculture Hardin which did not fully cover the drought stricken areas," Mutscher said. "U. S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen is coordinating our Representatives' trip to Washington Monday so that the true facts and thus the urgency of the need for help may be known."

Other House members who will present photographs and give the farmers' and ranchers' views will be Representatives Oscar Carrillo, Sr., Chairman; John Poerner of Hondo; Tom Holmes of Granbury and Honore Ligarde of Lorado.

The House Committee, according to Rep. Hanna, will urge the modification of the pauper's oath. Many ranchers and farmers are desperately needing feed for their stock, but are unwilling to sign the degrading pauper's oath now required to qualify for feed at reduced costs.

The Texas Representatives will also encourage the administration to provide long term loans at low interest rates to farmers and ranchers who must have this assistance in order to survive and to continue to be productive in the future.

The Texas delegation will return to the state Thursday, Hanna said.

WASHINGTON
"As it looks from here"
OMAR BURLISON
Congressman
17th District

WASHINGTON, D. C. — WASHINGTON IN APRIL IS A BEAUTIFUL SIGHT. It is a good time for tourists to be here to see the budding tulips at their height, blooming bushes and trees of all hues and colors. The pink and white dogwoods are flourishing.

IT SHOULD BE GOOD IF THIS WAS all to be said about happenings over the past 10 days. Instead, among the blooming trees and shrubbery and through the tulip beds walk thousands of unwashed, long-mat-haired characters, out to interfere with the enjoyment of tourists and stop the wheels of government.

THE FIRST GROUP OF DEMONSTRATORS claimed to be 1,200 Vietnam veterans with a lot of hangers-on. Some of them, of course, were genuine but admittedly a great number were draft dodgers, those released from military services with less than honorable discharges and many others including girl camp-followers.

THE NEXT WAVE COMES WITH ALL THE appearance of revolutionaries. Their demands range from ending the Vietnam war immediately to free abortions, clean water, gay liberation, union lettuce and the Government's scalp. They demand . . . demand . . . demand . . . even free drugs!

INCIDENTALLY, THE HEAVY USE OF DRUGS by so many reduced their daytime ranks considerably. Hundreds had to be given medical attention.

IF THE TERM "REVOLUTIONARY" APPEARS too strong in describing these motley people, the hundreds of North Vietnam and Viet Cong flags, the placards of Mao Tse-Tung and Leon Trotsky and the chanting of obscenities furnish pretty strong proof. Their principal leader is Rennie Davis, one of the so-called "Chicago 7."

GRANTING THAT THERE ARE BASIC rights to dissent and to peacefully assemble in demonstration, there is no right to interfere with the lawful activities of other citizens and to stop the functioning of government. There is no right to plot the overthrow of government. The place for them is jail.

THIS CUP, OF COURSE, WILL PASS. Rennie Davis and the revolutionary mob are not going to become the government of this Country. Unfortunately, however, there are Members of Congress who have lent encouragement and at least passive support to this outrageous demonstration. These are the ones who cry out for peace at any price.

THERE MAY BE SIGNIFICANCE TO A RECENT Gallup poll finding that 16 million Americans would pack up and leave this Country if they had the opportunity. This figure represents 12 percent of our adult population. Most of them would prefer Australia. The survey showed 3 in 10 young adults between the ages of 18 and 29, with college training, expressed a desire to leave. They are not all made up of draft dodgers, shiftless and irresponsible people. The draft dodgers and others like them prefer Canada or Sweden, not Australia.

MANY OF THOSE PEOPLE ARE EXPRESSING A desire to be free from many frustrations and register disgust at this sore represented by the crew here in Washington. It is assumed that these people hold to the values and traditions of our Nation but are disillusioned as to what has happened in our Country since 1960. They likely feel they cannot live happily in an atmosphere of confusion and uncertainty and want to look for anchors of security. They feel that the accepted truths of our institutions are not nailed down so as to be unremovable. They most want to be able to see through the forest of question marks and see daylight of confidence in front of them.

OBVIOUSLY, THE DEMONSTRATING REVOLUTIONARIES have no such desire to leave but stay to disrupt and attempt to convert our Nation to anarchy. MEANWHILE, A FEW HOME TRUTHS should not go unobserved. While 1,200 veterans make demands, including the ending of the war, over 2 million are not demanding peace at any price. While about 10 Senators and 29 Members of the House of Representatives give passive support to some of these things, 90 Senators and 406 Representatives do not. While 200,000 rabble rousers choose to take their politics to the gutters, 200,000,000 other Americans do not.

THIS IS NOT TO SAY THAT THIS GREAT majority of our citizens do not want us out of Vietnam. It does not mean that the Vietnamese veterans who did not come to Washington, Members of Congress who did not endorse the demonstrators, Americans who did not choose to listen to the rabble rousers or to Peter, Paul and Mary, want the war to continue. Rather one would like to think that they want the war ended without a scuffle, that they prefer ballots to ballyhoo and finally that they prefer democracy to mobocracy.

Homemaker's Hints

Mrs. Janet Thomas, County Home Dem. Agent

Luncheon speaker at the annual Home Demonstration Fun Day luncheon recently was Kathryn Duff, Assistant Editor and Page One Columnist for the Abilene Reporter-News. Mrs. T. L. Hale, chairman of the day's activities, introduced Miss Duff and described her many accomplishments including her book "Abilene - On Catclaw Creek."

Miss Duff spoke on the development of this area of Texas and told of the early history and growth of Eastland County. She pointed out that Eastland County was young lacking two years before celebrating our 100th anniversary. She stressed that we must capitalize on our youth, vigor, and many resources.

Miss Duff expressed the opinion that parents need to prepare their children for "world" citizenship - not just to be Eastland County citizens. In so doing, we instill in our children the love of their country and a sense of value.

With the growth and development of this area of Texas, Miss Duff stated the changes that adults have seen in their life time will not compare to the changes our children will see during their life. And through this growth, Miss Duff said "we now have 'instant information' but we do not have 'instant understanding'."

Mrs. Glenn Jordan, Home Demonstration Council Chairman, presided at the luncheon which was attended by eighty-one club ladies and special guests. Mrs. Jordan introduced the special guests present which were County Judge Scott Bailey, Mr. L. J. Collins, County Commissioner, Mrs. Cecil Ellis, wife of First Methodist Church minister; DeMarquis Gordon, County Agricultural Agent, Mrs. Janet Thomas, County Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. Judy Caldwell, Assistant County HD Agent.

Mrs. Jordan expressed appreciation to the County HD Council Recreation Committee, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Albert Hendricks, and Mrs. Zelma Lusk, for the work they had done in arranging the day's activities.

Preceding the luncheon were tours in the Eastland area. The group of ladies enjoyed a tour through Victor Cornelius' Company. Mr. Cornelius and Mr. Jack Germany showed the operations and new developments in the printing of menus which are used by restaurants around the world.

Next stop was the House of Webster Pottery Manufacturing Company. The group was met by Mr. Jimmy Little, company manager. Mr. Little and his assistant showed the group from the beginning to end the making of pottery articles which includes some 26 different hand finishing skills that must be applied by people before the pottery article is finished. The ladies were delighted to receive "Old Rip" pottery paper weights as gifts of the company and Mr. Little.

Last stop on the tour was a visit to Aztec Mobile Home Manufacturing Company. Here the company representative discussed the mobile home construction. The group saw the homes being built at the various stages of construction, and enjoyed seeing several large completed homes ready for sale.

The day was completed with an applause for success and enjoyment. The Home Demonstration ladies left learning much more about our county and the industries here in Eastland County.
