EARLY MORNING FIRE SUNDAY HEAVILY DAMAGES FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

An early morning fire on Sunday, March 15th heavily damaged a portion of the First Baptist Church of Gorman.

The fire was believed to have started from a short in the air conditioning system. Don Curb turned the unit on around 7:30 a. m. and left. A short time later Carroll Hogan, who lives across the street from the church, saw smoke coming from the building and contacted Bro. Ron Carroll and called the fire department.

The fire was brought under control within a few minutes and was completely secure within an hour. The De Leon Fire Department assisted in fighting the fire.

Damage had not been estimated at press time, however, the largest damage was to the rear part of the building. The air conditioning will have to be replaced along with a portion of the roof and interior repairs.

Church services were held at the school auditorium and services next Sunday are anticipated to be held in the church.

The church was built in 1969 and has an active membership of 300.

Claude Dale Murray Buried On Friday At Murray Cemetery

Services were held at 2 p. m. Friday at Bakker Funeral Home Chapel with the Revs. Harry Thrasher and Don Laird officiating. Burial was in Murray Memorial Cemetery at Carbon.

He was a carpenter and cabinet-maker by trade. He served in the 6th Marine Division of the Pacific Theatre during WWII. He attended the Assemblies of God Church and enjoyed hunting and fishing.

Survivors include his wife, Geneva Murray of Caldwell; a daughter, Claudia Dianne (Mrs. Don) Francone of League City; a son, Gary Dale Murray of Dallas; two sisters, Vadis Phelps of Carbon and Birdie Reese of Amarillo; two brothers, Sam Murray and Leon Murray, both of Eastland, a half brother, two half sisters; two step sisters; five grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Final Peanut Totals Reveal Surprises

"The 1991 crop of peanuts in Eastland County will be remembered as the crop with many surprises," reports David W. Martin, County Executive Director of the Eastland County ASCS office. Although the 1991 crop had been termed a disaster crop, the yield of 1,598 pounds per acre set an all-time high yield. The previous high yield was in 1979 when the county averaged 1,597 pounds per acre. This record held for eleven crop years.

This year's peanut harvest was plagued with problems from the start. First, a freeze on September 30 which is six weeks earlier than normal, killed the vines. Then six to twelve inches of rain kept farmers from the field when they needed to dig the deteriorating vines in preparation for combining. The rest of the harvest was further complicated by record yields that delayed buying points and the complications involved with marketing segregation 2 peanuts. "Over five million pounds of peanuts, which represented 12 percent of the total crop, were graded segregation 2 due to freeze damage," Martin said. In most years, less than one-half of one percent is the maximum amount of peanuts that are graded segregation

We've been having some beautiful spring weather. There has been lots of activity in the home gardens in the community, and the farmers are beginning to get in the fields to break the land and start preparations for new crops.

And it is spring break time from school for a lot of the schools round about as well as for a lot of the colleges. It was good to see Gary Browning of Texas Tech and Shannon and Brian Bond of Texas A&M at church on Sunday morning. They are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Browning and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bond during their spring break.

Other visitors at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday morning were Lesley Gatlin of Amarillo, who is visiting with her grandparents, Helen and Woodrow Browning, and Gary, Frankie Jarrett of Gorman and Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Vera Lyerla of Flatwoods. The choir, under the direction of Woodrow Browning, with Glynda Bond at the piano, rendered the special music. "Happy Birthday" was sung by the congregation to Joe Bond who was celebrating his birthday on Sunday. "Happy Birthday" was sung to Naoma Morrow at church on last Sunday, March 8, as her birthday was Wednesday, March 11.

Chad and Lindsey Eaton of Ovalo were visitors at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday night. They are spending their spring break with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Fuller.

Janie Riley and Chad and Lara of Midland and Mrs. Bobbie Stafford of Wichita Falls visited last week with Johnnie B. Griffith during their spring break.

The 5th Sunday night Singing will be held at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday night, March 29th. So mark your calendars and come and join us in worshipping our Lord in songs or praise. Several churches from the Gorman area will be here. There will be lots of special music as well as congregational singing.

Delmon and Joyce Eaves were recent visitors in Ennis with Randy, Deliah and Chris Lewis and Mark Eaves of Mansfield. On Sunday they visited with Virda Mae Norris in Fort Worth and with others who were visiting in the Norris home, Jackie Norris and family, Ann and Calvin Smith and family and Tonja Smith and her fiancé, Dale Kesterson of Gallaudet University in Washington, D. C. They were celebrating Tonja's birthday.

Delmon and Joyce also visited with June Hawkins at the Western Hills Nursing Home. June would love to hear from her friends in this area. Her address is June Hawkins, c/o Western Hills Nursing Home, 8001 Western Hills Blvd., Room 402, Fort Worth, TX 76108. Let us all send June a card or letter to brighten her days, and if you are ever in Fort Worth, she would certainly enjoy a visit from you. She misses her friends in this area, but is in Fort Worth to be nearer to her son and wife, Matt and Amy Hawkins.

Kenneth, Linda and William Whitely of De Leon visited with Glenn and Zelda Jordan on Saturday afternoon. Kenneth, William and Glenn did a little fishing, and though the fish weren't biting very well, they enjoyed the outing anyway.

We extend our sincere sympathy to the family of Margaret Gist. Her funeral was held at Eastland on Monday. She was the grandmother of Jan Brown of our community, and the mother of Kay Cozart of Gorman.

And our sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Terry Clark of Gorman, who died on Monday. Terry was our mail carrier for many years, as was his dad before him, and he will be missed.

Richard, Teresa, Taylor and Trevis Nachtigall of Morgan Mill visited a few days with her parents, Vernon and Deon Fields, and Lindell while Taylor and Trevis were out of school on spring break. Vernon's nephew, Harvey Lee Winn of Midland, was also a visitor in the Fields' home.

Visitors with Nancy Hendricks during the week were Verna Rodgers Kandace and Jacob Johnson of Gorman, Bessie Buchanan of Tuscola, Allen Bradshaw of Carlton, Jonell Torrez and Charlie, and Nellie Lucky of Gorman, and Ruth Bryant and Hope Joiner.
