A second big weekend will take place here Saturday with the School Homecoming. It should be as successful as the Peanut Festival held last Saturday. This is the 36th annual Homecoming for the Gorman Schools. The day will begin at 10 a. m. with registration in the high school. Coffee, juice and donuts will be served during the visitation period until noon when a luncheon will be served in the high school gym. The luncheon is hosted by the Gorman Exes.

At the 1:30 p. m. business meeting in the high school auditorium classes will be recognized and the Homecoming Queen will be elected and will be presented at the evening program.

Don O'Neal will be the guest speaker. Don is a 1944 graduate of GHS. He has been very successful in petroleum engineering, having spent 33 years with Exxon Company USA.

The senior class will serve a Mexican dinner in the gym beginning at 5 p. m. The price is $5 for adults and $3 for children under 12 years of age.

Homecoming football game between the Gorman Panthers and the Ranger Bulldogs will be held at 8 p. m. Friday. The School Homecoming Queen and her court will be presented at halftime. The Band Sweetheart and Band Beau and the Football Sweetheart will also be presented.

The Homecoming Committee has planned a special day for out of town and hometown exes, and we are looking forward to an enjoyable day with friends and classmates.

Gerald Scitern Laid To Rest Monday

Gerald Dean Scitern, 46, of Gorman, passed away Sunday, September 13th in the De Leon Hospital.

Services were held at 6 p. m. Monday at the Simpson Cemetery near Gorman with the Rev. Jackie Auvenshine officiating, assisted by the Rev. Denver Rainey, and directed by Higginbotham Funeral Home.

He was born September 11th, 1946 in Gorman. He married Ina Margaret Lasater on February 8, 1964 at the Kokomo Baptist Church.

He was a farmer and a lifelong resident of Gorman. He was a member of the Gorman Business Alliance and was instrumental in the revival of the Peanut Festival and served as Peanut Festival Chairman for five years.

Survivors include his wife, Ina Scitern of Gorman; one son, Kevin Scitern of Gorman; three daughters, Brenda Tucker of Desdemona, Annita Auvenshine of Granbury, and Amy Johnston of Gorman; his parents, Alvis and Bonnie Scitern of Gorman; one brother, Glen Scitern of Gorman; two sisters, Melva Jordan of Eastland and LaVeda Scitern of Gorman; three grandchildren, Nathan Tucker of Desdemona; Emily Auvenshine of Granbury and Audrey Johnston of Gorman; and three sons-in-law, Steven Tucker of Desdemona, Randy Johnston of Gorman and Eddie Auvenshine of Granbury; and his mother-in-law, Merle Lasater of Gorman.

A POEM

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes,
We watched you suffer
And saw you fade away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best.
It's lonesome here without you
We miss you more each day
Life doesn't seem the same
Since you've gone away.
When days are sad and lonely,
And everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper
"Cheer up and vary on."
Each time we see your picture
You seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping We'll meet again someday."

THANK YOU NOTE

Tessia and her parents, Dale and Mary Griffin, would like to thank all those who played a part in her receiving First Place in the 3-4 year old baby contest.

A special thanks to Grandma and Aunt Alice.

Thanks again, Tessia

Peanut Festival Was "Greatest Ever"

"Goober Day" in Gorman on Saturday was a huge success and has been dubbed as "the greatest ever."

The weather was great for the annual Gorman Peanut Festival.

The parade was fantastic, and so many people came to enjoy the day. Vendors booths lined the downtown streets with arts and crafts. Some came as far away as Lampasas. Good food could be found in several booths. The afternoon musical entertainment that began at noon and continued throughout the afternoon, was special. The Art Show proved to be one of the best exhibits of the day. It's a new event added this year as was the farm implement exhibit. Another new event this year was the Farm and Ranch Trade Show lectures.

The Childrens Coloring Contest was thoroughly enjoyed. Downtown store windows were covered with their art creations. Great talented youngsters.

The Children's Parade was great as usual. You may not have recognized Louis Landers. He was the one in the hula skirt and the long black hair. He could not be persuaded to do a hula dance.

What can you say about the Beautiful Baby Contest, but great, fantastic, and some of these may be a Miss America and President of the United States someday.

The street dance was highly successful. Everyone enjoyed and appreciated the music provided by The Ambus Band from Comanche.

The Peanut Bake-Off was successful and all items were auctioned off. This event is expected to grow in participation each year.

The cold melons served at mid-afternoon, was a hit with everyone.

The Western Shootout was a treat for all ages. This group of men are professional and really put on a great performance.

The entire day was a great success and the Festival Committee is to be commended for the many hours spent in planning the events, and the people who worked in setting up the booths and the clean-up on Saturday morning did an outstanding job.

A special thanks to the merchants who provided funds for prizes and ribbons and those who participated in the newspaper ad campaign.

All the people of Gorman and the surrounding area made the day a success.

Plans will begin soon for next year's festival which will be bigger and better.

Again our congratulations for a wonderful job to the Peanut Festival Committee and all those who had a part in making this the best festival ever.

Panthers Squeak By Bulldogs 13 - 12; Host Ranger Friday

GAME AT A GLANCE

Gorman	Hamilton
48-213	33-182
5 of 13	0 of 6
5 for 35	5 for 26
10 for 95	14 for 105

The Gorman Panthers traveled to Hamilton on Friday night to take on the Bulldogs and came away with a hard fought 13 to 12 win, coming from behind in the last 3:36 minutes for the victory after trailing 12 to 7.

The Bulldogs hit the scoreboard first in the first period. They took the ball on their own 36 and went the distance in just one snap of the ball, as the quarterback Brandon Young, took the snap rolled out to his left and raced untouched for the TD with 6:50 left in the period. The kick for point failed and the Bulldogs led 6-0.

The Panthers came right back on the next possession and after taking the ball on their own 37, moved the distance in 12 plays with Jade Warren catching a beautiful 14 yard TD pass from Rajee Patel with no time showing on the clock in the first period. The drive featured four penalties, three by Hamilton and one by the Panthers. Don Mauney put the Panthers ahead by booting the extra point and a 7-6 lead.

The score stayed the same until the 8:45 mark of the third quarter when the Bulldogs got the ball on the Panther 48 after a fumble recovery. From there lightning struck again in the same place as Young took the snap, rolled to his left and raced 48 yards for the score, untouched. The try for two points failed and the score stood at 12 to 7.

The Panthers just couldn't get a sustained drive going and the game was in question until the 3:36 mark of the final period. The Big Red defense got the ball on the Gorman defensive halfback Kris Scitern's interception of a Bulldog pass. On the first play Kris Scitern picked up 15 yards and a first down at the Hamilton 13. Then following a 3 yard run and two runs with no gain, Rajee Patel rolled out to his right and threw a perfect strike to Jade Warren, who ran in for the score. The Panthers then went for two points but the try failed and the score stood at 13 to 12.

The Big Red defense held the Bulldogs the rest of the way and intercepted a Bulldog pass on their final drive to insure the victory.

The Panthers were led by Kris Scitern on the ground with 94 yards on 13 carries. Tony Forbus had 45 on 13 tries. Rajee Patel got 59 on 13 keepers. Jade Warren got 15 on 9 tries.

Gorman's defense did a pretty good job most all night except for the two big runs when they seemed to be unable to stop the quarterback rollout play. The Panthers will really have to be ready this week when they host the up-and-coming Ranger Bulldogs in the Homecoming Game at Brogdon Field at 8 p. m. The Bulldogs have shown great improvement and have shown some real desire to play real tough football this year. They have a new offense that the players like and are really having good success with it.

KRIS SCITERN NAMED DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF WEEK

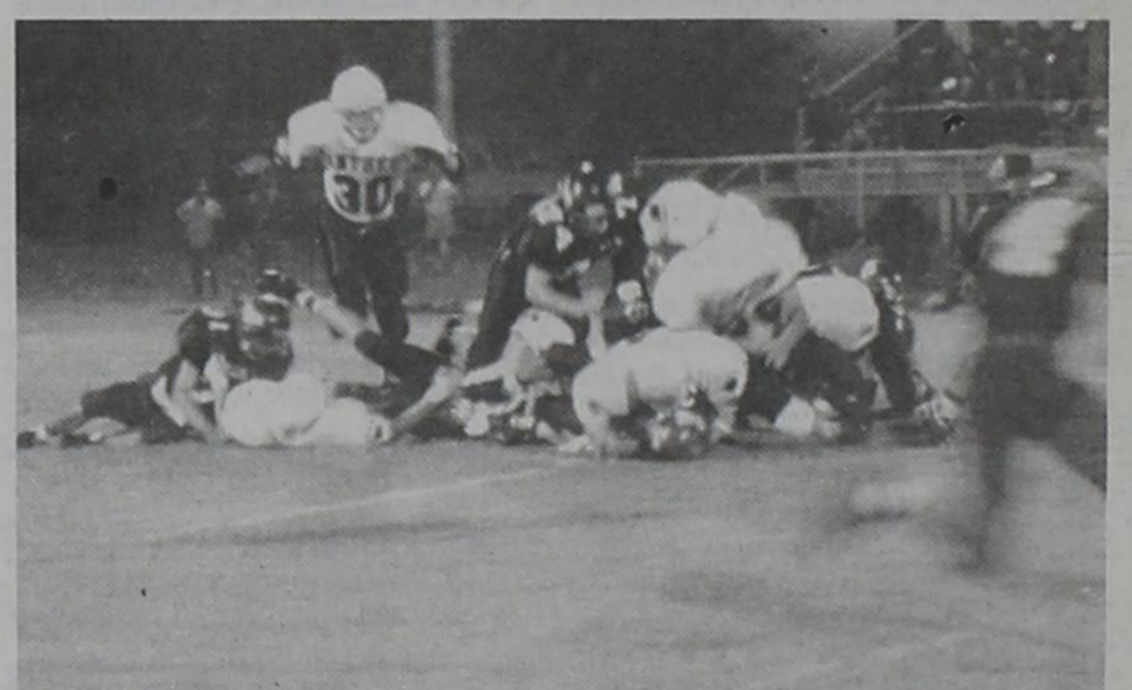

Kris Scitern has been named as the Abilene Reporter-News Defensive Player of the Week with 13 tackles, one interception, one sack and one blocked punt. Kris did a superb job. Chris Laminack came up with 11 tackles and 1 sack. Brent Skaggs had 7 tackles and a fumble recovery. In fact, all the Panther defense did a good job except for the two or three long runs when the Bulldog quarterback got loose.

We feel that if the Panther defense can rush and harass the Ranger quarterback, they will have another victory under their belt. However, if the Panther rush doesn't get to the quarterback, then the Ranger "Run and Shoot" could really give the Panthers a difficult night.

So we think the Panthers will be watching the quarterback this week and if they continue to play their brand of fine defense, they should come away with their third win of the season.

Go Get 'Em Big Red!

DEFENSE HOLDS — The Panthers held the Bulldogs for short yardage in game action Friday night. Panthers shown are Jade Warren, Kris Scitern, Chris Laminack, Brent Skaggs.

Primitive Baptists

People are often surprised to learn that a church named Primitive Baptist is not backward, archaic, and generally out-of-date. "Why, since you enjoy the comforts of modern living, do you identify yourselves as primitive?" we are often asked. As a church, we make a sincere effort to maintain the practice and doctrine exhibited in the New Testament, despite changing values and customs around us. Therefore, we are primitive, meaning first or original.

But our message? The message from Primitive Baptist pulpits across America is as up-to-date as the morning newspaper. What could be more current than to hear of a sovereign God who is infinitely concerned for the welfare of His people? His interest is so great that He gave Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, as the sinbearer that all His family might safely live with God after life on earth has ended.

But that is not the end of the message.

Not only did God make arrangements for His family to live in Heaven, but God provides daily guidance for His servants as they face the choices, decisions, trials, and conflicts of life. Learning how to make the right choices, the ones that will honor God, is a principle part of Christian activity. Therefore much is heard from our ministers about godly daily living.

You will find our Bible-based worship service refreshing. There is no ceremony or show to distract from the simple, but central message of "Jesus Christ and Him crucified."

We invite you to experience the joy of walking in the old paths, so precious to previous generations of believers.

At the Gorman Primitive Baptist Church you will find a small but growing congregation of enthusiastic believers in Jesus Christ. People who love to be together because fellowship strengthens their faith and renews their zeal in God's service. People who have come from varied religious backgrounds--or no religious background. People of diverse age and socioeconomic planes. People who are united in one common bond of love for God and esteem for brothers and sisters in Christ.

We meet each Sunday morning at 10:30 atop the hill at the corner of Hall and Ector Roads just northeast of the Hwy 6 & 8 intersection. Make plans this Sunday to come worship with us and stay after services for lunch and fellowship.

GORMAN'S HIRST EARNS TIAA DEFENSIVE HONORS

By all accounts, McMurry University linebacker Kevin Hirst did just fine last Saturday night against Evangel College.

Ten unassisted tackles and a caused fumble were enough to earn Hirst Defensive Player of the Week honors in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, despite the fact the Indians lost their 1992 season opened 22-7.

But the performance wasn't good enough to satisfy the Gorman sophomore's toughest critic -- himself.

"I was real surprised," said Hirst about the honor. "I wasn't thinking about it at all after the game. All I was thinking about were the keys I misread and the fact we didn't win."

Hirst puts himself up against a tough standard, perfection.

"I want to be as close to perfect as I can be," he said. So what messed up his game, in his mind, were a couple of missed tackles on Evangel's 230-pound tailback Derrick Clark.

"I remember a couple of times their big tailback just ran through my hole and I bounced off him (because of being out of position)," Hirst said. "When I got up, I wanted to kick myself."

At 200 pounds, Hirst was somewhat outmatched by Clark, but that isn't anything new. Hirst was a quarterback and defensive back on two playoff teams at Gorman. Not only has he had to adjust to a new position, but he had to learn to turn up his play a notch or two because of how much more fast-paced collegiate football is than high school.

"The game is so much faster," he said. "But it was a motivation to me. I've heard people say 'He's a Class A athlete.' It seems like we're kind of overlooked."

The adjustment from defensive back to linebacker is tougher than one might think. As a defensive back, Hirst was 12 yards off the ball and could see a play develop. At linebacker, he's seven yards closer to the ball and has to react much quicker.

"If you miss a misdirection, you get ear-holed, killed," he said. However, he is starting to think as a linebacker and calling on his high school experience.

"I didn't notice it last year, but Saturday on third and long, I started thinking about what plays I would call," Hirst said. Despite the loss, Hirst thinks the Indians came away with the confidence that they can be a good defensive team.

"I think there's more enthusiasm this year and we're working harder," he said. "If we all stick around, we can win the conference."

A physical education major, Hirst plans to be a high school coach someday.

"I'd like to pass along some of the fun I've had playing," he said.

Eastland County tax rate set for 1992-93

By MAYBELLE TROUT
Correspondent

EASTLAND — County commissioners Monday set a tax rate of 36.507 cents per $100 valuation for fiscal year 1992-93.

Commissioners said the rate is 3 percent more than the effective tax rate of 34.721 cents. The effective rate raises the same amount of money as the 1992-92 tax rate.

"You are going to look at rollback rates next year," said Precinct 1 Commissioner Richard Robinson, who retires at the end of the year.

County Judge Scott Bailey said, "We'll balance the budget by going into reserves. We've done this the past two years."

Commissioners agreed about $200,000 will be needed from reserves to add to tax revenues.

"Somebody, sooner or later, will have to raise taxes drastically — or cut services," Bailey said.

Commissioners agreed to continue to allow residential homestead exemptions for citizens more than 65 years old or who are disabled.

In another money matter, commissioners voted to continue health insurance coverage with the West Central Texas Oil and Gas Association of Abilene after learning no other company wanted to cover county employees.

Rates with WeCTOGA are increasing effective Oct. 1 from $250.93 to $286.81 per employee per month. Dental and prescriptions are included. Insurance for dependents is increasing 15 percent.

In other business, commissioners:

■ Agreed to allow Roger D. Wootton and Associates to conduct seismograph tests south of Interstate 20.

■ Allowed County Treasurer Ruth Hart to

LOUISE BROWN HOSTS EDNA SMITH CLASS

On September 10th the Edna Smith Class of the First Baptist Church met in the fellowship hall of the church with Louise Brown as hostess for our salad supper. Estelle Erwin ask the blessing on the meal.

Louise, as president, opened the business meeting with prayer by Bonnie Croft. Minutes were read and all officers reports were given.

Estelle made the motion that we give small gifts to each member who has birthdays that month. Frankie Jo Shipman seconded. Motion carried.

It was time to elect new officers. Estelle made the motion that all officers keep their same offices for another year. Anna seconded, and the motion carried.

Discussion of our yearbook was brought up. We dedicate the book each year to someone in our church whom we feel deserves a good word.

Scriptures were selected for the book by Frankie Jo: Psalms 18:24; Bonnie, Isa. 40:31; and Estelle, Matt. 7-12. Estelle writes poetry and it was decided to use one of her poems in the book.

There being no other business, we adjourned with Anna dismissing in prayer.

Gladys brought a devotional on the second coming of Jesus by reading First Thessalonians 4:16-17 and First Corinthians 15:51-52. She read several poems from the magazine: Decision by Billy Graham and "An Agreement With Death" from our Daily Bread.

Before we went home we were served wonderful homemade sherrbert.

Those attending were Bonnie Croft, Anna Rush, Frankie Jo Shipman, Estelle Erwin, Beth Welch; Gladys Chambless and Hostess, Louise Brown. We had two visitors, Opal Bonner and Annie Dunn.

REGULATORY CONTROL EDWARDS AQUIFER HAS BEEN OVERTURNED

WACO — A ruling by the Texas Water Commission seizing regulatory control of the Edwards Aquifer has been overturned in State District Court, and has been termed a victory for private property owners in Texas, according to Texas Farm Bureau President S. M. True.

"The Texas Water Commission's actions were illegal," said the president of the state's largest general farm organization. "We've always felt that the Commission didn't have the authority to regulate underground water."

State District Judge Pete Lowery, in a summary judgment issued September 11 in the case of Danny M Fadin and Texas Farm Bureau versus Texas Water Commission, declared TWC rules classifying the Edwards as an underground river -- making it subject to state regulation -- null and void.

"As of today, the Edwards is by law, an aquifer -- not a river -- and not subject to state regulation, True said.

KOKOMO NEWS

ZELDA JORDAN -- PHONE 639-2289

I didn't get the news in last week because Glenn and I were on a little trip to visit with Cindy, Kyle and Kayla Jordan in Portales, N.M. We also visited with Arvel and Etta Lewallen and grandchildren, Errin and Ally Milam in Lubbock; Laverne and Jess Winn of Muleshoe and Barbara and Bo Bell in Denver City. I celebrated my birthday while we were in Portales and felt really honored to have three celebrations. A sister, Laverne Winn and her husband, Jess, came to Portales for a visit and treated us to a birthday dinner at the Cattle Barron on Sunday evening complete with a dessert with a lighted candle and the waiters and waitresses singing the "Happy Birthday" song.

On Monday, Sept. 7, Cindy cooked a delicious birthday dinner for us, and it was a wonderful time to be able to celebrate my birthday with her and Kyle and Kayla, plus telephone visits with our daughter and son-in-law, Glenda and Bill Priest and grandchildren, Sheri and Wade Daniell of Abilene.

We spent Tuesday night in Denver City with another sister, Barbara Bell and her husband, Bo, and they treated us to another birthday dinner that evening at the Cattle Barron in Hobbs, N.M. complete with the dessert and lighted candle and "Happy Birthday" song.

And as if that weren't enough celebration, Glenda and Bill came on Saturday bearing a birthday cake decorated with an outline of Texas in blue and featuring bluebonnets and the inscription, "Happy Birthday" Mother and Bill, as Bill's birthday is Sept. 15. Bill's daughter, La Donna Priest of Stephenville met them here for a weekend visit and the birthday celebration.

I also received a birthday visit from Nancy Hendricks on Thursday before we left and also received many birthday cards and telephone calls.

With all that attention, I surely don't mind being 65 years "young."

While in Portales we learned that the New Mexico Association of Conservation Districts, Region V has presented, posthumously, a Certificate of Appreciation to our son, Ted Jordan, as Conservationist of the Year for his financial help and support in their youth projects. Ted's widow, Cindy, accepted the award at a meeting in Portales as she had not been able to attend the Regional Meeting in Roswell.

We were glad that Bro. Clarence Wilson was out of the hospital and back to preach for us on Sunday. He was to go to the VA Hospital in Temple on Tuesday for some tests.

The special music at the Sunday morning service at the Kokomo Baptist Church was rendered by Kay Snider, Leona Wilson, Helen Browning, Jimmy Little, Danny Snider, Woodrow Browning and Wynelle Brown. Rev. Marion Fonville of Houston, Gene and Lou Evelyn Rodgers of Midlothian and Sylvia Buchanan were visitors.

Recent visitors with Nancy Hendricks were John Riley, Gene, Janet and Dawn Michelle Wood of Odessa, Don and Lani O'Neal of Houston, Kelly Buchanan of Waco, Wilbourne and Martha Wood of Carbon, Heather Phillips of Cranfills Gap, Steve Klone of Clyde, Kathy, Sher and

KOKOMO EH CLUB MEETS IN GRIFFITH HOME

The Kokomo Extension Homemakers Club met in the home of Johnnie B. Griffith on Monday, Sept. 14th at 2 p. m. for a regular meeting.

President Jeanette Burreson led the club creed and prayer and welcomed guests.

Johnnie B. Griffith gave the devotional on Matthew 6:23-34 and led the opening oral prayer.

Roll Call was answered with "My Pet Peeve at the Grocery Store." Secretary Nancy Hendricks read the minutes. Treasurer Berneice Rodgers gave her report. Both were approved.

Council delegate Mary Frances Bishop gave the council report. She reported club members sold 1,000 cookbooks. Also Wynelle Brown, and Frances Bishop of the Kokomo EH attended the TEHA Retreat and were "Peanut Gals and were the hit of the parade.

Also the Eastland County Extension Homemakers Club entry in the Gorman Peanut Festival Parade won a blue ribbon. Wynelle Brown drove the pickup. Gerry Zummer, Nancy Hendricks, Doris Hodges and Jane Stark were the peanuts.

There will be a Senior Citizens Bazaar November 13th at the First Christian Church in Eastland.

A trip to the State Fair of Texas is planned for October 16th.

County Extension Agent Mrs. Janet Thomas gave a very interesting program "All Stressed Up", ending by saying "Don't Worry About Yesterday, It's Gone! and Tomorrow Never Comes."

Everyone was happy to have Zelda Jordan back in the club.

Johnnie B. served delicious refreshments from a beautiful pink table and crystal and silver. They were chips, dips, green salad, cookies, crackers, cakes, cold drinks and Christina Everton, Ruth Bryant, Glenn and Zelda Jordan, Hope Joiner, Joe O'Neal, Jean Burreson of Eastland, Sylvia Buchanan, Velma Bennett of Gorman and Troy Scitern.

Larry and Betty Strube visited on Thursday in Rising Star with Arbie and Violet Burcham.

Jimmy and Verna Little were in Arlington recently to visit with Tim, Nelda, Cody and Jarad Fails and to attend the baptism service for Cody at the University Baptist Church.

Nelda, Cody and Jarad came for a weekend visit with the Jimmy Littles and to attend the 90th birthday celebration of her grandmother, Mrs. Mamie Little. Others visiting with them were Ray Neal, Melissa and Emily Little of Eastland, James and Jill Little, Earl and Betty Little, Mary Jane Little, Carolyn Little, Mrs. Mamie Little, Mrs. Dora Garrett, Lavell Hallmark and Debbie and Ashton Braddock of San Angelo.

Lucille Joiner of Stephenville and Billie Jeane Grisham of De Leon visited with their mother, Mrs. Hope Joiner, on Saturday morning.

Deanna and Benny Chupp of Houston, and Jimmy and Wilds Rodgers of Midlothian visited with Cullen and Ava Rodgers during the Labor Day weekend. Gene and Lou Evelyn Rodgers visited with them this past weekend.

SCOTT FAMILY REUNION HELD IN LAMESA

The family of the late Scott and Lydia Creager met for their annual family reunion in the Lamesa Recreation Center on Saturday, Sept. 5. Pearl Snell Honored On 92nd Birthday September 13

Mrs. Pearl Snell, of Eastland Manor Nursing Home, was honored on her 92nd Birthday, Sunday, September 13 at the home of her daughter, Leola Fillyaw. Present for the occasion and helping her celebrate were her other children, Truman Snell, Doris Bennett, Gaylon Snell, and Johnny Snell. There were several other family members present.

Knowledge is of two kinds. We know a subject ourselves, or we know where we can get information upon it.

Guy Reunion Held Labor Day Weekend

The Guy family reunion was held again this year at the Kokomo Community Center over the Labor Day weekend.

Almost everyone came on Saturday night for snacks and fellowship. A catered meal was served on Sunday. A wonderful time was had by all. There were 74 in attendance.

We were honored with a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lucas of Rising Star and Mr. and Mrs. Orval Treadway of Gorman on Saturday night.

Many of our "Guys" toured their childhood home places and the Old Guy Place, only to find that nothing looks the same. Isn't it funny that everything looks so large when we are children and somehow shrinks as time passes.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Huddleston, Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Clement, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Rogers, James W. Guy, Don Guy, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Guy, Joan Guy, Bryan Bridgforth, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jarmine, Dawn Hendrix and Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Gould, Ashlea and Lauren, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Guy, Lori Baucum, Mr. and Mrs. Truitt Guy, Gene Guy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guy Wright, Cheryl Wright and a friend of Cheryl's, Renea McClintock Dorothy Jackson, John E. (Gene) Guy, George Boles, Oma Dee Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Buska, Alayna Mendez, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Guy, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Guy, Kevin and David, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Guy, Lavada Tucker, Andy and Erin, Randy Guy, John and Mandy, Elmer Ruth Guy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Coward, Jill and Lee Ann, Jayce Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Don Rogers, Stephanie, Kailyn and Scott, Gary Guy, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Huddleston, Jessica, Crystal and Benjamin.

Willing Workers Class Meets In New Class Room

Willing Workers Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church met on Tuesday, September 7th to take care of some business. We have not met during the summer, so we met in our new Sunday school class room before going out to eat and have fellowship.

Grace Townley brought us a good treasurer's report. Our nominating committee had met in August, so we have a new slate of officers.

We discussed our class buying mini blinds and valances for our windows.

Those present were our teacher, Winnell Browning, assistant teacher Frankie Jo Shipman, Iris Preston, Mayvis Lasater, Bea O'Neal, Euna Porter, Billie Bennett, Grace Townley, Annie Faye Foster and Irene West.

We then drove to Stephenville and ate at the Golden Corral, which we all enjoyed and ate too much. Then we went to Wal-Mart and bought the mini blinds and valances for our class room.

We want to thank Annie Faye for buying them and want to thank W. C. and Winnell Browning for putting them up for us.

We are so thankful to the Lord for all our new facilities where we can worship God in such a beautiful place.

Mary Ruth Beschoner Retires After 29 Years of Federal Service

Mary Ruth Yarbrough Beschoner retired from the Department of the Air Force, San Antonio on July 3, 1992 after 29 years of faithful and devoted federal service.

Mary Ruth is a 1943 graduate of Gorman High School and attended San Antonio College.

She was honored with a luncheon at the Guenther House, a brunch, and a retirement ceremony where she was presented a flag which had flown over the Capitol in Washington, D.C., a certificate of retirement, and a letter signed by President Bush.

Mary Ruth is the widow of Bill Beschoner and the daughter of Aletha K. Yarbrough and the late Avery Yarbrough of Gorman. Her daughters are Kay Lee and son-in-law, Mike Lee of San Jose, Calif., and Brenda Beschoner of San Antonio.

Mary Ruth plans to spend time with her grandsons, Shawn of San Jose and Brant and Vincent of San Antonio.
