BELGIUM SENATE RATIFIES LOCARNO TREATY UNANIMOUSLY

CONFERENCES TO SETTLE HOFFMAN CASE

ANNOUNCEMENT IS EXPECTED AT ANY TIME NOW

Is Under Indictment On Two Charges In Travis County Court

AUSTIN, March 3.—Attorney General Dan Moody with Assistant Attorney General Ernest May and the attorneys representing the Hoffman Construction Company, are in conference today at the Travis county courthouse, discussing a plan for the final disposition of the attorney general's suit against that company to cancel a road maintenance contract, and for damages, all amounting to approximately $421,000.

Indications are that a settlement of the case may be reached before the end of the week. This is the third or fourth conference held. Attorney General Dan Moody has refused every proposal made up to now, and declared the only way the case could be settled with a trial in the courthouse.

In addition, Hoffman is under indictment charged with perjury and swindling. An effort will be made to get the indictments quashed. This was refused.

So far, the Hoffman Construction Company has lost every move it has made in the case. The move to have the trial of the civil case transferred to Eastland county for trial failed after a three weeks hearing in Austin. Hoffman, Daissan and others interested in the company live in Eastland.

ODD FELLOWS WILL MEET IN RANGER

Eastland County Odd Fellows' association will convene in Ranger, Friday, March 5. This association is composed of all the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Eastland county. It is expected that about 400 members from out of the county lodges will join in some of the day's program if not all of it.

The session will open at 9 o'clock Friday morning, and will be held in the Odd Fellows' hall on Elm street. At noon the Rebekahs will serve lunch. At night the Odd Fellows will hold their evening session in the basement of the Methodist church and the Rebekahs their program at the hall. At 8:30 o'clock that evening the Rebekahs will serve a dinner.

The day sessions will take up routine business of the association and the evening session will be devoted to competitive degree work by the Odd Fellows and the Rebekahs.

This is the semi-annual meeting of the association, the last meeting having been held at Rising Star.

CAR INSPECTOR LOSES HIS LIFE BENEATH CARS

SAN ANTONIO, March 3.—Thomas Derrick, about 45 years old, a car inspector for the International and Great Northern railroad, died today after having both arms and legs severed. He lived for five hours after the accident. Blood transfusions were made to save him. Derrick was mangled when a string of box cars, shunted by a switch engine struck him.

Boyish Prank Causes a Fatal Shooting Scrape

PINE BLUFF, Ark., March 3.—The boyish prank of Anton Kaceri's son in bobbing the tail of Joe Lashy's cat resulted in the probable fatal wounding of Kaceri by Lashy. When Lashy saw his maimed pet, he went to Kaceri's home and demanded the father turn over the boy to him for punishment. Kaceri refused and in the quarrel that followed he was shot and wounded. Lashy was arrested. Both men are farmers.

Clarence Saunders Signs Bond

Clarence Saunders, deposed head of the Piggly Wiggly chain stores, and now owner of a similar chain, appeared before U. S. Commissioner John Walker at Memphis, Tenn., and signed a $7,500 bond to appear March 29 to answer charges of using the mails to defraud. Photo shows Saunders on the left and Commissioner Walker on the right.

LAFOLLETTE ATTACKS COOLIDGE'S PLAN TO LEASE MUSCLE SHOALS

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The interstate commerce commission's disapproval of the gigantic Van Sweringen merger, although a staggering blow to the rising railroad magnates, has served to clarify the government's policy towards huge railroad consolidations.

There was much speculation today as to the next step the Van Sweringens will take, particularly as to whether they will revamp the financial structure of their combine to meet the government's objection. Officials are analyzing the action of the commission and studying the decree to find the basic principles for it, so as to be governed by it later. The Van Sweringen interests planned to knit into one system the Nickel Plate, the Chesapeake & Ohio, the Hocking Valley, the Erie and the Pere Marquette into one great system.

Practically all the financial arrangements had been completed, but under the law, the interstate com-

AVIATION LEGISLATION IS DELAYED

WASHINGTON, March 3.—All proposed aviation legislation before it for the army was rejected today by the house military committee. In place of the rejected proposed measure, the committee voted to draft a bill of its own for the retention of the present status of the air service, with a few changes, and a five-year building program.

The action followed shortly after the submission by the war department of a five-year program. The vote did not cover the recommendations of the department.

Aviation legislation will be thoroughly scrutinized at this term in view of the fact that numerous investigations of investigations of the air branch of the army have been made. Also, the fact that Colonel Mitchell was tried and suspended from the service. Congress seems to be afraid of stirring up a hornet's nest by passing on the army proposals as submitted.

SHEFFIELD MAY QUIT MEXICAN POST, RUMORED

MEXICO CITY, March 3.—Many Americans predict the early resignation of U. S. Ambassador James B. Sheffield, because of the activities of United States special claim commissioners, Warren and Payne, whose conferences are regarded as encroaching on the functions of the ambassador.

WOULD ENLARGE LEAGUE'S SCOPE NEXT MEETING

European Nations Are Getting Together On Things Of Importance

BRUSSELS, Belgium, March 3.—The senate today unanimously ratified the Locarno treaty. During the debate, preceding the vote, Foreign Minister Vandervel asked freedom to negotiate, as the situation dictates, when the enlargement of the League of Nations councils comes up for discussion at the next general meeting.

The Locarno conference was held to iron out differences of the various nations of Europe and to form an organization that will render assistance in the upbuilding of Europe in a business and other ways.

At the time of its organization in that little Swiss town, it was likened to the organization of a United States of Europe with a prime object to avoid wars.

Italy took part, but now Mussolini is at odds with Germany and is carrying a chip on his shoulder over the South tyrol situation.

BASKET BALL WINNERS TO GET TROPHY

CISCO, March 3.—A big regulation size silver basketball will be awarded the winner of the Southern A. A. U. state tournament in girls' basketball to be held here March 18-19-20. In addition each girl on the winning team will receive a solid miniature basketball. Second place winner will receive a silver loving cup.

The Cisco Grammar school basketball team won the county championship of intermediate schools here Monday afternoon when they defeated the girls' team of the Cooper school, Ranger, and thereby became the custodian of the loving cup which has been held by the Cooper school team for the past two years.

An interesting program was carried out at the joint meeting of the John Williams Butts Post, American Legion, and the Ladies auxiliary American Legion, Monday evening.

"AUNT POLLY" IS VICTIM OF SPEED FIEND

SANTA ROSA, Cal., March 3.—"Aunt Polly" Reynolds, 102, oldest resident of Sonoma county, survived the perils of pioneer days but fell victim to a young hit and run driver. Some weeks ago while taking her regular afternoon walk, "Aunt Polly" was felled by an unidentified man on a "scooter" in front of her Healdsburg home and brought here for treatment, but died as the result of the shock.

Mrs. Reynolds was married five times, surviving all of her husbands.

Cage Attacks Newspaper Man Of Fort Worth

AUSTIN, March 3.—Silliman Evans, a Fort Worth newspaper writer, who was attacked last night and beaten by Highway Commissioner John Cage, was reported to have made a satisfactory recovery today by his friends who went to see him.

Cage accused Evans of "doing him dirt" in an article that appeared in the Fort Worth-Record-Telegram. Evans denied the accusation, Cage struck him felling him to the cement floor. Cage was reported to have gone to Manchaca, twelve miles from here after the incident and pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and paid a fine of $16.75 in a justice of the peace court.

ATTACKS GIRLS ON HIGHWAYS IN WICHITA COUNTY

Armed With Gun Is On Running Board of Car Officer On Patrol

WICHITA FALLS, March 3.—The highways between here and Henrietta are being patrolled nightly by armed officers in search of a masked fiend, who in the last ten days attacked six girls and beaten their escorts. The country side is alarmed. Armed with a gun and wearing a half mask, the midnight prowler has committed each attack in the same manner, according to stories related to the police and other officers by their victims.

Mounting the running board of a car, he commands the occupants to keep quiet while displaying a pistol. He then commands to be driven from the road a few yards, where he binds and leaves the men.

Following the attack on the girls, he has led them a short distance from the roads and advised them to walk back and quietly release their companion and drive back to town.

Officers have a good description of the masked fiend, who is believed to be demented. His nefarious operations have reduced the roadside petting parties to a minimum.

Orders have been issued to shoot on sight. Peace officers in both Clay and Wichita counties are sure he will be captured in a short time.

U. S. PAWKETT REPRESENTS WEST TEXAS

STAMFORD, Texas, March 3.—Announcement was made here by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce that U. S. Pawkett, traffic manager, San Antonio, will represent the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at the hearing to be held in Fort Worth, March 6 before the interstate commerce commission in the case of the Long Bell Lumber company against the present freight rates between Texas points on posts, piling and poles. The position of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is that if the complainant is sustained and the interstate commerce commission rate made applicable to Texas, it will mean a very substantial increase in freight rates to the cost of every telephone post, every stick of piling and every fence post shipped into West Texas. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has intervened in the case.

JOHN HONEA MUST SERVE SENTENCE

AUSTIN, March 3.—The court of criminal appeals today refused to allow a new trial to John Honea, former sheriff of Tarrant county, sentenced to seven years for murder of John Estes, May 27, 1924. John Estes, a lawyer, formerly of Fort Worth, but at the time of his death a resident of Los Angeles, Calif., was shot and killed in the lobby of a Fort Worth hotel.

Double Murder Brought to Light At Steubenville

STEBENVILLE, Ohio, March 3. One of the most brutal double murders in years was brought to light today when the body of Robert Herron, wealthy bachelor farmer, was found in a barn with his head split open and his sister, Miss Nettie Herron, 56, was found dead at the end of a rope, in the dining room of the Herron farmhouse.

VAN SWERINGEN'S MERGER OF GIGANTIC SYSTEM GETS BLACK EYE BY COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The administration's plan to lease Muscle Shoals to private interests for 60 years was attacked on the senate floor Tuesday afternoon by Senator "Bob" A. Lafollette, of Wisconsin, as a "surrender to the water power trust."

The youthful senator asserted that, carried into effect, it would go down into history "beside the stealing and wrongful disposal of our public domain." He warned his older colleagues that an "avalanche of popular disapproval" awaited them should they adopt the pending resolution providing for lease negotiations.

He pleaded for government operation of the $150,000,000 government built Muscle Shoals power plant and declared that the government had already accomplished the most difficult part of putting the plant in operation.

Lafollette insisted that Muscle Shoals was essentially a power project and that the "cheap fertilizer for farmers" argument was merely a blind "behind which politicians and power interests concealed their opposition to government operation."

Discussing the argument that the government would not be able to operate the plant efficiently, he said: "Public initiative had already accomplished, or is working on, the most difficult parts of the Muscle Shoals project—the imaginative conception, the intricate task of construction. The operation of the plan will be simple. Therefore, about the only field now left for 'private initiative' is the marketing and manipulation of stocks and bonds, the juggling of corporate accounts and the cashing in on profits of operation or of stock market rigging."

"But one of the most effective ways of regulating the existing private companies is to have some examples of public operation interspersed with the private system. In fact, regulation without examples of public operation will become increasingly difficult, not to say impossible. The combinations of power corporations can artificially fix their 'costs' in a way that no state commission has either the appropriations or the ability to prevent."

"Once more the farmer with his righteous demand for cheap fertilizer is being used in his historic capacity as a blind and a stalking horse."

ATTEND THE EASTLAND BANQUET.

Victor H. Shofflemeyer, agricultural editor of the Belo publications, has a message for the business and agricultural interests of Eastland county. His message should be heard by every merchant, banker and farmer in the county. "Better Farming, Greater Production on Fewer Acres." In other words the message of diversification and the using of intensive methods in agriculture will be delivered by one who knows his subject from A to Z. The publications he represents have been powers in the development of Texas agriculturally and industrially.

It is fitting that the Rotarians, Lions and other civic organizations in the county listen to the drops of wisdom that will fall from the lips of one who has studied farming and its allied subject in all of their ramifications. The lesson he would have his listeners learn is that Texas must feed herself. Eastland county must ship out and not import pork products. Eastland must export and not import dairy products.

Eastland must produce cotton, but raise more cotton on fewer acres, and use the other acreage for the production of feed and foodstuff. Eastland county has made great progress in the poultry raising branch of farming. The farmers of Eastland county must not let poultry be the only crop. Eastland farmers must get away from the one-crop idea, it makes no difference what that one crop is.

Agriculture is the backbone of civilization. The hand that grips the plow-handle leads the way for development in other lines. The soils of Eastland county are adapted to the production of all crops that are food for man and feed for beasts of burden.

Mr. Shofflemeyer will explain the better farming program that is featured by the Dallas News. The writer along with Shofflemeyer and others interested in the movement of better farming and using a program in farming activities visited the home of Mont Adams, an ex-plumber, who took a worn-out piece of hillside in sandy Smith county and demonstrated to the world that intensive methods pay, when he produced 16 bales of cotton on five acres of land, and in addition raised his own meat and meal, besides his good wife canned all the surplus vegetables they raised in the garden.

Eastland county must get busy. Eastland county bankers must get in behind the movement with that live wire, Earl Johnson, and see that something is done. It is nothing short of criminal for a farmer to have to buy pork products. It's not necessary to feed all corn to finish hogs. Sorghum grains have been tried and stood the test of the Fort Worth packers.

Pigs and poultry along with some cotton, a few dairy cows, sheep and goats will soon put Eastland in the front rank as an agricultural county.

Attend the banquet and take home the lesson the messenger will bring.

Rising Star Woman Is Poet Laureate, Texas Pen Women

Mrs. Frank Robertson of Rising Star has been named the poet laureate of Texas League of Penwomen and was presented by the league at a function at the Adolphus hotel, Dallas, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Robertson won the sweep-stake prize of 1925, offered by the Texas Poetry society. During the course of the program Mrs. Robertson read a number of her poems, including "Texas," "Pioneer Vignette of an Oil Field," "Boom Town Drama," "Housewife," "Heart-Cleaning Time," "Recompense," "If a Gypsy Lad Should Call" and "I Have Heard the Whip-poor-Will." The poet is the wife of Frank W. Robertson, secretary of Rising Star Chamber of Commerce.

AUXILIARY MEETS TONIGHT.
The regular monthly meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary has been postponed until later.

Members of the auxiliary will have an opportunity to hear the national president of the Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Eliza London Sheppard of Los Angeles, either at Abilene on March 8, or Fort Worth on that evening.

This will be the first time that the national president has had an opportunity to be heard by auxiliary members in this part of the state and it is thought quite a number will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing her.

Mrs. Sheppard, is a nationally known woman, not only in her work with the Legion, but as the loved sister of Jack London. The following story will be of interest to auxiliary and American Legion members, which clearly shows the dependability of Mrs. Sheppard:

A week or so ago the American Legion weekly, the national organ of the organization, contained an interesting story in regard to the dependability of Mrs. Sheppard. The stables containing many fine horses, owned by Jack London were located only a short distance from San Francisco. One night while Jack London was engaged in one of his literary programs in the city, word was flashed to him that his fine barns were burning and the life of every one of his horses was in grave danger. He heard the message and without showing the least sign of worry proceeded with the program. His anxious wife inquired if he was not going at once to the barn and see about rescuing his horses. His answer was:

"Eliza is there; she will attend to it." And so Eliza did and every horse was saved. This shows the dependability of the sister of Jack London and the American Legion auxiliary of Texas is fortunate in the fact that they are soon to meet and hear this national president.

ATTEND EASTLAND PARTY.

Mrs. A. N. Hankard and Mrs. R. B. Campbell and Mrs. Rom O'Daniel of Fort Worth, attended a very lovely party in Eastland yesterday afternoon, given by Mrs. Jep Little and Mrs. Dr. Poe, at the Elks club. It was a spring party, violets galore, furnishing the floral and a color scheme of purple and green predominating in all table appointments. There were 24 tables at bridge.

BAND CONTEST TO BE FEATURED AT AMARILLO

SPUR, Texas, March 3.—G. C. Collum, president of the Texas Band Teachers' association, is sending out a special communication to all the bands in West Texas, inviting them to participate in the band contest to be held at the eighth annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Amarillo, June 21, 22 and 23. Mr. Collum states that he expects a minimum of 50 bands to attend this convention or the largest number that has ever attended any of the regional conventions of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

"Better Farming" Banquet To Be Gigantic Affair

Elaborate plans are under way for the "Better Farming" banquet to be held Wednesday evening in Eastland at the American Legion Hall at which time Victor Shofflemeyer, farm editor of the Dallas News and one of the leading authorities on agriculture in the Southwest, will deliver an address.

The "Better Farming" banquet is being held under the auspices of the Eastland Lions, Rotary Club and Chamber of Commerce, all three of which have adopted agriculture and agricultural interests as the major items on their programs for this year.

Mr. Johnson has been talking much interest in agricultural development in Eastland county for the past several years, is chairman of the committee appointed to arrange for the banquet, and says that he has communications from all sections of Eastland county and from many portions of the surrounding counties, advising him that the Chambers of Commerce, Rotary and Lions clubs and other similar organizations are making arrangements to attend the banquet. "Bankers, merchants, farmers and professional men, not members of any of the above organizations are coming to attend the banquet also," Mr. Johnson said.

Interest in agriculture in Eastland county, which reached a very low ebb during the oil boom of a few years ago, has been increasing for sometime and it is planned, according to statements of those fostering the banquet to be held Wednesday night, to adopt some such plans in Eastland county to promote agricultural interests as have been advocated for sometime by the Dallas News and in use now in other counties in the state.

H. P. Earnest and Gene Reynolds, associated with the Prairie Oil and Gas Company, Ranger, are goat enthusiasts. Mr. Earnest keeps two goats, a Nubian and a Toggenberg, from which he gets over three quarts of fine rich milk a day.

Mr. Reynolds has two goats and three little ones and gets a gallon of milk daily.

In speaking of goat's milk for family use, Mr. Earnest says it is very rich in butter fat and agrees with the most delicate stomach. He told of a child in the camp who was ill and his parents could find nothing to agree with it but goat's milk and having once launched it on the goat's milk route, they can't take it off.

Mr. Earnest keeps a record of the milk produced, the figures showing that in three months time, a goat costing $75 will pay for itself. For the first 117 days his goats average three quarts of milk a day. This figured at 25 cents a quart, makes a gross revenue of $87.75 and deducting $12 for the keep of the animals, leaves a net profit of $75.75.

Mr. Earnest says it costs about 10 cents a day to feed his animals, which would be less if they had any range, but his and Mr. Reynolds goats are kept on small city lots.

J. B. Ames, Mr. Earnest stated is putting in some grade stock with the intention of improving the strain and he also is a goat enthusiast.

Both Mr. Earnest and Mr. Reynolds are expecting to attend the goat exhibit at the fat stock show next week, with a view of seeing what the other fellow is doing, as well as to improving their own stock.

Davenport Now Connected With Citizens Bank

Grady Davenport of Ranger, has been named assistant cashier of the Citizens State Bank, Ranger, and is greeting his many friends. He formerly was connected with the bank as teller.

Mr. Davenport feels perfectly at home in this environment as he served the Peoples State Bank in practically the same capacity for several years. Since its failure last February, he has been associated with Barkley-Crotty Oil Company.

Preston Burks who has been at window No. 2, is still in the employ of the bank.

New Building Code Is Passed Up By Commission

The standard building code ordinance was passed up for future consideration at a meeting of the Ranger City Commission yesterday afternoon. The adoption of the ordinance, according to Judge A. A. Diehl, was passed up by request of a committee from the Chamber of Commerce, who suggested that further thought might be well given to its passing.

In some places the strictness of the ordinance might be modified, without interfering with the reduction of fire rate to be gained by complying with the state fire building code. It is not the intention, Judge Diehl said to keep people from building in Ranger by passing a too stringent building code, and yet on the other hand, it probably will be possible to comply with it sufficiently to get the reduction in fire rate.

Other than the discussion of the ordinance the time of the meeting was devoted to regular routine work.

Women Find

Great comfort in this new hygienic pad that discards easily as tissue—no laundry

ON many important counts, women are deserting the old-time "sanitary pad."

There is a new way. A way that multiplies protection. A way, too, that solves the old problem and embarrassment of disposal.

It is called "KOTEX." Ends the insecurity of the old-time sanitary pad. Five times as absorbent! And odorless—ends ALL fear of offending.

As easily disposed of as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You get it at any drug or department store simply by saying "KOTEX." You ask for it without hesitancy.

Costs only a few cents. Eight in 10 better-class women employ it. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk.

BOIL SHOES TO PREVENT STARVATION

By United Press.
RED BLUFF, Cal., March 3.—A "death diary" today revealed details of a near tragedy in which Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reeder, Sacramento, were snow-bound in the Sierras for ten days without food and were forced to boil their shoes and nibble on leather to keep alive.

The couple, too weak from their experience to tell the story, are in Westwood hospital, rescued by a caterpillar and sled crew of the Red River Lumber Company after found in a pitiable plight by a highway maintenance man.

The "death diary" was started by the Redders after their food gave out and Reeder became too weak to try any more sparrows. He had caught two birds in painfully made snares, and they had eaten the sparrows.

The couple left here for a brief trip to the Feather River Meadow country. At a ranger station some fifty miles distant they discovered all trails blocked by heavy snows. Before they could return they were shut in by a new storm.

Boys Respond To False Alarm; Young Addition

In response to an alarm phoned in by a lady in Young addition, the Ranger fire department made a run down in the neighborhood of the Harmon-Kell depot last night at 7:30. However, they found no fire. The lady said she thought that she saw a fire near there, but it was evidently a trash fire somewhere in that neighborhood.

TEXAS EXES ELECT NEW OFFICERS

TEXAS "Exes" were "twenty" again at their third annual banquet last night in Cisco, when Prof. E. C. H. Bantel brought them a message "From the Campus" and turned back the pages of time.

L. H. Fiewellen of Ranger was elected president of the Oil Belt Association, Joe Eason of Ranger, secretary, Mrs. J. E. Hickman of Breckenridge, reporter for the "The Alcade" and the following vice presidents for the different local organizations. John Turner, vice president of the Eastland organization, E. D. Gatlin of the Breckenridge association; Robert Holloway of Cisco and Miss Catherine Cochran of the Ranger one.

Ranger was chosen for the 1927 meeting.

Forest D. Wright of Cisco delivered the address of welcome. Approximately eighty were in attendance. The banquet was held in the First Presbyterian Church basement. R. F. Holloway responded to the welcome address.

The exes sang, "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here."

Breckenridge delegation did some clever stunts.

George Hargis of Eastland sang and the Cisco bunch did a stunt not near so hard to understand as it was to pronounce, "Astronomical Peregrinating."

The menu was fruit cocktail, tomato cocktail, tomato salad, cream dressing, cheese, turkey and dressing, asparagus tips on toast, candied yams, cream nut pie, coffee and mints. All found a hearty welcome by the collegians.

Eastland Elks Elects Officers For Ensuing Year

TELEGRAPHER IS ORDERED TO DALLAS MEET

A. A. Diehl of Ranger today received a letter from the president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers to report in Dallas for a meeting, March 14.

The president of the organization, who has his headquarters in St. Louis is now in Florida inspecting the East Coast system, and his visit to Texas will be for the purpose of inspecting and going into the Texas & Pacific order of telegraphers. Mr. Diehl stated.

Mr. Diehl represents the railroad telegraphers in the rank and file and in speaking of the contemplated meeting he said it would probably result in a reorganization of the officers of the organization. Mr. Diehl will plan to attend the meeting.

Marion County Man May Get Engineer's Job

AUSTIN, March 3.—A conference was held here yesterday and today between Dan Warden, county road engineer of Marion county, and the state highway commission engineers, concerning a probable change in the engineering force of the commission, according to reliable reports today. W. P. Kemper has been acting state highway engineer since Jan. 15, on which date the resignation of R. J. Hanks became effective. The commission, it is reported, has tendered the position to Dan Warden, the Marion county man.

Dallas Sunset High School Is Shut Down

DALLAS, March 3.—The Sunset High school here was closed today to students who could not display a smallpox vaccination mark, following the discovery of a case of the disease among the students. More than 1,400 students attend the school and city officials expressed fear that the disease may spread.

"Cowboy" Evans No. 2 Looks Good For 175 Barrels

With the sand just tapped, the Cowboy Evans and Barney Carter, No. 2 Dunn, south of Rising Star, looks good for 150 barrels, it was learned here today. This well is near the No. 1 Dunn which came in nearly three weeks ago for 175 barrels in the shallow sand and created lots of excitement. Root & Rhodes of Eastland are spudding today on a wildcat two miles east of the Dunn wells, on the E. L. Burbee farm, where they have a block of 1,000 acres. Root & Rhodes et al., are drilling two wells in the Cross Cut field, the No. 3 Thompson and the No. 9 Chambers. The States Oil corporation's Allen No. 2A, offsetting Cowboy Evans No. 1 Dunn, is due in within the next three days and the company expects to complete the Allen No. 1-C within a week.

Builds up weak bodies

"Eighteen months I suffered from stomach trouble, dizziness, nervousness and intense pain. Tanlac stopped all that. I am 73. Appetite is good, I sleep well and feel like 50. I gladly recommend Tanlac." Elias Johnson, 595 Case St., St. Paul, Minn.

From Mother Nature's storehouse we have gathered the roots, herbs and herbs which are combined, under the famous Tanlac formula, to make Tanlac.

If your body is weak and undernourished, if you can't sleep or eat, have stomach trouble or burning rheumatism, just you see how quickly Tanlac can help you back to health and strength.

Don't delay taking Tanlac another day. Stop at your druggist's now and get a bottle of this, the greatest of all tonics. Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills for constipation.

COOLIDGE PLAN TO LEASE MUSCLE SHOALS ATTACKED

"Without prejudice." Commissioner Meyer handed down the majority report, with Chairman Eastman and Commissioner Aitchison concurring. Commissioner Lewis issued a dissenting opinion and Commissioners Hall, Woodcock and Taylor did not participate in the case.

The record in the case, the commission found, left no doubt that the interests "dominating the Chesapeake and Hocking, who, as we have pointed out, are those controlling the Nickel Plate, used every weapon at their command to crush all opposition to their pre-determined course of action, and that there was an utter lack of independence and impartial representation of all the stockholders of the Chesapeake and Hocking when consideration was being given by their directors to approval of the plan and the terms of the proposed leases."

Requests made by stockholders for relevant and material information, the decision read, "were met by evasion or refusal."

All but two of the directors of the Chesapeake who voted in favor of the plan, it was added, were "vitaly interested in the result from a viewpoint far different from that of mere stockholders in the Chesapeake."

"Of the two exceptions, one represented certain outside interests which immediately bought amounts of Erie and Pere Marquette, and the other was the president of the Chesapeake, whose hands were tied."

T. K. Irwin Throws Hat in Ring For Attorney General

DALLAS, March 3.—T. K. Irwin, a Dallas member of the legislature, today definitely settled the rumor about his running for the nomination of attorney general by announcing his candidacy. He will open his campaign in Huntsville on March 27.

Port Hearing In Dallas, Only One Man Heard

DALLAS, March 3.—Only one witness was heard, and therefore not much material information was added to the existing facts in the Interstate Commerce Commission hearing on the differences of export rates between New Orleans and Galveston at the opening of the hearing here today.

The Galveston Chamber of Commerce is seeking to equalize the rates of that seaport and to prevent a monopoly of export business through New Orleans.

The Louisiana port is the protestants in the case and allege that discrimination in favor of Galveston has been made by shippers. The Galveston port does one of the largest export businesses in the nation. The fight has been in progress several years.

POST MORTEM IS MADE OF WALLIN'S BODY

X-ray photographs were made yesterday of the body of Vardie Wallin, the youth who came to such a tragic end in the Eastland city jail early Monday morning. These examinations and pictures were made in hopes of determining whether the young man had any organic heart trouble or not.

The result of the investigation has not been made public. It is said that Wallin belonged to a very prominent family in Mena, Ark., where his remains have been shipped for burial.

Charley Paddock Will Lecture To School Boys Here

Charles Paddock, a Texas boy who has made a national reputation as a sprinter, will lecture at Ranger High School, on the evening of March 10, on the subject of "The Spirit of Sportsmanship."

He applies the principles of honest sport to the bigger game of life and out of his own experiences he draws some interesting conclusions that are inspirational.

To the boys of America he is "Charley Paddock" and he is a type of clean American manhood that will never fail to be the ideal they have made of him or violate their confidence. Paddock is a speaker as well as a sprinter. He is known as "The Human Streak" but few people know that he holds oratorical medals as well.

TEXTS POLITICAL POT IS BEGINNING TO BOIL; MOODY'S MOVEMENTS ARE BEING WATCHED; LOVE IS IN THE RING

By WORTH S. RAY

AUSTIN, March 3.—Well, politics in Texas is beginning to boil, at last. The people of the state have been watching things closely for some time and perhaps there is something in the old saying that "a watched pot never boils" which may account for the way things have been dragging along with the candidates, but when "Ma" Ferguson threw her bonnet into the ring Sunday morning, the bubbles came to the top and now in a few short days the pot will be sizzling. The watchful waiting game is at an end and the race is starting. And believe me, there is going to be some running.

Moody the Question Mark?
Dan Moody has been the question mark up to this time. "Is Dan going to run for governor this year?" is a query that has been asked over and over again by information seekers. The answer has quite often been that Dan would simply have to run for governor. It has been a long time in Texas since any man just had to run for the highest office the people had to bestow. Is this to be one campaign in the history of the state where the office is to seek the man instead of the man seeking the office? If so, the piece of campaign "bunk" that has been going the round for ages is about to come true. Is one man about to have greatness thrust upon him by the people of this state? It may be, and indeed in whatever light one may regard the several candidates for preferment if one is honest, he is bound to admit that, for a mere striping of a boy, Dan has some popularity. As witness, the meeting yesterday at Georgetown.

Where Jim Ferguson Stands
Not a word has been heard from Jim Ferguson, but there is very little curiosity aroused over whom he will support for governor in this campaign. It is known that his influence will be thrown to Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson. As that lady intimates in her Sunday announcement, there is no such thing as a disagreement in the Ferguson family. It is even rumored that James E. Ferguson will take the stump in behalf of his wife's candidacy. He probably will manage her campaign for the office or nomination. He will probably visit with the boys from the forks of the creek who reside in East Texas. It is not at all unlikely that he will meet a few of the voters in North Texas. He may invade the great open spaces of West Texas and possibly write a few letters to friends in South Texas, or better still, go down and see them before the campaign ends. At least this information comes to the writer from certain sources believed to be reliable.

"Ma" Not Satisfied
In her announcement, Mrs. Ferguson says that she is not satisfied with the so-called "vindication" ceremonies conducted over her husband. She wants the entire record of Jim's political and official troubles of the dim, past expunged from the record. She wants it wiped out entirely. She wants the Ferguson name thoroughly cleaned and renewed, soft-soaped and talcum-powdered. There are some so mean as to remark in this connection that she has already done a pretty fair job, and that if they were in her place she would tell Jim she cleaned him once and now, if he was not satisfied, he could jump in himself and do the polishing. But that is not the way Mrs. Ferguson looks at the matter, and she is somewhat "set in her ways."

Mrs. Ferguson's Right to Him.
The truth of the matter is that Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson has a perfect right to run for re-election if she wants to do so. The few who voted for her against the republican candidate, Butte, in the last general election on her promise not to run again if Jim was "vindicated" would probably have voted for her any way. As she says in her announcement, men have always been given a second term, but this has not always been without opposition. There have been several men governors of the state who would have been denied a second term by a great many voters, if there had been enough of them. This so-called second term custom or rule does not give a one-term governor an absolute right to re-election to a second term. The constitution is not made that way. It is framed so that if the voters are dissatisfied with an official after he has served one term as governor they can elect another one, whether it be a man or a woman. A woman has the same same rights as a man in this matter, but no great right. And so, it happens, "Ma" will have to stand for opposition, as it seems clear that some people are dissatisfied and want to change. And it may be the old, old story. She may win out.

Tom Love for the Senate
Next to the announcement of Mrs. Ferguson for re-election in the Sunday newspapers was the somewhat unexpected move of the Hon. Tom Love of Dallas county, who threw his hat into the ring for election to the state senate from that district against the Hon. John Davis, the present incumbent. It was a rather sensational announcement for office. It contained much praise and pronounced eulogistic admiration for the Hon. Dan Moody. It also declared for the inheritance tax laws, federal and state, and took some sharp cracks at members of the legislature who have been active in attending meetings in opposition to inheritance tax legislation in Texas and Washington. It is plain that Mr. Love is taking his opponent, Mr. Davis, to task for his recent visits to Washington. And it is plain that he is upholding the position of the Hon. John Garner and other members of congress from Texas, in their stand on tax matters.

Honest Confession
In Mr. Love's announcement for the state senate he admits that he supported Butte for governor in 1924 and neglects to apologize to the Democrats for doing so. He says that he is in favor of the repeal of the amnesty bill, although he thinks it unconstitutional. Of course, if the amnesty bill is unconstitutional, then James E. Ferguson has not been pardoned, but Love wants the bill repealed anyway. There is no doubt but what other candidates will now have to declare how they stand on repealing the amnesty bill, and how they stand on going still further, if they should be elected to the legislature, and voting to expunge the Ferguson impeachment from the record. Mrs. Ferguson's announcement will also have the effect to bring out those matters as issues in all legislative elections in Texas this year. Knowing ones around the capital predict that Dan Moody's announcement is coming right away. That there is no further need for delay, if there ever has been. Even before this is printed it may be released, but at any rate, politically speaking, March is coming in this year like a roaring lion, and the roar is destined to grow louder before April enters. Let everybody get ready for the campaign for it is going to be a hum-dinger.

Doug and Mary Bid Farewell To Dear Movie Land

LOS ANGELES, March 3.—Mary Pickford, "America's sweetheart," and Douglas Fairbanks, her athletic husband, left Los Angeles Tuesday on the first lap of an extended trip abroad.

A big crowd of friends and fans gathered at the Santa Fe station at noon when Doug and Mary boarded the California Limited, headed for New York, to bid them farewell.

The movie couple will visit old friends in the East until early in April when they will sail for Europe. They plan to sail on the steamship Co De Blancamano, landing at Naples from whence they will go to France, Germany and Russia.

Pickford, the elegant Beverly Hills home of Mary and Doug is to be sold during their absence and a new home will be built in the same vicinity on their return.

Doug said he and Mary had made tentatively plans to produce three pictures while abroad.

Worth during the Fat Stock show, according to an announcement made by their representative at the Gholson hotel, Ranger, this morning. The rate will be 10 per cent lower than the regular rate, or $6.30 for the round trip, and will go on sale on March 6, being good until March 13.

By the coach leaving here as early as it does in the morning, 8:20 o'clock, and returning here at 11 o'clock at night, one can get in a very nice day in Fort Worth. However, for those who wish to make a night of it, a coach leaves Fort Worth at 5:30 in the morning. This reduction in rate is in line with the service that the West Texas Coaches company is giving its patrons all along its route.

DREADFUL PAINS

Georgia Lady, Who Had Lost Too Much Weight, Was Advised to Take Cardui and Is Now Well.

Columbus, Ga.—Mrs. George S. Hunter, of this city, writes:

"After I married, thirteen months ago, I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides during... My side hurt so bad it nearly killed me. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. I could not work and I just dragged around the house.

"I got very thin—I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had long been a user of Cardui and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve.

"My side hurt less and I began to improve in health... The Cardui acted as a fine tonic and I do not feel like the same person. I am so much better. I am well now. I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all.

"I wish every suffering woman knew about Cardui." NC-160

White Swan Coffee Holds a Birthday Party 30 Years Old

Can you remember when you had your first cup of White Swan Coffee? Some folks in the Southwest can go back thirty years in reminiscing this delightful experience, because the Waples-Platter Grocer Company, roasters of White Swan Coffee, first placed this better coffee on the market thirty years ago this season. The Waples-Platter name had then been known for nearly a quarter of a century as this company was founded in 1872. The company today is fifty-four years old; has twenty-one wholesale branch houses in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico; 115 traveling salesmen represent this great institution and its services to the people of the Southwest almost reach to the vast proportions of feeding the entire land.

There are more than 100 quality food products which bear the well known White Swan label, but probably the best known product of all is White Swan Coffee; which is now enjoying its thirtieth year of successful manufacture and sale. Celebrating this anniversary the Waples-Platter company is specializing on the sale of White Swan Coffee this season. Extensive advertising is being done here and all over the Southwest featuring the qualities of this fine coffee. Nearly every grocery store in this territory is featuring this brand of coffee in window displays and other ways to make its sale greater this year than ever. J. W. Shugart, salesmanager at Fort Worth, says regarding this special campaign: "White Swan Coffee is a practically perfect blend of the finest coffees that money can buy. Our great plants roast it with extreme care, testing each roasting expertly and minutely. It is roasted fresh daily and delivered quickly in small quantities to dealers who pass it on to discriminating homes with its absolute freshness. White Swan Coffee by actual test goes one-fourth farther than most other coffees, making it a very economical product."
