Thank You

I want to thank everyone who voted for me in the City Commissioner's election. I appreciate your vote and words of encouragement since the

I love Gorman and its citizens. I will strive to do my part in continuing to make Gorman a good place to live. No man is an island. It takes all of us, working together to create a city for us and our loved ones to live in

Please pray for the mayor, the other commissioners and myself as we endeavor to gain your respect by trying to do the best for all the citizens of our great town.

MISS GORMAN CONTESTANT

Hello! My name is Sandra Lara. I am the Gorman Fire Department candidate for Miss Gorman. I am sixteen years old and will be a junior at Gorman High School. My parents are Lorenzo and Hilda Lara. My grandparents are Carmen and the late Daniel Herrera of Gorman. I have one sister, Jessica Lara, and a beautiful seven month old niece, Natalie Jade. I also have a large extended family, The Herrera's!

My desired sport is powerlifting! I like to be in the company of my friends, spending time with my family, as well as spend some time with my boyfriend. Several of my hobbies include playing with my niece, going swimming, listening to music, talking on the telephone, and shopping. My favorite foods consist of ice cream and pizza! My preferred music is alternative. I am a very blunt and open-minded individual and loves to meet new people. I enjoy going out to the movies and out to eat.

Sandra Lara

I would deeply value all of the Gorman citizens for supporting me and I greatly thank and appreciate the Gorman Fire Department for sponsoring me in the Miss Gorman Contest.

The Alarm Works!!!

The Mayor and Commission would like to apologize for the siren blowing numerous times during the night last Thursday. Although if in the course of bad weather the alarm system will be blown, it was not an intention last week. The high winds caused the wires to short and sparked the alarm

The City would like to remind the citizens that in the event of bad weather, warning will be given by sounding the alarm with a long continued blast. That will be a warning of possible tornado activity or other possible hazardous danger.

The first responders and volunteer fire department now have radios and pager capability to alert each of them in the event of an emergency calling for their aid.

The alarm system is scheduled for testing on the first Monday of each month at 12:00 noon. Mayor and Commission

On Sunday, June 6, The Peanut Shuffle Dancers performed "A Salute to Texas." Dancers include: Upper L to R: Kati Deel, Lisa Deel, Britany Rainey, Courtny Byrd, Alaina Swanner, Katey Thackerson, Makeisah Hampton, Gisella Martinez, Ali Mace, Lindy Thackerson, Tori Collins, Felicia Mace, Avery Tyson, Shiloe O'Banon, Kayce Dodd. Not pictures: Kimmy Seaton, Laci Lawrence, Jordan Carter, and Barbara Sherman.

The girls participated in several events this past year including the Peanut Festival and the Relay for Life. They have worked really hard and their parents should be proud of them. I am very proud and thank their parents for allowing me to influence their children's lives.

I would like to give a HUGE thanks to Lori Dodd for pulling together my programs at the last minute and doing last minute costume details.

I'd also like to thank Becky, Mindy and Revise Laminack, Texas Creations for stage decorations. Thanks to Kim Sharp for doing the photographs.

If I have forgotten anybody, you are appreciated! Have a great summer and see you in September! Lisa Deel

The Purpose Driven Life:

Discussion Groups Now Forming

You can get more than a tan this summer! You can "Little Miss Gorman" to the Miss get plugged-in to your purpose in life! You've no doubt heard about it. Everyone is reading it.

Rick Warren's best-selling book, The Purpose Driven Life is dramatically changing the way many Americans view their lives and their priorities. Listen to what nationally recognized leaders are saying:

Make sure you're not missing the point of your life read this book! (Billy Graham)

If you only read one book on what life is all about make it this one! This book is life-changing...Give this book to everyone you care about. Believe me, you'll never be the same after reading this! What a gift! (Lee Strobel, author)

Disoriented about your direction in life? Are decisions tough to make and steps hard to take? If so, Rick Warren has written a masterpiece of wise counsel for you. (Max Lucado, author)

Rick Warren strongly suggest that readers get involved in a small discussion group while reading the book. This serves to maximize the learning experience and helps to insure long-term benefits of the study. Listed below is contact info regarding groups that are currently forming in your community.

Heritage Manor News By Nancy Hendricks

Before I Criticize

Pause and be sure that my heart is right! Do I really want to help or hinder? Which will I be doing? (Matthew 7:1,2)

Examine my own life to see that everything is in order! Would I be honest to condemn another when correction is needed for my soul? (Matthew 7:3-5)

Try to put myself in his place! How would I be doing if I were bearing his burden or laboring in his stead? (Romans 15:1,2)

Remember God's mercy toward me! How often have I bowed before Him to plead for grace when I have failed? Should I now be as merciful to a fellow sinner? (Matthew 18:21-35) Consider the benevolence of others! My brethren have often borne with me in my own failures, therefore can I not now suffer with another?

Remember the hurt I felt the last time someone criticized me! Can I delight in inflicting the same hurt upon another? (Matthew 5:44-48)

Pray for my brother and myself! I need to petition the Father for him that he might overcome, and for myself, that I might be forgiven for even considering sinning against him. (Acts 8:22)

Go to my brother in humility and love! There I can confess my shortcomings before him, and help open his eyes to his own need for repentance. (James 5:16)

Barbarian Festival

Come to Cross Plains, home of Robert E. Howard, creator of Conan the Barbarian, for a fun-filled weekend, Friday and Saturday, June 11th and 12th.

The Robert E. Howard House Museum, presented by Project Pride, will be open both days with Howard enthusiasts and scholars from all over the nation attending. Writing, panel discussions, tours of the area and a banquet will take place on Friday with much more on Saturday.

The Barbarian Festival, sponsored by the Barbarian Festival Committee, will kick off Saturday morning with a parade down Main Street followed by a fun-filled day of care, tractor, and motorcycle shows, food, games, arts and crafts and live entertainment from Headliner Band, Class of '57, plus more bands and dance groups. There will be something for the entire family.

Stephenville Concert In Park

The music of Peter Tchaikovsky will highlight next Sunday's (June 13) "Concert in the Park" presented by the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra and sponsored by The Cross Timbers Fine Arts Council.

The concert, a $40,000 production, will be in the outdoor setting of Birdsong Amphitheater in Stephenville City Park beginning at 8:30 p.m. and is free to the public. FWSO inaugurated the amphitheater in the summer of 2000.

"That last concert we had in 2002 drew a crowd of around 5,000. So we hope everyone will plan to attend this year's production," says CTFAC Executive Director Debbie Reynolds. "This will be the same performance the symphony presented earlier this month during its "Concerts In The Garden" series at the Botanic Garden in Fort Worth. Tickets were $17. Our event will be free."

Scheherazade, Opus 35, by Rinsky-Korsakov will open the hour and a half program. Following an intermission "A Collage of Symphonies" composed by Tchaikovsky will follow. Most everyone will recall the Russian composer's most famous piece, "The 1812 Overture", written in 1880 to commemorate the victory of Russia in the Napoleonic Wars in 1812. The selection will be the evening's final piece and will include a breath taking fireworks display provided by Atlas Enterprises Inc. of Fort Worth.

Sound for the evening is provided by Onstage Systems of Dallas.

Concertgoers should bring a blanket or lawn chair to sit on. A variety of food will be available from vendors or picnic baskets will be wel-

A limited number of tables with four seats are still available for $50 on a first come basis by calling the CTFAC office at 965-6190.

The park will closed all day for setup, but will open to the public at

"This will be the fine arts event of the year in Stephenville," concludes Reynolds. "Thanks to our corporate members and patrons, the event is free to the public. It's a gift, a fine arts gift to the community."

The concert is in partnership with the Stephenville Parks and Recreation Department and is funded in part by the Texas Commission on the Arts.
