The Panthers continued their winning ways in District 14A action on Friday when they defeated the Buffaloes by a 34 to 0 margin. The Big Red Defense held the Buffs to only 3 first down in the last half and to a total of 103 combined yards.

Gorman hit the scoreboard first with 5:12 left in the initial period when Paul Petree ran in from 1 yard out. The drive followed a recovery of a Buff fumble at the Gorman 43. The drive featured runs of 16 and 15 for first downs by Margarito Sanchez, an 8 yard pass to Petree and a 3 yard run by Petree to set Gorman up at the CP one. Justin Snider kicked the point after and Gorman led 7-0.

The Panthers scored again with 3:37 left in the second period when Sanchez ran in from 13 yards out to cap a 58 yard drive in 4 plays. The drive featured a 9 yard run by Sanchez, runs of 23 and 8 by Petree and an 18 yard pass to Adon Rodriguez. Snider kicked the point after and Gorman was up 14-0.

The Panther March Band and the Cross Plains Band did a very good job with their routines at halftime. Both bands scored 2's in band contests.

Gorman added another score with 5:38 left in the third quarter when Sanchez raced in from 8 yards out for the TD. This drive was set up by a recovery of a Buff fumble a the CP 19 yard line. Following a Gorman penalty, Nick Guthery hit Jason Warren with a beautiful 30 yard pass, then Sanchez got the honors. The kick for point failed and Gorman led 20-0.

The Panthers got another drive going late in the third period, going 54 yards in 7 plays with Ronald Majors getting the score on a 29 yard pass from Nick Guthery with 37 seconds left. The drive featured runs of 5, 9, 6, 15 and 6 before Majors got the TD. Snider kicked the point after and Gorman was up 27-0.

The final Panther score came with 5:04 left in the game when Nick Guthery ran in from 2 yards out on a quarterback rollout. The drive covered 62 yards on 7 plays. The drive featured a 36 yard pass to Jason Warren, a 9 yard run, a 24 yard run by Jeremy Bryan and a 14 yarder by Petree to set up the 2 yard run by Guthery. Snider booted the point after and Gorman had a 34-0 victory to make their District 14A mark at 3-0.

The Big Red defense played a great game and held the usually good CP offense to only 9 first downs in the game. The Panther defense will be re-ally tested again this week when they host the Mountaineers at Brogdon Field in another crucial 14A game.

Sanchez led the Panthers on the ground with 111 yards on 15 carries. Petree had 82 yards on 18 tries. Jeremy Bryan did a good job with 63 yards on 7 tries. Guthery had 28 on 6 keepers. Jason Warren had a very good night with 20 yards on 2 carries and caught 3 passes for 86 yards. Adon Rodriguez had 13 on 1 carry.

Be on hand Friday night to boost the Panthers to another victory and let them know we are behind them all the way.

Heritage Manor To Adopt Eden Alternative Plan

A visit in coming months to Heritage Manor of Gorman will most likely conjure images of your family room rather than those of traditional long-term care facilities.

Visitors could very well hear birds chirping, see a cat strolling down the halls, and watch residents tend to gardens and house plants. These vital "life-oriented" activities are part of a nationwide effort to provide nursing home residents with a reason to live by creating "human habitats" within these facilities.

Heritage Manor, a nursing home in Gorman, is one of the first nursing homes in Texas to adopt and begin implementation of the "Eden Alternative." This concept of management and care views nursing homes as "habitats" for residents rather than institutions for the frail and elderly.

"We are excited about beginning this approach to care for the elderly," said Steve Vogel, administrator of Heritage Manor. "At Heritage Manor, we are continually seeking more effective ways to help our residents and the Eden Alternative is certainly an outstanding opportunity. In the coming months we will be implementing several of these programs."

The Eden Alternative was developed by Dr. William H. Thomas, who first implemented these programs at Chase Memorial Nursing Home in upstate New York.

"The program is based on the fact that nursing homes, as we know them, are not normal environments," said

Vogel. "They segregate people by age and frailty. Residents are isolated from the rest of society, and this is certainly not healthy."

"The purpose of the Eden Alternative is to integrate residents into society by reintroducing activities that give all of us pleasure. By doing this, our staff can alleviate the largest problem in nursing homes - loneliness, helplessness and boredom."

Residents at Heritage Manor may have pets in their rooms. Others have adopted the "house cat." Many are taking care of plants, the nursing home hopes to have an outside garden area to have on-site activities with local children's groups.

"The Eden Alternative recognizes that everyone - even the elderly - have a capacity for growth," said Vogel. "Our residents will experience this growth by feeding our cat or watering a plant. These activities give them a renewed interest in life because they find a great deal of pleasure in caring for others."

"The typical Eden Alternative nursing home offers warmth of companionship, opportunities to give and receive, and variety in daily lives."

Vogel pointed out that these programs are therapeutic, rather than medical, and distinguish between treatment and care.

"Treatment is the provision of competent, comprehensive therapeutic service," he said. "Care is helping someone to grow. Treatment is intermittent, like in a hospital. People enter a hospital, receive treatment and then go home or to a nursing home. The essence of a nursing home is to provide care and a better quality of life. Care is ongoing and is the role of a nursing home."

Heritage Manor also plans to weave the social life of children into the nursing home. Several nursing homes in other parts of the country have started on-site child care centers for children of employees. These have been subsequently expanded to after-school programs for school age children. In the summer, these nursing homes have been the sites for the day camps.

These programs give children and residents a reason to mingle and interact," said Vogel. Residents enjoy watching the children play and hearing their laughter. They also work together on arts and crafts and play checkers, chess and other games. "Everyone benefits and it is our hope to develop similar programs at Heritage Manor in the coming months."

Janet Thomas County Extension Agent Eastland County TIPS FOR PARENTS OF SCHOOL-AGE CHILDREN

Parents are the primary educators in a child's life. Help your child succeed in school by:

- *Presenting a positive attitude toward school and teachers. *Making sure he/she has a healthy breakfast and lunch. *Asking about their day. Listen intently as they talk. *encouraging them to read by reading to them and providing books that they like... children who read will be smarter, happier children.

- *Scheduling time for the television to be off and a place for homework to be done. I am a firm believer that the best place to do homework is at the kitchen table where parents can help oversee that it is done.

- *Participating in education activities as a family. Some of the experiences that children love are free... going to the public library and checking out books, visiting a farm to see cows being milked, watching how a windmill pumps water up out of the ground and feeling how cold it is, going fishing, observing how farmers dig up the peanuts during harvest time and maybe roasting some raw peanuts or better yet making homemade peanut butter, and the list could go on.

- *Getting involved in school by volunteering, showing interest in your children's work and keeping contact with their teacher.

ZELDA JORDAN -- PHONE 639-2289

A light shower fell in the community on Monday evening. Not enough to really affect the peanut harvest very much, I don't think. Just settled the dust a little bit.

Jimmy Little led the singing at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday morning. Glynda Bond was the pianist. "Happy Birthday" was sung to Nancy Hendricks who's birthday is Oct. 31, and Earl Little who had a birthday last week.

Members of the Kokomo Baptist Church attended the Fifth Sunday Night Singing at the Gorman Family Life Church on Sunday night. If you missed the singing you really missed a blessing. It was truly a time of worship singing the gospel songs and listening to all the special music. There was wonderful christian fellowship as we had refreshments in the fellowship hall after the singing.

The next singing will be at the New Hope Baptist Church on New Year's Eve from 8 to 12 midnight.

Woodrow and Helen Browning spent the weekend with Gary Don and Donna Gatlin, Lesley and Melanie at Mineral Wells and helped Gary celebrate his birthday.

Kirby Fears will be the Gideon speaker at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday morning, Nov. 5.

Claude and Juanita Fuller spent the weekend in Lewisville with Rick and Pat Fuller. They all went to Eules-Hurst-Bedford Pennington Field to see the Jim Ned Band (trying for a trip to the state marching contest) in the marching contest on Saturday afternoon and a visit with Christi and Lindsey Eaton. Lindsey is a member of the band. The Jim Ned band placed 4th in the contest. Our congratulations to Lindsey and all the band members.

Claude and Juanita Fuller attended

Church services with Rick and Pat Fuller at the Temple Baptist Church on Sunday morning.

Lucille Joiner of Stephenville and Howard Joiner of Arlington visited with their mother, Mrs. Hope Joiner on Saturday.

Funeral services for Paul Greenwood of Cross Plains were held in Cross Plains on Monday. He was a cousin to Wynelle Brown and Jenoise Allison. We extend sincere sympathy to them and the Greenwood family.

Those attending the singing at Harmony Baptist Church Sunday afternoon were Bro. Jim and Ann Poe, C.O. Sandlin, Elizabeth Sandlin, Billie Stacy and Dorothy Light.

We really had singing last Tuesday afternoon at Heritage Manor in Gorman besides the usual singers we had two birds singing with us. The louder we sang, the louder they were. We would stop and they would stop. It was quite a sight.

MAMMOGRAPHY CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE!!

If you are a healthy woman over 40 who never has had a mammogram, the American Cancer Society recommends that you have this simple life-saving procedure now. Since one woman in 10 develops breast cancer at some point in her lifetime, the urgency is real.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination. These images are then interpreted by a Board Certified Radiologist, and a report is sent to your own doctor. It takes only a few minutes, and can detect incipient breast cancer as small as the period at the end of this sentence.

Early detection (18 months sooner than a lump can be felt) not only permits treatment before the problem becomes serious, but the cure rate is over 90 percent. Mammography cannot only save your life, but help you avoid the need for disfiguring surgery, too.

You don't need to have been a previous patient of ours to receive this screening, but you do need to make an appointment at a time convenient to you.

TDC Awards Tx Leverage Fund Loan To Cisco

The Texas Department of Commerce awarded a Texas Leverage Fund (TLF) loan recently to the Cisco Development Corporation in the amount of $100,000. Cisco Development Corporation is using the money to fund a loan to Ram Inc., a thermoplastics injection molder company and to purchase one of Ram Inc.'s buildings. Ram Inc. is purchasing and renovating a large industrial building in Cisco to allow the consolidation of their company from three different locations. With the expansion Ram Inc. expects to create approximately 75 jobs.

"With the help of the Texas Leverage Fund, Ram Inc. is consolidating the molding, engineering, and machine shop facilities into one 40,000 square-foot building," said Ram Inc. President R. Diann Morris. "This consolidation will not only increase Ram's productivity, but allow room for planned expansion," she added.

The TLF is an economic development bank offering financing to communities that have passed the economic development sales tax to amke loans to local businesses for industry expansion or recruitment. With the assistance of Bank One, Texas the TLF was capitalized with $25 million in State of Texas taxable commercial paper. To date, Commerce has funded over $13 million in loans, and expects to fund an additional $1 million within the next month.

"The TLF allows communities to put sales tax money to work quickly, to make decisions at the local level, and to monitor the project on an on-going basis," says Commerce Executive Director Brenda F. Arnett.

To access the TLF, businesses apply to the local Industrial Development Corporation, established to administer cities' economic development sales tax. The local IDC then submits an application to Commerce.

"Ram Inc.'s business expansion is very exciting to a small community, such as Cisco, because it diversifies the economy from the normal oil and gas industry of the West Texas area," said Cisco City Manager Mike Moore. "The expansion would not have been possible without the TLF program providing a quick turnaround for application processing and funding of the loan," he added.

TLF projects must be eligible under the Development Corporation Act and meet requirements established in the Texas Leverage Fund Program Guidelines. Eligible projects include the development or expansion of manufacturing and industrial enterprises.

"Ram Inc. is committed to the Cisco community, and this community feels that a local expansion is the best resource for economic development," said Cisco Development Corporation President Larry Fitzgerald.

For more information on the TLF, contact Alma Puenta of Commerce at 512-936-0264 or by e-mail at almap@mail.tdoc.texas.gov.

Vesicular Stomatitis Quarantine Lifted

M. Davy Vestal
County Extension Agent-Ag
Effective immediately, Dr. Terry Beals, executive director of the Texas Animal Health Commission (TAHC) has released a quarantine affecting livestock in Rusk, Smith and Cherokee Counties in East Texas. Animals in portions of these three counties were put under movement restrictions October 3, after a horse near Henderson, in Rusk County, displayed symptoms of vesicular stomatitis (VS) and the virus was isolated from a tissue sample collected from the animals mouth.

VS, a highly contagious livestock virus, causes painful blisters and sores in the mouth and around the nose, teats and hooves. Animals usually recover in two to three weeks but lose condition, as they are unable to eat or drink adequately until the sores heal. Standard regulatory action involves isolating affected animals and quarantining stock within a 10-mile radius for at least 30 days after all lesions are healed to prevent potential disease spread.

On Monday, October 16, the National Veterinary Services Laboratory (NVSL) in Ames, Iowa, notified Dr. Beals that laboratory staff could not re-isolate the virus from the original tissue sample a second time. Also, the horse did not develop a positive blood test, despite multiple samples submissions. According to NVSL policy, this test is then considered negative, unless other evidence of infection is present.

"Armed with this additional laboratory information the TAHC also considers this case to be negative and has immediately lifted all VS quarantines and movement restrictions in Rusk, Smith and Cherokee Counties," said Dr. Beals.

"We regret the hardship under which producers in this area have worked for the past two weeks, during our best efforts to prevent the spread of VS," said Dr. Beals. "This summer, VS marched through New Mexico and Colorado, and resulted in several cases in Arizona, Utah and Wyoming. Earlier this summer a well-trained rodeo horse brought home infection to West Texas, and was released from quarantine in late August."

"Diagnosis of VS is dependent on symptoms and laboratory results—either a positive blood test, or isolation of the virus from a tissue sample," said Dr. Beals. "This disease is so contagious it is curial to prevent disease spread by taking decisive action as soon as a positive test result is reported. In this instance the lab results were not reproducible and we release all restrictions with our regrets to producers, veterinarians, and livestock market owners for their inconvenience. We apologize for any cancelled events, due to the quarantines and restrictions."

Dr. Jim Crumm, the TAHC epidemiologist working on this case, said that since October 3, 257 more blood samples and three tissue samples had been submitted to NVSL, the official testing laboratory. They found no more evidence of infection. Dr. Crumm explained that blisters or lesions in this case could have been caused by trauma or a reaction to food drugs or plants.

"I personally applaud the producers in these affected counties. They were extremely cooperative with our efforts to track down the probable source of infection and any potential disease spread for this case," said Dr. Crumm. The blood and tissue samples TAHC and USDA staff collected from 62 premises from a half-dozen East Texas counties were key in determining there was no VS. This successful field work and producer cooperation were pivotal in bringing this case to a close."

Dr. Crumm said 28 TAHC and VS field staff will be returning to their regular assigned duties. They had been dispatched to the three counties to collect blood and tissue samples from livestock and set up inspection stations along the highways in the area.

"VS is still a real possibility in Texas," warned Dr. Beals. "Currently, New Mexico has nine premises under quarantine, and Colorado has 83 cases. Utah has four cases, and Wyoming has three. Anyone with livestock showing symptoms of the disease should contact their veterinarian and the TAHC to prevent disease spread."

Producers and veterinarians may contact their local TAHC area office, or the TAHC headquarters in Austin at 512/719-0700 or the USDA's Veterinary Services in Austin at 512/482-5555.

Ten Free Shade Trees

Ten free shade trees will be given to each person who joins The National Arbor Day Foundation during October 1995.

The free trees are part of the non-profit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

The ten shade trees are Sugar Maple, Red Oak, Pin Oak, Green Ash, Thornless Honey locust, Weeping Willow, River Birch, Tuliptree, Silver Maple, and Red Maple.

"Spectacular fall colors are among the many benefits of these beautiful shade trees," John Rosenow, the Foundation's president, said.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between November 1 and December 10 with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow, or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to SHADE TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, Ne 68410, by October 31, 1995.

New Regulations Necessary For Cattle Brucellosis

M. Davy Vestal
County Extension Agent-Ag
While they seem to be a nuisance, the new regulations pertaining to brucellosis are necessary to eliminate this cattle disease from Texas.

The new regulations, implemented by the Texas Animal Health Commission, became effective October 15th. "We're really focusing on eradication now," said r. Buddy Faries, veterinarian with the Texas Agricultural extension Service.

The brucellosis bacteria causes reduced milk production, weakened calves, sterility and abortions.

In 1934, when the cooperative eradication program was put into effect, 10 percent of the beef and dairy cattle over six months of age in the United States were infected and brucellosis was blamed for $50 million in annual production losses.

The number of infected herds in Texas now hovers around 40, far fewer than the 20,000 herds infected in the 1950s.

The first change in the regulations has basically eliminated the card test. In the past, the card test was often balm for false-positive test, long follow-up owner frustration.

Producers now may send blood samples directly to the joint TAHC and U.S. Department of Agriculture labs in Austin, Palestine, Lubbock and Fort Worth. Only livestock market veterinarians will be allowed to maintain supplies of the brucellosis card test for market use.

The calffood vaccination age for dairy and beef heifers also has been changed from 4 to 12 months to between 4 and 10 months. This reduces the number of false-positive tests that can occur when heifers are cycling (in heat) or pregnant when vaccinated.

Non-vaccinated heifers in "priority herds" now will be tested at more than four months of age instead of more than six months.

Herds designated as priority are those that are quarantined and herds adjacent to those he explained.

Under the old system, a 4-month-old heifer would not have been tested. If she was infected, the whole herd would have to be placed back under quarantine later when she came "of age" and was tested.

"That's been a burden on quarantined herds. It would take producers longer to 'clean up' infections in their herds," he explained.

Additionally, brucellosis reactors are now allowed to be sold directly to slaughtering facilities, especially if they could spread the disease at a livestock auction. Before reactors were all sold through livestock markets, increasing the exposure of other animals to the disease.

In the past, herds were quarantined for 180 days. That quarantine period has been extended to 12 months in order to make sure herds are brucellosis-free before the quarantine is lifted.

"It's a big burden," Faries said. "The quarantine is the true negative side to the brucellosis program."

Herds will be released from the quarantine after three consecutive negative herd test. The second negative test must be at least 120 days after the final reactor is removed from the herd and the third negative test must be at least 12 months after the final reactor is removed.

"One positive side of this is that the negative test may be used to certify the herd free of brucellosis," he said. That is attractive to many buyers, he added.

Va Adds Cancers To List Of Caused Radiation Diseases

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) has published in the Federal Register an amendment to regulations adding rectal cancer and lymphomas other than Hodgkin's disease to the list of diseases that may be considered for disability compensation due to ionizing radiation exposure.

Under the regulation, which is used to determine if a disease resulted from in-service radiation exposure, VA must consider the condition the veteran claims, the radiation dose a veteran received, and the time elapsed between exposure and the onset of th disease. Veterans do not have to prove that ionizing radiation may have caused any of the listed diseases.

Diseases already recognized as radiogenic under the regulation include all forms of leukemia, except chronic lymphatic (lymphocytic) leukemia; multiple myeloma; posterior subcapsular cataracts; nonmalignant thyroid nodular disease; parathyroid adenoma; tumors of the brain and central nervous system; and cancer of the thyroid, breast, lung, bone, liver, skin, esophagus, stomach, colon, pancreas, kidney, urinary bladder, salivary gland and ovaries.

The list is not exclusive. In February, VA revised the regulation so that it will consider veterans' claims based

Sibley To Hold

State Sen. David Sibley will host an open house at his Weatherford district office from 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m. Friday, Nov. 3.

The office is located in the First Place Building at 200 Palo Pinto St., next to First National Bank.

"I'm looking forward to meeting with the residents of the northern portion of my Senate district," said Sibley, R-Waco.

Sibley represents Texas Senate District 22, an area that includes 16 Central Texas counties. The Weatherford district office serves Denton, Eastland, Erath, Jack, Johnson, Palo Pinto, Parker, Tarrant and Wise counties.

on diseases other than those listed in the regulation, provided the claimant presents scientific or medical evidence showing the claimed condition may be caused by radiation exposure.

VA moved to add rectal cancer and lymphomas other than Hodgkin's disease to the list on the advice of the Veterans Advisory Committee on Environmental Hazards, a committee of outside experts established by Congress to evaluate scientific and medical studies and to advise VA on radiation-related compensation issues.

Veterans or their survivors who wish to file claims can contact the nearest VA regional office at 1-800-827-1000 for information and assistance.
