ANTHRACITE COAL MINE STRIKE ORDERED

COOPER GIVES EXPLANATION OF QUESTION

Tells What Caused Delay in Designating Headlight Testing Station in Ranger

County Commissioner V. V. Cooper, in a communication to the editor, explains clearly why the commissioners' court failed to designate headlight testing stations in Ranger until within the last few days. He complains because information was not sought from him who could have explained the whole matter. In justice to the reporter, it should be stated that information was sought at the county commissioners' office and County Judge Pritchard said it could only be obtained from the clerk in the office, who was away on her vacation. County Commissioner Cooper is a busy man, and frequently in one part of the county or another, and it did not occur to the reporter that he might have information not available to the county judge. The letter from Mr. Cooper follows:

Ranger, Texas, Aug. 27, 1925.—To the Editor:

For the last several issues of your paper you have devoted much space to the matter of Ranger being grossly neglected relative to the appointment by the commissioners' court of headlight testing stations in the town of Ranger. Although, you have it seems, been working overtime endeavoring to secure information as to why Ranger has not been taken care of in this matter, yet you have not thought it worth while to ask your commissioner for a statement although he is here every day and has a telephone in his house. Thinking, possibly, some innocent person might be misled by your articles on this subject I am taking the liberty to give you the information relative to this matter, which you should have obtained before you began your series of articles criticizing the court about a matter which you either were not familiar with or about which you were familiar but deliberately endeavored to create a false impression upon your readers and my neighbors.

The fact relative to the appointment of headlight testing stations in Ranger are as follows: In July the commissioners' court received the specifications for county headlight testing stations, and these specifications, together with letter of instructions, were distributed among the garages of the county, including the garages of Ranger. These specifications were accompanied with a letter advising the prospective applicant that it would be necessary for them to furnish bond with application. Under the law Ranger, was and is entitled to three such testing stations. Within a few days a sufficient number of acceptable applications were received from Ranger. The first three being from Leville-Maher Motor company, Westgate & Barnes garage and Black & White garage, all of which were acceptable to the court and by the court recommended. However, of these three, there was none who had furnished the required bonds.

When the court met in regular session on the tenth day of August it was ascertained that none of these parties had furnished bonds. Therefore, on the 24th day of August a special called meeting was held for the purpose of approving and officially designating the stations, but at this time the first three applicants had not filed their bonds. When this was discovered I personally called these applicants and urged them to file their bonds. Two of the applicants withdrew their applications, leaving only one of the first three, viz: Leville-Maher Motor company, who complied with the request and the law and filed the required bond.

In the meantime the Prairie Oil & Gas company, and Mr. Love of the Central Service station had filed their applications together with the required bond. These applications were duly approved and the three stations, viz: Leville-Maher Motor company, Prairie Oil & Gas company and Central Service station were officially designated as the headlight testing stations for Ranger. All these applications were approved and official designations made on the same day.

These stations will have plenty of time before Sept. 1 to take care of the needs of the car owners if they promptly equip their stations for that purpose. No favoritism has been shown. No individual company or community has been neglected. This matter has been handled as the law requires and there is no just ground for complaint.

It might be a matter of news for you and interest to your readers if you would keep up closer with the activities of the commissioners' court. You might find out, upon casual investigation, that this court has recovered over $200,000 by the litigation route for Eastland county within the past two years, and that the court has done some very effective work on the roads of the county. The people might be interested in such news items and I shall be glad, at all times, to furnish you with accurate information relative to

GENERAL RAINS HELP RESCUE TEXAS CROPS

Rackbone of Drouth Broken Except in South Central Part of State

DALLAS, Aug. 28.—General rains throughout the federal reserve district have improved farming conditions and aroused hopes that something may yet be saved from the long drouth-parched fields, according to a report issued today by the federal reserve bank here.

"The rains have come in time to save the cotton crop in the northwestern part of the state and to check deterioration elsewhere," the report said. Grain, sorghum and hay crops have been revived, but the production of corn and oats will be only a small percentage of the normal yield, according to the report. The backbone of the drouth is said to have been broken except in the south central part of the state.

Retail trade in the larger cities in July was somewhat better than in July a year ago, but showed the dull summer complexion.

Mexia Man Wounds Wife and Kills Self To Prevent Arrest

MEXIA, Aug. 28.—Holding the officers after he had shot his wife in a domestic argument at their home here early today, Henry McKenzie, 72, fired a bullet through his head, probably will recover, physicians said.

Warning the officers he would shoot to kill if they entered his home, McKenzie held the two men, off 10 minutes as they parleyed with him while gradually drawing in on him. As one officer stepped inside the door, McKenzie placed his gun to his head, called "goodbye, all," and fired, the bullet piercing his brain.

The activities of the court so long as I am a member of such court. A newspaper should be fair, especially since it is supported by all of we citizens of the community in which it is published.

Yours very truly,
Signed: V. V. COOPER.

Making Highways in Texas Safe For the Public Both Day and Night

As September 1, the date limit for owners of automobiles to have their lights tested according to the regulation prescribed by the law passed by the recent legislature, headlight testing stations in Eastland county are very busy. Hardly any of the lights are found to be correctly focused, it is stated, and many cars, especially older models, are said to be equipped with a type of lens that will not pass inspection.

Most motorists, it seems, are pleased with the tests they get and the law requiring them as they find that when the headlights are properly focused they get a better light, which makes driving easier and safer for everyone on the road.

After September 1 ignorance of the law will not bring relief to those careless and negligent auto drivers who are brought before the judge on any of the following charges covered by the new auto laws:

Driving with faulty headlights.

Driving with cutout on car.

Driving while intoxicated.

Speeding.

Obstructing highways.

Depositing glass on public road.

Willful and negligent collision.

Driving with faulty braking equipment.

Chauffering without licenses.

Failing to stop after being party to accident.

Driving without front and rear license plates.

Racing on highway.

Operation of auto without consent of owner.

Offering for sale a car with dealer's license, or persistently using car with dealer's license for pleasure.

Being in possession of car with obliterated engine number.

Giving bill of sale in blank for sale of second hand car.

Eastland Gun Club Invites Ranger Men To Enter Tournamnet

Marksmen of the Ranger Gun club are urged to turn out in force this afternoon at the regular weekly gun shoot of the club. Only one more shoot will be held in Ranger on the gun range until after dove season, the last of October. The last shoot will be held next Friday afternoon, Sept. 4. Dove season opens Sept. 1 and hunting licenses may be obtained at Killingsworth-Cox company of Ranger for the year.

An invitation to participate in the trapshooting tournament of the Eastland Gun club at Eastland, Labor day, Sept. 7, was received by J. T. Killingsworth, custodian of the Ranger club traps and birds. Two hundred registered targets, 100 16 yard rise, 50-yard handicap and 25 pairs of doubles will be a few of the events at the shoot.

The traps at the Eastland Gun club open Sunday afternoon for practice and a number of marksmen are expected to take advantage of the opportunity to get acquainted with the Eastland traps. Ranger marksmen are more or less familiar with the Eastland traps, having visited the gun range frequently during the last few months. A squad representing the crack shots of the Ranger Gun club will represent Ranger, while a number of individuals are also expected to enter independently in the tournament.

FRENCH CABINET APPROVES PLAN TO SETTLE DEBTS

PARIS, Aug. 28.—The French cabinet approves in principal the British tentative offer of a settlement of France's debt of more than $3,000,000,000 by the issue of 62 annuities of $2,500,000 each.

This decision was reached overnight by a session of the cabinet members, which praises finance minister Caillaux's accomplishment in obtaining a two-thirds reduction of the debt.

Simultaneously the cabinet expressed the hope that England will show equal generosity. England's offer is only valid if the United States grants like terms.

Finance Minister Caillaux now plans to sail alone for the United States on September 16. His program calls for direct negotiations in Washington to establish the principles to be applied to the French debt settlement.

Group of New Orleans Men Indicted For Conspiracy and Liquor Smuggling

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 28.—Sequel to the recent raids of prohibition enforcement agents in this city came with the issuance of indictments by the grand jury against 34 men arrested in the raids. Four former members of the New Orleans police force and two deputy sheriffs were indicted.

Charges of conspiracy and liquor smuggling were preferred against practically all of the men arrested.

The grand jury indictments also disclosed alleged payment of $10,000 to Pat Needham, federal prohibition "under cover" man. The money was to have been used to attempt to bribe C. D. Jackson, regional prohibition director, it was charged.

The indictments cover a flow of liquor from Cuba and the Bahamas to New Orleans.

BARNEY CARTER CLOSES TRADE TO SELL PLANT

Phillips Petroleum Co. Buys; Has Casinehead Gasoline Plant Near Ranger

Consummation of an oft-rumored business transaction was announced today when Barney Carter made the statement that he had closed the deal with Phillips Petroleum company for the purchase by that company of the gasoline plant he is erecting on the Pritchard farm, in the Carter pool, about six miles northwest of Ranger.

The transaction covers only the purchase of the gasoline plant, for a consideration of about $325,000, Mr. Carter said. Phillips Petroleum company control a large part of the gasoline output of Stephens county, with the acquisition of the Carter plant, which, though only in the course of construction, is located in one of the most promising gas pools. The Carter pool, about six miles northwest and lying just over the Eastland county line in Stephens county is in what is known as Ranger territory and was controlled by Ranger operators.

William S. Irby Dies Of Heart Failure

Funeral services for William S. Irby, 74, who died yesterday about noon from heart failure are to be held about 5 o'clock this afternoon at Evergreen cemetery, following services in the chapel at Killingsworth-Cox undertaking parlors. Rev. A. L. Leake conducted the services.

Mr. Irby was found dead in a pasture of the McCleskey farm, north of Ranger, yesterday shortly after noon when members of the family were alarmed over his non-appearance for dinner. Irby, it was said, had gone to the pasture that morning to cut down trees and haul them in for firewood. Justice of the Peace L. C. Gorton, who held the inquest, gave a verdict of "death by natural causes." Heart failure was given to be the direct cause of death.

Decedent is survived by his widow, four sons and five daughters. He had lived near Ranger about six years.

Ranger Boys Return From C. M. T. C. Full Of Praise for It

A group of Ranger boys, tanned and looking to be in prime physical condition, arrived in town yesterday evening from Camp San Houston where they had been attending the citizens' military training camp for the past month.

All the boys were enthusiastic about the camp and the training through which they went. They were under United States government officials and were put through a regular army course. Differing somewhat from army training, Saturday afternoon and Sundays were off days in the camp and the boys spent time to good advantage seeing the historic spots of San Antonio.

In the group who attended the camp from Ranger were William Cleveland, C. Cole, Truett Wier, Floyd Killingsworth, S. R. Black, and a number of others.

FIRE IN TAILORING SHOP PUT OUT VERY EASILY

Fire originating in the rear of the Ogden tailor shop, South Rusk street, was the cause of a quick run by the Ranger firemen today about 1:40 p. m. The fire was put out by Si Ogden, proprietor, who threw a bucket of water on the blaze before much damage was done.

Conspiracy to Rob Airmail Charged and Postal Clerks Held

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—More than 40 postal clerks were in custody today in connection with a plot to rob the airmail between Chicago and San Francisco. One of the clerks is said to have revealed the plan to federal authorities. Thus far, postal authorities have deemed it make public all details of the scheme.

It was learned that government authorities first suspected something when a telegram was received from San Francisco reporting that a valuable pouch of air mail which left Chicago Tuesday had not reached the Pacific coast until last night. Postoffice authorities intimated something of this sort had happened once before and called in inspectors to probe the matter.

Whether the mail bags were rifled here or at some point along the way has not been determined, Inspector Aldrich said.

State Joins Defense In Asking Change of Venue for W. A. Martin

Martin Charged With Robbery of Bank at Krum

DENTON, Aug. 28.—The case of W. A. Martin, charged by indictment with murder in the shooting and killing of Deputy Sheriff R. B. Parsons here on Aug. 6 and transferred to Dallas county criminal district court No. 2 on Thursday afternoon on change of venue, is expected to be set for trial there in the next two or three weeks, County Attorney Elbert Hooper said Thursday after having talked over the telephone with the office of District Attorney Shelby Cox at Dallas.

The state joined the defense in asking for the change of venue because there was not time to try the case before this special term of the Sixteenth district court ends Saturday, Sept. 5, and to avoid a continuance of the case until the next regular term of the court here, opening Nov. 2.

Russians Conspire With Chinese Cadets To Seize Canton

HONG KONG, Aug. 28.—Control of the Canton government has fallen into the hands of the Whompo cadets, who are officered by Russians, according to advices from Canton today. Some fighting is reported, but the "red" forces apparently are in control of the situation. The coup followed the arrest of the Canton foreign minister, Withon-Min.

After the cadets had seized Canton and usurped the power, they proceeded to disarm all troops whose attitude was regarded by them as suspicious.

STATE PRISON SYSTEM TO SELL COTTON SEED

AUSTIN, Aug. 28.—The first definite announcement of relief measures for the drouth-stricken districts was made here Friday by ex-Gov. James E. Ferguson, who authorized the statement that the state prison system will sell 200,000 bushels of cotton seed in the drouth territory at about half price, the cost to be $1.25 per bushel in car lots and $1.50 in less than carload lots.

He made this statement following a conference with members of the commission in Houston.

AUSTIN-SAN ANTONIO POST ROAD WORK DEFERRED

AUSTIN, Aug. 28.—Further postponement of survey work on the Austin-San Antonio post road preliminary to reducing the mileage, eliminating railroad crossings and straightening out curves, has been ordered by the state highway commission and, according to Commissioner Joe Burkett, the survey will not be started until early in the new year.

Lack of funds and the policy adopted by the commission to lend aid possible in the drouth areas of the state were given as reasons for delaying the new Austin-San Antonio post road program. The plan for improving this greatly traveled highway was first suggested by Highway Commissioner John H. Bickett of San Antonio, and arrangements had been made several weeks ago to start the preliminary survey work.

MINERS TOLD TO QUIT WORK SEPTEMBER 1

Public Fails to Become Excited, Soaring Prices Not Interesting Them.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—Strike of the 158,000 anthracite coal miners has been formally called for next Monday at midnight, when the present contracts expire. The 325 miners' locals in the strike region will receive strike orders today signed by Mitchell, which will be read at special meetings to be held tomorrow.

Monday afternoon, the day shifts, comprising the bulk of the workers, will lay down their tools and at midnight the strike will be complete when the night shift stops work unless something unforeseen intervenes to prevent the strike.

COAL PRICES IN OHIO ARE SOARING TO HIGHER LEVELS

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 28.—With only 250 of her 1,300 bituminous mines operating, Ohio today was anxiously awaiting the outcome of the threatened strike in the anthracite producing region. Similar uncertainty prevailed in the Kentucky and West Virginia fields, chief competitors of Ohio.

Prices soared overnight, the increases ranging from 25 cents to $1.50 a ton, presumably in anticipation of the walkout in the anthracite mines.

COAL SUBSTITUTES MAY HOLD FUEL PRICES DOWN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The federal government and the American public generally regard as almost inevitable the hard coal strike which is scheduled to start September 1, but viewing the situation calmly, the government has no intention of intervening to bring about any settlement and has made no move beyond a cursory survey of the methods to be adopted to assure free movement of hard coal substitutes. The public has not responded to strike threats with panicky buying, as in the past, and as a result prices generally are firm without hoisting.

Explanation of the public's equanimity is in the apparent belief the strike will not last long and in the availability of a considerable number of substitutes. Government agencies list twelve substitutes, most prominent of which is the smokeless bituminous coal of the West Virginia fields.

Other substitutes are: South Wales anthracite, lignite, smokeless anthracite from North Dakota and other western states, semi-bituminous coal which is akin to smokeless but less desirable, briquettes, wood, peat, oil, natural gas, artificial gas and electricity.

Gasser in Chickasha Field Running Wild; Well May Be Lost

CHICKASHA, Okla., Aug. 28.—The wild gasser of the Nichols Oil & Refining company in section 26-8-8W is presenting problems never before faced in the Chickasha field and the loss of the well is imminent.

Gas is escaping on the outside of the casing, either through a crack in the pipe or from below. It is known that the escaping gas is coming from below the 400-foot level for at that depth a vein of artesian water, pure and clean, is struck in the field. This water is being thrown high over the top of casing by the force of the gas. No salt water is escaping.

Following a possible crevice through the earth, the gas has forced its way to the surface of the ground more than 100 feet from the well. Observing this, the control gate on the well is opened wide to prevent a crater being blown out through gas seepage far from the well.

Field reports Wednesday were that an attempt will be made to Bradenhead the well by steeling a string of 10-inch pipe over the pipe now set in the well, forcing the large pipe down to the point where the crack in the casing is believed to be. It was admitted that should this method prove a failure, the remaining remedy would be to pump heavy mud and cement into the well and kill it. This would mean the entire loss of the well. Meantime, the volume of gas escaping is taking about 60,000,000 cubic feet of gas a day from the field. That amount is practically three times the volume carried by the main of the Oklahoma natural.

PARIS TO NEW YORK.
 A new airplane designed to make a non-stop flight of over 2,000 miles is being tested at LeBourget, near Paris. These tests are among the most important ever made in aviation. The machine which has been used in the experiments has a 480-horsepower engine and has double control. The first test will be made from Paris to Aleppo. If this succeeds, there will be a second flight from Paris to Baghdad, a distance of 2,500 miles. If it is shown that such distances can safely be negotiated with fair regularity there will be nothing to prevent flights from Paris to New York.

European writers look to this breaking down of the barriers of distance as the first step toward making America part of Europe—or Europe part of America—and perfecting the much desired unity of nations.

MUSIC.
 During the past decade the interest in music throughout our country, in all places and all classes, has taken on the proportions of a boom. There are 2,000,000 saxophonists playing, sometimes one is impelled to believe, in almost as many jazz bands. There are more violin and harp students than ever before in our history. There are a dozen symphony orchestras today where there were three or four 20 years ago. Grand opera companies are more popular than ever. In spite of the high cost of artists, stage hands and transportation, light operas and musical comedies are more numerous than in any earlier season. There are 1,000,000 player-pianos and 8,000,000 phonographs reproducing the words and music of this and other days. Grand opera stars or cabaret artists are broadcasting to 4,000,000 radio sets every night. And in the midst of these strenuous national vibrations, the fathers and mothers who direct the destinies of their children, and hence the destiny of our country, are providentially devoting themselves to the cause of better music for and in the rising generations.

VICTOR LAWSON.
 With the death of Victor Lawson, editor and publisher of the Chicago Tribune, the last of the pioneer journalists of the United States has passed away. He was the last of a long list of individual stars that included such names as Dana, Bennett, Greeley, Raymond, Watterson and McClure—men who left their impress, not only on the field of journalism but on the nation.

The Utah forces that lined up, respectively for John W. Davis and Robert M. La Follette in 1924 comprise a combination against Senator Reed Smoot for his fifth term. In the presidential election they polled, between them, 80,663 votes. The Coolidge vote was 77,927, representing a republican minority of 3,000 odd as against the combined democratic-progressive minority. If that coalition holds together for next year's senatorial election, it will give a substantial challenge to Mr. Smoot.

The tiny republic of Liberia, which has been largely maintained by Uncle Samuel, promises to furnish us with rubber, the price of which, under British rule, has advanced 500 per cent. Harvey Firestone, of Akron, Ohio, proposes to convert the kingdom into a rubber plantation.

THURSDAY BRIDGE CLUB
 The Roy Jameson home on Elm street was the scene of an extremely pretty club meeting Thursday morning, when Mrs. Jameson entertained the members of the Thursday bridge club, and a few extra guests at 10 o'clock in the morning. Bridge tables were arranged in a setting of zinnias and roses, most of the flowers being grown in the hostess own flower garden. Mrs. A. N. Harkrider was the lucky winner of the high score trophy, which was a "gold-locks" boudoir pillow, the handwork of the hostess, carried out in three different colors of voile and lace. The low score prize, a jar of homemade peach sweet pickles, went to Mrs. E. E. Crawford.

At the end of the game, luncheon cloths replaced bridge table covers, and the hostess served a two-course luncheon consisting of meat loaf, frozen fruit salad, peach sweet pickles, hot rolls, stuffed dates and ice tea, pineapple whip and angel food cake. Those playing were Meses. John Thurman, C. O. Terrell, Frank Brahaney, E. E. Crawford, C. C. Craig, J. T. Gullaborn, R. W. Thomas, A. N. Harkrider, B. S. Dudley, L. H. Flewelling, E. L. McMillen and Miss Kate Easton of Houston. The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. W. Thomas.

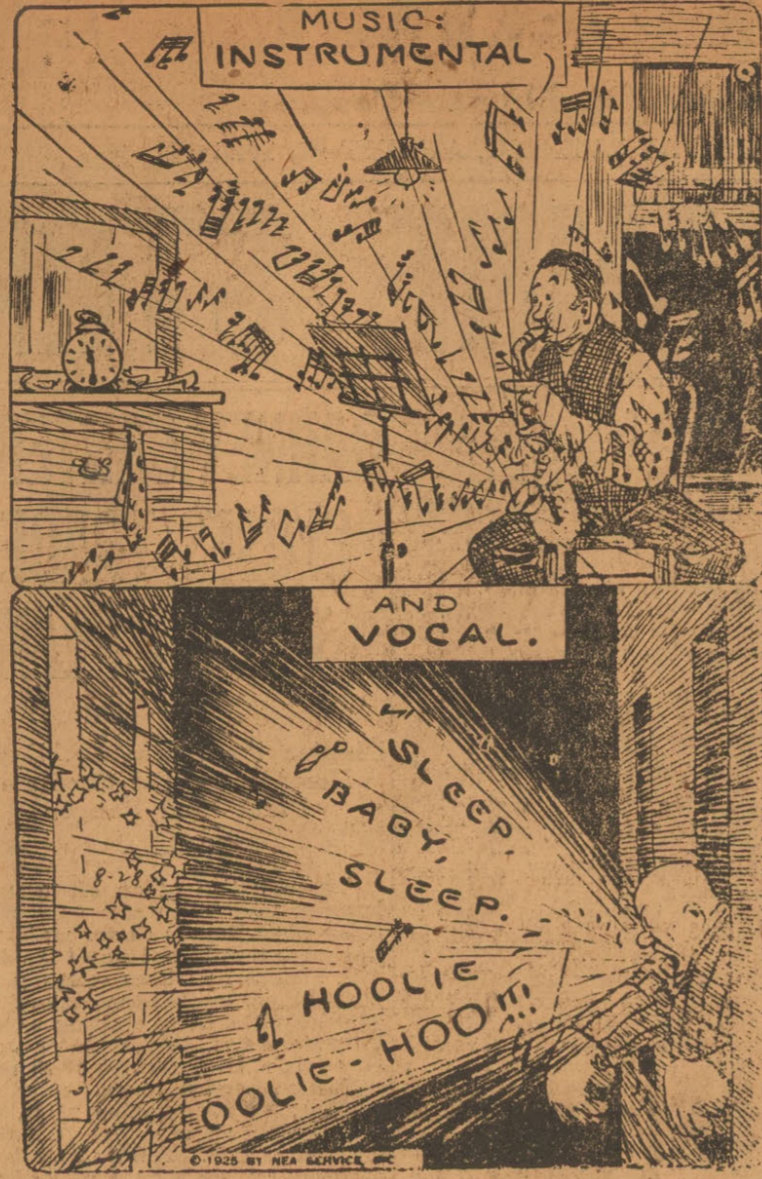

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUB.
 On account of some of the members of the Wednesday Bridge club being out of the city, there were only two tables of players present at their regular twice-a-month meeting, Wednesday morning, at the home of Mrs. Gus Coleman, just off Tiffin highway. However, what they lacked in numbers was made up in good times. The prizes were strikingly original, a two and one-half dollar gold piece being the high score prize, went to Mrs. Paul Lacy, and an ice cold watermelon, the low score prize, to Mrs. Walter Burden. Cut flowers furnished the floral decorations for the cozy home. At noon an attractive two-course luncheon was served to the following: Meses Frank Brahaney, Walter Burden, W. D. Conway, Frank Brown, W. R. Bowden, Roy Jameson, C. C. Craig, Paul Lacy.

LIONS HAVE WATERMELON FEAST.
 The watermelon feast given by Ranger Lions at the Country club last evening, was a delightfully informal affair. There was no set program carried out, the choice of amusement being left strictly to the individual, however, music was furnished for those who wanted to dance, chairs out on the wide veranda for those who preferred a tete-tete, and as the grounds were illuminated by lights strung from the clubhouse across the open spaces, there was ample room for old-fashioned out-door games and frolics. Under these lights tables were arranged and it was here that an old-fashioned watermelon slicing was enjoyed. The melons were the best that could be found, large and luscious and ice cold. The Lions are always charming hosts and on this occasion they lived right up to their usual reputation. A splendid crowd was present, including a number of special guests, and the families of the various Lions.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU
 To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nausealess Calomet tablet that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style Calomet, heretofore recommended by physicians.
 One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—adv.

church by the members of the Woman's Missionary union and is the best that money could buy. It's a dark mahogany Wilton, very handsome in color and texture and adds mightily to the looks of the church.
 The ladies are planning to add new curtains for the chancel railing and the baptistry, which will harmonize in color and quality with the new carpet. These additions to the church will make its interior one of the prettiest in the city. The ladies have been working on this project for some time, and just as they had accumulated the funds necessary for the carpet, the Peoples State bank, in which they had their funds, closed its doors, so they could not go any further until the money was released by the state banking department. Truly the women of a church are its good right hand and a church without working women would be like a home without a mistress, as it would soon run down at the heel, become seedy and unattractive, for churches are like homes—they need frequent replenishing.

THREE ARRESTS CONNECTED WITH SANTA FE HOLD-UP
 LOS ANGELES, Cal. 28.—Two men and a girl were arrested here today on suspicion of robbery and murder in connection with the hold-up of a Santa Fe train near Santa Anna, Sunday night.
 Everett Lewis, 36, leader of the trio, was said to have been arrested a year ago for suspected complicity in the $1,000,000 mail robbery and had been at liberty under $15,000 bail. The others arrested were Robert E. Lee, 28, and Pearl Lewis, 26.

RED RIVER FREE BRIDGE DISPUTE MAY BE SETTLED
 AUSTIN, Aug. 28.—That a move is under way to settle differences over the construction of a free bridge across Red River at Burkburnett without resorting to the courts, was indicated today when the attorney general was requested by E. P. Walsh, county auditor of Wichita county, for an opinion as to whether county funds could be used in the purchase of the interstate toll bridge at Burkburnett.

After August 15 my practice will be limited to diseases of infancy and childhood.

SECRECY ATTENDS COURT-MARTIAL OF TWO MARINES
By United Press.
SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Aug. 28. The usual military secrecy today surrounded the scheduled court-martial of two marines of the president's guard alleged to have been found asleep at their posts.
Captain Adolphus Andrews, naval aid to Mr. Coolidge, said the court-martial probably would be held within a few days.
The marines, Corporal Andrew Shanlon of Cleveland, Ohio, and Private Clarence Key of Centerville, Texas, are now believed to be technical prisoners on board the Presidential yacht Mayflower.

KERR'S COMEBACK
It pays to be a square shooter. Pitcher Dick Kerr knows.
In the 1919 world series between Cincinnati and Chicago Dick Kerr of the White Sox was the outstanding hero.

perhaps five minutes clapped, yelled and stamped a welcome to Kerr.
That ovation made up for a lot of woe that has come my way since quitting organized baseball," said Kerr after the game. "The public told me emphatically it is strong for the fellow who is on the square."

OPPOSITE TYPES

As the Philadelphia and Washington clubs of the American League come down the home stretch, it will be a battle of two different types of baseball.
Philadelphia has a batting punch, although of late there has been a falling off in the team's hitting. In addition it has a good defense.
Washington has a remarkable defense. No team in either major league can pull difficult double plays in a pinch with the uncanniness that characterizes the play of the world champs. The club also has a good offense.
Thus we have Philadelphia with a great offense and good defense and Washington with just the opposite.
Perhaps in the dash down the home stretch these two assets of each club will equate themselves and the result will hinge on the pitching plus all-around courage.
Unless one of the two clubs lapses through carelessness, the contest of the final week is sure to be a close one.

MAKES CHILD-BIRTH AS EASY AS THE STORK'S FLIGHT

Thousands of Mothers Grateful to G. F. P. Because it Takes Away Nausea and That Uncomfortable and Uneasy Feeling.

It is a revelation and a joy that will not soon be forgotten to those who have witnessed the results, to see the heartfelt gratitude and the deeply sincere expressions of everlasting thanks only a mother can bestow which countless tender hearts are heaping on St. Joseph's G. F. P., for the wonderful relief it has given them from the agonies they dreaded and actually suffered during pregnancy.

With the one thought of bringing relief to mothers during this trying period in their lives the constant incentive, some of the nation's greatest chemists and authorities studied, searched and experimented to find that something which they felt sure would release womanhood from the dread of that which she so earnestly and proudly anticipates. Finally, after years of hard work, their aim is realized—motherhood, beautiful in all its glory, through the faithful use of their product which is known as St. Joseph's G. F. P.

IMPROVED LINE OF BODY TYPES FOR FORD CARS

Bodies Longer, Lower and All-Steel; Brakes More Powerful.

Body changes and chassis refinements are more pronounced than any made since the adoption of the model T chassis were announced here today by the Ford Motor company.

Complete New Designs. Outstanding features of the improvements in both open and enclosed types are lower, all-steel bodies on a lowered chassis, complete new design in most body types, a change from black to color in closed cars, larger, lower fenders, newly designed seats and larger, more powerful brakes.

Longer lines, affected through higher radiator and redesigned cowl and bodies are apparent in all the improved Ford cars, but are especially pronounced in the open types. Wide crown fenders hung close to the wheels contribute to the general effect of lowness and smartness.

While runabout and touring cars remain in black, the closed bodies are finished in harmonious color schemes, enhanced by nickel radiators. The coupe and tudor bodies are finished in deep channel green while the Fordor is rich Windsor maroon.

Greater comfort is provided for driver and passenger in both open and closed cars by larger compartments, more deeply cushioned seats and greater leg room.

Convenience and Comfort. Many new conveniences are also incorporated in the improved cars. In the runabout, touring car, coupe and tudor, the gasoline tank is under the cowl and filled through an ingeniously located filler cap completely hidden from sight by a cover similar in appearance to a cowl ventilator. One-piece windshield and narrow pillars in the tudor and coupe offer a driver greatly increased visibility and improved ventilation.

Driving comfort is materially increased by lower seats, scientifically improved back rests, and lower steering wheel. Brake and clutch pedals are wider and more conveniently spaced.

Four doors are now provided on the touring car and two on the runabout permitting the driver to take his place from the left side of the car. Curtains, held secure by rods, open with the doors.

Most important in the mechanical changes are the improved brakes. The transmission brake drum and bands have been considerably increased in size which gives the foot brake softer and more positive action as well as longer life. The rear wheel brake drums are larger and the brake of self energizing type.

Cord tires are now standard equipment on all Ford cars.

Miss Nell Tibbels will open her studio Tuesday in the Reavis building, adjoining Mrs. Peters' studio. Dunning system taught if desired. Phone for information, No. 405—Advertisement.

Bobby Jones Plans Winter Preparation For Tournament Golf

ATLANTA, Aug. 28.—Bobby Jones, premier Dixie golfer, took his thrilling defeat at the hands of Willie MacFarland in the national open championship at Worcester, Mass., very seriously and has promised his admirers, that he will make amends by putting in the winter months preparing for the 1926 campaign. His game at Worcester was a bit off and not up to par considering past performances. The amateur champion took his game lightly and some of his shots resulted from downright carelessness, he admitted later. "I'm going to be in Sarasota, Fla., much of the time from November until next spring," Bobby said. "And for the first time I am going to play some serious golf and make a real effort to get back in shape for the summer campaign and the two big championships of 1926."

Runaway Sally Attains Film Stardom When Producer Sees Her on Diving Board

By LINCOLN QUARBERG, United Press Staff Correspondent. HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 18.—Several years ago Sally Rand, corn-fed and only pint-size, ran away from a Kansas City boarding school to become an actress. Police trailed the diminutive beauty without success, the matron of the girl's finishing school she had attended was horrified and Sally's mother was heart broken. Today Sally is on the paved highway to film fame. Kansas City is proud to reclaim her, and her mother has forgiven the runaway daughter. Sally has been elected for stardom by both Cecil DeMille and Mack Sennett, Hollywood's greatest "daddys" of baby film stars. Sennett picked Sally from the surf and gave her a start before the cameras. One look at Sally in a bathing suit, and in stunts from a diving board, convinced the ace of comic film producers that the girl was a potential star. As a Sennett bathing beauty, Sally began her film career under the direction as Gloria Swanson, Charlie Chaplin, Louise Fazenda, Mabel Normand, Marie Prevost, Wallace Berry, Lew Cody and other screen players now flickering in the movie firmament. More than 50 film luminaries have had their initiations before the cameras in the comedy settings of Mack Sennett, Hollywood's greatest "daddy" of the DeMille school, where they rode directly to stardom under the insurgent producer's coaching and favor. "Sally Rand is the most beautiful girl in America," DeMille proclaimed after signing the little actress to a long-term contract. "She is young, piquant, athletic and intelligent—possessed of a trim type of film fascination which should make her a star of the first magnitude." Miss Rand, in an interview, said it was just "plain luck" which landed her feet foremost in the movies and on the way to success.

25 years of anticipating the requirements of motorists—making manufacturing processes more certain—producing a higher standard of quality—25 years of unswerving adherence to the Firestone pledge, "Most Miles per Dollar"—summarizes Firestone's record of service to car owners. Firestone factories have grown from a small building approximately 75 x 150 feet to mammoth plants having floor area of over 60 acres, from a capital of $50,000 to over $50,000,000—from an annual sales volume of $100,000 to over $100,000,000—all in the short period of 25 years. This Firestone record could only have been made through furnishing the public with outstanding values and is, consequently, your assurance of quality and lowest prices. If you would like to know more of this wonderful record, ask your Firestone dealer to send you an illustrated folder. With today's high cost of crude rubber and other raw materials, Firestone's opportunity to serve the public was never better, due to its great volume and special advantages in buying, manufacturing and distribution.

The FLAPPER WIFE

by Beatrice Burton © 1925 NEA SERVICE INC.

THE STORY SO FAR:
Gloria Gordon, beautiful flapper, marries Dick Gregory, a struggling lawyer. Her idea of marriage is fun and fine clothes, but no work or children.

She refuses to do her own housework, and hires Ranghild Swanson, although Dick says they can't afford a maid. And she swamps Dick with debts for her clothes and a new automobile.

Gloria becomes infatuated with Stanley Wayburn, an out-of-work actor. Her "jazzy" friend, May Seymour, wife of Dr. John Seymour, warns her not to be seen with Wayburn. She tells Gloria how she herself has been snubbed because of her love affair with Jim Carewe.

Dick becomes seriously ill with pneumonia. During the days of his slow recovery Gloria sees Wayburn constantly. He tells her he is going to New York to get a job. He needs money. Gloria borrows $200 from Dick's secretary, Miss Briggs, for Wayburn. She tells Miss Briggs she needs the money for the house.

Gloria and Wayburn go driving and the car overturns. Wayburn disappears. Gloria, badly hurt, is taken to the hospital. When she is better Dick goes to see her. She tells him all about her affair with Wayburn and he forgives her. But later when she goes home, she begins to be "blue" and unhappy. One night Dick finds her in tears.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY:
"What's the matter, honey?" he asked, yawning. "What are you crying about?"

Gloria raised her tear-stained face. "My arm aches," she said. "And I'm lonesome."

"Why should you be lonesome right here in your own house with me?" Gloria sniffed.

"You!" she cried. "You aren't here when you're asleep! Why don't you stay awake and talk to me?"

Dick laughed good-naturedly. He pulled his lacquer smoking-stand up beside his chair, and filled his pipe. It was a little short-stemmed briar pipe that smelled like a bonfire of autumn leaves.

He puffed for a while in silence. "Do you want me to tell you what ails you, Glory?" he asked at last. "What makes you so restless and unhappy?"

There was a troubled look in Gloria's eyes. She turned her wedding

"Good-by," she said to May, as she and Jim danced past the living-room door where she was standing.

I need to make me happy. It's dancing!"

Dick laughed. "Jazz baby," he said. "Tied up to a 9 o'clock husband!"

"Well, it's no joke—you needn't laugh!" Gloria answered him hotly. "I hate to stick around the house like this every night, slowly dying of dry rot. If this is married life, I hate it. So there!"

"Well, I'm sorry, Glory," Dick said soberly. "But I don't see how I can help you out."

He crossed the room to the book-cases and brought her a thick, shabby volume. "It was Flaubert's 'Madame Bovary.'"

"Here's a story of another woman who hated married life," he said. "Read it. There's a lesson in it for you, Glory."

Glory took the book and hurried it across the room.

"I don't want to read about life. I want to live it!" she cried. "You Sunday-school prig, you!"

Without another look or word Dick went out of the room. After a few minutes Gloria could hear the thud of his shoes on the floor of his room upstairs as he threw them down. Then came the sound of his window being raised. The hall clock struck nine.

"Ye gods!" Gloria wailed to herself. "What a life! Is this what I'm going to do every night for the next 50 years? Sit here, alone, waiting for the clock to strike?"

She hadn't noticed before how dead dull these evenings with Dick could be.

She was sure Dick didn't think they were dull. The mere fact that he was in the same room with her satisfied him. He often said so.

There was no doubt about it. Dick adored her. But she didn't want to be adored in that good, quiet way of his. She wanted to be thrilled—to be swept off her feet!

Gloria's thoughts swung back to Stanley Wayburn. Little flames seemed to prickle in her cheeks as she thought of the battle they had had that day when she had wrecked her automobile.

Stan had been rather too thrilling that day! She had been afraid of his hot kisses that seared her cheeks—of his hands pinning her arms down to her sides.

Yes, she was glad that she had struck him! He had gone too far. But it would be nice to see him again, all the same.

Gloria missed him terribly. Gloria sighed as she stood up. Her feet were asleep. She went painfully around the room, snapping off the lights.

She lay awake, tossing on her pillow until midnight—thinking of Stanley Wayburn.

The next morning Gloria started out to walk to her mother's house. But on the way she changed her mind.

She would go to see May Seymour instead! May was always cheery and peppy. And Gloria felt that she was badly in need of both cheer and pep.

She found May in the kitchen washing her little chow dog, Mah Jong.

May's hair was wound up in curlers. She was in a pink crepe kimono and her face was shiny with traces of cold cream. She looked everything but pretty.

"Hello!" she greeted Gloria. "Look at me, breaking all the rules of 'How to hold a husband'! This is the way I hang around the house most of the time—looking like the witch of Endor! And John sees me this way and he goes right on loving me just as much as if I were a raving beauty. Can you beat it?"

"You cannot," Gloria answered, seating herself on one corner of the kitchen table. "But don't take too many chances, May. Men don't stay in love forever with wives who run around the house in curl papers and cold cream. They all fall for a pretty face."

May rolled the struggling, yipping Mah Jong into a towel before she replied.

"No," she said then. "You're all ring round and round on her finger nervously.

"Tell me," she said.

"Well—you're out of a job," Dick answered her.

"Oh, I might have known that was what you were going to say," Gloria snapped. "You think work is the answer to everything!"

Dick took his pipe out of his mouth. "It is," he said.

"Marriage is a job like everything else," he went on. "But you won't work at it. You'd be happy enough if you got up every morning and made the coffee and got breakfast. You wouldn't have so much time to cry about being lonesome if you had to dust the house every day. You'd have something to look forward to if you were sitting there making a little baby dress this minute. You haven't anything to do! That's all that's wrong with you, honey."

He tapped the tobacco from his pipe into an ash-tray and rose. "Think it over," he said.

Gloria tossed her head.

"You've got me all wrong, smartly," she cried. "It isn't dusting

"I tell you what, Gloria! We'll throw a party ourselves!" she cried.
"I'll get some of the old gang together for this afternoon! Eh, wot?"
"Fair enough! Let's do it!" Gloria was delighted. "I'm starved for a party."
May sat down at the telephone in Dr. John's study.
Gloria took Mah Jong into the living room where a wood fire was burning in the grate. She rubbed the little beast until he was dry and fluffy. The minute she set him down on the floor he scurried away to find May.

He was at her heels when she came into the room.
"I couldn't round up very many people," she said disconsolately. "I guess most of the girls are going to Mrs. Wing's party. But I got Ann Somers. And Jim is going to bring out a couple of boys from his office. Awfully nice fellows. I told them all to come for lunch. Will you run over to the delicatessen and get some cold-meat and a couple of pies while I get dressed and set the table?"

The delicatessen was a mile away. And when Gloria returned May's "party" was under way.
Ann Somers was making cinnamon toast in the kitchen. She was a shy little widow with mouse-colored hair and big gray eyes. She was very popular with men. She let them all make love to her and then she cried about it afterward. Apparently it made a great hit with them.
Jim Carewe called her "the red lily."

"Ann, you're some kid," he was saying to her when Gloria came into the kitchen. "You know doggoned well that you're not going to marry Ted Sawyer. Why don't you tell him so, instead of letting him dangle in the wind?"
Ann went on buttering her toast. She hadn't seen Gloria come into the kitchen.

"Well, I've got to have someone to take me around—since you won't, Jim," she answered softly. "Ted does as well as anyone."

Gloria coughed and cleared her throat.
"The nasty little cat!" she said to herself. "I'll bet she's trying to land Jim because of his money. In the meantime she's keeping this Ted hanging around in case Jim doesn't bite! Why can't Jim see through her?"
What fools men were to let women pull the wool over their eyes the way they did! Gloria felt like shaking Jim Carewe as she watched him pat Ann Somers' shoulder.

She banged her packages down on the kitchen table and went into the living room.

May was dancing the Texas Tommy for Ted Sawyer and Jim Collins, the two nice young salesmen from Jim's office.

Presently Jim came in with a tray of "horse's neck."

"Ann says lunch is ready," he said. "Isn't this a good party, boys?"

Everyone but Gloria seemed to think it was a good party. She couldn't dance because of her bandaged arm and shoulder. She didn't want her horse's neck or her cigarette. She felt "blue" somehow.

At 4 o'clock she went upstairs and got her hat.

"Good-by," she said to May, as she and Jim danced past the living-room door where she was standing.

That all the advantages imaginable cannot make a business great unless its owners realize the importance of continuous advertising and use its service in the development of its business.

That when a business concern realizes fully the value of advertising, nothing will retard its growth, for quality, continuously advertised, will supply the business needed.
