Seven Panthers On All-District: One All Area

There were seven Panther baseball players named to the 5A All-District Team for the 1992 season, and one was named on the All-Area Team.

Panthers on the All-District list included Genaro Madera, senior, as a pitcher; Don Mauney, freshman, as catcher; Cory Pack, senior; Jason Ditmore, senior; and Steve Taylor, senior, as infielders; Noah Landa, sophomore, as an outfielder; and Jade Warren, junior, as the designated hitter.

Making the All-Area list was Jason Ditmore.

GHS senior baseball player Jason Ditmore seldom suffered a slump in his hitting or pitching in his four-year varsity career. Ditmore never batted worse than .300 and never had a losing record or an earned-run average higher than 3.00 while playing for the Panthers. He also earned All-State honors his past three seasons.

"He just got better as he got older," Panther coach Doug Shanafelt said.

Ditmore also is the Star-Telegram Area Baseball Player of the Year for the second consecutive season.

As a batter, Ditmore went from hitting just barely better than .300 as a freshman to .529 his senior season. As a freshman pitcher he was 4-0, with 25 strikeouts and a 0.85 ERA in 24 2/3 innings. This season he had a 10-3 record with 108 strikeouts and a 1.71 ERA in 73 2/3 innings.

"He always had a lot of natural ability," Shanafelt said, "but he's been more of a leader as he matured."

This season Ditmore led the Panthers in every pitching category. He also led in every offensive category except steals and walks. In addition to his .529 batting average, Ditmore hit 10 home runs, batted in 45 runs, scored 36 and stole 12 bases. He hit his final homer and earned his last RBI with a solo shot over the centerfield wall in the Class A Regional final loss against Baird on June 5th.

Ditmore's batting average rose as high as .615 this season. It dipped to .529 after the Baird game. It was the result of Ditmore having to pitch all but two innings, as well as bat, for Gorman in the playoffs. Ditmore, who suffered a 3 for 11 slump in the first three playoff games, finished his career with a 2 for 4 against Baird.

Although his hitting suffered in the playoffs this season, Ditmore's pitching seldom faltered. He walked only 41 batters for the season and the eight hits he allowed against Baird was a season high.

We congratulate Jason being named to the All-Area Team, and Genaro, Don, Cory, Steve, Noah, Jade, and Jason being named on the All-District Team. Great job guys!

Chamber Of Commerce Business Spotlight Of The Month G&H FEEDS, INC.

G & H Feeds was founded in June 1985 by Daryl Hirst and Bill Gressett. The business was incorporated to become G&H Feeds, Inc. in September 1985.

The business began with the mixing facilities that Bill had used with his hog operation. Construction of a new 1600 sq. ft. mixing building with larger mixing facilities was completed in January 1986.

The business began to grow and by the summer of 1987 construction began on a 2500 sq. ft. addition to house office space and bagged feed storage. This was completed in the late fall of 1987. Until this time the bulk feed business had been operated with 2 bulk feed delivery trucks and another truck was added in the spring of 1988. About this time the bagged feed business had also grown to the point that more storage space was needed.

During the early summer of 1988 construction began on a 5000 sq. ft. addition to house bag feed storage and also flat storage for more feed ingredients. This was completed in the early fall of 1988.

By this time G&H was servicing accounts within a 100 mile radius of Gorman and were operating 4 bulk delivery trucks and 1 liquid feed truck.

During the fall of 1990, 2 pellet mills were installed to use for cattle cubes and other livestock pelleted feeds.

G&H now has the capability of producing all kinds of livestock feeds. G&H also has a full line of animal health products.

G&H Feeds, Inc. now has 12 employees. Much of the credit for the growth and success goes to the employees. G&H is very fortunate to have this quality of people as employees.

We are truly grateful for the success we have had to this point and look forward to serving your account in the future.

The weatherman has sent us some pretty good showers recently. The moisture sure did help a lot of the farmers who had their peanuts planted, as they were needing a good rain. However, there are still some farmers who have not been able to plant because of wet, soggy spots in the fields, and the showers didn't do them any favors. I think most of the peanut farmers have gotten their peanuts planted, but quite a few of them have had to plant so late that they are wondering what will happen with the extended time it will take to get the peanuts harvested and the possibility of the weather turning bad before the peanuts are mature enough to harvest before cold weather sets in. Only God knows what will happen with the late crop and we will have to believe that he will bless us with the right kind of weather when harvest time does get here.

—J—

Have you noticed the Gorman and Oaklawn Cemeteries lately. The newly-formed cemetery association is doing a great job of securing someone to keep the cemeteries looking good. The weather has caused some problems, but all in all things are looking great out there.

By the way, if you haven't yet joined the Gorman-Oaklawn Cemetery Association, please think about it and join up. If you wish to sign up I bet Mary Waller at Citizens State Bank, or Doris Bryan at SWPGA can use their influence to get you signed up.

We congratulate the seven Panther baseball players who made the All-District Team in District 5A. Also to Jason Ditmore for being named to the All-Area Team. Those on the All-District Team are Jason, Steve Taylor, Cory Pack, Noah Landa, Genaro Madera, Don Mauney, and Jade Warren.

Great job gang!

—J—

There has been a great deal of cleaning up and fixing up in our town and folks are becoming conscious of the fact that they need to clean up and brighten up their homes and places. With the dumpsters provided by the city recently to dispose of all the trash, etc. folks here sure took advantage of the opportunity to get things hauled off and get their places "beautified". Everyone notices and appreciates folks who keep their places looking neat and trimmed.

—J—

There was a large crowd of Lions and their ladies at the Lions Installation Banquet on Tuesday night at Stephenville. The Lions treated their ladies to some great food, fun and fellowship. The Lions Club is growing and if you haven't signed up to be a member, please do so and join in the fun and fellowship of the club. They do a great deal of civic betterment in our community. So join!

USDA Secretary Madigan Speaks

College Station — USDA Secretary Edward Madigan told Texas farmers and ranchers on June 5th that it is his goal to make his department as responsive to production agriculture as possible.

Responding to media criticism that USDA is a "bloated bureaucracy," Madigan told producers that "60 percent of the agricultural agency's budget pertains to nutrition and has nothing to do with production agriculture." The Secretary noted only 17 percent of the total USDA budget is directly related to production agriculture.

Madigan met with leaders from Texas A&M University, Texas Farm Bureau and farmers and ranchers from Brazos and Washington Counties. A&M officials briefed the Secretary on ongoing research and development in agricultural programs.

Dr. Charles Lee, the Interim Chancellor and Dean of Texas Agriculture Experiment Station, headed the discussion of A&M agricultural programs during the briefing at the Kleberg Center.

The YSDA Secretary said he would like to see all agricultural organizations develop the kind of "single-mindedness" that extremist groups demonstrate nationwide.

The Secretary toured the Blue Bell Creamery in Brenham to conclude his Texas tour. He came to Texas at the invitation of U. S. Rep. Jack Fields (R-Humble) along with the Texas Farm Bureau and Brazos and Washington County Farm Bureaus.

Perry Says EPA Grants Emergency Exemption Use

Austin — The U. S. Environmental Protection Agency has granted a Texas Department of Agriculture request that will allow farmers emergency use of the insecticide Asana XL on grain sorghum, Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry said.

"We appreciate EPA's quick response on this matter," Perry said. "Without this method of control, our sorghum farmers were projected to lose as much as $10 million this summer to the sorghum midge."

The sorghum midge is a type of fly that is primarily controlled by planting sorghum early and having it flower before midge populations can seriously threaten crops. But this season's heavy rains caused sorghum crops to be planted late, Perry said.

Along with midges, Asana XL also may be used to control headworms.

Debra Lewis Selected For Rural Scholar Program

Debra Lewis, daughter of Mary Swanner of Gorman, has been named one of the participants of the Texas Outstanding Rural Scholar Recognition Program.

Rural Texas communities, challenged by the need to fill vacancies in all health care professionals, now have an opportunity to take advantage of a unique state supported program - the Texas Outstanding Rural Scholar Recognition Program.

The program, administered by the Texas Center for Rural Health Initiatives, helps rural Texas communities ensure a well-trained and committed health care work force for the future and help students achieve the health care careers that might otherwise be out of their reach.

Under the program, an organization in a rural community acts as a sponsor for a student pursuing a health care education. The sponsoring rural community contributes 50 percent of a student's educational and living costs, and the state provides the remaining 50 percent. In turn, the student pledges to return to the sponsoring community upon graduation to work as a health care provider. This partnership enables the community to "grow its own" health care providers with state assistance. The student repays the loan on a forgiveness basis. For each year the student works for the sponsor upon graduation, one year of principal and interest on the loan is forgiven.

Debra Lewis, who is employed at De Leon Hospital as the insurance clerk, patient account rep, and alternate payroll clerk, has been selected for this recognition program. Debra will be attending Tarleton State University School of Nursing beginning this fall. There were only a few hospitals and rural scholars selected for this Outstanding Rural Scholar Recognition Program.
