Sophomores Visit McMurry University

Sophomores had the opportunity to participate in a college tour of McMurry University in Abilene on Wednesday, February 11th. The students participating in the field trip were Kevin Lewis, Esteban Leal, Amber Ervin, Tim Patel, Zachary Bryan, Amber Lewis, Sharla Perez, Cindy Garces, Joey Jones and Andy Abbe. The tour included a glimpse of the campus, dormitories, fitness areas, and science buildings. The students had an opportunity to visit the Physics and Chemistry professors. The students also had an opportunity to reflect on their future plans. Our students benefit greatly from college campus tours. This provides an opening for students to become more aware of careers and training available to them. Many of our students in this group plan to go into the military and then follow up with college. Please encourage our students to actively think about their future plans. This trip was funded by West Texas Tech Prep Consortium.

Local Students Collect Coins to Find a Cure

Students in grade 7-12 at Gorman ISD are participating in the 2004 Pennies for Patients Campaign benefiting the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. For three weeks, February 4th through February 27th students will bring their spare pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters to school and contribute them to their class's collection container. Their spare change will add up to save the lives of people touched by blood-related cancers. Over 400 schools in North Texas are participating in the campaign. Funds raised through these schools support the Society's mission to cure leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's disease and myeloma, and improve the quality of life of patients and their families. Thanks to the fantastic efforts from last year, 515 North Texas schools raised over $495,000. This year, the goal is set at $600,000 and Gorman ISD is helping the North Texas Chapter reach that goal. The top fundraising class will receive a pizza party.

In Support of Bill Underwood

This is the second attempt to write this ad. I don't want to be negative but I do feel that the issues raised should be dealt with. 1. Let's get an ethanol plant to boost the local economy. 2. Let's pave the county roads. 3. There is a surplus, let's use it.

You should look at these issues and determine what may reasonably be done. 1. Ethanol plants are built in the heart of major grain producing areas for good reasons, some of which are, transportation costs for grain to the ethanol plant and availability of funding. Large farmer grain coops are often the source of funding. We do not have the grain production base and we therefore do not have the large coops and since transportation cost would be a lot higher here than in other better locations, we can't attract an ethanol plant.

2. Let's pave the County roads. The money would have to come from somewhere, neither the state nor federal government is going to play Santa Claus, so that leaves a local tax increase. How much? There are 291 miles of unpaved county roads in Precinct 3. Materials alone to put a minimum thickness and width of tar and gravel would cost about 15000$ per mile. Do the math. Most people in the towns in Pct. 3 (and most people on the county roads) would vote against a tax increase especially one that was large enough to pave the roads. You can't get the funds to pave the roads.

3. The surplus. The Precinct needs to carry a reasonable surplus to cover the unanticipated equipment breakdowns, road or bridge washouts due to a flood (I'd almost like to see that much rain). Families and businesses need savings (a surplus) so does Precinct 3. So, if you take the surplus and pave a few miles on one of the roads, who would get it? Probably not you or me.

What we need to do is what Bill Underwood is already doing and doing well. He has a lot of knowledge and experience in how to build and maintain a good road. You use locally available low cost materials to put a rock or gravel surface on only those parts that tend to be muddy when it rains. You put a crown on it so it drains and will dry out a day or two after it rains. You keep the ditches on either side open and the culverts open so the water does drain away. Bill is doing this and Precinct three roads are mostly in good shape. I don't think there are many commissioners who get out there on the road grader themselves so they know first-hand where the problems are and how to fix them. Bill does.

If you want to know what our roads could be like just look at the roads just across the line in Comanche County. No ditches, no crown on the road, no surfacing material and hog wallows in the middle of the road that don't dry up for weeks. We're voting for Bill Underwood.

What is it that Lady Mav Basketball has that Every Team Wishes They Had?

To answer that question in one word would be pretty simple but to enlighten you greater, I'll explain.

When students and fans walk into the Marshall Complex, the structure speaks volumes in regard to a first rate athletic facility. To match the fine gymnasium, the spirit signs, which are hung on every wall, have no equal. From a personalized basketball for each varsity—Lady Mavs & Mavs, to The Fear Factor Lady Mavs, to You Are Now Entering Maverick Country, to Go for It!, the quality is exceptional. These "works of art" did not just happen; they are the product of hours of design time, production perfectly hanging each one with "Red Duck Tape." The answer to this production is: Joetta—as she is affectionately called by everyone, but respectful she is Mrs. Schuman.

When the Eastland Basketball teams look up to see what surrounds them with spirit signs, they have a reason to be proud of the effort that has gone into each and every detail.

Aside from the "sign production," Joetta is the designated Lady Mav "Team Mom." She is a sight to behold with her enthusiasm and projects to stir the girls to be the best and "Go for it!" It might be a fear for some people to serve as team mom for one year, but she has filled the capacity for at least three years at the highest level and at an exceptional level for many years before that. She takes it all in stride and says: "I just love basketball and I love to do this."

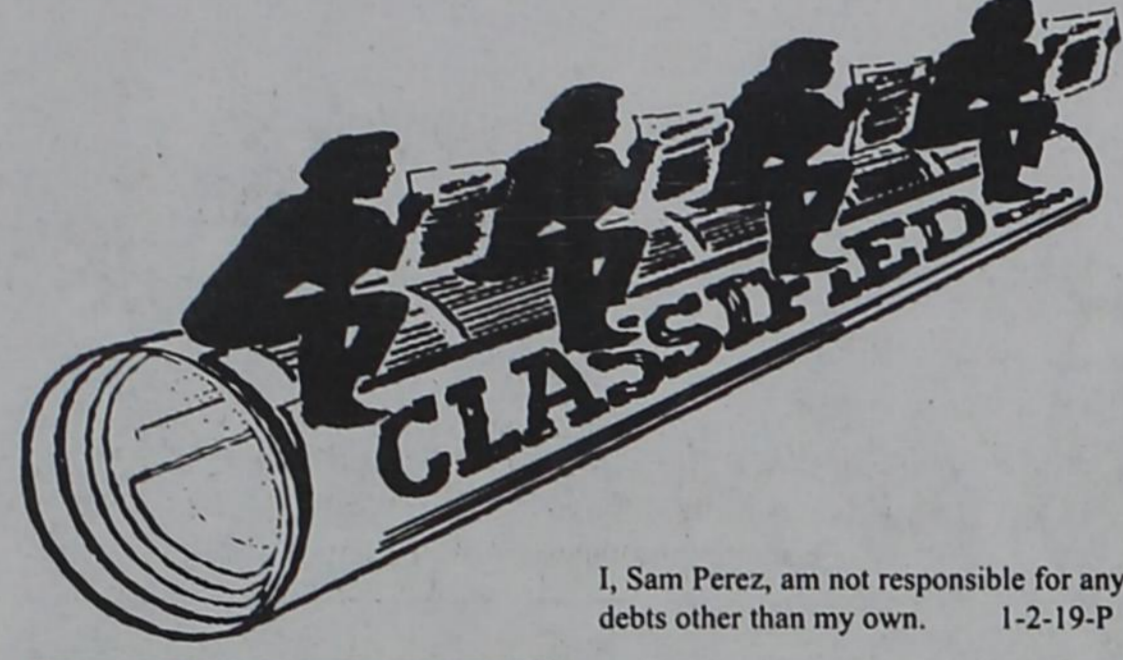

Joetta's daughter, Jacquelynn, is an integral part of the Lady Mav operation. She has served as Varsity Manager for four years. From stats to fresh towels to game films and everything in between, Jacquelynn has dedicated herself to being a great manager. Jacquelynn is a senior and will leave big shoes to fill.

When you see the "Vivacious Lady in the Red Bug" running around at the game or running on an errand to make something special happen for the Lady mavs, take a second to say thanks, before you get to her, let's just say it here: Joetta, you are the best and we have been blessed to have you on our team! The stuff you do can't be measured. Yes—every team wishes they had a Joetta!!!

Gorman EDC Talk

This coming Monday, February 23 at 6:30 PM the Gorman EDC will host a guest speaker by the name of Ronnie Boston. Mr. Boston has recently retired from the Leon Bosque RC&D (Resource, Conservation and Development) and is now busy helping rural communities develop strategic planning and leadership development. Mr. Boston was a member of the Community Assessment team that came to Gorman in April of 2000. His organization was also the ones that provided the $2000 Community Improvement grant we received in 2001 for the downtown park improvements.

The following information will be discussed:

1. Community Assessment (performed in 2000, may need to be updated but is still helpful).
2. Develop a vision/statement
3. Identify a wide variety of issues from the community assessment that support the vision.
4. Identify desired outcome and how to support each issue.
5. Develop benchmarks/goals for each outcome.
6. Define how success is measured.
7. Define who will orchestrate the plan. (This is not just one person, it is a group)

This is an open meeting and EVERYONE is invited. Even though these may be words or phrases that seem beyond our abilities, bottom line is that EVERYONE can do SOMETHING. Please mark your calendars for next Monday February 23 at 6:30 pm.

The Desdemona History project announces the start of the 2004 program series. The project initiated in June 2003 will pick up with local history beginning in the 1900s and continue through the Great Depression to 1969 when the local school was consolidated with those of surrounding communities.

Early settlement began along tributaries of the Leon River about 1880. Cotton became the major product, but in 1913 and 1914 boll weevil infestation decimated the cotton farms.

An oil boom was initiated on September 3, 1918 with the Duke Gusher. A tent city grew up around the gusher and production moved into Desdemona rapidly. Production, however, quickly declined by 1922. The price of oil varied and production dropped as gushers had to be pumped.

Desdemona was also a center for casinghead gas operations. In 1924, the magnolia Production Company had six plants there and five other companies-Humble, McMann, Mid-Kansas, Hurt and Sinco had one each. Phillips Petroleum Company built a large facility in Pioneer that consolidated casinghead gas production and diminished Desdemona operations.

In the 1930s the Great Depression swept across Texas along with drought that devastated farmers and ranchers. The toughness of those times affected area rural communities with the sorrowful loss of herds and farms, jobs and teachers together with general population decreases. In Desdemona, however, residents who were oil field pumpers and employees of refineries were able to provide well for their families.

Oil production and population declined as refineries moved to east and west Texas in the 1940s. Desdemona GIs returned from war and began careers and families in urban areas. Farm and ranch operations were again affected by the droughts of the 1950s. By the 1960s, enrollment dropped below 100 students and consolidation resulted in the closing of Desdemona's school. Little has changed in the community which today numbers about 200 and has an economy based on farming, ranching, dairies, and recreational leases.

The town continues to have a post office, convenience store, restaurant, and a WPA-era community center, but what had been an incorporated city begun in the 1920 was dissolved in 1938. Only the abandoned city jail and empty Main Street buildings remain of the early twentieth century city.

The Desdemona History Project will begin its new series at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, February 19, 2004, at the Community Center on FM8. The program will begin with entertainment and include discussions of Desdemona and its suburbs of Lowell, Alameda, Jake Hammon School Hill, Salem and other communities. Speakers will be Eastland County Judge Brad Stephenson and Representative Sid Miller of DeLeon. Refreshments will be provided by Dannah Proctor of Lingleville, Texas.

Woodall Sentenced

John Wayne Woodall, 39, was sentenced to 60 years for manufacturing methamphetamine and 10 years for possession of methamphetamine by an Eastland County jury. Under Texas law, Woodall must serve 15 years of his sentence before he is eligible for parole.

Texas Department of Public Safety troopers stopped Woodall in June 2001 for failure to signal a lane change. During the traffic stop, DPS troopers searched Woodall's vehicle and found a small methamphetamine lab. DPS troopers also found 123 grams of methamphetamine inside the vehicle.

Visiting Judge Jerry Ray presided over the proceedings and formally sentenced Woodall in the presence of the jury. Local Attorney Gary Peak represented Woodall. District Attorney Russ Thomason and Assistant District Attorney Brenda Gray prosecuted the case.

The Eastland County Sheriff Wants To Know, Is There A Meth Lab Cookin In Your Neighborhood?

The smell is awful. The garbage contains an unusual amount of starting fluid cans and blister packs of cold medicine. Your neighbors are jumpy. Got a problem? Maybe. These could be signs that a methamphetamine lab is near you.

With the recent prosecution of a number of people in Eastland County who were involved in the illegal manufacturing of drugs, countians are asking for tips and directions on spotting these meth labs.

Many people may be unaware that they're living near a meth lab. Sheriff Wayne Bradford provides this list of things to look for:

- unusual, strong odors (like ether, ammonia, acetone or chemicals)
- residences with windows blacked out
- renters who pay their landlords in cash (most drug dealers deal exclusively with cash)
- lots of traffic - people coming and going at unusual times with little traffic during the day, but with increasing activity at night
- excessive trash including large amounts of items such as: antifreeze containers, lantern fuel cans, red or yellow chemically stained coffee filters, drain cleaner, duct tape, camera batteries, camping stove fuel, containers for cold medicines including Pseudoephedrine and acetone containers.
- unusual amounts of clear glass containers

Additionally, Bradford says the presence of the following items could indicate the existence of a meth lab: Alcohol, ether, benzene, toluene/paint thinner, freon, acetone, chloroform, camp stove fuel, starting fluid, anhydrous ammonia, "Heet", white gasoline, phenylacetone, phenylpropanolamine, iodine crystals, red phosphorous, black iodine, lye, drano, muriatic acid, battery acid, epsom salts, lithium batteries, wooden matches, propane cylinders, hot plates, ephedrine (over the counter), cold tablets, energy boosters containing ephedrine, rock salt, diet aids.

Sheriff Bradford added "the fumes from meth production are strong, toxic and possibly fatal. Should you suspect a meth lab or meth related criminal activity, please call 629-1774 to report it. You are not required to give your name."

Criminal District Attorney Russ Thomason says "Methamphetamine is made in illegal laboratories and has a high potential for abuse and dependence. Signs that someone could be a meth addict include large open sores, rotting teeth, huge weight loss and pale skin. Long-term users usually become paranoid, often erecting surveillance cameras, reinforcing their doors and will buy guard dogs - usually pit bulls."

Thomason says he plans to set up an on-line web site allowing citizens to provide anonymous information about meth use or production. This information will be shared among the appropriate agencies of law enforcement in an effort to deter drug crime in Eastland County.

Further, he hopes to work with local law enforcement agencies to set up organized neighborhood watches and conduct seminars to educate residents in each of our towns on spotting signs of meth production. Thomason stated: "We are going to implement a multi-pronged approach to drug enforcement in our county in order to reduce the number of meth labs that are out there."

REMEMBER, if you have information on a Methamphetamine Laboratory call Sheriff Bradford at 629-1774.

Heritage Manor News By Nancy Hendricks

The Least Confessed Sin

A fly landed on a nice strip of gooey, sweet-smelling flypaper. Not seeing a challenger in sight, he happily announced, "My flypaper!" Sinking his nose in the syrupy stuff, he dined sumptuously. Then, deciding to leave, he began hopelessly beating his wings against the air...and the paper announced, "My fly!"

That's often the way it is with a man and his possessions. Surveying his accumulations, he proudly says, "My possessions!" The possessions knowing announce, "My man!"

Francis de Sales, reputed to have heard more confessions than any other Catholic priest, said that the sin of covetousness was never one time confessed to him. We wonder how often it is confessed to God. This is the problem with covetousness...it is seldom recognized by the victim.

Covetousness is easily camouflaged. Most of those who are guilty refuse to face it. Jesus preached about it. "And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things and they derided him" (Luke 16:14). Lovers of money scoff at (or at least "shut out") the preacher who warns them of their sin.

Desdemona News

By Vonnie Guthery

Desdemona Volunteer Fire Department will host their annual Firemen's School at the Community Center all day Saturday, February 21st. This school is well attended by all the area firemen with teachers coming from Texas A & M University.

Larry and Gay Moore enjoyed a short three day vacation over the past weekend visiting and sightseeing in Houston and to attend the Super Cross Motorcycle Races.

Get Well Wishes to Ulenda Weaver in Fort Worth. She is slowly recovering from her second surgery in two weeks. Dorothy Roberts is with her daughter at this time helping take care of all the family.

Robert and Ima Brown spent the past weekend in Temple. Ima call this reporter on Valentine's Day to report there was plenty of snow in that area.

The snow was beautiful last Saturday morning in our area—but it melted by noon. Maybe our area will receive much needed moisture real soon.

Bernard and Ann Keith attended the funeral of F.G. "Curly" West who was buried last Friday in the DeLeon Cemetery. Sincere sympathy goes out to this family.

"Happy Anniversary" to Larry and Gay Moore in Desdemona on Wednesday. She is the daughter of P.E. "Shorty" Fox of Desdemona and the late Almarie (Riggs) Fox.

Thought for today—"Never give the Devil a ride cause He will always want to drive."

Have a nice day, Vonnie.
