PRESS POINTS
Joe Bennett, Publisher

It seems that it could rain forever around here. We couldn't get any rain for a good while, then it started raining and hasn't quit for a good while around this area. Measurements seem to be from a little over an inch to up to more than four inches in some spots. The rain was needed for some farmers to dig peanuts. However, it may be a little too much for some growers. It sure is nice on the grain and cover crops, however. Now maybe it will dry off a little so that the farmers can get back in the fields and get their crop dug and ready to thresh. We thank the Lord for the fine moisture, but it needs to clear up some now so the peanuts can be dug.

Wasn't the "Great Debate" (?) something else. I really don't know why the television stations waste time on this type of thing. The viewers don't know any more after the so-called debate is over than they did to start with. Besides most folks have made up their minds as to who they will vote for. Or, maybe who they will not vote for. It's a shame that the voters of Texas have to vote for one of these candidates. It's sure bad when you are forced to pick the lesser of two evils. There just may be large numbers of folks who don't even bother to vote either way. And this is bad. So go to the polls and vote on November 4th. No matter how you vote - please get out and vote.

Had some more letters this week:
Dear Mr. Bennett;

I have been taking the Gorman Progress for the last few years. I read it from cover to cover hoping to see a familiar name. There aren't many. However, I am a senior citizen age 86 this coming Oct. 25. What I want to ask you is this: when my mother Lizzie Thompson died, it was a Bennett boy who heard her cry for help (early morning) and rushed to her and lifted her to the bed. She had a stroke, was fixing coffee and fell on the floor. Are you the one? Odell Thompson, Tom and Otis were all my brothers.

I'm enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope for your reply. I don't know your age. She lived in a simple little house south of town. The David family was close to her. Dr. Stubblefield was her physician. Also Mrs. Love was her close neighbor and friend.

I'll appreciate any information you may have. All my immediate family are gone. I'm the only one left.
Sincerely,

Grace Thompson Chapman
I am sure I was not the one who helped your mother. However, there were so many Bennetts around here about that time that there is no telling who it may have been. It could have been one of my brothers or any number of other relatives. Maybe the one you are wanting to know about will read this and write you. Hope so anyway.

The Panthers had another bad night on Friday with the Wildcats. It seems the fumble bug has bitten the Panthers. And you just can't win football games when you fumble the ball so often. Maybe the ball will bounce our way this Friday night at Santa Anna. The boys aren't doing so good right now, so they need our support even more. So follow the Panthers to Santa Anna Friday and let them know you are behind them.

—J—

And remember to smile - because God Loves You!

Shiloh Lynn Richter, 16, was announced the winner of the talent division of the 1986 Eastland County Miss Pageant in ceremonies held Saturday, October 4, at the Eastland County Courthouse. She is the daughter of Rawlyn and Fran Richter of the Methodist Church. To win, Shiloh performed the Garlinburg Boogie on a much-improved piano over last year due to the insistence of her well-known Stephenville piano teacher, Trisha Ferrell, who performs regularly in Fort Worth and other cities.

Shiloh won a title in the 1985 competition for Eastland County and now has plans to compete at the University of Texas at San Antonio in February 1987. The performances there will be in classical music and she will be accompanied on the weekend trip by her teacher, who plans to expand the trip for some sight-seeing and visiting the most interesting places of entertainment that San Antonio has to offer, as a reward for both of them for their years of hard work.

METHODIST CHURCH TO HOLD REVIVAL OCTOBER 19-20-21

The members of the First United Methodist Church in Gorman are excited about and eagerly planning for their Fall Revival which will be held on October 19, 20, and 21. A dynamic young speaker, the Rev. Ben Tibbs of Eastland United Methodist Church, has been invited as speaker and will be an inspiration to all who hear him minister on these three evenings. He was chosen by the Brownwood District, Central Texas Conference, as one of the speakers for a preaching tour trip of the Philippines, and is a gifted minister.

The special singing will be just superb. On Sunday night the Methodist quartet from Goldthwaite will be featured. On Monday night the Gorman Methodist Choir, an incredibly enthusiastic group of singers, will minister in song with their best numbers. On Tuesday night the home Methodist quartet will greatly bless the audience.

This is our first revival in some time and we wish to invite the community and area churches to come share our joy in our well-planned services that will not be lengthy and tiring, but powerfully and dynamically worshipful.

Rites For Eva Alread Held Monday

Eva Alread, 77, a Fort Worth homemaker, died Saturday at her home. Services were at 2 p.m. Monday at the First Baptist Church of Desdemona. Burial was in Desdemona Cemetery.

Mrs. Alread was born in Desdemona and lived in Fort Worth most of her life. She was a Baptist and a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. She was a member of the Rebekah Lodge and a charter member of the Coast Guard Officer Wives Club. She was preceded in death by her husband, Leon Alread, and a son, Rusty Alread.

Survivors include a son, Larry Alread of Fort Worth; a sister, Evah Sparkman of Desdemona; a grandson; and two great-grandchildren.

Turnout For Open House At Texas Peanut Producers Board Good

Mary Webb, Executive Director of the Texas Peanut Producers Board reported that the turnout for their open house ceremonies on October 2 was very good with 65 to 70 people attending. She expressed the Board's appreciation to the area citizens, peanut growers, elected officials, members of the Chamber of Commerce, and peanut shellers' representatives for taking time out from their busy schedules to visit us and making our celebration a success.

Webb said that Mrs. Wanda Cole was the winner of the door prize which was a beautiful hand painted porcelain plate.

John Haynes Laid To Rest

John L. Haynes, 80, former Gorman resident, died Saturday at a Lubbock hospital.

Services were at 2 p.m. Monday at Carter-Adams Funeral Home Chapel in Ralls with the Rev. Lee Fuller officiating. Burial was in Ralls Cemetery.

Born in The Grove in Bell County, he lived in Ralls for 20 years before moving to Gorman. He moved to Lubbock in 1984.

He was a retired farmer and 50-year member of the Emma Masonic Lodge in Ralls.

Survivors include a son, Johnny Haynes of Ralls; two daughters, Lexie Reese of Ralls and Ladena Skipworth of Muleshoe; a brother, Will Haynes of Eastland; a sister, Jewell Jenne of Glendale, Ariz.; five grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Fumbles were the undoing of the Panthers on Friday night when they hosted the Rising Star Wildcats in a District 8A contest and the home opener for the Panthers. The final score was 14 to 8 with the Wildcats defeating the Panthers for the first time in many, many seasons.

The Wildcats hit the scoreboard first with 5:36 left in the second period when Ralph Bond broke free between two defenders and raced 47 yards for the score after the Wildcats had recovered a Gorman fumble on the Panther 46. After a 1 yard loss, Bond went the distance for the score. Stacy Green kicked the PAT and Rising Star led 7-0.

The Panthers then started a long drive going from their own 36 to the Wildcat 8 before the fumble bug bit again. The Wildcats then ran out the half time with the score remaining at 7-0.

The Wildcats got the insurance touchdown with 11:25 left in the game when David White got free on an option, faked the pitch and kept the ball on a raced into the corner of the end zone for the score. Stacy Green kicked the PAT and the score was 14-0.

The Panthers finally got on the board by going 75 yards in 18 plays with Glen Burgess catching a 35 yard pass for the score with 3:38 left in the game. Tom Campbell ran for the two points and Gorman trailed 14 to 8.

However, the Big Red defense simply could not hold the heavier Wildcats and the Wildcats ran out the clock.

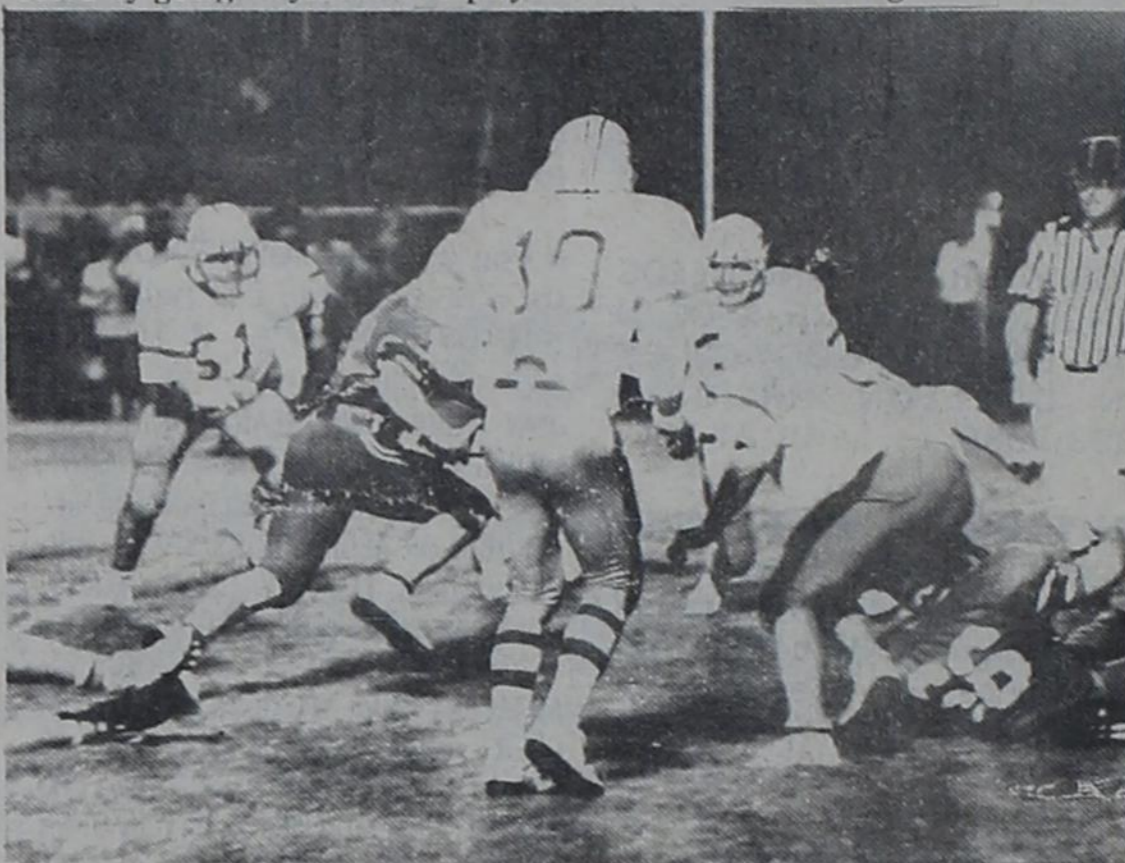

So really, the fumbles were the big factor in the game.

David Gibbs and Glen Burgess led the Panthers with 49 yards each. Tom Campbell had 30 yards on 4 tries. Randall Gibbs got 17 on 5 trips and Scott Gressett had 4 yards on 8 keepers.

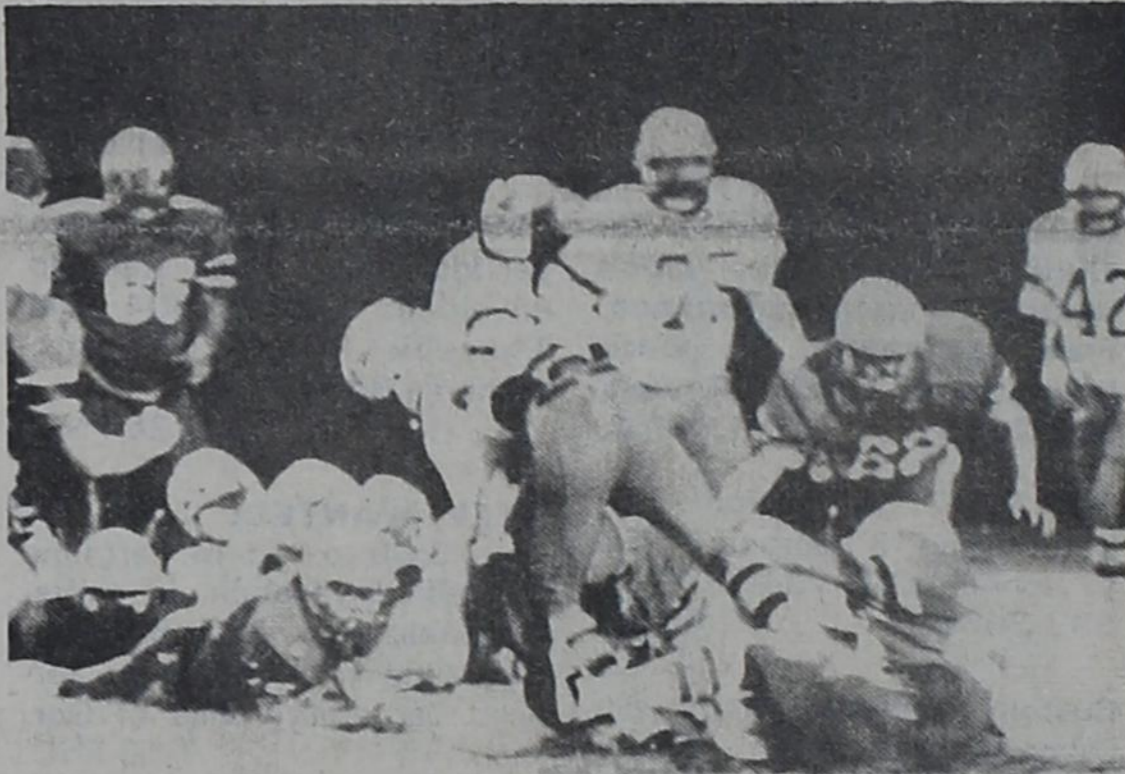

The Panthers will travel to Santa Anna on Friday night in another District 8A contest. The Mountaineers are a very good team and the Panthers will have to be ready to play in this one. It is hoped that the Big Red can get a few players well from injuries for this game, as they have been plagued with injuries. Tom Campbell has been lost for the season with a fractured ankle and others have been trying to play with injuries.

So lets follow the Panthers to Santa Anna Friday night and back them all the way. They need our support.

HIGHTOWER SAYS, "NOW IS THE TIME FOR STATE GOVERNMENT TO PLANT NOT PLOW UNDER"

"Our state government's financial future cannot be made sound simply by slashing budgets or even by finding enough new tax revenues to cover the deficit," Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower said here Thursday, speaking at dedication ceremonies for the Texas Peanut Producers Board's new headquarters. "Rather, our state must now become more aggressive than ever in planting new seeds of grassroots economic development so that two years, five years and fifteen years down the road we have a diversified economy that can support state services at a responsible level."

Hightower addressed area peanut producers, other farmers and public officials, calling for "a problem-solving partnership that links an active state government with enterprising Texans to build new, homegrown industries in such fields as food processing, electric energy generation, aquaculture, movie-making, and tourism. With a targeted, coordinated, crash program including market development, applied research, capital formation, entrepreneurial training, and natural resource conservation, the state can be a catalyst to generate hundreds of small and medium-sized enterprises that will bring new wealth, good jobs and a positive balance to our state's economy," Hightower said. "Added up, these growth industries have a multibillion-dollar potential, representing an economic gusher greater than Spindletop offered 85 years ago."

Hightower observed that declining oil prices, a deepening agriculture depression, a slump in the high-tech industry and other disquieting trends have dimmed the economic luster of the Lone Star recently. "But our Star will be ascendant again if we make a concerted effort and vest our economic future in the hands of our own enterprising people," Hightower said. In fact, a recent Texas poll revealed that the public is more than ready for such a push, with 65 percent of those polled saying that they would be willing to pay more taxes to the state to encourage economic development.

By Mrs. Oma Lee Ridell

Leslie Riddell and Tim Goetze of Stephenville took me to Abilene last Monday afternoon where I enjoyed a birthday dinner. We had a very enjoyable night out. I spent Tuesday with Jane and Tommy Musick and family.

Ann Staude is busy babysitting with her little grandson while Belinda is doing some teaching at Lingleville. I know he will be a spoiled baby when Joe and Ann get through with him.

Tammy Merryman and children were visiting on Saturday afternoon with Patsy and J.C. Moon. Daniel Decker was also a visitor.

Oneeda Holford, Patsy Moon, Rev. and Mrs. Kyle Davis were in Brownwood on Monday and Monday night for the Sunday School convention.

Tena Dennington of De Leon and Lori Jordan of Edna Hill came up here on Saturday afternoon and took me fishing. They caught six large ones.

Blake and Delilah Morrison returned home this week after enjoying several days in New Mexico and Colorado. They are also the proud owners of a new van.

Digger Procter of Freer has been visiting here with relatives. Danah Ruth came after him over the weekend. Danah also visited with Carl Morrison of Lingleville. Carl has just purchased a new pickup and a new trailer house.

Patsy Moon took Cecelia Kilgore to Fort Worth to see the doctor on Friday.

Joe and Ann Staude left on Friday for a trip to Arkansas. Becky Boen is babysitting with Belinda's baby while they are away.

Josh Hines of Arlington, Jane, Kate, Luke and Jake Music and I celebrated Luke's birthday on Saturday. Luke has finally made it to the big five. He told me he thought he'd get a moron haircut. When I asked what in the world that was he said, "It's where you have the sides all shaved off and just leave a strip from the back to the front on top." (Mohawk)

I visited awhile on Saturday morning with Mr. and Mrs. S.L. Outlaw of Lingleville. Larence Lee and Patricia Outlaw of Virginia were there.

I was thinking of trying a diet. It worries me to think that anyone would think that I need to diet. I don't trust thin people. Did you ever notice how shifty eyed they are? Now you take fat people. They'll look you right straight in the eye and smile. In fact they'll downright laugh at you. I've found that a diet helps people gain weight more slowly. I'm not really fat, I just retain flesh. I'm not overweight, I'm just underfull. A fat person digs his grave with his teeth.

I bought a new dress the other day. William said, "You look like Helen Brown." I asked, "Who is she?" This happened three times. Finally William said with deadly accuracy, "You look like hell in brown."

KOKOMO NEWS

By Mrs. Zelda Jordan

Around three inches of rain has fallen in the community since Saturday.

Many from the community were in Eastland on Saturday for the Eastland County Fair and Parade, but the rain cancelled the parade and really put a damper on some of the other activities.

Those from Kokomo Extension Homemakers Club in Eastland to help in Extension Council booth were Wynelle Brown, Anna Laura Clearman, Mrs. Fair, Johnnie B. Griffith, Naoma Morrow, Ava Rodgers, and Berneice Rodgers.

I know some of the ladies of the club won ribbons with preserved foods and baked goods, but I don't have a complete list. Congratulations to all winners.

Mr. Doug Adkins of Dallas, Mrs. Ethel Lovell of Carbon, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Burleson of Lake Leon were visitors at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday morning. "Happy Birthday" was sung to Cynthia Wilson, who was celebrating her 17th birthday on Sunday. "Happy Birthday" was also sung in the Ladies Sunday School Class to La Von Snider, who celebrated her birthday on Oct. 1, and to Mrs. Ethel Lovell of Carbon, who will celebrate her 89th birthday on Oct. 9.

Helen and Woodrow Browning rendered the special music at the Sunday evening service at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Rains of Lamesa visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clearman on Sunday afternoon.

Larry Morrow of Plains, Ted Higginbottom and a friend of Seminole visited on Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Morrow and in Gorman with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Higginbottom.

Recent visitors with Mrs. Albert Hendricks were Lois Schrader and Frances Schroeder of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. George Bingham of Gorman, Martha Wood of Carbon, Verna Powers, Ruth Bryant and Mrs. Bill Joiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Nelson spent the weekend in Andrews with Mr. and Mrs. Gary Rasco.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brown and her mother, Mrs. Ethel Lovell of Carbon, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clearman, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jordan and Mrs. Albert Hendricks were among those attending the Farm Bureau County Convention in Eastland on Saturday night. Bill Brown was re-elected as a director of Eastland County Farm Bureau.

Erma Eaves is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Eaves.

Mrs. Ether Lovell of Carbon visited during the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brown.

1986 EASTLAND COUNTY FAIR ART EXHIBIT A GREAT SUCCESS

The 1986 Eastland County Fair Art Exhibit was a great success, with 58 entries from Rising Star, 22 from Gorman, 3 from Eastland, 7 from Ranger, 6 from Carbon, 5 from Cisco, 3 from Strawn, and 2 from Cross Plains. Special thanks to the Eastland Centennial Memorial Library for providing such a nice place for our show. The cash awards were given by First State Bank of Rising Star, First National Bank of Cisco, Citizens State Bank of Gorman, Eastland National Bank, Olney Savings of Eastland and Moylan Construction, which were greatly appreciated. Other contributions were given by Gulf Oil Products, H&R Lumber and Sayre Oil & Gas.

Professor Sherwood Suter, associated with the art department of McMurry College since 1957, judged the exhibit. Said Professor Suter, "A good painting is a personal interpretation, rather than just a record of your observation. I look for good design or composition in paintings, coupled with an expressive quality, regardless of style. Beauty in art is dependent upon the successful bringing together of the art elements—line, color, form, texture, and space. In judging shows, I try to explain to those who don't get ribbons what the painting lacks."

Winners were as follows:

Trinity Worship Center To Hold Seminar

Trinity Worship Center of De Leon will host Katie Bess and Franklin Williamson of Kerrville in a "Building the Marriage" seminar to be held Oct. 11-13, 1986.

The Williamsons have been married for 23 years and have two daughters. Franklin has been pastor at Grace Bible Chapel in Kerrville for nine years. The couple has presented this seminar in Kerrville, Austin, and San Antonio. The seminar gives practical principles from the Bible to help strengthen the family. As Noah spent his life building an ark for the salvation of his family, so husbands and wives today should put their greatest endeavors into building a refuge for their families.

Anyone who is married, has been married, or is ever planning on marriage is encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity. Sessions begin Sat., Oct. 11 at 9:30 a.m. Lunch will be provided at the church, and the afternoon session will conclude about 4 p.m. The seminar will resume during the regular Sunday worship services at 10:45 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Oct. 12. The final session will be held Mon., Oct. 13 at 7 p.m. Trinity Worship Center is located on Hwy. 16 South of De Leon.
