Relay for Life

Hi everyone,

Just a note to let you know we're starting on our Relay For Life 2005. We will have a committee meeting Sunday- June 27th at 2pm til 3pm at the Chambers of Commerce meeting room in Eastland. It is on Seaman St. on the square. Anyone interested in helping us on the committee (and I need all the help I can get) please try to come and join us. We will be setting up meeting dates and team captain meeting dates. As most of you may know we are moving the Relay to Gorman football field this next year. All though Eastland field was fine it isn't set up for night time activities so Gorman has offer to let us use their field it will be better lighting and less wind since we have the wall around the whole field. If your in Gorman drive out and take a look. It will be awesome this year. I will be there with bells on this time! If you need any information contact me at 254-734-2174 or at my e-mail pilsey51@yahoo.com

Thanks and hope to see you Sunday the 27th
Valerie Hampton

Gorman Athletic Physicals Set for July 14th

The Gorman Athletic Department will be having physicals for all incoming 7th- 12th graders that plan to participate in athletics for the 2004-2005 school year, as well as any 6th grade boys who plan to play football for our Junior High team if the numbers permit so on the first day. These physicals will be held at Dr Dan Brudnak's office located downtown next to the drug store. These physicals will be from 9:00 am til 12:00 pm on July 14th only. The cost of the physical is free if you attend during this time. We would like to thank Dr. Brudnak for his generosity and dedication to Gorman ISD.

It is important to note that the Gorman Athletic Department requires new physicals on our athletes every year. Last year's physical will not work. A letter has been sent to all athletes with the UIL physical forms that are required to be used. If you did not receive this letter by the day of the physicals, we will have a few extra copies at the doctor's office. Please fill out the forms completely front and back and sign in all pertinent places. Each year we waste time waiting on some forms or signatures that a parent forgot to sign or we waste paper by making extra copies for those that lost their forms. Please don't be one of those people.

If you are unable to attend, it will be YOUR responsibility to see your son or daughter has a physical (using the required UIL physical form) by August 4th for HS volleyball and football players, and by August 16th for all other athletes. Also note that Dr. Brudnak WILL NOT offer the physical for free before or after this date. We look forward to seeing you on July 14th. We would like for a parent to attend in case forms are incomplete or if there are questions the doctor might have or that you might have for the doctor. It should also be noted that most insurance carriers do not pay for physicals so you should make every effort to be here on this date during the set times.

Thank you,
Coby Tyson, Athletic Director Gorman ISD

Thank You To The People Of Gorman

I would like to say "Thank You" to the people of Gorman and surrounding area for letting me represent you this past year.

Miss Gorman Rachel Granado and I were proud to represent Gorman in area parades where we won several trophies, made our television debut at the West Texas Rehab Telethon--where we met singer Joe Nichols, Red Stegall and other celebrities. We were also honored to be guest of Representative Jim Keffer and his staff. They treated us to a great breakfast and a tour of the State Capitol of Texas.

I would like to say "Thank You" to American State Bank for allowing us to serve free hot dogs to the people of Gorman July 4th, Halloween, and Flag Day.

I want to say a special thanks to Miss Gorman Rachel Granado and her family for helping me and my family get through each event.

Good luck to each of this year's contestants who are running for Little Miss Gorman on Saturday night.

Insight for Parents-Communicating With Your Child

It has been a number of months since I have placed an article for From The Woodshed in the Progress. During the school year each campus has an individual assigned to prepare news for the Progress and the Progress has been very good to publish articles about the school and the students' activities and accomplishments. I plan to have an article for the paper every week which will address issues that will aid in the schools efforts to educate the children who attend Gorman ISD.

As a reader of this article, you may not be a parent. However, we all have the opportunity to communicate with children and nurture their growth both physically and mentally.

Helping shape our children's self-esteem takes commitment and knowledge of effective parenting skills. Self-esteem is the process of setting a value on yourself, appreciating your worth, knowing you are a valued person, and having a quiet sense of self-respect.

- Individuals with high self-esteem:
- * Are able to appreciate and respect the worth of others.
 - * Are confident of their own confidence.
 - * Believe they matter to others.
 - * Have fewer illnesses and worries.
 - * Are generally happier and more successful.
 - * Are able to deal with crisis.
 - * Are able to make better and more responsible decisions.

- People with low self-esteem:
- * Avoid doing things themselves.
 - * Have a difficulty accepting compliments.
 - * Have difficulty accepting responsibility for their actions.
 - * Tend to have accepted labels like dumb, stupid, or ugly.
 - * Feel distant from those around them.
 - * Set themselves up for failure and expect to be cheated.
 - * Need almost constant verification and validation from others.

Finally, people who have an exaggerated sense of self-esteem:

- * Have an inflated ego, can do no wrong.
- * Usually talk about themselves and their accomplishments a great deal.
- * Usually are masking feelings of inferiority or need for approval.

What can parents do? Emphasizing three variables-security, significance, and confidence-will help children feel secure. Parents can work toward building their children's self-esteem by following these guidelines:

- * Believe in yourself as a parent and adult. A parent who radiates inadequacy tends to perpetuate the cycle of low self-esteem in his or her children.
- * Provide unconditional love for your children. Your children should have no doubt that you love them.
- * Communicate clearly and be an active listener.
- * Be honest and admit if you make a mistake or don't understand something.
- * Display respect to your children. Show your children that you believe in them.
- * Honestly accept your children's limits and gifts.
- * Nurture your children's strengths by finding their talents and helping them to develop them.
- * Help you children become successful. Assist them in finding things they can do well and allow them to become involved in these activities.
- * Help your children understand that they can learn from a less-than-stellar performance. Less-than-successful does not mean failure.
- * Help strengthen your children's weak areas.

By concentrating on security, significance, and confidence, parents can raise healthy, happy, and successful children.

KOKOMO NEWS BY ZELDA JORDAN

Thunderstorms rumbled through the community on Monday evening with some welcome rain. Betty Little reported 8 tenths of an inch at her house, and I received 7 tenths. Really nice.

"Happy Birthday" was sung to Leona Wilson at the Sunday morning service at the Kokomo Baptist Church. The special music was by the choir: Kay Snider, Aletha Burgess, Leona Wilson, Donna Gatlin, Lesley Gatlin, Daryl Hirst, Jimmy Little, Joe Bond and Woodrow Browning with Glynda Bond at the piano. Gary, Donna, Lesley and Garrett Gatlin of Graham were visitors.

Those visiting with Oren and Norma Webb on Saturday for an early Father's Day get together were Judy and Sarah Porter of Elgin, Scarlett and Amanda Porter of Austin, James, Jantzen and Chelsea Webb of Glen Rose, Stacy Webb and Renee Fox of Comanche and Ronnie, Laura and Katherine Shelton of Sapulpa, OK. Oren and Norma Webb visited with Joyce Eaves on Friday.

Ashley and Breckley Little spent Friday night with their grandparents, Jimmy and Verna Lee Little. On Saturday night, Jimmy and Verna Lee Little and Ray Neal and Melissa Little of Eastland enjoyed a hamburger cook-out at the home of James, Jill, Ashley and Breckley Little for an early "Father's Day" celebration.

Jimmy and Verna Lee Little and Betty Little had lunch in Eastland on Sunday. Cody Fails, Courtney and Patricia Butts of Arlington visited with Jimmy and Verna Lee in the afternoon. They also visited with James, Jill, Ashley and Breckley Little. Jimmy and Verna Lee enjoyed a telephone visit with their daughter, Nelda Fails of Arlington.

Gary, Donna, Lesley and Garrett Gatlin of Graham visited from Friday until Monday morning with Woodrow and Helen Browning.

Johnnie B. Griffith met Ken and Janie Riley of Midland for lunch in Eastland on Wednesday, as they came through on their way to a visit with Ken's mother in East Texas.

Johnnie B. Griffith, Nancy Hendricks and Norma Webb visited with Zelda Jordan.

"Happy Anniversary" to my granddaughter, Sheri and her husband, Wade Daniell of Abilene who celebrated their 12th wedding anniversary on Sunday, June 22. Sheri, Wade, Ryan, Kody and Emily and Kayla Jordan of Lubbock enjoyed a couple days last week touring some of the museums in the Dallas area and having a good time at Six Flags.

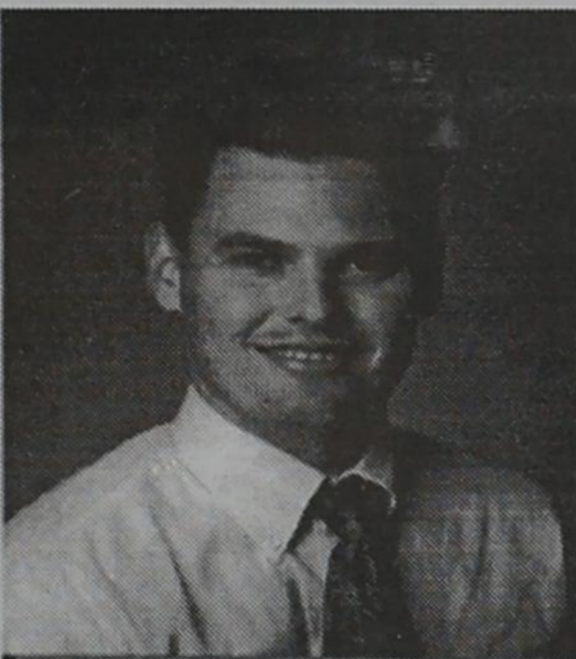

Kayla returned to her home in Lubbock on Friday with Leon and Glenda Black who went to Lubbock on business and had a short visit with Cindy Jordan.

Many from the community attended the funeral for Mrs. Hope Joiner at Gorman on Thursday. I've heard many comments this week about how generous Mrs. Joiner was to share eggs, garden produce, fruit, pecans, and her beautiful flowers with everyone.

She grew some of the most beautiful gladiolas that I've ever seen. And many of us have little bonnets and gloves made by Mrs. Joiner to remind us of her generosity. We will always remember her faithfulness to her church, the Kokomo Baptist Church. She was also so faithful in her visits to those in the hospital and the nursing homes. I'm sure that she has many stars in her crown.

We extend sincere sympathy to the family of Bill Vaughn of Gorman who passed away on Thursday evening. He was the father of Dianne Snider of our church family. Many from Kokomo attended his funeral in Gorman on Monday.

May we continue to remember the families of Mrs. Joiner and Mr. Vaughn in prayer, as well as others who have lost loved ones this past week.

Heritage Manor News By Nancy Hendricks

Kids Say Funny Things

A little girl had just finished her first week of school. "I'm just wasting my time," she said to her mother. "I can't read, I can't write, and they won't let me talk!" And, that's just how it is.

A little boy in church for the first time watched as the ushers passed the offering plates. When they neared the pew where he sat, the little boy piped up so everyone could hear and said: "Don't pay for me, Daddy, I'm under five."

A little boy was attending his first wedding. After the service, his cousin asked him, "How many women can a man marry?" "Sixteen," the boy replied. The cousin was amazed at how fast the boy was able to come up with the answer. "How do you know?" he asked. "Easy," the little boy replied. "All you have to do is add it up like the Bishop said: 4 better, 4 worse, 4 richer, 4 poorer."

After a church service on Sunday, a little boy announced to his family that he would like to be a minister when he grew up. "That's okay with us, but how did you come to such a decision?" "Well," said the little boy. "I have to go to church on Sunday anyway and I figured it would be more fun to stand up and yell, than to sit and listen."
